away from under it, and the fowls from his branches:

15 Nevertheless leave the stump of his roots in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass, in the tender grass of the field; and let it be wet with the [a] dew of heaven, and let his portion be with the beasts in the grass of the earth:

16 Let his heart be changed from man's, and let a beast's heart be given unto him; and let seven times pass over him.

17 This matter is by the decree of the watchers, and the demand by the word of the holy ones: to the intent that the living may know that the most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and [b] giveth it to whomsoever he will, and [c] setteth up over it the basest of men.

18 This dream I king Nĕb-ū-chăd-nĕz'-zär have seen. Now thou, O Bĕl-tē-shăz'-zär, declare the interpretation thereof, forasmuch as all the wise men of my kingdom are not able to make known unto me the interpretation: but thou art able; for the spirit of the holy gods is in thee.

19 ¶ Then Daniel, whose name was Bĕl-tē-shăz'-zär, was astonied for one hour, and his thoughts troubled him. The king spake, and said, Belteshazzar, let not the dream, or the interpretation thereof, trouble thee. Belteshazzar answered and said, My lord, the dream be to them that hate thee, and the interpretation thereof to thine enemies.

20 [g] The tree that thou sawest, which grew, and was strong, whose height reached unto the heaven, and the sight thereof to all the earth;

21 Whose leaves were fair, and the fruit thereof much, and in it was meat for all; under which the beasts of the field dwelt, and upon whose branches the fowls of the heaven had their habitation:

22 It is thou, O king, that art grown and become strong: for thy greatness is grown, and reacheth unto heaven, and thy dominion to the end of the earth.

23 And whereas the king saw a watcher and an holy one coming down from heaven, and saying, Hew the tree down, and destroy it; yet leave the stump of the roots thereof in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass, in the tender grass of the field; and let it be wet with the dew of heaven, and let his portion be with the beasts of the field, till seven times pass over him;

24 This is the interpretation, O king, and this is the decree of the most High, which is come upon my lord the king:

25 That they shall drive thee from men, and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field, and they shall make thee to eat grass as oxen, and they shall wet thee with the dew of heaven, and seven times shall pass over thee, till thou know that the most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will.

26 And whereas they commanded to leave the stump of the tree roots; thy kingdom shall be sure unto thee, after that thou shalt have known that the heavens do rule.

27 Wherefore, O king, let my counsel be acceptable unto thee, and [d] break off thy sins by [e] righteousness, and thine iniquities by shewing mercy to the poor; if it may be a lengthening of thy tranquillity.

28 ¶ All this came upon the king Nĕb-ū-chăd-nĕz'-zär.

29 At the end of twelve months he walked in the palace of the kingdom of [f] Babylon.

30 [h] The king spake, and said, Is not this great Babylon, that I have built for the house of the kingdom by the might of my power, and for the honour of my majesty?

31 While the word was in the king's mouth, there fell a voice from heaven, saying, O king Nĕb-ū-chăd-nĕz'-zär, to thee it is spoken; The kingdom is departed from thee.

32 And they shall drive thee from men, and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field: they shall make thee to eat grass as oxen, and seven times shall pass over thee, until thou know that the most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will.

33 The same hour was the thing fulfilled upon Nĕb-ū-chăd-nĕz′-zär: and he was driven from men, and did eat grass as oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven, till his hairs were grown like eagles' feathers, and his nails like birds' claws.

34 And at the end of the days I Nĕb-ū-chăd-nĕz′-zär lifted up mine eyes unto heaven, and mine understanding returned unto me, and [d] I blessed the most High, and I praised and honoured him that liveth for ever, whose dominion is an everlasting dominion, and his kingdom is from generation to generation:

35 And [g] all the inhabitants of the earth are reputed as nothing: and [i] he doeth according to his will in the army of heaven, and among the inhabitants of the earth: and [k] none can stay his hand, or say unto him, [m] What doest thou?

36 At the same time my reason returned unto me; and for the glory of my kingdom, mine honour and brightness returned unto me; and my counsellors and my lords sought unto me; and I was established in my kingdom, and excellent majesty was added unto me.

37 Now I Nĕb-ū-chăd-nĕz′-zär praise and extol and honour the King of heaven, [q] all whose works are truth, and his ways judgment: and [r] those that walk in pride he is able to abase.

CHAPTER 5

[t] BĔL-SHĂZ′-ZÄR the king [u] made a great feast to a thousand of his lords, and drank wine before the thousand.

2 Bĕl-shăz′-zär, whiles he tasted the wine, commanded to bring the golden and silver vessels [z] which his father Nĕb-ū-chăd-nĕz′-zär had taken out of the temple which was in Jerusalem; that the king, and his princes, his wives, and his concubines, might drink therein.

3 Then they brought the golden vessels that were taken out of the temple of the house of God which was at Jerusalem; and the king, and his princes, his wives, and his concubines, drank in them.

4 They drank wine, and [a] praised the [b] gods of gold, and of silver, of brass, of iron, of wood, and of stone.

5 ¶ In the same hour [c] came forth fingers of a man's hand, and wrote over against the candlestick upon the plaister of the wall of the king's palace: and the king saw the part of the hand that wrote.

6 Then the king's countenance was changed, and [e] his thoughts troubled him, so that the joints of his loins were loosed, and [f] his knees smote one against another.

7 The king cried aloud to bring in the astrologers, the [h] Chăl-dē′-ăns, and the soothsayers. And the king spake, and said to the wise men of Babylon, Whosoever shall read this writing, and shew me the [l] interpretation thereof, shall be clothed with [2n] scarlet, and have a chain of gold about his neck, and shall be the [o] third ruler in the kingdom.

8 Then came in all the king's wise men: but they [p] could not read the writing, nor make known to the king the interpretation thereof.

9 Then was king Bĕl-shăz′-zär greatly troubled, and his countenance was changed in him, and his lords were astonied.

10 ¶ Now the queen by reason of the words of the king and his lords came into the banquet house: and the queen spake and said, [s] O king, live for ever: let not thy thoughts trouble thee, nor let thy countenance be changed:

11 There is a man in thy kingdom, [x] in whom is the spirit of the holy [y] gods; and in the days of thy father light and understanding and wisdom, like the wisdom of the gods, was found in him; whom the king Nĕb-ū-chăd-nĕz′-zär thy father, the king, I say, thy father, made [a] master of the [b] magicians, astrologers, Chăl-dē′-ăns, and soothsayers; of hard sentences, and dissolving of doubts, were found in the same Daniel, whom the king named [a] Bĕl-tē-shăz'-zär: now let Daniel be called, and he will shew the interpretation.

13 Then was Daniel brought in before the king. And the king spake and said unto Daniel, Art thou that Daniel, which art of the [e] children of the captivity of Judah, whom the king my father brought out of Jewry?

14 I have even heard of thee, that the spirit of the gods is in thee, and that light and understanding and excellent wisdom is found in thee.

15 And now the wise men, the astrologers, have been brought in before me, that they should read this writing, and make known unto me the interpretation thereof: but they could not shew the interpretation of the thing:

16 And I have heard of thee, that thou canst make interpretations, and dissolve doubts: now [l] if thou canst read the writing, and make known to me the interpretation thereof, thou shalt be clothed with scarlet, and have a chain of gold about thy neck, and shalt be the third ruler in the kingdom.

17 ¶ Then Daniel answered and said before the king, Let thy gifts be to thyself, and give thy rewards to another; yet I will read the writing unto the king, and make known to him the interpretation.

18 O thou king, the [q] most high God [r] gave Nĕb-ū-chăd-nĕz'-zär thy father a kingdom, and majesty, and glory, and honour:

19 And for the majesty that he gave him, [t] all people, nations, and languages, trembled and feared before him: whom he would he slew; and whom he would he kept alive; and whom he would he set up; and whom he would he put down.

20 But when [x] his heart was lifted up, and his mind hardened in pride, he was deposed from his kingly throne, and they took his glory from him:

21 And [b] he was driven from the sons of men; and his heart was made like the beasts, and his dwelling was with the wild asses: they fed him with grass like oxen, and his body was wet with the [b] dew of heaven; till he knew that the most high God ruled in the kingdom of men, and that [c] he appointeth over it whomsoever he will.

22 And thou his son, O Bĕl-shăz'-zär, [d] hast not humbled thine heart, though thou knewest all this;

23 But [f] hast lifted up thyself against the [g] Lord of heaven; and they have brought the vessels of his house before thee, and thou, and thy lords, thy wives, and thy concubines, have drunk wine in them; and thou hast praised the gods of silver, and gold, of brass, iron, wood, and stone, [h] which see not, nor hear, nor know: and the God [i] in whose hand thy breath is, and [k] whose are all thy ways, hast thou not glorified:

24 Then was the part of the hand sent from him; and this writing was written.

25 ¶ And this is the writing that was written, MĒ'-NĒ, MENE, TEKEL, Ū-PHĂR'-SĪN.

26 This is the interpretation of the thing: MĒ'-NĒ; God hath numbered thy kingdom, and finished it.

27 TEKEL; Thou art [m] weighed in the balances, and art found wanting.

28 PĒ'-RĔS; Thy kingdom is divided, and given to the [n] Medes and [o] Persians.

29 Then commanded Bĕl-shăz'-zär, and they [p] clothed Daniel with scarlet, and put a chain of gold about his neck, and made a proclamation concerning him, that he should be the third ruler in the kingdom.

30 ¶ [s] In that night was Bĕl-shăz'-zär the king of the Chăl-dē'-ăns slain.

31 And [u] Dă-rī'-ŭs the Mē'-dĭ-ăn took the kingdom, being about threescore and two years old.

them, and the king should have no damage.

3 Then this Daniel was preferred above the presidents and princes, because an [a] excellent spirit was in him; and the king thought to set him [b] over the whole realm.

4 ¶ Then the presidents and princes [d] sought to find occasion against Daniel concerning the kingdom; but they could find none occasion nor fault; forasmuch as he was faithful, neither was there any error or fault found in him.

5 Then said these men, We shall not find any occasion against this Daniel, except we find it against him concerning the law of his God.

6 Then these presidents and princes assembled together to the king, and said thus unto him, [f] King Dă-rī'-ŭs, live for ever.

7 All the presidents of the kingdom, the governors, and the princes, the counsellors, and the captains, have consulted together to establish a royal statute, and to make a firm decree, that whosoever shall ask a petition of any God or man for thirty days, save of thee, O king, he shall be cast into the den of lions.

8 Now, O king, establish the decree, and sign the writing, that it be not changed, [i] according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which altereth not.

9 Wherefore king Dă-rī'-ŭs signed the writing and the decree.

10 ¶ Now when Daniel knew that the writing was signed, he went into his house; and his windows being open in his chamber [m] toward Jerusalem, he [n] kneeled upon his knees three times a day, and [o] prayed, and gave thanks before his God, as he did aforetime.

11 Then these men assembled, and found Daniel praying and making supplication before his God.

12 Then they [q] came near, and spake before the king concerning the king's decree; Hast thou not signed a decree, that every man that shall ask a petition of any God or man within thirty days, save of thee, O king, shall be cast into the den of lions? The king answered and said, The thing is true, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which altereth not.

13 Then answered they and said before the king, That Daniel, which is of the [c] children of the captivity of Judah, [e] regardeth not thee, O king, nor the decree that thou hast signed, but maketh his petition three times a day.

14 Then the king, when he heard these words, was sore displeased with himself, and set his heart on Daniel to deliver him: and he laboured till the going down of the sun to deliver him.

15 Then these men assembled unto the king, and said unto the king, Know, O king, that the law of the Medes and Persians is, That no decree nor statute which the king establisheth may be changed.

16 Then the king commanded, and they brought Daniel, and cast him into the den of lions. Now the king spake and said unto Daniel, [g] Thy God whom thou servest continually, he will deliver thee.

17 And a stone was brought, and laid upon the mouth of the den; and the king sealed it with his own [h] signet, and with the signet of his lords; that the purpose might not be changed concerning Daniel.

18 ¶ Then the king went to his palace, and passed the night [k] fasting: neither were instruments of musick brought before him: and his [l] sleep went from him.

19 Then the king arose very early in the morning, and went in haste unto the den of lions.

20 And when he came to the den, he cried with a lamentable voice unto Daniel: and the king spake and said to Daniel, O Daniel, servant of the [p] living God, is thy God, whom thou servest continually, able to deliver thee from the lions?

21 Then said Daniel unto the king, O king, live for ever.

22 My God [r] hath sent his angel, and hath shut the lions' mouths, that they have not hurt me: forasmuch as before him innocency was found in me; and also before thee, O king, have I done no hurt.

23 Then was the king exceeding glad for him, and commanded that they should take Daniel up out of the den. So Daniel was taken up out of the den, and no manner of hurt was found upon him, because he believed in his God.

24 ¶ And the king commanded, and they brought those men which had [a] accused Daniel, and they [b] cast them into the den of lions, them, [c] their children, and their wives; and the lions had the mastery of them, and brake all their bones in pieces or ever they came at the bottom of the den.

25 ¶ Then king Dă-rī'-ŭs wrote unto [d] all people, nations, and languages, that dwell in all the earth; [e] Peace be multiplied unto you.

26 [g] I make a decree, That in every dominion of my kingdom men tremble and fear before the God of Daniel: for he is the living God, and stedfast for ever, and [i] his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed, and his dominion shall be even unto the end.

27 He delivereth and rescueth, and he [l] worketh signs and wonders in heaven and in earth, who hath delivered Daniel from the power of the lions.

28 So this Daniel [o] prospered in the reign of Dă-rī'-ŭs, and in the reign of [r] Cyrus the Persian.

CHAPTER 7

IN the first year of [t] Bĕl-shăz'-zär king of Babylon Daniel had a dream and [x] visions of his head upon his bed: then he wrote the dream, and told the sum of the matters.

2 Daniel spake and said, I saw in my vision by night, and, behold, the [b] four winds of the heaven strove upon the great sea.

3 And four great beasts [c] came up from the sea, diverse one from another.

4 The first was like a lion, and had [d] eagle's wings: I beheld till the wings thereof were plucked, and it was lifted up from the earth, and made stand upon the feet as a man, and a man's heart was given to it.

5 And behold another beast, a second, like to a bear, and it raised up itself on one side, and it had three ribs in the mouth of it between the teeth of it: and they said thus unto it, Arise, devour much flesh.

6 After this I beheld, and lo another, like a leopard, which had upon the back of it four wings of a fowl; the beast had also four heads; and dominion was given to it.

7 After this I saw in the night visions, and behold a fourth beast, dreadful and terrible, and strong exceedingly; and it had great iron teeth: it devoured and brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with the feet of it: and it was diverse from all the beasts that were before it; and it had [f] ten horns.

8 I considered the horns, and, behold, there came up among them [h] another little horn, before whom there were three of the first horns plucked up by the roots: and, behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of man, and [k] a mouth speaking great things.

9 ¶ I beheld till the thrones were [2] cast down, and the Ancient of days did sit, whose garment was [m] white as snow, and the [n] hair of his head like the pure wool: his [p] throne was like the fiery flame, and his [q] wheels as burning fire.

10 [s] A fiery stream issued and came forth from before him: thousand thousands [u] ministered unto him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him: the [y] judgment was set, and [z] the books were opened.

11 I beheld then because of the voice of the great words which the horn spake: I beheld even till [a] the beast was slain, and his body destroyed, and given to the burning flame.

12 As concerning the rest of the beasts, they had their dominion taken away: yet their lives were prolonged for a season and time.

13 I saw in the night visions, and, behold, [e] one like [3] the Son of man

[a] came with the clouds of heaven, and came to the Ancient of days, and they brought him near before him.

14 And there was given him dominion, and glory, and a [b] kingdom, that [d] all people, nations, and languages, should serve him: his dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed.

15 ¶ I Daniel was grieved in my spirit in the midst of my body, and the visions of my head [g] troubled me.

16 I came near unto one of them that stood by, and asked him the truth of all this. So he told me, and made me know the [h] interpretation of the things.

17 These great beasts, which are four, are four kings, which shall arise out of the earth.

18 But [i] the saints of the [k] most High shall take the kingdom, and possess the kingdom for ever, even for ever and ever.

19 Then I would know the truth of the fourth beast, which was diverse from all the others, exceeding dreadful, whose teeth were of iron, and his nails of brass; which devoured, brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with his feet;

20 And of the ten horns that were in his head, and of the other which came up, and before whom three fell; even of that horn that had eyes, and a mouth that spake very great things, whose look was more stout than his fellows.

21 I beheld, and the same horn [q] made war with the saints, and prevailed against them;

22 Until the Ancient of days came, and [r] judgment was given to the saints of the most High; and the time came that [s] the saints possessed the kingdom.

23 Thus he said, The fourth beast shall be the fourth kingdom upon earth, which shall be diverse from all kingdoms, and shall devour the whole earth, and shall tread it down, and break it in pieces.

24 And the ten horns out of this kingdom are ten kings that shall arise: and another shall rise after them; and he shall be diverse from the first, and he shall subdue three kings.

25 And [c] he shall speak great words against the most High, and shall wear out the saints of the most High, and [e] think to change times and laws: and they shall be given into his hand until a [f] time and times and the dividing of time.

26 But the judgment shall sit, and they shall take away his dominion, to consume and to destroy it unto the end.

27 And the kingdom and dominion, and the greatness of the kingdom under the whole heaven, shall be given to the people of the saints of the most High, whose kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions shall serve and obey him.

28 Hitherto is the end of the matter. As for me Daniel, my cogitations much troubled me, and my countenance changed in me: but [t] I kept the matter in my heart.

CHAPTER 8

IN the third year of the reign of king [m] Bĕl-shăz'zär a vision appeared unto me, even unto me Daniel, after that which appeared unto me at the first.

2 And I saw in a [n] vision; and it came to pass, when I saw, that I was at [o] Shû'shăn in the palace, which is in the province of [p] Elam; and I saw in a vision, and I was by the river of U'lâi.

3 Then I lifted up mine eyes, and saw, and, behold, there stood before the river a ram which had two horns: and the two horns were high; but one was higher than the other, and the higher came up last.

4 I saw the ram pushing westward, and northward, and southward; so that no beasts might stand before him, neither was there any that could deliver out of his hand; but [t] he did according to his will, and became great.

5 And as I was considering, behold, an he goat came from the west on the face of the whole earth, and touched not the ground: and the goat had a notable horn between his eyes.

6 And he came to the ram that had two horns, which I had seen standing before the river, and ran unto him in the fury of his power.

7 And I saw him come close unto the ram, and he was moved with choler against him, and smote the ram, and brake his two horns: and there was no power in the ram to stand before him, but he cast him down to the ground, and stamped upon him: and there was none that could deliver the ram out of his hand.

8 Therefore the he goat waxed very great: and when he was strong, the great horn was broken; and for it came up four notable ones toward the [i] four winds of heaven.

9 And out of one of them came forth [m] a little horn, which waxed exceeding great, toward the south, and toward the east, and toward the [2 o] pleasant land.

10 And it waxed great, [r] even to the host of heaven; and [s] it cast down some of the host and of the stars to the ground, and stamped upon them.

11 Yea, he [t] magnified himself even to the [x] prince of the host, and by him [3] the [y] daily sacrifice was taken away, and the place of his sanctuary was cast down.

12 [4] And an host was given him against the daily sacrifice by reason of transgression, and it cast down the truth to the ground; and it practised, [c] and prospered.

13 ¶ Then I heard [e] one saint speaking, and another saint said unto that certain saint which spake, [g] How long shall be the vision concerning the daily sacrifice, and [i] the transgression of [l] desolation, to give both the sanctuary and the host to be trodden under foot?

14 And he said unto me, Unto two thousand and three hundred days; then shall the sanctuary be [q] cleansed.

15 ¶ And it came to pass, when I, even I Daniel, had seen the vision, and sought for the meaning, then, behold, there stood before me [r] as the appearance of a man.

16 And [a] I heard a man's voice between the banks of Ū'-lâi, which called, and said, [b] Gā'-brĭ-ĕl, make this man to understand the vision.

17 So he came near where I stood: and when he came, I was afraid, and [c] fell upon my face: but he said unto me, Understand, O [d] son of man: for at the [e] time of the end shall be the vision.

18 Now as he was speaking with me, I was in a [f] deep sleep on my face toward the ground: but he [g] touched me, and set me upright.

19 And he said, Behold, I will make thee know what shall be in the last end of the [h] indignation: for at the time appointed the end shall be.

20 The ram which thou sawest having two horns are the kings of [k] Mē'-dĭ-ă and [l] Persia.

21 And the rough goat is the king of [n] Grē'-çĭ-ă: and the great horn that is between his eyes is the [p] first king.

22 [q] Now that being broken, whereas four stood up for it, four kingdoms shall stand up out of the nation, but not in his power.

23 And in the latter time of their kingdom, when the transgressors [u] are come to the full, a king of fierce countenance, and understanding [z] dark sentences, shall stand up.

24 And his power shall be mighty, [a] but not by his own power: and he [b] shall destroy wonderfully, and shall prosper, and practise, and shall destroy the mighty and the holy people.

25 And [d] through his policy also he shall cause craft to prosper in his hand; and he shall [f] magnify himself in his heart, and [5 h] by peace shall destroy many: he shall also stand up against the [k] Prince of princes; but he shall be broken [m] without hand.

26 And the [n] vision of the evening and the morning which was told is true: wherefore [o] shut thou up the vision; for [p] it shall be for many days.

27 And I Daniel fainted, and was sick certain days; afterward I rose up, and did the king's business; and I was astonished at the vision, but none understood it.

CHAPTER 9

538 B.C.

IN the first year of [b] Dă-rī'-ŭs the son of Ă-hăs-ū-ē'-rŭs, of the seed of the [d] Medes, which was made king over the realm of the Chăl-dē'-ăns;

2 In the first year of his reign I Daniel [g] understood by books the [i] number of the years, whereof [k] the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah the prophet, that he would accomplish [l] seventy years in the desolations of Jerusalem.

3 ¶ And I set my face unto the Lord God, to seek by prayer and supplications, with [n] fasting, and [o] sackcloth, and ashes:

4 And I prayed unto the LORD my God, and [p] made my confession, and said, O Lord, [q] the great and [r] dreadful God, [s] keeping the covenant and [t] mercy to [u] them that love him, and to them that keep his commandments;

5 We have sinned, and have committed iniquity, and have done wickedly, and [z] have rebelled, even [a] by departing from thy precepts and from thy judgments:

6 Neither have we hearkened unto [d] thy servants the prophets, which spake in thy name to our kings, our princes, and our fathers, and to all the people of the land.

7 O Lord, [f] righteousness belongeth unto thee, but unto us [g] confusion of faces, as at this day; to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and unto all Israel, that are near, and that are far off, [k] through all the countries whither thou hast driven them, because of their trespass that they have trespassed against thee.

8 O Lord, to us belongeth confusion of face, to our kings, to our princes, [o] and to our fathers, because we have sinned against thee.

9 [q] To the Lord our God belong mercies and forgivenesses, though we have rebelled against him;

10 [s] Neither have we obeyed the voice of the LORD our God, [t] to walk in his laws, which he set before us by his servants the prophets.

11 Yea, all Israel [a] have transgressed thy law, even by departing, that they might not obey thy voice; [c] therefore the curse is poured upon us, and the oath [e] that is written in the law of [f] Moses the servant of God, because we have sinned against him.

12 And [h] he hath confirmed his words, which he spake against us, and against our judges that judged us, by bringing upon us a great evil: for under the whole heaven hath not been done as hath been done upon Jerusalem.

13 As it is written [m] in the law of Moses, all this evil is come upon us: yet made we not our prayer before the LORD our God, that we might turn from our iniquities, and understand thy truth.

14 Therefore hath the LORD [x] watched upon the evil, and brought it upon us: for [y] the LORD our God is righteous in all his works which he doeth: for we obeyed not his voice.

15 And now, O Lord our God, that [b] hast brought thy people forth out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand, and [c] hast gotten thee renown, as at this day; we have sinned, we have done wickedly.

16 ¶ O Lord, according to all thy righteousness, [e] I beseech thee, let thine anger and thy fury be turned away from thy city Jerusalem, [h] thy holy mountain: [i] because for our sins, and for the iniquities of our fathers, Jerusalem and thy people are become a [l] reproach to all that are about us.

17 Now therefore, O our God, hear the prayer of thy servant, and his supplications, and [m] cause thy face to shine upon thy sanctuary that is [n] desolate, for the Lord's sake.

18 O my God, incline thine ear, and hear; [p] open thine eyes, and behold our desolations, and [r] the city which is called by thy name: for we do not present our supplications before thee for our righteousnesses, but for thy [u] great mercies.

19 O Lord, hear; O Lord, forgive; O Lord, hearken and do; defer not, for thine own sake, O my God: for thy city and thy people are called by thy name.

20 ¶ And whiles I was speaking, and praying, and confessing my sin and the sin of my people Israel, and presenting my supplication before the LORD my God for the holy mountain of my God;

21 Yea, whiles I was speaking in prayer, even [e] the man [f] Gā'brĭ-ĕl, whom I had seen in the vision at the beginning, being caused to fly swiftly, [i] touched me about the time of the [k] evening oblation.

22 And he informed me, and talked with me, and said, O Daniel, I am now come forth to give thee skill and understanding.

23 At the beginning of thy supplications the commandment came forth, and I am come to shew thee; for thou art [q] greatly beloved: therefore understand the matter, and consider the vision.

24 Seventy weeks are determined upon thy people and upon thy [s] holy city, to finish the transgression, and to make an end of sins, and [x] to make reconciliation for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to [z] seal up the vision and [5] prophecy, and to [b] anoint the [6c] most Holy.

25 Know therefore and understand, that from the going forth of the commandment to restore and to build Jerusalem unto the [7f] Messiah [g] the Prince shall be seven weeks, and threescore and two weeks: the street shall be built again, and the wall, even in troublous times.

26 And after threescore and two weeks shall Messiah be cut off, [8] but not for himself: and the people of the prince that shall come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary; and the end thereof shall be with a flood, and unto the end of the war desolations are determined.

27 And he shall confirm the covenant with many for one week: and in the midst of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease, and [9] for the overspreading of [m] abominations he shall make it desolate, even until the [a] consummation, and that determined shall be poured upon the [2] desolate.

CHAPTER 10

IN the third year of [b] Cyrus king of [c] Persia a thing was revealed unto Daniel, whose name was called [d] Bĕl-tē-shăz'-zär; and the thing was true, [3] but the [g] time appointed was long: and he understood the thing, and [h] had understanding of the vision.

2 In those days I Daniel was mourning three full weeks.

3 [l] I ate no pleasant bread, neither came flesh nor wine in my mouth, neither did I [m] anoint myself at all, till [n] three whole weeks were fulfilled.

4 And in the four and twentieth day of the [o] first month, as I was by the side of the great river, which is [4p] Hĭd'-dĕ-kĕl;

5 Then I lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and [r] behold a certain man clothed in linen, whose loins were girded with fine gold of [t] Ū'-phăz:

6 His body also was like the [u] beryl, and his face as the appearance of [y] lightning, and his eyes as lamps of fire, and his arms and his feet like in colour to [a] polished brass, and the [d] voice of his words like the voice of a multitude.

7 And I Daniel alone saw the vision: for the men that were with me [e] saw not the vision; but a great quaking fell upon them, so that they fled to hide themselves.

8 Therefore I was left alone, and saw this great vision, and there remained no strength in me: for my comeliness was turned in me into corruption, and I retained no strength.

9 Yet heard I the voice of his words: and when I heard the voice of his words, then was I in a [h] deep sleep [i] on my face, and my face toward the ground.

10 ¶ And, behold, an hand [k] touched me, which set me upon my knees and upon the palms of my hands.

11 And he said unto me, O Daniel, a man [l] greatly beloved, understand the words that I speak unto thee, and

[a] stand upright: for unto thee am I now sent. And when he had spoken this word unto me, I stood [b] trembling.

12 Then said he unto me, [d] Fear not, Daniel: for from the first day that thou didst set thine heart to understand, and [e] to chasten thyself before thy God, [g] thy words were heard, and I am come for thy words.

13 But the prince of the kingdom of Persia withstood me [h] one and twenty days: but, lo, [k] Michael, one of the [m] chief princes, came to help me; and I remained there with the kings of Persia.

14 Now I am come to make thee understand what shall befall thy people [q] in the latter days: for yet [r] the vision is for many days.

15 And when he had spoken such words unto me, I set my face toward the ground, and I became [s] dumb.

16 And, behold, one like the similitude of the sons of men [t] touched my lips: then I opened my mouth, and spake, and said unto him that stood before me, O my lord, by the vision my sorrows are turned upon me, and I have retained no strength.

17 For how can the servant of this my lord talk with this my lord? for as for me, straightway there remained no strength in me, neither is there breath left in me.

18 Then there came again and touched me one like the appearance of a man, and he strengthened me,

19 And said, O man greatly beloved, fear not: [u] peace be unto thee, be strong, yea, be strong. And when he had spoken unto me, I was strengthened, and said, Let my lord speak; for thou hast strengthened me.

20 Then said he, Knowest thou wherefore I come unto thee? and now will I return to fight with the prince of Persia: and when I am gone forth, lo, the prince of [4y] Grē'çĭ-ă shall come.

21 But I will shew thee that which is noted in the scripture of truth: and there is none that holdeth with me in these things, but [z] Michael your prince.

CHAPTER 11

ALSO I in the first year of [c] Dă-rī'ŭs the Mede, even I, stood to confirm and to strengthen him.

2 And now will I shew thee the truth. Behold, there shall stand up yet three kings in [f] Persia; and the fourth shall be far richer than they all: and by his strength through his riches he shall stir up all against the realm of [2i] Grē'çĭ-ă.

3 And a [l] mighty king shall stand up, that shall rule with great dominion, and [n] do according to his will.

4 And when he shall stand up, [o] his kingdom shall be broken, and shall be divided toward the [p] four winds of heaven; and not to his posterity, nor according to his dominion which he ruled: for his kingdom shall be plucked up, even for others beside those.

5 ¶ And the king of the south shall be strong, and one of his princes; and he shall be strong above him, and have dominion; his dominion shall be a great dominion.

6 And in the end of years they shall join themselves together; for the king's daughter of the south shall come to the king of the north to make an agreement: but she shall not retain the power of the arm; neither shall he stand, nor his arm: but she shall be given up, and they that brought her, and he that begat her, and he that strengthened her in these times.

7 But out of a branch of her roots shall one stand up in his estate, which shall come with an army, and shall enter into the fortress of the king of the north, and shall deal against them, and shall prevail:

8 And shall also [x] carry captives into Egypt their gods, with their princes, and with their precious vessels of silver and of gold; and he shall [3] continue more years than the king of the north.

9 So the king of the south shall come into his kingdom, and shall return into his own land.

10 But his sons shall be stirred up, and shall assemble a multitude of great forces: and one shall certainly come, and overflow, and pass through: then shall he return, and be stirred up, even to his fortress.

11 And the king of the south shall be moved with choler, and shall come forth and fight with him, even with the king of the north: and he shall set forth a great multitude; but the multitude shall be given into his hand.

12 And when he hath taken away the multitude, [d] his heart shall be lifted up; and he shall cast down many ten thousands: but he shall not be strengthened by it.

13 For the king of the north shall return, and shall set forth a multitude greater than the former, and shall certainly come after certain years with a great army and with much [g] riches.

14 And in those times there shall many stand up against the king of the south: also the robbers of thy people shall exalt themselves to establish the vision; but they shall fall.

15 So the king of the north shall come, and [h] cast up a mount, and take the most fenced cities: and the arms of the south shall not withstand, neither his chosen people, neither shall there be any strength to withstand.

16 But he that cometh against him shall do according to his own will, and none shall stand before him: and he shall stand in the [i] glorious land, which by his hand shall be consumed.

17 He shall also set his face to enter with the strength of his whole kingdom, and upright ones with him; thus shall he do: and he shall give him the daughter of women, corrupting her: but she shall not stand on his side, neither be for him.

18 After this shall he turn his face unto the [3n] isles, and shall take many: but a prince for his own behalf shall cause the reproach offered by him to cease; without his own reproach he shall cause it to turn upon him.

19 Then he shall turn his face toward the fort of his own land: but he shall stumble and fall, and not be found.

20 Then shall stand up in his estate a [4p] raiser of taxes in the glory of the kingdom: but within few days he shall be destroyed, neither in anger, nor in battle.

21 And in his estate shall stand up a vile person, to whom they shall not give the honour of the kingdom: but he shall come [2a] in peaceably, and obtain the kingdom by [b] flatteries.

22 And with the arms of a [c] flood shall they be overflown from before him, and shall be broken; yea, also the prince of the covenant.

23 And after the league made with him he shall work [e] deceitfully: for he shall come up, and shall become strong with a small people.

24 He shall enter peaceably even upon the [f] fattest places of the province; and he shall do that which his fathers have not done, nor his fathers' fathers; he shall scatter among them the prey, and spoil, and riches: yea, and he shall forecast his devices against the strong holds, even for a time.

25 And he shall stir up his power and his courage against the king of the south with a great army; and the king of the south shall be stirred up to battle with a very great and mighty army; but he shall not stand: for they shall forecast devices against him.

26 Yea, they that feed of the portion of his meat shall destroy him, and his army shall overflow: and many shall fall down slain.

27 And both these kings' hearts shall be to do mischief, and they shall speak lies at one table; but [k] it shall not prosper: for yet the [l] end shall be at the time appointed.

28 Then shall he return into his land with great riches; and his heart shall be [m] against the holy covenant; and he shall do exploits, and return to his own land.

29 At the time appointed he shall return, and come toward the south; but it shall not be as the former, or as the latter.

30 ¶ For the ships of [o] Chittim shall come against him: therefore he shall be grieved, and return, and have indignation against the holy covenant: so shall he do; he shall even return,

33 And [i] they that understand among the people shall instruct many: yet they shall fall by [k] the sword, and by flame, by captivity, and by spoil, many days.

34 Now when they shall fall, they shall be holpen with a little help: but many shall cleave to them with flatteries.

35 And some of them of understanding shall fall, to try them, and to [n] purge, and to make them white, even to the [o] time of the end: because it is yet for a time appointed.

36 And the king shall do according to his will; and he shall [p] exalt himself, and magnify himself above every god, and shall [r] speak marvellous things against the [s] God of gods, and shall [t] prosper [u] till the indignation be accomplished: for that that is determined shall be done.

37 Neither shall he regard the God of his fathers, nor the desire of women, nor regard any god: for he shall [z] magnify himself above all.

38 But in his estate shall he honour the God of forces: and a god whom his fathers knew not shall he honour with gold, and silver, and with precious stones, and pleasant things.

39 Thus shall he do in the most strong holds with a strange god, whom he shall acknowledge and increase with glory: and he shall cause them to rule over many, and shall divide the land for gain.

40 And at the time of the end shall the king of the south push at him: and the king of the north shall come against him like a whirlwind, with chariots, and with horsemen, and with many ships; and he shall enter into the countries, and shall overflow and pass over.

41 He shall enter also into the glorious land, and many countries shall be overthrown: but these shall escape out of his hand, even [d] Edom, and [e] Moab, and the chief of the children of [f] Ammon.

42 He shall stretch forth his hand also upon the countries: and the [h] land of Egypt shall not escape.

43 But he shall have power over the treasures of gold and of silver, and over all the precious things of Egypt: and the [l] Libyans and the [m] Ethiopians shall be at his steps.

44 But tidings out of the east and out of the north shall trouble him: therefore he shall go forth with great fury to destroy, and utterly to make away many.

45 And he shall plant the tabernacles of his palace between the seas in the glorious holy mountain; yet he shall come to his end, and none shall help him.

CHAPTER 12

AND at that time shall [q] Michael stand up, the great prince which standeth for the children of thy people: and there shall be [x] a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation even to that same time: and at that time thy people shall be delivered, every one that shall be found [y] written in the book.

2 And many of them that sleep in the dust of the earth [a] shall awake, some to [b] everlasting life, and some to shame and [c] everlasting [2] contempt.

3 And [d] they that be wise [e] shall shine as the brightness of the firmament; and [f] they that turn many to righteousness as the stars for ever and ever.

4 But thou, O Daniel, shut up the words, and [g] seal the book, even to the [h] time of the end: many shall [i] run to and fro, and knowledge shall be increased.

5 ¶ Then I Daniel looked, and, behold, there stood [k] other two, the one on this side of the bank of the river,

HOSEA

CHAPTER 1

THE word of the LORD that came unto Hosea, the son of Bĕĕr-ī, in the days of Ŭz-zī-ăh, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hĕz-ē-kī-ăh, kings of Judah, and [c] in the days of [d] Jĕr-ŏ-bō-ăm the son of Joash, king of Israel.

2 The beginning of the word of the LORD by Hosea. And the LORD said to Hosea, [e] Go, take unto thee a wife of whoredoms and children of whoredoms: for the land hath [f] committed great whoredom, departing from the LORD.

3 So he went and took Gomer the daughter of Dĭb-lā-ĭm; which conceived, and bare him a son.

4 And the LORD said unto him, Call his name Jezreel; for yet a little while, and [l] I will avenge [m] the blood of Jezreel upon the house of Jehu, and [n] will cause to cease the kingdom of the house of Israel.

5 And it shall come to pass at that day, that I will break the bow of Israel in the [p] valley of Jezreel.

6 ¶ And she conceived again, and bare a daughter. And God said unto him, Call her name [3] Lō-rû-hā-măh: for [q] I will no more have mercy upon the house of Israel; but I will utterly take them away.

7 But [a] I will have mercy upon the house of Judah, and will save them by the LORD their God, and [b] will not save them by bow, nor by sword, nor by battle, by horses, nor by horsemen.

8 ¶ Now when she had weaned Lō-rû-hā-măh, she conceived, and bare a son.

9 Then said God, Call his name [2] Lō-ăm-mī: for ye are not my people, and I will not be your God.

10 ¶ Yet the number of the children of Israel shall be [g] as the sand of the sea, which cannot be measured nor numbered; and [h] it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people, there it shall be said unto them, [i] Ye are the sons of [k] the living God.

11 Then shall the children of Judah and the children of Israel be gathered together, and [o] appoint themselves one head, and they shall come up out of the land: for great shall be the day of Jezreel.

CHAPTER 2

SAY ye unto your brethren, Ammi; and to your sisters, Rû-hā-măh.

2 Plead with your mother, plead:

for [a] she is not my wife, neither am I her husband: let her therefore put away her whoredoms out of her sight, and her adulteries from between her breasts;

3 Lest I [e] strip her naked, and set her [g] as in the day that she was born, and make her as a wilderness, and set her like a dry land, and slay her with thirst.

4 And [i] I will not have mercy upon her children; for they be the children of whoredoms.

5 For their mother [m] hath played the harlot: she that conceived them hath done shamefully: for she said, [n] I will go after my lovers, that give me my bread and my water, my wool and my flax, mine oil and my drink.

6 ¶ Therefore, behold, [p] I will hedge up thy way with thorns, and make a wall, that she shall not find her paths.

7 And she shall follow after her lovers, but she shall not overtake them; and she shall seek them, but shall not find them: then shall she say, I will go and return to [t] my first husband; for then was it better with me than now.

8 For she did not know that [y] I gave her corn, and wine, and oil, and [z] multiplied her silver and gold, which they prepared for [a] Bā'ăl.

9 Therefore will I return, and [b] take away my corn in the time thereof, and my wine in the season thereof, and will recover my wool and my flax given to cover her nakedness.

10 And now [e] will I discover her lewdness in the sight of her lovers, and none shall deliver her out of mine hand.

11 [g] I will also cause all her mirth to cease, her feast days, her [i] new moons, and her [l] sabbaths, and all her [o] solemn feasts.

12 And [p] I will destroy her vines and her fig trees, whereof she hath said, These are my [r] rewards that my lovers have given me: and I will make them a forest, and the beasts of the field shall eat them.

13 And [u] I will visit upon her the days of Bā'ă-lĭm, wherein she burned incense to them, and she [y] decked herself with her [b] earrings and her jewels, and she went after her lovers, and [c] forgat me, saith the LORD.

14 ¶ Therefore, behold, I will allure her, and [d] bring her into the wilderness, and speak [2f] comfortably unto her.

15 And I will give her her vineyards from thence, and the [h] valley of Ā'chôr for a door of hope: and she shall [3] sing there, as in the days of [k] her youth, and as in the day [l] when she came up out of the land of Egypt.

16 And it shall be at that day, saith the LORD, that thou shalt call me [4] Ĭsh'ī; and shalt call me no more [5] Bā'ă-lī.

17 For [o] I will take away the names of Bā'ă-lĭm out of her mouth, and they shall no more be remembered by their name.

18 And in that day will I make [q] a covenant for them with the beasts of the field, and with the fowls of heaven, and with the creeping things of the ground: and [r] I will break the bow and the [s] sword and the battle out of the earth, and will make them to lie down [u] safely.

19 And I will [x] betroth thee unto me for ever; yea, I will betroth thee unto me in righteousness, and in judgment, and in lovingkindness, and in mercies.

20 I will even betroth thee unto me in faithfulness: and thou [c] shalt know the LORD.

21 And it shall come to pass in that day, [d] I will [6] hear, saith the LORD, I will hear the heavens, and they shall hear the earth;

22 [f] And the earth shall hear the corn, and the wine, and the oil; and they shall hear [7h] Jezreel.

23 And [k] I will sow her unto me in the earth; [m] and [n] I will have mercy upon her that had not obtained mercy; and [q] I will say to them which were not my people, Thou art my people; and [s] they shall say, [t] Thou art my God.

according to the [a] love of the LORD toward the children of Israel, who [c] look to other gods, and love [2d] flagons of wine.

2 So I bought her to me for fifteen pieces of silver, [g] and for an [h] hō-mĕr of barley, and an half homer of barley:

3 And I said unto her, Thou shalt abide for me many days; thou shalt not play the harlot, and thou shalt not be for another man: so will I also be for thee.

4 For the children of Israel [o] shall abide many days [p] without a king, and without a prince, and [q] without a sacrifice, and without an [3s] image, and without an [t] ē-phŏd, and without [u] tĕr-ă-phĭm:

5 Afterward shall the children of Israel return, and [y] seek the LORD their God, and [a] David their king; and [c] shall fear the LORD and his [d] goodness in the [e] latter days.

CHAPTER 4

[g] HEAR the word of the LORD, ye children of Israel: for the LORD hath a [i] controversy with the inhabitants of the land, because there is [l] no truth, nor mercy, [m] nor knowledge of God in the land.

2 By [n] swearing, and [o] lying, and [p] killing, and stealing, and [q] committing adultery, they break out, and blood toucheth blood.

3 Therefore shall [r] the land mourn, and every one that dwelleth therein shall languish, with the beasts of the field, and with the fowls of heaven; yea, [t] the fishes of the sea also shall be taken away.

4 Yet let no man strive, nor reprove another: for thy people are [a] as they that strive with the priest.

5 Therefore shalt thou fall in the day, and the prophet also shall fall with thee in the night, and I will destroy thy mother.

6 ¶ My people are destroyed [d] for lack of knowledge: because thou hast rejected knowledge, I will also reject thee, that [e] thou shalt be no priest to me: seeing thou hast [g] forgotten the law of thy God, I will also [b] forget thy children.

7 [e] As they were increased, so they sinned against me: therefore [f] will I change their glory into shame.

8 [i] They eat up the sin of my people, and they set their heart on their iniquity.

9 And there shall be, [k] like people, like priest: and [l] I will punish them for their ways, and [m] reward them their doings.

10 For they shall [n] eat, and not have enough: they shall commit whoredom, and shall not increase: because they have [r] left off to take heed to the LORD.

11 Whoredom and wine and new wine [x] take away the [4] heart.

12 ¶ My people ask counsel at their [z] stocks, and their staff declareth unto them: for the [b] spirit of whoredoms hath caused them to err, and they have gone a whoring from under their God.

13 They sacrifice [f] upon the tops of the mountains, and burn incense upon the hills, under [h] oaks and poplars and elms, because the [k] shadow thereof is good: therefore your daughters shall commit whoredom, and your spouses shall commit adultery.

14 I will not punish your daughters when they commit whoredom, nor your spouses when they commit adultery: for themselves are separated with whores, and they sacrifice with [s] harlots: therefore the people that doth not understand shall fall.

15 ¶ Though thou, Israel, play the harlot, yet let not Judah offend; and [u] come not ye unto [x] Gilgal, neither go ye up to [y] Beth-aven, [z] nor swear, The LORD liveth.

16 For Israel slideth back as a [b] backsliding heifer: now the LORD will feed them as a lamb in a large place.

17 Ē-phră-ĭm is [c] joined to idols: let him alone.

18 Their drink is sour: they have committed whoredom continually: [5] her [6f] rulers with shame do love, Give ye.

CHAPTER 5

[f]HEAR ye this, O [g]priests; and hearken, ye house of Israel; and give ye ear, O house of the king; for judgment is [2]toward you, because ye have been a [h]snare on Mizpah, and a net spread upon [i]Tabor.

2 And the [k]revolters are profound [3]to make slaughter, though I have been a rebuker of them all.

3 [n]I know Ē'phră-ĭm, and Israel is not hid from me: for now, O Ephraim, thou committest whoredom, and Israel is defiled.

4 They will not frame their doings to turn unto their God: for the [r]spirit of whoredoms is in the midst of them, and they [t]have not known the LORD.

5 And the [u]pride of Israel doth testify to his face: therefore shall Israel and Ē'phră-ĭm fall in their iniquity; Judah also shall fall with them.

6 [z]They shall go with their flocks and with their herds to seek the LORD; but they shall not find him; he hath withdrawn himself from them.

7 [b]They have dealt treacherously against the LORD: for they have begotten strange children: now shall a [4]month devour them with their [5]portions.

8 Blow ye the cornet in [e]Gibeah, and the [g]trumpet in [h]Ramah: cry aloud at [i]Beth-aven, after thee, O [k]Benjamin.

9 Ē'phră-ĭm [n]shall be desolate in the day of rebuke: among the tribes of Israel have I made known that which shall surely be.

10 The princes of Judah were like them [r]that remove the bound: therefore I will pour out my wrath upon them like water.

11 Ē'phră-ĭm is oppressed and broken in judgment, because he willingly walked after the [7]commandment.

12 Therefore will I be unto Ē'phrăĭm as a [y]moth, and to the house of Judah as rottenness.

13 When Ē'phră-ĭm saw his sickness, and Judah saw his wound, then went Ephraim to the [a]Assyrian, and sent to [c]king Jareb: yet [d]could he not heal you, nor cure you of your wound.

14 For I will be unto Ē'phră-ĭm [e] as a lion, and as a young lion to the house of Judah: I, even I, will tear and go away; I will take away, and none shall rescue him.

15 ¶ I will go and return to my place, till they acknowledge their offence, and [l] seek my face: [m]in their affliction they will seek me early.

CHAPTER 6

COME, and [o]let us return unto the LORD: for [p]he hath torn, and [q]he will heal us; he hath smitten, and he will bind us up.

2 After two days will he [s]revive us: in the third day he will raise us up, and we shall live in his sight.

3 Then shall we know, if we follow on [x]to know the LORD: his going forth is prepared as the morning; and he shall come unto us [y]as the rain, as the [a]latter and [a]former rain unto the earth.

4 ¶ O Ē'phră-ĭm, what shall I do unto thee? O Judah, what shall I do unto thee? for your goodness is as a morning cloud, and as the [c]early dew it goeth away.

5 Therefore have I hewed them [d]by the prophets; I have slain them by the words of my mouth: and [f]thy judgments are as the light that goeth forth.

6 For [l]I desired mercy, and [m]not sacrifice; and the knowledge of God more than burnt offerings.

7 But they like [6]o men have [b]transgressed the covenant: there have they [q]dealt treacherously against me.

8 [s]Gĭl'ĕ-ăd is a city of them that work iniquity, and is polluted with blood.

9 And as [t]troops of robbers wait for a man, so the company of [u]priests murder in the way [8]by consent: for they commit [x]lewdness.

10 I have seen an horrible thing in the house of Israel: there is the [z]whoredom of Ē'phră-ĭm, Israel is defiled.

11 Also, O Judah, he hath set an [b]harvest for thee, [c]when I returned the captivity of my people.

CHAPTER 7

WHEN I would have healed Israel, then the iniquity of Ephrăim was discovered, and the wickedness of [e]Samaria: for they [f]commit falsehood; and the thief cometh in, and the [h]troop of robbers spoileth without.

2 And they consider not in their hearts that [l]I remember all their wickedness: now their own doings have beset them about; [n]they are before my face.

3 They make the king glad with their wickedness, and the princes with their lies.

4 They are all [r]adulterers, as an [t]oven heated by the [u]baker, who ceaseth from raising after he hath kneaded the [x]dough, until it be [y]leavened.

5 [a] In the day of our king the princes have made him sick with bottles of wine; he stretched out his hand with scorners.

6 For they have made ready their heart like an oven, whiles they lie in wait: their baker sleepeth all the night; in the morning it burneth as a flaming fire.

7 They are all hot as an oven, and have devoured their judges; all their kings are fallen: [f]there is none among them that calleth unto me.

8 Ephrăim, he hath [h]mixed himself among the people; Ephraim is a cake not turned.

9 [l]Strangers have devoured his strength, and [m]he knoweth it not: yea, gray hairs are here and there upon him, yet he knoweth not.

10 And [o]the pride of Israel testifieth to his face: and [p]they do not return to the LORD their God, nor seek him for all this.

11 ¶ Ephrăim also is like a silly dove [s]without [3]heart: they [t]call to Egypt, they [u]go to Assyria.

12 When they shall go, [x]I will spread my net upon them; I will bring them down as the fowls of the heaven; [a]I will chastise them, as their congregation hath heard.

13 Woe unto them! for they have fled from me: destruction unto them! because they have transgressed against me: [d]though I have redeemed them, yet they have spoken lies against me.

14 And they have not cried unto me with their heart, when [g]they howled upon their beds: they [i]assemble themselves for corn and wine, and [k]they rebel against me.

15 Though I have [2m]bound and strengthened their arms, yet do they imagine mischief against me.

16 They return, but not to the [o]most High: they are like a [p]deceitful bow: their princes shall fall [q]by the sword for the rage of their tongue: this shall be their derision [s]in the land of Egypt.

CHAPTER 8

SET [z]the trumpet to thy mouth. He shall come [b]as an eagle against the house of the LORD, because they have [c]transgressed my covenant, and trespassed against my law.

2 [d]Israel shall cry unto me, My God, [e]we know thee.

3 Israel hath cast off the thing that is good: the enemy shall pursue him.

4 They have set up kings, but not by me: they have made princes, and I knew it not: of their silver and their gold have they made them [g]idols, that they may be cut off.

5 ¶ [i]Thy calf, O Samaria, hath cast thee off; mine anger is kindled against them: [k]how long will it be ere they attain to innocency?

6 For from Israel was it also: the workman made it; therefore [n]it is not God: but the calf of Samaria shall be broken in pieces.

7 For [q]they have sown the wind, and they shall reap the whirlwind: it hath no stalk: the bud shall yield no meal: if so be it yield, the [r]strangers shall swallow it up.

8 Israel is swallowed up: now shall they be among the Gentiles as [y]a vessel wherein is no pleasure.

9 For they are [z]gone up to Assyria, a [a] wild ass alone by himself: Ē'phră-ĭm hath hired lovers.

10 Yea, though they have hired among the nations, now will I gather them, and they shall sorrow a little for the burden of the king of princes.

11 Because Ē'phră-ĭm hath [e] made many altars to sin, altars shall be unto him to sin.

12 I have written to him the great things of my law, but they were counted as a strange thing.

13 They sacrifice flesh for the sacrifices of mine offerings, and eat it; but [m] the LORD accepteth them not; now will he remember their iniquity, and [o] visit their sins: [p] they shall return to Egypt.

14 For [t] Israel hath forgotten his [x] Maker, and buildeth temples; and Judah hath multiplied fenced cities: but I will [z] send a fire upon his cities, and it shall devour the palaces thereof.

CHAPTER 9

REJOICE not, O Israel, for joy, as other people: for thou hast [b] gone a whoring from thy God, thou hast loved a [c] reward upon every [e] cornfloor.

2 The floor and the [f] winepress shall not feed them, and the new wine shall fail in her.

3 They shall not dwell in [g] the LORD's land; but Ē'phră-ĭm shall [h] return to Egypt, and they shall eat unclean things [k] in Assyria.

4 They shall not offer wine offerings to the LORD, [m] neither shall they be pleasing unto him: their sacrifices shall be unto them as the [n] bread of mourners; all that eat thereof shall be polluted: for their bread for their soul shall not come into the house of the LORD.

5 What will ye do in the solemn day, and in the day of the feast of the LORD?

6 For, lo, they are gone because of destruction: Egypt shall gather them up; [3q] Memphis shall bury them: the pleasant places for their silver, [r] nettles shall possess them: [s] thorns shall be in their tabernacles.

7 The [u] days of visitation are come, the days of recompence are come; [b] Israel shall know it: [c] the prophet is a fool, the spiritual man is mad, for the multitude of thine iniquity, and the great hatred.

8 The [d] watchman of Ē'phră-ĭm was with my God: but the prophet is a [f] snare of a fowler in all his ways, and hatred in the house of his God.

9 They have deeply [g] corrupted themselves, [h] as in the days of [i] Gibeah: therefore he will remember their iniquity, he will [k] visit their sins.

10 [l] I found Israel like grapes in the wilderness; I saw your fathers as the [n] firstripe in the fig tree at her first time: but they went to [q] Bā'ăl–pē'ôr, and [r] separated themselves unto [s] that shame; and [2] their [u] abominations were according as they loved.

11 As for Ē'phră-ĭm, [y] their glory shall fly away like a bird, from the birth, and from the womb, and from the conception.

12 Though they bring up their children, yet will I [a] bereave them, that there shall not be a man left: yea, woe also to them when I depart from them!

13 Ē'phră-ĭm, as I saw [d] Tyrus, is planted in a pleasant place: but Ephraim shall bring forth his children to the murderer.

14 Give them, O LORD: what wilt thou give? give them a miscarrying womb and dry breasts.

15 All their wickedness is in [i] Gilgal: for there I [l] hated them: for the wickedness of their doings I will drive them out of mine house, I will love them no more: all their princes are [o] revolters.

16 Ē'phră-ĭm is smitten, their root is dried up, they shall bear no fruit: yea, though they bring forth, yet will I slay even the beloved fruit of their womb.

17 My God will cast them away, because [p] they did not hearken unto him: and they shall be wanderers among the nations.

15 So shall [l] Beth-el do unto you because of your great wickedness: in a morning shall the king of Israel utterly be cut off.

CHAPTER 11

[p] WHEN Israel was a child, then [r] I loved him, and [s] called my son out of Egypt.

2 As they called them, so they went from them: they sacrificed unto [u] Bā'ă-lĭm, and burned incense to graven images.

3 [a] I taught Ē'phră-ĭm also to go, [b] taking them by their arms; but they knew not that [c] I healed them.

4 [e] I drew them with cords of a man, with bands of love: and [g] I was to them as they that take off the yoke on their jaws, and I laid meat unto them.

5 ¶ [k] He shall not return into the land of Egypt, [m] but the Assyrian shall be his king, because they refused to return.

6 And [n] the sword shall abide on his cities, and shall consume his branches, and devour them, because of their own counsels.

7 And my people are bent to [p] backsliding from me: though they called them to [r] the most High, none at all would exalt him.

8 How shall I give thee up, Ē'phră-ĭm? how shall I deliver thee, Israel? how shall I make thee as [t] Admah? how shall I set thee as [t] Zĕ-bō'ĭm? [u] mine heart is turned within me, my repentings are kindled together.

9 I will not execute the fierceness of mine anger, I will not return to destroy Ē'phră-ĭm: for [z] I am God, and not man; [b] the Holy One [c] in the midst of thee: and I will not [7] enter into the city.

10 [a] They shall walk after the LORD: he shall [d] roar like a lion: when he shall roar, then the children shall tremble from the west.

11 They shall tremble as a bird [h] out of Egypt, and [i] as a dove [k] out of the land of Assyria: and I will place them in their houses, saith the LORD.

12 Ē'-phrăĭm compasseth me about with [o] lies, and the house of Israel with deceit: [2] but Judah yet ruleth with God, and is faithful with the saints.

CHAPTER 12

Ē'-PHRĂ-ĬM feedeth on wind, and followeth after the [p] east wind: he daily increaseth [q] lies and desolation; and they do [r] make a covenant with the Assyrians, and oil is carried [t] into Egypt.

2 The LORD hath also a [u] controversy with Judah, and will [y] punish Jacob according to his ways; according to his doings will he recompense him.

3 ¶ He took his brother by the heel [z] in the womb, and [a] by his strength he had power with God:

4 Yea, he had power over the angel, and prevailed: he wept, and made supplication unto him: [e] he found him in [f] Beth-el, and there he spake with us;

5 Even the LORD God of hosts; the LORD is his [i] memorial.

6 Therefore [l] turn thou to thy God: [n] keep mercy and judgment and [o] wait on thy God continually.

7 ¶ He is [3] a merchant, the [q] balances of deceit are in his hand: he loveth to [4r] oppress.

8 And Ē'-phrăĭm said, Yet [t] I am become rich, I have found me out substance: in all my labours they shall find none iniquity in me that were sin.

9 And [z] I that am the LORD thy God from the land of Egypt will yet make thee [b] to dwell in tabernacles, as in the days of the [c] solemn feast.

10 I have also spoken [d] by the prophets, and I have multiplied [e] visions, and used similitudes, by the ministry of the prophets.

11 Is there iniquity in [h] Gĭl'-ĕ-ăd? surely they are vanity: they sacrifice bullocks in [b] Gilgal; yea, [c] their altars are as heaps in the furrows of the fields.

12 And [g] Jacob [f] fled into the country of Syria, and Israel [g] served for a wife, and for a wife he kept sheep.

13 And by a [l] prophet the LORD [m] brought Israel out of Egypt, and by a prophet was he preserved.

14 Ē'-phrăĭm [n] provoked him to anger most bitterly: therefore shall he leave his blood upon him, and his reproach shall his Lord return unto him.

WHEN Ē'-phrăĭm spake trembling, he exalted himself in Israel; but when he offended in [s] Bā'-ăl, he died.

2 And now they sin more and more, and have [x] made them molten images of their silver, and idols according to their own understanding, all of it the work of the craftsmen: they say of them, Let the men that sacrifice kiss the [b] calves.

3 Therefore they shall be as the morning cloud, and as the [c] early dew that passeth away, as the [d] chaff that is driven with the whirlwind out of the floor, and as the [g] smoke out of the chimney.

4 Yet [h] I am the LORD thy God from the land of Egypt, and [k] thou shalt know no god but me: for [m] there is no saviour beside me.

5 ¶ [p] I did know thee in the wilderness, in the land of great drought.

6 According to their pasture, so were they [s] filled; they were filled, and their heart was exalted; therefore have they [u] forgotten me.

7 Therefore I will be unto them [x] as a lion: as a [y] leopard by the way will I observe them:

8 I will meet them [a] as a bear that is bereaved of her whelps, and will rend the caul of their heart, and there will I devour them like a lion: the wild beast shall tear them.

9 ¶ [5] O Israel, thou hast [f] destroyed thyself; but in me is [g] thine help.

cities? and thy judges of whom [a] thou saidst, Give me a king and princes?

11 [c] I gave thee a king in mine anger, and [d] took him away in my wrath.

12 The iniquity of Ĕ'phră-ĭm is [f] bound up; his sin is hid.

13 The [h] sorrows of a travailing woman shall come upon him: he is an unwise son; for he should not stay long [k] in the place of the breaking forth of children.

JOEL

CHAPTER 1

THE word of the LORD that came to Joel the son of Pĕ-thū'ĕl.

2 Hear this, ye old men, and give ear, all ye inhabitants of the land. [a] Hath this been in your days, or even in the days of your fathers?

3 [c] Tell ye your children of it, and let your children tell their children, and their children another generation.

4 That which the palmerworm hath left hath the [f] locust eaten; and that which the locust hath left hath the cankerworm eaten; and that which the cankerworm hath left hath the caterpiller eaten.

5 Awake, ye drunkards, and weep; and howl, all ye drinkers of wine, because of the [b] new wine; for it is cut off from your mouth.

6 For [d] a nation is come up upon my land, strong, and without number, [e] whose teeth are the teeth of a lion, and he hath the cheek teeth of a great lion.

7 He hath laid [g] my vine waste, and barked my fig tree: he hath made it clean bare, and cast it away; the branches thereof are made white.

8 ¶ Lament like a virgin girded with sackcloth for the husband of her youth.

9 The [b] meat offering and the [c] drink offering is cut off from the house of the LORD; the priests, [f] the LORD's ministers, mourn.

10 The field is wasted, [h] the land mourneth; for [i] the corn is wasted: the [k] new wine is dried up, the oil languisheth.

11 [m] Be ye ashamed, O ye husbandmen; howl, O ye vinedressers, for the wheat and for the barley; because the harvest of the field is perished.

12 The vine is dried up, and the fig tree languisheth; the [p] pomegranate tree, the [q] palm tree also, and the apple tree, even all the trees of the field, are withered: because [s] joy is withered away from the sons of men.

13 [u] Gird yourselves, and [x] lament, ye priests: howl, ye ministers of the [z] altar: come, lie all night in sackcloth, ye ministers of my God: for the meat offering and the drink offering is withholden from the house of your God.

14 ¶ [c] Sanctify ye a fast, call a [e] solemn assembly, gather the [f] elders and all the inhabitants of the land into the house of the LORD your God, and cry unto the LORD,

15 Alas for the day! for [h] the day of the LORD is at hand, and as a destruction from the [i] Almighty shall it come.

16 Is not the meat cut off before our eyes, yea, joy and gladness from the house of our God?

17 The [4] seed is rotten under their clods, the garners are laid desolate, the barns are broken down; for the corn is withered.

18 How do the beasts groan! the herds of cattle are [k] perplexed, because they have no pasture; yea, the flocks of sheep are made desolate.

19 O LORD, to thee will I cry: for the [m] fire hath devoured the [6n] pastures of the wilderness, and the flame hath burned all the trees of the field.

CHAPTER 2

[d] BLOW ye the trumpet in Zion, and sound an alarm in my [e] holy mountain: let all the inhabitants of the land tremble: for the [g] day of the LORD cometh, for it is nigh at hand;

2 A [l] day of darkness and of gloominess, a day of clouds and of thick darkness, as the morning spread upon the mountains: [n] a great people and a strong; [o] there hath not been ever the like, neither shall be any more after it, even to the years of many generations.

3 A [r] fire devoureth before them; and behind them a flame burneth: the land is as the [t] garden of Eden before them, and behind them a desolate wilderness; yea, and [y] nothing shall escape them.

4 [a] The appearance of them is as the appearance of horses; and as horsemen, so shall they run.

5 Like the [b] noise of chariots on the tops of mountains shall they leap, like the noise of a [d] flame of fire that devoureth the stubble, as a strong people set in battle array.

6 Before their face the people shall be much pained: [g] all faces shall [3] gather blackness.

7 They shall run like mighty men; they shall climb the wall like men of war; and they shall march every one on his ways, and they shall not break their ranks:

8 Neither shall one thrust another; they shall walk every one in his path: and [5] when they fall upon the sword, they shall not be wounded.

9 They shall run to and fro in the city; they shall run upon the wall, [l] they shall climb up upon the houses; they shall enter in at the windows like a thief.

10 The earth shall quake before them; the heavens shall tremble: [o] the sun and the moon shall be dark, and the stars shall withdraw their shining:

11 And the LORD [a]shall utter his voice before his army: for his camp is very [c]great: for he is strong that executeth his word: for the day of the LORD is great and very terrible; and [e]who can abide it?

12 ¶ Therefore also now, saith the LORD, [f]turn ye even to me with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning:

13 And rend your heart, and not your garments, and turn unto the LORD your God: for [h]he is gracious and [k]merciful, [l]slow to anger, and of great kindness, and [m]repenteth him of the evil.

14 [p]Who knoweth if he will return and repent, and [q]leave a blessing behind him; even a [r]meat offering and a [t]drink offering unto the LORD your God?

15 ¶ [u]Blow the trumpet in Zion, [x]sanctify a fast, call a [y]solemn assembly:

16 Gather the people, [a]sanctify the congregation, assemble the [b]elders, gather the children, and those that suck the breasts: let the [d]bridegroom go forth of his chamber, and the bride out of her closet.

17 Let the priests, the [h]ministers of the LORD, [i]weep between the [k]porch and the [l]altar, and let them say, Spare thy people, O LORD, and give not thine heritage to [o]reproach, that the heathen should rule over them: [p]wherefore should they say among the people, Where is their God?

18 ¶ Then will the LORD be [r]jealous for [s]his land, and pity his people.

19 Yea, the LORD will answer and say unto his people, Behold, [t]I will send you corn, and wine, and oil, and ye shall be satisfied therewith: and I will no more make you a reproach among the heathen:

20 But I will remove far off from you the northern army, and will drive him into a land barren and desolate, with his face toward the [z]east sea, and his hinder part toward the [2c]utmost sea, and his [e]stink shall come up, and his ill savour shall come up, because he hath done great things.

21 ¶ Fear not, O land; be glad and rejoice: for [b]the LORD will do great things.

22 Be not afraid, ye beasts of the field: for the pastures of the wilderness do spring, for [d]the tree beareth her fruit, the fig tree and the vine do yield their strength.

23 Be glad then, ye children of Zion, and rejoice in the LORD your God: for he hath given you the [g]former rain moderately, and he will cause to come down for you the rain, the former rain, and the [i]latter rain in the first month.

24 And the [n]floors shall be full of wheat, and the [o]fats shall overflow with wine and oil.

25 And I will restore to you the years that the [s]locust hath eaten, the cankerworm, and the caterpiller, and the palmerworm, my great army which I sent among you.

26 And ye shall [z]eat in plenty, and be satisfied, and praise the name of the LORD your God, that hath dealt wondrously with you: and my people [c]shall never be ashamed.

27 And ye shall know that I am [e]in the midst of Israel, and that [f]I am the LORD your God, and [g]none else: and my people shall never be ashamed.

28 ¶ [m]And it shall come to pass afterward, that [n]I will pour out my spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall [q]dream dreams, your young men shall see visions:

29 And also upon the servants and upon the handmaids in those days will I pour out my spirit.

30 And I will shew [u]wonders in the heavens and in the earth, blood, and fire, and pillars of [x]smoke.

31 [y]The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the great and the terrible day of the LORD come.

32 And it shall come to pass, that [a]whosoever [b]shall call on the name of the LORD shall be delivered: for [d]in mount Zion and in Jerusalem shall be deliverance, as the LORD hath said, and in the [f]remnant whom the LORD shall call.

400 B.C.

FOR, behold, in those days, and in that time, [a] when I shall bring again the captivity of Judah and Jerusalem,

2 [c] I will also gather all nations, and will bring them down into the [e] valley of Jĕ-hŏsh'ă-phăt, and [f] will plead with them there for my people and for [h] my heritage Israel, whom they have scattered among the nations, and parted [k] my land.

3 And they have [l] cast lots for my people; and have [n] given a boy for an harlot, and sold a girl for wine, that they might drink.

4 Yea, and what have ye to do with me, O [p] Tyre, and [q] Zidon, and all the [r] coasts of [s] Palestine? will ye render me a recompence? and if ye recompense me, swiftly and speedily [x] will I return your recompence upon your own head;

5 Because ye have taken my silver and my gold, and have carried into your temples my goodly pleasant things:

6 [d] The children also of Judah and the children of Jerusalem have ye sold unto the [f] Grecians, that ye might remove them far from their border.

7 Behold, I will raise them out of the place whither ye have sold them, and will return your recompence upon your own head:

8 And I will sell your sons and your daughters into the hand of the children of Judah, and [k] they shall sell them to the [m] Să-bē'ănș, to a people far off: for the LORD hath spoken it.

9 ¶ Proclaim ye this among the Gentiles; [2q] Prepare war, wake up the mighty men, let all the men of war draw near; let them come up:

10 [r] Beat your plowshares into swords, and your pruninghooks into spears: let the [t] weak say, I am strong.

11 Assemble yourselves, and come, all ye heathen, and gather yourselves together round about: thither cause thy mighty ones to come down, O LORD.

12 Let the heathen be wakened, and come up to the [b] valley of Jĕ-hŏsh'ă-phăt: for there will I sit to [d] judge all the heathen round about.

13 Put ye in the sickle, for the [g] harvest is ripe: come, get you down; for the [i] press is full, the fats overflow; for their wickedness is great.

14 Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of decision: for the [m] day of the LORD is near in the valley of decision.

15 The [o] sun and the moon shall be darkened, and the stars shall withdraw their shining.

16 The LORD also [t] shall roar out of Zion, and [u] utter his voice from Jerusalem; and [y] the heavens and the earth shall shake: but the LORD will be the [z] hope of his people, and the strength of the children of Israel.

17 [a] So shall ye know that I am the LORD your God [b] dwelling in Zion, [c] my holy mountain: then shall Jerusalem be holy, and there shall [e] no strangers pass through her any more.

18 ¶ And it shall come to pass in that day, that [g] the mountains shall drop down new wine, and the hills shall flow with milk, and all the rivers of Judah shall flow with waters, and [h] a fountain shall come forth of the house of the LORD, and shall water the valley of [i] Shittim.

19 [l] Egypt shall be a desolation, and [n] Edom shall be a desolate wilderness, [o] for the violence against the children of Judah, because they have [p] shed innocent blood in their land.

20 But Judah shall dwell for ever, and Jerusalem from generation to generation.

21 For I will [s] cleanse their blood that I have not cleansed: for the LORD dwelleth in Zion.

AMOS

CHAPTER 1

THE words of [a] Amos, who was among the [b] herdmen of [c] Tĕ-kō'-ă, which he saw concerning Israel [d] in the days of Ŭz-zī'-ăh king of Judah, and in the days of Jĕr-ō-bō'-ăm the son of Joash king of Israel, two years before the [f] earthquake.

2 And he said, The LORD [h] will roar from Zion, and [h] utter his voice from Jerusalem; and the [2] habitations of the shepherds shall mourn, and the top of [i] Carmel shall wither.

3 Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of [l] Damascus, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; [n] because they have threshed [o] Gĭl'-ĕ-ăd with threshing instruments of iron:

4 But I will send a fire into the house of [r] Hazael, which shall devour the palaces of Ben-hadad.

5 I will break also the [s] bar of Damascus, and cut off the inhabitant from the plain of Aven, and him that holdeth the sceptre from the house of [x] Eden: and the people of Syria shall go into captivity unto [y] Kir, saith the LORD.

6 ¶ Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of [z] Gaza, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; [a] because they carried away captive the whole captivity, to deliver them up to Edom:

7 But I will send a fire on the wall of Gaza, which shall devour the palaces thereof:

8 And I will cut off the inhabitant from [c] Ashdod, and him that holdeth the sceptre from [e] Ăsh'-kĕ-lon, and I will turn mine hand against [h] Ekron: and the [i] remnant of the Philistines shall perish, saith the Lord GOD.

9 ¶ Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of [k] Tyrus, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they delivered up the whole captivity to Edom, and remembered not the brotherly covenant:

10 But I will send a fire on the wall of Tyrus, which shall devour the palaces thereof.

11 ¶ Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of [e] Edom, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; [g] because he did pursue his brother with the sword, and did cast off all pity, and his anger did tear perpetually, and he kept his wrath for ever:

12 But I will send a fire upon [k] Teman, which shall devour the palaces of [m] Bozrah.

13 ¶ Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of the children of [p] Ammon, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they have [q] ripped up the women with child of Gĭl'-ĕ-ăd, that they might enlarge their border:

14 But I will [t] kindle a fire in the wall of [u] Rabbah, and it shall devour the palaces thereof, with shouting in the day of battle, with a tempest in the day of the whirlwind:

15 And their king shall go into captivity, he and his princes together, saith the LORD.

CHAPTER 2

THUS saith the LORD; For three transgressions of [b] Moab, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because he burned the bones of the king of Edom into lime:

2 But I will send a fire upon Moab, and it shall devour the palaces of [d] Kĭr'-ĭ-ōth: and Moab shall die with [f] tumult, with shouting, and with the [g] sound of the trumpet:

3 And I will cut off the judge from the midst thereof, and will slay all the princes thereof with him, saith the LORD.

4 ¶ Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of Judah, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; [l] because they have despised the law of the LORD, and have not kept his commandments, and [a] their lies caused them to err, after the which their fathers have walked:

5 But [b] I will send a fire upon Judah, and it shall devour the palaces of Jerusalem.

6 ¶ Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of Israel, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because [f] they sold the righteous for silver, and the [g] poor for a pair of shoes;

7 That pant after the dust of the earth on the head of the poor, and [h] turn aside the way of the meek: and [i] a man and his father will go in unto the same maid, [k] to profane [l] my holy name:

8 And they lay themselves down upon clothes [m] laid to pledge by every altar, and they [o] drink the wine of the condemned in the house of their god.

9 ¶ Yet destroyed I the [q] Amorite before them, whose height was like the height of the [r] cedars, and he was strong as the oaks; yet I destroyed his fruit from above, and his [t] roots from beneath.

10 Also [x] I brought you up from the land of Egypt, and [y] led you [z] forty years through the wilderness, to possess the land of the Amorite.

11 And I raised up of your sons for prophets, and of your young men for [b] Nazarites. Is it not even thus, O ye children of Israel? saith the LORD.

12 But [c] ye gave the Nazarites wine to drink; and commanded the prophets, [e] saying, Prophesy not.

13 Behold, [3] I am pressed under you, as a cart [4] is pressed that is full of sheaves.

14 [f] Therefore the flight shall perish from the swift, and the strong shall not strengthen his force, neither shall the mighty deliver himself:

15 [h] Neither shall he stand that handleth the bow; and he that is swift of foot shall not deliver himself: neither shall he that rideth the horse deliver himself.

16 And he that is courageous among the mighty shall flee away naked in that day, saith the LORD.

CHAPTER 3

HEAR this word that the LORD hath spoken against you, O children of Israel, against the whole family [c] which I brought up from the land of Egypt, saying,

2 You only [d] have I known of all the families of the earth: therefore [e] I will punish you for all your iniquities.

3 Can two walk together, except they [2] be agreed?

4 Will a lion roar in the forest, when he hath no prey? will a young lion cry out of his den, if he have taken nothing?

5 Can a bird fall in a snare upon the earth, where no gin is for him? shall one take up a snare from the earth, and have taken nothing at all?

6 Shall a [n] trumpet be blown in the city, and the people not be afraid? [p] shall there be evil in a city, and the LORD hath not done it?

7 Surely the Lord GOD will do nothing, but [s] he revealeth his secret unto his servants the prophets.

8 The lion hath roared, who will not fear? [u] the Lord GOD hath spoken, who can but prophesy?

9 ¶ Publish in the palaces at [a] Ashdod, and in the palaces in the land of Egypt, and say, Assemble yourselves upon the mountains of Samaria, and behold the great tumults in the midst thereof, and the oppressed in the midst thereof.

10 For [d] they know not to do right, saith the LORD, who store up violence and robbery in their palaces.

11 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; An adversary there shall be even round about the land; and he shall bring down thy strength from thee, and thy palaces shall be spoiled.

12 Thus saith the LORD; [g] As the shepherd taketh out of the mouth of the lion two legs, or a piece of an ear; so shall the children of Israel be taken out that dwell in [i] Samaria in the corner of a bed, and [5] in Damascus in a couch.

13 Hear ye, and testify in the house of Jacob, saith the Lord GOD, the God of hosts, 14 That in the day that I shall visit the transgressions of Israel upon him [a] I will also visit the altars of [b] Beth–el: and the [c] horns of the altar shall be cut off, and fall to the ground.

15 And I will smite the [d] winter house with the [e] summer house; and the [f] houses of ivory shall perish, and the [g] great houses shall have an end, saith the LORD.

CHAPTER 4

HEAR this word, [h] ye kine of [i] Bashan, that are in the mountain of Samaria, which [j] oppress the poor, which crush the needy, which say to their masters, Bring, and let us drink.

2 The Lord GOD [k] hath sworn [l] by his holiness, that, lo, the days shall come upon you, that he will take you away [m] with hooks, and your posterity [n] with fishhooks.

3 And ye shall go out at the breaches, every cow at that which is before her; and ye shall [2]cast them into the palace, saith the LORD.

4 ¶ [o] Come to [p] Beth–el, and transgress; at [q] Gilgal multiply transgression; [r] and bring your sacrifices every morning, and your tithes after three years:

5 And offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving [s] with leaven, and proclaim and publish the free offerings: for this liketh you, O ye children of Israel, saith the Lord GOD.

6 ¶ And I also have given you cleanness of teeth in all your cities, and want of bread in all your places: [t] yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.

7 And also I have [u] withholden the rain from you, when there were yet three months to the harvest: and I caused it to rain upon one city, and caused it not to rain upon another city: one piece was rained upon, and the piece whereupon it rained not withered.

8 So two or three cities wandered unto one city, to drink water; but they were not satisfied: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.

9 I have smitten you with [v] blasting and mildew: when your [w] gardens and your vineyards and your fig trees and your olive trees increased, the palmerworm devoured them: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.

10 I have sent among you the [x] pestilence [y] after the manner of Egypt: your young men have I slain with the sword, and have taken away your horses; and I have made the [z] stink of your camps to come up unto your nostrils: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.

11 I have overthrown some of you, [a] as God overthrew Sodom and Gō-mŏr'-răh, and ye were [b] as a firebrand plucked out of the burning: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.

12 Therefore thus will I do unto thee, O Israel: and because I will do this unto thee, prepare to meet thy God, O Israel.

13 For, lo, he that formeth the mountains, and [c] createth the wind, and declareth unto man what is his thought, that [d] maketh the morning darkness, and [e] treadeth upon the high places of the earth, [f] The LORD, The God of hosts, is his name.

CHAPTER 5

HEAR ye this word which I [g] take up against you, even a lamentation, O house of Israel.

2 The [h] virgin of Israel is fallen; she shall no more rise: she is forsaken upon her land; there is none to raise her up.

3 For thus saith the Lord GOD; The city that went out by a thousand shall leave an hundred, and that which went forth by an hundred shall leave ten, to the house of Israel.

4 ¶ For thus saith the LORD unto the house of Israel, [i] Seek ye me, and ye shall [j] live:

5 But [k] seek not [l] Beth–el, nor enter into [m] Gilgal, and pass not to [n] Beer–sheba: for Gilgal shall surely go into captivity, and Beth–el shall [3]come to nought.

6 Seek the LORD, and ye shall live; lest he break out [o] like fire in the [p] house of Joseph, and devour it, and there be none to quench it in Beth–el.

9 That strengtheneth the spoiled against the strong, so that the spoiled shall come against the fortress.

10 [o] They hate him that rebuketh [p] in the gate, and they abhor him that speaketh uprightly.

11 Forasmuch therefore as your [q] treading is upon the poor, and ye take from him burdens of wheat: ye have [s] built houses of [t] hewn stone, but ye shall not dwell in them; [u] ye have planted pleasant vineyards, but ye shall not drink wine of them.

12 For [z] I know your manifold transgressions, and your mighty sins: they afflict the just, they [b] take a [c] bribe, and they [f] turn aside the poor in the gate from their right.

13 Therefore the prudent shall [h] keep silence in that time; for [k] it is an evil time.

14 [n] Seek good, and not evil, that ye may live: and so the LORD, the God of hosts, shall be with you, as ye have spoken.

15 [p] Hate the evil, and love the good, and establish judgment in the gate: [q] it may be that the LORD God of hosts [r] will be gracious unto [s] the remnant of Joseph.

16 Therefore the LORD, the God of hosts, the Lord, saith thus; Wailing shall be in all streets; and they shall say in all the highways, Alas! alas! and they shall call the husbandman to mourning, and [y] such as are skilful of lamentation to wailing.

17 And in all vineyards shall be [a] wailing: for [b] I will pass through thee, saith the LORD.

21 ¶ [k] I hate, I despise your feast days, and [l] I will not smell in your [n] solemn assemblies.

22 Though ye offer me burnt offerings and your meat offerings, I will not accept them: neither will I regard the peace offerings of your fat beasts.

24 But let judgment run down as waters, and righteousness as a [3x] mighty stream.

8 The Lord GOD [i] hath sworn by himself, saith the LORD the God of hosts, I abhor [l] the excellency of Jacob, and [m] hate his palaces: therefore will I deliver up the city with all that is therein.

9 And it shall come to pass, [n] if there remain ten men in one house, that they shall die.

10 And a man's uncle shall take him up, and [p] he that burneth him, to bring out the bones out of the house, and shall say unto him that is by the sides of the house, Is there yet any with thee? and he shall say, No. Then shall he say, [n] Hold thy tongue: for we may not make mention of the name of the LORD.

11 For, behold, the LORD commandeth, and he will smite the [t] great house with breaches, and the little house with clefts.

12 ¶ Shall horses run upon the rock? will one plow there with oxen? for [y] ye have turned judgment into [z] gall, and the fruit of righteousness into [3b] hemlock:

13 Ye which rejoice in a thing of nought, which say, Have we not taken to us horns by our own strength?

14 But, behold, [c] I will raise up against you a nation, O house of Israel, saith the LORD the God of hosts; and they shall afflict you from the entering in of [f] Hemath unto the river of the [4h] wilderness.

CHAPTER 7

[m] THUS hath the Lord GOD shewed unto me; and, behold, he formed grasshoppers in the beginning of the shooting up of the latter growth; and, lo, it was the latter growth after the king's mowings.

2 And it came to pass, that when they had made an end of eating the grass of the land, then I said, O Lord GOD, [d] forgive, I beseech thee: by whom shall Jacob arise? for he is small.

3 The LORD [g] repented for this: It shall not be, saith the LORD.

4 ¶ Thus hath the Lord GOD shewed unto me: and, behold, the Lord GOD called to contend by fire, and it devoured the [k] great deep, and [2] did eat up a part.

5 Then said I, O Lord GOD, cease, I beseech thee: by whom shall Jacob arise? for he is small.

6 The LORD repented for this: This also shall not be, saith the Lord GOD.

7 ¶ Thus he shewed me: and, behold, the Lord stood upon a wall made by a [o] plumbline, with a plumbline in his hand.

8 And the LORD said unto me, Amos, [q] what seest thou? And I said, A plumbline. Then said the Lord, Behold, I will set a plumbline in the midst of my people Israel: [r] I will not again pass by them any more:

9 And the [s] high places of Isaac shall be desolate, and the sanctuaries of Israel shall be laid waste; and I will [u] rise against the house of Jĕr-ŏ-bō'ăm with the sword.

10 ¶ Then Ăm-ă-zī'ăh the priest of Beth-el sent to [x] Jĕr-ŏ-bō'ăm king of Israel, saying, Amos hath [a] conspired against thee in the midst of the house of Israel: the land is not able to bear all his words.

11 For thus Amos saith, Jĕr-ŏ-bō'ăm shall die by the sword, and Israel shall [d] surely be led away captive out of their own land.

12 Also Ăm-ă-zī'ăh said unto Amos, O thou [e] seer, go, flee thee away into the land of Judah, and there [g] eat bread, and [i] prophesy there:

13 But prophesy not again any more at [k] Beth-el: [l] for it is the king's chapel, and it is the king's court.

14 ¶ Then answered [n] Amos, and said to Ăm-ă-zī'ăh, I was no prophet, neither was I a prophet's son; but I was an [o] herdman, and a gatherer of [p] sycomore fruit:

followed the flock, and the LORD said unto me, Go, prophesy unto my people Israel.

16 ¶ Now therefore hear thou the word of the LORD: Thou sayest, Prophesy not against Israel, and [b] drop not thy word against the house of Isaac.

17 Therefore thus saith the LORD; Thy wife shall be an harlot in the city, and thy sons and thy daughters shall [e] fall by the sword, and thy land shall be divided by line; and thou shalt die in a polluted land: and Israel shall surely go into captivity forth of his land.

CHAPTER 8

THUS hath the Lord GOD [h] shewed unto me: and [i] behold a basket of [k] summer fruit.

2 And he said, [l] Amos, what seest thou? And I said, A basket of summer fruit. Then said the LORD unto me, [p] The end is come upon my people of Israel; [r] I will not again pass by them any more.

3 And [s] the songs of the temple shall be howlings in that day, saith the Lord GOD: there shall be [t] many dead bodies in every place; they shall cast them forth [y] with silence.

4 ¶ Hear this, O ye that swallow up the needy, even to make [b] the poor of the land to fail,

5 Saying, When will the [e] new moon be gone, that we may sell corn? and the [f] sabbath, that we may set forth wheat, making the [g] ē'-phäh small, and the [i] shē'-kĕl great, and [k] falsifying the balances by deceit?

6 That we may [m] buy the poor for silver, and the needy for a pair of shoes; yea, and sell the refuse of the wheat?

7 The LORD [p] hath sworn by the [q] excellency of Jacob, Surely [r] I will never forget any of their works.

8 Shall not the land tremble for this, and every one mourn that dwelleth therein? and [u] it shall rise up wholly as a flood; and it shall be cast out and drowned, as by the flood of Egypt.

9 And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the Lord GOD, that [y] I will cause the sun to go down at noon, and I will darken the earth in the clear day:

10 And I will turn your feasts into mourning, and all [a] your songs into lamentation; and I will bring up sackcloth upon all loins, and [c] baldness upon every head; and I will make it [d] as the mourning of an only son, and the end thereof as a bitter day.

11 ¶ Behold, the days come, saith the Lord GOD, that I will send a famine in the land, not a famine of bread, nor a thirst for water, [f] but of hearing the words of the LORD:

12 And they shall wander from sea to sea, and from the north even to the east, they shall [g] run to and fro to seek the word of the LORD, and shall not find it.

13 In that day shall the fair virgins and young men faint for thirst.

14 [m] They that swear by the [n] sin of Samaria, and say, Thy god, O [o] Dan, liveth; and, The manner of [q] Beer-sheba liveth; even they shall fall, and never rise up again.

CHAPTER 9

[u] I SAW the Lord standing upon the [x] altar: and he said, Smite the [2z] lintel of the door, that the [3a] posts may shake: and cut them in the head, all of them; and I will slay the last of them [c] with the sword: [d] he that fleeth of them shall not flee away, and he that escapeth of them shall not be delivered.

2 [h] Though they dig into hell, thence shall mine hand take them; [i] though they climb up to heaven, thence will I bring them down:

3 And [n] though they hide themselves in the top of [o] Carmel, I will search and take them out thence; and though they be hid from my sight in the bottom of the sea, thence will I command the [s] serpent, and he shall bite them:

4 And though they [t] go into captivity before their enemies, thence will I command the sword, and it shall slay them: and [x] I will set mine eyes upon them for evil, and not for good.

5 And the Lord GOD of hosts is he

OBADIAH

[a] [b] THE vision of Obadiah. Thus saith the Lord GOD concerning [c] Edom; We have heard a rumour from the LORD, and an ambassador is sent among the heathen, Arise ye, and let us rise up against her in battle.

2 Behold, I have made thee small among the heathen: thou art greatly despised.

3 ¶ [e] The pride of thine heart hath deceived thee, [f] thou that dwellest in the clefts of the rock, whose habitation is high; [g] that saith in his heart, Who shall bring me down to the ground?

4 [h] Though thou exalt thyself [i] as the eagle, and though thou set thy nest among the stars, thence will I bring thee down, saith the LORD.

5 [m] If thieves came to thee, if robbers by night, (how art thou cut off!) would they not have stolen till they had enough? if the grapegatherers came to thee, would they not leave [d] some grapes?

6 How are the things of Esau searched out! how are his hidden things sought up!

7 All the men of thy confederacy have brought thee even to the border: the men that were at peace with thee have deceived thee, and prevailed against thee; they that eat thy bread have laid a [2] wound under thee: there is none understanding in him.

8 Shall I not in that day, saith the LORD, even [k] destroy the wise men out of Edom, and understanding out of the mount of Esau?

9 And thy mighty men, O [l] Teman, shall be dismayed, to the end that every one of the mount of Esau may be cut off by slaughter.

JONAH

CHAPTER 1

NOW the word of the LORD came unto [b]Jonah the son of Ă-mĭt'tâi, saying,

2 Arise, go to [d]Nĭn'ĕ-vēh, that great city, and cry against it; [e]for their wickedness is come up before me.

3 But Jonah [f]rose up to flee unto [g]Tär'shĭsh [h]from the presence of the LORD, and went down to [i]Joppa; and he found a ship going to Tarshish: so he paid the fare thereof and went down into it, to go with them unto Tarshish from the presence of the LORD.

4 ¶ But the LORD [a]sent out a great wind into the sea, and there was a mighty tempest in the sea, so that the ship was like to be broken.

5 Then [c]the mariners were afraid, and cried every man unto his god, and cast forth the wares that were in the ship into the sea, to lighten it of them. But Jonah was gone down into the sides of the ship; and he lay, and was fast asleep.

6 So the shipmaster came to him, and said unto him, What meanest thou, O sleeper? arise, call upon thy God, if so be that God will think upon us, that we perish not.

7 And they said every one to his fellow, Come, and let us [b] cast lots, that we may know for whose cause this evil is upon us. So they cast lots, and the lot fell upon Jonah.

8 Then said they unto him, Tell us, we pray thee, for whose cause this evil is upon us; What is thine occupation? and whence comest thou? what is thy country? and of what people art thou?

9 And he said unto them, I am an [h] Hebrew; and [i] I fear the LORD, the [l] God of heaven, [m] which hath made the sea and the [n] dry land.

10 Then were the men exceedingly afraid, and said unto him, Why hast thou done this? For the men knew that he fled from the presence of the LORD, because he had told them.

11 ¶ Then said they unto him, What shall we do unto thee, that the sea may be calm unto us? for the sea wrought, and was tempestuous.

12 And he said unto them, Take me up, and cast me forth into the sea; so shall the sea be calm unto you: for I know that for my sake this great tempest is upon you.

13 Nevertheless the men rowed hard to bring it to the land; but they could not: for the sea wrought, and was tempestuous against them.

14 Wherefore they cried unto the LORD, and said, We beseech thee, O LORD, we beseech thee, let us not perish for this man's life, and [x] lay not upon us innocent blood: for [y] thou, O LORD, hast done as it pleased thee.

15 So they took up Jonah, and cast him forth into the sea: and the sea ceased from her raging.

16 Then the men [a] feared the LORD exceedingly, and offered a sacrifice unto the LORD, and [c] made vows.

17 ¶ Now the LORD had prepared a great fish to swallow up Jonah. And [d] Jonah was in the belly of the fish three days and three nights.

CHAPTER 2

THEN Jonah prayed unto the LORD his God out of the fish's belly,

2 And said, [k] I cried by reason of mine affliction unto the LORD, and he heard me; [a] out of the belly of [2] hell cried I, and thou heardest my voice.

3 For thou hadst cast me into the deep, in the midst of the seas; and the floods compassed me about: all thy billows and [c] thy waves passed over me.

4 Then I said, [d] I am cast out of thy sight; yet I will look again [e] toward [f] thy holy temple.

5 The waters compassed me about, [g] even to the soul: the depth closed me round about, the [k] weeds were wrapped about my head.

6 I went down to the bottoms of the mountains; the earth with her bars was about me for ever: yet hast thou [o] brought up my life from [3] corruption, O LORD my God.

7 When [p] my soul fainted within me [q] I remembered the LORD: and my prayer came in unto thee, into thine holy temple.

8 They that observe lying [r] vanities forsake their own mercy.

9 But I will [s] sacrifice unto thee with the voice of thanksgiving; I will pay that that I have [t] vowed. [u] Salvation is of the LORD.

10 ¶ And the LORD spake unto the fish, and it vomited out Jonah upon the dry land.

CHAPTER 3

AND the word of the LORD came unto Jonah the second time, saying,

2 Arise, go unto Nĭn'ĕ-vēh, that great city, and preach unto it the preaching that I bid thee.

3 So Jonah arose, and went unto [z] Nĭn'ĕ-vēh, according to the word of the LORD. Now Nineveh was an exceeding great city of [b] three days' journey.

4 And Jonah began to enter into the city a day's journey, and he cried, and said, Yet [e] forty days, and Nĭn'ĕ-vēh shall be overthrown.

5 ¶ So [f] the people of Nĭn'ĕ-vēh [g] believed God, and [h] proclaimed a fast, and put on [i] sackcloth, from the greatest of them even to the least of them.

6 For word came unto the king of Nĭn'ĕ-vēh, and he arose from his throne, and he laid his robe from him, and covered him with sackcloth, and [a] sat in ashes.

7 And he caused it to be proclaimed and published through Nĭn'ĕ-vēh by the decree of the king and his nobles, saying, Let neither man nor beast, herd nor flock, taste any thing: let them not feed, nor drink water:

8 But let man and beast be covered with sackcloth, and cry mightily unto God: yea, [d] let them turn every one from his evil way, and from the violence that is in their hands.

9 [e] Who can tell if God will turn and repent, and turn away from his fierce anger, that we perish not?

10 ¶ And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and [h] God repented of the evil, that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did it not.

CHAPTER 4

BUT it displeased Jonah exceedingly, and he was very angry.

2 And he prayed unto the LORD, and said, I pray thee, O LORD, was not this my saying, when I was yet in my country? Therefore [i] I fled before unto [i] Tär'shĭsh: for I knew that thou art a [k] gracious God, and [k] merciful, [m] slow to anger, and of great kindness, and [n] repentest thee of the evil.

3 Therefore now, O LORD, [o] take, I beseech thee, my life from me; for it is better for me to die than to live.

4 ¶ Then said the LORD, Doest thou well to be angry?

5 [b] So Jonah went out of the city, and sat on the east side of the city, and there made him a booth, and sat under it in the [c] shadow, till he might see what would become of the city.

6 And the LORD God prepared a [2] gourd, and made it to come up over Jonah, that it might be a shadow over his head, to deliver him from his grief. So Jonah was exceeding glad of the gourd.

7 But God prepared a worm when the morning rose the next day, and it smote the gourd that it withered.

8 And it came to pass, when the sun did arise, that God [f] prepared a vehement [g] east wind; and the sun beat upon the head of Jonah, that he fainted, and wished in himself to die, and said, It is better for me to die than to live.

9 And God said to Jonah, Doest thou well to be angry for the gourd? And he said, I do well to be angry, even unto death.

10 Then said the LORD, Thou hast had pity on the gourd, for the which thou hast not laboured, neither madest it grow; which came up in a night, and perished in a night:

11 And should not I spare [l] Nĭn'ĕ-vēh, that great city, wherein are more than sixscore thousand persons that cannot discern between their right hand and their left hand; and also much cattle?

MICAH

CHAPTER 1

THE word of the LORD that came to [c] Micah the Mō-răs'thīte [d] in the days of Jotham, Ahaz, and Hĕz-ē-kī'ăh, kings of Judah, which he saw concerning Samaria and Jerusalem.

2 [e] Hear, all ye people; hearken, O earth, and all that therein is: and [f] let the Lord GOD be witness against you, the Lord from [g] his holy temple.

3 [i] For, behold, the LORD cometh forth out of his place, and will come down, and [a] tread upon the high places of the earth.

4 And the mountains shall be [b] molten under him, and the valleys shall be cleft, as wax before the fire, and as the waters that are poured down a steep place.

5 For the transgression of Jacob is all this, and for the sins of the house of Israel. What is the transgression of Jacob? [h] is it not Samaria? and what are the [k] high places of Judah? are they not Jerusalem?

9 For her [o] wound is incurable; for it is come unto Judah; he is come unto the gate of my people, even to Jerusalem.

10 ¶ Declare ye it not at [q] Gath, weep ye not at all: in [5] the house of Aphrah [7t] roll thyself in the dust.

11 Pass ye away, thou inhabitant of Sā'-phĭr, having thy shame naked: the inhabitant of Zā'-ă-nān came not forth in the mourning of Beth-ezel; he shall receive of you his standing.

12 For the inhabitant of Maroth waited carefully for good: [y] but evil came down from the LORD unto the gate of Jerusalem.

13 O thou inhabitant of [z] Lā'-chĭsh, bind the chariot to the [a] swift beast: she is the beginning of the sin to the [b] daughter of Zion: for the transgressions of Israel were found in thee.

14 Therefore shalt thou give presents to [c] Mō'-rĕsh-ĕth-gath: the houses of [d] Ăch'-zīb shall be [9] a lie to the kings of Israel.

15 Yet will I bring an heir unto thee, O inhabitant of [f] Mă-rē'-shāh: he shall come unto [g] Ă-dŭl'-lām the glory of Israel.

16 [h] Make thee bald, and poll thee for thy delicate children; enlarge thy baldness as the [3] eagle; for they are gone into captivity from thee.

CHAPTER 2

WOE to them [n] that devise iniquity, and work evil upon their beds! when the morning is light, they practise it, because it is [a] in the power of their hand.

2 And they [c] covet fields, and take them by violence; and houses, and take them away: so they [e] oppress a man and his house, even a man and his heritage.

3 Therefore thus saith the LORD; Behold, against this family do I devise an evil, from which ye shall not remove your necks; neither shall ye go haughtily: [h] for this time is evil.

4 ¶ In that day shall one [i] take up a parable against you, and [l] lament with a doleful lamentation, and say, We be utterly spoiled: he hath changed the portion of my people: how hath he removed it from me! [4] turning away he hath divided our fields.

5 Therefore thou shalt have none that shall [p] cast a cord by lot in the congregation of the LORD.

6 [6r] Prophesy ye not, [s] say they to them that prophesy: they shall not prophesy to them, that they shall not take shame.

7 ¶ O thou that art named the house of Jacob, is the spirit of the LORD [8u] straitened? are these his doings? do not my words do good to [x] him that walketh uprightly?

8 Even of late my people is risen up as an enemy: ye pull off the robe with the garment from them that pass by securely as men averse from war.

9 The women of my people have ye cast out from their pleasant houses; from their children have ye taken away my glory for ever.

10 Arise ye, and depart; for this is not your rest: because [e] it is polluted, it shall destroy you, even with a sore destruction.

11 If a man walking in [2] the spirit and falsehood do lie, saying, I will prophesy unto thee of wine and of strong drink; he shall even be [i] the prophet of this people.

12 ¶ I will surely [k] assemble, O Jacob, all of thee; I will surely gather the [l] remnant of Israel; I will put them together as the sheep of [m] Bozrah, as the [o] flock in the midst of their fold: they shall make great noise by reason of the multitude of men.

13 [a] The breaker is come up before them: they have broken up, and have passed through the gate, and are gone out by it: and their king shall pass before them, and [f] the LORD on the head of them.

CHAPTER 3

AND I said, Hear, I pray you, O heads of Jacob, and ye princes of the house of Israel; [l] Is it not for you to know judgment?

2 Who hate the good, and love the evil; who pluck off their skin from off them, and their flesh from off their bones;

3 Who also [p] eat the flesh of my people, and flay their skin from off them; and they break their bones, and chop them in pieces, as for the pot, and [r] as flesh within the caldron.

4 Then shall they cry unto the LORD, but [u] he will not hear them: he will even [y] hide his face from them at that time, as they have behaved themselves ill in their doings.

5 ¶ Thus saith the LORD concerning [a] the prophets that make my people err, that bite with their teeth, and [d] cry, Peace; and he that putteth not into their mouths, they even [2e] prepare war against him.

6 Therefore night shall be unto you, that [f] ye shall not have a vision; and it shall be dark unto you, that ye shall not [h] divine; and the sun shall go down over the prophets, and the day shall be dark over them.

7 Then shall the [l] seers be ashamed, and the diviners confounded: yea, they shall all [n] cover their lips; for there is no answer of God.

8 ¶ But truly [p] I am full of power [q] by the spirit of the LORD, and of judgment, and of might, [s] to declare unto Jacob his transgression, and to Israel his sin.

9 Hear this, I pray you, ye heads of the house of Jacob, and princes of the house of Israel, that [u] abhor judgment, and pervert all equity.

10 [v] They build up Zion with blood, and Jerusalem with iniquity.

11 The heads thereof judge [a] for reward, and the [c] priests thereof teach for hire, and the prophets thereof divine [b] for money: [c] yet will they lean upon the LORD, [d] and say, Is not the LORD among us? [e] none evil can come upon us.

12 [g] Therefore shall Zion for your sake be plowed as a field, and [h] Jerusalem shall become [i] heaps, and [k] the mountain of the house as the high places of the forest.

[m] BUT in [n] the last days it shall come to pass, that [o] the mountain of the house of the LORD shall be established in the top of the mountains, and it shall be exalted above the hills; and [q] people shall flow unto it.

2 And many nations shall come, and say, Come, and [s] let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, and to the house of the [s] God of Jacob; and [t] he will teach us of his ways, and [x] we will walk in his paths: for the law shall go forth of Zion, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.

3 ¶ And [z] he shall judge among many people, and [b] rebuke strong nations afar off; and they shall [c] beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruninghooks: nation shall not lift up a sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more.

4 But [g] they shall sit every man under his vine and under his fig tree; and [i] none shall make them afraid: for [k] the mouth of the LORD of hosts hath spoken it.

5 For [m] all people will walk every one in the name of his god, and [o] we will walk in the name of the LORD our God for ever and ever.

6 In that day, saith the LORD, [r] will I assemble her that halteth, and I will gather her that is driven out, and her that I have afflicted;

7 And I will make her that halted [t] a remnant, and her that was cast far off a strong nation: and [x] the LORD shall reign over them in mount Zion from henceforth, even for ever.

8 ¶ And thou, O [3z] tower of the flock, the strong hold of the [b] daughter of Zion, unto thee shall it come, even the first dominion; the kingdom shall come to the daughter of Jerusalem.

9 Now why dost thou cry out aloud? [c] is there no king in thee? is thy counsellor perished? for pangs have taken thee [d] as a woman in travail.

10 Be in pain, and labour to bring forth, O daughter of Zion, like a woman in travail: for [g] now shalt thou go forth out of the city, and thou shalt dwell in the field, and thou shalt go even to Babylon; there shalt thou be delivered; there the LORD shall [i] redeem thee from the hand of thine enemies.

11 ¶ Now also [k] many nations are gathered against thee, that say, Let her be defiled, and let our eye look upon Zion.

12 But [n] they know not the thoughts of the LORD, neither understand they his counsel: for [p] he shall gather them as the sheaves into the [q] floor.

13 [r] Arise and thresh, O daughter of Zion: for I will make thine horn iron, and I will make thy hoofs brass: and thou shalt beat in pieces many people: and I will [2t] consecrate their gain unto the LORD, and their substance unto the [u] Lord of the whole earth.

CHAPTER 5

NOW gather thyself in troops, O daughter of troops: he hath laid siege against us: they [y] shall smite the judge of Israel with a rod upon the cheek.

2 [a] But thou, [b] Beth-lehem [c] Ĕph'ră-tăh, though thou be little among the thousands of Judah, yet out of thee [f] shall he come forth unto me that is to be ruler in Israel; whose goings forth have been from of old, [4] from everlasting.

3 [i] Therefore will he give them up, [k] until the time that she which travaileth hath brought forth: then the [m] remnant of his brethren shall return unto the children of Israel.

4 ¶ And [n] he shall stand and feed in the strength of the LORD, in the majesty of the name of the LORD his God; and they shall abide: for now [o] shall he be great unto the ends of the earth.

5 And this man [a] shall be the peace, [b] when the Assyrian shall come into our land: and when he shall tread in our palaces, then shall we raise against him seven shepherds, and eight principal men.

6 And they shall [e] waste the land of Assyria with the [f] sword, and the land of [h] Nimrod in the entrances thereof: thus shall he deliver us from the Assyrian, when he cometh into our land, and when he treadeth within our borders.

7 And the remnant of Jacob shall be in the midst of many people as a [l] dew from the LORD, [m] as the showers upon the grass, that tarrieth not for man, nor waiteth for the sons of men.

8 ¶ And the remnant of Jacob shall be among the Gentiles in the midst of many people [o] as a lion among the beasts of the forest, as a young lion among the flocks of sheep: who, if he go through, both treadeth down, and teareth in pieces, and none can deliver.

9 [s] Thine hand shall be lifted up upon thine adversaries, and all thine enemies shall be cut off.

10 And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD, that I will [x] cut off thy horses out of the midst of thee, and I will destroy thy chariots:

11 And I will cut off the cities of thy land, and throw down all thy strong holds:

12 And I will cut off [z] witchcrafts out of thine hand; and thou shalt have no more [d] soothsayers:

13 Thy [e] graven images also will I cut off, and thy [3g] standing images out of the midst of thee; and thou shalt no more worship the work of thine hands.

14 And I will pluck up thy [5h] groves out of the midst of thee: so will I destroy thy cities.

15 And [l] I will execute vengeance in anger and fury upon the heathen, such as they have not heard.

CHAPTER 6

HEAR ye now what the LORD saith; Arise, contend thou before the mountains, and let the hills hear thy voice.

2 [a]Hear ye, O mountains, the LORD's controversy, and ye strong foundations of the earth: for [b]the LORD hath a controversy with his people, and he will plead with Israel.

3 O my people, [d]what have I done unto thee? and [f]wherein have I wearied thee? testify against me.

4 For [h]I brought thee up out of the land of Egypt, and [i]redeemed thee out of the house of servants; and [l]I sent before thee Moses, Aaron, and Miriam.

5 O my people, remember now what [o]Balak king of Moab consulted, and what [q]Bā'lāām the son of Beor answered him from [s]Shittim unto [t]Gilgal; that ye may know the [3u]righteousness of the LORD.

6 ¶ [y]Wherewith shall I come before the LORD, and bow myself before [z]the high God? shall I come before him with burnt offerings, with calves of a year old?

7 Will the LORD be pleased with thousands of rams, or with ten thousands of rivers of oil? [f]shall I give my firstborn for my transgression, the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?

8 [k]He hath shewed thee, O man, what is good; and [m]what doth the LORD require of thee, but to do justly, and [n]to love mercy, and [o]to walk humbly with thy God?

9 The LORD's voice crieth unto the city, and the man of wisdom shall see thy name: hear ye [r]the rod, and who hath appointed it.

10 ¶ Are there yet the treasures of wickedness in the house of the wicked, and the [x]scant measure that is abominable?

11 Shall I count them pure with the wicked balances, and with the bag of deceitful weights?

12 For the rich men thereof are full of violence, and the inhabitants thereof have [c]spoken lies, and their tongue is deceitful in their mouth.

13 Therefore also will I make thee sick in smiting thee, in [f]making thee desolate because of thy sins.

14 [h]Thou shalt eat, but not be satisfied; and thy casting down shall be in the midst of thee; and thou shalt take hold, but shalt not deliver; and that which thou deliverest will I give up to [c]the sword.

15 Thou shalt sow, but thou shalt not reap; thou shalt [e]tread the olives, but thou shalt not anoint thee with oil; and [g]sweet wine, but shalt not drink wine.

16 ¶ For the statutes of [k]Omri are kept, and all the works of the house of [m]Ahab, and ye walk in their counsels; that I should make thee a [2n]desolation, and the inhabitants thereof an [p]hissing: therefore ye shall bear the [r]reproach of my people.

CHAPTER 7

WOE is me! for I am [x]as when they have gathered the summer fruits, as the [a]grapegleanings of the vintage: there is no cluster to eat: my soul desired the [b]firstripe fruit.

2 [c]The [4]good man is perished out of the earth: and [d]there is none upright among men: [e]they all lie in wait for blood; [g]they hunt every man his brother [h]with a net.

3 ¶ [i]That they may do evil with both hands earnestly, the prince asketh, and the judge asketh for a [l]reward; and the great man, he uttereth his mischievous desire: so they wrap it up.

4 The best of them is [p]as a brier: the most upright is sharper than a thorn hedge: the day of thy [q]watchmen and [s]thy visitation cometh; now shall be their [t]perplexity.

5 ¶ [u]Trust ye not in a friend, put ye not confidence in a guide: keep the doors of thy mouth [y]from her that lieth [z]in thy bosom.

6 For [a]the son dishonoureth the father, the daughter riseth up against her mother, the daughter in law against her mother in law; [b]a man's enemies are the men of his own house.

7 Therefore [d]I will look unto the LORD; [e]I will wait for the God of my salvation: my God will hear me.

8 ¶ Rejoice not against me, O mine enemy: [g]when I fall, I shall arise; when I sit in darkness, [i]the LORD shall be a light unto me.

NAHUM

CHAPTER 1

[b]THE [2]burden of [c]Nĭn'ĕ-vēh. The book of the [e]vision of Nahum the Ĕl'kō-shīte.

2 God is [h]jealous, and the LORD revengeth; the LORD revengeth, and is furious; the LORD will [k]take vengeance on his adversaries, and he [l]reserveth wrath for his enemies.

3 The LORD is [n]slow to anger, and [o]great in power, and [p]will not at all acquit the wicked: the LORD [s]hath his way in the whirlwind and in the storm, and the clouds are the dust of his feet.

4 He [x]rebuketh the sea, and maketh it dry, and drieth up all the rivers: [z]Bashan languisheth, and [a]Carmel, and the flower of [a]Lebanon languisheth.

5 The [d]mountains quake at him, and [f]the hills melt, and the earth is burned at his presence, yea, [g]the world, and all that dwell therein.

6 [i]Who can stand before his indignation? and who can abide in the fierceness of his anger? his fury is poured out [m]like fire, and the rocks are thrown down by him.

7 [q]The LORD is good, [r]a strong hold in the day of trouble; and [t]he knoweth them that trust in him.

8 But [u]with an overrunning flood he will make an utter end of the place thereof, and [y]darkness shall pursue his enemies.

9 What do ye imagine against the LORD? [a]he will make an utter end: affliction shall not rise up the second time.

10 For while they be folden together [b]as thorns, and while they are drunken as drunkards, they [d]shall be devoured as stubble fully dry.

11 There is one come out of thee, that imagineth evil against the LORD, [e]a wicked counsellor.

12 Thus saith the LORD; Though they be quiet, and likewise many, yet thus shall they be cut down, when he shall pass through. [h]Though I have afflicted thee, I will afflict thee no more.

13 For now will I [i]break his yoke from off thee, and will burst thy bonds in sunder.

14 And the LORD hath given a commandment concerning thee, that no more of thy name be sown: out of the house of thy gods will I [n]cut off the graven image and the molten image: I will make thy grave; for thou art [q]vile.

15 [r]Behold upon the mountains the feet of him that bringeth [s]good tidings, that publisheth peace! O Judah, keep thy solemn feasts, [t]perform thy vows: for the [u]wicked shall no more pass through thee; he is utterly cut off.

CHAPTER 2

[y]HE that dasheth in pieces is come up before thy face: keep the munition, watch the way, make thy loins strong, [a]fortify thy power mightily.

2 For the LORD [3]hath turned away the [b]excellency of Jacob, as the excellency of Israel: for the [c]emptiers have emptied them out, and marred their vine branches.

3 The shield of his mighty men is made red, the valiant men are in [g]scarlet: the chariots [4]shall be with flaming torches in the day of his preparation, and the [5]fir trees shall be terribly shaken.

4 [h]The chariots shall rage in the streets, they shall justle one against another in the broad ways: they shall seem like torches, they shall run like the [i]lightnings.

6 The [c]gates of the rivers shall be opened, and the palace shall be dissolved.

7 And Huzzab shall be led away captive, she shall be brought up, and her maids shall [f]lead her as with the voice of doves, tabering upon their breasts.

8 But [g]Nín-ĕ-vēh is of old like a pool of water: yet they shall flee away. Stand, stand, shall they cry; but none shall look back.

9 Take ye the spoil of silver, take the spoil of gold: for there is none end of the store and [k]glory out of all the pleasant furniture.

10 She is empty, and void, and waste: and [l]the heart melteth, and [m]the knees smite together, and much pain is in all loins, and the [o]faces of them all [2]gather blackness.

11 Where is the dwelling of [p]the lions, and the feedingplace of the young lions, where the lion, even the old lion, walked, and the lion's whelp, and none made them afraid?

12 The lion did tear in pieces enough for his whelps, and strangled for his lionesses, and filled his holes with prey, and his dens with ravin.

13 [x]Behold, I am against thee, saith the LORD of hosts, and I will burn her chariots in the smoke, and the [z]sword shall devour thy young lions: and I will cut off thy prey from the earth, and the voice of thy messengers shall no more be heard.

CHAPTER 3

[d]WOE to the bloody city! it is all full of lies and robbery; the prey departeth not;

2 [e]The noise of a whip, and [f]the noise of the rattling of the wheels, and of the pransing horses, and of the jumping chariots.

3 The horseman lifteth up both the bright sword and the glittering spear: and there is a multitude of slain, and a great number of carcases; and there is none end of their corpses; they stumble upon their corpses:

4 Because of the multitude of the whoredoms of the wellfavoured harlot, the mistress of [b] witchcrafts, that selleth nations through her whoredoms, and families through her witchcrafts.

5 Behold, [e] I am against thee, saith the LORD of hosts; and [f] I will discover thy skirts upon thy face, and I will shew the nations thy nakedness, and the kingdoms thy shame.

6 And [i] I will cast abominable filth upon thee, and make thee [k] vile, and will set thee as a gazingstock.

7 And it shall come to pass, that all they that look upon thee [n] shall flee from thee, and say, [o] Nĭn'ĕ-vēh is laid waste: [p] who will bemoan her? whence shall I seek comforters for thee?

8 Art thou better than [3r] populous [s] No, that was situate among the rivers, that had the waters round about it, whose rampart was [4] the sea, and her wall was from the sea?

9 [u] Ethiopia and Egypt were her strength, and it was infinite; [x] Pŭt and [y] Lubim were thy helpers.

10 [z] Yet was she carried away, she went into captivity: her young children also were [a] dashed in pieces [b] at the top of all the streets: and they [c] cast lots for her honourable men, and all her great men were bound in chains.

11 [d] Thou also shalt be drunken: thou shalt be hid, thou also shalt seek strength because of the enemy.

12 All thy strong holds shall be like fig trees with the [a] firstripe figs: if they be shaken, they shall even fall into the mouth of the eater.

13 Behold, thy people in the midst of thee [c] are women: the [d] gates of thy land shall be set wide open unto thine enemies: the fire shall devour thy [g] bars.

14 Draw thee waters for the siege, [h] fortify thy strong holds: go into clay, and tread the morter, [2] make strong the brickkiln.

15 There shall the fire devour thee; the [l] sword shall cut thee off, it shall eat thee up like the [m] cankerworm: make thyself many as the cankerworm, make thyself many as the [q] locusts.

16 Thou hast multiplied thy merchants above the stars of heaven: the cankerworm spoileth, and fleeth away.

17 Thy crowned are as the locusts, and thy [5t] captains as the great grasshoppers, which camp in the hedges in the cold day, but when the sun ariseth they flee away, and their place is not known where they are.

18 Thy shepherds slumber, O king of Assyria: thy nobles shall dwell in the dust: thy people is scattered upon the mountains, and no man gathereth them.

19 There is no healing of thy bruise; [e] thy wound is grievous: all that hear the bruit of thee shall [f] clap the hands over thee: for upon whom hath not thy wickedness passed continually?

HABAKKUK

CHAPTER 1

620 B.C.

[a] THE [2] burden which Hă-băk'kŭk the prophet did see.

2 O LORD, [c] how long shall I cry, and thou wilt not hear! even [d] cry out unto thee of violence, and thou wilt not save!

3 Why dost thou shew me iniquity, and cause me to behold grievance? for spoiling and violence are before me: and there are that raise up strife and contention.

4 Therefore the law is slacked, and judgment doth never go forth: for the wicked doth compass about the righteous; therefore [b] wrong judgment proceedeth.

5 ¶ [e] Behold ye among the heathen, and regard, and wonder marvellously: for [f] I will work a work in your days, which ye will not believe, though it be told you.

6 For, lo, [g] I raise up the Chăl-dē'ăns, that bitter and hasty nation, which shall march through the breadth of the land, to possess the dwellingplaces that are not their's.

7 They are terrible and dreadful: their judgment and their dignity shall proceed of themselves.

8 Their horses also are swifter than the leopards, and are more fierce than the evening [c] wolves: and their horsemen shall spread themselves, and their horsemen shall come from far; they shall fly [g] as the eagle that hasteth to eat.

9 They shall come all for violence: their faces [2]shall sup up as the [i] east wind, and they shall gather the captivity as the sand.

10 And they shall scoff at the kings, and the princes shall be a scorn unto them: they shall deride every strong hold; for they shall heap dust, and take it.

11 [5]Then shall his mind change, and he shall pass over, and offend, [6]imputing this his power unto his god.

12 ¶ [o] Art thou not from everlasting, O LORD my God, mine Holy One? we shall not die. O LORD, thou hast [r] ordained them for judgment; and, O [8s] mighty God, thou hast established them for correction.

13 Thou art of purer eyes than to behold evil, and canst not look on iniquity: [u] wherefore lookest thou upon them that deal treacherously, and holdest thy tongue when the wicked devoureth the man that is more righteous than he?

14 And makest men as the fishes of the sea, as the creeping things, that [z] have no ruler over them?

15 [a] They take up all of them with the angle, they catch them in their net, and gather them in their drag: therefore they rejoice and are glad.

16 Therefore they sacrifice unto their net, and burn incense unto their drag; because by them their portion is fat, and their meat plenteous.

17 Shall they therefore empty their net, and not spare continually to slay the nations?

CHAPTER 2

[a] I WILL stand upon my watch, and set me upon the tower, and [b] will watch to see what he will say unto me, and what I shall answer when I am reproved.

2 And the LORD answered me, and said, [d] Write [e] the vision, and make it plain [f] upon tables, that he may run that readeth it.

3 For [h] the vision is yet for an appointed time, but at the end it shall speak, and not lie: though it tarry, wait for it; because [k] it will surely come, [l] it will not tarry.

4 Behold, his soul which is lifted up is not upright in him: but [m] the just shall live [3]by his faith.

5 ¶ Yea also, because [4]he transgresseth by wine, he is a proud man, neither keepeth at home, who [n] enlargeth his desire as hell, and is as death, and cannot be satisfied, but gathereth unto him all nations, and heapeth unto him all people:

6 Shall not all these take up a [p] parable against him, and a [q] taunting [7]proverb against him, and say, Woe to him that increaseth that which is not his! [t] how long? and to him that ladeth himself with [9]thick clay!

7 Shall they not rise up suddenly that shall [2]bite thee, and awake that shall [3]vex thee, and thou shalt be for booties unto them?

8 [x] Because thou hast spoiled many nations, all the remnant of the people shall spoil thee; [y] because of men's blood, and for the violence of the land, of the city, and of all that dwell therein.

9 ¶ Woe to him that coveteth an evil covetousness to his house, that he [b] may set his nest on high, that he may be delivered from the power of evil!

10 Thou hast consulted shame to thy house by cutting off many people, and [c] hast sinned against thy soul.

11 For the stone shall cry out of the wall, and the beam out of the timber shall answer it.

12 ¶ [d] Woe to him that buildeth a town with blood, and stablisheth a city by iniquity!

13 Behold, is it not of the LORD of hosts that the people shall labour in the very fire, and the people shall weary themselves [c] for very vanity?

14 For [d] the earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea.

15 ¶ Woe unto him [g] that giveth his neighbour drink, that [5] puttest thy bottle to him, and makest him drunken also, that thou mayest look on their nakedness!

16 Thou art filled with shame for glory: [k] drink thou also, and let thy foreskin be uncovered: the cup of the LORD's right hand shall be turned unto thee, and shameful spewing shall be on thy glory.

17 For the violence of Lebanon shall cover thee, and the spoil of beasts, which made them afraid, [m] because of men's blood, and for the violence of the land, of the city, and of all that dwell therein.

18 ¶ [o] What profiteth the graven image that the maker thereof hath graven it; the molten image, and a teacher of lies, that the maker of his work trusteth therein, to make dumb [t] idols?

19 Woe unto him that saith to the wood, Awake; to the dumb stone, Arise, it shall teach! Behold, it is laid over with gold and silver, and there is no breath at all in the midst of it.

20 But the LORD is in his [y] holy temple: [z] let all the earth keep silence before him.

CHAPTER 3

A [c] PRAYER of Hă-băk'-kŭk the prophet upon Shĭg-ĭ-ō'-nŏth.

2 O LORD, I have heard thy speech, and [d] was afraid: O LORD, [e] revive thy work in the midst of the years, in the midst of the years make known; in wrath remember mercy.

3 [h] God came from [i] Teman, and the Holy One from mount [k] Paran. Selah. His glory covered the heavens, and the earth was full of his praise.

4 And his [n] brightness was as the light; he had [7] horns coming out of his hand: and there was the hiding of his power.

7 I saw the tents of [h] Cū'-shăn in affliction: and the curtains of the land of [i] Midian did tremble.

8 Was the LORD displeased against the rivers? was thine anger against the rivers? was thy wrath against the sea, that thou didst ride upon thine horses and thy [l] chariots of salvation?

9 Thy bow was made quite naked, [6] according to the oaths of the tribes, even thy word. Selah. [n] Thou didst cleave the earth with rivers.

10 The mountains saw thee, and they trembled: the overflowing of the water passed by: [p] the deep uttered his voice, and [q] lifted up his hands on high.

11 [r] The sun and moon stood still in their habitation: at the light of [s] thine arrows they went, and at the shining of thy [u] glittering spear.

13 [x] Thou wentest forth for the salvation of thy people, even for salvation with [a] thine anointed; [b] thou woundedst the head out of the house of the wicked, by discovering the foundation unto the neck. Selah.

15 [g] Thou didst walk through the sea with thine horses, through the heap of great waters.

16 When I heard, my belly [l] trembled; my lips quivered at the voice: [m] rottenness entered into my bones, and I trembled in myself, that I [o] might rest in the day of trouble: when he cometh up unto the people, he will invade them with his troops.

CHAPTER 1

626 B.C.

THE word of the LORD which came unto Zĕph-ă-nī'-ăh the son of Cū'-shī, the son of Gĕd-ă-lī'-ăh, the son of Ăm-ă-rī'-ăh, the son of Hĭz-kī'-ăh, [b] in the days of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah.

2 [d] I will utterly consume all things from off the land, saith the LORD.

3 I will consume man and beast; I will consume the fowls of the heaven, and the [d] fishes of the sea, and the [f] stumblingblocks with the wicked; and I will cut off man from off the land, saith the LORD.

4 I will also stretch out mine hand upon Judah, and upon all the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and I will cut off the remnant of [k] Bā'-ăl from this place, and the name of the [l] Chĕm'-ă-rĭms with the priests;

5 And [n] them that worship the [o] host of heaven [q] upon the housetops; and them that worship and that swear by the LORD, and that [r] swear by [s] Măl'-chăm;

6 And them that are [t] turned back from the LORD; and those that have not sought the LORD, nor enquired for him.

7 [u] Hold thy peace at the presence of the Lord GOD: for the [y] day of the LORD is at hand: for the LORD [z] hath prepared a sacrifice, he hath [3a] bid his guests.

8 And it shall come to pass in the day of the LORD's sacrifice, that I will punish the princes, and the king's children, and all such as are clothed with strange apparel.

9 In the same day also will I punish all those that [d] leap on the threshold, which fill their masters' houses with violence and deceit.

10 And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD, that there shall be the noise of a cry from the [a] fish gate, and an howling from the [c] second, and a great crashing from the hills.

11 Howl, ye inhabitants of [2e] Maktesh, for all the merchant people are cut down; all they that bear silver are cut off.

12 And it shall come to pass at that time, that I will search Jerusalem with candles, and punish the men that are [g] settled on their lees: [h] that say in their heart, The LORD [i] will not do good, neither will he do evil.

13 Therefore their goods shall become a booty, and their houses a desolation: they shall also [m] build houses, but not inhabit them; and they shall [p] plant vineyards, but not drink the wine thereof.

14 The great day of the LORD is near, it is near, and hasteth greatly, even the voice of the day of the LORD: the mighty man shall cry there bitterly.

15 That day is a day of wrath, a day of trouble and distress, a day of wasteness and desolation, a day of [x] darkness and gloominess, a day of clouds and thick darkness,

16 A day of the [b] trumpet and alarm against the fenced cities, and against the high towers.

17 And I will bring distress upon men, that they shall [c] walk like blind men, because they have sinned against the LORD: and their blood shall be poured out as dust, and their flesh as the dung.

GATHER yourselves together, yea, gather together, O nation [3]not desired;

2 Before the decree bring forth, before the day pass [k] as the chaff, before the fierce anger of the LORD come upon you, before the [m]day of the LORD's anger come upon you.

3 [o]Seek ye the LORD, all ye [p]meek of the earth, which have wrought his judgment; seek righteousness, seek meekness: it may be [q]ye shall be hid in the day of the LORD's anger.

4 ¶ For [t]Gaza shall be forsaken, and [u]Ăsh'kĕ-lon a desolation: they shall drive out [x]Ashdod at the noon day, and [z]Ekron shall be rooted up.

5 Woe unto the inhabitants of the sea coast, the nation of the [b]Chĕr'ĕ-thītes! the word of the LORD is against you; O Că'nă-ăn, the land of [e]the Philistines, I will even destroy thee, that there shall be no inhabitant.

6 And the sea coast shall be dwellings and cottages for shepherds, and [h]folds for flocks.

7 And the coast shall be for the [k]remnant of the house of Judah; they shall feed thereupon: in the houses of Ăsh'kĕ-lon shall they lie down in the evening: for the LORD their God shall [n]visit them, and [o]turn away their captivity.

8 ¶ I have heard the [q]reproach of Moab, and the revilings of the children of Ammon, whereby they have reproached my people, and magnified themselves against their border.

9 Therefore [x]as I live, saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Surely [a]Moab shall be [b]as Sodom, and the children of [d]Ammon as Gō-mŏr'răh, even the breeding of [6f]nettles, and [g]saltpits, and a perpetual desolation: the residue of my people shall spoil them, and the remnant of my people shall possess them.

10 This shall they have [b]for their pride, because they have reproached and magnified themselves against the people of the LORD of hosts.

11 The LORD will be [e]terrible unto them: for he will [f]famish all the gods of the earth; and [g]men shall worship him, every one from his place, even all the [2]isles of the heathen.

12 ¶ Ye [h]Ethiopians also, ye [i]shall be slain by my sword.

13 And he will stretch out his hand against the north, and destroy [l]Assyria; and will make [n]Nĭn'ĕ-vēh a desolation, and dry like a wilderness.

14 And flocks shall lie down in the midst of her, all the beasts of the nations: both the [4]cormorant and the [5r]bittern shall lodge in the upper [s]lintels of it; their voice shall sing in the windows; desolation shall be in the thresholds: for he shall uncover the [y]cedar work.

15 This is the rejoicing city [a]that dwelt carelessly, that said in her heart, [c]I am, and there is none beside me: how is she become a [d]desolation, a [f]place for beasts to lie down in! every one that passeth by her shall [d]hiss, and [g]wag his hand.

CHAPTER 3

[i]WOE to her that is filthy and polluted, to the oppressing city!

2 [l]She obeyed not the voice; [m]she received not correction; she trusted not in the LORD; she drew not near to her God.

3 [p]Her princes within her are roaring lions; her judges are evening [r]wolves; they gnaw not the bones till the morrow.

4 [s]Her prophets are light and treacherous persons: [t]her priests [u]have polluted the sanctuary, they have done violence to the law.

5 [y]The just LORD [z]is in the midst thereof; [c]he will not do iniquity: [e]every morning doth he bring his judgment to light, he faileth not; but the unjust [h]knoweth no shame.

6 I have cut off the nations: their

CHAPTER 1

IN the second year of [a]Dă-rī'-ŭs the king, in the sixth month, in the first day of the month, came the word of the LORD by [b]Hăg'-gâi the prophet unto [c]Zĕ-rŭb'-bă-bĕl the son of Shē-ăl'-tī-ĕl, governor of Judah, and to [e]Joshua the son of Jŏs'-ĕ-dĕch, the [g]high priest, saying,

2 Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, saying, This people say, The time is not come, the time that the LORD's house should be built.

3 Then came the word of the LORD by Hăg'-gâi the prophet, saying,

4 [d]Is it time for you, O ye, to dwell in your cieled houses, and [f]this house lie waste?

5 Now therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts; [a] Consider your ways.

6 [b] Ye have sown much, and bring in little; [c] ye eat, but ye have not enough; ye drink, but ye are not filled with drink; ye clothe you, but there is none warm; and he that earneth wages earneth wages to put it into a bag with holes.

7 ¶ Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Consider your ways.

8 Go up to the mountain, and bring wood, and [h] build the house; and I will take pleasure in it, and [k] I will be glorified, saith the LORD.

9 Ye looked for much, and, lo, it came to little; and when ye brought it home, I did blow upon it. Why? saith the LORD of hosts. Because of mine house that is waste, and ye run every man unto his own house.

10 Therefore the heaven over you is [o] stayed from dew, and [p] the earth is stayed from her fruit.

11 And [r] I called for a drought upon the land, and upon the mountains, and [t] upon the corn, and upon the [x] new wine, and upon the oil, and upon that which the ground bringeth forth, and upon men, and upon cattle, and upon all the labour of the hands.

12 ¶ Then Zĕ-rŭb'bă-bĕl the son of Shē-ăl'tĭ-ĕl, and Joshua the son of Jŏs'ĕ-dĕch, the high priest, with all the [e] remnant of the people, obeyed the voice of the LORD their God, and the words of Hăg'gâi the prophet, as the LORD their God had sent him, and the people [f] did fear before the LORD.

13 Then spake Hăg'gâi the LORD's [h] messenger in the LORD's message unto the people, saying, [i] I am with you, saith the LORD.

14 And [k] the LORD stirred up the spirit of Zĕ-rŭb'bă-bĕl the son of Shē-ăl'tĭ-ĕl, governor of Judah, and the spirit of Joshua the son of Jŏs'ĕ-dĕch, the high priest, and the spirit of all the remnant of the people; and they came and did work in the house of the LORD of hosts, their God,

CHAPTER 2

IN the seventh month, in the one and twentieth day of the month, came the word of the LORD by the prophet [d] Hăg'gâi, saying,

2 Speak now to [e] Zĕ-rŭb'bă-bĕl the son of Shē-ăl'tĭ-ĕl, governor of Judah, and to Joshua the son of Jŏs'ĕ-dĕch, the high priest, and to the [f] residue of the people, saying,

3 [g] Who is left among you that saw this house [i] in her first glory? and how do ye see it now? [l] is it not in your eyes in comparison of it as nothing?

4 Yet now [m] be strong, O Zĕ-rŭb'bă-bĕl, saith the LORD; and be strong, O Joshua, son of Jŏs'ĕ-dĕch, the high priest; and be strong, all ye people of the land, saith the LORD, and work: for [n] I am with you, saith the LORD of hosts:

5 [q] According to the word that I covenanted with you when ye came out of Egypt, so [s] my spirit remaineth among you: [u] fear ye not.

6 For thus saith the LORD of hosts; [y] Yet once, it is [z] a little while, and [a] I will shake the heavens, and the earth, and the sea, and the dry land;

7 And I will shake all nations, and the [2b] desire of all nations [c] shall come: and [d] I will fill this house with glory, saith the LORD of hosts.

8 The silver is mine, and the gold is mine, saith the LORD of hosts.

9 [3] The glory of this latter house shall be greater than of the former, saith the LORD of hosts: and in this place will I give [g] peace, saith the LORD of hosts.

10 ¶ In the four and twentieth day of the ninth month, in the second year of [l] Dă-rī'ŭs, came the word of the LORD by Hăg'gâi the prophet, saying,

11 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; [m] Ask now the priests concerning the law, saying,

12 If one bear holy flesh in the skirt of his garment, and with his skirt do touch bread, or pottage, or wine, or oil, or any meat, shall it be holy? And the priests answered and said, No.

13 Then said Hăg-gâi, If one that is [b] unclean by a dead body touch any of these, shall it be unclean? And the priests answered and said, It shall be unclean.

14 Then answered Hăg-gâi, and said, So is this people, and so is this nation before me, saith the LORD; and so is every work of their hands; and that which they offer there is unclean.

15 And now, I pray you, [e] consider from this day and upward, from before a stone was laid upon a stone in the temple of the LORD:

16 Since those days were, when one came to an heap of twenty measures, there were but ten: [f] when one came to the [h] pressfat for to draw out fifty vessels out of the press, there were but twenty.

17 I smote you with [i] blasting and with mildew and with [k] hail in all the labours of your hands; [l] yet ye turned not to me, saith the LORD.

18 Consider now from this day and upward, from the four and twentieth day of the ninth month, even from the day that the [a] foundation of the LORD's temple was laid, consider it.

19 [c] Is the seed yet in the barn? yea, as yet the vine, and the fig tree, and the pomegranate, and the olive tree, hath not brought forth: [d] from this day will I bless you.

20 ¶ And again the word of the LORD came unto Hăg-gâi in the four and twentieth day of the month, saying,

21 Speak to Zĕ-rŭb-bă-bĕl, governor of Judah, saying, I will shake the heavens and the earth;

22 And I will overthrow the throne of kingdoms, and I will destroy the strength of the kingdoms of the heathen; and [g] I will overthrow the chariots, and those that ride in them; and the horses and their riders shall come down, every one by the sword of his brother.

23 In that day, saith the LORD of hosts, will I take thee, O Zĕ-rŭb-bă-bĕl, [m] my servant, the son of Shē-ăl-tī-ĕl, saith the LORD, and will make thee as a [n] signet: for I have chosen thee, saith the LORD of hosts.

ZECHARIAH

CHAPTER 1

IN the eighth month, in the second year of [c] Dă-rī-ŭs, came the word of the LORD unto [d] Zĕch-ă-rī-ăh, the son of Bĕr-ē-chī-ăh, the son of Ĭd-dō the prophet, saying,

2 [f] The LORD hath been sore displeased with your fathers.

3 Therefore say thou unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; [g] Turn ye unto me, saith the LORD of hosts, and I will turn unto you, saith the LORD of hosts.

4 [h] Be ye not as your fathers, [i] unto whom the [k] former prophets have cried, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Turn ye now from your evil ways, and from your evil doings: but [e] they did not hear, nor hearken unto me, saith the LORD.

5 Your fathers, where are they? and the prophets, do they live for ever?

6 But [a] my words and my statutes, [b] which I commanded my servants the prophets, did they not take hold of your fathers? and they returned and said, Like as the LORD of hosts thought to do unto us, [e] according to our ways, and according to our doings, so hath he dealt with us.

7 ¶ Upon the four and twentieth day of the eleventh month, which is the month Sebat, in the second year of Dă-rī-ŭs, came the word of the LORD unto Zĕch-ă-rī-ăh, the son of Bĕr-ē-chī-ăh, the son of Ĭd-dō the prophet, saying,

8 [l] I saw by night, and behold [m] a man riding upon [n] a red horse, and he stood among the myrtle trees that were in the bottom; and behind him were there red horses, speckled, and white.

9 Then said I, O my lord, what are these? And [p] the angel that talked

10 And the man that stood among the myrtle trees answered and said, These are they whom the LORD hath sent to [a] walk to and fro through the earth.

11 And they answered the [b] angel of the LORD that stood among the myrtle trees, and said, We have walked to and fro through the earth, and, behold, [f] all the earth sitteth still, and is at rest.

12 ¶ Then the angel of the LORD answered and said, O LORD of hosts, [i] how long wilt thou not have mercy on Jerusalem and on the cities of Judah, against which thou hast had indignation these [k] threescore and ten years?

13 And the LORD answered the angel that talked with me with [o] good words and comfortable words.

14 So the angel that communed with me said unto me, Cry thou, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; I am [s] jealous for Jerusalem and for Zion with a great jealousy.

15 And I am very sore displeased with the heathen [x] that are at ease: for [z] I was but a little displeased, and they helped forward the affliction.

16 Therefore thus saith the LORD; I am returned to Jerusalem [a] with mercies: [b] my house shall be built in it, saith the LORD of hosts, and [c] a line shall be stretched forth upon Jerusalem.

17 Cry yet, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; My cities through prosperity shall yet be spread abroad; and the LORD shall yet [h] comfort Zion, and shall yet [i] choose Jerusalem.

18 ¶ Then lifted I up mine eyes, and saw, and [k] behold four [l] horns.

19 And I said unto the angel that talked with me, What be these? And he answered me, These are the horns which have scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem.

20 And the LORD shewed me four carpenters.

21 Then said I, What come these to do? And he spake, saying, These are the horns which have scattered Judah, so that no man did lift up his head: but these are come to fray them, to cast out the horns of the Gentiles, which lifted up their horn over the land of Judah to scatter it.

CHAPTER 2

[c] I LIFTED up mine eyes again, and looked, and behold [d] a man with [e] a measuring line in his hand.

2 Then said I, Whither goest thou? And he said unto me, [g] To measure Jerusalem, to see what is the breadth thereof, and what is the length thereof.

3 And, behold, [h] the angel that talked with me went forth, and another angel went out to meet him,

4 And said unto him, Run, speak to this young man, saying, [l] Jerusalem shall be inhabited as [m] towns without walls for the [n] multitude of men and cattle therein:

5 [p] For I, saith the LORD, will be unto her a [q] wall of fire round about, and will be [r] the glory in the midst of her.

6 ¶ Ho, ho, come forth, and [t] flee from the land of the north, saith the LORD: for I have [u] spread you abroad as the [y] four winds of the heaven, saith the LORD.

7 Deliver thyself, O Zion, that dwellest with the daughter of Babylon.

8 For thus saith the LORD of hosts; After the glory hath he [d] sent me unto the nations which spoiled you: for he that [e] toucheth you toucheth the [f] apple of his eye.

9 For, behold, I will shake mine hand upon them, and [g] they shall be a spoil to their servants: and ye shall know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me.

10 ¶ [m] Sing and rejoice, O [n] daughter of Zion: for, lo, I come, and [o] I will dwell in the midst of thee, saith the LORD.

11 And [p] many nations shall be joined to the LORD in that day, and shall be my people: and I will dwell in the midst of thee, and thou shalt know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me unto thee.

12 And the LORD shall [q] inherit

Judah his portion in the holy land, and shall [a] choose Jerusalem again.

13 [b] Be silent, O all flesh, before the LORD: for he is raised up out of [d] his holy habitation.

CHAPTER 3

AND [g] he shewed me [h] Joshua the high priest standing before the [k] angel of the LORD, and [2 l] Satan standing at his right hand to resist him.

2 And the LORD said unto Satan, [n] The LORD rebuke thee, O Satan; even the LORD that hath [p] chosen Jerusalem rebuke thee: is not this a [q] brand plucked out of the fire?

3 Now Joshua was [r] clothed with filthy garments, and stood before the angel.

4 And he answered and spake unto those that stood before him, saying, Take away the filthy garments from him. And unto him he said, Behold, [s] I have caused thine iniquity to pass from thee, and [t] I will clothe thee with change of raiment.

5 And I said, Let them [y] set a fair [z] mitre upon his head. So they set a fair mitre upon his head, and clothed him with garments. And the angel of the LORD stood by.

6 And the angel of the LORD protested unto Joshua, saying,

7 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; [c] If thou wilt walk in my ways, and if thou wilt [e] keep my charge, then thou shalt also [f] judge my house, and shalt also keep my courts, and I will give thee places to walk among these that stand by.

8 Hear now, O Joshua the high priest, thou, and thy fellows that sit before thee: for they are men [3 l] wondered at: for, behold, I will bring forth my servant [o] the BRANCH.

9 For behold [q] the stone that I have laid before Joshua; upon one stone shall be [r] seven eyes: behold, I will [t] engrave the graving thereof, saith the LORD of hosts, and [u] I will remove the iniquity of that land in one day.

10 In that day, saith the LORD of hosts, shall ye call every man his neighbour [x] under the vine and under the fig tree.

CHAPTER 4

AND [c] the angel that talked with me came again, and [e] waked me, as a man that is wakened out of his sleep,

2 And said unto me, [f] What seest thou? And I said, I have looked, and behold a [i] candlestick all of gold, with a bowl upon the top of it, and his [m] seven lamps thereon, and seven pipes to the seven lamps, which are upon the top thereof:

3 And two [o] olive trees by it, one upon the right side of the bowl, and the other upon the left side thereof.

4 So I answered and spake to the angel that talked with me, saying, What are these, my lord?

5 Then the angel that talked with me answered and said unto me, Knowest thou not what these be? And I said, No, my lord.

6 Then he answered and spake unto me, saying, This is the word of the LORD unto [u] Zĕ-rŭb'bă-bĕl, saying, [x] Not by might, nor by power, but by my spirit, saith the LORD of hosts.

7 Who art thou, [a] O great mountain? before Zĕ-rŭb'bă-bĕl thou shalt become a plain: and he shall bring forth the [b] headstone thereof with shoutings, crying, Grace, grace unto it.

8 Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

9 The hands of Zĕ-rŭb'bă-bĕl [d] have laid the foundation of this house; his hands shall also [g] finish it; and thou shalt know that the LORD of hosts [h] hath sent me unto you.

10 For who hath despised the [i] day of small things? for they shall rejoice, and shall see the [k] plummet in the hand of Zĕ-rŭb'bă-bĕl with those [m] seven; they are the [n] eyes of the LORD, which [p] run to and fro through the whole earth.

11 ¶ Then answered I, and said unto him, What are these two [s] olive trees upon the right side of the candlestick and upon the left side thereof?

12 And I answered again, and said unto him, What be these two olive branches which through the two golden pipes empty the golden oil out of themselves?

13 And he answered me and said, Knowest thou not what these be? And I said, No, my lord.

14 Then said he, These are the two [b] anointed ones, that stand by the [c] Lord of the whole earth.

CHAPTER 5

THEN I turned, and [e] lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and behold a flying [f] roll.

2 And he said unto me, What seest thou? And I answered, I see a flying roll; the length thereof is twenty cubits, and the breadth thereof ten cubits.

3 Then said he unto me, This is [k] the curse that goeth forth over the face of the whole earth: for [l] every one that stealeth shall be cut off as on this side according to it; and every one that swareth shall be cut off as on that side according to it.

4 I will bring it forth, saith the LORD of hosts, and it shall [n] enter into the house of the thief, and into the house of him that [p] sweareth falsely by my name: and it shall remain in the midst of his house, and shall consume it with the timber thereof and the stones thereof.

5 ¶ Then [r] the angel that talked with me went forth, and said unto me, Lift up now thine eyes, and see what is this that goeth forth.

6 And I said, What is it? And he said, This is an [t] ē'phäh that goeth forth. He said moreover, This is their resemblance through all the earth.

7 And, behold, there was lifted up a talent of [u] lead: and this is a woman that sitteth in the midst of the ē'phäh.

8 And he said, This is wickedness. And he cast it into the midst of the ē'phäh; and he cast the weight of lead upon the mouth thereof.

9 Then lifted I up mine eyes, and looked, and, behold, there came out two women, and the wind was in their wings; for they had wings like the wings of a [x] stork: and they lifted up the ē'phäh between the earth and the heaven.

10 Then said I to the angel that talked with me, Whither do these bear the ē'phäh?

CHAPTER 6

AND I turned, and lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and, [d] behold, there came four chariots out from between two mountains; and the mountains were mountains of brass.

2 In the first chariot were [g] red horses; and in the second chariot [h] black horses;

3 And in the third chariot [i] white horses; and in the fourth chariot grisled and [2] bay horses.

4 Then I answered and said unto the [m] angel that talked with me, What are these, my lord?

5 And the angel answered and said unto me, These are the four [3] spirits of the heavens, which go forth from standing before [o] the Lord of all the earth.

6 The black horses which are therein go forth into [q] the north country; and the white go forth after them; and the grisled go forth toward the south country.

7 And the bay went forth, and sought to go that they might [s] walk to and fro through the earth: and he said, Get you hence, walk to and fro through the earth. So they walked to and fro through the earth.

8 Then cried he upon me, and spake unto me, saying, Behold, these that go toward the north country have quieted my spirit in the north country.

9 ¶ And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

10 Take of them of the captivity, even of Hĕl'dâi, of Tō-bī'jăh, and of Jĕ-dâi'ăh, which are come from Babylon, and come thou the same day, and go into the house of Josiah the son of Zĕph-ă-nī'ăh;

11 Then take silver and gold, and make crowns, and [y] set them upon the head of [z] Joshua the son of Jŏs'ĕ-dĕch, the high priest;

12 And speak unto him, saying, Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, saying, Behold the man whose name is The [b] BRANCH; and he shall grow up out of his place, and he [c] shall build the temple of the LORD:

13 Even he shall build the temple of the LORD; and he shall bear the glory, and shall sit and rule upon his throne; and he shall be [e] a priest upon his throne: and the [f] counsel of peace shall be between them both.

14 And the crowns shall be to Helem, and to Tō-bī'-jăh, and to Jĕ-dâi'-ăh, and to Hen the son of Zĕph-ă-nī'-ăh, for a [m] memorial in the temple of the LORD.

15 And [o] they that are far off shall come and build in the temple of the LORD, and ye shall know that the LORD of hosts [r] hath sent me unto you. And this shall come to pass, [s] if ye will diligently obey the voice of the LORD your God.

CHAPTER 7

AND it came to pass in the fourth year of king [x] Dă-rī'-ŭs, that the word of the LORD came unto [z] Zĕch-ă-rī'-ăh in the fourth day of the ninth month, even in [b] Chĭs'-lĕû;

2 When they had sent unto the house of God Shĕr-ē'-zĕr and Rē'-gĕm-mĕl'-ĕch, and their men, [e] to pray before the LORD,

3 And to speak unto the priests which were in the house of the LORD of hosts, and to the prophets, saying, Should I weep in [f] the fifth month, [g] separating myself, as I have done these so many years?

4 ¶ Then came the word of the LORD of hosts unto me, saying,

5 Speak unto all the people of the land, and to the priests, saying, When ye fasted and mourned in the fifth and [k] seventh month, even those [l] seventy years, did ye at all [n] fast unto me, even to me?

6 And when ye did eat, and when ye did drink, did not ye eat for yourselves, and drink for yourselves?

7 Should ye not hear the words which the LORD hath cried by the [q] former prophets, when Jerusalem was inhabited and in prosperity, and the cities thereof round about her, when men inhabited the [a] south and the plain?

8 ¶ And the word of the LORD came unto Zĕch-ă-rī'-ăh, saying,

9 Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, saying, [d] Execute true judgment, and shew mercy and compassions every man to his brother:

10 And [g] oppress not the widow, nor the fatherless, the [h] stranger, nor the [i] poor; and [k] let none of you imagine evil against his brother in your heart.

11 But [l] they refused to hearken, and [n] pulled away the shoulder, and stopped their ears, that they should not hear.

12 Yea, they [p] made their hearts as an adamant stone, [q] lest they should hear the law, and the words which the LORD of hosts hath sent [2t] in his spirit by the former prophets: [u] therefore came a great wrath from the LORD of hosts.

13 Therefore it is come to pass, that as he cried, and they would not hear; so they cried, and [y] I would not hear, saith the LORD of hosts:

14 But [a] I scattered them with a whirlwind among all the nations whom they knew not. Thus [c] the land was desolate after them, [d] that no man passed through nor returned: for they laid the pleasant land desolate.

CHAPTER 8

AGAIN the word of the LORD of hosts came to me, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; I was [h] jealous for Zion with great jealousy, and I was jealous for her with great fury.

3 Thus saith the LORD; I am returned unto Zion, and [i] will dwell in the midst of Jerusalem: and Jerusalem shall be called a [m] city of truth; and the mountain of the LORD of hosts the [o] holy mountain.

4 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; There shall yet [p] old men and old women dwell in the streets of Jerusalem, and every man with his staff in his hand for very age.

5 And the streets of the city shall be full of boys and girls playing in the streets thereof.

8 And [h] I will bring them, and they shall dwell in the midst of Jerusalem: and [l] they shall be my people, and I will be their God, [m] in truth and in righteousness.

9 ¶ Thus saith the LORD of hosts; [o] Let your hands be strong, ye that hear in these days these words by the mouth of [p] the prophets, which were in the day that [q] the foundation of the house of the LORD of hosts was laid, that the temple might be built.

10 For before these days there was no hire for man, nor any hire for beast; neither was there any peace to him that went out or came in because of the affliction: for I set all men every one against his neighbour.

11 But now I will not be unto the residue of this people as in the former days, saith the LORD of hosts.

12 For [x] the seed shall be prosperous; the [y] vine shall give her fruit, and the ground shall give her increase, and the heavens shall give their [z] dew; and I will cause the [a] remnant of this people to possess all these things.

13 And it shall come to pass, that [c] as ye were a curse among the heathen, O house of Judah, and house of Israel; so will I save you, and [e] ye shall be a blessing: [f] fear not, but let your hands be strong.

14 For thus saith the LORD of hosts; [h] As I thought to punish you, when your fathers provoked me to wrath, saith the LORD of hosts, and I [m] repented not:

15 So again have I thought in these days to do well unto Jerusalem and to the house of Judah: fear ye not.

16 ¶ These are the things that ye shall do; [p] Speak ye every man the truth to his neighbour; [q] execute the judgment of truth and peace in your gates:

7 And I will take away his blood out of his mouth, and his [h]abominations from between his teeth: but he that remaineth, even he, shall be for our God, and he shall be as a [2l]governor in Judah, and Ekron as a Jĕb'ū-śīte.

8 And [m]I will encamp about mine house because of the army, because of him that passeth by, and because of him that returneth: and no [n]oppressor shall pass through them any more: for now have I seen with mine eyes.

9 ¶ Rejoice greatly, O [q]daughter of Zion; [s]shout, O daughter of Jerusalem: [u]behold, thy King cometh unto thee: he is [y]just, and having salvation; lowly, and riding upon an [z]ass, and upon a colt the foal of an ass.

10 And I will [b]cut off the chariot from Ē'phrăim, and the horse from Jerusalem, and the [d]battle bow shall be cut off: and [f]he shall speak peace unto the heathen: and [h]his dominion shall be from sea even to sea, and from the river even to the ends of the earth.

11 As for thee also, by the blood of thy covenant [n]I have sent forth thy prisoners out of the pit [o]wherein is no water.

12 ¶ Turn you to the strong hold, ye prisoners of hope: even to day do I declare that I will [r]render double unto thee;

13 When I have bent Judah for me, filled [s]the bow with Ē'phrăim, and raised up thy sons, O Zion, against thy sons, O [u]Greece, and made thee as the sword of a mighty man.

14 And the LORD shall be seen over them, and his [z]arrow shall go forth as the lightning: and the Lord GOD shall blow the [b]trumpet, and shall go with [c]whirlwinds of the south.

15 The LORD of hosts shall [d]defend them; and they shall devour, and subdue with sling stones; and they shall drink, and make a noise as through wine; and they shall be filled like [b]bowls, and as the corners of the altar.

16 And the LORD their God shall save them in that day [e]as the flock of his people: for they shall be as the [g]stones of a crown, lifted up as an ensign upon his land.

17 For how great is his [i]goodness, and how great is his beauty! [k]corn shall make the young men cheerful, and new wine the maids.

CHAPTER 10

ASK ye of the LORD rain in the time of the [o]latter rain; so the LORD shall make bright clouds, and [p]give them showers of rain, to every one grass in the field.

2 For the [3r]idols have spoken vanity, and the [t]diviners have seen a lie, and have told [x]false dreams; they comfort in vain: therefore they went their way as a flock, they were troubled, because there was [a]no shepherd.

3 Mine anger was kindled [c]against the shepherds, and I punished the [e]goats: for the LORD of hosts hath [g]visited his flock the house of Judah, and hath made them as his goodly horse in the battle.

4 Out of him came forth the [4i]corner, out of him the [k]nail, out of him the [l]battle bow, out of him every [5m]oppressor together.

5 ¶ And they shall be as mighty men, which [p]tread down their enemies in the [q]mire of the streets in the battle: and they shall fight, because the LORD is with them, and the riders on horses shall be confounded.

6 And I will strengthen the house of Judah, and I will save the house of Joseph, and I will [t]bring them again to place them; for I [x]have mercy upon them: and they shall be as though I had not cast them off: for [y]I am the LORD their God, and [a]will hear them.

7 And they of Ē'phrăim shall be like a mighty man, and their heart shall rejoice as through wine: yea, their children shall see it, and be glad; their heart shall rejoice in the LORD.

8 I will [e]hiss for them, and gather

2 Howl, [a]fir tree; for the cedar is fallen; because the mighty are spoiled: howl, O ye [b]oaks of Bashan; for the [2]forest of the vintage is come down.

3 ¶ There is a [d]voice of the howling of the shepherds; for their glory is spoiled: a voice of the roaring of young lions; for the [e]pride of Jordan is spoiled.

4 Thus saith the LORD my God; [f]Feed the flock of the slaughter;

5 Whose possessors slay them, and [g]hold themselves not guilty: and they that sell them say, Blessed be the LORD; for [i]I am rich: and their own shepherds pity them not.

6 For [m]I will no more pity the inhabitants of the land, saith the LORD: but, lo, I will deliver the men every one into his neighbour's hand, and into the hand of his king: and they shall smite the land, and out of their hand I will not deliver them.

the one I called [b]Beauty, and the other I called [c]Bands; and I fed the flock.

8 Three shepherds also [e]I cut off in one month; and [g]my soul lothed them, and their soul also abhorred me.

9 Then said I, I will not feed you: that [i]that dieth, let it die; and that that is to be cut off, let it be cut off; and let the rest [l]eat every one the flesh of another.

10 ¶ And I took my staff, even [o]Beauty, and cut it asunder, that I might break my covenant which I had made with all the people.

11 And it was broken in that day: and so the poor of the flock that waited upon me knew that it was the word of the LORD.

12 And I said unto them, If ye think good, give me my price; and if not, forbear. So they [s]weighed [t]for my price [u]thirty pieces of silver.

13 And the LORD said unto me, Cast it unto the potter: a goodly price that I was prised at of them. [y]And I took the thirty pieces of silver, and cast them to the potter in the house of the LORD.

14 Then I cut asunder mine other staff, even [c]Bands, that I might break the brotherhood between Judah and Israel.

15 ¶ And the LORD said unto me, Take unto thee yet the instruments of a foolish shepherd.

16 For, lo, I will raise up a shepherd in the land, which shall not visit those that be cut off, neither shall seek the young one, nor heal that that is broken, nor feed that that standeth still: but he shall [h]eat the flesh of the fat, and tear their claws in pieces.

17 Woe to the [3k]idol [l]shepherd that leaveth the flock! the sword shall be upon his arm, and upon his right eye: his arm shall be clean dried up, and his right eye shall be utterly darkened.

CHAPTER 12

THE [4n]burden of the word of the LORD for Israel, saith the LORD, [q]which stretcheth forth the heavens, and [r]layeth the foundation of the earth, and [a] formeth the spirit of man within him.

2 Behold, I will make Jerusalem a [d] cup of trembling [e] unto all the people round about, when they shall be in the siege both against Judah and against Jerusalem.

3 ¶ And in that day will I make Jerusalem a burdensome stone for all people: [h] all that burden themselves with it shall be cut in pieces, though [i] all the people of the earth be gathered together against it.

4 In that day, saith the LORD, [k] I will smite every horse with astonishment, and his rider [l] with madness: and I will open mine eyes upon the house of Judah, and will smite every horse of the people with blindness.

5 And the [2n] governors of Judah shall say in their heart, The inhabitants of Jerusalem shall be my strength in the LORD of hosts their God.

6 ¶ In that day will I make the governors of Judah [p] like an hearth of fire among the wood, and like a torch of fire in a sheaf; and they shall devour all the people round about, on the right hand and on the left: and [r] Jerusalem shall be inhabited again in her own place, even in Jerusalem.

7 The LORD also shall save the tents of Judah first, that the glory of the house of David and the glory of the inhabitants of Jerusalem do not magnify themselves against Judah.

8 In that day shall the LORD [t] defend the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and he that is feeble among them at that day shall be as David; and the house of David shall be as God, [x] as the angel of the LORD before them.

9 ¶ And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will seek to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem.

10 And [z] I will pour upon the house of David, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the spirit of grace and of supplications: and [a] they shall look upon me whom they [b] have pierced, and they shall mourn for him, [c] as one mourneth for his only son, and shall be in bitterness for him, as one that is in bitterness for his firstborn.

11 In that day shall there be a great mourning in Jerusalem, [b] as the mourning of Hā-dăd-rĭm'mŏn in the valley of [c] Mĕ-gĭd'dŏn.

12 And the land shall mourn, every family apart; the family of the house of David apart, and [f] their wives apart; the family of the house of [g] Nathan apart, and their wives apart;

13 The family of the house of Levi apart, and their wives apart; the family of Shĭm'ĕ-ī apart, and their wives apart;

14 All the families that remain, every family apart, and their wives apart.

CHAPTER 13

IN that day there shall be [m] a fountain opened to the house of David and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem for sin and for uncleanness.

2 ¶ And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD of hosts, that I will [o] cut off the names of the idols out of the land, and they shall no more be remembered: and also I will cause the [q] prophets and the unclean spirit to pass out of the land.

3 And it shall come to pass, that when any shall yet prophesy, then his father and his mother that begat him shall say unto him, Thou shalt not live; for [s] thou speakest lies in the name of the LORD: and his father and his mother that begat him shall thrust him through when he prophesieth.

4 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the prophets shall be ashamed every one of his vision, when he hath prophesied; neither shall they wear a [3u] rough garment to deceive:

5 But he shall say, [y] I am no prophet, I am an husbandman; for man taught me to keep cattle from my youth.

6 And one shall say unto him, What are these wounds in thine hands? Then he shall answer, Those with which I was wounded in the house of my friends.

7 ¶ Awake, O sword, against my shepherd, and against the man that is [d] my fellow, saith the LORD of hosts: [e] smite the shepherd, and the sheep shall be [f] scattered: and I will turn mine hand upon the little ones.

8 And it shall come to pass, that in BEHOLD, the [p] day of the LORD cometh, and [s] thy spoil shall be divided in the midst of thee.

2 For I will [u] gather all nations against Jerusalem to battle; and [x] the city shall be taken, and the houses rifled, and the [y] women ravished; and half of the city shall go forth into captivity, and the residue of the people shall not be cut off from the city.

3 [z] Then shall the LORD go forth, and fight against those nations, as when he fought in the day of battle.

4 ¶ And his feet [a] shall stand in that day upon the [b] mount of Olives, which is before Jerusalem on the east, and the mount of Olives shall cleave in the midst thereof toward the east and toward the west, and there shall be a very great valley; and half of the mountain shall remove toward the north, and half of it toward the south.

5 And ye shall flee to the valley of the mountains; for the valley of the mountains shall reach unto Azal: yea, ye shall flee, like as ye fled from before the [c] earthquake in the days of Ŭz-zī'-ăh king of Judah: and [d] the LORD my God shall come, and all the [e] saints with thee.

6 And it shall come to pass in that day, that [4] the light shall not be clear, nor dark:

7 But it shall be one day [g] which shall be known to the LORD, not day, nor night: but it shall come to pass, that [i] at evening time it shall be light.

8 And it shall be in that day, that [k] living waters [l] shall go out from Jerusalem; half of them toward the [5n] former sea, and half of them toward the [6n] hinder sea: in summer and in winter shall it be.

9 And [a] the LORD shall be king over all the earth: in that day shall there be [b] one LORD, and his name one.

10 All the land shall be turned as a [2d] plain from [e] Geba to [f] Rimmon south of Jerusalem: and it shall be [h] lifted up, and inhabited in her place, from [l] Benjamin's gate unto the place of the first gate, unto the [n] corner gate, and from the [n] tower of Hăn'-ă-nēĕl unto the king's [o] winepresses.

11 And men shall dwell in it, and [q] there shall be no more [3r] utter destruction; but Jerusalem shall be [t] safely inhabited.

12 ¶ And this shall be the plague wherewith the LORD will smite all the people that have fought against Jerusalem; Their flesh shall consume away while they stand upon their feet, and their eyes shall consume away in their holes, and their tongue shall consume away in their mouth.

13 And it shall come to pass in that day, that a great tumult from the LORD shall be among them; and they shall lay hold every one on the hand of his neighbour, and his hand shall rise up against the hand of his neighbour.

14 And Judah also shall fight at Jerusalem; and the wealth of all the heathen round about shall be gathered together, gold, and silver, and apparel, in great abundance.

15 And so shall be the plague of the horse, of the mule, of the camel, and of the ass, and of all the beasts that shall be in these tents, as this plague.

16 ¶ And it shall come to pass, that every one that is left of all the nations which came against Jerusalem [f] shall even go up from year to year to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, and to keep the [h] feast of tabernacles.

17 And it shall be, that whoso will not come up of all the families of the earth unto Jerusalem to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, even upon them [m] shall be no rain.

18 And if the family of Egypt go not up, and come not, that have no rain; there shall be the plague, wherewith the LORD will smite the heathen that come not up to keep the feast of tabernacles.

19 This shall be the punishment of Egypt, and the punishment of all nations that come not up to keep the feast of tabernacles.

20 ¶ In that day shall there be upon the bells of the horses, [a] HOLINESS UNTO THE LORD; and the pots 518 B.C. in the LORD's house shall be like the bowls before the altar.

21 Yea, every pot in Jerusalem and in Judah shall be holiness unto the LORD of hosts: and all they that sacrifice shall come and take of them, and seethe therein: and in that day there shall be [b] no more the Cā'-nă-ăn-īte in the house of the LORD of hosts.

MALACHI

CHAPTER 1

460 B.C.

THE [2c] burden of the word of the LORD to Israel by Malachi.

2 [d] I have loved you, saith the LORD. Yet ye say, Wherein hast thou loved us? Was not [e] Esau [f] Jacob's brother? saith the LORD: [g] yet I loved Jacob,

3 And I hated Esau, and laid his mountains and his heritage waste for the dragons of the wilderness.

4 Whereas [l] Edom saith, We are impoverished, but we will return and build the desolate places; thus saith the LORD of hosts, They shall build, but I will throw down; and they shall call them, The border of wickedness, and, The people against whom the LORD hath indignation [o] for ever.

5 And [q] your eyes shall see, and ye shall say, [s] The LORD will be magnified from the border of Israel.

6 ¶ [t] A son honoureth [u] his father, and a servant his master: if then I be a father, where is mine honour? and if I be a master, where is my fear? saith the LORD of hosts unto you, O [y] priests, that despise my name. And [z] ye say, Wherein have we despised thy name?

7 Ye offer [a] polluted bread upon mine [b] altar; and ye say, Wherein have we polluted thee? In that ye say, The [d] table of the LORD is contemptible.

8 And [e] if ye offer the blind for sacrifice, is it not evil? and if ye offer the lame and sick, is it not evil? offer it now unto thy governor; will he be pleased with thee, or accept thy person? saith the LORD of hosts.

9 And now, I pray you, beseech God that he [a] will be gracious unto us: this hath been by your means: [b] will he regard your persons? saith the LORD of hosts.

10 [3] Who is there even among you that would shut the doors for nought? neither do ye kindle fire on mine altar for nought. I have no pleasure in you, saith the LORD of hosts, neither will I [h] accept an [i] offering at your hand.

11 For [k] from the rising of the sun even unto the going down of the same [m] my name shall be great among the Gentiles; [n] and in every place incense shall be offered unto my name, and a pure offering: for my name shall be great among the heathen, saith the LORD of hosts.

12 ¶ But ye have [p] profaned it, in that [r] ye say, The table of the LORD is polluted; and the fruit thereof, even his meat, is contemptible.

13 Ye said also, [x] Behold, what a weariness is it! and ye have snuffed at it, saith the LORD of hosts; and ye brought that which was torn, and the lame, and the sick; thus ye brought an offering: should I accept this of your hand? saith the LORD.

14 But cursed be the deceiver, which hath in his flock a male, and voweth, and sacrificeth unto the Lord a corrupt thing: for [c] I am a great King, saith the LORD of hosts, and my name is [f] dreadful among the heathen.

my name, saith the LORD of hosts, I will even [a] send a curse upon you, and I will curse your blessings: yea, I have cursed them already, because ye do not lay it to heart.

3 Behold, I will corrupt your seed, and [d] spread dung upon your faces, even the dung of your solemn feasts; and one shall take you away with it.

4 And ye shall know that I have sent this commandment unto you, that [f] my covenant might be with Levi, saith the LORD of hosts.

5 My covenant was with him of life and [h] peace; and I gave them to him for the fear wherewith he [i] feared me, and was afraid before my name.

6 The law of truth was in his mouth, and iniquity was not found in his lips: he [m] walked with me in peace and equity, and did [n] turn many away from iniquity.

7 [o] For the priest's lips should keep knowledge, and they should [q] seek the law [s] at his mouth: for he is the [t] messenger of the LORD of hosts.

8 But ye are [u] departed out of the way; [x] ye have caused many to stumble at the law; ye have corrupted the covenant of Levi, saith the LORD of hosts.

9 Therefore [y] have I also made you contemptible and base before all the people, according as [c] ye have not kept my ways, but [d] have been partial in the law.

10 [e] Have we not all one father? hath not one God [f] created us? why do we deal treacherously every man against his brother, by profaning the covenant of our fathers?

11 ¶ Judah hath dealt treacherously, and an [k] abomination is committed in Israel and in Jerusalem; for Judah hath profaned the holiness of the LORD which he loved, and hath [m] married the daughter of a strange god.

12 The LORD will cut off the man that doeth this, the master and the scholar, out of the tabernacles of Jacob, and him that offereth an [p] offering unto the LORD of hosts.

13 And this have ye done again, covering the [r] altar of the LORD with tears, with weeping, and with crying out, insomuch that he regardeth not the offering any more, or receiveth it with good will at your hand.

14 ¶ [b] Yet ye say, Wherefore? Because [c] the LORD hath been witness between thee and the wife of thy youth, against whom thou hast dealt treacherously: yet is she thy companion, and the [e] wife of thy covenant.

15 And did not he make one? Yet had he the residue of the spirit. And wherefore one? That he might seek a [g] godly seed. Therefore take heed to your spirit, and let none deal treacherously against the wife of his youth.

16 For the LORD, the God of Israel, saith that [k] he hateth [l] putting away: for one covereth violence with his garment, saith the LORD of hosts: therefore take heed to your spirit, that ye deal not treacherously.

17 ¶ Ye have [p] wearied the LORD with your words. [r] Yet ye say, Wherein have we wearied him? When ye say, Every one that doeth evil is good in the sight of the LORD, and he delighteth in them; or, Where is the God of judgment?

CHAPTER 3

[z] BEHOLD, [a] I will send my messenger, and [b] he shall prepare the way before me: and the Lord, whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to his temple, even the messenger of the covenant, whom ye delight in: behold, he shall come, saith the LORD of hosts.

2 But [g] who may abide [h] the day of his coming? and [i] who shall stand when he appeareth? for he is like a refiner's fire, and like fullers' soap:

3 And he shall sit [l] as a refiner and purifier of silver: and he shall purify the sons of Levi, and [n] purge them as gold and silver, that they may offer unto the LORD an [o] offering in righteousness.

4 Then shall the offering of Judah and Jerusalem be pleasant unto the LORD, [q] as in the days of old, and as in former years.

5 And I will come near to you to judgment; and I will be a [s] swift

c. 7 B.C.

[a]THE book of the generation of Jesus Christ, [c] the son of David, the son of Abraham.

2 [f]Abraham begat [g]Isaac; and Isaac begat [h]Jacob; and Jacob begat Judas and his brethren;

3 And [i]Judas begat [k]Phâr'ĕs and [l]Zara of [m]Thamar; and Phares begat Esrom; and Esrom begat Aram;

4 And Aram begat Ă-mĭn'ă-dăb; and [n]Aminadab begat [o]Nā-ăs'sŏn; and Naasson begat [p]Salmon;

5 And Salmon begat [q]Bŏ'ŏz of [s]Rā'chăb; and Booz begat [t]Obed of [u]Ruth; and Obed begat [x]Jesse;

6 And Jesse begat [z]David the king; and David the king begat [a]Solomon [c]of her that had been the wife of Ū-rī'ăs;

7 And Solomon begat [e]Rō-bō'ăm; and Roboam begat [g]Ă-bī'ă; and Abia begat [e]Asa;

8 And Asa begat [e]Jŏs'ă-phăt; and Josaphat begat [k]Joram; and Joram begat [l]Ō-zī'ăs;

9 And Ō-zī'ăs begat [l]Jō'ă-thăm; and Joatham begat [m]Ā'chăz; and Achaz begat [m]Ēz-ē-kī'ăs;

10 And Ēz-ē-kī'ăs begat [m]Mă-năs'sēs; and Manasses begat [o]Amon; and Amon begat [o]Josias;

11 And Josias begat [q]Jĕch-ō-nī'ăs and his brethren, about the time they were [s]carried away to Babylon:

12 And after they were brought to Babylon, Jĕch-ō-nī'ăs begat [u]Să-lā'thĭ-ĕl; and Salathiel begat [x]Zŏ-rŏb'ă-bĕl;

13 And Zŏ-rŏb'ă-bĕl begat Ă-bī'ŭd; and Abiud begat Ē-lī'ă-kĭm; and Eliakim begat Ā'zôr;

14 And Ā'zôr begat Sadoc; and Sadoc begat Ā'chĭm; and Achim begat Ē-lī'ŭd;

15 And Ē-lī'ŭd begat Ĕl-ē-ā'zär; and Eleazar begat Măt'thăn; and Matthan begat Jacob;

16 And Jacob begat [b]Joseph the husband of [d]Mary, of whom was born Jesus, who is called [e]Christ.

17 So all the generations from Abraham to David are fourteen generations; and from David until the carrying away into Babylon are fourteen generations; and from the carrying away into Babylon unto Christ are fourteen generations.

18 ¶ Now the birth of Jesus Christ was on this wise: When as his mother Mary was [r]espoused to Joseph, before they came together, she was found with child [y]of the Holy Ghost.

19 Then [b]Joseph her husband, being a [d]just man, and not willing to make her a publick example, was minded [f]to put her away privily.

20 But while he thought on these things, behold, the [h]angel of the Lord appeared unto him [i]in a dream, saying, Joseph, thou son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife: for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Ghost.

21 And she shall bring forth a son, and [n]thou shalt call his name JESUS: for [p]he shall save his people from their sins.

22 Now all this was done, [r]that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying,

23 [t]Behold, a virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son, and they shall call his name Emmanuel, which being interpreted is, God with us.

24 Then Joseph being raised from sleep did as the angel of the Lord had bidden him, and took unto him his wife:

25 And knew her not till she had brought forth her firstborn son: and he called his name JESUS.

CHAPTER 2

c. 7 B.C.

NOW when Jesus was born in [a] Bethlehem of Judæa [b] in the days of Herod the king, behold, there came [c] wise men [d] from the east to Jerusalem,

2 Saying, Where is he that is born [e] King of the Jews? for we have seen his [f] star in the east, and are come to worship him.

3 When Herod the king had heard these things, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him.

4 And when he had gathered all the chief priests and [i] scribes of the people together, he [k] demanded of them where [l] Christ should be born.

5 And they said unto him, In Bethlehem of Judæa: for thus it is written by the prophet,

6 [m] And thou Bethlehem, in the land of Juda, art not the least among the princes of Juda: for out of thee shall come a Governor, that shall rule my people Israel.

7 Then Herod, when he had privily called the wise men, enquired of them diligently what time the star appeared.

8 And he sent them to Bethlehem, and said, Go and search diligently for the young child; and when ye have found him, bring me word again, that I may come and worship him also.

9 When they had heard the king, they departed; and, lo, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was.

10 When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy.

11 ¶ And when they were come into the house, they saw the young child with Mary [r] his mother, and fell down, and [s] worshipped him: and when they had opened their treasures, [t] they presented unto him gifts; gold, and [u] frankincense, and [x] myrrh.

12 And being warned of God [a] in a dream that they should not return to Herod, they departed into their own country another way.

13 And when they were departed, behold, the [d] angel of the Lord appeareth to Joseph in a dream, saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and flee into Egypt, and be thou there until I bring thee word: for Herod will seek the young child to destroy him.

14 When he arose, he took the young child and his mother by night, and departed into Egypt:

15 And was there until the death of Herod: [g] that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying, [h] Out of Egypt have I called my son.

16 ¶ Then Herod, when he saw that he was mocked of the wise men, was exceeding wroth, and sent forth, and slew all the children that were in Bethlehem, and in all the coasts thereof, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had diligently enquired of the wise men.

17 [n] Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremy the prophet, saying,

18 In Rama was there [o] a voice heard, lamentation, and weeping, and great mourning, Rachel weeping for her children, and would not be comforted, because they are not.

19 ¶ But when Herod was dead, behold, an angel of the Lord appeareth [p] in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, 20 Saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and go into the land of Israel: for [q] they are dead which sought the young child's life.

21 And he arose, and took the young child and his mother, and came into the land of Israel.

22 But when he heard that Är-chĕ-lā'-ŭs did reign in Judæa in the room of his father Herod, he was afraid to go thither: notwithstanding, being warned of God [b] in a dream, he turned aside into the parts of Galilee:

23 And he came and dwelt in a city called [y] Nazareth: [z] that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophets, He shall be called a Nazarene.

2 And saying, [a] Repent ye: for [a] the kingdom of heaven is at hand.

3 For [b] this is he that was spoken of by the prophet Ē-śâi'-ăs, saying, [d] The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

4 And the same John had his [g] raiment of camel's hair, and a leathern girdle about his loins; and his meat was [i] locusts and wild [k] honey.

5 Then went out to him Jerusalem, and all Judæa, and all the region round about Jordan,

6 And were baptized of him in Jordan, [p] confessing their sins.

7 ¶ But [q] when he saw many of the [r] Pharisees and [s] Sadducees come to his baptism, he said unto them, O [u] generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the [x] wrath to come?

8 Bring forth therefore fruits [y] meet for repentance:

9 And think not to say within yourselves, [a] We have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, that God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham.

10 And now also the axe is laid unto the root of the trees: therefore [d] every tree which bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire.

11 [f] I indeed baptize you with water unto repentance: but he that cometh after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not worthy to bear: [h] he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost, and with fire:

12 Whose [i] fan is in his hand, and he will throughly [k] purge his floor, and [l] gather his wheat into the garner; but he will burn up [m] the chaff with [n] unquenchable fire.

13 ¶ [o] Then cometh Jesus from Galilee to Jordan unto John, to be baptized of him.

14 [r] But John forbad him, saying, I have need to be baptized of thee, and comest thou to me?

15 And Jesus answering said unto him, Suffer it to be so now: for thus it becometh us to fulfil all righteousness. Then he suffered him.

16 And Jesus, when he was baptized, went up straightway out of the water: and, lo, [c] the heavens were opened unto him, and he saw [e] the Spirit of God descending like a dove, and lighting upon him:

17 And lo [f] a voice from heaven, saying, [h] This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

CHAPTER 4

1 THEN was Jesus [m] led up of the spirit into the wilderness [n] to be tempted of the devil.

2 And when he had fasted [o] forty days and forty nights, he was afterward an hungred.

3 And when the tempter came to him, he said, [t] If thou be the Son of God, command that these stones be made bread.

4 But he answered and said, It is written, [z] Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God.

5 Then the devil [b] taketh him up into the [c] holy city, and setteth him on a [2] pinnacle of the temple,

6 And saith unto him, If thou be the Son of God, cast thyself down: for it is written, [e] He shall give his angels charge concerning thee: and in their hands they shall bear thee up, lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone.

7 Jesus said unto him, It is written again, [g] Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.

8 Again, the devil taketh him up into an exceeding high mountain, and sheweth him all the kingdoms of the world, and the glory of them;

9 And saith unto him, All these things will I give thee, if thou wilt fall down and worship me.

10 Then saith Jesus unto him, Get thee hence, [p] Satan: for it is written, [q] Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve.

11 Then the devil leaveth him, and, behold, [s] angels came and ministered unto him.

12 ¶ Now when Jesus had heard that [t] John was cast into prison, he [u] departed into Galilee;

13 And leaving [a] Nazareth, he came and dwelt in [b] Căp-pĕr'-nă-ŭm, which is upon the sea coast, in the borders of Zăb-bū'-lon and Nĕph'-thă-lĭm:

14 [d] That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Ē-sâi'-ăs the prophet, saying,

15 [f] The land of Zăb-bū'-lon, and the land of Nĕph'-thă-lĭm, by the way of the sea, beyond Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles;

16 [k] The people which sat in darkness saw great light; and to them which sat in the region and shadow of death light is sprung up.

17 ¶ [m] From that time Jesus began to preach, and to say, [o] Repent: for [p] the kingdom of heaven is at hand.

18 ¶ [r] And Jesus, walking by [s] the sea of Galilee, saw two brethren, [t] Simon called Peter, and [x] Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea: for they were fishers.

19 And he saith unto them, [b] Follow me, and I will make you [c] fishers of men.

20 And they straightway left their nets, and followed him.

21 And going on from thence, he saw other two brethren, [x] James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, in a ship with Zebedee their father, mending their nets; and he called them.

22 And they immediately left the ship and their father, and followed him.

23 ¶ [m] And Jesus went about all Galilee, [n] teaching in their synagogues, and [n] preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and [o] healing all manner of sickness and all manner of disease among the people.

24 And his fame went throughout all [q] Syria: and they brought unto him all sick people that were taken with divers diseases and torments, and those which were possessed with devils, and those which were [2] [s] lunatick, and those that had the palsy; and he healed them.

25 [x] And there followed him great multitudes of people from Galilee, and from [y] Decapolis, and from Jerusalem, and from Judæa, and from beyond Jordan.

CHAPTER 5

AND seeing the multitudes, he [c] went up into a mountain: and when he was set, his disciples came unto him:

2 [e] And he opened his mouth, and taught them, saying,

3 Blessed are the [g] poor in spirit: for [h] their's is the kingdom of heaven.

4 Blessed are [i] they that mourn: for they shall be comforted.

5 Blessed are the [l] meek: for they shall inherit the earth.

6 Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst [n] after righteousness: for they shall be filled.

7 Blessed are the [q] merciful: for they shall obtain mercy.

8 Blessed are the [u] pure in heart: for they shall [y] see God.

9 Blessed are the [z] peacemakers: for they shall be called the [a] children of God.

10 Blessed are they which are [d] persecuted for righteousness' sake: for [e] their's is the kingdom of heaven.

11 [f] Blessed are ye, [g] when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake.

12 [h] Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is [i] your reward in heaven: for [k] so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.

13 ¶ [l] Ye are the salt of the earth: but if the salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be salted? it is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out, and to be trodden under foot of men.

14 [p] Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on an hill cannot be hid.

15 [r] Neither do men light a candle, and put it under a bushel, but on a candlestick; and it giveth light unto all that are in the house.

16 Let your light so shine before men, [t] that they may see your good works, and [u] glorify your Father which is in heaven.

17 ¶ Think not that I am come to destroy [z] the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but [a] to fulfil.

18 [b] For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall [a] in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled.

19 Whosoever therefore shall break [b] one of these [c] least commandments, and shall teach men so, he shall be called the least in the kingdom of heaven: but whosoever [d] shall do and teach them, the same shall be called [e] great in the kingdom of heaven.

20 For I say unto you, That except your [i] righteousness shall exceed the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, ye [k] shall in no case enter into the kingdom of heaven.

21 ¶ [l] Ye have heard that it was said by them of old time, [m] Thou shalt not kill; and whosoever shall kill shall be in danger of the judgment:

22 But [o] I say unto you, That [p] whosoever is angry with his brother without a cause shall be in danger of the judgment: and whosoever shall say to his brother, [2] Rā'-că, shall be in danger of the [t] council: but whosoever shall say, Thou fool, shall be in danger of [3y] hell fire.

23 Therefore [a] if thou bring thy gift to the altar, and there rememberest that thy brother hath ought against thee;

24 Leave there thy gift before the altar, and go thy way; first be reconciled to thy brother, and then come and offer thy gift.

25 [e] Agree with thine adversary quickly, whiles thou art in the way with him; lest at any time the adversary deliver thee to the judge, and the judge deliver thee to the officer, and thou be cast into prison.

26 Verily I say unto thee, [k] Thou shalt by no means come out thence, till thou hast paid the uttermost farthing.

27 ¶ [n] Ye have heard that it was said by them of old time, [o] Thou shalt not commit adultery:

28 But I say unto you, That [q] whosoever looketh on a woman to lust after her hath committed adultery with her already in his heart.

29 [u] And if thy right eye offend thee, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not that thy whole body should be cast into hell.

30 And if thy right hand offend thee, cut it off, and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not that thy whole body should be cast into hell.

31 [f g] It hath been said, [h] Whosoever shall put away his wife, let him give her a writing of divorcement:

32 But I say unto you, That whosoever shall put away his wife, saving for the cause of fornication, causeth her to commit adultery: and [n] whosoever shall marry her that is divorced committeth adultery.

33 ¶ Again, [q] ye have heard that it hath been said by them of old time, [r] Thou shalt not forswear thyself, but [s] shalt perform unto the Lord thine oaths:

34 [u] But I say unto you, [x] Swear not at all; neither by heaven; for it is [z] God's throne:

35 Nor by the earth; for it is his [b] footstool: neither by Jerusalem; for it is the [c] city of the great King.

36 Neither shalt thou swear by thy head, because thou canst not make one hair white or black.

37 But [d] let your communication be, Yea, yea; Nay, nay: for whatsoever is more than these [4] cometh of evil.

38 ¶ [f] Ye have heard that it hath been said, [g] An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth:

39 [h] But I say unto you, That ye [i] resist not [5] evil: but whosoever shall [l] smite thee on thy right cheek, turn to him the other also.

40 And [m] if any man will sue thee at the law, and take away thy coat, let him have thy cloke also.

41 And whosoever shall [6p] compel thee to go a mile, go with him twain.

42 [r] Give to him that asketh thee, and [s] from him that would borrow of thee turn not thou away.

43 ¶ [t] Ye have heard that it hath been said, [x] Thou shalt love thy neighbour, and [y] hate thine enemy.

44 [a] But I say unto you, [b] Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and [e] pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you;

45 That ye may be the [h] children of your Father which is in heaven: for [l] he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and [o] sendeth rain on the just and on the unjust.

46 For if ye love them which love you, what reward have ye? do not even the publicans the same?

47 And if ye salute your brethren only, what do ye more than others? do not even the publicans so?

48 [u] Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect.

CHAPTER 6

TAKE heed that ye do not your [3]alms before men, [z] to be seen of them: otherwise ye have no reward of your Father which is in heaven.

2 Therefore when thou doest thine alms, do not sound a trumpet before thee, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may have glory of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.

3 But when thou doest alms, let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth:

4 That thine alms may be in secret: and thy Father which seeth in secret himself [c] shall reward thee openly.

5 ¶ And when thou prayest, thou shalt not be as the hypocrites are: for they love [g] to pray standing in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.

6 But thou, when thou prayest, enter into thy closet, and when thou hast [i] shut thy door, pray to thy Father which is in secret; and thy Father which seeth in secret shall reward thee openly.

7 But when ye pray, [l] use not vain repetitions, as the heathen do: for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking.

8 Be not ye therefore like unto them: for [c] your Father knoweth what things ye have need of, before ye ask him.

9 [d] After this manner therefore pray ye: Our Father [f] which art in heaven, [g] Hallowed be thy name.

10 Thy kingdom come. [i] Thy will be done in earth, [k] as it is in heaven.

11 [m] Give us this day our [n] daily bread.

12 And [p] forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

13 And [q] lead us not into temptation, but [r] deliver us from [2]evil: For [s] thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.

14 [t] For if ye forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you:

15 [x] But if ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.

16 ¶ Moreover [y] when ye fast, be not, as the hypocrites, of a sad countenance: for they disfigure their faces, that they may appear unto men to fast. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.

17 But thou, when thou fastest, [a] anoint thine head, and wash thy face;

18 That thou appear not unto men to fast, but unto thy Father which is in secret: and thy Father, which seeth in secret, shall reward thee openly.

19 ¶ Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where [b] moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves [4d] break through and steal:

20 [e] But [f] lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal:

21 For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

22 [h] The light of the body is the eye: if therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light.

23 But [k] if thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is that darkness!

24 ¶ [m] No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. [a] Ye cannot serve God and mămmon.

25 [b] Therefore I say unto you, [c] Take no thought for your life, [d] what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than meat, and the body than raiment?

26 Behold the fowls of the air: for they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; yet [f] your heavenly Father feedeth them. [k] Are ye not much better than they?

27 Which of you by taking thought can add one cubit unto his [z o] stature?

28 And why take ye thought for raiment? Consider the [p] lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin:

29 And yet I say unto you, That even [q] Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

30 Wherefore, if God so clothe the grass of the field, which to day is, and to morrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more clothe you, [r] O ye of little faith?

31 Therefore take no thought, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed?

32 (For after all these things do the Gentiles seek:) for [u] your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things.

33 But [y] seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and [z] all these things shall be added unto you.

34 Take therefore no thought for the morrow: for the morrow shall take thought for the things of itself. Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof.

CHAPTER 7

[e f] JUDGE not, that ye be not judged.

2 For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged: and [i] with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again.

3 And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but considerest not the beam that is in thine own eye?

4 Or how wilt thou say to thy brother, Let me pull out the mote out of thine eye; and, behold, a beam is in thine own eye?

5 Thou [e] hypocrite, first cast out the beam out of thine own eye; and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote out of thy brother's eye.

6 ¶ [f] Give not that which is holy unto the [g] dogs, neither cast ye your [h] pearls before swine, lest they trample them under their feet, and turn again and rend you.

7 ¶ [l] Ask, [m] and it shall be given you; [n] seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you:

8 For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened.

9 Or what man is there of you, whom if his son ask bread, will he give him a stone?

10 Or if he ask a fish, will he give him a serpent?

11 If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your Father which is in heaven give good things to them that ask him?

12 Therefore [s] all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for [t] this is the law and the prophets.

13 ¶ [x] Enter ye in at the strait gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat:

14 Because strait is the gate, and narrow is [a] the way, which leadeth unto life, and [b] few there be that find it.

15 ¶ Beware of [c] false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are [d] ravening wolves.

16 [g] Ye shall know them by their fruits. [h] Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles?

17 Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit; but a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit.

18 A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit.

19 [k] Every tree that bringeth not healing of leper, Peter's wife's mother, possessed, diseased forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire.

20 Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them.

21 ¶ [d] Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, [e] shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that [f] doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven.

22 [g] Many will say to me in that day, [h] Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied [i] in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works?

23 And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: [k] depart from me, ye that work iniquity.

24 ¶ [l] Therefore whosoever heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them, I will liken him unto a wise man, which built his house upon a rock:

25 And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell not: for it was founded upon a rock.

26 And every one that heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them not, shall be likened unto a foolish man, which [q] built his house upon the sand:

27 [r] And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell: and great was the fall of it.

28 And it came to pass, when Jesus had ended these sayings, the people [x] were astonished at his doctrine:

29 For [z] he taught them as one having authority, and not as the scribes.

CHAPTER 8

WHEN he was come down from the mountain, great multitudes followed him.

leper

2 [d] And, behold, there came a [e] leper and [f] worshipped him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean.

3 And Jesus put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will; be thou clean. And immediately his leprosy was cleansed.

4 And Jesus saith unto him, [i] See thou tell no man; but go thy way, [l] shew thyself to the priest, and offer the [a] gift that Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them.

5 ¶ [b] And when Jesus was entered into [c] Că-pĕr-nă-ŭm, there came unto him a centurion, beseeching him,

6 And saying, Lord, my servant lieth at home sick of the palsy, grievously tormented.

7 And Jesus saith unto him, I will come and heal him.

8 The centurion answered and said, Lord, I am not worthy that thou shouldest come under my roof: but speak the word only, and my servant shall be healed.

9 For I am a man under authority, having soldiers under me: and I say to this man, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it.

10 When Jesus heard it, he [m] marvelled, and said to them that followed, Verily I say unto you, I have not found [n] so great faith, no, not in Israel.

11 [o] And I say unto you, That [p] many shall come from the east and west, and shall sit down with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, in the kingdom of heaven.

12 But the [s] children of the kingdom shall be [t] cast out into outer darkness: [u] there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

13 And Jesus said unto the centurion, Go thy way; and [y] as thou hast believed, so be it done unto thee. [a] And his servant was healed in the selfsame hour.

14 ¶ [b] And when Jesus was come into Peter's house, he saw [c] his wife's mother laid, and sick of a fever.

15 And he touched her hand, and the fever left her: and she arose, and ministered unto them.

16 ¶ When the even was come, they brought unto him many that were possessed with devils: and he cast out the spirits with his word, and [g] healed all that were sick:

17 [h] That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Ē-sâi-ăs the prophet, saying, [k] Himself took our infirmities, and bare our sicknesses.

Two who would follow Christ, two possessed whose evil spirits are cussed into swine

A.D. 31

18 ¶ Now [a] when Jesus saw great multitudes about him, [b] he gave commandment to depart unto the other side.

19 [c] And a certain scribe came, and said unto him, Master, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest.

20 And Jesus saith unto him, The [d] foxes have holes, and the birds of the air have nests; but the [e] Son of man hath not where to lay his head.

21 And another of his disciples said unto him, Lord, [g] suffer me first to go and bury my father.

22 But Jesus said unto him, Follow me; and let the dead bury their dead.

23 ¶ [k] And when he was entered into a ship, his disciples followed him.

24 And, behold, there arose a great tempest in the sea, insomuch that the ship was covered with the waves: but he was asleep.

25 And his disciples came to him, and awoke him, saying, Lord, [o] save us: we perish.

26 And he saith unto them, Why are ye fearful, [p] O ye of little faith? Then he arose, and rebuked the winds and the sea; and there was a great calm.

27 But the men marvelled, saying, What manner of man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey him!

28 ¶ [s] And when he was come to the other side into the country of the [2] Gĕr-gĕ-sēnes, there met him two possessed with devils, coming out of the tombs, exceeding fierce, so that no man might pass by that way.

29 And, behold, they cried out, saying, [x] What have we to do with thee, Jesus, [x] thou Son of God? art thou come hither to torment us [z] before the time?

30 And there was a good way off from them an herd of many [b] swine feeding.

31 So the devils besought him, saying, If thou cast us out, suffer us to go away into the herd of swine.

32 And he said unto them, Go. And when they were come out, they went into the herd of swine: and, behold, the whole herd of swine ran violently down a steep place into the sea, and perished in the waters.

33 And they that kept them fled, and went their ways into the city, and told every thing, and what was befallen to the possessed of the devils.

34 And, behold, the whole city came out to meet Jesus: and when they saw him, they besought him that he would depart out of their coasts.

CHAPTER 9

AND he entered into a ship, and passed over, and came into [f] his own city.

2 [h] And, behold, they brought to him a man sick of the palsy, lying on a bed: and Jesus [i] seeing their faith said unto the sick of the palsy; Son, be of good cheer; [l] thy sins be forgiven thee.

3 And, behold, certain of the scribes said within themselves, [m] This man blasphemeth.

4 And Jesus [n] knowing their thoughts said, Wherefore think ye evil in your hearts?

5 For whether is easier, to say, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Arise, and walk?

6 But that ye may know that the [q] Son of man hath power on earth to forgive sins, (then saith he to the sick of the palsy,) [r] Arise, take up thy bed, and go unto thine house.

7 And he arose, and departed to his house.

8 But when the multitudes saw it, they marvelled, and [t] glorified God, which had given such power unto men.

9 ¶ [u] And as Jesus passed forth from thence, he saw a man, named [y] Matthew, sitting at the receipt of custom: and he saith unto him, [a] Follow me. And he arose, and followed him.

10 ¶ And it came to pass, as Jesus [c] sat at meat in the house, behold, many publicans and sinners came and sat down with him and his disciples.

11 And [d] when the Pharisees saw it, they said unto his disciples, Why eateth your Master with publicans and sinners?

12 But when Jesus heard that, he said unto them, They that be whole need not a physician, but they that are sick.

14 ¶ Then came to him the disciples of [f] John, saying, Why do we and the [g] Pharisees [h] fast oft, but thy disciples fast not?

15 And Jesus said unto them, Can the [i] children of the bridechamber mourn, as long as the [k] bridegroom is with them? but the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken from them, and [m] then shall they fast.

16 No man putteth a piece of new cloth unto an old garment, for that which is put in to fill it up taketh from the garment, and the rent is made worse.

17 Neither do men put new wine into old [2q] bottles: else the bottles break, and the wine runneth out, and the bottles perish: but they put new wine into new bottles, and both are preserved.

18 ¶ [r] While he spake these things unto them, behold, there came a certain ruler, and [s] worshipped him, saying, My daughter is [t] even now dead: but come and lay thy hand upon her, and she shall live.

19 And Jesus arose, and followed him, and so did his disciples.

20 ¶ And, behold, a woman, which was diseased with an [z] issue of blood twelve years, came behind him, and touched [b] the hem of his garment:

21 For she said within herself, If I may but touch his garment, I shall be whole.

22 But Jesus turned him about, and when he saw her, he said, Daughter, be of good comfort; [g] thy faith hath made thee whole. And the woman was made whole from that hour.

23 And when Jesus came into the ruler's house, and saw the [3h] minstrels and the people making a noise,

24 He said unto them, Give place: for [k] the maid is not dead, but sleepeth. And they laughed him to scorn.

25 But [l] when the people were put forth, he went in, and took her by the hand, and [m] the maid arose.

26 And the fame hereof went abroad into all that land.

27 ¶ [c] And when Jesus departed thence, two blind men followed him, crying, and saying, Thou [e] son of David, have mercy on us.

28 And when he was come into the house, the blind men came to him: and Jesus saith unto them, Believe ye that I am able to do this? They said unto him, Yea, Lord.

29 Then touched he their eyes, saying, [l] According to your faith be it unto you.

30 And their eyes were opened; and Jesus straitly charged them, saying, [n] See that no man know it.

31 [o] But they, when they were departed, spread abroad his fame in all that country.

32 ¶ [p] As they went out, behold, they brought to him a dumb man possessed with a devil.

33 And when the devil was cast out, the dumb spake: and the multitudes marvelled, saying, It was never so seen in Israel.

34 But the Pharisees said, He casteth out devils through the prince of the devils.

35 And Jesus went about all the cities and villages, [u] teaching in their synagogues, and [x] preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and [y] healing every sickness and every disease among the people.

36 ¶ [a] But when he saw the multitudes, he was [c] moved with compassion on them, because they fainted, and were scattered abroad, [d] as sheep having no shepherd.

37 [e] Then saith he unto his disciples, [f] The harvest truly is plenteous, but the labourers are few;

38 Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he will send forth labourers into his harvest.

CHAPTER 10

[i] AND when he had called unto him his twelve disciples, he gave them power against unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal all manner of sickness and all manner of disease.

2 Now the names of the twelve apostles are these; The first, [a] Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother; James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother;

3 Philip, and Bartholomew; Thomas, and Matthew the publican; James the son of Ăl-phæ'-ŭs, and Lĕb-bæ'-ŭs, whose surname was Thăd-dæ'-ŭs;

4 Simon the [2]Cā'-nă-ăn-īte, and Judas Iscariot, [e] who also betrayed him.

5 [f] These twelve Jesus sent forth, and commanded them, saying, [h] Go not into the way of the Gentiles, and into any city of the [i] Samaritans enter ye not.

6 But [k] go rather to the [l] lost sheep of the house of Israel.

7 And as ye go, [o] preach, saying, [p] The kingdom of heaven is at hand.

8 Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, cast out devils: [r] freely ye have received, freely give.

9 Provide neither gold, nor silver, nor brass in your purses,

10 Nor scrip for your journey, neither two coats, neither shoes, nor yet [x] staves: for [y] the workman is worthy of his meat.

11 And into whatsoever city or town ye shall enter, enquire who in it is worthy; and there abide till ye go thence.

12 And when ye come into an house, [b] salute it.

13 And if the house be worthy, let your peace come upon it: but if it be not worthy, let your peace return to you.

14 And whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear your words, when ye depart out of that house or city, [e] shake off the dust of your feet.

15 Verily I say unto you, [f] It shall be more tolerable for the land of [i] Sodom and Gō-mŏr'-rhă in the [k] day of judgment, than for that city.

16 ¶ [l] Behold, I send you forth as sheep in the midst of wolves: be ye therefore wise [n] as serpents, and [p] harmless as doves.

17 [q] But beware of men: for they will deliver you up to the [s] councils, and [t] they will scourge you in their synagogues;

19 But when they deliver you up, [c] take no thought how or what ye shall speak: for it shall be given you in that same hour what ye shall speak.

20 For it is not ye that speak, [d] but the Spirit of your Father which speaketh in you.

21 [g] And the brother shall deliver up the brother to death, and the father the child: and the children shall rise up against their parents, and cause them to be put to death.

22 And [m] ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake: but [n] he that endureth to the end shall be saved.

23 But when they [q] persecute you in this city, flee ye into another: for verily I say unto you, Ye shall not have gone over the cities of Israel, till the [s] Son of man [t] be come.

24 [u] The disciple is not above his master, nor the servant above his lord.

25 It is enough for the disciple that he be as his master, and the servant as his lord. [z] If they have called the master of the house [a] Bē-ĕl'-zĕ-bŭb, how much more shall they call them of his household?

26 Fear them not therefore: for [c] there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; and hid, that shall not be known.

27 [d] What I tell you in darkness, that speak ye in light: and what ye hear in the ear, that preach ye upon the housetops.

28 And fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him [g] which is able to destroy both soul and body in [3h] hell.

also before my Father which is in heaven.

33 But [a] whosoever shall deny me before men, [b] him will I also deny before my Father which is in heaven.

34 [d] Think not that I am come to send peace on earth: I came not to send peace, but a sword.

35 For I am come to set a man at variance against his father, and the daughter against her mother, and the daughter in law against her mother in law.

36 [e] And a man's foes shall be they of his own household.

37 [f] He that loveth father or mother more than me is not worthy of me: and he that loveth son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me.

38 [h] And he that taketh not his cross, and followeth after me is not worthy of me.

39 He that findeth his life shall lose it: and he that loseth his life for my sake shall find it.

40 ¶ [l] He that receiveth you receiveth me, and he that receiveth me receiveth him that sent me.

41 He that receiveth a prophet in the name of a prophet shall receive a prophet's reward; and he that receiveth a righteous man in the name of a righteous man shall receive a righteous man's [o] reward.

42 [q] And whosoever shall give to drink unto one of these little ones a cup of cold water only in the name of a disciple, verily I say unto you, he shall in no wise lose his reward.

AND it came to pass, when Jesus had made an end of commanding his twelve disciples, he departed thence to teach and to preach in their cities.

2 [t] Now when [u] John had heard in the prison the works of Christ, he sent two of his disciples,

3 And said unto him, Art thou [x] he that should come, or do we look for another?

4 Jesus answered and said unto them, Go and shew John again those things which ye do hear and see:

5 The blind receive their sight, and the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, and the poor have [c] the gospel preached to them.

6 And blessed is he, whosoever shall not be offended in me.

7 ¶ And as they departed, Jesus began to say unto the multitudes concerning John, What went ye out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken with the wind?

8 But what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? behold, they that wear soft clothing are in kings' houses.

9 But what went ye out for to see? A prophet? [g] yea, I say unto you, and more than a prophet.

10 For this is he, of whom [i] it is written, [k] Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

11 Verily I say unto you, Among them that are born of women there hath not risen a greater than John the Baptist: notwithstanding [m] he that is [2] least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he.

12 [n] And from the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven suffereth violence, and the violent take it by force.

13 For all [p] the prophets and the law prophesied until John.

14 And if ye will receive it, this is [r] Ē-lī-ăs, which was for to come.

15 [s] He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

16 ¶ But whereunto shall I liken this generation? It is like unto children sitting in the markets, and calling unto their fellows, 17 And saying, We have piped unto you, and ye have not danced; we have mourned unto you, and ye have not lamented.

18 For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, He hath a devil.

19 The [y] Son of man came eating and drinking, and they say, Behold a man gluttonous, and a winebibber, a [z] friend of publicans and sinners. But wisdom is justified of her [3] children.

20 ¶ Then began he to upbraid the cities wherein most of his mighty works were done, because they repented not:

21 [c] Woe unto thee, Chō-rā'-zĭn! woe unto thee, Bĕth-sā'-ĭ-dă! for if the mighty works, which were done in you, had been done in [d] Tyre and [f] Sidon, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and [g] ashes.

22 But I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the [i] day of judgment, than for you.

23 And thou, Că-pĕr'-nă-ŭm, which art exalted unto heaven, shalt be brought down to [2 l] hell: for if the mighty works, which have been done in thee, had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until this day.

24 But I say unto you, That it shall be [p] more tolerable for the land of Sodom in the day of judgment, than for thee.

25 ¶ [r] At that time Jesus answered and said, I thank thee, O Father, [t] Lord of heaven and earth, because thou hast [u] hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast [x] revealed them unto babes.

26 Even so, Father: for so it seemed good in thy sight.

27 [a] All things are delivered unto me of my Father: and [b] no man knoweth the Son, but the Father; [c] neither knoweth any man the Father, save the Son, and he to whomsoever the Son [e] will reveal him.

28 ¶ [f] Come unto me, all ye that labour and are [g] heavy laden, and I will give you rest.

29 Take my yoke upon you, and [h] learn of me; for I am [i] meek and lowly in heart: and [k] ye shall find rest unto your souls.

30 For [m] my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

CHAPTER 12

[o] AT that time Jesus went on the sabbath day through the corn; and his disciples were an hungred, and [q] began to pluck the ears of corn, and to eat.

2 But when [s] the Pharisees saw it, they said unto him, Behold, thy disciples do that which is [a] not lawful to do upon the sabbath day.

3 But he said unto them, Have ye not read [b] what David did, when he was an hungred, and they that were with him;

4 How he entered into the house of God, and did eat the [e] shewbread, which was not lawful for him to eat, neither for them which were with him, but [h] only for the priests?

5 Or have ye not read in the law, [k] how that on the sabbath days the priests in the temple profane the sabbath, and are blameless?

6 But I say unto you, That in this place is [m] one greater than the temple.

7 But if ye had known [n] what this meaneth, [o] I will have mercy, and not sacrifice, ye would not have condemned the guiltless.

8 For the [q] Son of man is Lord even of the sabbath day.

9 [s] And when he was departed thence, he went into their synagogue:

10 ¶ And, behold, there was a man which had his hand withered. And they asked him, saying, [y] Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath days? that they might accuse him.

11 And he said unto them, [z] What man shall there be among you, that shall have one sheep, and if it fall into a pit on the sabbath day, will he not lay hold on it, and lift it out?

12 [d] How much then is a man better than a sheep? Wherefore it is lawful to do well on the sabbath days.

13 Then saith he to the man, Stretch forth thine hand. And he stretched it forth; and it was restored whole, like as the other.

14 ¶ Then the Pharisees went out, and [l] held a council against him, how they might destroy him.

15 But when Jesus knew it, he [n] withdrew himself from thence: and great multitudes followed him, and he healed them all;

16 And [p] charged them that they should not make him known:

17 [r] That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Ē-sâi'-ăs the prophet, saying,

18 [t] Behold my servant, whom I have chosen; my beloved, in whom my soul is well pleased: I will put my spirit upon him, and he shall shew judgment to the Gentiles.

19 He shall not strive, nor cry; neither shall any man hear his voice in the streets.

20 A bruised reed shall he not break, and smoking flax shall he not quench, till he send forth judgment unto victory.

21 [e] And in his name shall the Gentiles trust.

22 ¶ [g] Then was brought unto him one possessed with a devil, blind, and dumb: and he healed him, insomuch that the blind and dumb both spake and saw.

23 And all the people were amazed, and said, Is not this the [i] son of David?

24 But [k] when the Pharisees heard it, they said, This fellow doth not cast out devils, but by Bē-ĕl'-zĕ-bŭb the prince of the devils.

25 [m] And Jesus [n] knew their thoughts, and said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and every city or house divided against itself shall not stand:

26 And if Satan cast out Satan, he is divided against himself; how shall then his kingdom stand?

27 And if I by Bē-ĕl'-zĕ-bŭb cast out devils, [t] by whom do your children cast them out? therefore they shall be your judges.

28 But if I cast out devils [u] by the Spirit of God, then [y] the kingdom of God is come unto you.

29 Or else how can one enter into a strong man's house, and spoil his goods, except he first bind [b] the strong man? and then he will spoil his house.

30 [c] He that is not with me is against me; and he that gathereth not with me scattereth abroad.

31 ¶ [e] Wherefore I say unto you, All manner of sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven unto men: but the blasphemy [g] against the Holy Ghost shall not be forgiven unto men.

32 And whosoever speaketh a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him: but whosoever speaketh against the Holy Ghost, [a] it shall not be forgiven him, neither in this world, neither in the world to come.

33 [b] Either make the tree good, and his fruit good; or else make the tree corrupt, and his fruit corrupt: for the tree is known by his fruit.

34 O [c] generation of vipers, how can ye, being evil, speak good things? for [d] out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh.

35 [f] A good man out of the good treasure of the heart bringeth forth good things: and an evil man out of the evil treasure bringeth forth evil things.

36 But I say unto you, That every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the [h] day of judgment.

37 For by thy words thou shalt be justified, and by thy words thou shalt be condemned.

38 ¶ [l] Then certain of the scribes and of the Pharisees answered, saying, Master, [o] we would see a sign from thee.

39 But he answered and said unto them, An evil and [p] adulterous generation seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given to it, but the sign of the prophet [q] Jonas:

40 For as Jonas was [r] three days and three nights in the whale's belly; [s] so shall the Son of man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth.

41 [x] The men of Nĭn'-ĕ-vēh shall rise in judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: because they [z] repented at the preaching of Jonas; and, behold, [a] a greater than Jonas is here.

42 The queen of the south shall rise up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: for [d] she came from the uttermost parts of the earth to hear the wisdom of [f] Solomon; and, behold, a greater than Solomon is here.

43 [h] When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through dry places, seeking rest, and findeth none.

45 Then goeth he, and taketh with himself seven other spirits more wicked than himself, and they enter in and dwell there: and [b] the last state of that man is worse than the first. Even so shall it be also unto this wicked generation.

46 ¶ [d] While he yet talked to the people, behold, his [e] mother and his [g] brethren stood without, desiring to speak with him.

47 Then one said unto him, Behold, thy mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring to speak with thee.

48 But he answered and said unto him that told him, Who is my mother? and who are my brethren?

CHAPTER 13

[l] THE same day went Jesus out of the house, and sat by the sea side.

2 And great multitudes were gathered together unto him, so that he [n] went into a ship, and sat; and the whole multitude stood on the shore.

3 And he spake many things unto them in parables, saying, Behold, a sower went forth to sow;

4 And when he sowed, some seeds fell by the way side, and the fowls came and devoured them up:

5 Some fell upon stony places, where they had not much earth: and forthwith they sprung up, because they had no deepness of earth:

6 And [r] when the sun was up, they were scorched; and because they had no root, they withered away.

7 And some fell among thorns; and [s] the thorns sprung up, and choked them:

8 But other fell into good ground, and brought forth fruit, some [t] an hundredfold, some sixtyfold, some thirtyfold.

9 [a] Who hath ears to hear, let him hear.

10 And the disciples came, and said unto him, Why speakest thou unto them in parables?

11 He answered and said unto them, Because it is given [c] unto you to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it is not given.

12 [f] For whosoever hath, to him shall be given, and he shall have more abundance: but whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken away even that he hath.

13 Therefore speak I to them in parables: because they seeing see not; and hearing they hear not, neither do they understand.

14 And [h] in them is fulfilled the prophecy of Ē-sâi-ăs, which saith, [i] By hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and shall not perceive:

15 For this people's heart is waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes they have closed; lest at any time they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and should understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them.

16 [m] But blessed are your eyes, for they see: and your ears, for they hear.

17 For verily I say unto you, That [o] many prophets and righteous men have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them; and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard them.

18 ¶ [p] Hear ye therefore the parable of the sower.

19 When any one heareth [q] the word of the kingdom, and understandeth it not, then cometh the wicked one, and catcheth away that which was sown in his heart. This is he which received seed by the way side.

20 But he that received the seed into stony places, the same is he that heareth the word, and anon with joy receiveth it;

21 Yet hath he not root in himself, but dureth for a while: for when tribulation or persecution ariseth because of the word, by and by [a] he [2]is offended.

22 He also that received seed among the thorns is he that heareth the word; and [d] the care of this world, and [e] the deceitfulness of riches, choke the word, and he becometh unfruitful.

23 But he that received seed into the good ground is he that heareth the word, and understandeth it; which also beareth fruit, and bringeth forth, some an hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty.

24 ¶ Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is likened unto a man which sowed good seed in his field:

25 But while men slept, his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat, and went his way.

26 But when the blade was sprung up, and brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares also.

27 So the servants of the householder came and said unto him, Sir, didst not thou sow good seed in thy field? from whence then hath it tares?

28 He said unto them, An enemy hath done this. The servants said unto him, Wilt thou then that we go and gather them up?

29 But he said, Nay; lest while ye gather up the tares, ye root up also the wheat with them.

30 Let both grow together until the harvest: and in the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, [x] Gather ye together first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them: but gather the wheat into my barn.

31 ¶ [y] Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is like to a [b] grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and sowed in his field:

32 Which indeed is the least of all seeds: but when it is grown, it is the greatest among herbs, and becometh a tree, so that the birds of the air come and [d] lodge in the branches thereof.

33 ¶ [e] Another parable spake he unto them; The kingdom of heaven is like unto leaven, which a woman took, and hid in three measures of meal, till the whole was [b] leavened.

34 [c] All these things spake Jesus unto the multitude in parables; and without a parable spake he not unto them:

35 [f] That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying, [g] I will open my mouth in parables; I will utter [h] things which have been kept secret from the foundation of the world.

36 Then Jesus sent the multitude away, and went into the house: and his disciples came unto him, saying, [i] Declare unto us the parable of the tares of the field.

37 He answered and said unto them, He that soweth the good seed is the [k] Son of man;

38 The field is the world; the good seed are the [l] children of the kingdom; but the tares are the [m] children of the wicked one;

39 The enemy that sowed them is the devil; the harvest is the [3n] end of the world; and the reapers are the [o] angels.

40 As therefore the tares are gathered and burned in the fire; so shall it be in the end of this world.

41 The Son of man [p] shall send forth his angels, and they shall gather out of his kingdom [q] all things that offend, and [r] them which do iniquity;

42 And shall cast them into a [s] furnace of fire: there shall be [t] wailing and gnashing of teeth.

43 [u] Then shall the righteous shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. Who hath ears to hear, let him hear.

44 ¶ Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto [z] treasure hid in a field; the which when a man hath [a] found, he hideth, and for joy thereof goeth and selleth all that he hath, and buyeth that field.

45 ¶ Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a merchant man, seeking goodly [c] pearls:

46 Who, when he had found one pearl of great price, went and sold all that he had, and bought it.

47 ¶ Again, the kingdom of heaven is [a] like unto a net, that was cast into the sea, and [c] gathered of every kind:

48 Which, when it was full, they drew to shore, and sat down, and gathered the good into vessels, but cast the bad away.
49 So shall it be at the [2f] end of the world: the angels shall come forth, and sever the wicked from among the just,
50 And shall cast them into the furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.
51 Jesus saith unto them, Have ye understood all these things? They say unto him, Yea, Lord.
52 Then said he unto them, Therefore every scribe which is instructed unto the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is an householder, which bringeth forth [h] out of his treasure things [i] new and old.
53 ¶ [k] And it came to pass, that when Jesus had finished these parables, he departed thence.
54 And when he was come into his own country, [l] he taught them in their synagogue, insomuch that [m] they were astonished, and said, Whence hath this man this wisdom, and these mighty works?
55 Is not this the carpenter's son? is not [p] his mother called Mary? and [q] his brethren, James, and Joses, and Simon, and Judas?
56 And his sisters, are they not all with us? Whence then hath this man all these things?
57 And they were [s] offended in him. But Jesus said unto them, A prophet is not without honour, save in his own country, and in his own house.
58 And he did not many mighty works there [t] because of their unbelief.

CHAPTER 14

[x] AT that time [y] Herod the tē'trärch heard of the fame of Jesus,
2 And said unto his servants, [z] This is John the Baptist; he is risen from the dead; and therefore mighty works do shew forth themselves in him.
3 ¶ For Herod had laid hold on [b] John, and bound him, and [c] put him in prison for Hĕ-rō'dĭ-ăs' sake, [b] his brother Philip's wife.
4 For John said unto him, [d] It is not lawful for thee to have her.
5 And when he would have put him to death, he [e] feared the multitude, because they counted him as a prophet.
6 But when Herod's [g] birthday was kept, the daughter of Hĕ-rō'dĭ-ăs danced before them, and pleased Herod.
7 Whereupon he promised with an oath to give her whatsoever she would ask.
8 And she, being before instructed of her mother, said, Give me here John Baptist's head in a charger.
9 And the king was sorry: nevertheless for the oath's sake, and them which sat with him at meat, he commanded it to be given her.
10 And he sent, and beheaded John in the prison.
11 And his head was brought in a charger, and given to the damsel: and she brought it to her mother.
12 And [n] his disciples came, and took up the body, and buried it, and went and told Jesus.
13 ¶ [o] When Jesus heard of it, he departed thence by ship into a desert place apart: and when the people had heard thereof, they followed him on foot out of the cities.
14 And Jesus went forth, and saw a great multitude, and [r] was moved with compassion toward them, and he healed their sick.
15 ¶ And when it was evening, his disciples came to him, saying, This is a desert place, and the time is now past; send the multitude away, that they may go into the villages, and buy themselves victuals.
16 But Jesus said unto them, They need not depart; [u] give ye them to eat.
17 And they say unto him, We have here but five loaves, and two fishes.
18 He said, Bring them hither to me.
19 And he commanded the multitude to sit down on the grass, and took the five loaves, and the two fishes, and [a] looking up to heaven, [d] he blessed, and brake, and gave the loaves to his disciples, and the disciples to the multitude.

20 And they did all eat, and were filled: and they took up of the fragments that remained twelve baskets full.

21 And they that had eaten were about [c] five thousand men, beside women and children.

22 ¶ [d] And straightway Jesus [e] constrained his disciples to get into a ship, and to go before him unto the other side, while he sent the multitudes away.

23 And when he had sent the multitudes away, he went up into a mountain apart [k] to pray: and when the evening was come, he was there alone.

24 But the ship was now in the midst of the sea, tossed with waves: for the wind was contrary.

25 And in the [m] fourth watch of the night Jesus went unto them, walking on the sea.

26 And when the disciples saw him walking on the sea, [q] they were troubled, saying, It is a [3] spirit; and they cried out for fear.

27 But straightway Jesus spake unto them, saying, Be of good cheer; it is I; [r] be not afraid.

28 And Peter answered him and said, Lord, if it be thou, bid me come unto thee on the water.

29 And he said, Come. And when Peter was [x] come down out of the ship, he walked on the water, to go to Jesus.

30 But when he saw the wind boisterous, he was afraid; and beginning to sink, he cried, saying, [y] Lord, save me.

31 And immediately Jesus stretched forth his hand, and caught him, and said unto him, [z] O thou of little faith, wherefore didst thou doubt?

32 And when they were come into the ship, the wind ceased.

33 Then they that were in the ship came and [b] worshipped him, saying, Of a truth thou art the [c] Son of God.

34 ¶ [d] And when they were gone over, they came into the land of Gĕnnĕsăr-rĕt.

35 And when the men of that place had knowledge of him, they sent out into all that country round about, and [a] brought unto him all that were diseased;

36 And besought him that they might only touch [b] the hem of his garment: and as many as touched were made perfectly whole.

CHAPTER 15

[f] THEN came to Jesus scribes and [g] Pharisees, which were of Jerusalem, saying,

2 Why do thy disciples transgress the [h] tradition of the elders? for [i] they wash not their hands when they eat bread.

3 But he answered and said unto them, Why do ye also transgress the commandment of God [l] by your tradition?

4 For God commanded, saying, [n] Honour thy father and mother: and, [o] He that curseth father or mother, let him [2] die the death.

5 But ye say, [p] Whosoever shall say to his father or his mother, It is a gift, by whatsoever thou mightest be profited by me;

6 And honour not his father or his mother, he shall be free. Thus have ye made the commandment of God of none effect by your tradition.

7 Ye [s] hypocrites, [t] well did Ē-sâi-ăs prophesy of you, saying,

8 [u] This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoureth me with their lips; but their heart is far from me.

9 But in vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men.

10 ¶ And he called the multitude, and said unto them, Hear, and understand:

11 [a] Not that which goeth into the mouth defileth a man; but that which cometh out of the mouth, this defileth a man.

12 Then came his disciples, and said unto him, Knowest thou that the Pharisees were offended, after they heard this saying?

13 But he answered and said, [e] Every plant, which my heavenly Father hath not planted, [f] shall be rooted up.

14 Let them alone: they be [a] blind leaders of the blind. And [b] if the blind lead the blind, both shall fall into the ditch.

15 Then answered Peter and said unto him, [d] Declare unto us this parable.

16 And Jesus said, [e] Are ye also yet without understanding?

17 Do not ye yet understand, that [f] whatsoever entereth in at the mouth goeth into the belly, and is cast out into the draught?

18 [k] But those things which proceed out of the mouth come forth from the heart; and they defile the man.

19 For [l] out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies:

20 These are the things which defile a man: but to eat with unwashen hands defileth not a man.

21 ¶ [m] Then Jesus went thence, and departed into the coasts of [n] Tyre and [n] Sidon.

22 And, behold, a woman of Cā-nă-ăn came out of the same coasts, and cried unto him, saying, Have mercy on me, O Lord, thou [p] son of David; my daughter is grievously vexed with a devil.

23 But he answered her not a word. And his disciples came and besought him, saying, Send her away; for she crieth after us.

24 But he answered and said, I am not sent but unto the [r] lost sheep of the house of Israel.

25 Then came she and [s] worshipped him, saying, Lord, help me.

26 But he answered and said, [t] It is not meet to take the children's bread, and to cast it to [y] dogs.

27 And [a] she said, Truth, Lord: yet the dogs eat of the crumbs which fall from their masters' table.

28 Then Jesus answered and said unto her, O woman, [c] great is thy faith: [d] be it unto thee even as thou wilt. And her daughter was made whole from that very hour.

29 [e] And Jesus departed from thence, and came nigh unto the sea of Galilee; and [f] went up into a mountain, and sat down there.

30 And great multitudes came unto him, having with them those that were lame, blind, dumb, maimed, and many others, and cast them down at Jesus' feet; and [c] he healed them:

31 Insomuch that the multitude wondered, when they saw the dumb to speak, the maimed to be whole, the lame to walk, and the blind to see: and they [g] glorified the God of Israel.

32 ¶ [h] Then Jesus called his disciples unto him, and said, [i] I have compassion on the multitude, because they continue with me now three days, and have nothing to eat: and I will not send them away fasting, lest they faint in the way.

33 And his disciples say unto him, Whence should we have so much bread in the wilderness, as to fill so great a multitude?

34 And Jesus saith unto them, How many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven, and a few little fishes.

35 And he commanded the multitude to sit down on the ground.

36 And he took the seven loaves and the fishes, and [o] gave thanks, and brake them, and gave to his disciples, and the disciples to the multitude.

37 And they did all eat, and were filled: and they took up of the broken meat that was left seven baskets full.

38 And they that did eat were [q] four thousand men, beside women and children.

39 And he sent away the multitude, and took ship, and came into the coasts of [2] Măg-dă-lă.

CHAPTER 16

[u] [x] THE Pharisees also with the [z] Sadducees came, and tempting desired him that he would shew them a sign from heaven.

2 [b] He answered and said unto them, When it is evening, ye say, It will be fair weather: for the sky is red.

3 And in the morning, It will be foul weather to day: for the sky is red and lowring. O ye [3] hypocrites, ye can discern the face of the sky; but can ye not discern the signs of the times?

4 A wicked and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given unto it, but the sign of the prophet Jonas. And he left them, and departed.

5 [c] And when his disciples were come to the other side, they had forgotten to take bread.

6 ¶ Then Jesus said unto them, Take heed and [d] beware of the leaven [f] of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees.

7 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, It is because we have taken no bread.

8 Which when Jesus perceived, he said unto them, [i] O ye of little faith, why reason ye among yourselves, because ye have brought no bread?

9 [k] Do ye not yet understand, neither remember [l] the five loaves of the five thousand, and how many baskets ye took up?

10 Neither [m] the seven loaves of the four thousand, and how many baskets ye took up?

11 How is it that ye do not understand that I spake it not to you concerning bread, that ye should beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees?

12 Then understood they how that he bade them not beware of the leaven of bread, but of the doctrine of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees.

13 ¶ [r] When Jesus came into the coasts of Cæsarea Phī-lĭp'-pī, he asked his disciples, saying, Whom do men say that I the [s] Son of man am?

14 And they said, [u] Some say that thou art John the Baptist: some, [x] Ē-lī'-ăs; and others, Jĕr-ē-mī'-ăs, or one of the prophets.

15 He saith unto them, But whom say ye that I am?

16 And Simon Peter answered and said, Thou art [b] the Christ, [c] the Son of [d] the living God.

17 And Jesus answered and said unto him, Blessed art thou, Simon Bär-jō'-nă: for flesh and blood [g] hath not revealed it unto thee, but my Father which is in heaven.

18 And I say also unto thee, That thou art [i] Peter, and upon this rock [m] I will build my church; and the [n] gates of [3] hell shall not prevail against it.

19 And I will give unto thee [a] the keys of the kingdom of heaven: and [b] whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.

20 Then charged he his disciples that they should [e] tell no man that he was Jesus the Christ.

21 ¶ [g] From that time forth began Jesus [h] to shew unto his disciples, how that he must go unto Jerusalem, and suffer many things of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and be raised again the third day.

22 Then Peter took him, and began to rebuke him, saying, Be it far from thee, Lord: this shall not be unto thee.

23 But he turned, and said unto Peter, [n] Get thee behind me, Satan: thou art an offence unto me: for thou [2o] savourest not the things that be of God, but those that be of men.

24 ¶ [p] Then said Jesus unto his disciples, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me.

25 For whosoever will save his life shall lose it: and whosoever will lose his life for my sake shall find it.

26 For what is a man profited, [q] if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?

27 [t] For the Son of man shall come in the glory of his Father with his angels; and [y] then he shall reward every man according to his works.

28 Verily I say unto you, [z] There be some standing here, which shall not taste of death, [a] till they see the Son of man coming in his kingdom.

CHAPTER 17

[e] AND after six days Jesus [f] taketh Peter, James, and John his brother, and [h] bringeth them up into an high mountain apart,

2 And was [i] transfigured before them: and [k] his face did shine as the sun, and his raiment was white as the light.

3 And, behold, there appeared unto them Moses and Ē-lī'-ăs talking with him.

4 Then answered Peter, and said unto Jesus, Lord, it is good for us to be here: if thou wilt, let us make here three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Ē-lī'-ăs.

5 While he yet spake, behold, a [e] bright cloud overshadowed them: and behold [f] a voice out of the cloud, which said, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased; hear ye him.

6 And when the disciples heard it, they [h] fell on their face, and were sore afraid.

7 And Jesus came and touched them, and said, Arise, and [k] be not afraid.

8 And when they had lifted up their eyes, they saw no man, save Jesus only.

9 [m] And as they came down from the mountain, Jesus charged them, saying, [n] Tell the vision to no man, until the [o] Son of man be risen again from the dead.

10 And his disciples asked him, saying, Why then say the scribes that [r] Ē-lī'-ăs must first come?

11 And Jesus answered and said unto them, Ē-lī'-ăs truly shall first come, and restore all things.

12 But I say unto you, That Ē-lī'-ăs is come already, and they knew him not, but [s] have done unto him whatsoever they listed. Likewise shall also the Son of man suffer of them.

13 Then the disciples understood that he spake unto them of John the Baptist.

14 ¶ [t] And when they were come to the multitude, there came to him a certain man, kneeling down to him, and saying,

15 Lord, have mercy on my son: for he is [u] lunatick, and sore vexed: for ofttimes he falleth into the fire, and oft into the water.

16 And I brought him to thy disciples, and they could not cure him.

17 Then Jesus answered and said, O [y] faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you? bring him hither to me.

18 And Jesus rebuked the devil; and he departed out of him: and the child was cured from that very hour.

19 Then came the disciples to Jesus apart, and said, Why could not we cast him out?

20 [a] And Jesus said unto them, [b] Because of your unbelief: for verily I say unto you, [c] If ye have faith as [d] a grain of mustard seed, ye shall say unto this mountain, Remove hence to yonder place; and it shall remove; and [g] nothing shall be impossible unto you.

21 Howbeit this kind goeth not out but by prayer and fasting.

22 ¶ [i] And while they abode in Galilee, [l] Jesus said unto them, The Son of man shall be betrayed into the hands of men:

23 And they shall kill him, and the third day he shall be raised again. And they were exceeding sorry.

24 ¶ And when they were come to [p] Că-pĕr'-nă-ŭm, they that received [2q] tribute money came to Peter, and said, Doth not your master pay tribute?

25 He saith, Yes. And when he was come into the house, Jesus prevented him, saying, What thinkest thou, Simon? of whom do the kings of the earth take custom or tribute? of their own children, or of strangers?

26 Peter saith unto him, Of strangers. Jesus saith unto him, Then are the children free.

27 Notwithstanding, lest we should offend them, go thou to the sea, and cast an hook, and take up the fish that first cometh up; and when thou hast opened his mouth, thou shalt find a piece of money: that take, and give unto them for me and thee.

CHAPTER 18

[x] AT the same time came the disciples unto Jesus, saying, Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven?

2 And Jesus called a little child unto him, and set him in the midst of them,

3 And said, Verily I say unto you, Except ye be converted, and [z] become as little children, ye [a] shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven.

4 [a] Whosoever therefore shall humble himself as this little child, [b] the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven.

5 [d] And whoso shall receive one such little child in my name receiveth me.

6 [f] But whoso shall offend one of these little ones which believe in me, it were better for him that a [h] millstone were hanged about his neck, and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea.

7 ¶ Woe unto the world because of offences! for it must needs be that offences come; but [i] woe to that man by whom the offence cometh!

8 [l] Wherefore if thy hand or thy foot offend thee, cut them off, and cast them from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life halt or maimed, rather than having two hands or two feet to be cast into [o] everlasting fire.

9 And if thine eye offend thee, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into hell fire.

10 Take heed that ye despise not one of these little ones; for I say unto you, That in heaven [s] their angels do always behold the face of my Father which is in heaven.

11 [u] For [x] the Son of man is come to save that which was lost.

12 [y] How think ye? if a man have an hundred sheep, and one of them be [z] gone astray, doth he not leave the ninety and nine, and goeth into the mountains, and seeketh that which is gone astray?

13 And if so be that he find it, verily I say unto you, he rejoiceth more of that sheep, than of the ninety and nine which went not astray.

14 Even so [b] it is not the will of your Father which is in heaven, that one of these little ones should perish.

15 ¶ Moreover [c] if thy brother shall trespass against thee, go and tell him his fault between thee and him alone: if he shall hear thee, thou hast [d] gained thy brother.

16 But if he will not hear thee, then take with thee one or two more, that in [e] the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be established.

17 And if he shall neglect to hear them, [e] tell it unto the church: but if he neglect to hear the church, [e] let him be unto thee as an [2] heathen man and a publican.

18 Verily I say unto you, [g] Whatsoever ye shall bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever ye shall loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.

19 Again I say unto you, That if two of you shall agree on earth as touching [k] any thing that they shall ask, it shall be done for them of my Father which is in heaven.

20 For where two or three are gathered together [m] in my name, [n] there am I in the midst of them.

21 ¶ Then came Peter to him, and said, Lord, how oft shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? [p] till seven times?

22 Jesus saith unto him, I say not unto thee, Until seven times: but, Until [3] [q] seventy times seven.

23 ¶ [r] Therefore is the kingdom of heaven likened unto a certain king, which would [t] take account of his servants.

24 And when he had begun to reckon, one was brought unto him, which owed him ten thousand [4] talents.

25 But forasmuch as he had not to pay, his lord [a] commanded him to be sold, and his wife, and children, and all that he had, and payment to be made.

26 The servant therefore fell down, and worshipped him, saying, Lord, have patience with me, and I will pay thee all.

27 Then the lord of that servant was moved with compassion, and loosed him, and forgave him the debt.

28 But the same servant went out, and found one of his fellowservants, which owed him an hundred [5] pence: and he laid hands on him, and took him by the throat, saying, Pay me that thou owest.

29 And his fellowservant fell down at his feet, and besought him, saying,

Have patience with me, and I will pay thee all.

30 And he would not: but went and cast him into prison, till he should pay the debt.

31 So when his fellowservants saw what was done, they were very sorry, and came and told unto their lord all that was done.

32 Then his lord, after that he had called him, said unto him, O [b] thou wicked servant, I forgave thee all that debt, because thou desiredst me:

33 Shouldest not thou also have had compassion on thy fellowservant, even as I had pity on thee?

34 And his lord was wroth, and delivered him to the tormentors, till he should [d] pay all that was due unto him.

35 [e] So likewise shall my heavenly Father do also unto you, if ye from your hearts forgive not every one his brother their trespasses.

CHAPTER 19

[h] AND it came to pass, that when Jesus had finished these sayings, he departed from Galilee, and came [i] into the coasts of Judæa beyond Jordan;

2 And great multitudes followed him; and [l] he healed them there.

3 ¶ The [m] Pharisees also came unto him, tempting him, and saying unto him, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife for every cause?

4 And he answered and said unto them, Have ye not read, that he which made them at the beginning made them [s] male and female,

5 And said, [t] For this cause shall a man leave father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife: and they twain shall be one flesh?

6 Wherefore they are no more twain, but one flesh. [x] What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder.

7 [z] They say unto him, [a] Why did Moses then command to give a writing of divorcement, and [b] to put her away?

8 He saith unto them, Moses because of the hardness of your hearts suffered you to put away your wives: but from the beginning it was not so.

9 And [a] I say unto you, Whosoever shall put away his wife, except it be for fornication, and shall marry another, committeth adultery: and whoso marrieth her which is put away doth commit adultery.

10 ¶ His disciples say unto him, If the case of the man be so with his wife, it is not good to marry.

11 But he said unto them, All men cannot receive this saying, save they [c] to whom it is given.

12 For there are some eunuchs, which were so born from their mother's womb: and there are some eunuchs, which were made eunuchs of men: and there be eunuchs, which have made themselves eunuchs for the kingdom of heaven's sake. [f] He that is able to receive it, let him receive it.

13 ¶ [g] Then were there brought unto him little children, that he should put his hands on them, and pray: and the disciples rebuked them.

14 But Jesus said, Suffer little children, and forbid them not, to come unto me: for [k] of such is the kingdom of heaven.

15 And he laid his hands on them, and departed thence.

16 ¶ [n] And, behold, one came and said unto him, Good Master, [o] what good thing shall I do, [p] that I may have eternal life?

17 And he said unto him, [2] Why callest thou me good? [q] there is none good but one, that is, God: but [r] if thou wilt enter into life, keep the commandments.

18 He saith unto him, Which? Jesus said, [u] Thou shalt do no murder, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, 19 Honour thy father and thy mother: and, [y] Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

20 The young man saith unto him, [c] All these things have I kept from my youth up: what lack I yet?

21 Jesus said unto him, If thou wilt be [d] perfect, go and [e] sell that thou

22 But when the young man heard that saying, he went away sorrowful: for he had great possessions.

23 ¶ Then said Jesus unto his disciples, Verily I say unto you, That a rich man [d] shall hardly enter into the kingdom of heaven.

24 And again I say unto you, It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

25 When his disciples heard it, they were exceedingly amazed, saying, Who then can be saved?

26 But Jesus beheld them, and said unto them, With men this is impossible; but [f] with God all things are possible.

27 ¶ Then answered Peter and said unto him, Behold, [g] we have forsaken all, and followed thee; what shall we have therefore?

28 And Jesus said unto them, Verily I say unto you, that ye which have followed me, in the [h] regeneration when the [i] Son of man shall sit in the throne of his glory, ye also shall sit upon twelve thrones, [k] judging the [l] twelve tribes of Israel.

29 And [n] every one that hath forsaken houses, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my name's sake, shall receive an [p] hundredfold, and shall [r] inherit everlasting life.

30 But [s] many that are first shall be last; and the last shall be first.

CHAPTER 20

FOR the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is an householder, which went out early in the morning to hire labourers into his vineyard.

2 And when he had agreed with the labourers for a penny a day, he sent them into his vineyard.

3 And he went out about the third hour, and saw others standing idle in the marketplace,

4 And said unto them; Go ye also into the vineyard, and whatsoever is right I will give you. And they went their way.

5 Again he went out about the sixth and ninth hour, and did likewise.

6 And about the eleventh hour he went out, and found others standing idle, and saith unto them, Why stand ye here all the day idle?

7 They say unto him, Because no man hath hired us. He saith unto them, Go ye also into the vineyard; and whatsoever is right, that shall ye receive.

8 So when even was come, the lord of the vineyard saith unto his [e] steward, Call the labourers, and give them their hire, beginning from the last unto the first.

9 And when they came that were hired about the eleventh hour, they received every man a penny.

10 But when the first came, they supposed that they should have received more; and they likewise received every man a penny.

11 And when they had received it, they murmured against the goodman of the house,

12 Saying, These last have wrought but one hour, and thou hast made them equal unto us, which have borne the burden and [m] heat of the day.

13 But he answered one of them, and said, [o] Friend, I do thee no wrong: didst not thou agree with me for a penny?

14 Take [q] that thine is, and go thy way: I will give unto this last, even as unto thee.

15 Is it not lawful for me to do what I will with mine own? [t] Is thine eye evil, because I am good?

16 So [u] the last shall be first, and the first last: [2] for many be called, but few chosen.

17 ¶ [x] And Jesus going up to Jerusalem took the twelve disciples apart in the way, and [y] said unto them,

18 Behold, we go up to Jerusalem; and the [z] Son of man shall be betrayed unto the chief priests and unto the scribes, and they shall condemn him to death,

19 And shall deliver him to the Gentiles to mock, and to scourge, and to 20 ¶ [a]Then came to him [b]the mother of Zebedee's children with her sons, [c]worshipping him, and desiring a certain thing of him.

21 And he said unto her, What wilt thou? She saith unto him, Grant that these my two sons may [d]sit, the one on thy right hand, and the other on the left, in thy kingdom.

22 But Jesus answered and said, [e]Ye know not what ye ask. Are ye able to drink of [h]the cup that I shall drink of, and to be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with? They say unto him, We are able.

23 And he saith unto them, [i]Ye shall drink indeed of my cup, and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with: but to sit on my right hand, and on my left, is not mine to give, but it shall be given to them for whom it is [l]prepared of my Father.

24 And when the ten heard it, they were moved with indignation against the two brethren.

25 [n]But Jesus called them unto him, and said, Ye know that the princes of the Gentiles [2o]exercise dominion over them, and they that are great exercise authority upon them.

26 But it shall not be so among you: but [p]whosoever will be great among you, let him be your minister;

27 And whosoever will be chief among you, let him be your servant:

28 Even as the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but [r]to minister, and [s]to give his life a ransom for many.

29 [y]And as they departed from Jericho, a great multitude followed him.

30 ¶ And, behold, [z]two blind men sitting by the way side, when they heard that Jesus passed by, cried out, saying, Have mercy on us, O Lord, thou [b]son of David.

31 And the multitude rebuked them, because they should hold their peace: but they cried the more, saying, Have mercy on us, O Lord, thou son of David.

32 And Jesus stood still, and called them, and said, What will ye that I shall do unto you?

CHAPTER 21

[e]AND when they drew nigh unto Jerusalem, and were come to Bĕth-phă-ġē, unto the [f]mount of Olives, then sent Jesus two disciples,

2 Saying unto them, Go into the village over against you, and straightway ye shall find an ass tied, and a colt with her: loose them, and bring them unto me.

3 And if any man say ought unto you, ye shall say, The Lord hath need of them, and straightway he will send them.

4 All this was done, [k]that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying,

5 [m]Tell ye the daughter of Sion, Behold, thy King cometh unto thee, meek, and sitting upon an ass, and a colt the foal of an ass.

6 And the disciples went, and did as Jesus commanded them,

7 And brought the ass, and the colt, and put on them their clothes, and they set him thereon.

8 And a very great multitude [q]spread their garments in the way; others cut down branches from the trees, and strawed them in the way.

9 And the multitudes that went before, and that followed, cried, saying, [3t]Hosanna to the [u]son of David: [x]Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord; Hosanna in the highest.

10 [a]And when he was come into Jerusalem, all the city was moved, saying, Who is this?

11 And the multitude said, This is Jesus [c]the prophet [d]of Nazareth of Galilee.

12 ¶ [e]And Jesus went into the temple of God, and [f]cast out all them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the moneychangers, and the seats of them that sold [g]doves,

13 And said unto them, It is written, [a] My house shall be called the house of prayer; but [b] ye have made it a den of thieves.

14 And the blind and the lame came to him in the temple; and he [c] healed them.

15 [e] And when the chief priests and scribes saw the wonderful things that he did, and the children crying in the temple, and saying, Hosanna to the son of David; they were sore displeased,

16 And said unto him, Hearest thou what these say? And Jesus saith unto them, Yea; have ye never read, [g] Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings thou hast perfected praise?

17 ¶ And he left them, and [h] went out of the city into [i] Bethany; and he lodged there.

18 [k] Now in the morning as he returned into the city, he hungered.

19 And when he saw a fig tree in the way, he came to it, and [l] found nothing thereon, but leaves only, and said unto it, Let no fruit grow on thee henceforward for ever. And presently the fig tree withered away.

20 And when the disciples saw it, they marvelled, saying, How soon is the fig tree withered away!

21 Jesus answered and said unto them, Verily I say unto you, [q] If ye have faith, and [s] doubt not, ye shall not only do this which is done to the fig tree, but also if ye shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; it shall be done.

22 And all things, [y] whatsoever ye shall ask in prayer, believing, ye shall receive.

23 ¶ [z a] And when he was come into the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came unto him as he was teaching, and said, By what authority doest thou these things? and who gave thee this authority?

24 And Jesus answered and said unto them, I also will ask you one thing, which if ye tell me, I in like wise will tell you by what authority I do these things.

25 [c] The baptism of John, whence was it? from heaven, or of men? And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say unto us, Why did ye not then believe him?

26 But if we shall say, Of men; [d] we fear the people; for all hold John as a prophet.

27 And they answered Jesus, and said, We cannot tell. And he said unto them, Neither tell I you by what authority I do these things.

28 ¶ But what think ye? [f] A certain man had two sons; and he came to the first, and said, Son, go work to day in my vineyard.

29 He answered and said, I will not: but afterward he repented, and went.

30 And he came to the second, and said likewise. And he answered and said, I go, sir: and went not.

31 Whether of them twain did the will of his father? They say unto him, The first. Jesus saith unto them, Verily I say unto you, That [m] the publicans and the harlots [n] go into the kingdom of God before you.

32 For John came unto you [o] in the way of righteousness, and ye believed him not: but [p] the publicans and the harlots believed him: and ye, when ye had seen it, repented not afterward, that ye might believe him.

33 ¶ [r] Hear another parable: There was a certain householder, which [t] planted a vineyard, and hedged it round about, and digged a [u] winepress in it, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and [x] went into a far country:

34 And when the time of the fruit drew near, he sent his servants to the husbandmen, that they might receive the fruits of it.

35 And the husbandmen took his servants, and beat one, and killed another, and [b] stoned another.

36 Again, he sent other servants more than the first: and they did unto them likewise.

37 But last of all he sent unto them his son, saying, They will reverence my son.

38 But when the husbandmen saw the son, they said among themselves,

AND Jesus answered and spake unto them again by parables, and said,

2 [y] The kingdom of heaven is like unto a certain king, which made [z] a marriage for his son,

3 And [a] sent forth his servants to call them that were bidden to the wedding: and they would not come.

4 Again, he sent forth other servants, saying, Tell them which are bidden, Behold, I have prepared my dinner: [d] my oxen and my fatlings are killed, and all things are ready: come unto the marriage.

5 But they made light of it, and went their ways, one to his farm, another to his merchandise:

9 Go ye therefore into the highways, and as many as ye shall find, bid to the marriage.

10 So those servants went out into the highways, and gathered together all as many as they found, [h] both bad and good: and the wedding was furnished with guests.

21 They say unto him, Cæsar's. Then saith he unto them, [e] Render therefore unto Cæsar the things which are Cæsar's; and unto God the things that are God's.

A.D. 33

22 When they had heard these words, they [b] marvelled, and left him, and went their way.

23 ¶ The same day came to him the [e] Sadducees, [f] which say that there is no resurrection, and asked him,

24 Saying, Master, [h] Moses said, [i] If a man die, having no children, his brother shall marry his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.

25 Now there were with us seven brethren: and the first, when he had married a wife, deceased, and, having no issue, left his wife unto his brother:

26 Likewise the second also, and the third, unto the seventh.

27 And last of all the woman died also.

28 Therefore in the resurrection whose wife shall she be of the seven? for they all had her.

29 Jesus answered and said unto them, Ye do err, [p] not knowing the scriptures, nor [q] the power of God.

30 For [s] in the resurrection they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are as the angels of God in heaven.

31 But as touching the resurrection of the dead, have ye not read that which was spoken unto you by God, saying,

32 [b] I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? God is not the God of the dead, but of the living.

33 And when the multitude heard this, they were [d] astonished at his doctrine.

34 ¶ [g] But when the Pharisees had heard that he had put the Sadducees to silence, they were gathered together.

35 Then one of them, which was [k] a lawyer, asked him a question, tempting him, and saying,

36 Master, which is the great commandment in the law?

37 Jesus said unto him, [m] Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind.

38 This is the first and great commandment.

39 And the second is like unto it, [a] Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

40 [c] On these two commandments hang all [d] the law and the prophets.

41 ¶ [g] While the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them, 42 Saying, What think ye of [2k] Christ? whose son is he? They say unto him, The [l] son of David.

43 He saith unto them, How then doth David in spirit call him Lord, saying,

44 [m] The LORD said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool?

45 If David then call him Lord, [n] how is he his son?

46 [o] And no man was able to answer him a word, neither durst any man from that day forth ask him any more questions.

CHAPTER 23

[r] THEN spake Jesus to the multitude, and to his disciples,

2 Saying, The scribes and [t] the Pharisees sit in [u] Moses' seat:

3 All therefore whatsoever [x] they bid you observe, that observe and do; but do not ye after their works: for [y] they say, and do not.

4 [z] For they bind [a] heavy burdens and grievous to be borne, and lay them on men's shoulders; but they themselves will not move them with one of their fingers.

5 But [c] all their works they do for to be seen of men: they make broad their [e] phylacteries, and enlarge [f] the borders of their garments,

6 [h] And love the uppermost rooms at feasts, and [i] the chief seats in the synagogues,

7 And greetings in the markets, and to be called of men, Rabbi, Rabbi.

8 But [l] be not ye called Rabbi: for one is your Master, even Christ; and all ye are brethren.

9 And call no man your father upon the earth: for [n] one is your Father, which is in heaven.

A.D. 33

10 Neither be ye called masters: for one is your Master, even Christ.
11 But [a] he that is greatest among you shall be your servant.
12 And [c] whosoever shall exalt himself shall be abased; and [e] he that shall humble himself shall be exalted.
13 ¶ [f] But woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, [g] hypocrites! for ye shut up the kingdom of heaven against men: for ye neither go in yourselves, neither suffer ye them that are entering to go in.
14 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye [l] devour widows' houses, and for a pretence make long prayer: therefore ye shall receive the greater damnation.
15 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye compass sea and land to make one [m] proselyte, and when he is made, ye make him twofold more the child of [2] hell than yourselves.
16 [o] Woe unto you, ye [p] blind guides, which say, Whosoever shall swear by the temple, it is nothing; but whosoever shall swear by the gold of the temple, he is a debtor!
17 Ye fools and blind: for whether is greater, the gold, or the temple that sanctifieth the gold?
18 And, Whosoever shall swear by the altar, it is nothing; but whosoever sweareth by the [s] gift that is upon it, he is guilty.
19 Ye fools and blind: for whether is greater, the gift, or the [u] altar that sanctifieth the gift?
20 Whoso therefore shall swear by the altar, sweareth by it, and by all things thereon.
21 And whoso shall swear by the temple, sweareth by it, and by [z] him that dwelleth therein.
22 And he that shall swear by heaven, sweareth by [b] the throne of God, and by him that sitteth thereon.
23 [c] Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye pay [g] tithe of mint and anise and [h] cummin, and have omitted the weightier matters of the law, [k] judgment, mercy, and faith: these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone.
24 Ye blind guides, which strain at a gnat, and swallow a camel.
25 [b] Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye make clean the outside of [d] the cup and of the platter, but within they are full of extortion and excess.
26 Thou blind Pharisee, cleanse first that which is within the cup and platter, that the outside of them may be clean also.
27 [h] Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye are like unto [i] whited [k] sepulchres, which indeed appear beautiful outward, but are within full of dead men's bones, and of all uncleanness.
28 Even so ye also outwardly appear righteous unto men, but within ye are full of hypocrisy and iniquity.
29 [n] Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! because ye build the tombs of the prophets, and garnish the sepulchres of the righteous,
30 And say, If we had been in the days of our fathers, we would not have been partakers with them in the blood of the prophets.
31 Wherefore ye be witnesses unto yourselves, that ye are the children of them which [q] killed the prophets.
32 [r] Fill ye up then the measure of your fathers.
33 Ye serpents, ye [t] generation of vipers, how can ye escape the damnation of hell?
34 ¶ Wherefore, behold, I send unto you prophets, and wise men, and scribes: and some of them ye shall kill and crucify; and some of them shall ye [x] scourge in your synagogues, and [y] persecute them from city to city:
35 That [a] upon you may come all the righteous blood shed upon the earth, from the blood of righteous [c] Abel unto the blood of [d] Zăch-ă-rī'-ăs son of Băr-ă-chī'-ăs, whom ye slew between the temple and the [f] altar.
36 Verily I say unto you, All these things shall come [i] upon this generation.

CHAPTER 24

[g h] AND Jesus went out, and departed from the temple: and his disciples came to him for to shew him the buildings of the temple.

2 And Jesus said unto them, See ye not all these things? verily I say unto you, [k] There shall not be left here one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

3 ¶ And as he sat upon the [m] mount of Olives, the disciples came unto him privately, saying, [n] Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be [o] the sign of thy coming, and of [2 q] the end of the world?

4 And Jesus answered and said unto them, [r] Take heed that no man deceive you.

5 For [s] many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many.

6 And ye shall hear of wars and [x] rumours of wars: see that ye be not troubled: for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet.

7 For [z] nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be [b] famines, and [c] pestilences, and [d] earthquakes, in divers places.

8 All these are the beginning of [3 f] sorrows.

9 [h] Then shall they deliver you up to be afflicted, and shall kill you: and [i] ye shall be hated of all nations for my name's sake.

10 And then shall many be offended, and shall betray one another, and shall hate one another.

11 And many [o] false prophets [p] shall rise, and shall deceive many.

12 And because iniquity shall abound, [q] the love of many shall wax cold.

13 But he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved.

14 And [b] this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world [d] for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come.

15 When ye therefore shall see [e] the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, stand in the holy place, (whoso readeth, let him understand:)

16 Then let them which be in Judæa flee into the mountains:

17 [i] Let him which is on the housetop not come down to take any thing out of his house:

18 Neither let him which is in the field return back to take his clothes.

19 And [l] woe unto them that are with child, and to them that give suck in those days!

20 But pray ye that your flight be not in the winter, neither on the sabbath day:

21 For then shall be [p] great tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be.

22 And except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved: but for the [t] elect's sake those days shall be shortened.

23 [u] Then if any man shall say unto you, Lo, here is Christ, or there; believe it not.

24 For [y] there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and shall [a] shew great signs and wonders; insomuch that, if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect.

25 Behold, [e] I have told you before.

26 Wherefore if they shall say unto you, Behold, [g] he is in the desert; go not forth: behold, he is in the secret chambers; believe it not.

27 For as the [k] lightning cometh out of the east, and shineth even unto the west; so shall also the [l] coming of the [m] Son of man be.

28 For wheresoever the [n] carcase is, there will the [q] eagles be gathered together.

29 ¶ Immediately after the tribulation of those days shall the [a] sun be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens shall be shaken:

30 And then shall [d] appear the sign of the Son of man in heaven: and then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn, and they shall [f] see the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven with power and great glory.

31 And he shall [h] send his angels with a great sound of a [i] trumpet, and they shall gather together [k] his elect from the [l] four winds, [m] from one end of heaven to the other.

32 Now learn a parable of the fig tree; When his branch is [o] yet tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is nigh:

33 So likewise ye, when ye shall see all these things, know that [3] it is near, even at the doors.

34 Verily I say unto you, [q] This generation shall not pass, till all these things be fulfilled.

35 [r] Heaven and earth shall pass away, but [t] my words shall not pass away.

36 ¶ But of that day and hour [y] knoweth no man, no, not the angels of heaven, [z] but my Father only.

37 [a] But as the days of [b] Nō'ē were, so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

38 For as in the days that were before the [d] flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until [e] the day that Nō'ē entered into the ark,

39 And knew not until the flood came, and took them all away; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

40 [g] Then shall [h] two be in the field; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

41 [k] Two women shall be grinding at the mill; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

42 ¶ [m] Watch therefore: for ye know not what hour your Lord doth come.

43 [n] But know this, that if the goodman of the house had known in what [o] watch the thief would come, he would have watched, and would not have suffered his house to be [2b] broken up.

44 Therefore be ye also [c] ready: for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of man cometh.

45 Who then is a [e] faithful and wise servant, whom his lord hath made ruler over his household, to give them meat in due season?

46 [g] Blessed is that servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing.

47 Verily I say unto you, That [e] he shall make him ruler over all his goods.

48 But and if that evil servant shall say in his heart, [n] My lord delayeth his coming;

49 And shall begin to smite his fellowservants, and to [p] eat and drink with the drunken;

50 The lord of that servant shall come in a day when he looketh not for him, and in an hour that he is not aware of,

51 And shall [4] cut him asunder, and appoint him [s] his portion with the [u] hypocrites: [x] there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

CHAPTER 25

THEN shall the kingdom of heaven be likened unto ten virgins, which took their [5] lamps, and went forth to meet the [c] bridegroom.

2 And five of them were wise, and five were foolish.

3 They that were foolish took their lamps, and took no oil with them:

4 But the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps.

5 While the bridegroom tarried, they all [f] slumbered and slept.

6 And at [i] midnight there was a cry made, Behold, the bridegroom cometh; go ye out to meet him.

7 Then all those virgins arose, and [l] trimmed their lamps.

8 And the foolish said unto the wise, Give us of your oil; for our lamps are gone out.

9 But the wise answered, saying, Not so; lest there be not enough for us and you: but go ye rather to them that sell, and buy for yourselves.

10 And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came; and [a] they that were ready went in with him to [b] the marriage: and [c] the door was shut.

11 Afterward came also the other virgins, saying, [d] Lord, Lord, open to us.

12 But [e] he answered and said, Verily I say unto you, I know you not.

13 [f] Watch therefore, for [g] ye know neither the day nor the hour wherein the Son of man cometh.

14 ¶ [i] For the kingdom of heaven is as a man [k] travelling into a far country, who called his own servants, and delivered unto them his goods.

15 And unto one he gave five talents, to another two, and to another one; [l] to every man according to his several ability; and straightway took his journey.

16 Then he that had received the five talents went and traded with the same, and made them other five talents.

17 And likewise he that had received two, he also gained other two.

18 But he that had received one went and digged in the earth, and hid his lord's money.

19 After a long time the lord of those servants cometh, and [q] reckoneth with them.

20 And so he that had received five talents came and brought other five talents, saying, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me five talents: behold, I have gained beside them five talents more.

21 His lord said unto him, Well done, thou good and [y] faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, [z] I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord.

22 He also that had received two talents came and said, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me two talents: behold, I have gained two other talents beside them.

23 His lord said unto him, Well done, good and faithful servant; thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord.

24 Then he which had received the one talent came and said, Lord, I knew thee that thou art an hard man, reaping where thou hast not sown, and gathering where thou hast not strawed:

25 And I was afraid, and went and hid thy talent in the earth: lo, there thou hast that is thine.

26 His lord answered and said unto him, Thou [h] wicked and slothful servant, thou knewest that I reap where I sowed not, and gather where I have not strawed:

27 Thou oughtest therefore to have put my money to the exchangers, and then at my coming I should have received mine own with usury.

28 Take therefore the talent from him, and give it unto him which hath ten talents.

29 For [m] unto every one that hath shall be given, and he shall have abundance: but from him that hath not shall be taken away even that which he hath.

30 And [n] cast ye [o] the unprofitable servant into outer darkness: [p] there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

31 ¶ When the [r] Son of man [s] shall come in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, [t] then shall he sit upon the throne of his glory:

32 And [u] before him shall be gathered all nations: and he [x] shall separate them one from another, as a shepherd divideth his sheep from the goats:

33 And he shall set the sheep on his right hand, but the goats on the left.

34 Then shall [a] the King say unto them on his right hand, Come, ye blessed of my Father, [b] inherit the kingdom [c] prepared for you [d] from the foundation of the world:

35 For [e] I was an hungred, and ye gave me meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink: I was a stranger, and ye took me in:

36 Naked, and ye clothed me: I was sick, and ye visited me: [f] I was in prison, and ye came unto me.

37 Then shall the righteous answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee

CHAPTER 26

AND it came to pass, when Jesus had finished all these sayings, [y] he said unto his disciples,

2 [z] Ye know that after two days is the feast of [b] the passover, and [c] the Son of man is betrayed to be crucified.

3 [d] Then assembled together the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders of the people, unto the palace of the [e] high priest, who was called [g] Cāi'-ă-phăs,

4 And consulted that they might take Jesus by [h] subtilty, and kill him.

5 But they said, Not on the feast day, [i] lest there be an uproar among the people.

6 ¶ [k] Now when Jesus was in [l] Bethany, [m] in the house of [n] Simon the leper,

7 There came unto him a woman having an alabaster box of very precious ointment, and [a] poured it on his head, as he sat at meat.

8 But when his disciples saw it, they had indignation, saying, To what purpose is this waste?

9 For this ointment might have been sold for much, and [b] given to the poor.

10 When Jesus understood it, he said unto them, Why trouble ye the woman? for she hath wrought a good work upon me.

11 For ye have [h] the poor always with you; but [k] me ye have not always.

12 For in that she hath poured this ointment on my body, [l] she did it for my burial.

13 Verily I say unto you, Wheresoever [m] this gospel shall be preached in the whole world, there shall also this, that this woman hath done, be told [n] for a memorial of her.

14 ¶ [o] Then one of the twelve, called [p] Judas Iscariot, went unto the chief priests,

15 And said unto them, What will ye give me, and I will deliver him unto you? And they covenanted with him for [q] thirty pieces of silver.

16 And from that time he sought opportunity to betray him.

17 ¶ [s] Now the first day of the feast of [u] unleavened bread the disciples came to Jesus, saying unto him, Where wilt thou that we prepare for thee to eat the [x] passover?

18 And he said, Go into the city to such a man, and say unto him, The Master saith, [a] My time is at hand; I will keep the passover at thy house with my disciples.

19 And the disciples did as Jesus had appointed them; and they made ready the passover.

20 [f] Now when the even was come, he sat down with the twelve.

21 And as they did eat, he said, Verily I say unto you, that one of you shall betray me.

22 And they were exceeding sorrowful, and began every one of them to say unto him, Lord, is it I?

23 And he answered and said, [o] He that dippeth his hand with me in the dish, the same shall betray me.

24 The Son of man goeth [a] as it is written of him: but [b] woe unto that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! it had been [d] good for that man if he had not been born.

25 Then Judas, which betrayed him, answered and said, Master, is it I? He said unto him, Thou hast said.

26 ¶ [g] And as they were eating, Jesus took bread, and [h] blessed it, and brake it, and gave it to the disciples, and said, Take, eat; [l] this is my body.

27 And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of it;

28 For [m] this is my blood of [n] the [2] new [3] testament, which is shed for many [p] for the remission of sins.

29 But I say unto you, I will not drink henceforth of this fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it new with you [r] in my Father's kingdom.

30 [t] And when they had sung an hymn, they went out into [u] the mount of Olives.

31 Then saith Jesus unto them, [x] All ye shall be [z] offended because of me this night: for [a] it is written, I will smite the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock shall be scattered abroad.

32 But after I am risen again, [b] I will go before you into Galilee.

33 [d] Peter answered and said unto him, Though all men shall be offended because of thee, yet will I never be offended.

34 [e] Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, That this night, [f] before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice.

35 [h] Peter said unto him, Though I should die with thee, yet will I not deny thee. Likewise also said all the disciples.

36 ¶ [k] Then cometh Jesus with them [l] unto a place called Gethsemane, and saith unto the disciples, Sit ye here, [n] while I go and pray yonder.

37 And [o] he took with him Peter and [q] the two sons of Zebedee, and began to be sorrowful and very heavy.

38 Then saith he unto them, [r] My soul is exceeding sorrowful, even unto death: tarry ye here, and watch with me.

39 And he went a little farther, and fell on his face, [c] and prayed, saying, O my Father, if it be possible, let [e] this cup pass from me: nevertheless [f] not as I will, but as thou wilt.

40 And he cometh unto the disciples, and findeth them asleep, and saith unto Peter, What, could ye not watch with me one hour?

41 [i] Watch and pray, [k] that ye enter not into temptation: the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak.

42 He went away again the second time, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if this cup may not pass away from me, except I drink it, [o] thy will be done.

43 And he came and found them asleep again: for [q] their eyes were heavy.

44 And he left them, and went away again, and prayed [s] the third time, saying the same words.

45 Then cometh he to his disciples, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, and take your rest: behold, [y] the hour is at hand, and the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.

46 Rise, let us be going: behold, he is at hand that doth betray me.

47 ¶ [c] And while he yet spake, lo, Judas, one of the twelve, came, and with him a great multitude with swords and staves, from the chief priests and elders of the people.

48 Now he that betrayed him gave them a sign, saying, Whomsoever I shall [g] kiss, that same is he: hold him fast.

49 And forthwith he came to Jesus, and said, Hail, master; and kissed him.

50 And Jesus said unto him, [i] Friend, [4] wherefore art thou come? Then came they, and laid hands on Jesus, and took him.

51 And, behold, [m] one of them which were with Jesus stretched out his hand, and drew his [p] sword, and struck a servant of the high priest's, and smote off his ear.

52 Then said Jesus unto him, Put up again thy sword into his place: for [a] all they that take the sword shall perish with the sword.

53 Thinkest thou that I cannot now pray to my Father, and he [c] shall presently give me more than twelve legions of angels?

54 But [g] how then shall the scriptures be fulfilled, that thus it must be?

55 In that same hour said Jesus to the multitudes, Are ye come out as against a thief with swords and staves for to take me? [i] I sat daily with you teaching in the temple, and ye laid no hold on me.

56 But all this was done, that [k] the scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled. Then all the disciples forsook him, and fled.

57 ¶ [m] And they that had laid hold on Jesus led him away to Cāi'ă-phăs the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were assembled.

58 [n] But Peter followed him afar off unto the high priest's palace, and went in, and sat with the servants, to see the end.

59 Now the chief priests, and elders, and all the [o] council, sought [p] false witness against Jesus, to put him to death;

60 But found none: yea, though many false witnesses came, yet found they none. At the last came [r] two false witnesses,

61 And said, This fellow said, [s] I am able to destroy the temple of God, and to build it in three days.

62 And the high priest arose, and said unto him, Answerest thou nothing? what is it which these witness against thee?

63 But [x] Jesus held his peace. And the high priest answered and said unto him, I [a] adjure thee by [b] the living God, that thou tell us whether thou be [c] the Christ, the [d] Son of God.

64 Jesus saith unto him, Thou hast said: nevertheless I say unto you, Hereafter shall ye see the Son of man [f] sitting on the right hand of power, and [g] coming in the clouds of heaven.

65 Then the high priest [h] rent his clothes, saying, He hath [i] spoken blasphemy; what further need have we of witnesses? behold, now ye have heard his blasphemy.

66 What think ye? They answered and said, [b] He is guilty of death.

67 [d] Then did they [e] spit in his face, and buffeted him; and others [f] smote him with the palms of their hands,

68 Saying, Prophesy unto us, thou Christ, Who is he that smote thee?

69 ¶ [h] Now Peter sat without in the palace: and a damsel came unto him, saying, Thou also wast with Jesus of Galilee.

70 But he denied before them all, saying, I know not what thou sayest.

71 And when he was gone out into the porch, another maid saw him, and said unto them that were there, This fellow was also with Jesus [i] of Nazareth.

72 And again he denied with an oath, I do not know the man.

73 And after a while came unto him they that stood by, and said to Peter, Surely thou also art one of them; for thy speech bewrayeth thee.

74 Then began he to curse and to swear, saying, I know not the man. And immediately the cock crew.

75 And Peter remembered the word of Jesus, which said unto him, [q] Before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice. And he went out, and wept bitterly.

CHAPTER 27

[t] WHEN the morning was come, all the chief priests and elders of the people took counsel against Jesus to put him to death:

2 [u] And when they had bound him, they led him away, and delivered him to Pontius [y] Pilate the governor.

3 ¶ Then [z] Judas, which had betrayed him, when he saw that he was condemned, repented himself, and brought again the [e] thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders,

4 Saying, I have sinned in that I have betrayed the innocent blood. And they said, What is that to us? see thou to that.

5 And he cast down the pieces of silver in the temple, and departed, and went and [k] hanged himself.

6 And the chief priests took the silver pieces, and said, It is not lawful for to put them into the [a] treasury, because it is the price of blood.

7 And they took counsel, and bought with them the potter's field, to bury strangers in.

8 Wherefore that field was called, The [c] field of blood, unto this day.

9 [d] Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremy the prophet, saying, [e] And they took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of him that was valued, whom they of the children of Israel did value;

10 And gave them for the potter's field, as the Lord appointed me.

11 [g] And Jesus stood before the governor: and the governor asked him, saying, Art thou [i] the King of the Jews? And Jesus said unto him, Thou sayest.

12 And when he was accused of the chief priests and elders, [l] he answered nothing.

13 Then said Pilate unto him, [o] Hearest thou not how many things they witness against thee?

14 And he answered him to never a word; insomuch that the governor marvelled greatly.

15 [r] Now at [s] that feast the governor was wont to release unto the people a prisoner, whom they would.

16 And they had then a notable prisoner, called Barabbas.

17 Therefore when they were gathered together, Pilate said unto them, Whom will ye that I release unto you? Barabbas, or Jesus which is called Christ?

18 For he knew that [u] for envy they had delivered him.

19 ¶ When he was set down on the [z] judgment seat, his wife sent unto him, saying, Have thou nothing to do with that [b] just man: for I have suffered many things this day in [c] a dream because of him.

20 But the chief priests and elders persuaded the multitude that they should [e] ask Barabbas, and destroy Jesus.

21 The governor answered and said unto them, Whether of the twain will ye that I release unto you? They said, Barabbas.

22 Pilate saith unto them, What shall I do then with Jesus which is called Christ? [b] They all say unto him, Let him be crucified.

23 And the governor said, Why, what evil hath he done? But they cried out the more, saying, Let him be crucified.

24 ¶ When Pilate saw that he could prevail nothing, but that rather a tumult was made, he took water, and [f] washed his hands before the multitude, saying, I am innocent of the blood of this just person: see ye to it.

25 Then answered all the people, and said, [h] His blood be on us, and on our children.

26 ¶ Then released he Barabbas unto them: and when he had [k] scourged Jesus, he delivered him to be crucified.

27 [m] Then the soldiers of the governor took Jesus into the [n] common hall, and gathered unto him the whole [2p] band of soldiers.

28 And they stripped him, and put on him a [q] scarlet robe.

29 ¶ And when they had platted a crown of thorns, they put it upon his head, and a reed in his right hand: and they bowed the knee before him, and mocked him, saying, Hail, King of the Jews!

30 And they [t] spit upon him, and took the reed, and smote him on the head.

31 And after that they had mocked him, they took the robe off from him, and put his own raiment on him, and led him away to crucify him.

32 [x] And as they came out, they found a man of [y] Cȳ-rē'-nē, Simon by name: him they [3a] compelled to bear his cross.

33 And when they were come unto a place called Gŏl'-gŏ-thă, that is to say, a place of a skull, 34 ¶ [d] They gave him vinegar to drink mingled with gall: and when he had tasted thereof, he would not drink.

35 And they crucified him, and [f] parted his garments, casting lots:

[2]that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, They parted my garments among them, and upon my vesture did they [a] cast lots.

36 And sitting down they watched him there;

37 And set up over his head his accusation written, THIS IS JESUS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

38 Then were there two thieves crucified with him, one on the right hand, and another on the left.

39 ¶ And they that passed by reviled him, [e] wagging their heads,

40 And saying, [g] Thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days, save thyself. [h] If thou be the Son of God, come down from the cross.

41 Likewise also the chief priests mocking him, with the scribes and elders, said,

42 He saved others; himself he cannot save. If he be [o] the King of Israel, let him now come down from the cross, and we will believe him.

43 [p] He trusted in God; let him deliver him now, if he will have him: for he said, I am the Son of God.

44 [q] The thieves also, which were crucified with him, cast the same in his teeth.

45 Now from the sixth hour there was [s] darkness over all the land unto the ninth hour.

46 And about the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, [t] saying, Eli, Eli, lä'-mä să-băch'-thă-nī? that is to say, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?

47 Some of them that stood there, when they heard that, said, This man calleth for * Ē-lī'-ăs.

48 And straightway one of them ran, and took a spunge, and filled it with vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave him to drink.

49 The rest said, Let be, let us see whether Ē-lī'-ăs will come to save him.

50 ¶ Jesus, when he had cried again with a loud voice, yielded up the ghost.

51 And, behold, [a] the veil of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom; and [b] the earth did quake, and the rocks rent;

52 And the graves were opened; and many bodies of the saints which slept arose,

53 And came out of the graves after his resurrection, and went into [b] the holy city, and appeared unto many.

54 [c] Now when the centurion, and they that were with him, watching Jesus, saw the earthquake, and those things that were done, they feared greatly, saying, [d] Truly this was the Son of God.

55 And many women were there beholding afar off, [f] which followed Jesus from Galilee, ministering unto him:

56 Among which was [i] Mary Magdalene, and [k] Mary the mother of James and Joses, and [l] the mother of Zebedee's children.

57 [m] When the even was come, there came [n] a rich man of Ăr-ĭm-ă-thæ'-ă, named Joseph, who also himself was Jesus' disciple:

58 He went to Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus. Then Pilate commanded the body to be delivered.

59 And when Joseph had taken the body, he wrapped it in a clean linen cloth,

60 And laid it in his own new tomb, which he had [r] hewn out in the rock: and he rolled a great stone to the door of the sepulchre, and departed.

61 And there was Mary Magdalene, and the other Mary, sitting over against the sepulchre.

62 ¶ Now the next day, that followed the day of [u] the preparation, the chief priests and Pharisees came together unto Pilate,

63 Saying, Sir, we remember that that deceiver [y] said, while he was yet alive, After three days I will rise again.

64 Command therefore that the sepulchre be made sure until the third day, [z] lest his disciples come by night, and steal him away, and say unto the people, He is risen from the dead: so the last error shall be worse than the first.

65 Pilate said unto them, Ye have [c] a watch: go your way, make it as sure as ye can.

66 So they went, and made the sepulchre sure, [a] sealing the stone, and setting a watch.

CHAPTER 28

[c] IN the end of the sabbath, as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week, came [e] Mary Magdalene and [f] the other Mary to see the sepulchre.

2 And, behold, there was a great [g] earthquake: for the [h] angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled back the stone from the door, and sat upon it.

3 [k] His countenance was like lightning, and his raiment [l] white as snow:

4 And for fear of him the keepers did shake, and became as dead men.

5 And the angel answered and said unto the women, [m] Fear not ye: for I know that ye seek Jesus, which was crucified.

6 He is not here: for he is risen, [n] as he said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay.

7 And go quickly, and tell his disciples that he is risen from the dead; and, behold, he [p] goeth before you into Galilee; there shall ye see him: lo, I have told you.

8 And they departed quickly from the sepulchre with fear and great joy; and did run to bring his disciples word.

9 ¶ And as they went to tell his disciples, behold, Jesus met them, saying, All hail. And they came and held him by the feet, and [z] worshipped him.

10 Then said Jesus unto them, Be not afraid: go tell [b] my brethren that they go into Galilee, and there shall they see me.

11 ¶ Now when they were going, behold, some of [d] the watch came into the city, and shewed unto the chief priests all the things that were done.

12 And when they were assembled with the elders, and had taken counsel, they gave large money unto the soldiers,

13 Saying, Say ye, [i] His disciples came by night, and stole him away while we slept.

14 And if this come to the governor's ears, we will persuade him, and secure you.

15 So they took the money, and did as they were taught: and this saying is commonly reported among the Jews until this day.

16 ¶ Then the eleven disciples went away into Galilee, into a mountain where Jesus had appointed them.

17 And [o] when they saw him, they worshipped him: but some doubted.

18 And Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, [q] All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth.

19 ¶ [r] Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, [s] baptizing them in [t] the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost:

20 [u] Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, [x] I am with you alway, even unto [2y] the end of the world. Amen.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO ST. MARK

CHAPTER 1

THE beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ, the [a] Son of God;

2 [b c] As it is written in the prophets, [e] Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

3 [f] The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

4 John did baptize in the wilderness, and preach the baptism of repentance for the [d] remission of sins.

5 And there went out unto him all the land of Judæa, and they of Jerusalem, and were all baptized of him in the river of Jordan, [g] confessing their sins.

6 And John was clothed with camel's hair, and with a girdle of a skin about his loins; and he did eat [b] locusts and wild honey;

7 And preached, saying, There cometh one mightier than I after me, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to stoop down and unloose.

8 I indeed have baptized you with water: but [d] he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost.

9 [f] And it came to pass in those days, that Jesus came from [g] Nazareth of Galilee, and was baptized of John in Jordan.

10 And straightway coming up out of the water, he saw the [i] heavens opened, and [l] the Spirit like a dove descending upon him:

11 And there came a voice from heaven, saying, Thou art my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

12 [m] And immediately the spirit [o] driveth him into the wilderness.

13 And he was there in the wilderness forty days, [p] tempted of [q] Satan; and was with the wild beasts; and the angels ministered unto him.

14 [r] Now after that John was put in prison, Jesus came into Galilee, [t] preaching the gospel of the kingdom of God,

15 And saying, [u] The time is fulfilled, and [z] the kingdom of God is at hand: [a] repent ye, and believe the gospel.

16 [b] Now as he walked by the sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and Andrew his brother casting a net into the sea: for they were fishers.

17 And Jesus said unto them, Come ye after me, and I will make you to become fishers of men.

18 And straightway they forsook their nets, and followed him.

19 And when he had gone a little farther thence, he saw James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, who also were in the ship mending their nets.

20 And straightway he called them: and they left their father Zebedee in the ship with the hired servants, and went after him.

21 [e] And they went into Că-pĕr'-nă-ŭm; and straightway on the sabbath day he entered into the synagogue, and [a] taught.

22 And they were [c] astonished at his doctrine: for he taught them as one that had authority, and not as the scribes.

23 And there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit; and he cried out,

24 Saying, Let us alone; [e] what have we to do with thee, thou Jesus of Nazareth? art thou come to destroy us? [h] I know thee who thou art, the Holy One of God.

25 And Jesus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him.

26 And when the unclean spirit [k] had torn him, and cried with a loud voice, he came out of him.

27 And they were all amazed, insomuch that they questioned among themselves, saying, What thing is this? what [n] new doctrine is this? for with authority commandeth he even the unclean spirits, and they do obey him.

28 And immediately his fame spread abroad throughout all the region round about Galilee.

29 [s] And forthwith, when they were come out of the synagogue, they entered into the house of Simon and [x] Andrew, with [y] James and John.

30 But Simon's wife's mother lay sick of a fever, and anon they tell him of her.

31 And he came and took her by the hand, and lifted her up; and immediately the fever left her, and she ministered unto them.

32 And at even, when the sun did set, they brought unto him all that were diseased, and them that were possessed with devils.

33 And all the city was gathered together at the door.

34 [c] And he healed many that were sick of divers diseases, and cast out many devils; and suffered not the devils to speak, because they knew him.

35 [d] And in the morning, rising up a great while before day, he went out, and departed into a solitary place, and there [f] prayed.

37 And when they had found him, they said unto him, All men seek for thee.
38 And he said unto them, Let us go into the next towns, that I may preach there also: for therefore came I forth.
39 And he preached in their synagogues throughout all Galilee, and cast out devils.
40 [b] And there came a leper to him, beseeching him, and kneeling down to him, and saying unto him, If thou wilt, thou canst make me clean.
41 And Jesus, moved with compassion, put forth his hand, and touched him, and saith unto him, I will; be thou clean.
42 And as soon as he had spoken, immediately the leprosy departed from him, and he was cleansed.
43 And he straitly charged him, and forthwith sent him away;
44 And saith unto him, See thou say nothing to any man: but go thy way, shew thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing those things which Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them.
45 [d] But [e] he went out, and began to publish it much, and to blaze abroad the matter, insomuch that Jesus could no more openly enter into the city, but was without in desert places: and they came to him from every quarter.

CHAPTER 2

AND again he entered into [h] Căpĕr'nă-ŭm after some days; and it was noised that he was in the house.
2 And straightway many were gathered together, insomuch that there was no room to receive them, no, not so much as about the door: and he [i] preached the word unto them.
3 [k] And they come unto him, bringing one sick of the palsy, which was borne of four.
4 And when they could not come nigh unto him for the press, they [l] uncovered the roof where he was: and when they had broken it up, they let down the bed wherein the sick of the palsy lay.
5 When Jesus saw their faith, he said unto the sick of the palsy, Son, thy sins be forgiven thee.
6 But there were certain of the scribes sitting there, and reasoning in their hearts,
7 Why doth this man thus speak blasphemies? [a] who can forgive sins but God only?
8 And immediately when Jesus perceived in his spirit that they so reasoned within themselves, he said unto them, Why reason ye these things in your hearts?
9 Whether is it easier to say to the sick of the palsy, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Arise, and take up thy bed, and walk?
10 But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power on earth to forgive sins, (he saith to the sick of the palsy,)
11 I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy bed, and go thy way into thine house.
12 And immediately he arose, took up the bed, and went forth before them all; insomuch that they were all amazed, and [c] glorified God, saying, We never saw it on this fashion.
13 And he went forth again by the sea side; and all the multitude resorted unto him, and he taught them.
14 [f] And as he passed by, he saw [g] Levi the son of Ăl-phæ'ŭs sitting at the receipt of custom, and said unto him, Follow me. And he arose and followed him.
15 And it came to pass, that, as Jesus sat at meat in his house, many publicans and sinners sat also together with Jesus and his disciples: for there were many, and they followed him.
16 And when the scribes and Pharisees saw him eat with publicans and sinners, they said unto his disciples, How is it that he eateth and drinketh with publicans and sinners?
17 When Jesus heard it, he saith unto them, They that are whole have no need of the physician, but they that are sick: I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

20 But the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and then shall they fast in those days.

21 No man also seweth a piece of new cloth on an old garment: else the new piece that filled it up taketh away from the old, and the rent is made worse.

22 And no man putteth new wine into old bottles: else the new wine doth burst the bottles, and the wine is spilled, and the bottles will be marred: but new wine must be put into new bottles.

23 [f] And it came to pass, that he went through the corn fields on the sabbath day; and his disciples began, as they went, to pluck the ears of corn.

24 And the Pharisees said unto him, Behold, why do they on the sabbath day that which is not lawful?

25 And he said unto them, Have ye never read what David did, when he had need, and was an hungred, he, and they that were with him?

27 And he said unto them, [n] The sabbath was made for man, and not man for the sabbath:

28 Therefore the Son of man is Lord also of the sabbath.

5 And when he had looked round about on them with anger, being grieved for the hardness of their hearts, he saith unto the man, Stretch forth thine hand. And he stretched it out: and his hand was restored whole as the other.

6 And the Pharisees went forth, and straightway took counsel with the [a] Hĕ-rō-dĭ-ănş against him, how they might destroy him.

7 [b] But Jesus [c] withdrew himself with his disciples to the sea: and a great multitude from Galilee followed him, and from Judæa,

8 And from Jerusalem, and from [d] Ĭ-dū-mæ-ă, and from beyond Jordan; and they about [e] Tyre and [e] Sidon, a great multitude, when they had heard what great things he did, came unto him.

9 And he spake to his disciples, that a [g] small ship should wait on him because of the multitude, lest they should throng him.

10 For he had healed many; insomuch that they pressed upon him for to touch him, as many as had plagues.

11 And unclean spirits, when they saw him, fell down before him, and [h] cried, saying, Thou art the Son of God.

12 And he straitly [l] charged them that they should not make him known.

13 [m] And he goeth up into a mountain, and calleth unto him whom he would: and they came unto him.

14 And he ordained twelve, that they should be with him, and that he might send them forth to preach,

15 And to have power to heal sicknesses, and to cast out devils:

16 And [p] Simon he surnamed Peter;

17 And James the son of Zebedee, and John the brother of James; and he surnamed them Bō-ăn-ĕr-ġēş, which is, The sons of thunder:

18 And Andrew, and Philip, and

Bartholomew, and Matthew, and Thomas, and James the son of Ăl-phæ'-ŭs, and Thăd-dæ'-ŭs, and Simon the Că'-nă-ăn-īte, 19 And Judas Iscariot, which also betrayed him: and they went [a] into an house.

20 And the multitude cometh together again, [c] so that they could not so much as eat bread.

21 And when his friends heard of it, they went out to lay hold on him: for they said, [e] He is beside himself.

22 ¶ And [f] the scribes [g] which came down from Jerusalem said, He hath Bē-ĕl'-zĕ-bŭb, and by the prince of the devils casteth he out devils.

23 [h] And he called them unto him, and said unto them in parables, How can Satan cast out Satan?

24 And if a kingdom be divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand.

25 And if a house be divided against itself, that house cannot stand.

26 And if Satan rise up against himself, and be divided, he cannot stand, but hath an end.

27 No man can enter into a strong man's house, and spoil his goods, except he will first bind the strong man; and then he will spoil his house.

28 [i] Verily I say unto you, All sins shall be forgiven unto the sons of men, and blasphemies wherewith soever they shall blaspheme:

29 But he that shall blaspheme against the Holy Ghost hath never forgiveness, but is in danger of eternal damnation:

30 Because they said, He hath an unclean spirit.

31 ¶ [m] There came then his brethren and his mother, and, standing without, sent unto him, calling him.

32 And the multitude sat about him, and they said unto him, Behold, thy mother and thy brethren without seek for thee.

33 And he answered them, saying, Who is my mother, or my brethren?

34 And he looked round about on them which sat about him, and said, Behold my mother and my brethren!

CHAPTER 4

[b] AND he began again to teach by the sea side: and there was gathered unto him a great multitude, so that [d] he entered into a ship, and sat in the sea; and the whole multitude was by the sea on the land.

2 And he taught them many things by parables, and said unto them in his doctrine,

3 Hearken; Behold, there went out a sower to sow:

4 And it came to pass, as he sowed, some fell by the way side, and the fowls of the air came and devoured it up.

5 And some fell on stony ground, where it had not much earth; and immediately it sprang up, because it had no depth of earth:

6 But when the sun was up, it was scorched; and because it had no root, it withered away.

7 And some fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up, and choked it, and it yielded no fruit.

8 And other fell on good ground, and did yield fruit that sprang up and increased; and brought forth, some thirty, and some sixty, and some an hundred.

9 And he said unto them, [k] He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

10 And when he was alone, they that were about him with the twelve asked of him the parable.

11 And he said unto them, Unto you it is given to know the mystery of the kingdom of God: but unto [l] them that are without, all these things are done in parables:

12 [n] That seeing they may see, and not perceive; and hearing they may hear, and not understand; lest at any time they should be converted, and their sins should be forgiven them.

13 [o] And he said unto them, Know ye not this parable? and how then will ye know all parables?

14 ¶ The sower soweth the word.

15 And these are they by the way side, where the word is sown; but when they have heard, Satan cometh immediately, and taketh away the word that was sown in their hearts.

16 And these are they likewise which are sown on stony ground; who, when they have heard the word, immediately receive it with gladness;

17 And have no root in themselves, and so endure but for a time: afterward, when affliction or persecution ariseth for the word's sake, immediately they are offended.

18 And these are they which are sown among thorns; such as hear the word,

19 And the cares of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things entering in, choke the word, and it becometh unfruitful.

20 And these are they which are sown on good ground; such as hear the word, and receive it, and bring forth fruit, some thirtyfold, some sixty, and some an hundred.

21 ¶ [f] And he said unto them, Is a candle brought to be put under a bushel, or under a bed? and not to be set on a candlestick?

22 [g] For there is nothing hid, which shall not be manifested; neither was any thing kept secret, but that it should come abroad.

23 If any man have ears to hear, let him hear.

24 And he said unto them, Take heed what ye hear: [h] with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you: and unto you that hear shall more be given.

25 For [i] he that hath, to him shall be given: and he that hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he hath.

26 ¶ And he said, So is the kingdom of God, as if a man should cast seed into the ground;

27 And should sleep, and rise night and day, and the seed should spring and grow up, he knoweth not how.

28 For the earth bringeth forth fruit of herself; first the blade, then the ear, after that the full corn in the ear.

29 But when the fruit is brought forth, immediately [a] he putteth in the sickle, because the harvest is come.

30 ¶ [b] And he said, Whereunto shall we liken the kingdom of God? or with what comparison shall we compare it?

31 It is like a grain of mustard seed, which, when it is sown in the earth, is less than all the seeds that be in the earth:

32 But when it is sown, it groweth up, and becometh greater than all herbs, and shooteth out great branches; so that the fowls of the air may lodge under the shadow of it.

33 [c] And with many such parables spake he the word unto them, as they were able to hear it.

34 But without a parable spake he not unto them: and when they were alone, he expounded all things to his disciples.

35 And the same day, when the even was come, [d] he saith unto them, Let us pass over unto the other side.

36 [e] And when they had sent away the multitude, they took him even as he was in the ship. And there were also with him other little ships.

37 And there arose a great storm of wind, and the waves beat into the ship, so that it was now full.

38 And he was in the hinder part of the ship, asleep on a pillow: and they awake him, and say unto him, Master, carest thou not that we perish?

39 And he arose, and rebuked the wind, and said unto the sea, Peace, be still. And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm.

40 And he said unto them, Why are ye so fearful? how is it that ye have no faith?

41 And they feared exceedingly, and said one to another, What manner of man is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?

CHAPTER 5

[k] AND they came over unto the other side of the sea, into the country of the Gădˊă-rēneṡ.

2 And when he was come out of the ship, immediately there met him out of the tombs a man with an unclean spirit,

3 Who had his dwelling among the tombs; and no man could bind him, no, not with chains:

4 Because that he had been often bound with fetters and chains, and the chains had been plucked asunder by him, and the fetters broken in pieces: neither could any man tame him.

5 And always, night and day, he was in the mountains, and in the tombs, crying, and cutting himself with stones.

6 But when he saw Jesus afar off, he ran and worshipped him,

7 And cried with a loud voice, and said, What have I to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of the [c] most high God? I [d] adjure thee by God, that thou torment me not.

8 For he said unto him, Come out of the man, thou unclean spirit.

9 And he asked him, What is thy name? And he answered, saying, My name is Legion: for we are many.

10 And he besought him much that he would not send them away out of the country.

11 Now there was there nigh unto the mountains a great herd of swine feeding.

12 And all the devils besought him, saying, Send us into the swine, that we may enter into them.

13 And forthwith Jesus gave them leave. And the unclean spirits went out, and entered into the swine: and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the sea, (they were about two thousand;) and were choked in the sea.

14 And they that fed the swine fled, and told it in the city, and in the country. And they went out to see what it was that was done.

15 And they come to Jesus, and see him that was possessed with the devil, and had the legion, sitting, and clothed, and in his right mind: and they were afraid.

16 And they that saw it told them how it befell to him that was possessed with the devil, and also concerning the swine.

17 And they began to pray him to depart out of their coasts.

18 And when he was come into the ship, he that had been possessed with the devil prayed him that he might be with him.

19 Howbeit Jesus suffered him not, but saith unto him, Go home to thy friends, and [a] tell them how great things the Lord hath done for thee, and hath had compassion on thee.

20 And he departed, and began to publish in [b] Decapolis how great things Jesus had done for him: and all men did marvel.

21 And when Jesus was passed over again by ship unto the other side, much people gathered unto him: and he was nigh unto the sea.

22 [e] And, behold, there cometh one of the rulers of the synagogue, Jā-ī'rŭs by name; and when he saw him, he fell at his feet,

23 And besought him greatly, saying, My little daughter lieth at the [f] point of death: I pray thee, come and lay thy hands on her, that she may be healed; and she shall live.

24 And Jesus went with him; and much people followed him, and thronged him.

25 And a certain woman, which had an issue of blood twelve years,

26 And had suffered many things of many physicians, and had spent all that she had, and was nothing bettered, but rather grew worse,

27 When she had heard of Jesus, came in the press behind, and touched his garment.

28 For she said, If I may touch but his clothes, I shall be whole.

29 And straightway the fountain of her blood was dried up; and she felt in her body that she was healed of that plague.

30 And Jesus, immediately knowing in himself that virtue had gone out of him, turned him about in the press, and said, Who touched my clothes?

31 And his disciples said unto him, Thou seest the multitude thronging thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me?

32 And he looked round about to see her that had done this thing.

33 But the woman fearing and trembling, knowing what was done in her, came and fell down before him, and told him all the truth.

34 And he said unto her, Daughter, thy faith hath made thee whole; [d] go in peace, and be whole of thy plague.

35 While he yet spake, there came from the ruler of the synagogue's house certain which said, Thy daughter is dead: why troublest thou the Master any further?

36 As soon as Jesus heard the word that was spoken, he saith unto the ruler of the synagogue, Be not afraid, only believe.

37 And he suffered no man to follow him, save Peter, and James, and John the brother of James.

38 And he cometh to the house of the ruler of the synagogue, and seeth the tumult, and them that wept and wailed greatly.

39 And when he was come in, he saith unto them, Why make ye this ado, and weep? the damsel is not dead, but sleepeth.

40 And they laughed him to scorn. But when he had put them all out, he taketh the father and the mother of the damsel, and them that were with him, and entereth in where the damsel was lying.

41 And he took the damsel by the hand, and said unto her, Tăl-ĭ-thă cū-mī; which is, being interpreted, Damsel, I say unto thee, arise.

42 And straightway the damsel arose, and walked; for she was of the age of twelve years. And they were astonished with a great astonishment.

43 And [k] he charged them straitly that no man [m] should know it; and commanded that something should be given her to eat.

CHAPTER 6

[q] AND he went out from thence, and came into his own country; and his disciples follow him.

2 And when the sabbath day was come, he began to teach in the synagogue: and many hearing him [r] were astonished, saying, From whence hath this man these things? and what wisdom is this which is given unto him, that even such mighty works are wrought by his hands?

3 [a] Is not this the carpenter, the [b] son of Mary, the brother of [c] James, and Joses, and of Juda, and Simon? and are not his sisters here with us? And they were offended at him.

4 But Jesus said unto them, A prophet is not without honour, but in his own country, and among his own kin, and in his own house.

5 And he [e] could there do no mighty work, save that he laid his hands upon a few sick folk, and healed them.

6 And he [f] marvelled because of their unbelief. And he went round about the villages, teaching.

7 ¶ [g] And he called unto him the twelve, and began to send them forth by two and two; and gave them power over unclean spirits;

8 And commanded them that they should take nothing for their journey, [h] save a staff only; no scrip, no bread, no money in their purse:

9 But be shod with sandals; and not put on two coats.

10 And he said unto them, In what place soever ye enter into an house, there abide till ye depart from that place.

11 And whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear you, when ye depart thence, shake off the dust under your feet [i] for a testimony against them. Verily I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for Sodom and Gō-mŏr-rhă in the day of judgment, than for that city.

12 And they went out, and preached [l] that men should repent.

13 And they cast out many devils, and [n] anointed with oil many that were sick, and healed them.

14 [o] And king [p] Herod heard of him; (for his name was spread abroad:) and he said, That John the Baptist was risen from the dead, and therefore mighty works do shew forth themselves in him.

15 Others said, That it is Ē-lī-ăs. And others said, That it is a prophet, or as one of the prophets.

16 But when Herod heard thereof, he said, It is John, whom I beheaded: he is risen from the dead.

17 For Herod himself had sent forth and laid hold upon John, and bound him in prison for Hĕ-rō'dĭ-ăs' sake, his brother Philip's wife: for he had married her.

18 For John had said unto Herod, It is not lawful for thee to have thy brother's wife.

19 Therefore Hĕ-rō'dĭ-ăs had a quarrel against him, and would have killed him; but she could not:

20 For Herod [b] feared John, knowing that he was a [c] just man and an holy, and observed him; and when he heard him, he [2] did many things, and [e] heard him gladly.

21 And when a convenient day was come, that Herod on his birthday [f] made a supper to his lords, high captains, and chief estates of Galilee;

22 And when the daughter of the said Hĕ-rō'dĭ-ăs came in, and danced, and pleased Herod and them that sat with him, the king said unto the damsel, Ask of me whatsoever thou wilt, and I will give it thee.

23 And he sware unto her, Whatsoever thou shalt ask of me, I will give it thee, [g] unto the half of my kingdom.

24 And she went forth, and said unto her mother, What shall I ask? And she said, The head of John the Baptist.

25 And she came in straightway with haste unto the king, and asked, saying, I will that thou give me by and by in a charger the head of John the Baptist.

26 And the king was exceeding sorry; yet for his oath's sake, and for their sakes which sat with him, he would not reject her.

27 And immediately the king sent an executioner, and commanded his head to be brought: and he went and beheaded him in the prison,

28 And brought his head in a charger, and gave it to the damsel: and the damsel gave it to her mother.

29 And when his disciples heard of it, they came and took up his corpse, and laid it in a tomb.

30 And the apostles gathered themselves together unto Jesus, and told him all things, both what they had done, and what they had taught.

31 And he said unto them, Come ye yourselves apart into a desert place, and rest a while: for there were many coming and going, and they had no leisure so much as to eat.

32 [a] And they departed into a desert place by ship privately.

33 And the people saw them departing, and many knew him, and ran afoot thither out of all cities, and outwent them, and came together unto him.

34 [d] And Jesus, when he came out, saw much people, and was moved with compassion toward them, because they were as sheep not having a shepherd: and he began to teach them many things.

35 And when the day was now far spent, his disciples came unto him, and said, This is a desert place, and now the time is far passed:

36 Send them away, that they may go into the country round about, and into the villages, and buy themselves bread: for they have nothing to eat.

37 He answered and said unto them, Give ye them to eat. And they say unto him, Shall we go and buy two hundred pennyworth of bread, and give them to eat?

38 He saith unto them, How many loaves have ye? go and see. And when they knew, they say, Five, and two fishes.

39 And he commanded them to make all sit down by companies upon the green grass.

40 And they sat down in [h] ranks, by hundreds, and by fifties.

41 And when he had taken the five loaves and the two fishes, he looked up to heaven, and blessed, and brake the loaves, and gave them to his disciples to set before them; and the two fishes divided he among them all.

42 And they did all eat, and were filled.

43 And they took up twelve baskets full of the fragments, and of the fishes.

44 And they that did eat of the loaves were about five thousand men.

45 [i] And straightway he constrained his disciples to get into the ship, and to go to the other side before unto Bĕth-să'ĭ-dă, while he sent away the people.

46 And when he had sent them away, he departed into a mountain to pray.

47 And when even was come, the ship was in the midst of the sea, and he alone on the land.

48 And he saw them toiling in rowing; for the wind was contrary unto them: and about the [a] fourth watch of the night he cometh unto them, walking upon the sea, and would have passed by them.

49 But when they saw him walking upon the sea, they supposed it had been a spirit, and cried out:

50 For they all saw him, and were troubled. And immediately he talked with them, and saith unto them, Be of good cheer: it is I; be not afraid.

51 And he went up unto them into the ship; and the wind ceased: and they were sore amazed in themselves beyond measure, and wondered.

52 For [c] they considered not the miracle of the loaves: for their heart was hardened.

53 [d] And when they had passed over, they came into the land of Gĕn-nĕs'ă-rĕt, and drew to the shore.

54 And when they were come out of the ship, straightway they knew him,

55 And ran through that whole region round about, and began to carry about in beds those that were sick, where they heard he was.

56 And whithersoever he entered, into villages, or cities, or country, they laid the sick in the streets, and besought him that they might touch if it were but the border of his garment: and as many as touched him were made whole.

3 For the Pharisees, and all the Jews, except they wash their hands [2] oft, eat not, holding the tradition of the elders.

4 And when they come from the market, except they wash, they eat not. And many other things there be, which they have received to hold, as the washing of cups, and pots, brasen vessels, and of tables.

5 Then the Pharisees and scribes asked him, Why walk not thy disciples according to the tradition of the elders, but eat bread with unwashen hands?

6 He answered and said unto them, Well hath Ē-sâi'ăs prophesied of you hypocrites, as it is written, [b] This people honoureth me with their lips, but their heart is far from me.

7 Howbeit in vain do they worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men.

8 For laying aside the commandment of God, ye hold the tradition of men, as the washing of pots and cups: and many other such like things ye do.

9 And he said unto them, Full well [c] ye reject the commandment of God, that ye may keep your own tradition.

10 For Moses said, [f] Honour thy father and thy mother; and, [g] Whoso curseth father or mother, let him die the death:

11 But ye say, If a man shall say to his father or mother, It is Corban, that is to say, [3] a gift, by whatsoever thou mightest be profited by me; he shall be free.

12 And ye suffer him no more to do ought for his father or his mother;

13 Making the word of God of none effect through your tradition, which ye have delivered: and many such like things do ye.

14 ¶ And when he had called all the people unto him, he said unto them, Hearken unto me every one of you, and understand:

15 There is nothing from without a man, that entering into him can defile him: but the things which come out of him, those are they that defile the man.

16 If any man have ears to hear, let him hear.

17 And when he was [a] entered into the house from the people, his disciples asked him concerning the parable.

18 And he saith unto them, Are ye so without understanding also? Do ye not perceive, that whatsoever thing from without entereth into the man, it cannot defile him;

19 Because it entereth not into his heart, but into the belly, and goeth out into the [2]draught, purging all meats?

20 And he said, That which cometh out of the man, that defileth the man.

21 For from within, out of the heart of men, proceed evil thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders,

22 Thefts, covetousness, wickedness, deceit, lasciviousness, an [g] evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness:

23 All these evil things come from within, and defile the man.

24 ¶ [i] And from thence he arose, and went into the borders of [k] Tyre and [l] Sidon, and entered into an house, and would have no man know it: but he could not be hid.

25 For a certain woman, whose young daughter had an unclean spirit, heard of him, and came and fell at his feet:

26 The woman was a [3]Greek, a Sȳrō-phē-nĭç'ĭ-ăn by nation; and she besought him that he would cast forth the devil out of her daughter.

27 But Jesus said unto her, Let the children first be filled: for it is not meet to take the children's bread, and to cast it unto the [m] dogs.

28 And she answered and said unto him, Yes, Lord: yet the dogs under the table eat of the children's crumbs.

29 And he said unto her, For this saying go thy way; the devil is gone out of thy daughter.

30 And when she was come to her house, she found the devil gone out, and her daughter laid upon the bed.

31 ¶ [n] And again, departing from the coasts of Tyre and Sidon, he came unto the sea of Galilee, through the midst of the coasts of [o] Decapolis.

32 And they bring unto him one that was deaf, and had an impediment in his speech; and they beseech him to put his hand upon him.

33 And he [b] took him aside from the multitude, and put his fingers into his ears, and he [b] spit, and touched his tongue;

34 And [c] looking up to heaven, he [d] sighed, and saith unto him, Ĕph'-phă-thă, that is, Be opened.

35 And straightway his ears were opened, and the string of his tongue was loosed, and he spake plain.

36 And [e] he charged them that they should tell no man: but the more he charged them, [f] so much the more a great deal they published it;

37 And were beyond measure astonished, saying, He hath done all things well: he maketh both the deaf to hear, and the dumb to speak.

CHAPTER 8

[h] IN those days the multitude being very great, and having nothing to eat, Jesus called his disciples unto him, and saith unto them,

2 I have compassion on the multitude, because they have now been with me three days, and have nothing to eat:

3 And if I send them away fasting to their own houses, they will faint by the way: for divers of them came from far.

4 And his disciples answered him, From whence can a man satisfy these men with bread here in the wilderness?

5 And he asked them, How many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven.

6 And he commanded the people to sit down on the ground: and he took the seven loaves, and gave thanks, and brake, and gave to his disciples to set before them; and they did set them before the people.

7 And they had a few small fishes: and he blessed, and commanded to set them also before them.

8 So they did eat, and were filled: and they took up of the broken meat that was left seven baskets.

9 And they that had eaten were about four thousand: and he sent them away.

10 ¶ And straightway he entered into a ship with his disciples, and came into the parts of [a] Dăl-mă-nū'thă.

11 [b] And the Pharisees came forth, and began to question with him, seeking of him a sign from heaven, tempting him.

12 And he [c] sighed deeply in his spirit, and saith, Why doth this generation seek after a sign? verily I say unto you, There shall no sign be given unto this generation.

13 [f] And he left them, and entering into the ship again departed to the other side.

14 ¶ Now the disciples had forgotten to take bread, neither had they in the ship with them more than one loaf.

15 And he charged them, saying, Take heed, beware of [g] the leaven of the Pharisees, and of the leaven of Herod.

16 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, It is because we have no bread.

17 And when Jesus knew it, he saith unto them, Why reason ye, because ye have no bread? perceive ye not yet, neither understand? have ye your heart yet hardened?

18 Having eyes, see ye not? and having ears, hear ye not? and do ye not remember?

19 When I brake the five loaves among five thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took ye up? They say unto him, Twelve.

20 And when the seven among four thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took ye up? And they said, Seven.

21 And he said unto them, How is it that ye do not understand?

22 ¶ And he cometh to Bĕth-să'ĭ-dă; and they bring a blind man unto him, and besought him to touch him.

23 And he [k] took the blind man by the hand, and led him out of the town; and when he had [l] spit on his eyes, and put his hands upon him, he asked him if he saw ought.

24 And he looked up, and said, I see men as trees, walking.

25 After that he put his hands again upon his eyes, and made him look up: and he was restored, and saw every man clearly.

26 And he sent him away to his house, saying, Neither go into the town, [c] nor tell it to any in the town.

27 ¶ [d] And Jesus went out, and his disciples, into the towns of Cæsarea Phĭ-lĭp'pī: and by the way he asked his disciples, saying unto them, Whom do men say that I am?

28 And they answered, John the Baptist: but some say, Ē-lī'ăs; and others, One of the prophets.

29 And he saith unto them, But whom say ye that I am? And Peter answereth and saith unto him, Thou art the Christ.

30 And he charged them that they should tell no man of him.

31 [h] And he began to teach them, that the Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected of the elders, and of the chief priests, and scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again.

32 And he spake that saying openly. And Peter took him, and began to rebuke him.

33 But when he had turned about and looked on his disciples, he rebuked Peter, saying, Get thee behind me, Satan: for thou savourest not the things that be of God, but the things that be of men.

34 ¶ [i] And when he had called the people unto him with his disciples also, he said unto them, Whosoever will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me.

35 For whosoever will save his life shall lose it; but whosoever shall lose his life for my sake and the gospel's, the same shall save it.

36 For what shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul?

37 Or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?

CHAPTER 9

AND he said unto them, Verily I say unto you, That there be some of them that stand here, which shall not taste of death, till they have seen the kingdom of God come with power.

2 ¶ [c] And after six days Jesus taketh with him Peter, and James, and John, and leadeth them up into an high mountain apart by themselves: and he was transfigured before them.

3 And his raiment became shining, exceeding [d] white as snow; so as no [e] fuller on earth can white them.

4 And there appeared unto them Ĕ-lī-ăs with Moses: and they were talking with Jesus.

5 And Peter answered and said to Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Ĕ-lī-ăs.

6 For he wist not what to say; for they were sore afraid.

7 And there was a cloud that overshadowed them: and a voice came out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son: hear him.

8 And suddenly, when they had looked round about, they saw no man any more, save Jesus only with themselves.

9 [f] And as they came down from the mountain, he charged them that they should tell no man what things they had seen, till the Son of man were risen from the dead.

10 And they kept that saying with themselves, questioning one with another what the rising from the dead should mean.

11 ¶ And they asked him, saying, Why say the scribes that Ĕ-lī-ăs must first come?

12 And he answered and told them, Ĕ-lī-ăs verily cometh first, and restoreth all things; and how it is written of the Son of man, that he must suffer many things, and be set at nought.

13 But I say unto you, That Ĕ-lī-ăs is indeed come, and they have done unto him whatsoever they listed, as it is written of him.

14 ¶ [b] And when he came to his disciples, he saw a great multitude about them, and the scribes questioning with them.

15 And straightway all the people, when they beheld him, were greatly amazed, and running to him saluted him.

16 And he asked the scribes, What question ye with them?

17 And one of the multitude answered and said, Master, I have brought unto thee my son, which hath a dumb spirit;

18 And wheresoever he taketh him, he teareth him: and he foameth, and gnasheth with his teeth, and pineth away: and I spake to thy disciples that they should cast him out; and they could not.

19 He answereth him, and saith, O faithless generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you? bring him unto me.

20 And they brought him unto him: and when he saw him, straightway the spirit tare him; and he fell on the ground, and wallowed foaming.

21 And he asked his father, How long is it ago since this came unto him? And he said, Of a child.

22 And ofttimes it hath cast him into the fire, and into the waters, to destroy him: but if thou canst do any thing, have compassion on us, and help us.

23 Jesus said unto him, If thou canst believe, [g] all things are possible to him that believeth.

24 And straightway the father of the child cried out, and said with tears, Lord, I believe; help thou mine unbelief.

25 When Jesus saw that the people came running together, he rebuked the foul spirit, saying unto him, Thou dumb and deaf spirit, I charge thee, come out of him, and enter no more into him.

27 But Jesus took him by the hand, and lifted him up; and he arose.

28 And [e] when he was come into the house, his disciples asked him privately, Why could not we cast him out?

29 And he said unto them, This kind can come forth by nothing, but by prayer and fasting.

30 ¶ [h] And they departed thence, and passed through Galilee; and he would not that any man should know it.

31 For he taught his disciples, and said unto them, The Son of man is delivered into the hands of men, and they shall kill him; and after that he is killed, he shall rise the third day.

32 But [l] they understood not that saying, and were afraid to ask him.

33 ¶ [m] And he came to Că-pĕr-nă-ŭm: and being in the house he asked them, What was it that ye disputed among yourselves by the way?

34 But they held their peace: for by the way they had disputed among themselves, who should be the greatest.

35 And he sat down, and called the twelve, and saith unto them, If any man desire to be first, the same shall be last of all, and servant of all.

36 And he took a child, and set him in the midst of them: and when he had taken him in his arms, he said unto them,

37 [r] Whosoever shall receive one of such children in my name, receiveth me: and whosoever shall receive me, receiveth not me, but him that sent me.

38 ¶ [t] And John answered him, saying, Master, we saw one casting out devils [u] in thy name, and he followeth not us: and [x] we forbad him, because he followeth not us.

39 But Jesus said, Forbid him not: for there is no man which shall do a miracle in my name, that can lightly speak evil of me.

41 [c] For whosoever shall give you a cup of water to drink in my name, because ye belong to Christ, verily I say unto you, he shall not lose [d] his reward.

42 And whosoever shall offend one of these little ones that believe in me, it is better for him that a [f] millstone were hanged about his neck, and he were cast into the sea.

43 [g] And if thy hand offend thee, cut it off: it is better for thee to enter into life maimed, than having two hands to go into [2]hell, into the [i] fire that never shall be quenched:

44 Where their [k] worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched.

45 And if thy foot offend thee, cut it off: it is better for thee to enter halt into life, than having two feet to be cast into [2]hell, into the fire that never shall be quenched:

49 For every one shall be salted with fire, [3]and every sacrifice shall be [n] salted with salt.

50 [o] Salt is good: but if the salt have lost his saltness, wherewith will ye season it? [p] Have salt in yourselves, and [q] have peace one with another.

CHAPTER 10

[s] AND he arose from thence, and cometh into the coasts of Judæa by the farther side of Jordan: and the people resort unto him again; and, as he was wont, he taught them again.

2 ¶ And the Pharisees came to him, and asked him, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife? tempting him.

3 And he answered and said unto them, What did Moses command you?

4 [y] And they said, Moses suffered to write a bill of divorcement, and to put her away.

5 And Jesus answered and said unto them, For the hardness of your heart he wrote you this precept.

6 But from the beginning of the creation God made them male and female.

7 [b] For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and cleave to his wife;

8 And they twain shall be one flesh: so then they are no more twain, but one flesh.

9 What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder.

10 And [c] in the house his disciples asked him again of the same matter.

11 And he saith unto them, Whosoever shall put away his wife, and marry another, committeth adultery against her.

12 And if a woman shall put away her husband, and be married to another, she committeth adultery.

13 ¶ [e] And they brought young children to him, that he should touch them: and his disciples rebuked those that brought them.

14 But when Jesus saw it, he was much displeased, and said unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God.

15 Verily I say unto you, Whosoever [f] shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall not enter therein.

16 And he took them up in his arms, put his hands upon them, and blessed them.

17 ¶ [g] And when he was gone forth into the way, there came one running, and kneeled to him, and asked him, Good Master, what shall I do that I may inherit eternal life?

18 And Jesus said unto him, Why callest thou me good? there is none good but one, that is, God.

19 Thou knowest the commandments, [i] Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Defraud not, Honour thy father and mother.

20 And he answered and said unto him, Master, all these have I observed from my youth.

21 Then Jesus beholding him loved him, and said unto him, One thing thou lackest: go thy way, sell whatsoever thou hast, and [a] give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, take up the cross, and follow me.

22 And he was sad at that saying, and went away grieved: for he had great possessions.

23 ¶ And Jesus looked round about, and saith unto his disciples, How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God!

24 And the disciples were astonished at his words. But Jesus answereth again, and saith unto them, Children, how hard is it for them [d] that trust in riches to enter into the kingdom of God!

25 It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

26 And they were astonished out of measure, saying among themselves, Who then can be saved?

27 And Jesus looking upon them saith, With men it is impossible, but not with God: for with God all things are possible.

28 ¶ Then Peter began to say unto him, Lo, we have left all, and have followed thee.

29 And Jesus answered and said, Verily I say unto you, There is no man that hath left house, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my sake, and the gospel's,

30 But he shall receive an hundredfold now in this time, houses, and brethren, and sisters, and mothers, and children, and lands, with persecutions; and in the world to come eternal life.

31 [h] But many that are first shall be last; and the last first.

32 ¶ [k] And they were in the way going up to Jerusalem; and Jesus went before them: and they were amazed; and as they followed, they were afraid. And he took again the twelve, 37 They said unto him, Grant unto us that we may sit, one on thy right hand, and the other on thy left hand, in thy glory.

40 But to sit on my right hand and on my left hand is not mine to give; but it shall be given to them for whom it is prepared.

41 And when the ten heard it, they began to be much displeased with James and John.

42 [i] But Jesus called them to him, and saith unto them, Ye know that they which are accounted to rule over the Gentiles exercise lordship over them; and their great ones exercise authority upon them.

43 But so shall it not be among you: but whosoever will be great among you, shall be your minister:

44 And whosoever of you will be the chiefest, shall be servant of all.

45 For even the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many.

46 ¶ [a] And they came to Jericho: and as he went out of Jericho with his disciples and a great number of people, blind Bär-tī-mǣ'-ŭs, the son of Tī-mǣ'-ŭs, sat by the highway side begging.

47 And when he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out, and say, Jesus, thou [b] son of David, have mercy on me.

48 And many charged him that he should hold his peace: but he cried the more a great deal, Thou son of David, have mercy on me.

49 And Jesus stood still, and commanded him to be called. And they call the blind man, saying unto him, Be of good comfort, rise; he calleth thee.

50 And he, casting away his garment, rose, and came to Jesus.

51 And Jesus answered and said unto him, What wilt thou that I should do unto thee? The blind man said unto him, Lord, that I might receive my sight.

52 And Jesus said unto him, Go thy way; thy faith hath made thee whole. And immediately he received his sight, and followed Jesus in the way.

CHAPTER 11

[g] AND when they came nigh to Jerusalem, unto Bĕth'-phă-gē and Bethany, at the [h] mount of Olives, he sendeth forth two of his disciples,

2 And saith unto them, Go your way into the village over against you: and as soon as ye be entered into it, ye shall find a colt tied, whereon never man sat; loose him, and bring him.

3 And if any man say unto you, Why do ye this? say ye that the Lord hath need of him; and straightway [2] he will send him hither.

4 And they went their way, and found the colt tied by the door without in a place where two ways met; and they loose him.

5 And certain of them that stood there said unto them, What do ye, loosing the colt?

6 And they said unto them even as Jesus had commanded: and they let them go.

A.D. 33

7 And they brought the colt to Jesus, and cast their garments on him; and he sat upon him.

8 And many spread their garments in the way: and others cut down branches off the trees, and strawed them in the way.

9 And they that went before, and they that followed, cried, saying, Hosanna; [a] Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord:

10 Blessed be [2] the kingdom of our father David, that cometh in the name of the Lord: Hosanna in the highest.

11 [b] And Jesus entered into Jerusalem, and into the temple: and when he had looked round about upon all things, and now the eventide was come, he went out unto [d] Bethany with the twelve.

12 ¶ [f] And on the morrow, when they were come from Bethany, he was hungry:

13 And seeing a fig tree afar off having leaves, he came, if haply he might find any thing thereon: and when he came to it, he found nothing but leaves; for the time of figs was not yet.

14 And Jesus answered and said unto it, No man eat fruit of thee hereafter for ever. And his disciples heard it.

15 ¶ [h] And they come to Jerusalem: and Jesus went into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the moneychangers, and the seats of them that sold doves;

16 And would not suffer that any man should carry any vessel through the temple.

17 And he taught, saying unto them, Is it not written, [i] My house shall be called of all nations the house of prayer? but ye have made it a den of thieves.

18 And the scribes and chief priests heard it, and sought how they might destroy him: for they feared him, because all the people was [k] astonished at his doctrine.

19 And when even was come, he went out of the city.

20 ¶ [l] And in the morning, as they passed by, they saw the fig tree dried up from the roots.

21 And Peter calling to remembrance saith unto him, Master, behold, the fig tree which thou cursedst is withered away.

22 And Jesus answering saith unto them, Have faith in God.

23 For verily I say unto you, That whosoever shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that those things which he saith shall come to pass; he shall have whatsoever he saith.

24 Therefore I say unto you, [c] What things soever ye desire, when ye pray, believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them.

25 [e] And when ye stand praying, forgive, if ye have ought against any: that your Father also which is in heaven may forgive you your trespasses.

26 But if ye do not forgive, neither will your Father which is in heaven forgive your trespasses.

27 ¶ [g] And they come again to Jerusalem: and as he was walking in the temple, there come to him the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders,

28 And say unto him, By what authority doest thou these things? and who gave thee this authority to do these things?

29 And Jesus answered and said unto them, I will also ask of you one question, and answer me, and I will tell you by what authority I do these things.

30 The baptism of John, was it from heaven, or of men? answer me.

31 And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say, Why then did ye not believe him?

32 But if we shall say, Of men; they feared the people: for all men counted John, that he was a prophet indeed.

33 And they answered and said unto Jesus, We cannot tell. And Jesus answering saith unto them, Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things.

CHAPTER 12

A.D. 33

[a] AND he began to speak unto them by parables. A certain man planted a vineyard, and set an hedge about it, and digged a place for the [b] winefat, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a far country.

2 And at the season he sent to the husbandmen a servant, that he might receive from the husbandmen of the fruit of the vineyard.

3 And they caught him, and beat him, and sent him away empty.

4 And again he sent unto them another servant; and at him they [c] cast stones, and wounded him in the head, and sent him away shamefully handled.

5 And again he sent another; and him they killed, and many others; beating some, and killing some.

6 Having yet therefore one son, his wellbeloved, he sent him also last unto them, saying, They will reverence my son.

7 But those husbandmen said among themselves, This is the heir; come, let us kill him, and the inheritance shall be our's.

8 And they took him, and killed him, and cast him out of the vineyard.

9 What shall therefore the lord of the vineyard do? he will come and destroy the husbandmen, and will give the vineyard unto others.

10 And have ye not read this scripture; [e] The stone which the builders rejected is become the head of the corner:

11 This was the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes?

12 And they sought to lay hold on him, but feared the people: for they knew that he had spoken the parable against them: and they left him, and went their way.

13 ¶ [f] And they send unto him certain of the Pharisees and of the [h] Hĕrō'dĭ-ănş, to catch him in his words.

14 And when they were come, they say unto him, Master, we know that thou art true, and carest for no man: for thou regardest not the person of men, but teachest the way of God in truth: Is it lawful to give tribute to Cæsar, or not?

15 Shall we give, or shall we not give? But he, knowing their hypocrisy, said unto them, Why tempt ye me? bring me a penny, that I may see it.

16 And they brought it. And he saith unto them, Whose is this image and superscription? And they said unto him, Cæsar's.

17 And Jesus answering said unto them, Render to Cæsar the things that are Cæsar's, and to God the things that are God's. And they marvelled at him.

18 ¶ Then come unto him the Sadducees, which say there is no resurrection; and they asked him, saying,

19 Master, Moses wrote unto us, [d] If a man's brother die, and leave his wife behind him, and leave no children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.

20 Now there were seven brethren: and the first took a wife, and dying left no seed.

21 And the second took her, and died, neither left he any seed: and the third likewise.

22 And the seven had her, and left no seed: last of all the woman died also.

23 In the resurrection therefore, when they shall rise, whose wife shall she be of them? for the seven had her to wife.

24 And Jesus answering said unto them, Do ye not therefore err, because ye know not the scriptures, neither the power of God?

25 For when they shall rise from the dead, they neither marry, nor are given in marriage; but are as the angels which are in heaven.

26 And as touching the dead, that they rise: have ye not read in the book of Moses, [g] how in [g] the bush God spake unto him, saying, [i] I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob?

27 He is not the God of the dead, but the God of the living: ye therefore do greatly err.

A.D. 33

28 ¶ [a] And one of the scribes came, and having heard them reasoning together, and perceiving that he had answered them well, asked him, Which is the first commandment of all?

29 And Jesus answered him, The first of all the commandments is, [e] Hear, O Israel; The Lord our God is one Lord:

30 And [g] thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength: this is the first commandment.

31 And the second is like, namely this, [h] Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. There is none other commandment greater than these.

32 And the scribe said unto him, Well, Master, thou hast said the truth: for there is one God; and [k] there is none other but he:

33 And to love him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, and with all the soul, and with all the strength, and to love his neighbour as himself, [l] is more than all whole burnt offerings and sacrifices.

34 And when Jesus saw that he answered discreetly, he said unto him, Thou art not far from the kingdom of God. [o] And no man after that durst ask him any question.

35 ¶ [q] And Jesus answered and said, while he taught in the temple, How say the scribes that Christ is the [r] son of David?

36 For David himself said [s] by the Holy Ghost, [t] The Lord said to my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool.

37 David therefore himself calleth him Lord; and whence is he then his son? And the common people [u] heard him gladly.

38 ¶ [x] And he said unto them in his doctrine, Beware of the scribes, which love to go in long clothing, and love salutations in the marketplaces,

39 And the chief seats in the synagogues, and the uppermost rooms at feasts:

40 Which [y] devour widows' houses, and [a] for a pretence make long prayers: these shall receive greater damnation.

41 ¶ [b] And Jesus sat over against [c] the treasury, and beheld how the people [d] cast money into the treasury: and many that were rich cast in much.

42 And there came a certain poor widow, and she threw in two [f] mites, which make a farthing.

43 And he called unto him his disciples, and saith unto them, Verily I say unto you, That this poor widow hath cast more in, than all they which have cast into the treasury:

44 For all they did cast in of their abundance; but she of her want did cast in all that she had, even all her living.

CHAPTER 13

[i] AND as he went out of the temple, one of his disciples saith unto him, Master, see what manner of stones and what buildings are here!

2 And Jesus answering said unto him, Seest thou these great buildings? there [m] shall not be left one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

3 And as he sat upon the [n] mount of Olives over against the temple, Peter and James and John and [p] Andrew asked him privately,

4 Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign when all these things shall be fulfilled?

5 And Jesus answering them began to say, Take heed lest any man deceive you:

6 For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many.

7 And when ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars, be ye not troubled: for such things must needs be; but the end shall not be yet.

8 For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be earthquakes in divers places, and there shall be famines and troubles: these are the beginnings of sorrows.

9 ¶ [z] But take heed to yourselves: for they shall deliver you up to councils; and in the synagogues ye shall be beaten: and ye shall be brought before rulers and kings for my sake, for a testimony against them.

10 And the gospel must first be published among all nations.

11 But when they shall lead you, and deliver you up, take no thought beforehand what ye shall speak, neither do ye premeditate: but whatsoever shall be given you in that hour, that speak ye: for it is not ye that speak, but the Holy Ghost.

12 Now the brother shall betray the brother to death, and the father the son; and children shall rise up against their parents, and shall cause them to be put to death.

13 And [a] ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake: but he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved.

14 ¶ But when ye shall see the [b] abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing where it ought not, (let him that readeth understand,) then let them that be in Judæa flee to the mountains:

15 [c] And let him that is on the housetop not go down into the house, neither enter therein, to take any thing out of his house:

16 And let him that is in the field not turn back again for to take up his garment.

17 But woe to them that are with child, and to them that give suck in those days!

18 And pray ye that your flight be not in the winter.

19 For in those days shall be affliction, [f] such as was not from the beginning of the creation which God created unto this time, neither shall be.

20 And except that the Lord had shortened those days, no flesh should be saved: but for the elect's sake, whom he hath chosen, he hath shortened the days.

21 And then if any man shall say to you, Lo, here is Christ; or, lo, he is there; believe him not:

22 For false Christs and [h] false prophets shall rise, and shall [i] shew signs and wonders, to seduce, if it were possible, even the elect.

23 But take ye heed: behold, I have foretold you all things.

24 ¶ But in those days, after that tribulation, the sun shall be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light,

25 And the stars of heaven shall fall, and the powers that are in heaven shall be shaken.

26 And then shall they see the Son of man coming in the clouds with great power and glory.

27 And then shall he send his angels, and shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from the uttermost part of the earth to the uttermost part of heaven.

28 Now learn a parable of the fig tree; When her branch is yet tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is near:

29 So ye in like manner, when ye shall see these things come to pass, know that it is nigh, even at the doors.

30 Verily I say unto you, that this generation shall not pass, till all these things be done.

31 Heaven and earth shall pass away: but my words shall not pass away.

32 ¶ But of that day and that hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels which are in heaven, neither the Son, [d] but the Father.

33 Take ye heed, watch and pray: for ye know not when the time is.

34 For the Son of man is as a man [e] taking a far journey, who left his house, and gave authority to his servants, and to every man his work, and commanded the porter to watch.

35 Watch ye therefore: for ye know not when the master of the house cometh, at even, or at midnight, or at the cockcrowing, or in the morning:

36 Lest coming suddenly he find you sleeping.

37 And what I say unto you I say unto all, Watch.

and the scribes sought how they might take him by craft, and put him to death.

2 But they said, Not on the feast day, lest there be an uproar of the people.

3 ¶ [a] And being in [b] Bethany in the house of Simon the leper, as he sat at meat, there came a woman having an [2]alabaster box of ointment of [3][c] spikenard very precious; and she brake the box, and poured it on his head.

4 And there were some that had indignation within themselves, and said, Why was this waste of the ointment made?

5 For it might have been sold for more than three hundred pence, and have been given to the poor. And they murmured against her.

6 And Jesus said, Let her alone; why trouble ye her? she hath wrought a good work on me.

7 For ye have the poor with you always, and whensoever ye will ye may do them good: but me ye have not always.

8 She hath done what she could: she is come aforehand to anoint my body to the burying.

9 Verily I say unto you, Wheresoever this gospel shall be preached throughout the whole world, this also that she hath done shall be spoken of for a memorial of her.

10 ¶ [g] And Judas Iscariot, one of the twelve, went unto the chief priests, to betray him unto them.

11 And when they heard it, they were glad, and promised to give him money. And he sought how he might conveniently betray him.

12 ¶ [i] And the first day of unleavened bread, when they killed the passover, his disciples said unto him, Where wilt thou that we go and prepare that thou mayest eat the passover?

13 And he sendeth forth two of his disciples, and saith unto them, Go ye into the city, and there shall meet you a man bearing a pitcher of water: follow him.

14 And wheresoever he shall go in, say ye to the goodman of the house, The Master saith, Where is the guest-chamber, where I shall eat the passover with my disciples?

15 And he will shew you a large upper room furnished and prepared: there make ready for us.

16 And his disciples went forth, and came into the city, and found as he had said unto them: and they made ready the [d] passover.

17 [e] And in the evening he cometh with the twelve.

18 And as they sat and did eat, Jesus said, Verily I say unto you, One of you which eateth with me shall betray me.

19 And they began to be sorrowful, and to say unto him one by one, Is it I? and another said, Is it I?

20 And he answered and said unto them, It is one of the twelve, that dippeth with me in the dish.

21 The Son of man indeed goeth, as it is written of him: but woe to that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! good were it for that man if he had never been born.

22 ¶ [f] And as they did eat, Jesus took bread, and blessed, and brake it, and gave to them, and said, Take, eat: this is my body.

23 And he took the cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them: and they all drank of it.

24 And he said unto them, This is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many.

25 Verily I say unto you, I will drink no more of the fruit of the vine, until that day that I drink it new in the kingdom of God.

26 ¶ [h] And when they had sung an hymn, they went out into the mount of Olives.

27 And Jesus saith unto them, All ye shall be offended because of me this night: for it is written, I will smite the shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered.

28 But after that I am risen, I will go before you into Galilee.

29 But Peter said unto him, Although all shall be offended, yet will not I.

30 And Jesus saith unto him, Verily I say unto thee, That this day, even in this night, before the cock crow twice, thou shalt deny me thrice.

31 But he spake the more vehemently, If I should die with thee, I will not deny thee in any wise. Likewise also said they all.

32 [a] And they came to a place which was named Gethsemane: and he saith to his disciples, Sit ye here, while I shall pray.

33 And he taketh with him Peter and James and John, and began to be sore amazed, and to be very heavy;

34 And saith unto them, My soul is exceeding sorrowful unto death: tarry ye here, and watch.

35 And he went forward a little, and fell on the ground, and prayed [b] that, if it were possible, the hour might pass from him.

36 And he said, [c] Abba, Father, all things are possible unto thee; take away this cup from me: nevertheless not what I will, but what thou wilt.

37 And he cometh, and findeth them sleeping, and saith unto Peter, Simon, sleepest thou? couldest not thou watch one hour?

38 Watch ye and pray, lest ye enter into temptation. The spirit truly is ready, but the flesh is weak.

39 And again he went away, and prayed, and spake the same words.

40 And when he returned, he found them asleep again, (for their eyes were heavy,) neither wist they what to answer him.

41 And he cometh the third time, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, and take your rest: it is enough, the hour is come; behold, the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.

42 Rise up, let us go; lo, he that betrayeth me is at hand.

43 ¶ [f] And immediately, while he yet spake, cometh Judas, one of the twelve, and with him a great multitude with swords and staves, from the chief priests and the scribes and the elders.

44 And he that betrayed him had given them a token, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is he; take him, and lead him away safely.

45 And as soon as he was come, he goeth straightway to him, and saith, Master, master; and kissed him.

46 ¶ And they laid their hands on him, and took him.

47 And one of them that stood by drew a sword, and smote a servant of the high priest, and cut off his ear.

48 And Jesus answered and said unto them, Are ye come out, as against a thief, with swords and with staves to take me?

49 I was daily with you in the temple teaching, and ye took me not: but the scriptures must be fulfilled.

50 And they all forsook him, and fled.

51 And there followed him a certain young man, having a linen cloth cast about his naked body; and the young men laid hold on him:

52 And he left the linen cloth, and fled from them naked.

53 ¶ [d] And they led Jesus away to the high priest: and with him were assembled all the chief priests and the elders and the scribes.

54 And Peter followed him afar off, even into the palace of the high priest: and he sat with the servants, and warmed himself at the fire.

55 And the chief priests and all the council sought for [e] witness against Jesus to put him to death; and found none.

56 For many bare false witness against him, but their witness agreed not together.

57 And there arose certain, and bare false witness against him, saying,

58 We heard him say, I will destroy this temple that is made with hands, and within three days I will build another made without hands.

59 But neither so did their witness agree together.

60 And the high priest stood up in the midst, and asked Jesus, saying, Answerest thou nothing? what is it which these witness against thee?

61 But he held his peace, and answered nothing. Again the high priest asked him, and said unto him, Art thou the Christ, the Son of the Blessed?

62 And Jesus said, I am: and ye shall

63 Then the high priest rent his clothes, and saith, What need we any further witnesses?

64 Ye have heard the blasphemy: what think ye? And they all condemned him to be guilty of death.

65 And some began to [b] spit on him, and to cover his face, and to buffet him, and to say unto him, Prophesy: and the servants did strike him with the palms of their hands.

66 ¶ [c] And as Peter was beneath in the palace, there cometh one of the maids of the high priest:

67 And when she saw Peter warming himself, she looked upon him, and said, And thou also wast with Jesus of Nazareth.

68 But he denied, saying, I know not, neither understand I what thou sayest. And he went out into the porch; and the cock crew.

69 And a maid saw him again, and began to say to them that stood by, This is one of them.

70 And he denied it again. And a little after, they that stood by said again to Peter, Surely thou art one of them: for thou art a Galilæan, and thy speech agreeth thereto.

71 But he began to curse and to swear, saying, I know not this man of whom ye speak.

72 And the second time the cock crew. And Peter called to mind the word that Jesus said unto him, Before the cock crow twice, thou shalt deny me thrice. And when he thought thereon, he wept.

CHAPTER 15

AND straightway in the morning the chief priests held a consultation with the elders and scribes and the whole council, and bound Jesus, and carried him away, and delivered him to Pilate.

2 [h] And Pilate asked him, Art thou the King of the Jews? And he answering said unto him, Thou sayest it.

3 And the chief priests accused him of many things: but he answered nothing.

4 And Pilate asked him again, saying, Answerest thou nothing? behold how many things they witness against thee.

5 But Jesus yet answered nothing; so that Pilate marvelled.

6 [a] Now at that feast he released unto them one prisoner, whomsoever they desired.

7 And there was one named Barabbas, which lay bound with them that had made insurrection with him, who had committed murder in the insurrection.

8 And the multitude crying aloud began to desire him to do as he had ever done unto them.

9 But Pilate answered them, saying, Will ye that I release unto you the King of the Jews?

10 For he knew that the chief priests had delivered him for envy.

11 But the chief priests moved the people, that he should rather release Barabbas unto them.

12 And Pilate answered and said again unto them, What will ye then that I shall do unto him whom ye call the King of the Jews?

13 And they cried out again, Crucify him.

14 Then Pilate said unto them, Why, what evil hath he done? And they cried out the more exceedingly, Crucify him.

15 ¶ And so Pilate, willing to content the people, released Barabbas unto them, and delivered Jesus, when he had scourged him, to be crucified.

16 [d] And the soldiers led him away into the hall, called [e] Præ-tôr'ĭ-ŭm; and they call together the whole [2] band.

17 And they clothed him with [g] purple, and platted a crown of thorns, and put it about his head, 18 And began to salute him, Hail, King of the Jews!

19 And they smote him on the head with a reed, and did [i] spit upon him, and bowing their knees worshipped him.

20 And when they had mocked him, they took off the purple from him, and put his own clothes on him, and led him out to crucify him.

21 [a] And they [2b] compel one Simon a Cyrenian, who passed by, coming out of the country, the father of Alexander and Rufus, to bear his cross.

22 And they bring him unto the place Golgotha, which is, being interpreted, The place of a skull.

23 And they gave him to drink wine mingled with [d] myrrh: but he received it not.

24 And when they had crucified him, they parted his garments, casting lots upon them, what every man should take.

25 And it was the third hour, and they crucified him.

26 And the superscription of his accusation was written over, THE KING OF THE JEWS.

27 And with him they crucify two thieves; the one on his right hand, and the other on his left.

28 And the scripture was fulfilled, which saith, [h] And he was numbered with the transgressors.

29 And they that passed by railed on him, wagging their heads, and saying, Ah, thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days,

30 Save thyself, and come down from the cross.

31 Likewise also the chief priests mocking said among themselves with the scribes, He saved others; himself he cannot save.

32 Let Christ the King of Israel descend now from the cross, that we may see and believe. And they that were crucified with him reviled him.

33 And when the sixth hour was come, there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour.

34 And at the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, Ē-lō-ī, Eloi, lä-mä să-băch-thă-nī? which is, being interpreted, [l] My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?

35 And some of them that stood by, when they heard it, said, Behold, he calleth Ē-lī-ăs.

36 And one ran and filled a spunge full of vinegar, and put it on a reed, 37 And Jesus cried with a loud voice, and gave up the ghost.

38 And the veil of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom.

39 ¶ [c] And when the centurion, which stood over against him, saw that he so cried out, and gave up the ghost, he said, Truly this man was the Son of God.

40 There were also women looking on afar off: among whom was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James the less and of Joses, and [e] Salome;

41 (Who also, when he was in Galilee, followed him, and ministered unto him;) and many other women which came up with him unto Jerusalem.

43 Joseph of Ăr-ĭm-ă-thæ-ă, an [i] honourable counsellor, which also [k] waited for the kingdom of God, came, and went in boldly unto Pilate, and craved the body of Jesus.

44 And Pilate marvelled if he were already dead: and calling unto him the centurion, he asked him whether he had been any while dead.

45 And when he knew it of the centurion, he gave the body to Joseph.

46 And he bought fine linen, and took him down, and wrapped him in the linen, and laid him in a sepulchre which was hewn out of a rock, and rolled a stone unto the door of the sepulchre.

47 And Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joses beheld where he was laid.

CHAPTER 16

[m] AND when the sabbath was past, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and [n] Salome, had bought sweet [o] spices, that they might come and [p] anoint him.

2 And very early in the morning the first day of the week, they came unto the sepulchre at the rising of the sun.

3 And they said among themselves, Who shall roll us away the stone from the door of the sepulchre?

4 And when they looked, they saw that the stone was rolled away: for it was very great.

5 And entering into the sepulchre, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, clothed in a long white garment; and they were affrighted.

6 And he saith unto them, Be not affrighted: Ye seek Jesus of Nazareth, which was crucified: he is risen; he is not here: behold the place where they laid him.

7 But go your way, tell his disciples and Peter that he goeth before you into Galilee: there shall ye see him, as he said unto you.

8 And they went out quickly, and fled from the sepulchre; for they trembled and were amazed: neither said they any thing to any man; for they were afraid.

9 ¶ [2]Now when Jesus was risen early [i] the first day of the week, [k] he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, [l] out of whom he had cast seven devils.

10 And [o] she went and told them that had been with him, as they mourned and wept.

11 And they, when they had heard that he was alive, and had been seen of her, [r] believed not.

13 And they went and told it unto the residue: neither believed they them.

14 ¶ Afterward [b] he appeared unto the eleven as they sat at meat, and upbraided them with their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they believed not them which had seen him after he was risen.

2 Even as they [g] delivered them unto us, which from the beginning were [i] eyewitnesses, and [k] ministers of the word; things from the very first, to write unto thee [a] in order, [b] most excellent [c] Thē-ŏph′ĭ-lŭs,

4 [d] That thou mightest know the [e] certainty of those things, wherein thou hast been [f] instructed.

5 ¶ THERE was in the days of [h] Herod, the king of Judæa, a certain priest named Zăch-ă-rī′ăs, of the course of [l] Ă-bī′ă: and his wife was of the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elisabeth.

6 And they were both [a] righteous before God, walking in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord [c] blameless.

7 And [d] they had no child, because that Elisabeth was barren, and they both were now well stricken in years.

8 And it came to pass, that while he executed the priest's office before God in the order of his course,

9 According to the custom of the priest's office, his lot was [e] to burn incense when he went into the temple of the Lord.

10 And the whole multitude of the people were praying [g] without at the time of incense.

11 And there appeared unto him an [h] angel of the Lord standing on the right side of [i] the altar of incense.

12 And when Zăch-ă-rī'-ăs saw him, he was troubled, and [k] fear fell upon him.

13 But the angel said unto him, [m] Fear not, Zăch-ă-rī'-ăs: for [n] thy prayer is heard; and thy wife Elisabeth shall bear thee a son, and [o] thou shalt call his name John.

14 And thou shalt have joy and gladness; and many shall rejoice at his birth.

15 For he shall be great in the sight of the Lord, and [t] shall drink neither wine nor strong drink; and [x] he shall be filled with the Holy Ghost, even [a] from his mother's womb.

16 And many of the children of Israel shall he turn to the Lord their God.

17 And [b] he shall go before him in the spirit and power of Ē-lī'-ăs, [c] to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just; to make ready a people prepared for the Lord.

18 And Zăch-ă-rī'-ăs said unto the angel, [f] Whereby shall I know this? for [h] I am an old man, and my wife well stricken in years.

19 And the angel answering said unto him, I am [k] Gabriel, [l] that stand in the presence of God; and am sent to speak unto thee, and to shew thee these glad tidings.

20 And, behold, [n] thou shalt be dumb, and not able to speak, [b] until the day that these things shall be performed, because thou believest not my words, which shall be fulfilled in their season.

21 And the people waited for Zăch-ă-rī'-ăs, and marvelled that he tarried so long in the temple.

22 And when he came out, he could not speak unto them: and they perceived that he had seen a vision in the temple: for he beckoned unto them, and remained speechless.

23 And it came to pass, that, [f] as soon as the days of his ministration were accomplished, he departed to his own house.

24 And after those days his wife Elisabeth conceived, and hid herself five months, saying,

25 Thus hath the Lord dealt with me in the days wherein he looked on me, [l] to take away my reproach among men.

26 And in the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent from God unto a city of Galilee, named [p] Nazareth,

27 To a virgin [q] espoused to a man whose name was [r] Joseph, of the house of David; and the virgin's name was [s] Mary.

28 And the angel came in unto her, and said, Hail, thou that art [u] highly favoured, [y] the Lord is with thee: [z] blessed art thou among women.

29 And when she saw him, she was troubled at his saying, and cast in her mind what manner of salutation this should be.

30 And the angel said unto her, Fear not, Mary: for thou hast [d] found favour with God.

31 And, behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and [e] shalt call his name JESUS.

32 He shall be great, and shall be called the [g] Son of the Highest: and the Lord God [i] shall give unto him the throne of his father David:

33 And he shall reign over the house of Jacob [m] for ever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end.

34 Then said Mary unto the angel, How shall this be, seeing I know not a man?

35 And the angel answered and said unto her, [a]The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee: therefore also [2]that holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called the [e] Son of God.

36 And, behold, thy cousin Elisabeth, she hath also conceived a son in her old age: and this is the sixth month with her, who was called barren.

37 For [3h] with God nothing shall be impossible.

38 And Mary said, Behold the handmaid of the Lord; be it unto me according to thy word. And the angel departed from her.

39 And Mary arose in those days, and went into the hill country with haste, into a city of Juda;

40 And entered into the house of Zăch-ă-rī'-ăs, and saluted Elisabeth.

41 And it came to pass, that, when Elisabeth heard the salutation of Mary, the babe leaped in her womb; and Elisabeth was filled with the Holy Ghost:

42 And she spake out with a loud voice, and said, [p]Blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb.

43 And whence is this to me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me?

44 For, lo, as soon as the voice of thy salutation sounded in mine ears, the babe leaped in my womb for joy.

45 And blessed is she that believed: for there shall be a performance of those things which were told her from the Lord.

46 [ux] And Mary said, My soul doth [z]magnify the Lord,

47 And my spirit hath rejoiced in [a]God my Saviour.

48 For he hath regarded the low estate of his handmaiden: for, behold, from henceforth all generations [d]shall call me blessed.

49 For [f] he that is mighty [g] hath done to me great things; and [h] holy is his name.

50 And [k] his mercy is on them that fear him from generation to generation.

51 [b] He hath shewed strength with his arm; [c] he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.

52 [d] He hath put down the mighty from their seats, and exalted them of low degree.

53 [f] He hath filled the hungry with good things; and the rich he hath sent empty away.

54 He hath [g] holpen his servant Israel, in [i] remembrance of his mercy;

55 [k] As he spake to our fathers, to Abraham, and to [l] his seed for ever.

56 And Mary abode with her about three months, and returned to her own house.

57 Now Elisabeth's full time came that she should be delivered; and she brought forth a son.

58 And [m] her neighbours and her cousins heard how the Lord had shewed great mercy upon her; and they rejoiced with her.

59 And it came to pass, that on [n] the eighth day they came to circumcise the child; and [o] they called him Zăch-ă-rī'-ăs, after the name of his father.

60 And his mother answered and said, Not so; but [q] he shall be called John.

61 And they said unto her, There is none of thy kindred that is called by this name.

62 And they made signs to his father, how he would have him called.

63 And he asked for a writing [r] table, and wrote, saying, His name is John. And they marvelled all.

64 And [s] his mouth was opened immediately, and his tongue loosed, and he spake, and [t] praised God.

65 And [y] fear came on all that dwelt round about them: and all these sayings were noised abroad throughout all the hill country of Judæa.

66 And all they that heard them [b] laid them up in their hearts, saying, [c] What manner of child shall this be! And [e] the hand of the Lord was with him.

67 And his father Zăch-ă-rī'-ăs was [i] filled with the Holy Ghost, and prophesied, [l] saying,

68 [a]Blessed be the Lord God of Israel; for he hath [c]visited and [d]redeemed his people,

70 [g]As he spake by the mouth of his holy prophets, which have been since the world began:

71 [h]That we should be saved from our enemies, and from the hand of all that hate us;

72 To perform the mercy promised to our fathers, and to [k]remember his holy covenant;

73 [m]The oath which he sware to our father Abraham,

74 That he would grant unto us, that we being delivered out of the hand of our enemies might serve him without fear,

75 [q]In holiness and righteousness before him, all the days of our life.

76 And thou, child, shalt be called [t]the prophet of the Highest: for [u]thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways;

77 [y]To give knowledge of salvation unto his people by the [a]remission of their sins,

78 Through the tender mercy of our God; whereby [c]the dayspring from on high hath visited us,

79 [d]To give light to them that sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, [f]to guide our feet into the way of peace.

80 [i]And the child grew, and waxed strong in spirit, and was [k]in the deserts till the day of his shewing unto Israel.

CHAPTER 2

AND it came to pass in those days, that there went out a [l]decree from [m]Cæsar Augustus, that all the world should be [3n]taxed.

2 (And [4]this taxing was first made when Cȳ-rē'nĭ-ŭs [m]was governor of [o]Syria.)

3 And all went to be taxed, every one into his own city.

4 And [p]Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of [q]Nazareth, into Judæa, unto the city of David, which is called [b]Bethlehem; (because he was of the house and lineage of David:)

5 To be taxed with [f]Mary his espoused wife, being great with child.

6 And so it was, that, while they were there, the days were accomplished that she should be delivered.

7 And she brought forth her firstborn son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger; because there was no room for them in the [i]inn.

8 And there were in the same country [l]shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night.

9 And, lo, the [n]angel of the Lord came upon them, and [o]the glory of the Lord shone round about them: and [p]they were sore afraid.

10 And the angel said unto them, [r]Fear not: for, behold, I bring you [s]good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people.

11 For unto you is born this day in the city of David [x]a Saviour, which is [z]Christ the Lord.

12 And this shall be a [b]sign unto you; Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger.

13 And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and [e]saying,

14 [g]Glory to God in the highest, and on earth [2h]peace, good will toward men.

15 And it came to pass, as the angels were gone away from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to another, Let us now go even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing which is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us.

16 And they came with haste, and found Mary, and Joseph, and the babe lying in a manger.

17 And when they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this child.

18 And all they that heard it wondered at those things which were told them by the shepherds.

19 But Mary [a] kept all these things, and pondered them in her heart.

20 And the shepherds returned, [d] glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, as it was told unto them.

21 And when [e] eight days were accomplished for the circumcising of the child, [g] his name was called JESUS, which was so named of the angel before he was conceived in the womb.

22 And when [h] the days of her purification according to [i] the law of Moses were accomplished, they brought him to Jerusalem, to present him to the Lord;

23 (As it is written in the law of the Lord, [l] Every male that openeth the womb shall be called holy to the Lord;)

24 And to offer a sacrifice according to that which is said in the law of the Lord, [n] A pair of turtledoves, or two young pigeons.

25 And, behold, there was a man in Jerusalem, whose name was Simeon; and the same man was [q] just and devout, [r] waiting for the consolation of Israel: and the [t] Holy Ghost was upon him.

26 And it was [u] revealed unto him by the Holy Ghost, that he should [y] not see death, before he had seen [a] the Lord's Christ.

27 And [b] he came by the Spirit into the temple: and when the parents brought in the child Jesus, to do for him after the custom of the law,

28 Then took he him up in his arms, and [c] blessed God, [d] and said,

29 Lord, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace, according to thy word:

30 For mine eyes [e] have seen thy salvation,

31 Which thou hast prepared before the face of all people;

32 [g] A light to lighten the Gentiles, and [h] the glory of thy people Israel.

33 And Joseph and his mother marvelled at those things which were spoken of him.

34 And Simeon blessed them, and said unto Mary his mother, Behold, this child is set for [b] the fall and rising again of many in Israel; and for a sign [c] which shall be spoken against;

35 (Yea, a sword shall pierce through thy own soul also,) that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed.

36 And there was one Anna, a [f] prophetess, the daughter of Phăn-ū'ĕl, of the tribe of Aser: she was of a great age, and had lived with an husband seven years from her virginity;

37 And she was a widow of about fourscore and four years, which departed not from the temple, but [k] served God with fastings and prayers night and day.

38 And she coming in that instant gave thanks likewise unto the Lord, and spake of him to all them that [m] looked for redemption in Jerusalem.

39 And when they had performed all things according to the law of the Lord, they returned into Galilee, to their own city Nazareth.

40 And [o] the child grew, and waxed strong in spirit, filled with wisdom: and [p] the grace of God was upon him.

41 Now his parents went to Jerusalem [s] every year at the feast of the passover.

42 And when he was twelve years old, [x] they went up to Jerusalem after the custom of the feast.

43 And when they had fulfilled [z] the days, as they returned, the child Jesus tarried behind in Jerusalem; and Joseph and his mother knew not of it.

44 But they, supposing him to have been in the company, went a day's journey; and they sought him among their kinsfolk and acquaintance.

45 And when they found him not, they turned back again to Jerusalem, seeking him.

46 And it came to pass, that after three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of [f] the doctors, both hearing them, and asking them questions.

47 And all that heard him were astonished at his understanding and answers.

48 And when they saw him, they were amazed: and his mother said unto him, Son, why hast thou thus 52 And [e] Jesus increased in wisdom and [g] stature, and [h] in favour with God [i] and man.

CHAPTER 3

NOW in the fifteenth year of the reign of [l] Tĭ-bē'rĭ-ŭs Cæsar, [m] Pontius Pilate being governor of Judæa, and [n] Herod being tē'trärch of Galilee, and [o] his brother Philip tetrarch of Ī-tū-ræ'ă and of the region of Trăch-ō-nī'tĭs, and Lȳ-sā'nĭ-ăs the tetrarch of Ăb-ĭ-lē'nē,

2 [q r] Annas and [s] Caī'ă-phăs being the [t] high priests, the word of God came unto John the son of Zăch-ă-rī'ăs [x] in the wilderness.

3 And he came into all the country about Jordan, preaching the baptism of repentance for the [y] remission of sins;

4 As it is written in the book of the words of Ē-śaī'ăs the prophet, saying, [a] The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

5 Every valley shall be filled, and every mountain and hill shall be brought low; and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough ways shall be made smooth;

6 And all flesh [d] shall see the salvation of God.

7 Then said he to the multitude that came forth to be baptized of him, O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come?

8 Bring forth therefore fruits worthy of repentance, and begin not to say within yourselves, We have [g] Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, That God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham.

9 And now also the axe is laid unto the root of the trees: [a] every tree therefore which bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire.

10 And the people asked him, saying, [c] What shall we do then?

11 He answereth and saith unto them, [d] He that hath two coats, let him impart to him that hath none; and he that hath meat, let him do likewise.

12 Then came also [f] publicans to be baptized, and said unto him, Master, what shall we do?

13 And he said unto them, [k] Exact no more than that which is appointed you.

14 And the [3] soldiers likewise demanded of him, saying, And what shall we do? And he said unto them, Do violence to no man, neither [4p] accuse any falsely; and be content with your wages.

15 And as the people were in expectation, and all men mused in their hearts of John, [u] whether he were the Christ, or not;

16 John answered, saying unto them all, I indeed baptize you with water; but one mightier than I cometh, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to unloose: [z] he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost and with fire:

17 Whose [b] fan is in his hand, and he will throughly purge his floor, and will [c] gather the wheat into his garner; but the chaff he will burn with fire unquenchable.

18 And many other things in his exhortation preached he unto the people.

19 [e] But Herod the tē'trärch, being reproved by him for Hĕ-rō'dĭ-ăs his brother Philip's wife, and for all the evils which Herod had done, 20 Added yet this above all, that he shut up John in prison.

21 [f] Now when all the people were baptized, it came to pass, that Jesus also being baptized, and praying, the [h] heaven was opened,

22 And the [i] Holy Ghost descended in a bodily shape like a dove upon him, and a voice came from heaven, which said, Thou art my beloved Son; in thee I am well pleased.

CHAPTER 4

[q] AND Jesus being [r] full of the Holy Ghost returned from Jordan, and [s] was led by the Spirit into the wilderness,

2 Being forty days [t] tempted of the devil. And in those days he did eat nothing: and when they were ended, he afterward hungered.

3 And the devil said unto him, If thou be the Son of God, command this stone that it be made bread.

4 And Jesus answered him, saying, It is written, That [u] man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word of God.

5 And the devil, taking him up into an high mountain, shewed unto him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time.

6 And the devil said unto him, All this power will I give thee, and the glory of them: for that is delivered unto me; and to whomsoever I will I give it.

7 If thou therefore wilt worship me, all shall be thine.

8 And Jesus answered and said unto him, Get thee behind me, Satan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve.

9 And he brought him to Jerusalem, and set him on a pinnacle of the temple, and said unto him, If thou be the Son of God, cast thyself down from hence:

10 For it is written, [b] He shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee:

11 And in their hands they shall bear thee up, lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone.

12 And Jesus answering said unto him, It is said, [f] Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.

13 And when the devil had ended all the temptation, he departed from him [i] for a season.

14 ¶ And [k] Jesus returned in the power of the Spirit into Galilee: and there went out a fame of him through all the region round about.

15 [o] And he taught in their synagogues, being glorified of all.

16 ¶ [p] And he came to [q] Nazareth, where he had been brought up: and, as his custom was, he went into the synagogue on the sabbath day, and stood up for [r] to read.

17 And there was delivered unto him the book of the prophet Ē-śâī'-ăs. And when he had opened the book, he found the place where it was written,

18 [u] The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the brokenhearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised,

19 To preach the acceptable year of the Lord.

20 And he closed the book, and he gave it again to the minister, and sat down. And the eyes of all them that were in the synagogue were fastened on him.

21 And he began to say unto them, This day is this scripture fulfilled in your ears.

22 And all bare him witness, and wondered at the gracious words which proceeded out of his mouth. And they said, Is not this [a] Joseph's son?

23 And he said unto them, Ye will surely say unto me this proverb, Physician, heal thyself: whatsoever we have heard done in Cā-pĕr'-nā-ŭm, do also here in thy country.

24 And he said, Verily I say unto you, [c] No prophet is accepted in his own country.

25 But I tell you of a truth, many widows were in Israel in the days of [d] Ē-lī'-ăs, when [e] the heaven was shut up three years and six months, when great famine was throughout all the land;

26 But unto none of them was Ē-lī'-as sent, [g] save unto [h] Să-rĕp'-tă, a city of Sidon, unto a woman that was a widow.

27 And many lepers were in Israel in the time of [l] Él-ī-sē'-ŭs the prophet; and none of them [m] was cleansed, saving [n] Nā'-ă-măn the Syrian.

28 And all they in the synagogue, when they heard these things, were filled with wrath,

29 And rose up, and thrust him out of the city, and led him unto the brow of the hill whereon their city was built, that they might cast him down headlong.

30 But he [s] passing through the midst of them went his way,

31 [t] And came down to Că-pĕr'-nā-ŭm, a city of Galilee, and taught them on the sabbath days.

32 And they were [x] astonished at his doctrine: for his word was with power.

33 ¶ And in the synagogue there was a man, which had a spirit of an unclean devil, and cried out with a loud voice,

34 Saying, Let us alone; what have we to do with thee, thou Jesus of Nazareth? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art; the Holy One of God.

35 And Jesus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him. And when the devil had thrown him in the midst, he came out of him, and hurt him not.

36 And they were all amazed, and spake among themselves, saying, What a word is this! for with authority and power he commandeth the unclean spirits, and they come out.

37 And the fame of him went out into every place of the country round about.

38 ¶ [b] And he arose out of the synagogue, and entered into Simon's house. And Simon's wife's mother was taken with a great fever; and they besought him for her.

39 And he stood over her, and rebuked the fever; and it left her: and immediately she arose and ministered unto them.

40 ¶ Now when the sun was setting, all they that had any sick with divers diseases brought them unto him; and he laid his hands on every one of them, and healed them.

41 And devils also came out of many, crying out, and saying, Thou art Christ the [f] Son of God. And he rebuking them suffered them not to speak: for they knew that he was Christ.

42 [g] And when it was day, he departed and went into a desert place: and the people sought him, and came unto him, and stayed him, that he should not depart from them.

43 And he said unto them, [i] I must preach the kingdom of God to other cities also: for therefore am I sent.

44 And he preached in the synagogues of Galilee.

CHAPTER 5

[k] AND it came to pass, that, as the people pressed upon him to hear the word of God, he stood by the lake of Gĕn-nĕs'ă-rĕt,

2 [l] And saw two ships standing by the lake: but the fishermen were gone out of them, and were [m] washing their nets.

3 And he entered into one of the ships, which was Simon's, and prayed him that he would thrust out a little from the land. And he sat down, and taught the people out of the ship.

4 Now when he had left speaking, he said unto Simon, [p] Launch out into the deep, and let down your nets for a draught.

5 And Simon answering said unto him, Master, [a] we have toiled all the night, and have taken nothing: nevertheless at thy word I will let down the net.

6 And when they had this done, [c] they inclosed a great multitude of fishes: and their net brake.

7 And they beckoned unto their partners, which were in the other ship, that they should come and help them. And they came, and filled both the ships, so that they began to sink.

8 When Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, [d] Depart from me; for I am a sinful man, O Lord.

9 For he was astonished, and all that were with him, at the draught of the fishes which they had taken:

10 And so was also [e] James, and John, the sons of Zebedee, which were partners with Simon. And Jesus said unto Simon, Fear not; from henceforth thou shalt catch men.

11 And when they had brought their ships to land, they forsook all, and followed him.

12 ¶ [h] And it came to pass, when he was in a certain city, behold a man full of leprosy: who seeing Jesus fell on his face, and besought him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean.

13 And he put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will: be thou clean. And immediately the leprosy departed from him.

14 And he charged him to tell no man: but go, and shew thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing, according as Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them.

15 [n] But so much the more went there a fame abroad of him: and great multitudes came together to hear, and to be healed by him of their infirmities.

16 ¶ And he withdrew himself into the wilderness, and [o] prayed.

17 And it came to pass on a certain day, as he was teaching, that there were Pharisees and [a] doctors of the law sitting by, which were come out of every town of Galilee, and Judæa, and Jerusalem: and the power of the Lord was present to heal them.

18 ¶ [b] And, behold, men brought in a bed a man which was taken with a palsy: and they sought means to bring him in, and to lay him before him.

19 And when they could not find by what way they might bring him in because of the multitude, they went upon the housetop, and let him down [c] through the tiling with his couch into the midst before Jesus.

20 And when he saw their faith, he said unto him, Man, thy sins are forgiven thee.

21 And the scribes and the Pharisees began to reason, saying, Who is this which speaketh blasphemies? [d] Who can forgive sins, but God alone?

22 But when Jesus perceived their thoughts, he answering said unto them, What reason ye in your hearts?

23 Whether is easier, to say, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Rise up and walk?

24 But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power upon earth to forgive sins, (he said unto the sick of the palsy,) I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy couch, and go into thine house.

25 And immediately he rose up before them, and took up that whereon he lay, and departed to his own house, [f] glorifying God.

26 And they were all amazed, and they glorified God, and were [g] filled with fear, saying, We have seen strange things to day.

27 ¶ [h] And after these things he went forth, and saw a publican, named Levi, sitting at the receipt of custom: and he said unto him, Follow me.

28 And he left all, rose up, and followed him.

29 And Levi made him a great feast in his own house: and there was a great company of publicans and of others that sat down with them.

30 But their scribes and Pharisees murmured against his disciples, saying, Why do ye eat and drink with publicans and sinners?

31 And Jesus answering said unto them, They that are whole need not a physician; but they that are sick.

32 I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

33 ¶ And they said unto him, Why do the disciples of John fast often, and make prayers, and likewise the disciples of the Pharisees; but thine eat and drink?

34 And he said unto them, Can ye make the children of the bridechamber fast, while the bridegroom is with them?

35 But the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and then shall they fast in those days.

36 ¶ And he spake also a parable unto them; No man putteth a piece of a new garment upon an old; if otherwise, then both the new maketh a rent, and the piece that was taken out of the new agreeth not with the old.

37 And no man putteth new wine into old bottles; else the new wine will burst the bottles, and be spilled, and the bottles shall perish.

38 But new wine must be put into new bottles; and both are preserved.

39 No man also having drunk old wine straightway desireth new: for he saith, The old is [2] better.

CHAPTER 6

[e] AND it came to pass on the second sabbath after the first, that he went through the corn fields; and his disciples plucked the ears of corn, and did eat, rubbing them in their hands.

2 And certain of the Pharisees said unto them, Why do ye that which is not lawful to do on the sabbath days?

3 And Jesus answering them said, Have ye not read so much as this, what David did, when himself was an hungred, and they which were with him;

4 How he went into the house of God, and did take and eat the [i] shewbread, and gave also to them that were with him; which it is not lawful to eat but for the priests alone?

5 And he said unto them, That the Son of man is Lord also of the sabbath.

6 [a] And it came to pass also on another sabbath, that he entered into the synagogue and taught: and there was a man whose right hand was withered.

7 And the scribes and Pharisees watched him, whether he would heal on the sabbath day; that they might find an accusation against him.

8 But [c] he knew their thoughts, and said to the man which had the withered hand, Rise up, and stand forth in the midst. And he arose and stood forth.

9 Then said Jesus unto them, I will ask you one thing; Is it lawful on the sabbath days to do good, or to do evil? to save life, or to destroy it?

10 And looking round about upon them all, he said unto the man, Stretch forth thy hand. And he did so: and his hand was restored whole as the other.

11 And they were filled with madness; and communed one with another what they might do to Jesus.

12 [i] And it came to pass in those days, that he went out into a mountain [k] to pray, and continued all night in prayer to God.

13 ¶ And when it was day, he called unto him his disciples: and of them he chose twelve, whom also he named apostles;

14 Simon, (whom he also named Peter,) and Andrew his brother, James and John, Philip and Bartholomew,

15 Matthew and Thomas, James the son of Ăl-phæ'ŭs, and Simon called Zē-lō'tēs,

16 And Judas the brother of James, and Judas Iscariot, which also was the traitor.

17 ¶ [t] And he came down with them, and stood in the plain, and the company of his disciples, and a great multitude of people out of all Judæa and Jerusalem, and from the sea coast of Tyre and Sidon, which came to hear him, and to be healed of their diseases;

18 And they that were vexed with unclean spirits: and they were healed.

19 And the whole multitude sought to touch him: for there went virtue out of him, and healed them all.

20 ¶ [b] And he lifted up his eyes on his disciples, and said, Blessed be ye poor: for your's is the kingdom of God.

21 Blessed are ye that hunger now: for ye shall be filled. Blessed are ye that weep now: for ye shall laugh.

22 Blessed are ye, when men shall [d] hate you, and when they shall separate you from their company, and shall reproach you, and cast out your name as evil, for the Son of man's sake.

23 [e] Rejoice ye in that day, and leap for joy: for, behold, [f] your reward is great in heaven: for in the like manner did their fathers unto the prophets.

24 But [g] woe unto you that are rich! for [h] ye have received your consolation.

25 Woe unto you that are full! for ye shall hunger. Woe unto you that laugh now! for ye shall mourn and weep.

26 Woe unto you, when all men shall speak well of you! for so did their fathers to the [l] false prophets.

27 ¶ [m] But I say unto you which hear, [n] Love your enemies, do good to them which hate you,

28 [o] Bless them that curse you, and [p] pray for them which despitefully use you.

29 [q] And unto him that [r] smiteth thee on the one cheek offer also the other; and him that taketh away thy cloke forbid not to take thy coat also.

30 Give to every man that asketh of thee; and of him that taketh away thy goods ask them not again.

31 [s] And as ye would that men should do to you, do ye also to them likewise.

32 For if ye love them which love you, what thank have ye? for sinners also love those that love them.

33 And if ye do good to them which do good to you, what thank have ye? for sinners also do even the same.

ye hope to receive, what thank have ye? for sinners also lend to sinners, to receive as much again.

35 But love ye your enemies, and do good, and lend, hoping for nothing again; and your reward shall be great, and ye shall be the [c] children of the Highest: for he is kind unto the unthankful and to the evil.

36 [d] Be ye therefore merciful, as your Father also is merciful.

37 [e] [f] Judge not, and ye shall not be judged: condemn not, and ye shall not be condemned: forgive, and ye shall be forgiven:

38 [g] Give, and it shall be given unto you; good measure, pressed down, and shaken together, and running over, shall men give into your bosom. For [h] with the same measure that ye mete withal it shall be measured to you again.

40 [l] The disciple is not above his master: but every one that is perfect shall be as his master.

41 And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but perceivest not the beam that is in thine own eye?

42 Either how canst thou say to thy brother, Brother, let me pull out the mote that is in thine eye, when thou thyself beholdest not the beam that is in thine own eye? Thou hypocrite, cast out first the beam out of thine own eye, and then shalt thou see clearly to pull out the mote that is in thy brother's eye.

43 [m] For a good tree bringeth not forth corrupt fruit; neither doth a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit.

44 For every tree is known by his own fruit. For of thorns men do not gather figs, nor of a bramble bush gather they grapes.

45 [n] A good man out of the good treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is good; and an evil man out of the evil treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is evil: for of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaketh.

46 ¶ [a] And why call ye me, Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I say?

47 [b] Whosoever cometh to me, and heareth my sayings, and doeth them, I will shew you to whom he is like:

48 He is like a man which built an house, and digged deep, and laid the foundation on a rock: and when the flood arose, the stream beat vehemently upon that house, and could not shake it: for it was founded upon a rock.

49 But he that heareth, and doeth not, is like a man that without a foundation built an house upon the earth; against which the stream did beat vehemently, and immediately it fell; and the ruin of that house was great.

CHAPTER 7

[i] NOW when he had ended all his sayings in the audience of the people, he entered into Că-pĕr-nă-ŭm.

2 And a certain centurion's servant, who was dear unto him, was sick, and ready to die.

3 And when he heard of Jesus, he sent unto him the elders of the Jews, beseeching him that he would come and heal his servant.

4 And when they came to Jesus, they besought him instantly, saying, That he was worthy for whom he should do this:

5 For he loveth our nation, and he hath built us a synagogue.

6 Then Jesus went with them. And when he was now not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to him, saying unto him, Lord, trouble not thyself: for I am not worthy that thou shouldest enter under my roof:

7 Wherefore neither thought I myself worthy to come unto thee: but say in a word, and my servant shall be healed.

8 For I also am a man set under authority, having under me soldiers, and I say unto one, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it.

9 When Jesus heard these things, he marvelled at him, and turned him about, and said unto the people that followed him, I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel.

10 And they that were sent, returning to the house, found [a] the servant whole that had been sick.

11 ¶ And it came to pass the day after, that he went into a city called Nā'ĭn; and many of his disciples went with him, and much people.

12 Now when he came nigh to the gate of the city, behold, there was a dead man carried out, [b] the only son of his mother, and she was a widow: and much people of the city was with her.

13 And when the Lord saw her, he had compassion on her, and said unto her, [c] Weep not.

14 And he came and touched the bier: and they that bare him stood still. And he said, Young man, I say unto thee, [c] Arise.

15 And [f] he that was dead sat up, and began to speak. And he [g] delivered him to his mother.

16 And [h] there came a fear on all: and they [i] glorified God, saying, That [l] a great prophet is risen up among us; and, That [m] God hath visited his people.

17 And this rumour of him went forth throughout all Judæa, and throughout all the region round about.

18 [p] And the disciples of John shewed him of all these things.

19 ¶ And John calling unto him two of his disciples sent them to Jesus, saying, Art thou he that should come? or look we for another?

20 When the men were come unto him, they said, John Baptist hath sent us unto thee, saying, Art thou he that should come? or look we for another?

21 And in that same hour he cured many of their infirmities and plagues, and of evil spirits; and unto many that were blind he gave sight.

22 Then Jesus answering said unto them, Go your way, and tell John what things ye have seen and heard; how that the blind see, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, to the poor the gospel is preached.

23 And blessed is he, whosoever shall not be offended in me.

24 ¶ And when the messengers of John were departed, he began to speak unto the people concerning John, What went ye out into the wilderness for to see? A reed shaken with the wind?

25 But what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? Behold, they which are gorgeously apparelled, and live delicately, are in kings' courts.

26 But what went ye out for to see? A prophet? Yea, I say unto you, and much more than a prophet.

27 This is he, of whom it is written, [d] Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

28 For I say unto you, Among those that are born of women there is not a greater prophet than John the Baptist: but he that is least in the kingdom of God is greater than he.

29 And all the people that heard him, and the [k] publicans, justified God, being baptized with the baptism of John.

30 [n] But the Pharisees and lawyers [o] rejected the counsel of God against themselves, being not baptized of him.

31 ¶ And the Lord said, Whereunto then shall I liken the men of this generation? and to what are they like?

32 They are like unto children sitting in the marketplace, and calling one to another, and saying, We have piped unto you, and ye have not danced; we have mourned to you, and ye have not wept.

33 For John the Baptist came neither eating bread nor drinking wine; and ye say, He hath a devil.

34 The Son of man is come eating and drinking; and ye say, Behold a gluttonous man, and a winebibber, a friend of publicans and sinners!

35 But wisdom is justified of all her children.

36 ¶ And one of the Pharisees desired him that he would eat with him. And [b] he went into the Pharisee's house, and sat down to meat.

37 And, behold, a woman in the city, which was a sinner, when she knew that Jesus sat at meat in the Pharisee's house, brought an alabaster box of ointment,

38 And stood at his feet behind him weeping, and began to wash his feet with tears, and did wipe them with the hairs of her head, and kissed his feet, and [g] anointed them with the ointment.

39 Now when the Pharisee which had bidden him saw it, he spake within himself, saying, This man, if he were a prophet, would have known who and what manner of woman this is that toucheth him: for she is a sinner.

40 And Jesus answering said unto him, Simon, I have somewhat to say unto thee. And he saith, Master, say on.

41 There was [n] a certain creditor which had two debtors: the one owed five hundred pence, and the other fifty.

42 And when they had nothing to pay, he frankly forgave them both. Tell me therefore, which of them will love him most?

43 Simon answered and said, I suppose that he, to whom he forgave most. And he said unto him, Thou hast rightly judged.

44 And he turned to the woman, and said unto Simon, Seest thou this woman? I entered into thine house, thou gavest me no water for my feet: but she hath [p] washed my feet with tears, and wiped them with the hairs of her head.

45 [q] Thou gavest me no kiss: but this woman since the time I came in hath not ceased to kiss my feet.

46 My head with oil thou didst not anoint: but this woman hath anointed my feet with ointment.

47 Wherefore I say unto thee, Her sins, which are many, are forgiven; for she loved much: but to whom little is forgiven, the same loveth little.

CHAPTER 8

AND it came to pass afterward, that he went throughout every city and village, [f] preaching and shewing the glad tidings of the kingdom of God: and the twelve were with him,

2 And [h] certain women, which had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities, Mary called Magdalene, [i] out of whom went seven devils,

3 And [k] Joanna the wife of Chû'zä [l] Herod's steward, and Susanna, and many others, which ministered unto him of their substance.

4 ¶ [m] And when much people were gathered together, and were come to him out of every city, he spake by a parable:

5 A sower went out to sow his seed: and as he sowed, some fell by the way side; and it was trodden down, and the fowls of the air devoured it.

6 And some fell upon a rock; and as soon as it was sprung up, it withered away, because it lacked moisture.

7 And some fell among thorns; and the thorns sprang up with it, and choked it.

8 And other fell on good ground, and sprang up, and bare fruit an hundredfold. And when he had said these things, he cried, [o] He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

9 And his disciples asked him, saying, What might this parable be?

10 And he said, Unto you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God: but to others in parables; that seeing they might not see, and hearing they might not understand.

11 [r] Now the parable is this: The seed is the word of God.

12 Those by the way side are they that hear; then cometh the devil, and taketh away the word out of their hearts, lest they should believe and be saved.

A.D. 31

13 They on the rock are they, which, when they hear, receive the word with joy; and these have no root, which for a while believe, and in time of temptation fall away.

14 And that which fell among thorns are they, which, when they have heard, go forth, and are choked with cares and riches and pleasures of this life, and bring no fruit to perfection.

15 But that on the good ground are they, which in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, keep it, and bring forth fruit with patience.

16 ¶ [b] No man, when he hath lighted a candle, covereth it with a vessel, or putteth it under a bed; but setteth it on a candlestick, that they which enter in may see the light.

17 [d] For nothing is secret, that shall not be made manifest; neither any thing hid, that shall not be known and come abroad.

18 Take heed therefore how ye hear: [e] for whosoever hath, to him shall be given; and whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he seemeth to have.

19 ¶ [f] Then came to him his mother and his brethren, and could not come at him for the press.

20 And it was told him by certain which said, Thy mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring to see thee.

21 And he answered and said unto them, My mother and my brethren are these which hear the word of God, and do it.

22 ¶ [g] Now it came to pass on a certain day, that he went into a ship with his disciples: and he said unto them, [h] Let us go over unto the other side of the lake. And they launched forth.

23 But as they sailed he fell asleep: and there came down a storm of wind on the lake; and they were filled with water, and were in jeopardy.

24 And they came to him, and awoke him, saying, Master, master, we perish. Then he arose, and rebuked the wind and the raging of the water: and they ceased, and there was a calm.

25 And he said unto them, Where is your faith? And they being afraid wondered, saying one to another, What manner of man is this! for he commandeth even the winds and water, and they obey him.

26 ¶ [a] And they arrived at the country of the Gădˊă-rēneṣ, which is over against Galilee.

27 And when he went forth to land, there met him out of the city a certain man, which had devils long time, and ware no clothes, neither abode in any house, but in the tombs.

28 When he saw Jesus, he cried out, and fell down before him, and with a loud voice said, What have I to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of God [c] most high? I beseech thee, torment me not.

29 (For he had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For oftentimes it had caught him: and he was kept bound with chains and in fetters; and he brake the bands, and was driven of the devil into the wilderness.)

30 And Jesus asked him, saying, What is thy name? And he said, Legion: because many devils were entered into him.

31 And they besought him that he would not command them to go out into the deep.

32 And there was there an herd of many swine feeding on the mountain: and they besought him that he would suffer them to enter into them. And he suffered them.

33 Then went the devils out of the man, and entered into the swine: and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the lake, and were choked.

34 When they that fed them saw what was done, they fled, and went and told it in the city and in the country.

35 Then they went out to see what was done; and came to Jesus, and found the man, out of whom the devils were departed, sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed, and in his right mind: and they were afraid.

36 They also which saw it told them by what means he that was possessed of the devils was healed.

37 ¶ Then the whole multitude of the country of the Găd-ă-rēnes round about besought him to depart from them; for they were taken with great fear: and he went up into the ship, and returned back again.

38 Now the man out of whom the devils were departed besought him that he might be with him: but Jesus sent him away, saying,

39 Return to thine own house, and shew how great things God hath done unto thee. And he went his way, and published throughout the whole city how great things Jesus had done unto him.

40 And it came to pass, that, when Jesus was returned, the people gladly received him: for they were all waiting for him.

41 ¶ [c] And, behold, there came a man named Jā-ī'-rŭs, and he was a ruler of the synagogue: and he fell down at Jesus' feet, and besought him that he would come into his house:

42 For he had one [d] only daughter, about twelve years of age, and she lay a dying. But as he went the people thronged him.

43 ¶ And a woman having an issue of blood twelve years, which had spent all her living upon physicians, neither could be healed of any,

44 Came behind him, and touched the border of his garment: and immediately her issue of blood stanched.

45 And Jesus said, Who touched me? When all denied, Peter and they that were with him said, Master, the multitude throng thee and press thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me?

46 And Jesus said, Somebody hath touched me: for I perceive that virtue is gone out of me.

47 And when the woman saw that she was not hid, she came trembling, and falling down before him, she declared unto him before all the people for what cause she had touched him, and how she was healed immediately.

48 And he said unto her, Daughter, be of good comfort: thy faith hath made thee whole; [l] go in peace.

49 ¶ While he yet spake, there cometh one from the ruler of the synagogue's house, saying to him, Thy daughter is dead; trouble not the Master.

50 But when Jesus heard it, he answered him, saying, Fear not: believe only, and she shall be made whole.

51 And when he came into the house, he suffered no man to go in, save Peter, and James, and John, and the father and the mother of the maiden.

52 And all wept, and bewailed her: but he said, [a] Weep not; she is not dead, but sleepeth.

53 And they laughed him to scorn, knowing that she was dead.

54 And he put them all out, and took her by the hand, and called, saying, Maid, [b] arise.

55 And her spirit came again, and she arose straightway: and he commanded to give her meat.

56 And her parents were astonished: but he charged them that they should tell no man what was done.

CHAPTER 9

[e] THEN he called his twelve disciples together, and gave them power and authority over all devils, and to cure diseases.

2 And [f] he sent them to preach the kingdom of God, and to heal the sick.

3 And he said unto them, Take nothing for your journey, [g] neither staves, nor scrip, neither bread, neither money; neither have two coats apiece.

4 And whatsoever house ye enter into, there abide, and thence depart.

5 And whosoever will not receive you, when ye go out of that city, shake off the very dust from your feet [h] for a testimony against them.

6 And they departed, and went through the towns, preaching the gospel, and healing every where.

7 ¶ [i] Now [k] Herod the tē'-trärch heard of all that was done by him: and he was perplexed, because that it was said of some, that John was risen from the dead;

8 And of some, that Ē-lī'-ăs had appeared; and of others, that one of the old prophets was risen again.

9 And Herod said, John have I beheaded: but who is this, of whom I hear such things? And he desired to see him.

10 ¶ [a] And the apostles, when they were returned, told him all that they had done. And he took them, and went aside privately into a desert place belonging to the city called Bĕth-sā'ĭ-dă.

11 And the people, when they knew it, followed him: and he received them, and spake unto them of the kingdom of God, and healed them that had need of healing.

12 And when the day began to wear away, then came the twelve, and said unto him, Send the multitude away, that they may go into the towns and country round about, and lodge, and get victuals: for we are here in a desert place.

13 But he said unto them, Give ye them to eat. And they said, We have no more but five loaves and two fishes; except we should go and buy meat for all this people.

14 For they were about five thousand men. And he said to his disciples, Make them sit down by fifties in a company.

15 And they did so, and made them all sit down.

16 Then he took the five loaves and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he blessed them, and brake, and gave to the disciples to set before the multitude.

17 And they did eat, and were all filled: and there was taken up of fragments that remained to them twelve baskets.

18 ¶ [g] And it came to pass, as he was alone [h] praying, his disciples were with him: and he asked them, saying, Whom say the people that I am?

19 They answering said, John the Baptist; but some say, Ē-lī'ăs; and others say, that one of the old prophets is risen again.

20 He said unto them, But whom say ye that I am? Peter answering said, [k] The Christ of God.

21 [l] And he straitly charged them, and commanded them to tell no man that thing;

22 Saying, The Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be slain, and be raised the third day.

23 ¶ [b] And he said to them all, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me.

24 For whosoever will save his life shall lose it: but whosoever will lose his life for my sake, the same shall save it.

25 For what is a man advantaged, if he gain the whole world, and lose himself, or be cast away?

26 [c] For whosoever shall be ashamed of me and of my words, of him shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he shall come in his own glory, and in his Father's, and of the holy angels.

27 But I tell you of a truth, there be some standing here, which shall not taste of death, till they see the kingdom of God.

28 ¶ [d] And it came to pass about an eight days after these sayings, he took Peter and John and James, and went up into a mountain to pray.

29 And as he prayed, the fashion of his countenance was altered, and his raiment was white and glistering.

30 And, behold, there talked with him two men, which were Moses and Ē-lī'ăs:

31 Who appeared in glory, and spake of his decease which he should accomplish at Jerusalem.

32 But Peter and they that were with him [e] were heavy with sleep: and when they were awake, they [f] saw his glory, and the two men that stood with him.

33 And it came to pass, as they departed from him, Peter said unto Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Ē-lī'ăs: [i] not knowing what he said.

34 While he thus spake, there came a cloud, and overshadowed them: and they feared [m] as they entered into the cloud.

35 And there came a voice out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son: hear him.

36 And when the voice was past, Jesus was found alone. And they kept it close, and told no man in those days any of those things which they had seen.

37 ¶ [b] And it came to pass, that on the next day, when they were come down from the hill, much people met him.

38 And, behold, a man of the company cried out, saying, Master, I beseech thee, look upon my son: for he is mine [f] only child.

39 And, lo, a spirit taketh him, and he suddenly crieth out; and it teareth him that he foameth again, and bruising him hardly departeth from him.

40 And I besought thy disciples to cast him out; and they could not.

41 And Jesus answering said, O [k] faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you, and suffer you? Bring thy son hither.

42 And as he was yet a coming, the devil threw him down, and tare him. And Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the child, and delivered him again to his father.

43 ¶ And they were all amazed at the mighty power of God. But while they wondered every one at all things which Jesus did, he said unto his disciples, 44 [m] Let these sayings sink down into your ears: for the Son of man shall be delivered into the hands of men.

45 But [n] they understood not this saying, and it was hid from them, that they perceived it not: and they feared to ask him of that saying.

46 ¶ [o] Then there arose a reasoning among them, which of them should be greatest.

47 And Jesus, [p] perceiving the thought of their heart, took a child, and set him by him,

48 [q] And said unto them, Whosoever shall receive this child in my name receiveth me: and whosoever shall receive me receiveth him that sent me: for he that is least among you all, the same shall be great.

49 ¶ [s] And John answered and said, Master, we saw one casting out devils in thy name; and we forbad him, because he followeth not with us.

50 And Jesus said unto him, Forbid him not: for [q] he that is not against us is for us.

51 ¶ And it came to pass, when the time was come that he should be received up, he stedfastly [e] set his face [d] to go to Jerusalem,

52 And sent messengers before his face: and they went, and entered into a village of the [e] Samaritans, to make ready for him.

53 And they did not receive him, because his face was as though he would go to Jerusalem.

54 And when his disciples [g] James and John saw this, they said, Lord, [h] wilt thou that we command fire to come down from heaven, and consume them, even as [i] Ē-lī'ăs did?

55 But he turned, and rebuked them, and said, Ye know not what manner of spirit ye are of.

56 For the Son of man is not come to destroy men's lives, but to save them. And they went to another village.

57 ¶ [l] And it came to pass, that, as they went in the way, a certain man said unto him, Lord, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest.

58 And Jesus said unto him, Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head.

59 And he said unto another, Follow me. But he said, Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father.

60 Jesus said unto him, Let the dead bury their dead: but go thou and preach the kingdom of God.

61 And another also said, Lord, I will follow thee; but let me first go bid them farewell, which are at home at my house.

62 And Jesus said unto him, No man, having put his hand to the plough, and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God.

into every city and place, whither he himself would come.

2 [b]Therefore said he unto them, The harvest truly is great, but the labourers are few: pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he would send forth labourers into his harvest.

3 [d]Go your ways: behold, I send you forth as lambs among wolves.

4 [f]Carry neither purse, nor scrip, nor shoes: and [g]salute no man by the way.

5 And into whatsoever house ye enter, first say, [h]Peace be to this house.

6 And if the son of peace be there, your peace shall rest upon it: if not, it shall turn to you again.

7 And in the same house remain, eating and drinking such things as they give: for the [l]labourer is worthy of his hire. Go not from house to house.

8 And into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you, eat such things as are set before you:

9 And heal the sick that are therein, and say unto them, The kingdom of God is come nigh unto you,

10 But into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you not, go your ways out into the streets of the same, and say,

11 Even the very dust of your city, which cleaveth on us, we do wipe off against you: notwithstanding be ye sure of this, that the kingdom of God is come nigh unto you.

12 [n]But I say unto you, that it shall be more tolerable in that day for Sodom, than for that city.

13 Woe unto thee, Chō-rā'-zĭn! woe unto thee, Bĕth-sā'-ī-dă! for if the mighty works had been done in [q]Tyre and Sidon, which have been done in you, they had a great while ago repented, sitting in sackcloth and ashes.

14 But it shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the judgment, than for you.

15 And thou, Că-pĕr'-nă-ŭm, which art exalted to heaven, shalt be thrust down to hell.

16 [t]He that heareth you heareth me; and [u]he that despiseth you despiseth me; and [a]he that despiseth me despiseth him that sent me.

17 ¶ And the seventy returned again with joy, saying, Lord, even the devils are subject unto us through thy name.

18 And he said unto them, I beheld [c]Satan as lightning fall from heaven.

19 Behold, I give unto you power [e]to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall by any means hurt you.

20 Notwithstanding in this rejoice not, that the spirits are subject unto you; but rather rejoice, because your names [i]are written in heaven.

21 ¶ [k]In that hour Jesus rejoiced in spirit, and said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes: even so, Father; for so it seemed good in thy sight.

22 All things are delivered to me of my Father: and no man knoweth who the Son is, but the Father; and who the Father is, but the Son, and he to whom the Son will reveal him.

23 ¶ [m]And he turned him unto his disciples, and said privately, Blessed are the eyes which see the things that ye see:

24 For I tell you, that many prophets and kings have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them; and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard them.

25 ¶ [o]And, behold, [p]a certain lawyer stood up, and tempted him, saying, Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?

26 He said unto him, What is written in the law? how readest thou?

27 And he answering said, [r]Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and thy neighbour as thyself.

28 And he said unto him, Thou hast answered right: this do, and thou shalt live.

29 But he, willing [s]to justify himself, said unto Jesus, And who is my neighbour?

30 And Jesus answering said, A certain man went down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell among thieves, which stripped him of his raiment, and wounded him, and departed, leaving him half dead.

31 And by chance there came down a certain priest that way: and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side.

32 And likewise a Levite, when he was at the place, came and looked on him, and passed by on the other side.

33 But a certain [d] Samaritan, as he journeyed, came where he was: and when he saw him, he had compassion on him,

34 And went to him, and bound up his wounds, [e] pouring in oil and wine, and set him on his own beast, and brought him to an [f] inn, and took care of him.

35 And on the morrow when he departed, he took out two pence, and gave them to the host, and said unto him, Take care of him; and whatsoever thou spendest more, when I come again, I will repay thee.

36 Which now of these three, thinkest thou, was neighbour unto him that fell among the thieves?

37 And he said, He that shewed mercy on him. Then said Jesus unto him, Go, and do thou likewise.

38 ¶ Now it came to pass, as they went, that he entered into a certain village: and a certain woman named [k] Martha [l] received him into her house.

39 And she had a sister called [k] Mary, which also [m] sat at Jesus' feet, and heard his word.

40 But Martha was cumbered about much serving, and came to him, and said, Lord, dost thou not care that my sister hath left me to serve alone? bid her therefore that she help me.

41 And Jesus answered and said unto her, Martha, Martha, [n] thou art careful and troubled about many things:

42 But [2] one thing is needful: and Mary hath chosen that good part, which shall not be taken away from her.

CHAPTER 11

[a] AND it came to pass, that, [b] as he was praying in a certain place, when he ceased, one of his disciples said unto him, Lord, teach us to pray, as John also taught his disciples.

2 And he said unto them, When ye pray, say, Our Father which art in heaven, [c] Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, as in heaven, so in earth.

3 Give us day by day our daily bread.

4 And forgive us our sins; for we also forgive every one that is indebted to us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil.

5 And he said unto them, Which of you shall have a friend, and shall go unto him at midnight, and say unto him, Friend, lend me three loaves;

6 For a friend of mine in his journey is come to me, and I have nothing to set before him?

7 And he from within shall answer and say, Trouble me not: the door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot rise and give thee.

8 I say unto you, Though he will not rise and give him, [g] because he is his friend, yet because of his importunity he will rise and give him as many as he needeth.

9 [h] And I say unto you, [i] Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you.

10 For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened.

11 If a son shall ask bread of any of you that is a father, will he give him a stone? or if he ask a fish, will he for a fish give him a serpent?

12 Or if he shall ask an egg, will he offer him a scorpion?

13 If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children: how much more shall your heavenly Father [o] give the Holy Spirit to them that ask him?

14 ¶ [p] And he was casting out a devil, and it was dumb. And it came to pass, when the devil was gone out, the dumb spake; and the people wondered.

15 But some of them said, He casteth out devils through Bē-ĕl'-zĕ-bŭb the chief of the devils.

16 [a] And others, tempting him, sought of him a sign from heaven.

17 [b] But he, knowing their thoughts, said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and a house divided against a house falleth.

18 If Satan also be divided against himself, how shall his kingdom stand? because ye say that I cast out devils through Bē-ĕl'-zĕ-bŭb.

19 And if I by Bē-ĕl'-zĕ-bŭb cast out devils, by whom do your sons cast them out? therefore shall they be your judges.

20 But if I with the [e] finger of God cast out devils, no doubt the kingdom of God is come upon you.

21 When a strong man armed keepeth his palace, his goods are in peace:

22 But when a stronger than he shall come upon him, and overcome him, he taketh from him all his armour wherein he trusted, and [h] divideth his spoils.

23 [i] He that is not with me is against me: and he that gathereth not with me scattereth.

24 [k] When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through dry places, seeking rest; and finding none, he saith, I will return unto my house whence I came out.

25 And when he cometh, he findeth it swept and garnished.

26 Then goeth he, and taketh to him seven other spirits more wicked than himself; and they enter in, and dwell there: and the last state of that man is worse than the first.

27 ¶ And it came to pass, as he spake these things, a certain woman of the company lifted up her voice, and said unto him, [o] Blessed is the womb that bare thee, and the paps which thou hast sucked.

28 But he said, Yea rather, [p] blessed are they that hear the word of God, and keep it.

29 ¶ [q] And when the people were gathered thick together, he began to say, This is an evil generation: they seek a sign; and there shall no sign be given it, but the sign of Jonas the prophet.

30 For as Jonas was a sign unto the Nĭn'-ĕ-vītes, so shall also the Son of man be to this generation.

31 [c] The queen of the south shall rise up in the judgment with the men of this generation, and condemn them: for she came from the utmost parts of the earth to hear the wisdom of [d] Solomon; and, behold, a greater than Solomon is here.

32 The men of Nĭn'-ĕ-vē shall rise up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: for they repented at the preaching of Jonas; and, behold, a greater than Jonas is here.

33 [f] No man, when he hath lighted a candle, putteth it in a secret place, neither under a bushel, but on a candlestick, that they which come in may see the light.

34 [g] The light of the body is the eye: therefore when thine eye is single, thy whole body also is full of light; but when thine eye is evil, thy body also is full of darkness.

35 Take heed therefore that the light which is in thee be not darkness.

36 If thy whole body therefore be full of light, having no part dark, the whole shall be full of light, as when the bright shining of a candle doth give thee light.

37 ¶ And as he spake, [l] a certain Pharisee besought him to dine with him: and he went in, and sat down to meat.

38 And when the Pharisee saw it, he marvelled that he [m] had not first washed before dinner.

39 [n] And the Lord said unto him, Now do ye Pharisees make clean the outside of the cup and the platter; but your inward part is full of ravening and wickedness.

40 Ye fools, did not he that made that which is without make that which is within also?

41 But rather give alms of such things as ye have; and, behold, all things are clean unto you.

42 [a] But woe unto you, Pharisees! for ye tithe mint and rue and all manner of herbs, and pass over judgment and [b] the love of God: these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone.

43 [c] Woe unto you, Pharisees! for ye love the uppermost seats in the synagogues, and greetings in the markets.

44 [e] Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye are as graves which appear not, and the men that walk over them are not aware of them.

45 ¶ Then answered one of the lawyers, and said unto him, Master, thus saying thou reproachest us also.

46 [h] And he said, Woe unto you also, ye lawyers! for ye lade men with burdens grievous to be borne, and ye yourselves touch not the burdens with one of your fingers.

47 [k] Woe unto you! for ye build the sepulchres of the prophets, and your fathers killed them.

48 Truly ye bear witness that ye allow the deeds of your fathers: for they indeed killed them, and ye build their sepulchres.

49 Therefore also said the wisdom of God, I will send them prophets and apostles, and some of them they shall slay and persecute:

50 That the [l] blood of all the prophets, which was shed from the foundation of the world, may be required of this generation;

51 [m] From the blood of Abel unto the blood of Zăch-ă-rī'-ăs, which perished between the [n] altar and the temple: verily I say unto you, It shall be required of this generation.

52 [p] Woe unto you, lawyers! for ye have taken away the key of knowledge: ye entered not in yourselves, and them that were entering in ye hindered.

53 And as he said these things unto them, the scribes and the Pharisees began to urge him vehemently, and to provoke him to speak of many things:

54 Laying wait for him, and seeking to catch something out of his mouth, that they might accuse him.

CHAPTER 12

IN the mean time, when there were gathered together an innumerable multitude of people, insomuch that they trode one upon another, he began to say unto his disciples first of all, [d] Beware ye of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy.

2 [f] For there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; neither hid, that shall not be known.

3 [g] Therefore whatsoever ye have spoken in darkness shall be heard in the light; and that which ye have spoken in the ear in closets shall be proclaimed upon the housetops.

4 And I say unto you [i] my friends, Be not afraid of them that kill the body, and after that have no more that they can do.

5 But I will forewarn you whom ye shall fear: Fear him, which after he hath killed hath power to cast into hell; yea, I say unto you, Fear him.

6 Are not five sparrows sold for two farthings, and not one of them is forgotten before God?

7 But even the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear not therefore: ye are of more value than many sparrows.

8 Also I say unto you, Whosoever shall confess me before men, him shall the Son of man also confess before the angels of God:

9 But he that denieth me before men shall be denied before the angels of God.

10 [o] And whosoever shall speak a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him: but unto him that blasphemeth against the Holy Ghost it shall not be forgiven.

11 [q] And when they bring you unto the synagogues, and unto magistrates, and powers, take ye no thought how or what thing ye shall answer, or what ye shall say:

12 For [r] the Holy Ghost shall teach you in the same hour what ye ought to say.

13 ¶ And one of the company said unto him, Master, speak to my brother, that he divide the inheritance with me.

A.D. 33

14 And he said unto him, Man, who made me a judge or a divider over you?

15 And he said unto them, Take heed, and [a] beware of covetousness: for a man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth.

16 And he spake a parable unto them, saying, The ground of a certain rich man brought forth plentifully:

17 And he thought within himself, saying, What shall I do, because I have no room where to bestow my fruits?

18 And he said, This will I do: I will pull down my barns, and build greater; and there will I bestow all my fruits and my goods.

19 And I will say to my soul, Soul, thou hast much goods laid up [f] for many years; take thine ease, eat, drink, and [i] be merry.

20 But God said unto him, Thou fool, this night thy soul shall be required of thee: then whose shall those things be, which thou hast provided?

21 So is he that [m] layeth up treasure for himself, and is not rich toward God.

22 ¶ [o] And he said unto his disciples, Therefore I say unto you, Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat; neither for the body, what ye shall put on.

23 The life is more than meat, and the body is more than raiment.

24 Consider the [r] ravens: for they neither sow nor reap; which neither have storehouse nor barn; and God feedeth them: how much more are ye better than the fowls?

25 And which of you with taking thought can add to his stature one cubit?

26 If ye then be not able to do that thing which is least, why take ye thought for the rest?

27 Consider the lilies how they grow: they toil not, they spin not; and yet I say unto you, that [u] Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

28 If then God so clothe the grass, which is to day in the field, and to morrow is cast into the oven; how much more will he clothe you, O ye of little faith?

29 And seek not ye what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink, neither be ye of doubtful mind.

30 For all these things do the nations of the world seek after: and your Father knoweth that ye have need of these things.

31 ¶ But rather seek ye the kingdom of God; and all these things shall be added unto you.

32 Fear not, [b] little flock; for it is your Father's good pleasure [c] to give you the kingdom.

33 [d] Sell that ye have, and give alms; provide yourselves bags which wax not old, a [e] treasure in the heavens that faileth not, [g] where no thief approacheth, [h] neither moth corrupteth.

34 For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

35 [k] Let your loins be girded about, and [l] your lights burning;

36 And ye yourselves like unto men that wait for their lord, when he will return from the [n] wedding; that when he cometh and knocketh, they may open unto him immediately.

37 [p] Blessed are those servants, whom the lord when he cometh shall find watching: verily I say unto you, that [q] he shall gird himself, and make them to sit down to meat, and will come forth and serve them.

38 And if he shall come in the second watch, or come in the third [s] watch, and find them so, blessed are those servants.

39 [t] And this know, that if the goodman of the house had known what hour the thief would come, he would have watched, and not have suffered his house to be broken through.

40 Be ye therefore ready also: for the Son of man cometh at an hour when ye think not.

41 ¶ Then Peter said unto him, Lord, speakest thou this parable unto us, or even to all?

42 And the Lord said, Who then is that faithful and wise [x] steward, whom his lord shall make ruler over his household, to give them their portion of meat in due season?

43 Blessed is that servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing.

44 Of a truth I say unto you, that he will make him ruler over all that he hath.

45 But and if that servant say in his heart, My lord delayeth his coming; and shall begin to beat the men-servants and maidens, and to eat and drink, and to be drunken;

46 The lord of that servant will come in a day when he looketh not for him, and at an hour when he is not aware, and will cut him in sunder, and will appoint him his portion with the unbelievers.

47 And that servant, which knew his lord's will, and prepared not himself, neither did according to his will, shall be beaten with many stripes.

48 But [d] he that knew not, and did commit things worthy of stripes, shall be beaten with few stripes. For unto whomsoever much is given, of him [f] shall be much required: and to whom men have committed much, of him they will ask the more.

49 ¶ I am come to send fire on the earth; and what will I, if it be already kindled?

50 But [h] I have a baptism to be baptized with; and how am I straitened till it be accomplished!

51 [i] Suppose ye that I am come to give peace on earth? I tell you, Nay; but rather division:

52 For from henceforth there shall be five in one house divided, three against two, and two against three.

53 The father shall be divided against the son, and the son against the father; the mother against the daughter, and the daughter against the mother; the mother in law against her daughter in law, and the daughter in law against her mother in law.

54 ¶ [m] And he said also to the people, [n] When ye see a cloud rise out of the west, straightway ye say, There cometh a shower; and so it is.

55 And when ye see the south wind blow, ye say, There will be [a] heat; and it cometh to pass.

56 Ye hypocrites, ye can discern the face of the sky and of the earth; but how is it that ye do not discern this time?

57 Yea, and why even of yourselves judge ye not what is right?

58 ¶ [b] When thou goest with thine adversary to the magistrate, as thou art in the way, give diligence that thou mayest be delivered from him; lest he hale thee to the judge, and the judge deliver thee to the officer, and the officer cast thee into prison.

59 I tell thee, thou shalt not depart thence, till thou hast paid the very last mite.

CHAPTER 13

THERE were present at that season some that told him of the Galilæans, whose blood [c] Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices.

2 And Jesus answering said unto them, Suppose ye that these Galilæans [e] were sinners above all the Galilæans, because they suffered such things?

3 I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.

4 Or those eighteen, upon whom the tower in [g] Siloam fell, and slew them, think ye that they were sinners above all men that dwelt in Jerusalem?

5 I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.

6 ¶ He spake also this parable; A certain man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard; and he came and sought fruit thereon, and [k] found none.

7 Then said he unto the dresser of his vineyard, Behold, these three years I come seeking fruit on this fig tree, and find none: [l] cut it down; why cumbereth it the ground?

8 And he answering said unto him, Lord, let it alone this year also, till I shall dig about it, and dung it:

9 And if it bear fruit, well: and if not, then after that thou shalt cut it down.

10 And he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath.

eighteen years, and was bowed together, and could in no wise lift up herself.

12 And when Jesus saw her, he called her to him, and said unto her, Woman, thou art loosed from thine infirmity.

13 And he laid his hands on her: and immediately she was made straight, and [a] glorified God.

14 And the ruler of the synagogue answered with indignation, because that Jesus had healed on the sabbath day, and said unto the people, There are six days in which men ought to work: in them therefore come and be healed, and [e] not on the sabbath day.

15 The Lord then answered him, and said, Thou hypocrite, [f] doth not each one of you on the sabbath loose his ox or his ass from the stall, and lead him away to watering?

16 And ought not this woman, being a [h] daughter of Abraham, whom [i] Satan hath bound, lo, these eighteen years, be loosed from this bond on the sabbath day?

17 And when he had said these things, all his adversaries were ashamed: and all the people rejoiced for all the glorious things that were done by him.

18 ¶ [m] Then said he, Unto what is the kingdom of God like? and whereunto shall I resemble it?

19 It is like a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and cast into his garden; and it grew, and waxed a great tree; and the fowls of the air lodged in the branches of it.

20 And again he said, Whereunto shall I liken the kingdom of God?

21 It is like leaven, which a woman took and hid in three measures of meal, till the whole was leavened.

22 And he went through the cities and villages, teaching, and [r] journeying toward Jerusalem.

23 Then said one unto him, Lord, [t] are there few [u] that be saved? And he said unto them,

24 ¶ [x] Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able.

25 [z] When once the master of the house is risen up, and hath shut to the door, and ye begin to stand without, and to knock at the door, saying, Lord, Lord, open unto us; and he shall answer and say unto you, I know you not whence ye are:

26 Then shall ye begin to say, We have eaten and drunk in thy presence, and thou hast taught in our streets.

27 But he shall say, I tell you, I know you not whence ye are; [b] depart from me, all ye workers of iniquity.

28 [c] There shall be [d] weeping and gnashing of teeth, when ye shall see Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, and all the prophets, in the kingdom of God, and you yourselves thrust out.

29 And they shall come from the east, and from the west, and from the north, and from the south, and shall sit down in the kingdom of God.

30 And, behold, [g] there are last which shall be first, and there are first which shall be last.

31 ¶ The same day there came certain of the Pharisees, saying unto him, Get thee out, and depart hence: for [k] Herod will kill thee.

32 And he said unto them, Go ye, and tell that fox, Behold, I cast out devils, and I do cures to day and to morrow, and the third day [l] I shall be perfected.

33 Nevertheless I must walk to day, and to morrow, and the day following: for it cannot be that [n] a prophet perish out of Jerusalem.

34 [o] O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, which killest the prophets, and [p] stonest them that are sent unto thee; how often would I have gathered thy children together, as a hen doth gather her brood under her wings, and ye would not!

35 Behold, your house is left unto you desolate: and verily I say unto you, Ye shall not see me, until the time come when ye shall say, [s] Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord.

2 And, behold, there was a certain man before him which had the dropsy.

3 And Jesus answering spake unto the lawyers and Pharisees, saying, [c] Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath day?

4 And they held their peace. And he took him, and healed him, and let him go;

5 And answered them, saying, [d] Which of you shall have an ass or an ox fallen into a pit, and will not straightway pull him out on the sabbath day?

6 And they could not answer him again to these things.

7 ¶ And he put forth a parable to those which were bidden, when he marked [e] how they chose out the chief rooms; saying unto them,

8 [f] When thou art bidden of any man to a [g] wedding, sit not down in the highest room; lest a more honourable man than thou be bidden of him;

9 And he that bade thee and him come and say to thee, Give this man place; and thou begin with shame to take the lowest room.

10 But when thou art bidden, go and sit down in the lowest room; that when he that bade thee cometh, he may say unto thee, Friend, go up higher: then shalt thou have worship in the presence of them that sit at meat with thee.

11 For [h] whosoever exalteth himself shall be abased; and [h] he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

12 ¶ Then said he also to him that bade him, When thou makest a dinner or a supper, call not thy friends, nor thy brethren, neither thy kinsmen, nor thy rich neighbours; lest they also bid thee again, and a recompence be made thee.

13 But when thou makest a feast, call [m] the poor, the maimed, the lame, the blind:

14 And thou shalt be blessed; for they cannot recompense thee: for [n] thou shalt be recompensed at [o] the resurrection of the just.

15 ¶ And when one of them that sat at meat with him heard these things, he said unto him, [p] Blessed is he that [q] shall eat bread in the kingdom of God.

16 [b] Then said he unto him, A certain man made a great supper, and bade many:

17 And sent his servant at supper time to say to them that were bidden, Come; for all things are now ready.

18 And they all with one consent began to make excuse. The first said unto him, I have bought a piece of ground, and I must needs go and see it: I pray thee have me excused.

19 And another said, I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I go to prove them: I pray thee have me excused.

20 And another said, I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come.

21 So that servant came, and shewed his lord these things. Then the master of the house being angry said to his servant, Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in hither the poor, and the maimed, and the halt, and the blind.

22 And the servant said, Lord, it is done as thou hast commanded, and yet there is room.

23 And the lord said unto the servant, Go out into the highways and hedges, and compel them to come in, that my house may be filled.

24 For I say unto you, That none of those men which were bidden shall taste of my supper.

25 ¶ And there went great multitudes with him: and he turned, and said unto them,

26 [i] If any man come to me, and [k] hate not his father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brethren, and sisters, yea, and his own life also, he cannot be my disciple.

27 And [l] whosoever doth not bear his cross, and come after me, cannot be my disciple.

28 For which of you, intending to build a tower, sitteth not down first, and counteth the cost, whether he have sufficient to finish it?

31 Or what king, going to make war against another king, sitteth not down first, and consulteth whether he be able with ten thousand to meet him that cometh against him with twenty thousand?

34 ¶ [b] Salt is good: but if the salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be seasoned?

35 It is neither fit for the land, nor yet for the dunghill; but men cast it out. [c] He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

CHAPTER 15

[e] THEN drew near unto him all the publicans and sinners for to hear him.

2 And the Pharisees and scribes murmured, saying, This man receiveth sinners, and eateth with them.

3 ¶ And he spake this parable unto them, saying,

4 [f] What man of you, having an hundred sheep, if he lose one of them, doth not leave the ninety and nine in the wilderness, and go after that which is lost, until he find it?

5 And when he hath found it, he layeth it on his shoulders, rejoicing.

6 And when he cometh home, he calleth together his friends and neighbours, saying unto them, Rejoice with me; for I have found my sheep which was lost.

7 I say unto you, that likewise joy shall be in heaven over one sinner that repenteth, more than over ninety and nine just persons, which need no repentance.

8 ¶ Either what woman having ten pieces of silver, if she lose one piece, doth not light a candle, and sweep the house, and seek diligently till she find it?

9 And when she hath found it, she calleth her friends and her neighbours together, saying, Rejoice with me; for I have found the piece which I had lost.

10 Likewise, I say unto you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner that repenteth.

11 ¶ And he said, [a] A certain man had two sons:

12 And the younger of them said to his father, Father, give me the portion of goods that falleth to me. And he divided unto them his living.

13 And not many days after the younger son gathered all together, and took his journey into a far country, and there wasted his substance with riotous living.

14 And when he had spent all, there arose a mighty famine in that land; and he began to be in want.

15 And he went and joined himself to a citizen of that country; and he sent him into his fields to feed [d] swine.

16 And he would fain have filled his belly with the husks that the swine did eat: and no man gave unto him.

17 And when he came to himself, he said, How many hired servants of my father's have bread enough and to spare, and I perish with hunger!

18 I will arise and go to my father, and will say unto him, Father, [g] I have sinned against heaven, and before thee,

19 And am no more worthy to be called thy son: make me as one of thy hired servants.

20 And he arose, and came to his father. But when he was yet a great way off, his father saw him, and had compassion, and ran, and fell on his neck, and [h] kissed him.

21 And the son said unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in thy sight, and am no more worthy to be called thy son.

22 But the father said to his servants, Bring forth the best robe, and put it on him; and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet:

23 And bring hither the [i] fatted calf, and kill it; and let us eat, and [k] be merry:

24 For this my son was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found. And they began to be merry.

25 Now his elder son was in the field: and as he came and drew nigh to the house, he heard musick and dancing.
26 And he called one of the servants, and asked what these things meant.
27 And he said unto him, Thy brother is come; and thy father hath killed the fatted calf, because he hath received him safe and sound.
28 And he was angry, and would not go in: therefore came his father out, and intreated him.
29 And he answering said to his father, Lo, these many years do I serve thee, neither transgressed I at any time thy commandment: and yet thou never gavest me a kid, that I might make merry with my friends:
30 But as soon as this thy son was come, which hath [d] devoured thy living with harlots, thou hast killed for him the fatted calf.
31 And he said unto him, Son, thou art ever with me, and all that I have is thine.
32 It was meet that we should make merry, and be glad: for this thy brother was dead, and is alive again; and was lost, and is found.

CHAPTER 16

AND he said also unto his disciples, There was a certain rich man, which had a [f] steward; and the same was accused unto him that he had wasted his goods.
2 And he called him, and said unto him, How is it that I hear this of thee? give an account of thy stewardship; for thou mayest be no longer steward.
3 Then the steward said within himself, What shall I do? for my lord taketh away from me the stewardship: I cannot dig; to beg I am ashamed.
4 I am resolved what to do, that, when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses.
5 So he called every one of his lord's debtors unto him, and said unto the first, How much owest thou unto my lord?
6 And he said, An hundred measures of oil. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and sit down quickly, and write fifty.
7 Then said he to another, And how much owest thou? And he said, An hundred measures of wheat. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and write fourscore.
8 And the lord commended the unjust steward, because he had done wisely: for the [a] children of this [2] world are in their generation wiser than the [b] children of light.
9 And I say unto you, Make to yourselves friends of the măm'mon of unrighteousness; that, when ye fail, they may receive you into everlasting habitations.
10 He that is [c] faithful in that which is least is faithful also in much: and he that is unjust in the least is unjust also in much.
11 If therefore ye have not been faithful in the unrighteous măm'mon, who will commit to your trust the true riches?
12 And if ye have not been faithful in that which is another man's, who shall give you that which is your own?
13 ¶ [e] No servant can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and măm'mon.
14 And the Pharisees also, who were covetous, heard all these things: and they derided him.
15 And he said unto them, Ye are they which [g] justify yourselves before men; but [h] God knoweth your hearts: for that which is highly esteemed among men is [i] abomination in the sight of God.
16 [k] The law and the prophets were until John: since that time the kingdom of God is preached, and every man presseth into it.
17 [l] And it is easier for heaven and earth to pass, than one tittle of the law to fail.

20 And there was a certain beggar named Lazarus, which was laid at his gate full of sores,

21 And desiring to be fed with [d] the crumbs which fell from the rich man's table: moreover the [e] dogs came and licked his sores.

22 And it came to pass, that the beggar died, and was carried by the [f] angels into Abraham's bosom: the rich man also died, and was buried;

23 And in [2g] hell he lift up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth [i] Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom.

24 And he cried and said, [m]Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue; for [n] I am tormented in this flame.

25 But Abraham said, Son, remember that thou in thy lifetime [p] receivedst thy good things, and likewise Lazarus evil things: but now he is comforted, and thou art tormented.

26 And beside all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed: so that they which would pass from hence to you cannot; neither can they pass to us, that would come from thence.

27 Then he said, I pray thee therefore, father, that thou wouldest send him to my father's house:

28 For I have five brethren; that he may testify unto them, lest they also come into this place of torment.

29 Abraham saith unto him, They have [s] Moses and the prophets; let them hear them.

30 And he said, Nay, father Abraham: but if one went unto them from the dead, they will repent.

31 And he said unto him, If they hear not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded, though one rose from the dead.

4 And if he trespass against thee seven times in a day, and seven times in a day turn again to thee, saying, I repent; thou shalt forgive him.

5 And the apostles said unto the Lord, Increase our faith.

6 [h] And the Lord said, If ye had faith as [k] a grain of mustard seed, ye might say unto this [l] sycamine tree, Be thou plucked up by the root, and be thou planted in the sea; and it should obey you.

7 But which of you, having a servant plowing or feeding cattle, [o] will say unto him by and by, when he is come from the field, Go and sit down to meat?

8 And will not rather say unto him, Make ready wherewith I may sup, and gird thyself, and serve me, till I have eaten and drunken; and afterward thou shalt eat and drink?

9 Doth he thank that servant because he did the things that were commanded him? I trow not.

10 So likewise ye, when ye shall have done all those things which are commanded you, say, [q] We are unprofitable servants: we have done that which was our duty to do.

11 ¶ And it came to pass, as he [r] went to Jerusalem, that he passed [3]through the midst of Samaria and Galilee.

12 And as he entered into a certain village, there met him ten men that were [t] lepers, which stood afar off:

13 And they lifted up their voices, and said, Jesus, Master, have mercy on us.

14 And when he saw them, he said unto them, Go [u] shew yourselves unto the priests. And it came to pass, that, as they went, they were cleansed.

15 And one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, and with a loud voice [y] glorified God,

16 And fell down on his face at his feet, giving him thanks: and he was [a] a Samaritan.

17 And Jesus answering said, Were there not ten cleansed? but where are the nine?

18 There are not found that returned to give glory to God, save this stranger.

19 And he said unto him, Arise, go thy way: [d] thy faith hath made thee whole.

20 ¶ And when he was demanded of the Pharisees, [f] when the kingdom of God should come, he answered them and said, The kingdom of God cometh not with observation:

21 [g] Neither shall they say, Lo here! or, lo there! for, behold, the kingdom of God is [2] within you.

22 And he said unto the disciples, The days will come, when ye shall desire to see one of the days of the Son of man, and ye shall not see it.

23 And they shall say to you, See here; or, see there: [k] go not after them, nor follow them.

24 For [m] as the lightning, that lighteneth out of the one part under heaven, shineth unto the other part under heaven; so shall also the Son of man be in his day.

25 But first [n] must he suffer many things, and be rejected of this generation.

26 [o] And as it was in the days of Nō-ē, so shall it be also in the days of the Son of man.

27 They did eat, they drank, they married wives, they were given in marriage, until the day that Nō-ē entered into the ark, and the flood came, and destroyed them all.

28 Likewise also as it was [s] in the days of Lot; they did eat, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they builded;

29 But the same day that Lot went out of [t] Sodom it rained fire and brimstone from heaven, and destroyed them all.

30 Even thus shall it be in the day when the Son of man is revealed.

31 [v] In that day, he which shall be upon the housetop, and his stuff in the house, let him not come down to take it away: and he that is in the field, let him likewise not return back.

32 [b] Remember Lot's wife.

33 [c] Whosoever shall seek to save his life shall lose it; and whosoever shall lose his life shall preserve it.

34 I tell you, in that night there shall be two men in one bed; the one shall be taken, and the other shall be left.

35 [e] Two women shall be grinding together; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

36 Two men shall be in the field; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

37 And they answered and said unto him, Where, Lord? And he said unto them, [h] Wheresoever the body is, thither will the [h] eagles be gathered together.

CHAPTER 18

AND he spake a parable unto them to this end, that men ought [i] always to pray, and not to faint;

2 Saying, There was in a city a judge, which [l] feared not God, neither regarded man:

3 And there was a widow in that city; and she came unto him, saying, Avenge me of mine adversary.

4 And he would not for a while: but afterward he said within himself, Though I fear not God, nor regard man;

5 [p] Yet because this widow troubleth me, I will avenge her, lest by her continual coming she [3] weary me.

6 And the Lord said, Hear what the unjust judge saith.

7 And shall not God [q] avenge his own [r] elect, which cry day and night unto him, though he bear long with them?

8 I tell you that he will avenge them speedily. Nevertheless when the Son of man cometh, shall he find faith on the earth?

9 And he spake this parable unto certain which trusted in themselves that they were righteous, [u] and despised others:

10 Two men [x] went up into the temple to pray; the one a Pharisee, and the other a publican.

11 The Pharisee [z] stood and prayed thus with himself, God, I thank thee, that I am not as other men are, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this publican.

12 [a] I fast twice in the week, I give [b] tithes of all that I possess.

13 And the publican, standing afar off, would not lift up so much as his eyes unto heaven, but [c] smote upon his breast, saying, God be merciful to me a sinner.

14 I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other: for every one that [d] exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that [e] humbleth himself shall be exalted.

15 [f] And they brought unto him also infants, that he would touch them: but when his disciples saw it, they rebuked them.

16 But Jesus called them unto him, and said, Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God.

17 Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child [h] shall in no wise enter therein.

18 [i] And a certain ruler asked him, saying, Good Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?

19 And Jesus said unto him, Why callest thou me good? none is good, save one, that is, God.

20 Thou knowest the commandments, [m] Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Honour thy father and thy mother.

21 And he said, All these have I kept from my youth up.

22 Now when Jesus heard these things, he said unto him, Yet lackest thou one thing: sell all that thou hast, and [o] distribute unto the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, follow me.

23 And when he heard this, he was very sorrowful: for he was very rich.

24 And when Jesus saw that he was very sorrowful, he said, How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God!

25 For it is easier for a camel to go through a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

26 And they that heard it said, Who then can be saved?

27 And he said, The things which are impossible with men are possible with God.

28 Then Peter said, Lo, we have left all, and followed thee.

29 And he said unto them, Verily I say unto you, There is no man that hath left house, or parents, or brethren, or wife, or children, for the kingdom of God's sake,

30 Who shall not receive manifold more in this present time, and in the world to come life everlasting.

31 ¶ [g] Then he took unto him the twelve, and said unto them, Behold, we go up to Jerusalem, and all things that are written by the prophets concerning the Son of man shall be accomplished.

32 For he shall be delivered unto the Gentiles, and shall be mocked, and spitefully entreated, and spitted on:

33 And they shall scourge him, and put him to death: and the third day he shall rise again.

34 And [k] they understood none of these things: and this saying was hid from them, neither knew they the things which were spoken.

35 ¶ [l] And it came to pass, that as he was come nigh unto Jericho, a certain blind man sat by the way side begging:

36 And hearing the multitude pass by, he asked what it meant.

37 And they told him, that Jesus of Nazareth passeth by.

38 And he cried, saying, Jesus, thou [n] son of David, have mercy on me.

39 And they which went before rebuked him, that he should hold his peace: but he cried so much the more, Thou son of David, have mercy on me.

40 And Jesus stood, and commanded him to be brought unto him: and when he was come near, he asked him, 41 Saying, What wilt thou that I shall do unto thee? And he said, Lord, that I may receive my sight.

42 And Jesus said unto him, Receive thy sight: [a] thy faith hath saved thee.

43 And immediately he received his sight, and followed him, [b] glorifying God: and all the people, when they saw it, gave praise unto God.

CHAPTER 19

AND Jesus entered and passed through Jericho.

2 And, behold, there was a man named Zăc-chæ'ŭs, which was the chief among the publicans, and he was rich.

3 And [c] he sought to see Jesus who he was; and could not for the press, because he was little of stature.

4 And he ran before, and climbed up into a [e] sycomore tree to see him: for he was to pass that way.

5 And when Jesus came to the place, he looked up, and saw him, and said unto him, Zăc-chæ'ŭs, make haste, and come down; for to day I must abide at thy house.

6 And he made haste, and came down, and received him joyfully.

7 And when they saw it, they all murmured, saying, That he was gone [f] to be guest with a man that is [g] a sinner.

8 And Zăc-chæ'ŭs stood, and said unto the Lord; Behold, Lord, the half of my goods [i] I give to the poor; and if I have [k] taken any thing from any man by false accusation, I [l] restore him fourfold.

9 And Jesus said unto him, This day is salvation come to this house, forsomuch as he also is a [m] son of Abraham.

10 [n] For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost.

11 And as they heard these things, he added and spake a parable, because he was nigh to Jerusalem, and because [o] they thought that the kingdom of God should immediately appear.

12 [q] He said therefore, A certain nobleman went into a far country to receive for himself a kingdom, and to return.

13 And he called his ten servants, and delivered them ten pounds, and said unto them, Occupy till I come.

14 But his citizens hated him, and sent a message after him, saying, We will not have this man to reign over us.

15 And it came to pass, that when he was returned, having received the kingdom, then he commanded these servants to be called unto him, to whom he had given the money, that he might know how much every man had gained by trading.

16 Then came the first, saying, Lord, thy pound hath gained ten pounds.

17 And he said unto him, Well, thou good servant: because thou hast been [d] faithful in a very little, have thou authority over ten cities.

18 And the second came, saying, Lord, thy pound hath gained five pounds.

19 And he said likewise to him, Be thou also over five cities.

20 And another came, saying, Lord, behold, here is thy pound, which I have kept laid up in a napkin:

21 For I feared thee, because thou art an austere man: thou takest up that thou layedst not down, and reapest that thou didst not sow.

22 And he saith unto him, [h] Out of thine own mouth will I judge thee, thou wicked servant. Thou knewest that I was an austere man, taking up that I laid not down, and reaping that I did not sow:

23 Wherefore then gavest not thou my money into the bank, that at my coming I might have required mine own with usury?

24 And he said unto them that stood by, Take from him the pound, and give it to him that hath ten pounds.

25 (And they said unto him, Lord, he hath ten pounds.)

26 For I say unto you, That [p] unto every one which hath shall be given; and from him that hath not, even that he hath shall be taken away from him.

27 But those mine enemies, which would not that I should reign over them, bring hither, and [r] slay them before me.

28 ¶ And when he had thus spoken, [a] he went before, ascending up to Jerusalem.

29 [b] And it came to pass, when he was come nigh to Bĕth-phă-gē and Bethany, at the mount called the mount of Olives, he sent two of his disciples,

30 Saying, Go ye into the village over against you; in the which at your entering ye shall find a colt tied, whereon yet never man sat: loose him, and bring him hither.

31 And if any man ask you, Why do ye loose him? thus shall ye say unto him, Because the Lord hath need of him.

32 And they that were sent went their way, and found even as he had said unto them.

33 And as they were loosing the colt, the owners thereof said unto them, Why loose ye the colt?

34 And they said, The Lord hath need of him.

35 And they brought him to Jesus: and they cast their garments upon the colt, and they set Jesus thereon.

36 And as he went, they spread their clothes in the way.

37 And when he was come nigh, even now at the descent of the mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to rejoice and praise God with a loud voice for all the mighty works that they had seen;

38 Saying, Blessed be [i] the King that cometh in the name of the Lord: [k] peace in heaven, and glory in the highest.

39 [l] And some of the Pharisees from among the multitude said unto him, Master, rebuke thy disciples.

40 And he answered and said unto them, I tell you that, if these should hold their peace, the stones would immediately cry out.

41 ¶ [m] And when he was come near, he beheld the city, and [n] wept over it,

42 Saying, If thou hadst known, even thou, at least in this thy day, the things which belong unto thy peace! but now they are hid from thine eyes.

43 For the days shall come upon thee, that thine enemies shall [p] cast a [q] trench about thee, and compass thee round, and keep thee in on every side, 44 And shall lay thee even with the ground, [r] and thy children within thee; and they [s] shall not leave in thee one stone upon another; because thou knewest not the [t] time of thy visitation.

45 [u] And he went into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold therein, and them that bought;

46 Saying unto them, It is written, [x] My house is the house of prayer: but ye have made it a den of thieves.

47 And he taught daily in the temple. But the chief priests and the scribes and the chief of the people sought to destroy him, 48 And could not find what they might do: for all the people were very attentive to hear him.

CHAPTER 20

[h] AND it came to pass, that on one of those days, as he taught the people in the temple, and preached the gospel, the chief priests and the scribes came upon him with the elders,

2 And spake unto him, saying, Tell us, by what authority doest thou these things? or who is he that gave thee this authority?

3 And he answered and said unto them, I will also ask you one thing; and answer me:

4 The baptism of John, was it from heaven, or of men?

5 And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say, Why then believed ye him not?

6 But and if we say, Of men; all the people will stone us: for they be persuaded that John was a prophet.

7 And they answered, that they could not tell whence it was.

8 And Jesus said unto them, Neither tell I you by what authority I do these things.

9 [o] Then began he to speak to the people this parable; A certain man planted a vineyard, and let it forth to husbandmen, and went into a far country for a long time.

10 And at the season he sent a servant to the husbandmen, that they should give him of the fruit of the vineyard: but the husbandmen beat him, and sent him away empty.

11 And again he sent another servant: and they beat him also, and entreated him shamefully, and sent him away empty.

12 And again he sent a third: and they wounded him also, and cast him out.

13 Then said the lord of the vineyard, What shall I do? I will send my beloved son: it may be they will reverence him when they see him.

14 But when the husbandmen saw him, they reasoned among themselves, saying, This is the heir: come, let us kill him, that the inheritance may be our's.

15 So they cast him out of the vineyard, and killed him. What therefore shall the lord of the vineyard do unto them?

16 He shall come and destroy these husbandmen, and shall give the vineyard to others. And when they heard it, they said, God forbid.

17 And he beheld them, and said, What is this then that is written, [b]The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner?

18 [c]Whosoever shall fall upon that stone shall be broken; but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder.

19 ¶ And the chief priests and the scribes the same hour sought to lay hands on him; and they feared the people: for they perceived that he had spoken this parable against them.

20 [g]And they watched him, and sent forth spies, which should feign themselves just men, that they might take hold of his words, that so they might deliver him unto the power and authority of the governor.

21 And they asked him, saying, Master, we know that thou sayest and teachest rightly, neither acceptest thou the person of any, but teachest the way of God truly:

22 Is it lawful for us to give tribute unto Cæsar, or no?

23 But he perceived their craftiness, and said unto them, Why tempt ye me?

24 Shew me a penny. Whose image and superscription hath it? They answered and said, Cæsar's.

25 And he said unto them, Render therefore unto Cæsar the things which be Cæsar's, and unto God the things which be God's.

26 And they could not take hold of his words before the people: and they marvelled at his answer, and held their peace.

27 ¶ Then came to him certain of the Sadducees, which deny that there is any resurrection; and they asked him,

28 Saying, Master, Moses wrote unto us, [a]If any man's brother die, having a wife, and he die without children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.

29 There were therefore seven brethren: and the first took a wife, and died without children.

30 And the second took her to wife, and he died childless.

31 And the third took her; and in like manner the seven also: and they left no children, and died.

32 Last of all the woman died also.

33 Therefore in the resurrection whose wife of them is she? for seven had her to wife.

34 And Jesus answering said unto them, [d]The children of this world marry, and are given in marriage:

35 But they which shall be [e]accounted worthy to obtain [f]that [2]world, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry, nor are given in marriage:

36 Neither can they die any more: for they are equal unto the angels; and are the [h]children of God, being the children of the resurrection.

37 Now that the dead are raised, even Moses shewed [3i]at the bush, when he calleth the Lord [k]the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.

38 For he is not a God of the dead, but of the living: for all [a] live unto him.

39 ¶ Then certain of the scribes answering said, Master, thou hast well said.

40 And after that they durst not ask him any question at all.

41 [b] And he said unto them, How say they that Christ is [c] David's son?

42 And David himself saith in the book of Psalms, [d] The LORD said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, 43 Till I make thine enemies thy footstool.

44 David therefore calleth him Lord, how is he then his son?

45 ¶ [g] Then in the audience of all the people he said unto his disciples,

46 Beware of the scribes, which desire to walk in long robes, and love greetings in the markets, and the highest seats in the synagogues, and the chief rooms at feasts;

47 [h] Which devour widows' houses, and for a shew make long prayers: the same shall receive greater damnation.

CHAPTER 21

[i] AND he looked up, and saw the rich men casting their gifts into [k] the treasury.

2 And he saw also a certain poor widow casting in thither two mites.

3 And he said, Of a truth I say unto you, that this poor widow hath cast in more than they all:

4 For all these have of their abundance cast in unto the offerings of God: but she of her penury hath cast in all the living that she had.

5 ¶ [p] And as some spake of the temple, how it was adorned with goodly stones and gifts, he said,

6 As for these things which ye behold, the days will come, in the which there shall not be left [q] one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

7 And they asked him, saying, Master, but when shall these things be? and what sign will there be when these things shall come to pass?

8 And he said, [t] Take heed that ye be not deceived: for many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and the time draweth near: go ye not therefore after them.

9 But when ye shall hear of wars and commotions, be not terrified: for these things must first come to pass; but the end is not by and by.

10 Then said he unto them, Nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom:

11 And great earthquakes shall be in divers places, and famines, and pestilences; and fearful sights and [e] great signs shall there be from heaven.

12 [f] But before all these, they shall lay their hands on you, and persecute you, delivering you up to the synagogues, and into prisons, being brought before kings and rulers for my name's sake.

13 And it shall turn to you for a testimony.

14 Settle it therefore in your hearts, not to meditate before what ye shall answer:

15 For I will give you a mouth and wisdom, which all your adversaries shall not be able to gainsay nor resist.

16 And ye shall be betrayed both by parents, and brethren, and kinsfolks, and friends; and some of you shall they cause to be put to death.

17 And [l] ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake.

18 But [m] there shall [n] not an hair of your head perish.

19 In your patience possess ye your souls.

20 And when ye shall see Jerusalem [o] compassed with armies, then know that the desolation thereof is nigh.

21 Then let them which are in Judæa flee to the mountains; and let them which are in the midst of it depart out; and let not them that are in the countries enter thereinto.

22 For these be the [r] days of vengeance, [s] that all things which are written may be fulfilled.

23 But woe unto them that are with child, and to them that give suck, in those days! for there shall be great distress in the land, and wrath upon this people.

24 And they shall fall by the edge of the sword, and shall be led away captive into all nations: and Jerusalem shall be trodden down of the Gentiles, until [c] the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled.

25 ¶ And there shall be [d] signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars; and upon the earth distress of nations, with perplexity; the sea and the waves roaring;

26 Men's hearts failing them for fear, and for looking after those things which are coming on the earth: for the powers of heaven shall be shaken.

27 And then shall they see the Son of man coming in a cloud with power and great glory.

28 And when these things begin to come to pass, then look up, and lift up your heads; for [h] your redemption draweth nigh.

29 And he spake to them a parable; [k] Behold the fig tree, and all the trees;

30 When they now shoot forth, ye see and know of your own selves that summer is now nigh at hand.

31 So likewise ye, when ye see these things come to pass, know ye that the kingdom of God is nigh at hand.

32 Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not pass away, till all be fulfilled.

33 Heaven and earth shall pass away: but my words shall not pass away.

34 ¶ And take heed to yourselves, [l] lest at any time your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting, and drunkenness, and cares of this life, and so that day come upon you unawares.

35 For [m] as a snare shall it come on all them that dwell on the face of the whole earth.

36 Watch ye therefore, and [o] pray always, that ye may be accounted worthy to escape all these things that shall come to pass, and to stand before the Son of man.

37 And in the day time he was teaching in the temple; and at night he went out, and abode in the mount that is called the [r] mount of Olives.

38 [s] And all the people came early in the morning to him in the temple, for to hear him.

CHAPTER 22

[a] NOW [b] the feast of unleavened bread drew nigh, which is called the Passover.

2 And the chief priests and scribes sought how they might kill him; for they feared the people.

3 ¶ [e f] Then entered Satan into Judas surnamed Iscariot, being of the number of the twelve.

4 And he went his way, and communed with the chief priests and [g] captains, how he might betray him unto them.

5 And they were glad, and covenanted to give him money.

6 And he promised, and sought opportunity to betray him unto them in the absence of the multitude.

7 ¶ [i] Then came the day of unleavened bread, when the passover must be killed.

8 And he sent Peter and John, saying, Go and prepare us the passover, that we may eat.

9 And they said unto him, Where wilt thou that we prepare?

10 And he said unto them, Behold, when ye are entered into the city, there shall a man meet you, bearing a pitcher of water; follow him into the house where he entereth in.

11 And ye shall say unto the goodman of the house, The Master saith unto thee, Where is the guestchamber, where I shall eat the passover with my disciples?

12 And he shall shew you a large [n] upper room furnished: there make ready.

13 And they went, and found as he had said unto them: and they made ready the [p] passover.

14 [q] And when the hour was come, he sat down, and the twelve apostles with him.

15 And he said unto them, With desire I have desired to eat this passover with you before I suffer:

16 For I say unto you, I will not any more eat thereof, until it be fulfilled in the kingdom of God.

17 And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and said, Take this, and divide it among yourselves:

18 [b] For I say unto you, I will not drink of the fruit of the vine, until the kingdom of God shall come.

19 ¶ And he took bread, and gave thanks, and brake it, and gave unto them, saying, This is my body which is given for you: this do in remembrance of me.

20 Likewise also the cup after supper, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood, which is shed for you.

21 ¶ [e] But, behold, the hand of him that betrayeth me is with me on the table.

22 And truly the Son of man goeth, as it was determined: but woe unto that man by whom he is betrayed!

23 And they began to enquire among themselves, which of them it was that should do this thing.

24 ¶ And there was also a strife among them, which of them should be accounted the greatest.

25 [k] And he said unto them, The kings of the Gentiles exercise lordship over them; and they that exercise authority upon them are called benefactors.

26 But ye shall not be so: but he that is greatest among you, let him be as the younger; and he that is chief, as he that doth serve.

27 For whether is greater, he that sitteth at meat, or he that serveth? is not he that sitteth at meat? but I am among you as he that serveth.

28 Ye are they which have continued with me in [p] my temptations.

29 And I appoint unto you a [q] kingdom, as my Father hath appointed unto me;

30 That [r] ye may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom, and sit on thrones [s] judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

31 ¶ And the Lord said, Simon, Simon, behold, Satan hath [2t] desired to have you, that he may [x] sift you as wheat:

32 But [y] I have prayed for thee, that thy faith fail not: and when thou art converted, [z] strengthen thy brethren.

33 And [a] he said unto him, Lord, I am ready to go with thee, both into prison, and to death.

34 And [c] he said, I tell thee, Peter, the cock shall not crow this day, before that thou shalt thrice deny that thou knowest me.

35 And he said unto them, [d] When I sent you without purse, and scrip, and shoes, lacked ye any thing? And they said, Nothing.

36 Then said he unto them, But now, he that hath a purse, let him take it, and likewise his scrip: and he that hath no sword, let him sell his garment, and buy one.

37 For I say unto you, that [f] this that is written must yet be accomplished in me, And [g] he was reckoned among the transgressors: for the things concerning me have an end.

38 And they said, Lord, behold, [h] here are two swords. And he said unto them, It is enough.

39 ¶ And he came out, and went, as he was wont, to the [i] mount of Olives; and his disciples also followed him.

40 [l] And when he was at the place, he said unto them, Pray that ye enter not into temptation.

41 And he was withdrawn from them about a stone's cast, and [m] kneeled down, and prayed,

42 Saying, Father, if thou be willing, remove this cup from me: nevertheless not my will, but thine, be done.

43 And there appeared [n] an angel unto him from heaven, strengthening him.

44 And [o] being in an agony he prayed more earnestly: and his sweat was as it were great drops of blood falling down to the ground.

45 And when he rose up from prayer, and was come to his disciples, he found them sleeping for sorrow,

46 And said unto them, Why sleep ye? rise and pray, lest ye enter into temptation.

47 ¶ [u] And while he yet spake, behold a multitude, and he that was called Judas, one of the twelve, went before them, and drew near unto Jesus to kiss him.

48 But Jesus said unto him, Judas, betrayest thou the Son of man with a kiss?

49 When they which were about him saw what would follow, they said unto him, Lord, shall we smite with the sword?

50 ¶ And one of them smote the servant of the high priest, and cut off his right ear.

51 And Jesus answered and said, Suffer ye thus far. And he touched his ear, and healed him.

52 Then Jesus said unto the chief priests, and captains of the temple, and the elders, which were come to him, Be ye come out, as against a thief, with swords and staves?

53 When I was daily with you in the temple, ye stretched forth no hands against me: but this is your hour, and the power of darkness.

54 ¶ [c] Then took they him, and led him, and brought him into the high priest's house. And Peter followed afar off.

55 [d] And when they had kindled a fire in the midst of the hall, and were set down together, Peter sat down among them.

56 But a certain maid beheld him as he sat by the fire, and earnestly looked upon him, and said, This man was also with him.

57 And he denied him, saying, Woman, I know him not.

58 And after a little while another saw him, and said, Thou art also of them. And Peter said, Man, I am not.

59 And about the space of one hour after another confidently affirmed, saying, Of a truth this fellow also was with him: for he is a Galilæan.

60 And Peter said, Man, I know not what thou sayest. And immediately, while he yet spake, the cock crew.

61 And the Lord turned, and looked upon Peter. And Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how he had said unto him, Before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice.

62 And Peter went out, and wept bitterly.

63 ¶ [h] And the men that held Jesus mocked him, and smote him.

65 And many other things blasphemously spake they against him.

66 ¶ [a] And as soon as it was day, the [b] elders of the people and the chief priests and the scribes came together, and led him into their council, saying,

67 Art thou the Christ? tell us. And he said unto them, If I tell you, ye will not believe:

68 And if I also ask you, ye will not answer me, nor let me go.

69 Hereafter shall the Son of man sit on the right hand of the power of God.

70 Then said they all, Art thou then the Son of God? And he said unto them, Ye say that I am.

71 And they said, What need we any further witness? for we ourselves have heard of his own mouth.

CHAPTER 23

[e] AND the whole multitude of them arose, and led him unto Pilate.

2 [f] And they began to accuse him, saying, We found this fellow perverting the nation, and forbidding to give tribute to Cæsar, saying that he himself is Christ a King.

3 And Pilate asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Jews? And he answered him and said, Thou sayest it.

4 Then said Pilate to the chief priests and to the people, I find no fault in this man.

5 And they were the more fierce, saying, He stirreth up the people, teaching throughout all Jewry, beginning from Galilee to this place.

6 When Pilate heard of Galilee, he asked whether the man were a Galilæan.

7 And as soon as he knew that he belonged unto [g] Herod's jurisdiction, he sent him to Herod, who himself also was at Jerusalem at that time.

8 ¶ And when Herod saw Jesus, he was exceeding glad: for he was desirous to see him of a long season, because he had heard many things of him; and he [a]hoped to have seen some miracle done by him.

9 Then he questioned with him in many words; but he answered him nothing.

10 And the chief priests and scribes stood and vehemently accused him.

11 And Herod with his men of war set him at nought, and mocked him, and arrayed him in a gorgeous robe, and sent him again to Pilate.

12 ¶ And the same day [c]Pilate and Herod were made friends together: for before they were at enmity between themselves.

13 ¶ And Pilate, when he had called together the chief priests and the rulers and the people,

14 Said unto them, Ye have brought this man unto me, as one that perverteth the people: and, behold, I, having examined him before you, have found no fault in this man touching those things whereof ye accuse him:

15 No, nor yet Herod: for I sent you to him; and, lo, nothing worthy of death is done unto him.

16 [h]I will therefore chastise him, and release him.

17 (For of necessity he must release one unto them at the feast.)

18 [k]And they cried out all at once, saying, Away with this man, and release unto us Barabbas:

19 (Who for a certain sedition made in the city, and for murder, was cast into prison.)

20 Pilate therefore, willing to release Jesus, spake again to them.

21 But they cried, saying, Crucify him, crucify him.

22 And he said unto them the third time, Why, what evil hath he done? I have found no cause of death in him: I will therefore chastise him, and let him go.

23 And they were instant with loud voices, requiring that he might be crucified. And the voices of them and of the chief priests prevailed.

24 And Pilate gave sentence that it should be as they required.

25 And he released unto them him that for sedition and murder was cast into prison, whom they had desired; but he delivered Jesus to their will.

26 [b]And as they led him away, they laid hold upon one Simon, a Çy-rē'-nĭ-ăn, coming out of the country, and on him they laid the cross, that he might bear it after Jesus.

27 ¶ And there followed him a great company of people, and of women, which also bewailed and lamented him.

28 But Jesus turning unto them said, [d]Daughters of Jerusalem, weep not for me, but weep for yourselves, and for your children.

29 For, behold, the days are coming, in the which they shall say, [e]Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that never bare, and the paps which never gave suck.

30 [f]Then shall they begin to say to the mountains, Fall on us; and to the hills, Cover us.

31 For if they do these things in [g]a green tree, what shall be done in the dry?

32 And there were also two other, malefactors, led with him to be put to death.

33 [i]And when they were come to the place, which is called Calvary, there they crucified him, and the malefactors, one on the right hand, and the other on the left.

34 ¶ Then said Jesus, [l]Father, forgive them; [m]for they know not what they do. And they parted his raiment, and cast lots.

35 And the people stood beholding. And the rulers also with them derided him, saying, He saved others; let him save himself, if he be [n]Christ, the chosen of God.

36 And the soldiers also mocked him, coming to him, and offering him vinegar,

37 And saying, If thou be the [o]king of the Jews, save thyself.

38 And a superscription also was written over him in letters of Greek, and Latin, and Hebrew, THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

39 ¶ [p]And one of the malefactors which were hanged railed on him,

51 (The same had not consented to the counsel and deed of them;) he was of Ăr-ĭm-ă-thæ'-ă, a city of the Jews: who also himself waited for the kingdom of God.

52 This man went unto Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus.

53 And he took it down, and wrapped it in linen, and laid it in a sepulchre that was hewn in stone, wherein never man before was laid.

54 And that day was the preparation, and the sabbath drew on.

55 And the women also, which came with him from Galilee, followed after, and beheld the sepulchre, and how his body was laid.

56 And they returned, and prepared spices and [a] ointments; and [b] rested the sabbath day according to the commandment.

CHAPTER 24

[c] NOW upon the first day of the week, very early in the morning, they came unto the sepulchre, bringing the spices which they had prepared, and certain others with them.

2 And they found the stone rolled away from the sepulchre.

3 And they entered in, and found not the body of the Lord Jesus.

4 And it came to pass, as they were much perplexed thereabout, behold, [f] two men stood by them in shining garments:

5 And as they were afraid, and bowed down their faces to the earth, they said unto them, Why seek ye the living among the dead?

6 He is not here, but is risen: remember how he spake unto you when he was yet in Galilee,

7 [k] Saying, The Son of man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again.

8 And [m] they remembered his words,

9 And returned from the sepulchre, and told all these things unto the eleven, and to all the rest.

10 It was Mary Magdalene, and [o] Joanna, and Mary the mother of James, and other women that were with them, [q] which told these things unto the apostles.

11 And their words seemed to them as idle tales, and [r] they believed them not.

12 [s] Then arose Peter, and ran unto the sepulchre; and stooping down, he beheld the linen clothes laid by themselves, and departed, wondering in himself at that which was come to pass.

13 ¶ [t] And, behold, two of them went that same day to a village called Ĕm-mā'ŭs, which was from Jerusalem about threescore furlongs.

14 And they talked together of all these things which had happened.

15 And it came to pass, that, while they communed together and reasoned, Jesus himself drew near, and went with them.

16 But their eyes were holden that they should not know him.

17 And he said unto them, What manner of communications are these that ye have one to another, as ye walk, and are sad?

18 And the one of them, whose name was Clē'ŏ-păs, answering said unto him, Art thou only a stranger in Jerusalem, and hast not known the things which are come to pass there in these days?

19 And he said unto them, What things? And they said unto him, Concerning Jesus of Nazareth, which was a [e] prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people:

20 And how the chief priests and our rulers delivered him to be condemned to death, and have crucified him.

21 But we trusted that it had been he which should have redeemed Israel: and beside all this, to day is the third day since these things were done.

22 Yea, and certain women also of our company made us astonished, which were early at the sepulchre;

23 And when they found not his body, they came, saying, that they had also seen a vision of angels, which said that he was alive.

24 And certain of them which were with us went to the sepulchre, and found it even so as the women had said: but him they saw not.

25 Then he said unto them, O fools, and [l] slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken:

26 [m] Ought not Christ to have suffered these things, and to enter into his glory?

27 And beginning at [n] Moses and all the prophets, he expounded unto them in all the scriptures the things concerning himself.

28 And they drew nigh unto the village, whither they went: and he made as though he would have gone further.

29 But they [a] constrained him, saying, Abide with us: for it is toward evening, and the day is far spent. And he went in to tarry with them.

30 And it came to pass, as he [b] sat at meat with them, he took bread, and [c] blessed it, and brake, and gave to them.

31 And [d] their eyes were opened, and they knew him; and he vanished out of their sight.

32 And they said one to another, Did not our heart burn within us, while he talked with us by the way, and while he opened to us the scriptures?

33 And they rose up the same hour, and returned to Jerusalem, and found the eleven gathered together, and them that were with them, 34 Saying, The Lord is risen indeed, and hath appeared to Simon.

35 And they told what things were done in the way, and how he was known of them in breaking of bread.

36 ¶ And as they thus spake, [f] Jesus himself stood in the midst of them, and saith unto them, [g] Peace be unto you.

37 But [h] they were terrified and affrighted, and supposed that they had seen a spirit.

38 And he said unto them, Why are ye troubled? and why do thoughts arise in your hearts?

39 Behold my hands and my feet, that it is I myself: [i] handle me, and see; for a spirit hath not flesh and bones, as ye see me have.

40 And when he had thus spoken, he [k] shewed them his hands and his feet.

41 And while they yet believed not for joy, and wondered, he said unto them, Have ye here any meat?

42 And they gave him a piece of a broiled fish, and of an honeycomb.

43 And he took it, and did eat before them.

44 And he said unto them, These are the words which I spake unto you, while I was yet with you, that [o] all things must be fulfilled, which were

[c] IN the beginning was [d] the Word, and the Word [e] was with God, and the Word [h] was God.

2 The same was in the beginning with God.

3 [f] All things were made by him; and without him [2] was not any thing made that was made.

4 [o] In him was life; and the life was [p] the light of men.

5 And [q] the light shineth in darkness; and the darkness [4] comprehended it not.

6 ¶ There was a man [s] sent from God, whose name was [t] John.

7 The same came [x] for a witness, to bear witness of the Light, [y] that all men through him might believe.

8 He was not that Light, but was sent to bear witness of that Light.

9 [5] That was the true Light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world.

10 He was in the world, and the world was made by him, and [e] the world knew him not.

11 He came unto [7] his own, and his own received him not.

12 But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the [a] sons of God, even to them that [b] believe on his name:

13 Which were [f] born, [g] not of blood, [i] nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.

14 And the Word [k] was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we [m] beheld his glory, the glory as of [3] the only begotten of the Father,) full of [n] grace and truth.

15 ¶ John bare witness of him, and cried, saying, This was he of whom I spake, [r] He that cometh after me is preferred before me: for he was before me.

16 And of his [u] fulness have all we received, and grace for grace.

17 For [z] the law was given by Moses, but [a] grace and truth came by Jesus Christ.

18 [b] No man hath seen God at any time; [6] [c] the only begotten Son, which is in the bosom of the Father, [d] he hath declared him.

19 ¶ And this is the record of John, when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem [f] to ask him, Who art thou?

20 And he confessed, and denied not; but confessed, [g] I am not the Christ.

21 And they asked him, What then? Art thou Ē-lī'ăs? And he saith, [a] I am not. Art thou [b] that prophet? And he answered, No.

22 Then said they unto him, Who art thou? that we may give an answer to them that sent us. What sayest thou of thyself?

23 He said, I am [d] the voice of one crying in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the Lord, as said the prophet Ē-śāī'ăs.

24 And they which were sent were of the Pharisees.

25 And they asked him, and said unto him, Why baptizest thou then, if thou be not that Christ, nor Ē-lī'ăs, neither that prophet?

26 John answered them, saying, [h] I baptize with water: but there standeth one among you, whom ye know not;

27 [k] He it is, who coming after me is preferred before me, whose shoe's latchet I am not worthy to unloose.

28 These things were done in [2 l] Bĕth-ăb'ă-ră beyond Jordan, where John was baptizing.

29 ¶ The next day John seeth Jesus coming unto him, and saith, Behold [n] the Lamb of God, which [o] taketh away the sin of the world.

30 This is he of whom I said, After me cometh a man which is preferred before me: for he was before me.

31 And [s] I knew him not: but that he should be made manifest to Israel, therefore am I come baptizing with water.

32 And John [u] bare record, saying, I saw [x] the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it abode upon him.

33 And I knew him not: but he that sent me to baptize with water, [b] the same said unto me, Upon whom thou shalt see the Spirit descending, and remaining on him, the same is he which baptizeth with the Holy Ghost.

34 And I saw, and bare record that this is the Son of God.

35 ¶ Again the next day after John stood, and two of his disciples;

36 And looking upon Jesus as he walked, he saith, Behold the Lamb of God!

37 And the two disciples heard him speak, and they followed Jesus.

38 Then Jesus turned, and saw them following, and saith unto them, [c] What seek ye? They said unto him, Rabbi, (which is to say, being interpreted, Master,) where dwellest thou?

39 He saith unto them, Come and see. They came and saw where he dwelt, and abode with him that day: for it was about the tenth hour.

40 [e] One of the two which heard John speak, and followed him, was [f] Andrew, Simon Peter's brother.

41 He first findeth his own brother Simon, and saith unto him, We have found the Messias, which is, being interpreted, [g] the Christ.

42 And he brought him to Jesus. And when Jesus beheld him, he said, [i] Thou art Simon the son of Jona: thou shalt be called Çē'phăs, by interpretation, A stone.

43 ¶ The day following Jesus would go forth into Galilee, and findeth [m] Philip, and saith unto him, Follow me.

44 Now Philip was of Bĕth-sā'ī-dă, the city of Andrew and Peter.

45 Philip findeth [p] Nathanael, and saith unto him, We have found him, of whom [q] Moses in the law, and the prophets, did write, Jesus of [r] Nazareth, the son of Joseph.

46 And Nathanael said unto him, [t] Can there any good thing come out of Nazareth? Philip saith unto him, Come and see.

47 Jesus saw Nathanael coming to him, and saith of him, Behold [y] an Israelite indeed, [z] in whom is no guile!

48 Nathanael saith unto him, [a] Whence knowest thou me? Jesus answered and said unto him, Before that Philip called thee, when thou wast under the fig tree, I saw thee.

49 Nathanael answered and saith unto him, Rabbi, thou art the [c] Son of God; thou art the [d] King of Israel.

50 Jesus answered and said unto him, Because I said unto thee, I saw thee under the fig tree, believest thou? thou shalt see greater things than these.

CHAPTER 2

AND [d] the third day there was a marriage in [e] Cana of Galilee; and [f] the mother of Jesus was there:

2 And both [h] Jesus was called, and his disciples, to the marriage.

3 And when they wanted wine, the mother of Jesus saith unto him, They have no wine.

4 Jesus saith unto her, [k] Woman, what have I to do with thee? [m] mine hour is not yet come.

5 His mother saith unto the servants, Whatsoever he saith unto you, do it.

6 And there were set there six waterpots of stone, [p] after the manner of the purifying of the Jews, containing two or three firkins apiece.

7 Jesus saith unto them, Fill the waterpots with water. And they filled them up to the brim.

8 And he saith unto them, Draw out now, and bear unto the governor of the feast. And they bare it.

9 When the ruler of the feast had tasted the water that was made wine, and knew not whence it was: (but the servants which drew the water knew;) the governor of the feast called the bridegroom,

10 And saith unto him, Every man at the beginning doth set forth good wine; and when men have well drunk, then that which is worse: but thou hast kept the good wine until now.

11 [y] This beginning of miracles did Jesus in Cana of Galilee, and manifested forth [z] his glory; and his disciples believed on him.

12 ¶ After this he went down to [b] Că-pĕr-nă-ŭm, he, and his mother, and [d] his brethren, and his disciples: and they continued there not many days.

13 ¶ And [f] the Jews' [g] passover was at hand, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem,

14 [i] And found in the temple those that sold oxen and sheep and doves, and the changers of money sitting:

15 And when he had made a scourge of small cords, he drove them all out of the temple, and the sheep, and the oxen; and poured out the changers' money, and overthrew the tables;

16 And said unto them that sold doves, Take these things hence; make not [g] my Father's house an house of merchandise.

17 And his disciples remembered that it was written, [i] The zeal of thine house hath eaten me up.

18 ¶ Then answered the Jews and said unto him, [l] What sign shewest thou unto us, seeing that thou doest these things?

19 [n] Jesus answered and said unto them, Destroy this temple, and in three days [o] I will raise it up.

20 Then said the Jews, Forty and six years was this temple in building, and wilt thou rear it up in three days?

21 But he spake of [q] the temple of his body.

22 When therefore he was risen from the dead, [r] his disciples remembered that he had said this unto them; and they believed the scripture, and the word which Jesus had said.

23 ¶ Now when he was in Jerusalem at the passover, in the feast day, [s] many believed in his name, [t] when they saw the miracles which he did.

24 But Jesus did not commit himself unto them, because [u] he knew all men,

25 And needed not that any should testify of man: for [x] he knew what was in man.

CHAPTER 3

THERE was a man of the Pharisees, named [a] Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews:

2 The same came to Jesus [c] by night, and said unto him, Rabbi, [e] we know that thou art a teacher come from God: for no man can do these miracles that thou doest, [h] except God be with him.

3 Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man [a] be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.

4 Nicodemus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and be born?

5 Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be [e] born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God.

6 That which is born [g] of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit.

7 [h] Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again.

8 [2i] The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit.

9 Nicodemus answered and said unto him, [m] How can these things be?

10 Jesus answered and said unto him, Art thou a [o] master of Israel, and knowest not these things?

11 Verily, verily, I say unto thee, [p] We speak that we do know, and testify that we have seen; and [p] ye receive not our witness.

12 If I have told you earthly things, and ye believe not, how shall ye believe, if I tell you of heavenly things?

13 And [t] no man hath ascended up to heaven, [x] but he that [y] came down from heaven, even the [a] Son of man which is in heaven.

14 ¶ And [b] as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man [e] be lifted up:

15 That whosoever [f] believeth in him should not perish, but [i] have eternal life.

16 ¶ For [k] God so loved the world, [t] that he gave his [m] only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should [o] not perish, but have everlasting life.

17 For [q] God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; [s] but that the world through him might be saved.

18 ¶ [u] He that believeth on him is [y] not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God.

19 And this is the condemnation, that [b] light is come into the world, and [c] men loved darkness rather than light, because [d] their deeds were evil.

20 For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, [f] lest his deeds should be reproved.

21 But he that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God.

22 ¶ After these things came Jesus and his disciples into the land of Judæa; and there he tarried with them, and [k] baptized.

23 ¶ And John also [l] was baptizing in Ænon near to Salim, because there was much water there: and they came, and were baptized.

24 [n] For John was not yet cast into prison.

25 ¶ Then there arose a question between some of John's disciples and the Jews about [q] purifying.

26 And they came unto John, and said unto him, Rabbi, he that was with thee beyond Jordan, [r] to whom thou barest witness, behold, the same baptizeth, and [s] all men come to him.

27 John answered and said, [u] A man can receive nothing, [z] except it be given him from heaven.

28 Ye yourselves bear me witness, that I said, [c] I am not the Christ, but that [d] I am sent before him.

29 He that hath the bride is the [g] bridegroom: but [h] the friend of the bridegroom, which standeth and heareth him, rejoiceth greatly because of the bridegroom's voice: this my joy therefore is fulfilled.

30 [a] He must increase, but I must decrease.

31 [p] He that cometh from above is above all: [r] he that is of the earth is earthly, and speaketh of the earth: he that cometh from heaven [t] is above all.

32 And [x] what he hath seen and heard, that he testifieth; and [z] no man receiveth his testimony.

CHAPTER 4

WHEN therefore the Lord knew how the Pharisees had heard that Jesus made and [m] baptized more disciples than [n] John,

2 (Though Jesus himself baptized not, but his disciples,)

3 He left Judæa, and departed [o] again into Galilee.

4 And he must needs go through Samaria.

5 Then cometh he to a city of Samaria, which is called Sȳ'-chär, near to the [r] parcel of ground that [s] Jacob gave to his son [u] Joseph.

6 Now Jacob's [x] well was there. Jesus therefore, being wearied with his journey, sat thus on the well: and it was about the sixth hour.

7 There cometh [z] a woman of Samaria to draw water: Jesus saith unto her, Give me to drink.

8 (For his disciples were gone away unto the city to buy meat.)

9 Then saith the woman of Samaria unto him, How is it that thou, being a Jew, askest drink of me, which am a woman of Samaria? [e] for the Jews have no dealings with the [f] Samaritans.

10 Jesus answered and said unto her, If thou knewest the gift of God, and who it is that saith to thee, Give me to drink; thou wouldest have asked of him, and he would have given thee [i] living water.

11 The woman saith unto him, Sir, thou hast nothing to draw with, and the well is deep: from whence then hast thou that living water?

12 [l] Art thou greater than our father Jacob, which gave us the well, and drank thereof himself, and his children, and his cattle?

13 Jesus answered and said unto her, Whosoever drinketh of this water shall thirst again:

14 But whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him [c] shall never thirst; [e] but the water that I shall give him shall be [g] in him a well of water springing up into [i] everlasting life.

15 The woman saith unto him, Sir, [l] give me this water, that I thirst not, neither come hither to draw.

16 Jesus saith unto her, Go, call thy husband, and come hither.

17 The woman answered and said, I have no husband. Jesus said unto her, Thou hast well said, I have no husband:

18 For thou hast had five husbands; and he whom thou now hast is not thy husband: in that saidst thou truly.

19 The woman saith unto him, Sir, I perceive that thou art [p] a prophet.

20 Our fathers worshipped in [q] this mountain; and ye say, that [t] in Jerusalem is the place where men ought to worship.

21 Jesus saith unto her, Woman, believe me, [y] the hour cometh, when ye shall neither in this mountain, nor yet at Jerusalem, worship the Father.

22 [a] Ye worship ye know not what: we know what we worship: for [b] salvation is of the Jews.

23 But [c] the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall [d] worship the Father in spirit and in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him.

24 [g] God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth.

25 The woman saith unto him, I know that [h] Messias cometh, which is called Christ: when he is come, he will tell us all things.

26 Jesus saith unto her, [k] I that speak unto thee am he.

27 ¶ And upon this came his disciples, and marvelled that he talked with the woman: yet no man said, What seekest thou? or, Why talkest thou with her?

28 The woman then left her waterpot, and went her way into the city, and saith to the men,

29 Come, see a man, [b] which told me all things that ever I did: is not this the Christ?

30 Then they went out of the city, and came unto him.

31 ¶ In the mean while his disciples prayed him, saying, Master, eat.

32 But he said unto them, I have meat to eat that ye know not of.

33 Therefore said the disciples one to another, Hath any man brought him ought to eat?

34 Jesus saith unto them, My meat is [f] to do the will of him [g] that sent me, and [h] to finish his work.

35 Say not ye, There are yet four months, and then cometh harvest? behold, I say unto you, Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; for [k] they are white already to harvest.

36 And he that reapeth [l] receiveth wages, and gathereth fruit unto life eternal: that both he that soweth and he that reapeth may rejoice together.

37 And herein is that saying true, [m] One soweth, and another reapeth.

38 I sent you to reap that whereon ye bestowed no labour: other men laboured, and ye are entered into their labours.

39 ¶ And many of the Samaritans of that city believed on him for the saying of the woman, which testified, He told me all that ever I did.

40 So when the Samaritans were come unto him, they besought him that he would tarry with them: and he abode there two days.

41 And [q] many more believed because of his own word;

42 And said unto the woman, Now we believe, not because of thy saying: for we have heard him ourselves, and know that this is indeed the Christ, the [s] Saviour of the world.

43 ¶ Now after [t] two days he departed thence, and went into Galilee.

44 For Jesus himself testified, that [u] a prophet hath no honour in his own country.

45 Then when he was come into Galilee, the Galilæans received him, [a] having seen all the things that he did at Jerusalem at the feast: for they also went unto the feast.

46 So Jesus came again into [c] Cana of Galilee, where he made the water wine. And there was a certain nobleman, whose son was sick at [d] Că-pĕr-nă-ŭm.

47 When he heard that Jesus was come out of Judæa into Galilee, he went unto him, and besought him that he would come down, and heal his son: for he was at the point of death.

48 Then said Jesus unto him, [e] Except ye see signs and wonders, ye will not believe.

49 The nobleman saith unto him, Sir, [i] come down ere my child die.

50 Jesus saith unto him, Go thy way; thy son liveth. And the man believed the word that Jesus had spoken unto him, and he went his way.

51 And as he was now going down, his servants met him, and told him, saying, Thy son liveth.

52 Then enquired he of them the hour when he began to amend. And they said unto him, Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him.

53 So the father knew that it was at the same hour, in the which Jesus said unto him, Thy son liveth: and himself believed, [n] and his whole house.

54 [o] This is again the second miracle that Jesus did, when he was come out of Judæa into Galilee.

CHAPTER 5

AFTER this there was a [p] feast of the Jews; and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

2 Now there is at Jerusalem by the [r] sheep [2]market a pool, which is called in the Hebrew tongue Bethesda, having five porches.

3 In these lay a great multitude of impotent folk, of blind, halt, withered, [3]waiting for the moving of the water.

4 For an angel went down at a certain season into the pool, and troubled the water: whosoever then first after the troubling of the water stepped in was made whole of whatsoever disease he had.

5 And a certain man was there, which had an infirmity thirty and eight years.

6 When Jesus saw him lie, and knew that he had been now a long time in that case, he saith unto him, Wilt thou be made whole?

7 The impotent man answered him, Sir, I have no man, when the water is troubled, to put me into the pool: but while I am coming, another stepeth down before me.

8 Jesus saith unto him, [f] Rise, take up thy bed, and walk.

9 And immediately the man was made whole, and took up his bed, and walked: and on the same day was the sabbath.

10 ¶ The Jews therefore said unto him that was cured, It is the sabbath day: [i] it is not lawful for thee to carry thy bed.

11 He answered them, He that made me whole, the same said unto me, Take up thy bed, and walk.

12 Then asked they him, What man is that which said unto thee, Take up thy bed, and walk?

13 And he that was healed wist not who it was: for [n] Jesus had conveyed himself away, a multitude being in that place.

14 Afterward Jesus findeth him in the temple, and said unto him, Behold, thou art made whole: [q] sin no more, lest a worse thing come unto thee.

15 The man departed, and told the Jews that it was Jesus, which had made him whole.

16 And therefore did the Jews persecute Jesus, and sought to slay him, [u] because he had done these things on the sabbath day.

17 ¶ But Jesus answered them, My Father worketh hitherto, and I work.

18 Therefore the Jews [a] sought the more to kill him, because he not only had broken the sabbath, but said also that God was his Father, [d] making himself equal with God.

19 Then answered Jesus and said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, [e] The Son can do nothing of himself, but what he seeth the Father do: for what things soever he doeth, these also doeth the Son likewise.

20 For [a] the Father loveth the Son, and sheweth him all things that himself doeth: and he will shew him [b] greater works than these, that ye may marvel.

21 For as the Father raiseth up the dead, and [c] quickeneth them; even so [d] the Son quickeneth whom he will.

22 For the Father judgeth no man, but [e] hath committed all judgment unto the Son:

23 That all men should honour the Son, even as they honour the Father. [g] He that honoureth not the Son honoureth not the Father which hath sent him.

24 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, [h] hath everlasting life, and [k] shall not come into condemnation; but [l] is passed from death unto life.

25 Verily, verily, I say unto you, [m] The hour is coming, and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God: and they that hear shall live.

26 For as the Father hath life in himself; so hath he given to the Son [o] to have life in himself;

27 And hath given him authority to execute judgment also, because he is the [p] Son of man.

28 [r] Marvel not at this: for the hour is coming, in the which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice,

29 And shall come forth; they that have done good, unto [s] the resurrection of life; and they that have done evil, unto [t] the resurrection of damnation.

30 [x] I can of mine own self do nothing: as I hear, I judge: and [y] my judgment is just; because [z] I seek not mine own will, but the will of the Father [b] which hath sent me.

31 [c] If I bear witness of myself, my witness is not true.

32 ¶ There is another that beareth witness of me; and I know that the witness which he witnesseth of me is true.

CHAPTER 6

[d] AFTER these things Jesus went over the sea of Galilee, which is the [e] sea of Tiberias.
2 And a great multitude followed him, because they saw his miracles which he did on them that were diseased.
3 And Jesus went up into a mountain, and there he sat with his disciples.
4 And the [d] passover, a [e] feast of the Jews, was nigh.
5 ¶ When Jesus then lifted up his eyes, and saw a great company come unto him, he saith unto [g] Philip, Whence shall we buy bread, that these may eat?
6 And this he said to prove him: for he himself knew what he would do.
7 Philip answered him, Two hundred pennyworth of bread is not sufficient for them, that every one of them may take a little.
8 One of his disciples, [l] Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, saith unto him,
9 There is a lad here, which hath five barley loaves, and two small fishes: but what are they among so many?
10 And Jesus said, Make the men sit down. Now there was much grass in the place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand.
11 And Jesus took the loaves; and when he had given thanks, he distributed to the disciples, and the disciples to them that were set down; and likewise of the fishes as much as they would.
12 When they were filled, he said unto his disciples, Gather up the fragments that remain, that nothing be lost.
13 Therefore they gathered them together, and filled twelve baskets with the fragments of the five barley loaves, which remained over and above unto them that had eaten.
14 Then those men, when they had seen the miracle that Jesus did, said, This is of a truth [b] that prophet that should come into the world.
15 ¶ [c] When Jesus therefore perceived that they would come and take him by force, to make him a king, he departed again into a mountain himself alone.
16 And when even was now come, his disciples went down unto the sea,
17 And entered into a ship, and went over the sea toward [f] Cā-pĕr-nă-ŭm. And it was now dark, and Jesus was not come to them.

18 And the sea arose by reason of a great wind that blew.

19 So when they had rowed about five and twenty or thirty furlongs, they see Jesus walking on the sea, and drawing nigh unto the ship: and they were afraid.

20 But he saith unto them, It is I; be not afraid.

21 Then they willingly received him into the ship: and immediately the ship was at the land whither they went.

22 ¶ The day following, when the people which stood on the other side of the sea saw that there was none other boat there, save that one whereinto his disciples were entered, and that Jesus went not with his disciples into the boat, but that his disciples were gone away alone;

23 (Howbeit there came other boats from Tiberias nigh unto the place where they did eat bread, after that the Lord had given thanks:)

24 [l] When the people therefore saw that Jesus was not there, neither his disciples, they also took shipping, and came to Că-pĕr-nă-ŭm, seeking for Jesus.

25 And when they had found him on the other side of the sea, they said unto him, Rabbi, when camest thou hither?

26 Jesus answered them and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Ye seek me, not because ye saw the miracles, but because ye did eat of the loaves, and were filled.

27 [r] Labour not for the meat which perisheth, but for that meat which endureth unto [t] everlasting life, which the [u] Son of man shall give unto you: for him hath God the Father [x] sealed.

28 Then said they unto him, [y] What shall we do, that we might work the works of God?

29 Jesus answered and said unto them, [a] This is the work of God, [b] that ye believe on him [c] whom he hath sent.

30 They said therefore unto him, [e] What sign shewest thou then, that we may see, and believe thee? what dost thou work?

31 Our fathers did eat [q] manna in the desert; as it is written, [b] He gave them [c] bread from heaven to eat.

32 Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Moses gave you not that bread from heaven; but my Father giveth you the true bread from heaven.

33 For the bread of God is he ¶ which cometh down from heaven, and giveth life unto the world.

34 Then said they unto him, Lord, [e] evermore give us this bread.

35 And Jesus said unto them, I am the bread of life: he that cometh to me [f] shall never hunger; and he that believeth on me shall never thirst.

36 But I said unto you, That ye also have seen me, and believe not.

37 [g] All that the Father giveth me shall come to me; and [h] him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out.

38 For [i] I came down from heaven, [k] not to do mine own will, but the will of him that sent me.

39 And [m] this is the Father's will which hath sent me, that of all which he hath given me I should lose nothing, but [n] should raise it up again at [o] the last day.

40 And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which [p] seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day.

41 The Jews then murmured at him, because he said, I am the bread which came down from heaven.

42 And they said, [q] Is not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother [s] we know? how is it then that he saith, I came down from heaven?

43 Jesus therefore answered and said unto them, Murmur not among yourselves.

44 No man can come to me, except the Father which hath sent me [z] draw him: and I will raise him up at the last day.

45 It is written in the prophets, [d] And they shall be all taught of God. Every man therefore that hath heard, and hath learned of the Father, cometh unto me.

Father, save [a] he which is of God, he hath seen the Father.

47 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.

48 I am that bread of life.

49 [c] Your fathers did eat manna in the wilderness, and are dead.

50 This is the bread [d] which cometh down from heaven, that a man may eat thereof, and not die.

51 I am the living bread which came down from heaven: if any man eat of this bread, he shall live for ever: and the bread that I will give is [f] my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world.

52 The Jews therefore [g] strove among themselves, saying, [h] How can this man give us his flesh to eat?

53 Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except ye eat the flesh of the Son of man, and [m] drink his blood, ye have no life in you.

54 Whoso eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day.

55 For my flesh is meat indeed, and my blood is drink indeed.

56 He that eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, [q] dwelleth in me, and I in him.

57 As [s] the living Father hath sent me, and I live by the Father: so he that eateth me, even he shall live by me.

58 This is that bread which came down from heaven: not as your fathers did eat manna, and are dead: he that eateth of this bread shall live for ever.

59 These things said he in the synagogue, as he taught in Că-pĕr-nă-ŭm.

60 Many therefore of his disciples, when they had heard this, said, This is [a] an hard saying; who can hear it?

61 When Jesus knew in himself that his disciples murmured at it, he said unto them, Doth this offend you?

62 What and if ye shall see the Son of man [c] ascend up where he was before?

63 It is the [e] spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing: [g] the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life.

64 But there are some of you that believe not. For Jesus knew from the beginning who they were that believed not, and [b] who should betray him.

65 And he said, Therefore said I unto you, that [e] no man can come unto me, except it were given unto him of my Father.

66 ¶ From that time many of his disciples went back, and walked no more with him.

67 Then said Jesus unto the twelve, Will ye also go away?

68 Then Simon Peter answered him, Lord, to whom shall we go? thou hast [i] the words of eternal life.

69 And we believe and are sure that [k] thou art [2] that Christ, the Son of the living God.

70 Jesus answered them, [l] Have not I chosen you twelve, and one of you is [n] a devil?

71 He spake of [o] Judas Iscariot the son of Simon: for he it was that [p] should betray him, being one of the twelve.

CHAPTER 7

AFTER these things Jesus walked in Galilee: for he [r] would not walk in Jewry, because [t] the Jews sought to kill him.

2 Now [u] the Jews' [x] feast of tabernacles was at hand.

3 [y] His brethren therefore said unto him, Depart hence, and go into Judæa, that thy disciples also may see the works that thou doest.

4 For there is no man that doeth any thing in secret, and he himself seeketh to be known openly. If thou do these things, [z] shew thyself to the world.

5 For neither did his brethren believe in him.

6 Then Jesus said unto them, [b] My time is not yet come: but your time is alway ready.

7 The world cannot hate you; but [d] me it hateth, because I testify of it, that [f] the works thereof are evil.

8 Go ye up unto this feast: I go not 10 ¶ But when his brethren were gone up, then went he also up unto the feast, not openly, but as it were in secret.

11 Then the Jews [b] sought him at the feast, and said, Where is he?

12 And there was much [d] murmuring among the people concerning him: for some said, He is a good man: others said, Nay; but he deceiveth the people.

13 Howbeit no man spake openly of him [e] for fear of the Jews.

14 ¶ Now about the midst of the feast Jesus went up into the temple, and taught.

15 And the Jews marvelled, saying, How knoweth this man letters, [n] having never learned?

16 Jesus answered them, and said, [p] My doctrine is not mine, but [q] his that sent me.

17 [r] If any man will do his will, he shall know of the doctrine, [s] whether it be of God, or whether I speak of myself.

18 He that speaketh of himself [t] seeketh his own glory: but he that seeketh his glory that sent him, the same is true, and no unrighteousness is in him.

19 [y] Did not Moses give you the law, and yet none of you keepeth the law? Why go ye about to kill me?

20 The people answered and said, [z] Thou hast a devil: who goeth about to kill thee?

21 Jesus answered and said unto them, [c] I have done one work, and ye all marvel.

22 [d] Moses therefore gave unto you circumcision; (not because it is of Moses, but [e] of the fathers;) and ye on the sabbath day circumcise a man.

23 If a man on the sabbath day receive circumcision, that the law of Moses should not be broken; are ye angry at me, because I have made a man every whit whole on the sabbath day?

24 [m] Judge not according to the appearance, but [a] judge righteous judgment.

25 Then said some of them of Jerusalem, Is not this he, whom they seek to kill?

26 But, lo, he speaketh boldly, and they say nothing unto him. Do the rulers know indeed that this is the very Christ?

27 Howbeit [c] we know this man whence he is: but when Christ cometh, no man knoweth whence he is.

28 Then cried Jesus in the temple as he taught, saying, Ye both know me, and ye know whence I am: and I am not come of myself, but he that sent me [f] is true, [g] whom ye know not.

29 But [h] I know him: for [i] I am from him, and [k] he hath sent me.

30 Then [l] they sought to take him: but [m] no man laid hands on him, because his hour was not yet come.

31 And [o] many of the people believed on him, and said, When Christ cometh, will he do more miracles than these which this man hath done?

32 ¶ The Pharisees heard that the people murmured such things concerning him; and the Pharisees and the chief priests sent officers to take him.

33 Then said Jesus unto them, [u] Yet a little while am I with you, and then [x] I go unto him that sent me.

34 [x] Ye shall seek me, and shall not find me: and where I am, thither ye cannot come.

35 Then said the Jews among themselves, Whither will he go, that we shall not find him? will he go unto the [2a] dispersed among the [3b] Gentiles, and teach the Gentiles?

36 What manner of saying is this that he said, Ye shall seek me, and shall not find me: and where I am, thither ye cannot come?

37 [f] In the last day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried, saying, [g] If any man thirst, [h] let him come unto me, and drink.

38 [i] He that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, [k] out of his belly shall flow rivers of [l] living water.

39 (But this spake he of the Spirit, [n] which they that believe on him

40 ¶ Many of the people therefore, when they heard this saying, said, Of a truth this is [d] the Prophet.

41 Others said, This is [f] the Christ. But some said, [g] Shall Christ come out of Galilee?

42 [h] Hath not the scripture said, That Christ cometh of [i] the seed of David, and out of the town of [k] Bethlehem, where David was?

43 So there was [l] a division among the people because of him.

CHAPTER 8

JESUS went unto the [y] mount of Olives.

2 And [b] early in the morning he came again into the temple, and all the people came unto him; and he sat down, and taught them.

3 And the scribes and Pharisees brought unto him a woman [f] taken in adultery; and when they had set her in the midst,

4 They say unto him, Master, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act.

5 Now Moses in the law commanded us, [c] that such should be stoned: but what sayest thou?

6 This they said, [e] tempting him, that they might have to accuse him. But Jesus stooped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground, as though he heard them not.

7 So when they continued asking him, he lifted up himself, and said unto them, He that is without sin among you, let him [m] first cast a stone at her.

8 And again he stooped down, and wrote on the ground.

9 And they which heard it, being convicted by their own conscience, went out one by one, beginning at the eldest, even unto the last: and Jesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the midst.

10 When Jesus had lifted up himself, and saw none but the woman, he said unto her, Woman, where are those thine accusers? hath no man condemned thee?

11 She said, No man, Lord. And Jesus said unto her, Neither do I condemn thee: go, and [q] sin no more.

12 ¶ Then spake Jesus again unto them, saying, [r] I am the light of the world: he that [s] followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life.

13 The Pharisees therefore said unto him, [u] Thou bearest record of thyself; thy record is not true.

14 Jesus answered and said unto them, Though I bear record of myself, yet my record is true: for I know whence I came, and whither I go; but ye cannot tell whence I come, and whither I go.

15 [c] Ye judge after the flesh; [a] I judge no man.

16 And yet if I judge, my [c] judgment is true: for [d] I am not alone, but I and the Father [e] that sent me.

17 It is also written in your law, that [g] the testimony of two men is true.

18 I am one that bear witness of myself, and [h] the Father that sent me beareth witness of me.

19 Then said they unto him, Where is thy Father? Jesus answered, [a] Ye neither know me, [b] nor my Father: [c] if ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also.

20 These words spake Jesus in [e] the treasury, as he taught in the temple: and [g] no man laid hands on him; [h] for his hour was not yet come.

21 Then said Jesus again unto them, [k] I go my way, and [l] ye shall seek me, and shall die in your sins: whither I go, ye cannot come.

22 Then said the Jews, [n] Will he kill himself? because he saith, Whither I go, ye cannot come.

23 And he said unto them, [q] Ye are from beneath; [r] I am from above: [s] ye are of this world; [u] I am not of this world.

24 I said therefore unto you, that ye shall die in your sins: for if ye believe not that [x] I am he, ye shall die in your sins.

25 Then said they unto him, Who art thou? And Jesus saith unto them, Even the same that I said unto you from the beginning.

26 I have many things to say and to judge of you: but [a] he that sent me is true; and [b] I speak to the world those things which I have heard of him.

27 [d] They understood not that [e] he spake to them of the Father.

28 Then said Jesus unto them, When ye have [f] lifted up the [g] Son of man, then shall ye know that I am he, and that I [i] do nothing of myself; but as my Father hath taught me, I speak these things.

29 And he that sent me is with me: [l] the Father hath not left me alone; for [m] I do always those things that please him.

30 As he spake these words, [n] many believed on him.

31 Then said Jesus to those Jews which believed on him, [o] If ye continue in my word, [p] then are ye my disciples indeed;

32 And ye shall [r] know [s] the truth, and the truth shall [t] make you free.

33 ¶ They answered him, We be [u] Abraham's seed, and were never in bondage to any man: how sayest thou, Ye shall be made free?

34 Jesus answered them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, [d] Whosoever committeth sin is the servant of sin.

35 And [f] the servant abideth not in the house for ever: but the Son abideth ever.

36 If [i] the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed.

37 I know that ye are Abraham's seed; but [m] ye seek to kill me, because my word hath no place in you.

38 [o] I speak that which I have seen with my Father: and ye do that which ye have seen with [b] your father.

39 They answered and said unto him, Abraham is [t] our father. Jesus saith unto them, If ye were Abraham's children, ye would do the works of Abraham.

40 But now ye seek to kill me, a man that hath told you the truth, which I have heard of God: this did not Abraham.

41 Ye do the deeds of your father. Then said they to him, [y] We be not born of fornication; [z] we have one Father, even God.

42 Jesus said unto them, If God were your Father, ye would love me: for [c] I proceeded forth and came from God; neither came I of myself, but he sent me.

43 Why do ye not understand my speech? even because ye cannot hear my word.

44 Ye are of [h] your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. [k] He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it.

45 And because I tell you the truth, ye believe me not.

46 Which of you convinceth me of sin? And if I say the truth, why do ye not believe me?

47 [q] He that is of God heareth God's words: ye therefore hear them not, because ye are not of God.

48 Then answered the Jews, and said unto him, Say we not well that

4 [b] I must work the works of [c] him that sent me, [d] while it is day: the night cometh, when no man can work.

5 As long as [e] I am in the world, I am the light of the world.

6 When he had thus spoken, [g] he spat on the ground, and made clay of the spittle, and he anointed the eyes of the blind man with the clay,

7 And said unto him, Go, [i] wash in the pool of [k] Siloam, (which is by interpretation, Sent.) He went his way therefore, and washed, and came seeing.

8 ¶ The neighbours therefore, and they which before had seen him that he was blind, said, [n] Is not this he that sat and begged?

9 Some said, This is he: others said, He is like him: but he said, I am he.

10 Therefore said they unto him, How were thine eyes opened?

11 He answered and said, A man that is called Jesus made clay, and anointed mine eyes, and said unto me, Go to the pool of Siloam, and wash: and I went and washed, and I received sight.

12 Then said they unto him, Where is he? He said, I know not.

13 ¶ They brought to the Pharisees him that aforetime was blind.

14 And [r] it was the sabbath day when Jesus made the clay, and opened his eyes.

15 Then again the Pharisees also asked him how he had received his sight. He said unto them, He put clay upon mine eyes, and I washed, and do see.

16 Therefore said some of the Pharisees, [x] This man is not of God, because he keepeth not the sabbath day. Others said, How can a man that is a sinner do such miracles? And [y] there was a division among them.

17 They say unto the blind man again, What sayest thou of him, that he hath opened thine eyes? He said, [b] He is a prophet.

18 But the Jews did not believe concerning him, that he had been blind, and received his sight, until they called the parents of him that had received his sight.

A.D. 32

19 And they asked them, saying, Is this your son, who ye say was born blind? how then doth he now see?

20 His parents answered them and said, We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind:

21 But by what means he now seeth, we know not; or who hath opened his eyes, we know not: he is of age; ask him: he shall speak for himself.

22 These words spake his parents, [c] because they feared the Jews: for the Jews had agreed already, that if any man did confess that he was Christ, he should be [e] put out of the synagogue.

23 Therefore said his parents, He is of age; ask him.

24 Then again called they the man that was blind, and said unto him, [g] Give God the praise: we know that this man is a sinner.

25 He answered and said, Whether he be a sinner or no, I know not: one thing I know, that, whereas I was blind, now I see.

26 Then said they to him again, What did he to thee? how opened he thine eyes?

27 He answered them, I have told you already, and ye did not hear: wherefore would ye hear it again? will ye also be his disciples?

28 Then they reviled him, and said, Thou art his disciple; but [i] we are Moses' disciples.

29 [k] We know that God spake unto Moses: as for this fellow, we know not from whence he is.

30 The man answered and said unto them, Why herein is a marvellous thing, that ye know not from whence he is, and yet he hath opened mine eyes.

31 Now we know that [l] God heareth not sinners: but if any man be a worshipper of God, and [p] doeth his will, him he heareth.

32 Since the world began was it not heard that any man opened the eyes of one that was born blind.

33 [q] If this man were not of God, he could do nothing.

34 They answered and said unto him, [r] Thou wast altogether born in sins, and dost thou teach us? And they cast him out.

35 Jesus heard that they had cast him out; and when he had found him, he said unto him, [a] Dost thou believe on the Son of God?

36 He answered and said, Who is he, Lord, that I might believe on him?

37 And Jesus said unto him, Thou hast both seen him, and [b] it is he that talketh with thee.

38 And he said, Lord, I believe. And he worshipped him.

39 ¶ And Jesus said, [d] For judgment I am come into this world, [f] that they which see not might see; and that they which see might be made blind.

40 And some of the Pharisees which were with him heard these words, and said unto him, Are we blind also?

41 Jesus said unto them, If ye were blind, [h] ye should have no sin: but now ye say, We see; therefore your sin remaineth.

CHAPTER 10

VERILY, verily, I say unto you, He that entereth not by the door into the sheepfold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber.

2 But he that entereth in by the door is the shepherd of the sheep.

3 To him the porter openeth; and the sheep hear his voice; and he calleth his own sheep by name, and leadeth them out.

4 And when he putteth forth his own sheep, he goeth before them, and the sheep follow him: for they know his voice.

5 And a stranger will they not follow, but will flee from him: for they know not the voice of strangers.

6 This [m] parable spake Jesus [n] unto them: but [o] they understood not what things they were which he spake unto them.

16 And [z] other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be [3c] one fold, and one shepherd.

17 [e] Therefore doth my Father love me, because I lay down my life, that I might take it again.

18 No man taketh it from me, but I lay it down of myself. I have [4] power to lay it down, and I have power [f] to take it again. [i] This commandment have I received of my Father.

19 ¶ [k] There was a division therefore again among the Jews for these sayings.

20 And many of them said, [l] He hath a devil, and [m] is mad; why hear ye him?

21 Others said, These are not the words of him that hath a devil. [o] Can a devil open the eyes of the blind?

22 ¶ And it was at Jerusalem the feast of the [r] dedication, and it was winter.

23 And Jesus walked in the temple in [u] Solomon's [x] porch.

24 Then came the Jews round about him, and said unto him, How long dost thou make us to doubt? If thou be the Christ, tell us plainly.

25 Jesus answered them, I told you, and ye believed not: [b] the works that I do [c] in my Father's name, they bear witness of me.

26 But ye believe not, because ye are not of my sheep, as I said unto you.

27 My sheep hear my voice, and [f] I know them, and [h] they follow me:

28 And I give unto them [k] eternal life; and they [t] shall never perish, [m] neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand.

29 My Father, [n] which gave them me, [p] is greater than all; and no man is able to pluck them out of [q] my Father's hand.

30 [r] I and my Father are one.

31 Then the Jews [s] took up stones again to stone him.

32 Jesus answered them, Many good works have I shewed you from my Father; for which of those works do ye stone me?

33 The Jews answered him, saying, For a good work we stone thee not; but for [a] blasphemy; and because that thou, being a man, [b] makest thyself God.

34 Jesus answered them, Is it not written in your law, [d] I said, Ye are gods?

35 If he called them gods, unto whom the word of God came, and the scripture cannot be broken;

36 Say ye of him, whom the Father hath [g] sanctified, and [h] sent into the world, Thou blasphemest; because I said, I am the Son of God?

37 If I do not the works of my Father, believe me not.

38 But if I do, though ye believe not me, believe the works: that ye may know, and believe, that [n] the Father is in me, and I in him.

39 Therefore they [p] sought again to take him: but [q] he escaped out of their hand,

40 And went away again beyond Jordan [s] into the place [t] where John at first baptized; and there he abode.

41 And many resorted unto him, and said, John did no miracle: but all things that [y] John spake of this man were true.

42 And [z] many believed on him there.

CHAPTER 11

A.D. 33

NOW a certain man was sick, named [b] Lazarus, of [c] Bethany, the town of [d] Mary and her sister [e] Martha.

2 (It was that Mary which [f] anointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was sick.)

3 Therefore his sisters sent unto him, saying, Lord, behold, he whom thou lovest is sick.

4 When Jesus heard that, he said, This sickness is not unto death, [h] but for the glory of God, that the Son of God [k] might be glorified thereby.

5 Now Jesus loved Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus.

6 When he had heard therefore that he was sick, he abode two days still [m] in the same place where he was.

7 Then after that saith he to his disciples, Let us go into Judæa again.

8 His disciples say unto him, Master, the Jews of late sought to stone thee; and goest thou thither again?

9 Jesus answered, Are there not twelve hours in the day? [s] If any man walk in the day, [t] he stumbleth not, because he seeth the light of this world.

10 But if a man [y] walk in the night, he stumbleth, because there is no light in him.

11 These things said he: and after that he saith unto them, Our friend Lazarus [z] sleepeth; but I go, that I may awake him out of sleep.

12 Then said his disciples, Lord, if he sleep, he shall do well.

13 Howbeit Jesus spake of his death: but they thought that he had spoken of taking of rest in sleep.

14 Then said Jesus unto them plainly, Lazarus is dead.

15 And I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, to the intent ye may believe; nevertheless let us go unto him.

16 Then said [a] Thomas, which is called [2] Dĭd'ў-mŭs, unto his fellow-disciples, Let us also go, that we may die with him.

17 Then when Jesus came, he found that he had lain in the grave [a] four days already.

18 Now Bethany was nigh unto Jerusalem, about fifteen furlongs off:

19 And many of the Jews came to Martha and Mary, to comfort them concerning their brother.

20 Then Martha, as soon as she heard that Jesus was coming, went and met him: but Mary sat still in the house.

21 Then said Martha unto Jesus, [g] Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.

22 But I know, that even now, whatsoever thou wilt ask of God, [i] God will give it thee.

23 Jesus saith unto her, Thy brother shall rise again.

24 Martha saith unto him, I know that he shall rise again [l] in the resurrection at [n] the last day.

25 Jesus said unto her, [o] I am the resurrection, and [p] the life: [q] he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live:

26 And whosoever liveth and believeth in me [r] shall never die. Believest thou this?

27 She saith unto him, Yea, Lord: I believe that thou art [u] the Christ, [x] the Son of God, which should come into the world.

28 And when she had so said, she went her way, and called Mary her sister secretly, saying, The Master is come, and calleth for thee.

29 As soon as she heard that, she arose quickly, and came unto him.

30 Now Jesus was not yet come into the town, but was in that place where Martha met him.

31 The Jews then which were with her in the house, and comforted her, when they saw Mary, that she rose up hastily and went out, followed her, saying, She goeth unto the grave to weep there.

32 Then when Mary was come where Jesus was, and saw him, she fell down at his feet, saying unto him, [b] Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.

33 When Jesus therefore saw her weeping, and the Jews also weeping which came with her, he [a] groaned in the spirit, and was troubled,

34 And said, Where have ye laid him? They said unto him, Lord, come and see.

35 [c] Jesus wept.

36 Then said the Jews, Behold how he loved him!

37 And some of them said, Could not this man, [d] which opened the eyes of the blind, have caused that even this man should not have died?

38 Jesus therefore again groaning in himself cometh to the grave. It was a cave, and [f] a stone lay upon it.

39 Jesus said, Take ye away the stone. Martha, the sister of him that was dead, saith unto him, Lord, by this time he stinketh: for he hath been dead [i] four days.

40 Jesus saith unto her, Said I not unto thee, that, if thou wouldest believe, thou shouldest see [m] the glory of God?

41 Then they took away the stone from the place where the dead was laid. And Jesus [n] lifted up his eyes, and said, Father, I thank thee that thou hast heard me.

42 And [r] I knew that thou hearest me always: but [s] because of the people which stand by I said it, that they may believe [x] that thou hast sent me.

43 And when he thus had spoken, he cried with a loud voice, Lazarus, come forth.

44 And he that was dead came forth, [y] bound hand and foot with grave-clothes: and his face was bound about with a [z] napkin. Jesus saith unto them, Loose him, and let him go.

45 Then [a] many of the Jews which came to Mary, and [c] had seen the things which Jesus did, believed on him.

46 But some of them went their ways to the Pharisees, and told them what things Jesus had done.

47 ¶ Then gathered the chief priests and the Pharisees a [h] council, and said, What do we? for this man doeth many miracles.

48 If we let him thus alone, all men will believe on him: and the Romans shall come and take away both our place and nation.

49 And one of them, named [b] Cāi'-ă-phăs, being the high priest that same year, said unto them, Ye know nothing at all,

50 Nor consider that it is expedient for us, that one man should die for the people, and that the whole nation perish not.

51 And this spake he not of himself: but being high priest that year, he prophesied [e] that Jesus should die for that nation;

52 And not for that nation only, but that also he should [g] gather together in one the [h] children of God that were scattered abroad.

53 Then from that day forth they [k] took counsel together for to put him to death.

54 Jesus therefore [l] walked no more openly among the Jews; but went thence unto a country near to the wilderness, into a city called E'-phrăĭm, and there continued with his disciples.

55 ¶ And [o] the Jews' [p] passover was nigh at hand: and [q] many went out of the country up to Jerusalem before the passover, [t] to purify themselves.

56 Then [u] sought they for Jesus, and spake among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What think ye, that he will not come to the feast?

57 Now both the chief priests and the Pharisees had given a commandment, that, if any man knew where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him.

CHAPTER 12

[b] THEN Jesus six days before the passover came to [d] Bethany, where [e] Lazarus was which had been dead, whom he raised from the dead.

2 There they [f] made him a supper; and [e] Martha [g] served: but Lazarus was one of them that sat at the table with him.

3 Then took [e] Mary a pound of ointment of [i] spikenard, very costly, and [k] anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped his feet with her hair: and the house was filled with the odour of the ointment.

4 Then saith one of his disciples, [a] Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, which should betray him,

5 Why was not this ointment sold for three hundred pence, and [d] given to the poor?

6 This he said, not that he cared for the poor; but because he was a thief, and had the bag, and bare what was put therein.

7 Then said Jesus, Let her alone: against the day of my burying hath she kept this.

8 For [i] the poor always ye have with you; but me ye have not always.

9 Much people of the Jews therefore knew that he was there: and they came not for Jesus' sake only, but that they might see Lazarus also, whom he had raised from the dead.

10 ¶ But the chief priests consulted that they might put Lazarus also to death;

11 Because that by reason of him [p] many of the Jews went away, and believed on Jesus.

12 ¶ [r] On the next day much people that were come to the feast, when they heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem,

13 Took branches of [y] palm trees, and went forth to meet him, and cried, Hosanna: [a] Blessed is the King of Israel that cometh in the name of the Lord.

14 And Jesus, when he had found a young ass, sat thereon; as it is written,

15 [d] Fear not, daughter of Sion: behold, thy King cometh, sitting on an ass's colt.

16 These things [e] understood not his disciples at the first: but [g] when Jesus was glorified, [h] then remembered they that these things were written of him, and that they had done these things unto him.

17 The people therefore that was with him when he called Lazarus out of his grave, and raised him from the dead, bare record.

18 For this cause the people also met him, for that they heard that he had done this miracle.

19 The Pharisees therefore said among themselves, Perceive ye how ye prevail nothing? [b] behold, the world is gone after him.

20 ¶ And there were certain [c] Greeks among them [e] that came up to worship at the feast:

21 The same came therefore to [f] Philip, which was of Bĕth-sā'ĭ-dă of Galilee, and desired him, saying, Sir, [g] we would see Jesus.

22 Philip cometh and telleth [h] Andrew: and again Andrew and Philip tell Jesus.

23 ¶ And Jesus answered them, saying, [k] The hour is come, that the [l] Son of man should be glorified.

24 Verily, verily, I say unto you, [m] Except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone: but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit.

25 [n] He that loveth his life shall lose it; and he that hateth his life in this world shall keep it unto life eternal.

26 If any man serve me, let him [o] follow me; and [q] where I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serve me, [s] him will my Father honour.

27 [t] Now is my soul troubled; and what shall I say? Father, [u] save me from this hour: but [x] for this cause came I unto this hour.

28 Father, glorify thy name. [z] Then came there a voice from heaven, saying, I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again.

29 The people therefore, that stood by, and [b] heard it, said that it thundered: others said, [c] An angel spake to him.

30 Jesus answered and said, This voice came not because of me, but [f] for your sakes.

31 Now is the judgment of this world: now shall [i] the prince of this world [k] be cast out.

32 And I, [l] if I be lifted up from the earth, [m] will draw all men unto me.

33 This he said, [n] signifying what death he should die.

34 The people answered him, We have heard out of the law that [o] Christ [p] abideth for ever: and how sayest thou, [q] The Son of man must be lifted up? who is this Son of man?

35 Then Jesus said unto them, [r] Yet a little while [a] is the light with you. Walk [b] while ye have the light, lest darkness come upon you: for [c] he that walketh in darkness knoweth not whither he goeth.

36 While ye have light, believe in the light, that ye may be the [d] children of light. These things spake Jesus, and departed, and [f] did hide himself from them.

37 ¶ But though he had done so many miracles before them, [k] yet they believed not on him:

38 That the saying of Ē-śâi'-ăs the prophet [n] might be fulfilled, which he spake, [o] Lord, who hath believed our report? and to whom hath the arm of the Lord been revealed?

39 Therefore they could not believe, because that Ē-śâi'-ăs said again,

40 [r] He hath blinded their eyes, and hardened their heart; that they should not see with their eyes, nor understand with their heart, and be converted, and I should heal them.

41 These things said Ē-śâi'-ăs, [t] when he saw his glory, and spake of him.

42 ¶ Nevertheless [x] among the chief rulers also many believed on him; but [y] because of the Pharisees [z] they did not confess him, lest they should be [a] put out of the synagogue:

43 For [b] they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God.

44 ¶ Jesus cried and said, [c] He that believeth on me, believeth not on me, but on [d] him that sent me.

45 And he that [e] seeth me seeth him that sent me.

46 [f] I am come a light into the world, that whosoever believeth on me should not abide in darkness.

48 He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my words, hath one that judgeth him: the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in [n] the last day.

49 For [o] I have not spoken of myself; but the Father which sent me, he [q] gave me a commandment, what I should say, and what I should speak.

50 And I know that his commandment is life everlasting: whatsoever I speak therefore, even as the Father said unto me, so I speak.

CHAPTER 13

NOW before the feast of the passover, when Jesus [e] knew that [g] his hour was come that he [h] should depart out of this world unto the Father, [i] having loved his own which were in the world, he loved them unto the end.

2 [l] And supper being ended, [m] the devil having now put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, to betray him;

3 Jesus knowing that [p] the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he was [q] come from God, and went to God;

4 He riseth from supper, and laid aside his garments; and [s] took a towel, and girded himself.

5 After that he poureth water into a bason, and began [u] to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel wherewith he was girded.

6 Then cometh he to Simon Peter: and Peter saith unto him, Lord, dost thou wash my feet?

7 Jesus answered and said unto him, What I do thou knowest not now; but thou shalt know hereafter.

8 Peter saith unto him, Thou shalt never wash my feet. Jesus answered him, If I wash thee not, thou hast no part with me.

9 Simon Peter saith unto him, Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head.

10 Jesus saith to him, [g] He that is [2] washed needeth not save [h] to wash his feet, but is clean every whit: and [l] ye are clean, but not all.

11 For [m] he knew who should betray him; therefore said he, Ye are not all clean.

12 So after he had washed their feet, and had taken his garments, and was set down again, he said unto them, Know ye what I have done to you?

13 [p] Ye call me Master and Lord: and ye say well; for so I am.

14 If I then, your Lord and Master, have washed your feet; ye also ought to wash one another's feet.

15 For [a] I have given you an example, that ye should do as I have done to you.

16 Verily, verily, I say unto you, [e] The servant is not greater than his lord; neither he that is sent greater than he that sent him.

17 If ye know these things, [f] happy are ye if ye do them.

18 ¶ I speak not of you all: [i] I know [k] whom I have chosen: but [l] that the scripture may be fulfilled, [m] He that eateth bread with me hath lifted up his heel against me.

19 Now [p] I tell you before it come, that, when it is come to pass, ye may believe [r] that I am he.

20 [s] Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that receiveth whomsoever I send receiveth me; and he that receiveth me receiveth [t] him that sent me.

21 [x] When Jesus had thus said, [y] he was troubled in spirit, and testified, and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, that one of you shall betray me.

22 Then the disciples looked one on another, doubting of whom he spake.

23 Now there was [c] leaning on Jesus' bosom one of his disciples, [e] whom Jesus loved.

24 Simon Peter therefore beckoned to him, that he should ask who it should be of whom he spake.

25 He then lying on Jesus' breast saith unto him, Lord, who is it?

26 Jesus answered, He it is, to whom I shall give a sop, when I have dipped it. And when he had dipped the sop, he gave it to Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon.

27 [i] And after the sop [k] Satan entered into him. Then said Jesus unto him, That thou doest, do quickly.

28 Now no man at the table knew for what intent he spake this unto him.

29 For some of them thought, because Judas had the bag, that Jesus had said unto him, Buy those things that we have need of against the feast; or, that he [p] should give something to the poor.

30 He then having received the sop went immediately out: and it was night.

31 ¶ Therefore, when he was gone out, Jesus said, Now is the [b] Son of man glorified, and [c] God is [d] glorified in him.

32 If God be glorified in him, God shall also glorify him in himself, and shall straightway glorify him.

33 Little children, [g] yet a little while I am with you. [h] Ye shall seek me: and as I said unto the Jews, Whither I go, ye cannot come; so now I say to you.

34 [n] A new commandment I give unto you, [o] That ye love one another; [q] as I have loved you, that ye also love one another.

35 By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another.

36 ¶ Simon Peter said unto him, Lord, [u] whither goest thou? Jesus answered him, Whither I go, [z] thou canst not follow me now; but [a] thou shalt follow me afterwards.

37 [b] Peter said unto him, Lord, why cannot I follow thee now? I will lay down my life for thy sake.

38 [d] Jesus answered him, Wilt thou lay down thy life for my sake? Verily, verily, I say unto thee, The cock shall not crow, till thou hast denied me thrice.

CHAPTER 14

[f] LET not your heart be troubled: [g] ye believe in God, believe also in me.

2 In my Father's house are many [z] mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. [h] I go to prepare a place for you.

3 And if I go and prepare a place for you, [i] I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that [m] where I am, there ye may be also.

4 And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know.

5 [n] Thomas saith unto him, Lord, [o] we know not whither thou goest; and how can we know the way?

6 Jesus saith unto him, I am [q] the way, the truth, and [r] the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.

22 [b] Judas saith unto him, not Iscariot, Lord, how is it that thou [c] wilt manifest thyself unto us, and not unto the world?

23 Jesus answered and said unto him, [e] If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and [g] we will come unto him, and make our abode with him.

24 He that loveth me not keepeth not my sayings: and [k] the word which ye hear is not mine, but the Father's [m] which sent me.

25 These things have I spoken unto you, being yet present with you.

26 But the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, [o] he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you.

27 [q] Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. [s] Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.

28 Ye have heard how [x] I said unto you, I go away, and come again unto you. If ye loved me, ye would rejoice, because I said, I go unto the Father: for my Father [a] is greater than I.

29 And now [c] I have told you before it come to pass, that, when it is come to pass, ye might believe.

30 Hereafter I will not talk much with you: for [g] the prince of this world cometh, and [h] hath nothing in me.

31 But that [i] the world may know that I love the Father; and [k] as the Father gave me commandment, even so I do. Arise, let us go hence.

CHAPTER 15

I AM [o] the true vine, and my Father is [q] the husbandman.

2 Every branch in me that beareth not fruit [t] he taketh away: and every branch that beareth fruit, he purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit.

3 Now [x] ye are clean through the word which I have spoken unto you.

4 [s] Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine; no more can ye, except ye abide in me.

5 I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing.

6 If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered; and men gather them, and [d] cast them into the fire, and they are burned.

7 [g] If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, [h] ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you.

8 [i] Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit; [m] so shall ye be my disciples.

9 [n] As the Father hath loved me, [o] so have I loved you: continue ye in my love.

10 [q] If ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love; even [r] as I have kept my Father's commandments, and abide in his love.

11 These things have I spoken unto you, that [u] my joy might remain in you, and that [x] your joy might be full.

12 This is my commandment, [a] That ye love one another, as I have loved you.

13 Greater love hath no man than this, [d] that a man lay down his life for his friends.

14 Ye are [f] my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you.

15 Henceforth I call you not servants; for the servant knoweth not what his lord doeth: but I have called you friends; for [g] all things that I have heard of my Father I have made known unto you.

16 Ye have not chosen me, but [i] I have chosen you, and ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain: that whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in my name, he may give it you.

17 These things I command you, that ye love one another.

18 [o] If the world hate you, ye know that [p] it hated me before it hated you.

19 [q] If ye were of the world, the world would love his own: but because [s] ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you.

20 Remember the word that I said unto you, [a] The servant is not greater than his lord. If they have persecuted me, [b] they will also persecute you; if they have kept my saying, they will keep your's also.

21 But all these things will they do unto you [c] for my name's sake, because [e] they know not [f] him that sent me.

22 If I had not come and spoken unto them, [i] they had not had sin: but now [k] they have no [2] cloke for their sin.

23 He that hateth me hateth my Father also.

24 [p] If I had not done among them the works which none other man did, they had not had sin: but now have they both seen and hated both me and my Father.

25 But this cometh to pass, [s] that the word might be fulfilled that is written in their law, [t] They hated me without a cause.

26 [y] But when the [3z] Comforter is come, whom I will send unto you from the Father, even the [b] Spirit of truth, which proceedeth from the Father, [c] he shall testify of me:

27 And [e] ye also shall bear witness, because ye have been with me from the beginning.

CHAPTER 16

THESE things have I spoken unto you, that ye should not be offended.

2 [h] They shall put you out of the synagogues: yea, the time cometh, that whosoever killeth you [k] will think that he doeth God service.

3 And these things will they do unto you, because [l] they have not known the Father, [m] nor me.

4 But [n] these things have I told you, that when the time shall come, ye may remember that I told you of them. And these things I said not unto you at the beginning, because I was with you.

5 But now [r] I go my way to him that sent me; and [t] none of you asketh me, Whither goest thou?

6 But because I have said these things unto you, [a] sorrow hath filled your heart.

7 Nevertheless I tell you the truth; It is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, the [2c] Comforter will not come unto you; but if I depart, [d] I will send him unto you.

8 And when he is come, [e] he will reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment:

9 Of sin, because they believe not on me;

10 Of righteousness, because I go to my Father, and ye see me no more;

11 Of judgment, because the [i] prince of this world [k] is judged.

12 I have yet many things to say unto you, but [m] ye cannot bear them now.

13 Howbeit when he, [o] the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will shew you things to come.

14 [q] He shall glorify me: for he shall receive of mine, and shall shew it unto you.

15 [r] All things that the Father hath are mine: therefore said I, that he shall take of mine, and shall shew it unto you.

16 [s] A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me, because I go to the Father.

17 Then said some of his disciples among themselves, What is this that he saith unto us, A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me: and, Because I go to the Father?

18 They said therefore, What is this that he saith, A little while? [b] we cannot tell what he saith.

19 Now Jesus knew that they were desirous to ask him, and said unto them, Do ye enquire among yourselves of that I said, A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me?

20 Verily, verily, I say unto you, That [f] ye shall weep and lament, but the world shall rejoice: and ye shall be sorrowful, but [i] your sorrow shall be turned into joy.

21 A woman when she is in travail [b] hath sorrow, because her hour is come: but as soon as she is delivered of the child, she remembereth no more the anguish, for joy that a man is born into the world.

22 And ye now therefore have sorrow: but [f] I will see you again, and your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no man taketh from you.

23 And [g] in that day ye shall ask me nothing. Verily, verily, I say unto you, [h] Whatsoever ye shall ask the Father in my name, he will give it you.

24 Hitherto have ye asked nothing in my name: [l] ask, and ye shall receive, [n] that your joy may be full.

25 These things have I spoken unto you in [3p] proverbs: but the time cometh, when I shall no more speak unto you in proverbs, but I shall shew you plainly of the Father.

26 At that day ye shall ask in my name: and [r] I say not unto you, that I will pray the Father for you:

27 [s] For the Father himself loveth you, [u] because ye have loved me, and [x] have believed that I came out from God.

28 [y] I came forth from the Father, and am come into the world: again, I leave the world, and go to the Father.

29 His disciples said unto him, Lo, now speakest thou plainly, and speakest no proverb.

30 Now are we sure that [a] thou knowest all things, and needest not that any man should ask thee: by this we believe, that thou camest forth from God.

31 Jesus answered them, Do ye now believe?

32 Behold, [c] the hour cometh, yea, is now come, that [d] ye shall be scattered, every man to his own, and shall leave me alone: and yet [e] I am not alone, because the Father is with me.

33 These things I have spoken unto you, that [g] in me ye might have peace. [h] In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; [k] I have overcome the world.

CHAPTER 17

THESE words spake Jesus, and [b] lifted up his eyes to heaven, and said, Father, [e] the hour is come; [g] glorify thy Son, that thy Son also [h] may glorify thee:

2 [k] As thou hast given him power over all flesh, that he should give [l] eternal life to as many [m] as thou hast given him.

3 And this is life eternal, [n] that they might know thee [o] the only true God, and Jesus Christ, [q] whom thou hast sent.

4 [t] I have glorified thee on the earth: [x] I have finished the work which thou gavest me to do.

5 And now, O Father, glorify thou me with thine own self with the glory which I had [z] with thee [a] before the world was.

6 [c] I have manifested thy name unto the men which thou gavest me out of the world: thine they were, and thou gavest them me; and they have kept thy word.

7 Now they have known that all things whatsoever thou hast given me are of thee.

8 For [f] I have given unto them the words which thou gavest me; and they have received them, and [h] have known surely that I came out from thee, and they have believed that thou didst send me.

9 [m] I pray for them: I pray not for the world, but for them which thou hast given me; for they are thine.

10 And [p] all mine are thine, and thine are mine; and [q] I am glorified in them.

11 And now I am no more in the world, but these are in the world, and [t] I come to thee. [u] Holy Father, [y] keep through thine own name those whom thou hast given me, [z] that they may be one, [a] as we are.

12 While I was with them in the world, I kept them in thy name: those that thou gavest me I have kept, and [d] none of them is lost, [e] but the son of perdition; [f] that the scripture might be fulfilled.

13 And now come I to thee; and these things I speak in the world, that they might have [a] my joy fulfilled in themselves.

14 I have given them thy word; and [c] the world hath hated them, [d] because they are not of the world, [f] even as I am not of the world.

15 I pray not that [i] thou shouldest take them out of the world, but that thou shouldest keep them from the evil.

16 They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.

17 [p] Sanctify them through thy truth: [r] thy word is truth.

18 [s] As thou hast sent me into the world, [u] even so have I also sent them into the world.

19 And for their sakes [y] I sanctify myself, that they also might be sanctified through the truth.

20 Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also which [b] shall believe on me through their word;

21 That they all may be one; [d] as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us: that the world may believe that thou hast sent me.

22 [e] And the glory which thou gavest me I have given them; that they may be one, even as we are one:

23 [g] I in them, and thou in me, that they may be made perfect in one; and that [i] the world may know that thou hast sent me, and [k] hast loved them, [l] as thou hast loved me.

24 Father, I will that they also, whom thou hast given me, [n] be with me where I am; that they [o] may behold my glory, which thou hast given me: for thou lovedst me [r] before the foundation of the world.

25 O righteous Father, [s] the world hath not known thee: but [x] I have known thee, and these have known that thou hast sent me.

26 And [b] I have declared unto them thy name, and will declare it: that the love wherewith thou hast loved me may be in them, and [c] I in them.

where was a garden, into the which he entered, and his disciples.

2 And Judas also, which betrayed him, knew the place: for Jesus oftimes resorted thither with his disciples.

3 [c] Judas then, having received a band of men and officers from the chief priests and Pharisees, cometh thither with lanterns and torches and weapons.

4 Jesus therefore, [d] knowing all things that should come upon him, went forth, and said unto them, [e] Whom seek ye?

5 They answered him, Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus saith unto them, I am he. And Judas also, which betrayed him, stood with them.

6 As soon then as he had said unto them, I am he, they went backward, and fell to the ground.

7 Then asked he them again, Whom seek ye? And they said, Jesus of Nazareth.

8 Jesus answered, I have told you that I am he: if therefore ye seek me, let these go their way:

9 [i] That the saying might be fulfilled, which he spake, Of them which thou gavest me have I lost none.

10 Then [l] Simon Peter having a sword drew it, and smote the high priest's servant, and cut off his right ear. The servant's name was Mălchŭs.

11 Then said Jesus unto Peter, Put up thy sword into the sheath: the [n] cup which my Father hath given me, shall I not drink it?

12 [o] Then the band and the captain and officers of the Jews took Jesus, and bound him,

13 And led him away to [p] Annas first; for he was father in law to [q] Caiăphăs, which was the high priest that same year.

14 [r] Now Caiăphăs was he, which gave counsel to the Jews, that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.

15 ¶ [t] And Simon Peter followed Jesus, and so did another disciple: that disciple was known unto the high priest, and went in with Jesus into the palace of the high priest.

16 [a] But Peter stood at the door without. Then went out that other disciple, which was known unto the high priest, and spake unto her that kept the door, and brought in Peter.

17 Then saith the [b] damsel that kept the door unto Peter, Art not thou also one of this man's disciples? He saith, I am not.

18 And the servants and officers stood there, who had made a fire of coals; for it was cold: and they warmed themselves: and Peter stood with them, and warmed himself.

19 ¶ [f] The high priest then asked Jesus of his disciples, and of his doctrine.

20 Jesus answered him, [g] I spake openly to the world; [h] I ever taught in the synagogue, and in the temple, whither the Jews always resort; and in secret have I said nothing.

21 Why askest thou me? ask them which heard me, what I have said unto them: behold, they know what I said.

22 And when he had thus spoken, one of the officers which stood by struck Jesus with the palm of his hand, saying, [k] Answerest thou the high priest so?

23 Jesus answered him, If I have spoken evil, bear witness of the evil: but if well, why smitest thou me?

24 Now Annas had sent him bound unto Caiăphăs the high priest.

25 [m] And Simon Peter stood and warmed himself. They said therefore unto him, Art not thou also one of his disciples? He denied it, and said, I am not.

26 One of the servants of the high priest, being his kinsman whose ear Peter cut off, saith, Did not I see thee in the garden with him?

27 Peter then denied again: and immediately the cock crew.

28 ¶ Then led they Jesus from Caiăphăs unto the hall of judgment: and it was early; and they themselves went not into [s] the judgment hall, [u] lest they should be defiled; but that they might eat the passover.

29 [x] Pilate then went out unto them, and said, What accusation bring ye against this man?

30 They answered and said unto him, If he were not a malefactor, we would not have delivered him up unto thee.

31 Then said Pilate unto them, Take ye him, and judge him according to your law. The Jews therefore said unto him, It is not lawful for us to put any man to death:

32 That the saying of Jesus might be fulfilled, which he spake, [d] signifying what death he should die.

33 Then Pilate entered into the judgment hall again, and called Jesus, and said unto him, Art thou [e] the King of the Jews?

34 Jesus answered him, Sayest thou this thing of thyself, or did others tell it thee of me?

35 Pilate answered, Am I a Jew? Thine own nation and the chief priests have delivered thee unto me: what hast thou done?

36 Jesus answered, My kingdom [i] is not of this world: if my kingdom were of this world, then would my servants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews: but now is my kingdom not from hence.

37 Pilate therefore said unto him, Art thou a king then? Jesus answered, Thou sayest that I am a king. [m] To this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth. [n] Every one that is of the truth heareth my voice.

38 Pilate saith unto him, What is truth? And when he had said this, he went out again unto the Jews, and saith unto them, [o] I find in him no fault at all.

39 [p] But ye have a custom, that I should release unto you one at the passover: will ye therefore that I release unto you the King of the Jews?

40 Then cried they all again, saying, Not this man, but Barabbas. Now Barabbas was a robber.

CHAPTER 19

THEN Pilate therefore took Jesus, and [s] scourged him.

2 [t] And the soldiers platted a crown of thorns, and put it on his head, and they put on him a [a] purple robe,

3 And said, Hail, [b] King of the Jews! and they smote him with their hands.

4 Pilate therefore went forth again, and saith unto them, Behold, I bring him forth to you, that ye may know that I [c] find no fault in him.

5 Then came Jesus forth, wearing the crown of thorns, and the purple robe. And Pilate saith unto them, Behold the man!

6 When the chief priests therefore and officers saw him, they cried out, saying, Crucify him, crucify him. [f] Pilate saith unto them, Take ye him, and crucify him: for I find no fault in him.

7 The Jews answered him, We have a law, and by our law [g] he ought to die, because [h] he made himself the Son of God.

8 ¶ When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he was the more afraid;

9 And went again into the [k] judgment hall, and saith unto Jesus, Whence art thou? But Jesus gave him no answer.

10 Then saith Pilate unto him, [l] Speakest thou not unto me? knowest thou not that I have power to crucify thee, and have power to release thee?

11 Jesus answered, Thou couldest have no power at all against me, except it were given thee from above: therefore he that delivered me unto thee hath the greater sin.

12 And from thenceforth Pilate sought to release him: but the Jews cried out, saying, If thou let this man go, thou art not Cæsar's friend: whosoever maketh himself a king speaketh against [q] Cæsar.

13 ¶ When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he brought Jesus forth, and sat down in the [r] judgment seat in a place that is called the Pavement, but in the Hebrew, Găb'bă-thă.

14 And it was the preparation of the passover, and about the sixth hour: and he saith unto the Jews, Behold your King!

15 But they cried out, Away with him, away with him, crucify him.

Pilate saith unto them, Shall I crucify your King? The chief priests answered, We have no king but Cæsar.

16 Then delivered he him therefore unto them to be crucified. And they took Jesus, and led him away.

17 [d]And he bearing his cross went forth into a place called the place of a skull, which is called in the Hebrew Golgotha:

18 Where they crucified him, and two other with him, on either side one, and Jesus in the midst.

19 ¶ And Pilate wrote a title, and put it on the cross. And the writing was, JESUS OF NAZARETH THE KING OF THE JEWS.

20 This title then read many of the Jews: for the place where Jesus was crucified was nigh to the city: and it was written in Hebrew, and Greek, and Latin.

21 Then said the chief priests of the Jews to Pilate, Write not, The King of the Jews; but that he said, I am King of the Jews.

22 Pilate answered, What I have written I have written.

23 ¶ [i]Then the soldiers, when they had crucified Jesus, took his garments, and made four parts, to every soldier a part; and also his coat: now the coat was without seam, woven from the top throughout.

24 They said therefore among themselves, Let us not rend it, but cast lots for it, whose it shall be: [n]that the scripture might be fulfilled, which saith, [p]They parted my raiment among them, and for my vesture they did cast lots. These things therefore the soldiers did.

25 ¶ Now there stood by the cross of Jesus [s]his mother, and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Clē-ŏ-phăs, and Mary Magdalene.

26 When Jesus therefore saw his mother, and the disciple standing by, [y]whom he loved, he saith unto his mother, [z]Woman, behold thy son!

27 Then saith he to the disciple, Behold thy mother! And from that hour that disciple took her unto his own home.

28 ¶ [c]After this, Jesus [d]knowing that all things were now accomplished, [a]that the scripture might be fulfilled, saith, [b]I thirst.

29 Now there was set a vessel full of vinegar: and they filled a spunge with vinegar, and put it upon [c]hyssop, and put it to his mouth.

30 When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, he said, [c]It is finished: and he bowed his head, and gave up the ghost.

31 The Jews therefore, because it was the preparation, [f]that the bodies should not remain upon the cross on the sabbath day, (for that sabbath day was an high day,) besought Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away.

32 Then came the soldiers, and brake the legs of the first, and of the other which was crucified with him.

33 But when they came to Jesus, and saw that he was dead already, they brake not his legs:

34 But one of the soldiers with a spear pierced his side, and forthwith came there out [g]blood and water.

35 And [h]he that saw it bare record, and his record is true: and he knoweth that he saith true, that ye might believe.

36 For these things were done, [k]that the scripture should be fulfilled, [l]A bone of him shall not be broken.

37 And again another scripture saith, [m]They shall look on him whom they pierced.

38 ¶ [o]And after this Joseph of Ăr-ĭm-ă-thæ'-ă, being a disciple of Jesus, but [q]secretly [r]for fear of the Jews, besought Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus: and Pilate gave him leave. He came therefore, and took the body of Jesus.

39 And there came also Nĭc-ŏ-dē'-mŭs, which at the first came to Jesus by night, and [t]brought a mixture of [u]myrrh and [x]aloes, about an hundred pound weight.

40 Then took they the body of Jesus, and [a]wound it in [b]linen clothes with the spices, as the manner of the Jews is to bury.

41 Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden; and in the garden a new sepulchre, wherein was never man yet laid.

42 There laid they Jesus therefore because of the Jews' preparation day; for the sepulchre was nigh at hand.

CHAPTER 20

[c] THE first day of the week cometh Mary Magdalene early, when it was yet dark, unto the sepulchre, and seeth the stone taken away from the sepulchre.

2 Then she runneth, and cometh to Simon Peter, and to the other disciple, [d] whom Jesus loved, and saith unto them, They have taken away the Lord out of the sepulchre, and we know not where they have laid him.

3 [g] Peter therefore went forth, and that other disciple, and came to the sepulchre.

4 So they ran both together: and the other disciple did outrun Peter, and came first to the sepulchre.

5 And he stooping down, and looking in, saw the [i] linen clothes lying; yet went he not in.

6 Then cometh Simon Peter following him, and went into the sepulchre, and seeth the linen clothes lie,

7 And the [o] napkin, that was about his head, not lying with the linen clothes, but wrapped together in a place by itself.

8 Then went in also that other disciple, which came first to the sepulchre, and he saw, and believed.

9 For as yet they knew not the scripture, that he must rise again from the dead.

10 Then the disciples went away again unto their own home.

11 ¶ But Mary stood without at the sepulchre weeping: and as she wept, she stooped down, and looked into the sepulchre,

12 And seeth [y] two angels in white sitting, the one at the head, and the other at the feet, where the body of Jesus had lain.

13 And they say unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? She saith unto them, Because they have taken away my Lord, and I know not where they have laid him.

14 And when she had thus said, she turned herself back, and [a] saw Jesus standing, and knew not that it was Jesus.

15 Jesus saith unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? [b] whom seekest thou? She, supposing him to be the gardener, saith unto him, Sir, if thou have borne him hence, tell me where thou hast laid him, and I will take him away.

16 Jesus saith unto her, Mary. She turned herself, and saith unto him, Răb-bō'nī; which is to say, Master.

17 Jesus saith unto her, Touch me not; for I am not yet ascended to my Father: but go to [e] my brethren, and say unto them, [f] I ascend unto my Father, and your Father; and to my God, and your God.

18 Mary Magdalene [h] came and told the disciples that she had seen the Lord, and that he had spoken these things unto her.

19 ¶ Then the same day at evening, being [k] the first day of the week, when the doors were shut where the disciples were assembled [l] for fear of the Jews, [m] came Jesus and stood in the midst, and saith unto them, [n] Peace be unto you.

20 And when he had so said, [p] he shewed unto them his hands and his side. Then [q] were the disciples glad, when they saw the Lord.

21 Then said Jesus to them again, Peace be unto you: [r] as my Father hath sent me, [s] even so send I you.

22 And when he had said this, he breathed on them, and saith unto them, [t] Receive ye the Holy Ghost:

23 [u] Whose soever sins ye remit, they are remitted unto them; and whose soever sins ye retain, they are retained.

24 ¶ But [x] Thomas, one of the twelve, called Dĭd'ў-mŭs, was not with them when Jesus came.

25 The other disciples therefore said unto him, We have seen the Lord. But he said unto them, Except I shall see in his hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and thrust my hand into his side, I will not believe.

A.D. 33

26 ¶ [a] And after eight days again his disciples were within, and Thomas with them: then came Jesus, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said, Peace be unto you.

27 Then saith he to Thomas, Reach hither thy finger, and behold my hands; and reach hither thy hand, and thrust it into my side: and be not faithless, but believing.

28 And Thomas answered and said unto him, My Lord and my God.

29 Jesus saith unto him, Thomas, because thou hast seen me, thou hast believed: [b] blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed.

30 ¶ And [d] many other signs truly did Jesus in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book:

31 But [e] these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is [f] the Christ, the [g] Son of God; and that believing ye might [h] have life through his name.

CHAPTER 21

AFTER these things Jesus [k] shewed himself again to the disciples at the [m] sea of Tiberias; and on this wise shewed he himself.

2 There were together Simon Peter, and [o] Thomas called [2] Dĭd'-ў-mŭs, and [p] Nathanael of [q] Cana in Galilee, and the sons of Zebedee, and two other of his disciples.

3 Simon Peter saith unto them, I go a fishing. They say unto him, We also go with thee. They went forth, and entered into a ship immediately; and that night [r] they caught nothing.

4 But when the morning was now come, Jesus stood on the shore: but the disciples knew not that it was Jesus.

5 Then Jesus saith unto them, Children, have ye any meat? They answered him, No.

6 And he said unto them, [u] Cast the net on the right side of the ship, and ye shall find. They cast therefore, and now they were not able to draw it for the multitude of fishes.

7 Therefore that disciple [x] whom Jesus loved saith unto Peter, It is the Lord. Now [z] when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he girt his fisher's coat unto him, (for he was naked,) and did cast himself into the sea.

8 And the other disciples came in a little ship; (for they were not far from land, but as it were two hundred cubits,) dragging the net with fishes.

9 As soon then as they were come to land, they saw a fire of coals there, and fish laid thereon, and bread.

10 Jesus saith unto them, Bring of the fish which ye have now caught.

11 Simon Peter went up, and drew the net to land [c] full of great fishes, an hundred and fifty and three: and for all there were so many, yet was not the net broken.

12 Jesus saith unto them, Come and dine. And none of the disciples durst ask him, Who art thou? knowing that it was the Lord.

13 Jesus then cometh, and taketh bread, and giveth them, and fish likewise.

14 [i] This is now the third time that Jesus shewed himself to his disciples, [l] after that he was risen from the dead.

15 ¶ So when they had dined, Jesus saith to [n] Simon Peter, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me more than these? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Feed my lambs.

16 He saith to him again the second time, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him [3] [s] Feed my sheep.

17 He saith unto him the third time, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me? Peter was grieved because he said unto him the third time, Lovest thou me? And he said unto him, Lord, [t] thou knowest all things; thou knowest that I love thee. Jesus saith unto him, Feed my sheep.

18 Verily, verily, I say unto thee, When thou wast young, thou girdedst thyself, and walkedst whither thou wouldest: but when thou shalt be old, [y] thou shalt stretch forth thy hands, and another shall gird thee, and carry thee whither thou wouldest not.

19 This spake he, signifying by what death he should glorify God. And when he had spoken this, he saith unto him, Follow me.

20 Then Peter, turning about, seeth the disciple whom Jesus loved following; [c] which also leaned on his breast at supper, and said, Lord, which is he that betrayeth thee?

21 Peter seeing him saith to Jesus, Lord, and what shall this man do?

22 Jesus saith unto him, If I will that he tarry [e] till I come, what is that to thee? follow thou me.

23 Then went this saying abroad among [a] the brethren, that that disciple should not die: yet Jesus said not unto him, He shall not die; but, If I will that he tarry till I come, what is that to thee?

24 [b] This is the disciple which testifieth of these things, and wrote these things: and we know that his testimony is true.

25 And [d] there are also many other things which Jesus did, the which, if they should be written every one, I suppose that even the world itself could not contain the books that should be written. Amen.

THE ACTS OF THE APOSTLES

CHAPTER 1

A.D. 33

[b] THE former treatise have I made, O [c] Thĕ-ŏph'ĭ-lŭs, of all that Jesus began both to do and teach,

2 Until [d] the day in which he was taken up, after that he through the Holy Ghost [e] had given commandments unto the apostles whom he had chosen:

3 [f] To whom also he shewed himself alive after his passion by many infallible proofs, being seen of them forty days, and speaking of the things [i] pertaining to the kingdom of God:

4 And, being assembled together with them, [k] commanded them that they should not depart from Jerusalem, but wait for [m] the promise of the Father, which, saith he, ye have heard of me.

5 For [p] John truly baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized [q] with the Holy Ghost not many days hence.

6 When they therefore were come together, they asked of him, saying, Lord, [t] wilt thou at this time restore again the kingdom to Israel?

7 And he said unto them, It is not for you [u] to know the times or the seasons, [y] which the Father hath put in his own power.

8 But [a] ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall [a] be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judæa, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth.

9 And when he had spoken these things, while they beheld, he was taken up; and a cloud received him out of their sight.

10 And while they looked stedfastly toward heaven as he went up, behold, [g] two men stood by them in white apparel;

11 Which also said, [h] Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing up into heaven? this same Jesus, which is taken up from you into heaven, [l] shall so come in like manner as ye have seen him go into heaven.

12 Then [n] returned they unto Jerusalem from the mount called [o] Ŏl'ĭ-vĕt, which is from Jerusalem a sabbath day's journey.

13 And when they were come in, they went up into an [r] upper room, where abode both [s] Peter, and James, and John, and Andrew, Philip, and Thomas, Bartholomew, and Matthew, James the son of Ăl-phæ'ŭs, and Simon Zē-lō'tēs, and [x] Judas the brother of James.

14 These all continued [z] with one accord in prayer and supplication,

15 ¶ And in those days Peter stood up in the midst of [d] the [2] disciples, and said, (the number of names together were about an hundred and twenty,)

16 Men and brethren, [h] this scripture must needs have been fulfilled, which the Holy Ghost by the mouth of David spake before concerning [i] Judas, which was guide to them that took Jesus.

17 For [m] he was numbered with us, and had obtained part of this [n] ministry.

18 Now this man [o] purchased a field with the reward of iniquity; and [p] falling headlong, he burst asunder in the midst, and all his bowels gushed out.

19 And it was known unto all the dwellers at Jerusalem; insomuch as [q] that field is called [r] in their proper tongue, Ā-çĕl′-dă-mă, that is to say, The field of blood.

20 For it is written in the book of Psalms, [t] Let his habitation be desolate, and let no man dwell therein: and [u] his [4] bishoprick let another take.

21 Wherefore of these men which have companied with us all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us,

22 Beginning from the baptism of John, unto that same day that he was taken up from us, must one be ordained to be a witness with us of his resurrection.

23 And they appointed two, Joseph called [i] Bär′-să-băs, who was surnamed Justus, and Matthias.

24 And [k] they prayed, and said, Thou, Lord, [l] which knowest the hearts of all men, shew whether of these two thou hast chosen,

25 That he may take part of this ministry and [m] apostleship, from which Judas by transgression fell, that he might go to his own place.

26 And [n] they gave forth their lots; and the lot fell upon Matthias; and he was numbered with the eleven apostles.

CHAPTER 2

AND when the [c] day of Pentecost was fully come, they were all [e] with one accord in one place.

2 And suddenly there came a sound from heaven as of a [f] rushing mighty wind, and [g] it filled all the house where they were sitting.

3 And there appeared unto them [3] cloven tongues like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them.

4 And they were all [k] filled with the Holy Ghost, and began [l] to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance.

5 And there were dwelling at Jerusalem Jews, devout men, out of every nation under heaven.

6 Now when this was noised abroad, the multitude came together, and were confounded, because that every man heard them speak in his own language.

7 And they were all amazed and marvelled, saying one to another, Behold, are not all these which speak [s] Galilæans?

8 And how hear we every man in our own tongue, wherein we were born?

9 Pär′-thĭ-ăns, and [x] Medes, and [y] Elamites, and the dwellers in [z] Měs-ŏ-pŏ-tā′-mĭ-ă, and in Judæa, and [a] Căp-pă-dō′-çĭ-ă, in [a] Pontus, and [b] Asia,

10 [c] Phrygia, and [d] Păm-phȳl′-ĭ-ă, in Egypt, and in the parts of Libya about [e] Çȳ-rē′-nē, and strangers of [f] Rome, Jews and [g] proselytes, 11 [h] Cretes and Arabians, we do hear them speak in our tongues the wonderful works of God.

12 And they were all amazed, and were in doubt, saying one to another, What meaneth this?

13 Others mocking said, These men are full of new wine.

14 ¶ But Peter, standing up with the eleven, lifted up his voice, and said unto them, Ye men of Judæa, and all ye that dwell at Jerusalem, be this known unto you, and hearken to my words:

15 For these are not drunken, as ye suppose, seeing it is but the third hour of the day.

16 But [a] this is that which was spoken by the prophet Joel;

17 [b] And it shall come to pass in the last days, saith God, I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh: and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams:

18 And on my servants and on my handmaidens I will pour out in those days of my Spirit; and they shall prophesy:

19 And I will shew wonders in heaven above, and signs in the earth beneath; blood, and fire, and vapour of smoke:

20 The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before that great and notable day of the Lord come:

21 And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be saved.

22 Ye men of Israel, hear these words; Jesus of Nazareth, a man [n] approved of God among you by miracles and wonders and signs, which God did by him in the midst of you, as ye yourselves also know:

23 Him, being delivered by the [p] determinate counsel and foreknowledge of God, [r] ye have taken, and by wicked hands have crucified and slain:

24 [t] Whom God hath raised up, having loosed the pains of death: because it was not possible that he should be holden of it.

25 For David speaketh concerning him, [z] I foresaw the Lord always before my face, for he is on my right hand, that I should not be moved:

26 Therefore did my heart rejoice, and my tongue was glad; moreover also my flesh shall rest in hope:

27 Because thou wilt not leave my soul in hell, neither wilt thou suffer thine Holy One to see corruption.

28 Thou hast made known to me the ways of life; thou shalt make me full of joy with thy countenance.

29 Men and brethren, let me freely speak unto you of the [g] patriarch

David, that he is both dead and buried, and his sepulchre is with us unto this day.

30 Therefore being a prophet, and knowing that [c] God had sworn with an oath to him, that [d] of the fruit of his loins, according to the flesh, he would raise up Christ to sit on his throne;

31 He seeing this before spake of the resurrection of Christ, that his soul was not left in hell, [e] neither his flesh did see corruption.

32 This Jesus hath God raised up, whereof [f] we all are witnesses.

33 Therefore [g] being by the right hand of God exalted, and having received of the Father [h] the promise of the Holy Ghost, he hath [i] shed forth this, which ye now see and hear.

34 For David is not ascended into the heavens: but he saith himself, [k] The LORD said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, 35 Until I make thy foes thy footstool.

36 Therefore let all the house of Israel [l] know assuredly, that [m] God hath made that same Jesus, whom ye have crucified, both Lord and [o] Christ.

37 ¶ Now when they heard this, [q] they were pricked in their heart, and said unto Peter and to the rest of the apostles, Men and brethren, [s] what shall we do?

38 Then Peter said unto them, [u] Repent, and [x] be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ [y] for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost.

39 [a] For the promise is unto you, and to your children, and to [b] all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call.

40 And with many other words did he testify and exhort, saying, Save yourselves from this [c] untoward generation.

41 ¶ Then they that gladly received his word [d] were baptized: and the same day [e] there were added unto them about three thousand souls.

42 And they [f] continued stedfastly in the apostles' doctrine and fellowship, and in [a] breaking of bread, and in prayers.

43 And [b] fear came upon every soul: and [c] many wonders and signs were done by the apostles.

44 And all that believed were together, and [e] had all things common;

45 And [f] sold their possessions and goods, and parted them to all men, as every man had need.

46 And they, continuing daily with one accord [g] in the temple, and breaking bread [2] from house to house, did eat their meat with gladness and singleness of heart, 47 [l] Praising God, and [m] having favour with all the people. And the Lord added [4] to the church daily [5] such as should be saved.

CHAPTER 3

NOW Peter and John went up together [t] into the temple at the hour of prayer, being [x] the ninth hour.

2 And a certain man [z] lame from his mother's womb was carried, whom they laid daily at the gate of the temple which is called Beautiful, to ask alms of them that entered into the temple;

3 Who seeing Peter and John about to go into the temple asked an alms.

4 And Peter, [b] fastening his eyes upon him with John, said, Look on us.

5 And he gave heed unto them, expecting to receive something of them.

6 Then Peter said, Silver and gold have I none; but such as I have give I thee: [g] In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth rise up and walk.

7 And he took him by the right hand, and lifted him up: and immediately his feet and ankle bones received strength.

8 And he [i] leaping up stood, and walked, and entered with them into the temple, walking, and leaping, and praising God.

9 And [n] all the people saw him walking and praising God:

10 And [p] they knew that it was he which sat for alms at the Beautiful gate of the temple: and they were filled with wonder and amazement at that which had happened unto him.

11 And as the lame man which was healed held Peter and John, all the people ran together unto them in the [d] porch that is called Solomon's, greatly wondering.

12 ¶ And when Peter saw it, he answered unto the people, Ye men of Israel, why marvel ye at this? or why look ye so earnestly on us, as though by our own power or holiness we had made this man to walk?

13 [h] The God of Abraham, and of Isaac, and of Jacob, the God of our fathers, [i] hath glorified his [3] Son Jesus; whom ye [k] delivered up, and denied him in the presence of Pilate, when he was determined to let him go.

14 But ye denied [n] the Holy One and [o] the Just, and [p] desired a murderer to be granted unto you;

15 And [q] killed the [6r] Prince of life, [s] whom God hath raised from the dead; whereof [u] we are witnesses.

16 And [y] his name through faith in his name hath made this man strong, whom ye see and know: yea, the faith which is by him hath given him this perfect soundness in the presence of you all.

17 And now, brethren, I wot that [a] through ignorance ye did it, as did also your rulers.

18 But those things, [c] which God before had shewed [d] by the mouth of all his prophets, that [e] Christ should suffer, he hath so fulfilled.

19 ¶ [f] Repent ye therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord;

20 And he shall send [7] Jesus Christ, which before was preached unto you:

21 [h] Whom the heaven must receive until the times of [k] restitution of all things, [l] which God hath spoken by the mouth of all his holy prophets [m] since the world began.

22 For Moses truly said unto the fathers, [o] A prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you of your brethren, like unto me; him shall ye hear in all things whatsoever he shall say unto you.

23 [q] And it shall come to pass, that every soul, which will not hear that prophet, shall be destroyed from among the people.

24 Yea, and all the prophets from [b] Samuel and those that follow after, as many as have spoken, have likewise foretold of these days.

25 Ye are the children of the prophets, and of [d] the covenant which God made with our fathers, saying unto Abraham, And [e] in thy seed shall all the kindreds of the earth be blessed.

26 Unto you [g] first God, having raised up his [2] Son Jesus, sent him to bless you, [h] in turning away every one of you from his iniquities.

CHAPTER 4

AND as they spake unto the people, the priests, and the [i] captain of the temple, and the [m] Sadducees, came upon them,

2 Being grieved that they taught the people, and preached through Jesus [o] the resurrection from the dead.

3 And they laid hands on them, and put them in hold unto the next day: for it was now eventide.

4 Howbeit many of them which heard the word believed; and [p] the number of the men was about five thousand.

5 ¶ And it came to pass on the morrow, that their rulers, and [r] elders, and scribes,

6 And [t] Annas the high priest, and [u] Cāi-ă-phăs, and John, and Alexander, and as many as were of the kindred of the high priest, were gathered together at Jerusalem.

7 And when they had set them in the midst, they asked, [y] By what power, or by [z] what name, have ye done this?

8 Then Peter, [a] filled with the Holy Ghost, said unto them, Ye rulers of the people, and elders of Israel,

9 If we this day be examined of [c] the good deed done to the impotent man, by what means he is made whole;

10 Be it known unto you all, and to all the people of Israel, that [d] by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, [e] whom ye crucified, [e] whom God raised from the dead, even by him doth this man stand here before you whole.

11 This is the stone which was set at nought of you builders, [a] which is become the head of the corner.

12 [c] Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved.

13 ¶ Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and perceived that they were [f] unlearned and ignorant men, they marvelled; and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus.

14 And beholding the man which was healed standing with them, they could say nothing against it.

15 But when they had [i] commanded them to go aside out of [k] the council, they conferred among themselves,

16 Saying, What shall we do to these men? for that indeed [n] a notable miracle hath been done by them is manifest to all them that dwell in Jerusalem; and we cannot deny it.

17 But that it spread no further among the people, let us straitly threaten them, that they speak henceforth to no man in this name.

18 And they called them, and [q] commanded them not to speak at all nor teach in the name of Jesus.

19 But Peter and John answered and said unto them, [s] Whether it be right in the sight of God to hearken unto you more than unto God, judge ye.

20 For we cannot but speak the things [x] which we have seen and heard.

21 So when they had further threatened them, they let them go, finding nothing how they might punish them, because of the people: for all men [b] glorified God for that which was done.

22 For the man was above forty years old, on whom this miracle of healing was shewed.

23 ¶ And being let go, they went to their own company, and reported all that the chief priests and elders had said unto them.

24 And when they heard that, they lifted up their voice to God [f] with one

29 And now, Lord, behold their threatenings: and grant unto thy servants, that with all [k] boldness they may speak thy word,

30 By stretching forth thine hand to heal; and that [l] signs and wonders may be done by the name of thy holy child Jesus.

31 ¶ And [o] when they had prayed, the place was shaken where they were assembled together; and [q] they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and they spake the word of God with boldness.

32 And the multitude of them that believed were of [s] one heart and of one soul: neither said any of them that ought of the things which he possessed was his own; but [t] they had all things common.

33 And [u] with great power gave the apostles witness of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus: and great grace was upon them all.

34 Neither was there any among them that lacked: for as many as were possessors of lands or houses sold them, and brought the prices of the things that were sold,

35 And laid them down at the apostles' feet: and [y] distribution was made unto every man according as he had need.

36 And Joses, who by the apostles was surnamed [z] Barnabas, (which is, being interpreted, The son of consolation,) a Levite, and of the country of [b] Cyprus, 37 Having land, sold it, and brought the money, and laid it at the apostles' feet.

CHAPTER 5

BUT a certain man named Ăn-ă-nī'ăs, with Sapphira his wife, sold a possession,

2 And [e] kept back part of the price, his wife also being privy to it, and brought a certain part, and laid it at the apostles' feet.

3 But Peter said, Ăn-ă-nī'ăs, why hath [h] Satan filled thine heart to lie to the Holy Ghost, and to keep back part of the price of the land?

4 Whiles it remained, was it not thine own? and after it was sold, was it not in thine own power? why hast thou conceived this thing in thine heart? thou hast not lied unto men, but unto God.

5 And Ăn-ă-nī'ăs hearing these words [m] fell down, and gave up the ghost: and great [n] fear came on all them that heard these things.

6 And the young men arose, [p] wound him up, and [r] carried him out, and buried him.

7 And it was about the space of three hours after, when his wife, not knowing what was done, came in.

8 And Peter answered unto her, Tell me whether ye sold the land for so much? And she said, Yea, for so much.

9 Then Peter said unto her, How is it that ye have agreed together [x] to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? behold, the feet of them which have buried thy husband are at the door, and shall carry thee out.

10 Then fell she down straightway at his feet, and yielded up the ghost: and the young men came in, and found her dead, and, carrying her forth, buried her by her husband.

11 And great fear came upon all the church, and upon as many as heard these things.

12 ¶ And by the hands of the apostles were many [a] signs and wonders wrought among the people; (and they were all with [a] one accord in [b] Solomon's porch.

13 And of the rest durst no man join himself to them: but [c] the people magnified them.

14 And believers [e] were the more added to the Lord, multitudes both of men and women.)

15 [f] Insomuch that they brought forth the sick into the streets, and laid them on beds and couches, that at the least the shadow of Peter passing by might overshadow some of them.

16 There came also a multitude out of the cities round about unto Jerusalem, [i] bringing sick folks, and them which were vexed with unclean spirits: and they were healed every one.

17 ¶ Then the high priest rose up, and all they that were with him, (which is the sect of the [p] Sadducees,) and were filled with indignation,

18 And laid their hands on the apostles, and [u] put them in the common prison.

19 But the [z] angel of the Lord by night [b] opened the prison doors, and brought them forth, and said,

20 Go, stand and speak in the temple to the people all [d] the words of [e] this life.

21 And when they heard that, they entered [g] into the temple early in the morning, and taught. But the high priest came, and they that were with him, and called [k] the council together, and all the senate of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison to have them brought.

22 But when the officers came, and found them not in the prison, they returned, and told,

23 Saying, The prison truly found we shut with all safety, and the keepers standing without before the doors: but when we had opened, we found no man within.

24 Now when the high priest and the [n] captain of the temple and the chief priests heard these things, they doubted of them whereunto this would grow.

25 Then came one and told them, saying, Behold, the men whom ye put in prison are standing in the temple, and teaching the people.

26 Then went the captain with the officers, and brought them without violence: for [d] they feared the people, lest they should have been stoned.

27 And when they had brought them, they set them before the council: and the high priest asked them,

28 Saying, [g] Did not we straitly command you that ye should not teach in this name? and, behold, ye have filled Jerusalem with your doctrine, and intend [h] to bring this man's blood upon us.

29 ¶ Then Peter and the other apostles answered and said, [k] We ought to obey God rather than men.

30 [l] The God of our fathers [m] raised up Jesus, [n] whom ye slew and [o] hanged on a tree.

31 [q] Him hath God exalted with his right hand to be a [r] Prince and a [s] Saviour, for [t] to give repentance to Israel, and [x] forgiveness of sins.

32 And [y] we are his witnesses of these things; and [a] so is also the Holy Ghost, [c] whom God hath given to them that obey him.

33 ¶ When they heard that, they [f] were cut to the heart, and took counsel to slay them.

34 Then stood there up one in the council, a Pharisee, named [h] Gă-mā-lī-ĕl, a [i] doctor of the law, had in reputation among all the people, and [l] commanded to put the apostles forth a little space;

35 And said unto them, Ye men of Israel, take heed to yourselves what ye intend to do as touching these men.

36 For [m] before these days rose up Thēū-dās, boasting himself to be somebody; to whom a number of men, about four hundred, joined themselves: who was slain; and all, as many as obeyed him, were scattered, and brought to nought.

37 After this man rose up Judas of Galilee in the days of the [2o] taxing, and drew away much people after him: he also perished; and all, even as many as obeyed him, were dispersed.

38 And now I say unto you, Refrain

40 And to him they agreed: and when they had called the apostles, and [f] beaten them, they commanded that they should not speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go.

41 ¶ And they departed from the presence of the council, [i] rejoicing that they were counted worthy [k] to suffer shame for his name.

42 And daily [m] in the temple, and in every house, they ceased not to teach and preach [2] Jesus [n] Christ.

CHAPTER 6

AND in those days, [p] when the number of the disciples was multiplied, there arose a murmuring of the [3] [q] Grecians against the [r] Hebrews, because their [s] widows were neglected in the [u] daily ministration.

2 Then the twelve called the multitude of the disciples unto them, and said, It is not reason that we should leave the word of God, and serve tables.

3 Wherefore, brethren, [z] look ye out among you seven men [a] of honest report, [b] full of the Holy Ghost and wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business.

4 But we will give ourselves continually to prayer, and to the ministry of the word.

5 ¶ And the saying pleased the whole multitude: and they chose Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Ghost, and [l] Philip, and Prŏch'ŏ-rŭs, and Nī-cā'nôr, and Timon, and Pär'mĕ-năs, and Nicolas a [n] proselyte of Ăn'tĭ-ŏch:

6 Whom they set before the apostles: and [p] when they had prayed, [q] they laid their hands on them.

7 And the [r] word of God increased; and the number of the disciples multiplied in Jerusalem greatly; and a great company [t] of the priests were obedient to [u] the faith.

8 And Stephen, full of faith and power, did [a] great wonders and miracles among the people.

9 ¶ Then there arose certain of the synagogue, which is called the synagogue of the Lĭb'ĕr-tînes, and [c] Çy-rē'nī-ăns, and Alexandrians, and of them of [d] Çī-lĭç'ī-ă and of [e] Asia, disputing with Stephen.

10 And [g] they were not able to resist the wisdom and the spirit by which he spake.

11 Then they [h] suborned men, which said, We have heard him [l] speak blasphemous words against Moses, and against God.

12 And they stirred up the people, and the elders, and the scribes, and came upon him, and caught him, and brought him to the [o] council,

13 And set up false witnesses, which said, This man ceaseth not to speak blasphemous words against this holy place, and the law:

14 For we have heard him say, that this Jesus of Nazareth [t] shall destroy this place, and shall [x] change the customs which Moses delivered us.

15 And all that sat in the council, looking stedfastly on him, [y] saw his face as it had been the face of an angel.

CHAPTER 7

THEN said the high priest, Are these things so?

2 And he said, Men, [c] brethren, and fathers, hearken; [d] The God of glory [e] appeared unto [f] our father Abraham, when he was in [g] Mĕs-ŏ-pŏ-tā'mĭ-ă, [h] before he dwelt in [4] [i] Chăr'răn,

3 And said unto him, [k] Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and [m] come into the land which I shall shew thee.

4 Then came he out of the land of the Chăl-dæ'ăns, and dwelt in Chăr'răn: and from thence, [o] when his father was dead, he removed him into this land, wherein ye now dwell.

5 And he gave him none inheritance in it, no, not so much as to set his foot on: yet [s] he promised that he would give it to him for a possession, and to his seed after him, [x] when as yet he had no child.

6 And God spake on this wise, That [b] his seed should sojourn in a strange land; and that they should bring them into bondage, and entreat them evil [d] four hundred years.

7 And the nation to whom they shall be in bondage will I judge, said God: and after that shall they come forth, and [f] serve me in this place.

8 And [h] he gave him the covenant of circumcision: and so Abraham begat [l] Isaac, and circumcised him the [m] eighth day; and Isaac begat [n] Jacob; and Jacob begat the twelve patriarchs.

9 And the patriarchs, [o] moved with envy, [p] sold Joseph into Egypt: but [q] God was with him,

10 And delivered him out of all his afflictions, and gave him favour and wisdom in the sight of [r] Phăr'-aōh king of Egypt; and he made him [s] governor over Egypt and all his house.

11 Now [u] there came a dearth over all the land of Egypt and Chā'-nă-ăn, and great affliction: and our fathers found no sustenance.

12 But [y] when Jacob heard that there was corn in Egypt, he sent out our fathers first.

13 And at the second time Joseph [z] was made known to his brethren; and [a] Joseph's kindred was made known unto Phăr'-aōh.

14 Then [c] sent Joseph, and called his father Jacob to him, and all his kindred, [e] threescore and fifteen souls.

15 So [g] Jacob went down into Egypt, and [i] died, he, and our fathers,

16 And [k] were carried over into Sȳ'-chĕm, and laid in the sepulchre [m] that Abraham bought for a sum of money of the sons of Ĕm'-môr the father of Sychem.

17 But when the time of the promise drew nigh, which God had sworn to Abraham, [o] the people grew and multiplied in Egypt,

18 Till another king arose, [p] which knew not Joseph.

19 The same [r] dealt subtilly with our kindred, and evil entreated our fathers, [s] so that they cast out their young children, to the end they might not live.

20 In which time [a] Moses was born, and was [c] exceeding fair, and nourished up in his father's house three months:

21 And when he was cast out, Phăr'-aōh's daughter took him up, and [e] nourished him for her own son.

22 And Moses was learned in all the [g] wisdom of the Egyptians, and was mighty in words and in deeds.

23 And [i] when he was full [k] forty years old, it came into his heart to visit his brethren the children of Israel.

24 And seeing one of them suffer wrong, he defended him, and avenged him that was oppressed, and smote the Egyptian:

25 For he supposed his brethren would have understood how that God by his hand would deliver them: but they understood not.

26 And [t] the next day he shewed himself unto them as they strove, and would have set them at one again, saying, Sirs, [x] ye are brethren; why do ye wrong one to another?

27 But he that did his neighbour wrong thrust him away, saying, Who made thee a ruler and a judge over us?

28 Wilt thou kill me, as thou diddest the Egyptian yesterday?

29 Then [b] fled Moses at this saying, and was a stranger in the land of Madian, [d] where he begat two sons.

30 And when forty years were expired, [f] there appeared to him in the wilderness of [h] mount Sina an angel of the Lord in a flame of fire in a [l] bush.

31 When Moses saw it, he wondered at the sight: and as he drew near to behold it, the voice of the Lord came unto him, 32 Saying, [n] I am the God of thy fathers, the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. Then Moses trembled, and durst not behold.

33 Then said the Lord to him, [q] Put off thy shoes from thy feet: for the place where thou standest is holy ground.

Egypt, and I have heard their groaning, and am come down to deliver them. And now come, I will send thee into Egypt.

35 This Moses whom they refused, saying, Who made thee a ruler and a judge? the same did God send to be a ruler and a deliverer [e] by the hand of the angel which appeared to him in the bush.

36 He [i] brought them out, after that he had shewed wonders and signs in the land [l] of Egypt, and [m] in the Red sea, and [n] in the wilderness forty years.

37 ¶ This is that Moses, which said unto the children of Israel, [o] A prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you of your brethren, like unto me; him shall ye hear.

38 This is he, that was in the [3]church in the wilderness with the angel which spake to him in the mount Sina, and with our fathers: [u] who received the lively [x] oracles to give unto us:

39 To whom our fathers [y] would not obey, but thrust him from them, and in their hearts [b] turned back again into Egypt,

40 Saying unto Aaron, [d] Make us gods to go before us: for as for this Moses, which brought us out of the land of Egypt, we wot not what is become of him.

41 And [h] they made a calf in those days, and offered sacrifice unto the idol, and rejoiced in the works of their own hands.

42 Then God turned, and [m] gave them up to worship [n] the host of heaven; as it is written in the book of the prophets, O ye house of Israel, [q] have ye offered to me slain beasts and sacrifices by the space of forty years in the wilderness?

43 Yea, ye took up the tabernacle of Mō-lŏch, and the star of your god [4s] Remphan, figures which ye made to worship them: and I will carry you away beyond Babylon.

44 Our fathers had the [x] tabernacle of witness in the wilderness, as he had appointed, speaking unto Moses, that he should make it [z] according to the fashion that he had seen.

45 Which also our fathers that came after brought in with [2a] Jesus into the possession of the Gentiles, [b] whom God drave out before the face of our fathers, unto the days of David;

46 [c] Who found favour before God, and [d] desired to find a tabernacle for the God of Jacob.

47 But Solomon [f] built him an house.

48 Howbeit the [g] most High dwelleth not [h] in temples made with hands; as saith the prophet,

49 [k] Heaven is my throne, and earth is my footstool: what house will ye build me? saith the Lord: or what is the place of my rest?

50 Hath not my hand made all these things?

51 ¶ Ye [b] stiffnecked and [g] uncircumcised in heart and ears, ye do [r] always resist the Holy Ghost: [s] as your fathers did, so do ye.

52 [t] Which of the prophets have not your fathers persecuted? and they have slain them which shewed before of the coming of [z] the Just One; [a] of whom ye have been now the betrayers and murderers:

53 Who have received the law [c] by the disposition of angels, and have not [e] kept it.

54 ¶ When they heard these things, [f] they were cut to the heart, and they [g] gnashed on him with their teeth.

55 But he, being [i] full of the Holy Ghost, looked up stedfastly into heaven, and saw the [k] glory of God, and Jesus standing [l] on the right hand of God,

56 And said, Behold, I see the [o] heavens opened, and the [p] Son of man standing on the right hand of God.

57 Then they cried out with a loud voice, and stopped their ears, and ran upon him with one accord,

58 And cast him out of the city, and [r] stoned him: and the witnesses laid down their clothes [t] at a young man's feet, whose name was Saul.

59 And they stoned Stephen, [v] calling upon God, and saying, Lord Jesus, receive my spirit.

60 And he [y] kneeled down, and [a] cried with a loud voice, Lord, lay not this sin to their charge. And when he had said this, he [b] fell asleep.

CHAPTER 8

A.D. 33

AND Saul was consenting unto his death. And at that time there was a great [a] persecution against the church which was at Jerusalem; and [c] they were all scattered abroad throughout the regions of Judæa and Samaria, except the apostles.

2 And devout men carried Stephen to his burial, and made great lamentation over him.

3 As for [h] Saul, he made havock of the church, entering into every house, and haling men and women committed them to prison.

4 Therefore [i] they that were scattered abroad went every where preaching the word.

5 Then [k] Philip went down to the city of Samaria, and [l] preached Christ unto them.

6 And the people with one accord gave heed unto those things which Philip spake, hearing and [n] seeing the miracles which he did.

7 For [o] unclean spirits, crying with loud voice, came out of many that were possessed with them: and many taken with palsies, and that were lame, were healed.

8 And there was great joy in that city.

9 But there was a certain man, called Simon, which beforetime in the same city [s] used sorcery, and bewitched the people of Samaria, giving out that himself was some great one:

10 To whom they all gave heed, from the least to the greatest, saying, [2] This man is the great power of God.

11 And to him they had regard, because that of long time he had bewitched them with sorceries.

12 But when they believed Philip [x] preaching the things concerning the kingdom of God, and the name of Jesus Christ, [z] they were baptized, both men and women.

13 Then Simon himself believed also: and when he was baptized, he continued with Philip, and wondered, beholding the miracles and signs which were done.

14 Now when the apostles which were at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent unto them Peter and John:

15 Who, when they were come down, [b] prayed for them, that they might receive the Holy Ghost:

16 (For [d] as yet he was fallen upon none of them: only [e] they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.)

17 Then [f] laid they their hands on them, and they [g] received the Holy Ghost.

18 And when Simon saw that through laying on of the apostles' hands the Holy Ghost was given, he offered them money,

19 Saying, Give me also this power, that on whomsoever I lay hands, he may receive the Holy Ghost.

20 But Peter said unto him, Thy money perish with thee, because thou hast thought that the [m] gift of God may be purchased with money.

21 Thou hast neither part nor lot in this matter: for thy heart is not right in the sight of God.

22 [p] Repent therefore of this thy wickedness, and pray God, if perhaps the thought of thine heart may be forgiven thee.

23 For I perceive that thou art in [q] the gall of bitterness, and in the bond of iniquity.

24 Then answered Simon, and said, [r] Pray ye to the Lord for me, that none of these things which ye have spoken come upon me.

25 And they, when they had testified and preached the word of the Lord, returned to Jerusalem, and preached the gospel in many villages of the [t] Samaritans.

26 And the [u] angel of the Lord spake unto Philip, saying, Arise, and go toward the south unto the way that goeth down from Jerusalem unto [y] Gaza, which is desert.

27 And he arose and went: and, behold, a [a] man of Ethiopia, an [b] eunuch of great authority under Căn-dă-çē queen of the Ethiopians, who had the charge of all her treasure, and [c] had come to Jerusalem for to worship,

28 Was returning, and sitting in his chariot read Ē-śâi-ăs the prophet.

29 Then [a]the Spirit said unto Philip, Go near, and join thyself to this chariot.

30 And Philip ran thither to him, and heard him read the prophet Ē-sâi'ăs, and said, Understandest thou what thou readest?

31 And he said, [d]How can I, except some man should guide me? And he desired Philip that he would come up and sit with him.

32 The place of the scripture which he read was this, [g]He was led as a sheep to the slaughter; and like a lamb dumb before his shearer, so opened he not his mouth:

33 In his humiliation his judgment was taken away: and who shall declare his generation? for his life is taken from the earth.

34 And the eunuch answered Philip, and said, I pray thee, of whom speaketh the prophet this? of himself, or of some other man?

35 Then Philip opened his mouth, and [k]began at the same scripture, and [l]preached unto him Jesus.

36 And as they went on their way, they came unto a certain water: and the eunuch said, See, here is water; [m]what doth hinder me to be baptized?

37 [3]And Philip said, If thou believest with all thine heart, thou mayest. And he answered and said, I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God.

38 And he commanded the chariot to stand still: and they went down both into the water, both Philip and the eunuch; and [p]he baptized him.

39 And when they were come up out of the water, [r]the Spirit of the Lord caught away Philip, that the eunuch saw him no more: and he went on his way rejoicing.

40 But Philip was found at [t]Ă-zō'tŭs: and passing through he preached in all the cities, till he came to Cæsarea.

CHAPTER 9

AND Saul, yet [y]breathing out threatenings and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went unto the high priest,

2 And desired of him letters to [d]Damascus to the synagogues, that if he found any of [b]this way, whether they were men or women, he might bring them bound unto Jerusalem.

3 [c]And as he journeyed, he came near Damascus: and suddenly there shined round about him a light from heaven:

4 And [e]he fell to the earth, and [f]heard a voice saying unto him, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

5 And he said, Who art thou, Lord? And the Lord said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest: [2]it is hard for thee to kick against the pricks.

6 And he trembling and astonished said, Lord, what wilt thou have me to do? And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the city, and it shall be told thee what thou must do.

7 And the men which journeyed with him stood speechless, [h]hearing a voice, [i]but seeing no man.

8 And Saul arose from the earth; and when his eyes were opened, he saw no man: but they led him by the hand, and brought him into Damascus.

9 And he was three days without sight, and neither did eat nor drink.

10 ¶ And there was a certain disciple at Damascus, named [n]Ăn-ă-nī'ăs; and [o]to him said the Lord in a vision, Ananias. And he said, Behold, I am here, Lord.

11 And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the street which is called Straight, and enquire in the house of Judas for one called Saul, [q]of Tarsus: for, behold, he prayeth,

12 And hath seen in a vision a man named Ăn-ă-nī'ăs coming in, and [s]putting his hand on him, that he might receive his sight.

13 Then Ăn-ă-nī'ăs answered, Lord, I have heard by many of this man, [u]how much evil he hath done to thy saints at Jerusalem:

14 And here he hath authority from the chief priests to bind [x]all that call on thy name.

15 But the Lord said unto him, Go thy way: for [z]he is [a]a chosen vessel unto me, to bear my name [b]before the Gentiles, and [c]kings, and the children of Israel:

16 For [a] I will shew him how great things [b] he must suffer [c] for my name's sake.

17 And Ăn-ă-nī'ăs went his way, and entered into the house; and [f] putting his hands on him said, Brother Saul, the Lord, even Jesus, that appeared unto thee in the way as thou camest, hath sent me, [i] that thou mightest receive thy sight, and [k] be filled with the Holy Ghost.

18 And immediately there fell from his eyes as it had been scales: and he received sight forthwith, and arose, and [n] was baptized.

19 And when he had received meat, he was strengthened. Then was Saul certain days with the disciples which were [p] at Damascus.

20 And straightway he [q] preached Christ [r] in the synagogues, [s] that he is the Son of God.

21 But all that heard him were amazed, and said; Is not this he that destroyed them which called on this name in Jerusalem, and came hither for that intent, that he might bring them bound unto the chief priests?

22 But Saul increased the more in strength, and [z] confounded the Jews which dwelt at Damascus, proving that this is very [a] Christ.

23 ¶ And [c] after that many days were fulfilled, the Jews [d] took counsel to kill him:

24 But their laying await was known of Saul. And they watched the gates day and night to kill him.

25 Then the disciples took him [f] by night, and [g] let him down by the wall in a basket.

26 And [h] when Saul was come to Jerusalem, he assayed to join himself to the disciples: but they were all afraid of him, and believed not that he was a disciple.

27 But [i] Barnabas took him, and [k] brought him to the apostles, and declared unto them how he had seen the Lord in the way, and that he had spoken to him, and how he had [n] preached boldly at Damascus in the name of Jesus.

28 And he was with them coming in and going out at Jerusalem.

29 And he spake boldly in the name of the Lord Jesus, and disputed against the [2d] Grecians: but [e] they went about to slay him.

30 Which when the brethren knew, they brought him down to Cæsarea, and sent him forth to [g] Tarsus.

31 [h] Then had the churches rest throughout all Judæa and Galilee and Samaria, and were edified; and [l] walking in the fear of the Lord, and in the comfort of the Holy Ghost, [m] were multiplied.

32 ¶ And it came to pass, as Peter passed throughout all quarters, he came down also to the saints which dwelt at [o] Lydda.

33 And there he found a certain man named Æ-nē'ăs, which had kept his bed eight years, and was sick of the palsy.

34 And Peter said unto him, Æ-nē'ăs, [t] Jesus Christ maketh thee whole: arise, and make thy bed. And he arose immediately.

35 And all that dwelt at Lydda and [u] Saron saw him, and [x] turned to the Lord.

36 ¶ Now there was at [y] Joppa a certain disciple named Tabitha, which by interpretation is called [3] Dorcas: [b] this woman was full of good works and almsdeeds which she did.

37 And it came to pass in those days, that she was sick, and died: whom when they had washed, they laid her in an [e] upper chamber.

38 And forasmuch as Lydda was nigh to Joppa, and the disciples had heard that Peter was there, they sent unto him two men, desiring him that he would not delay to come to them.

39 Then Peter arose and went with them. When he was come, they brought him into the upper chamber: and all the widows stood by him weeping, and shewing the coats and garments which Dorcas made, while she was with them.

40 But Peter [l] put them all forth, and [m] kneeled down, and prayed; and turning him to the body said, Tabitha, arise. [o] And she opened her eyes: and when she saw Peter, she sat up.

41 And he gave her his hand, and lifted her up, and when he had called the saints and widows, presented her alive.

42 And it was known throughout all Joppa; and [a] many believed in the Lord.

43 And it came to pass, that he tarried many days in Joppa with one [c] Simon a tanner.

CHAPTER 10

THERE was a certain man in Cæsarea called Cornelius, a centurion of [f] the [2]band called the Italian band,

2 A [h] devout man, and one that [i] feared God with all his house, which gave much alms to the people, and prayed to God alway.

3 [k] He saw in a vision evidently about the [l] ninth hour of the day an [m] angel of God coming in to him, and saying unto him, Cornelius.

4 And when he looked on him, [n] he was afraid, and said, What is it, Lord? And he said unto him, [o] Thy prayers and thine alms are come up for a memorial before God.

5 And now send men to [q] Joppa, and call for one Simon, whose surname is Peter:

6 He lodgeth with one [r] Simon a tanner, whose house is by the sea side: he shall tell thee what thou oughtest to do.

7 And when the angel which spake unto Cornelius was departed, he called two of his household servants, and a devout soldier of them that waited on him continually;

8 And when he had declared all these things unto them, he sent them to Joppa.

9 ¶ [u] On the morrow, as they went on their journey, and drew nigh unto the city, Peter went up upon the [x] housetop [y] to pray about the sixth hour:

10 And he became very hungry, and would have eaten: but while they made ready, he fell into [z] a trance,

11 And saw [a] heaven opened, and a certain vessel descending unto him, as it had been a great sheet knit at the four corners, and let down to the earth:

12 Wherein were all manner of four-footed beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and fowls of the air.

13 And [b] there came a voice to him, Rise, Peter; kill, and eat.

14 But Peter said, Not so, Lord; for [d] I have never eaten any thing that is common or unclean.

15 And the voice spake unto him again the second time, [e] What God hath cleansed, that call not thou common.

16 This was done [g] thrice: and the vessel was received up again into heaven.

17 Now while Peter doubted in himself what this vision which he had seen should mean, behold, the men which were sent from Cornelius had made enquiry for Simon's house, and stood before the gate,

18 And called, and asked whether Simon, which was surnamed Peter, were lodged there.

19 ¶ While Peter thought on the vision, [p] the Spirit said unto him, Behold, three men seek thee.

20 Arise therefore, and get thee down, and go with them, doubting nothing: for I have sent them.

21 Then Peter went down to the men which were sent unto him from Cornelius; and said, Behold, I am he whom ye seek: what is the cause wherefore ye are come?

22 And they said, Cornelius the centurion, [s] a just man, and one that feareth God, and [t] of good report among all the nation of the Jews, was warned from God by an holy angel to send for thee into his house, and to hear words of thee.

23 Then called he them in, and lodged them. And on the morrow Peter went away with them, and certain brethren from Joppa accompanied him.

24 And the morrow after they entered into Cæsarea. And Cornelius waited for them, and had called together his kinsmen and near friends.

25 And as Peter was coming in,

Cornelius met him, and fell down at his feet, and [a] worshipped him.

26 But Peter took him up, saying, [c] Stand up; [d] I myself also am a man.

27 And as he talked with him, he went in, and found many that were come together.

28 And he said unto them, Ye know how that [i] it is an unlawful thing for a man that is a Jew to keep company, or come unto one of another nation; but [l] God hath shewed me that I should not call any man common or unclean.

29 Therefore came I unto you without gainsaying, as soon as I was sent for: I ask therefore for what intent ye have sent for me?

30 And Cornelius said, Four days ago I was fasting until this hour; and at the ninth hour I prayed in my house, and, behold, [r] a man stood before me in bright clothing,

31 And said, Cornelius, thy prayer is heard, and thine alms are had in remembrance in the sight of God.

32 Send therefore to Joppa, and call hither Simon, whose surname is Peter; he is lodged in the house of one Simon a tanner by the sea side: who, when he cometh, shall speak unto thee.

33 Immediately therefore I sent to thee; and thou hast well done that thou art come. Now therefore are we all here present before God, to hear all things that are commanded thee of God.

34 ¶ Then Peter opened his mouth, and said, Of a truth I perceive that [d] God is no respecter of persons:

35 But in every nation he that feareth him, and [e] worketh righteousness, is [f] accepted with him.

36 The word which God sent unto the children of Israel, [h] preaching peace by Jesus Christ: (he is [i] Lord of all:)

37 That word, I say, ye know, which was published throughout all Judæa, and [l] began from Galilee, after the [n] baptism which John preached;

38 [o] How God anointed Jesus of Nazareth [r] with the Holy Ghost and with power: who went about doing good, and healing all that were [b] oppressed of the devil; for God was with him.

39 And [e] we are witnesses of all things which he did both in the land of the Jews, and in Jerusalem; [f] whom they slew and [g] hanged on a tree:

40 Him [h] God raised up the third day, and [k] shewed him openly;

41 Not to all the people, but unto witnesses chosen before of God, even to us, [m] who did eat and drink with him after he rose from the dead.

42 And [n] he commanded us to preach unto the people, and to testify that it is he which was ordained of God [n] to be the Judge of quick and dead.

43 [p] To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name [q] whosoever believeth in him shall receive [s] remission of sins.

44 ¶ While Peter yet spake these words, the [t] Holy Ghost fell on all them which heard the word.

45 And [u] they of the circumcision which believed were astonished, as many as came with Peter, because that [x] on the Gentiles also was poured out the gift of the Holy Ghost.

46 For they heard them [y] speak with tongues, and [z] magnify God. Then answered Peter, 47 [a] Can any man forbid water, [b] that these should not be baptized, which have received the Holy Ghost as well as we?

48 And he commanded them to be baptized [c] in the name of the Lord. Then prayed they him to tarry certain days.

CHAPTER 11

AND the apostles and brethren that were in Judæa heard that [g] the Gentiles had also received the word of God.

2 And when Peter was come up to Jerusalem, [k] they that were of the circumcision contended with him,

3 Saying, [m] Thou wentest in to men uncircumcised, and didst eat with them.

4 But Peter rehearsed the matter from the beginning, and expounded it [a] by order unto them, saying,

5 [c] I was in the city of Joppa praying: and in a trance I saw a vision, A certain vessel descend, as it had been a great sheet, let down from heaven by four corners; and it came even to me:

6 Upon the which when I had fastened mine eyes, I considered, and saw fourfooted beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and fowls of the air.

7 And I heard a voice saying unto me, Arise, Peter; slay and eat.

8 But I said, Not so, Lord: for nothing common or unclean hath at any time entered into my mouth.

9 But the voice answered me again from heaven, What God hath cleansed, that call not thou common.

10 And this was done three times: and all were drawn up again into heaven.

11 And, behold, immediately there were three men already come unto the house where I was, sent from Cæsarea unto me.

12 And the Spirit bade me go with them, [3]nothing doubting. Moreover these six brethren accompanied me, and we entered into the man's house:

13 And he shewed us how he had seen an angel in his house, which stood and said unto him, Send men to Joppa, and call for Simon, whose surname is Peter;

14 Who shall tell thee words, whereby thou and [r] all thy house shall be saved.

15 And as I began to speak, [t] the Holy Ghost fell on them, as on us at the beginning.

16 Then remembered I the word of the Lord, [z] how that he said, John indeed baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost.

17 Forasmuch then as God gave them the like gift as he did unto us, who believed on the Lord Jesus Christ; [d] what was I, that I could withstand God?

18 When they heard these things, they held their peace, and [g] glorified God, saying, Then hath God also to the Gentiles [b] granted repentance unto life.

19 ¶ Now [d] they which were scattered abroad upon the persecution that arose about Stephen travelled as far as [e] Phē-nī'-çē, and [f] Cyprus, and Ăn'-tĭ-ŏch, preaching the word to none but unto the Jews only.

20 And some of them were men of Cyprus and [g] Çȳ-rē'-nē, which, when they were come to [h] Ăn'-tĭ-ŏch, spake unto the [2i] Grecians, preaching the Lord Jesus.

21 And the hand of the Lord was with them: and [k] a great number believed, and [l] turned unto the Lord.

22 ¶ Then tidings of these things came unto the ears of the church which was in Jerusalem: and they sent forth [m] Barnabas, that he should go as far as Ăn'-tĭ-ŏch.

23 Who, when he came, and had seen the [n] grace of God, was glad, and [n] exhorted them all, that with purpose of heart they would cleave unto the Lord.

24 For he was a good man, and [o] full of the Holy Ghost and of faith: and [p] much people was added unto the Lord.

25 Then departed Barnabas to [q] Tarsus, for to seek Saul:

26 And when he had found him, he brought him unto Ăn'-tĭ-ŏch. And it came to pass, that a whole year they assembled themselves with the church, and taught much people. And the disciples were called [s] Christians first in Antioch.

27 ¶ And in these days came [u] prophets from Jerusalem unto Ăn'-tĭ-ŏch.

28 And there stood up one of them named [x] Ăg'-ă-bŭs, and [y] signified by the Spirit that there should be great [a] dearth throughout all the world: which came to pass in the days of [b] Claudius Cæsar.

29 Then the disciples, every man according to his ability, determined [c] to send relief unto the brethren which dwelt in Judæa:

30 [e] Which also they did, and sent it to the [f] elders by the hands of Barnabas and Saul.

CHAPTER 12

A.D. 44

NOW about that time [a] Herod the king stretched forth his hands [c] to vex certain of the church.

2 And he killed [d] James the brother of John with the sword.

3 And because he saw it pleased the Jews, he proceeded further to take Peter also. (Then were the [f] days of unleavened bread.)

4 And when he had apprehended him, he put him [g] in prison, and delivered him to four quaternions of soldiers to keep him; intending after Easter to bring him forth to the people.

5 Peter therefore was kept in prison: but [i] prayer was made without ceasing of the church unto God for him.

6 And when Herod would have brought him forth, the same night Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, [l] bound with two chains: and the keepers before the door kept the prison.

7 And, behold, the [n] angel of the Lord came upon him, and a light shined in the prison: and he smote Peter on the side, and raised him up, saying, Arise up quickly. And his chains fell off from his hands.

8 And the angel said unto him, Gird thyself, and bind on thy sandals. And so he did. And he saith unto him, Cast thy garment about thee, and follow me.

9 And he went out, and followed him; and wist not that it was true which was done by the angel; but thought he saw a vision.

10 When they were past the first and the second ward, they came unto the iron gate that leadeth unto the city; [r] which opened to them of his own accord: and they went out, and passed on through one street; and forthwith the angel departed from him.

11 And when Peter was come to himself, he said, Now I know of a surety, that the Lord hath [x] sent his angel, and hath delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and from all the expectation of the people of the Jews.

12 And when he had considered the thing, he came to the house of Mary the mother of [b] John, whose surname was Mark; where many were gathered together praying.

13 And as Peter knocked at the door of the gate, a [e] damsel came to hearken, named Rhoda.

14 And when she knew Peter's voice, she opened not the gate for gladness, but ran in, and told how Peter stood before the gate.

15 And they said unto her, Thou art mad. But she constantly affirmed that it was even so. Then said they, [h] It is his angel.

16 But Peter continued knocking: and when they had opened the door, and saw him, they were astonished.

17 But he, [k] beckoning unto them with the hand to hold their peace, declared unto them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. And he said, Go shew these things unto [m] James, and to the brethren. And he departed, and went into another place.

18 Now as soon as it was day, there was no small stir among the soldiers, what was become of Peter.

19 And when Herod had sought for him, and found him not, he examined the keepers, and [o] commanded that they should be put to death. And he went down from Judæa to Cæsarea, and there abode.

20 ¶ And Herod was highly displeased with them of [p] Tyre and Sidon: but they came with one accord to him, and, having made Blastus the king's chamberlain their friend, desired peace; because [q] their country was nourished by the king's country.

21 And upon a set day Herod, arrayed in royal apparel, sat upon his [2] [s] throne, and made an oration unto them.

22 And the people gave a shout, saying, It is the voice of a god, and not of a man.

23 And immediately the angel of the Lord [t] smote him, because he [u] gave not God the glory: and he was eaten of worms, and gave up the ghost.

24 ¶ But [y] the word of God grew and multiplied.

25 And [a]Barnabas and Saul returned from Jerusalem, when they had [b]fulfilled their ministry, and took with them [d]John, whose surname was Mark.

CHAPTER 13

NOW there were in the church that was at [e]Ăn'tĭ-ŏch certain [f]prophets and [g]teachers; as [h]Barnabas, and Simeon that was called Niger, and [l]Lucius of [m]Çȳ-rē'nē, and Măn'ā-ĕn, which had been brought up with [n]Herod the tē'trärch, and Saul.

2 As they ministered to the Lord, and [q]fasted, the [r]Holy Ghost said, Separate me Barnabas and Saul for the work whereunto [t]I have called them.

3 And when they had fasted and [u]prayed, and [x]laid their hands on them, they sent them away.

4 ¶ So they, being sent forth by the Holy Ghost, departed unto Sĕ-lēū'çĭ-ă; and from thence they sailed to [a]Cyprus.

5 And when they were at Săl'ă-mĭs, they preached the word of God [b]in the synagogues of the Jews: and they had also [e]John to their [2f]minister.

6 And when they had gone through the isle unto Pā'phŏs, they found a certain [3i]sorcerer, a [k]false prophet, a Jew, whose name was Bar-jesus:

7 Which was with the [5n]deputy of the country, Sergius Paulus, a prudent man; who called for Barnabas and Saul, and desired to hear the word of God.

8 But Ĕl'ў-măs the sorcerer (for so is his name by interpretation) withstood them, seeking to turn away the deputy from the faith.

9 Then Saul, (who also is called Paul,) [s]filled with the Holy Ghost, set his eyes on him,

10 And said, O full of all [x]subtilty and all mischief, thou [y]child of the devil, thou enemy of all righteousness, wilt thou not cease to pervert the right ways of the Lord?

11 And now, behold, [c]the hand of the Lord is upon thee, and thou shalt be blind, not seeing the sun for a season. And immediately there fell on him a mist and a darkness; and he went about seeking some [c]to lead him by the hand.

12 Then the deputy, when he saw what was done, believed, being astonished at the doctrine of the Lord.

13 Now when Paul and his company loosed from Pā'phŏs, they came to Perga in [i]Pamphylia: and [k]John departing from them returned to Jerusalem.

14 ¶ But when they departed from Perga, they came to [o]Ăn'tĭ-ŏch in Pĭ-sĭd'ĭ-ă, and went [p]into the synagogue on the sabbath day, and sat down.

15 And after the [s]reading of the law and the prophets the rulers of the synagogue sent unto them, saying, Ye men and brethren, if ye have any word of exhortation for the people, say on.

16 Then Paul stood up, and [y]beckoning with his hand said, Men of Israel, and [z]ye that fear God, give audience.

17 The God of this people of Israel [c]chose our fathers, and exalted the people [d]when they dwelt as strangers in the land of Egypt, and with an [g]high arm [h]brought he them out of it.

18 And about the time of [l]forty years [4m]suffered he their manners in the wilderness.

19 And when he had destroyed [o]seven nations in the land of Chā'nă-ăn, he [p]divided their land to them by lot.

20 And after that he [q]gave unto them judges about the space of four hundred and fifty years, until [r]Samuel the prophet.

21 And afterward they desired a king: and [t]God gave unto them [u]Saul the son of Cis, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, by the space of forty years.

22 And [z]when he had removed him, [a]he raised up unto them David to be their king; to whom also he gave testimony, and said, [b]I have found David the son of Jesse, [d]a man after mine own heart, which shall fulfil all my will.

23 [a]Of this man's seed hath God according to his promise raised unto Israel [b]a Saviour, Jesus:

24 When John had first preached before his coming [c]the baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel.

25 And as John fulfilled his course, he said, Whom think ye that I am? [g]I am not he. But, behold, [h]there cometh one after me, whose shoes of his feet I am not worthy to loose.

26 Men and brethren, children of the stock of Abraham, and whosoever among you feareth God, [i]to you is the word of this salvation sent.

27 For they that dwell at Jerusalem, and their rulers, because [l]they knew him not, nor yet [m]the voices of the prophets which are read every sabbath day, they have fulfilled them [n]in condemning him.

28 And though they found no cause of death in him, yet desired they Pilate that he should [o]be slain.

29 And [p]when they had fulfilled all that was written of him, [s]they took him down from the tree, and laid him in a sepulchre.

30 But [x]God raised him from the dead:

31 And he was seen many days of them [y]which came up with him from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are [a]his witnesses unto the people.

32 And we declare unto you glad tidings, how that [b]the promise which was made unto the fathers,

33 God hath fulfilled the same unto us their children, in that he hath raised up Jesus again; as it is also written in the second psalm, [f]Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee.

34 And as concerning that he raised him up from the dead, now no more to return to corruption, he said on this wise, [k]I will give you the sure mercies of David.

35 Wherefore he saith also in another psalm, [m]Thou shalt not suffer thine Holy One to see corruption.

36 For David, after he had served his own generation by the will of God, [p]fell on sleep, and was laid unto his fathers, and saw corruption:

37 But he, whom God raised again, saw no corruption.

38 ¶ Be it known unto you therefore, men and brethren, that through this man is preached unto you [d]the forgiveness of sins:

39 And by him [e]all that believe are justified from all things, [f]from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses.

40 Beware therefore, lest that come upon you, which is spoken of in the prophets;

41 [k]Behold, ye despisers, and wonder, and perish: for I work a work in your days, a work which ye shall in no wise believe, though a man declare it unto you.

42 And when the Jews were gone out of the synagogue, the Gentiles besought that these words might be preached to them the next sabbath.

43 Now when the congregation was broken up, many of the Jews and [q]religious [r]proselytes followed Paul and Barnabas: who, speaking to them, [t]persuaded them to continue in [u]the grace of God.

44 ¶ And the next sabbath day came almost the whole city together to hear the word of God.

45 But [z]when the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with envy, and spake against those things which were spoken by Paul, contradicting and [c]blaspheming.

46 Then Paul and Barnabas [d]waxed bold, and said, It was necessary that the word of God should [e]first have been spoken to you: but seeing ye put it from you, and judge yourselves [g]unworthy of everlasting life, lo, we [h]turn to the Gentiles.

47 For so hath the Lord commanded us, saying, [i]I have set thee to be a light of the Gentiles, that thou shouldest be for salvation unto the ends of the earth.

48 And when the [l]Gentiles heard this, they were glad, and [n]glorified the word of the Lord: and as many as [o]were ordained to eternal life believed.

49 And the word of the Lord was published throughout all the region.

50 But the Jews stirred up the [a] devout and [d] honourable women, and the chief men of the city, and [e] raised persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and expelled them out of their coasts.

51 But they [f] shook off the dust of their feet against them, and came unto [h] Ī-cō-nĭ-ŭm.

52 And the disciples were filled [k] with joy, and with the Holy Ghost.

CHAPTER 14

AND it came to pass in [l] Ī-cō-nĭ-ŭm, that they went both together [n] into the synagogue of the Jews, and so spake, that a great multitude both of the Jews and also of the Greeks believed.

2 But [s] the unbelieving Jews stirred up the Gentiles, and made their minds evil affected against the brethren.

3 Long time therefore abode they [x] speaking boldly in the Lord, which gave testimony unto [z] the word of his grace, and granted [a] signs and wonders to be done by their hands.

4 But the multitude of the city was divided: and part held with the Jews, and part with the apostles.

5 And when there was an assault made both of the Gentiles, and also of the Jews with their rulers, [c] to use them despitefully, and to [e] stone them,

6 They were ware of it, and fled unto [f] Lystra and Dĕr-bē, cities of Lȳ-cā-ō-nĭ-ă, and unto the region that lieth round about:

7 And there they preached the gospel.

8 ¶ And there [g] sat a certain man at Lystra, impotent in his feet, being a cripple from his mother's womb, who never had walked:

9 The same heard Paul speak: who [k] stedfastly beholding him, and perceiving that he had faith to be healed,

10 Said with a loud voice, Stand upright on thy feet. And he [m] leaped and walked.

11 And when the people saw what Paul had done, they lifted up their voices, saying in the speech of Lȳ-cā-ō-nĭ-ă, [r] The gods are come down to us in the likeness of men.

15 And saying, Sirs, why do ye these things? [m] We also are men of like passions with you, and preach unto you that ye should [o] turn from these [p] vanities unto the [q] living God, [r] which made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and all things that are therein:

16 Who in times past [t] suffered all nations to walk in their own ways.

17 Nevertheless he [u] left not himself without witness, in that he did good, and [y] gave us rain from heaven, and fruitful seasons, filling our hearts with food and gladness.

18 And with these sayings scarce restrained they the people, that they had not done sacrifice unto them.

19 ¶ And there came thither certain Jews from [b] Ăn-tĭ-ŏch and Ī-cō-nĭ-ŭm, who persuaded the people, and, having [d] stoned Paul, drew him out of the city, supposing he had been dead.

20 Howbeit, as the disciples stood round about him, he rose up, and came into the city: and the next day he departed with Barnabas to Dĕr-bē.

21 And when they had preached the gospel to that city, and had taught many, they returned again to Lystra, and to Ī-cō-nĭ-ŭm, and Ăn-tĭ-ŏch,

22 Confirming the souls of the disciples, and [h] exhorting them to continue in the [i] faith, and that we must [l] through much tribulation enter into the kingdom of God.

23 And when they had ordained them [n] elders in every church, and [o] had prayed with [p] fasting, they [q] commended them to the Lord, on whom they believed.

24 And after they had passed throughout Pī-sĭd-ĭ-ă, they came to [s] Pamphylia.

25 And when they had preached the word in Perga, they went down into Ăt-tā'lĭ-ă:

26 And thence sailed to [b] Ăn'tĭ-ŏch, [d] from whence they had been [e] recommended to the grace of God for the work which they fulfilled.

27 And when they were come, and had gathered the church together, [i] they rehearsed all that God had done with them, and how he had [k] opened the door of faith unto the Gentiles.

28 And there they abode long time with the disciples.

END OF 1st Missionary Journey

CHAPTER 15

AND [n] certain men which came down from Judæa taught the brethren, and said, Except ye be circumcised [o] after the manner of Moses, ye cannot be saved.

2 When therefore Paul and [q] Barnabas had no small dissension and disputation with them, they determined that Paul and Barnabas, and certain other of them, [t] should go up to Jerusalem unto the apostles and [u] elders about this question.

3 And [y] being brought on their way by the church, they passed through [z] Phē-nī'çē and Samaria, declaring [a] the conversion of the Gentiles: and they caused great joy unto all the brethren.

4 And when they were come to Jerusalem, they were received of the church, and of the apostles and elders, and [b] they declared all things that God had done with them.

5 But there rose up certain of the sect of the Pharisees which believed, saying, That it was needful to circumcise them, and to command them to keep the law of Moses.

6 ¶ And the apostles and elders came together for to consider of this matter.

7 And when there had been much disputing, Peter rose up, and said unto them, Men and brethren, ye know how that a good while ago God made choice among us, [g] that the Gentiles by my mouth should hear the word of the gospel, and believe.

8 And God, which [i] knoweth the hearts, bare them witness, [a] giving them the Holy Ghost, even as he did unto us;

9 And [c] put no difference between us and them, [f] purifying their hearts by faith.

10 Now therefore [g] why tempt ye God, to put a yoke upon the neck of the disciples, [h] which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear?

11 But we believe that through the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ we shall be [l] saved, even as they.

12 ¶ Then all the multitude kept silence, and gave audience to Barnabas and Paul, declaring what [m] miracles and wonders God had wrought among the Gentiles by them.

13 ¶ And after they had held their peace, [p] James answered, saying, Men and brethren, hearken unto me:

14 [r] Simeon hath declared how God at the first did visit the Gentiles, [s] to take out of them a people for his name.

15 And to this agree the words of the prophets; as it is written,

16 [x] After this I will return, and will build again the tabernacle of David, which is fallen down; and I will build again the ruins thereof, and I will set it up:

17 That the residue of men might seek after the Lord, and all the Gentiles, upon whom my name is called, [2] saith the Lord, who doeth all these things.

18 Known unto God are all his works [c] from the beginning of the world.

19 Wherefore my sentence is, that we trouble not them, which [d] from among the Gentiles are turned to God:

20 But [e] that we write unto them, that they abstain from pollutions of idols, and from fornication, and from things strangled, and from blood.

21 For Moses of old time hath in every city them that preach him, [f] being read in the synagogues every sabbath day.

22 Then pleased it the apostles and elders, with the whole church, to send chosen men of their own company to [h] Ăn'tĭ-ŏch with Paul and Barnabas; namely, Judas surnamed [k] Barsabas, and [a] Silas, chief men among the brethren:

23 And they wrote letters by them after this manner; The apostles and elders and brethren send greeting unto the brethren which are of the Gentiles in Ăn'tĭ-ŏch and Syria and [d] Çĭ-lĭç'ĭ-ă:

24 Forasmuch as we have heard, that [f] certain which went out from us have troubled you with words, subverting your souls, saying, Ye must be circumcised, and keep the law: to whom we gave no such commandment:

25 It seemed good unto us, being assembled [i] with one accord, to send chosen men unto you with our beloved Barnabas and Paul,

26 Men [m] that have hazarded their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

27 We have sent therefore Judas and Silas, who shall also tell you the same things by mouth.

28 For it seemed good to the Holy Ghost, and to us, [r] to lay upon you no greater burden than these necessary things;

29 [t] That ye abstain from [u] meats offered to idols, and [y] from blood, and from things strangled, and from fornication: from which if ye keep yourselves, ye shall do well. Fare ye well.

30 So when they were dismissed, they came to Ăn'tĭ-ŏch: and when they had gathered the multitude together, they delivered the epistle:

31 Which when they had read, they rejoiced for the consolation.

32 And Judas and Silas, being [e] prophets also themselves, [f] exhorted the brethren with many words, and confirmed them.

33 And after they had tarried there a space, [l] they were let go in peace from the brethren unto the apostles.

34 [p] Notwithstanding it pleased Silas to abide there still.

35 Paul also and Barnabas continued in Ăn'tĭ-ŏch, teaching and preaching the word of the Lord, with many others also.

36 ¶ And some days after Paul said unto Barnabas, Let us go again and visit our brethren [b] in every city where we have preached the word of the Lord, and see how they do.

37 And Barnabas determined to take with them [c] John, whose surname was Mark.

38 But Paul thought not good to take him with them, [e] who departed from them from [g] Pamphylia, and went not with them to the work.

39 And the contention was so sharp between them, that they departed asunder one from the other: and so Barnabas took Mark, and sailed unto [h] Cyprus;

40 And Paul chose [k] Silas, and departed, [l] being recommended by the brethren unto the grace of God.

41 And he went through [n] Syria and Çĭ-lĭç'ĭ-ă, [o] confirming the churches.

CHAPTER 16

THEN came he to Dĕr'bē and [p] Lystra: and, behold, a certain disciple was there, named [q] Tī-mŏth'ĕ-ŭs, [s] the son of a certain woman, which was a Jewess, and believed; but his father was a Greek:

2 Which was [x] well reported of by the brethren that were at Lystra and [z] Ī-cō'nĭ-ŭm.

3 Him would Paul have to go forth with him; and [a] took and circumcised him [b] because of the Jews which were in those quarters: for they knew all that his father was a Greek.

4 And as they went through the cities, they delivered them [c] the decrees for to keep, that were ordained of the apostles and [d] elders which were at Jerusalem.

5 And [g] so were the churches established in [h] the faith, and [i] increased in number daily.

6 Now when they [k] had gone throughout [m] Phrўg'ĭ-ă and the region of [n] Galatia, and were forbidden [o] of the Holy Ghost to preach the word in [q] Asia,

7 After they were come to Mysia, they assayed to go into [r] Bī-thўn'ĭą: but [2] the Spirit suffered them not.

8 And they passing by Mysia came down to [s] Trō'ăs.

9 And a [a] vision appeared to Paul in the night; There stood a man of [b] Macedonia, and prayed him, saying, Come over into Macedonia, and help us.

10 And after he had seen the vision, immediately [d] we endeavoured to go into Macedonia, assuredly gathering that the Lord had called us for to preach the gospel unto them.

11 Therefore loosing from Trō'ăs, we came with a [h] straight course to Săm-ō-thrā'çĭ-ă, and the next day to Nē-ă'pŏ-lĭs;

12 And from thence to [k] Phī-lĭp'pī, which is [3] the chief city of that part of Macedonia, and a colony: and we were in that city abiding certain days.

13 And [m] on the sabbath we went out of the city by a river side, where prayer was wont to be made; and we sat down, and spake unto the women which resorted thither.

14 ¶ And a certain woman named Lydia, a seller of purple, of the city of [p] Thȳ-ă-tī'ră, [q] which worshipped God, heard us: whose heart the Lord opened, that she attended unto the things which were spoken of Paul.

15 And when she [s] was baptized, and [t] her household, she besought us, saying, If ye have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, [x] come into my house, and abide there. And she [y] constrained us.

16 ¶ And it came to pass, as we went to prayer, a certain damsel possessed with a [4z] spirit of divination met us, [a] which brought her masters much gain by soothsaying:

17 The same followed Paul and us, and cried, saying, These men are the servants of the [d] most high God, which shew unto us [e] the way of salvation.

18 And this did she many days. But Paul, being grieved, turned and said to the spirit, I command thee [f] in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her. And he came out the same hour.

19 ¶ And [h] when her masters saw that the hope of their gains was gone, they caught Paul and [i] Silas, and [k] drew them into the marketplace unto the rulers,

20 And brought them to the [2] magistrates, saying, These men, being Jews, [c] do exceedingly trouble our city,

21 And teach customs, which are not lawful for us to receive, neither to observe, being Romans.

22 And the multitude [e] rose up together against them: and the magistrates [f] rent off their clothes, and commanded to [g] beat them.

23 And when they had laid many [i] stripes upon them, they cast them into prison, charging the jailor to keep them safely:

24 Who, having received such a charge, thrust them into the inner [l] prison, and made their feet fast in [n] the stocks.

25 ¶ And at midnight Paul and Silas prayed, and sang praises unto God: and the prisoners heard them.

26 And suddenly there was a great [o] earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken: and immediately all [r] the doors were opened, and every one's bands were loosed.

27 And the keeper of the prison awaking out of his sleep, and seeing the prison doors open, he drew out his sword, and [u] would have killed himself, supposing that the prisoners had been fled.

28 But Paul cried with a loud voice, saying, Do thyself no harm: for we are all here.

29 Then he called for a light, and sprang in, and came trembling, and fell down before Paul and Silas, 30 And brought them out, and said, Sirs, [b] what must I do to be saved?

31 And they said, [c] Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house.

32 And they spake unto him the word of the Lord, and to all that were in his house.

33 And he took them the same hour of the night, and washed their stripes; and was [g] baptized, he and all his, straightway.

34 And when he had brought them into his house, he set meat before them, and rejoiced, believing in God with [l] all his house.

35 And when it was day, the magistrates sent the [2]serjeants, saying, Let those men go.

36 And the keeper of the prison told this saying to Paul, The magistrates have sent to let you go: now therefore depart, and go in peace.

37 But Paul said unto them, They have beaten us openly uncondemned, [e] being Romans, and have cast us into prison; and now do they thrust us out privily? nay verily; but let them come themselves and fetch us out.

38 And the serjeants told these words unto the magistrates: and [g] they feared, when they heard that they were Romans.

39 And they came and besought them, and brought them out, and desired them to depart out of the city.

40 And they went out of the prison, and entered into the house of Lydia: and when they had seen the brethren, they comforted them, and departed.

CHAPTER 17

NOW when they had passed through Ăm-phĭp′ŏ-lĭs and Ăp-ŏl-lō′nĭ-ă, they came to [m]Thĕss-ă-lō-nī′că, where was a [n] synagogue of the Jews:

2 And Paul, as his manner was, went in unto them, and three sabbath days reasoned with them [o] out of the scriptures,

3 Opening and alleging, that Christ must needs have suffered, and [q] risen again from the dead; and that this Jesus, whom I preach unto you, is [s] Christ.

4 And some of them believed, and consorted with Paul and [t] Silas; and of the [u] devout Greeks a great multitude, and of the chief women not a few.

5 ¶ But [y] the Jews which believed not, moved with envy, took unto them certain lewd fellows of the baser sort, and gathered a company, and set all the city on an uproar, and assaulted the house of [z] Jason, and sought to bring them out to the people.

6 And when they found them not, they [a] drew Jason and certain brethren unto the rulers of the city, crying, These that have [a] turned the world upside down are come hither also;

7 Whom Jason hath received: and these all do contrary to the [b] decrees of Cæsar, saying that there is [c] another king, [d] one Jesus.

8 And they troubled the people and the rulers of the city, when they heard these things.

9 And when they had taken security of Jason, and of the other, they let them go.

10 ¶ And the brethren immediately sent away Paul and Silas [f] by night unto [h] Bĕ-rē′ă: who coming thither [i] went into the synagogue of the Jews.

11 These were more noble than those in Thĕss-ă-lō-nī′că, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and [k] searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so.

12 Therefore many of them believed; also of [l] honourable women which were Greeks, and of men, not a few.

13 But when the Jews of Thĕss-ă-lō-nī′că had knowledge that the word of God was preached of Paul at Bĕ-rē′ă, they came thither also, and stirred up the people.

14 And then immediately the brethren sent away Paul to go as it were to the sea: but Silas and [p] Tī-mŏth′ĕ-ŭs abode there still.

15 And they that conducted Paul brought him unto [r] Athens: and receiving a commandment unto Silas and Tī-mŏth′ĕ-ŭs for to come to him with all speed, they departed.

16 ¶ Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was stirred in him, when he saw the city [x] wholly given to idolatry.

17 Therefore disputed he in the synagogue with the Jews, and with the devout persons, and in the market daily with them that met with him.

18 Then certain philosophers of the Ĕp-ĭ-cū-rē′ăns, and of the Stō′ĭcks, encountered him. And some said, What will this babbler say? other some, He seemeth to be a setter forth of strange gods: because he preached unto them Jesus, and the resurrection.

19 And they took him, and brought him unto Ăr-ĕ-ŏp′ă-gŭs, saying, May we know what this [c] new doctrine, whereof thou speakest, is?

20 For thou bringest certain strange things to our ears: we would know therefore what these things mean.

21 (For all the Athenians and strangers which were there spent their time in nothing else, but either to tell, or to hear some new thing.)

22 ¶ Then Paul stood in the midst of Mars' hill, and said, Ye men of Athens, I perceive that in all things ye are [2] too superstitious.

23 For as I passed by, and beheld your devotions, I found an altar with this inscription, TO THE UNKNOWN GOD. Whom therefore ye ignorantly worship, him declare I unto you.

24 God that [k] made the world and all things therein, seeing that he is [m] Lord of heaven and earth, dwelleth not in [o] temples made with hands;

25 Neither is worshipped with men's hands, [q] as though he needed any thing, seeing he giveth to all life, and [r] breath, and all things;

26 And [t] hath made of one blood all nations of men for to dwell on all the face of the earth, and hath [u] determined the times before appointed, and [u] the bounds of their habitation;

27 That they [z] should seek the Lord, if haply they might feel after him, and find him, [b] though he be not far from every one of us:

28 For [f] in him we live, and move, and have our being; as certain also of [h] your own poets have said, For we are also his offspring.

29 [l] Forasmuch then as we are the offspring of God, [m] we ought not to think that the [4] Godhead is like unto gold, or silver, or stone, graven by art and man's device.

30 And the times of this ignorance [p] God winked at; but now [q] commandeth all men every where to repent:

31 Because he hath appointed a day, in the which he will judge the world

CHAPTER 18

AFTER these things Paul departed from [f] Athens, and came to [g] Corinth;

2 And found a certain Jew named [h] Aquila, born in Pontus, lately come from [i] Italy, with his wife [h] Priscilla; (because that [l] Claudius had commanded all Jews to depart from [n] Rome:) and came unto them.

3 And [b] because he was of the same craft, he abode with them, and wrought: for by their occupation they were tentmakers.

4 And he reasoned [s] in the synagogue every sabbath, and persuaded the Jews and the Greeks.

5 And when [x] Silas and [y] Tī-mŏth′ĕ-ŭs were come from Macedonia, Paul was [3] pressed in the spirit, and testified to the Jews that Jesus was [a] Christ.

6 And [c] when they opposed themselves, and [d] blasphemed, he [e] shook his raiment, and said unto them, [g] Your blood be upon your own heads; [i] I am clean: from henceforth [k] I will go unto the Gentiles.

7 And he departed thence, and entered into a certain man's house, named Justus, [n] one that worshipped God, whose house joined hard to the synagogue.

8 And [o] Crispus, the chief ruler of the synagogue, believed on the Lord [r] with all his house; and many of the Corinthians hearing believed, and were [s] baptized.

9 Then spake the Lord to Paul in the night [a] by a vision, Be not afraid, but speak, and hold not thy peace:

10 For [c] I am with thee, and no man shall set on thee to hurt thee: for I have much people in this city.
11 And he continued there a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.
12 ¶ And when Găl'lĭ-ō was the [f] deputy of Ā-chāi'ă, the Jews [g] made insurrection with one accord against Paul, and brought him to the [l] judgment seat,
13 Saying, This fellow persuadeth men to worship God contrary to the law.
14 And when Paul was now about to open his mouth, Găl'lĭ-ō said unto the Jews, If it were a matter of wrong or wicked lewdness, O ye Jews, reason would that I should bear with you:
15 But [r] if it be a question of words and names, and of your law, look ye to it; for I will be no judge of such matters.
16 And he drave them from the judgment seat.
17 Then all the Greeks took [x] Sŏs'thĕ-nēs, the chief ruler of the synagogue, and beat him before the judgment seat. And Găl'lĭ-ō cared for none of those things.
18 ¶ And Paul after this tarried there yet a good while, and then took his leave of the brethren, and sailed thence into [c] Syria, and with him Priscilla and Aquila; having [d] shorn his head in [e] Çĕn-chrē'ă: for he [f] had a vow.
19 And he came to [h] Ephesus, and left them there: but he himself [k] entered into the synagogue, and reasoned with the Jews.
20 When they desired him to tarry longer time with them, he consented not;
21 But bade them farewell, saying, [2] I must by all means keep this feast that cometh in Jerusalem: but I will return again unto you, [o] if God will. And he sailed from Ephesus.
22 And when he had landed at Cæsarea, and gone up, and saluted the church, he went down to [s] An'tĭ-ŏch.

23 And after he had spent some time there, he departed, and [b] went over all the country of Galatia and Phrўg'ĭ-ă in order, [d] strengthening all the disciples.
24 ¶ And a certain Jew named [e] Ă-pŏl'lŏs, born at Alexandria, an eloquent man, and mighty in the scriptures, came to Ephesus.
25 This man was [h] instructed [i] in the way of the Lord; and being [k] fervent in the spirit, he spake and taught diligently the things of the Lord, knowing only [m] the baptism of John.
26 And he began to speak [n] boldly in the synagogue: whom when Aquila and Priscilla had heard, they took him unto them, and [o] expounded unto him the [p] way of God more perfectly.
27 And when he was disposed to pass into [q] Ă-chāi'ă, the brethren [s] wrote, exhorting the disciples to receive him: who, when he was come, [t] helped them much which had believed through grace:
28 For he [u] mightily convinced the Jews, and that publickly, shewing by the scriptures that Jesus was Christ.

CHAPTER 19

AND it came to pass, that, while [y] Ă-pŏl'lŏs was at [z] Corinth, Paul having passed [a] through the upper coasts came to [b] Ephesus: and finding certain disciples,
2 He said unto them, Have ye received the Holy Ghost since ye believed? And they said unto him, [g] We have not so much as heard [i] whether there be any Holy Ghost.
3 And he said unto them, Unto what then were ye baptized? And they said, [l] Unto John's baptism.
4 Then said Paul, John verily baptized with the baptism of repentance, [m] saying unto the people, that they should believe on him [n] which should come after him, that is, on Christ Jesus.
5 When they heard this, [p] they were baptized [q] in the name of the Lord Jesus.
6 And when Paul had [r] laid his hands upon them, the [t] Holy Ghost came on them; and [a] they spake with tongues, and [c] prophesied.

7 And all the men were about twelve.

8 And he [d] went into the synagogue, and [g] spake boldly for the space of three months, disputing and persuading [k] the things concerning the kingdom of God.

9 But [m] when divers were hardened, and believed not, but spake evil of [n] that way before the multitude, he departed from them, and separated the disciples, disputing daily in the school of one Tyrannus.

10 And this continued by the space of [s] two years; so that all they which dwelt in [t] Asia heard the word of the Lord Jesus, both Jews and Greeks.

11 And God wrought special [y] miracles by the hands of Paul:

12 [a] So that from his body were brought unto the sick handkerchiefs or aprons, and the diseases departed from them, and the [b] evil spirits went out of them.

13 ¶ Then certain of the vagabond Jews, [c] exorcists, [d] took upon them to call over them which had evil spirits the name of the Lord Jesus, saying, [f] We adjure you by Jesus whom Paul preacheth.

14 And there were seven sons of one Sçē'vă, a Jew, and chief of the priests, which did so.

15 And [h] the evil spirit answered and said, Jesus I know, and Paul I know; but who are ye?

16 And the man in whom the evil spirit was leaped on them, and overcame them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded.

17 And this was known to all the Jews and Greeks also dwelling at Ephesus; and [k] fear fell on them all, and [l] the name of the Lord Jesus was magnified.

18 And many that believed came, and [m] confessed, and shewed their deeds.

19 Many of them also which used [3] curious arts brought their books together, and burned them before all men: and they counted the price of them, and found it fifty thousand pieces of silver.

20 [b] So mightily grew the word of God and prevailed.

21 ¶ After these things were ended, Paul [e] purposed in the spirit, [f] when he had passed through [h] Macedonia and [i] A-chāi'ă, to go to Jerusalem, saying, After I have been there, [l] I must also see Rome.

22 So he sent into Macedonia two of them that ministered unto him, [o] Tī-mŏth'ē-ŭs and [p] Erastus; but he himself stayed in Asia for a season.

23 And the same time [q] there arose no small stir about [r] that way.

24 For a certain man named Dē-mē'trĭ-ŭs, a silversmith, which made silver shrines for [u] Diana, [x] brought no small gain unto the craftsmen;

25 Whom he called together with the workmen of like occupation, [z] and said, Sirs, ye know that by this craft we have our wealth.

26 Moreover ye see and hear, that not alone at Ephesus, but almost throughout all Asia, this Paul hath persuaded and turned away much people, [e] saying that they be no gods, which are made with hands:

27 So that not only this our craft is in danger to be set at nought; but also that the temple of the great goddess Diana should be despised, and her magnificence should be destroyed, whom all Asia and [g] the world worshippeth.

28 And when they heard these sayings, they were full of wrath, and cried out, saying, Great is Diana of the Ephesians.

29 And the whole city was filled with confusion: and having caught [i] Gāi'ŭs and [i] Ăr-ĭs-tär'chŭs, men of Macedonia, Paul's companions in travel, they rushed with one accord into the theatre.

30 And when Paul would have entered in unto the people, the disciples suffered him not.

31 And certain of the [2] chief of Asia, which were his friends, sent unto him, desiring him that he would not adventure himself into the theatre.

32 [n] Some therefore cried one thing, and some another: for the assembly was confused; and the more part knew not wherefore they were come together.

33 And they drew Alexander out of the multitude, the Jews putting him forward. And Alexander [g] beckoned with the hand, and would have made his defence unto the people.

34 But when they knew that he was a Jew, all with one voice about the space of two hours cried out, Great is Diana of the Ephesians.

35 And when the townclerk had appeased the people, he said, Ye men of Ephesus, what man is there that knoweth not how that the city of the Ephesians is a worshipper of the great goddess Diana, and of the image which fell down from [o] Jupiter?

36 Seeing then that these things cannot be spoken against, ye ought to be quiet, and to do nothing rashly.

37 For ye have brought hither these men, which are neither [q] robbers of churches, nor yet blasphemers of your goddess.

38 Wherefore if Dē-mē'trĭ-ŭs, and the craftsmen which are with him, have a matter against any man, [2] the law is open, and there are [3s] deputies: let them implead one another.

39 But if ye enquire any thing concerning other matters, it shall be determined in a lawful assembly.

40 For we are in danger to be called in question for this day's uproar, there being no cause whereby we may give an account of this concourse.

41 And when he had thus spoken, he dismissed the assembly.

CHAPTER 20

AND after the uproar was ceased, Paul called unto him the disciples, and embraced them, and departed for to go into [y] Macedonia.

2 And when he had gone over those parts, and had [z] given them much exhortation, he came into Greece,

3 And there abode three months. And when the Jews [b] laid wait for him, as he was about to sail into [e] Syria, he purposed to return through Macedonia.

4 And there accompanied him into [g] Asia [h] Sō'pă-tĕr of [i] Bĕ-rē'ă; and of the [a] Thĕss-ă-lō'nĭ-ăns, [b] Ăr-ĭs-tär'chŭs and Sĕ-cŭn'dŭs; and [c] Gâi'ŭs of Dĕr'bē, and [d] Tī-mŏth'ĕ-ŭs; and of Asia, [e] Tȳch'ĭ-cŭs and [f] Trŏph'ĭ-mŭs.

5 These going before tarried for [h] us at [i] Trō'ăs.

6 And we sailed away from [k] Phĭ-lĭp'pī after the days of unleavened bread, and came unto them to Trō'ăs in five [l] days; where we abode seven days.

7 And upon [m] the first day of the week, when the disciples came together [n] to break bread, Paul preached unto them, ready to depart on the morrow; and continued his speech until midnight.

8 And there were many lights in the [p] upper chamber, where they were gathered together.

9 And there sat in a window a certain young man named Eû'tў-chŭs, being fallen into a [r] deep sleep: and as Paul was long preaching, he sunk down with sleep, and fell down from the third loft, and was taken up dead.

10 And Paul went down, and fell on him, and [t] embracing him said, Trouble not yourselves; [u] for his life is in him.

11 When he therefore was come up again, and had broken bread, and eaten, and talked a long while, even till break of day, so he departed.

12 And they brought the young man alive, and were not a little comforted.

13 ¶ And [x] we went before to ship, and sailed unto Assos, there intending to take in Paul: for so had he appointed, minding himself to go afoot.

14 And when he met with us at Assos, we took him in, and came to Mĭt-ў-lē'nē.

15 And we sailed thence, and came the next day over against Chī'ŏs; and the next day we arrived at Samos, and tarried at Trō-gўl'lĭ-ŭm; and the next day we came to [a] Mī-lē'tŭs.

16 For Paul had determined to sail by [c] Ephesus, because he [d] would not spend the time in Asia: for he hasted, if it were possible for him, tō be at Jerusalem the [f] day of Pentecost.

17 ¶ And from Mī-lē'tŭs he sent to Ephesus, and called the [a] elders of the church.

18 And when they were come to him, he said unto them, Ye know, [d] from the first day that I came into Asia, [f] after what manner I have been with you at all seasons,

19 Serving the Lord with all humility of mind, and with many [k] tears, and temptations, which befell me by [m] the lying in wait of the Jews:

20 And [n] how I kept back nothing that was profitable unto you, but have shewed you, and have taught you publickly, and from house to house,

21 Testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, [r] repentance toward God, and [s] faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ.

22 And now, behold, I go bound in the spirit unto Jerusalem, not knowing the things that shall befall me there:

23 Save that the [x] Holy Ghost witnesseth in every city, saying that bonds and afflictions abide me.

24 But none of these things move me, neither [y] count I my life dear unto myself, so [z] that I might finish my course with joy, and [b] the ministry, [c] which I have received of the Lord Jesus, to testify the gospel of the grace of God.

25 And now, behold, I know that ye all, among whom I have gone [f] preaching the kingdom of God, shall see my face no more.

26 Wherefore I take you to record this day, that [g] I am pure from the blood of all men.

27 For [i] I have not shunned to declare unto you all the counsel of God.

28 ¶ [t] Take heed therefore unto yourselves, and to all the [n] flock, over the which the Holy Ghost hath made you [2o] overseers, [p] to feed the church of God, which he hath [q] purchased with his own blood.

29 For I know this, that after my departing shall grievous [s] wolves enter in among you, not sparing the flock.

30 Also of your own selves shall men arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away disciples [u] after them.

31 Therefore [y] watch, and remember, that [b] by the space of three years I ceased not to warn every one night and day with tears.

32 And now, brethren, [c] I commend you to God, and to [e] the word of his grace, which is able to [g] build you up, and to give you [h] an inheritance among all [i] them which are sanctified.

33 [l] I have coveted no man's silver, or gold, or apparel.

34 Yea, ye yourselves know, that [o] these hands have ministered unto my necessities, and to them that were with me.

35 [p] I have shewed you all things, how that so labouring ye ought [q] to support the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he said, [t] It is more blessed to give than to receive.

36 ¶ And when he had thus spoken, he [u] kneeled down, and prayed with them all.

37 And they all wept sore, and fell on Paul's neck, and kissed him,

38 Sorrowing most of all for the words which he spake, that they should see his face no more. And they [a] accompanied him unto the ship.

CHAPTER 21

AND it came to pass, that after [d] we were gotten from them, and had launched, we came with a [e] straight course unto Cō'-ŏs, and the day following unto Rhodes, and from thence unto Patara:

2 And finding a ship sailing over unto [h] Phē-nĭç'-ĭă, we went aboard, and set forth.

3 Now when we had discovered [k] Cyprus, we left it on the left hand, and sailed into [m] Syria, and landed at Tyre: for there the ship was to unlade her burden.

4 And finding disciples, we tarried there seven days: who said to Paul [r] through the Spirit, that he should not go up to Jerusalem.

5 And when we had accomplished those days, we departed and went our way; and they all [t] brought us on our way, with wives and children, till we were out of the city: and we [x] kneeled down on the shore, and prayed.

A.D. 59

6 And when we had taken our leave one of another, we took ship; and they returned home again.

7 And when we had finished our course from Tyre, we came to Ptŏl-ĕ-mā'-ïs, and saluted the brethren, and abode with them one day.

8 And the next day we that were of Paul's company departed, and came unto Cæsarea: and we [b] entered into the house of [d] Philip the [e] evangelist, which was one of the seven; and abode with him.

9 And the same man had four daughters, [f] virgins, which did prophesy.

10 And as we tarried there many days, there came down from Judæa a certain prophet, named [h] Ăg'-ă-bŭs.

11 And when he was come unto us, he [k] took Paul's girdle, and bound his own hands and feet, and said, [m] Thus saith the Holy Ghost, So shall the Jews at Jerusalem bind the man that owneth this girdle, and shall deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles.

12 And when we heard these things, both we, and they of that place, besought him not to go up to Jerusalem.

13 Then Paul answered, What mean ye to weep and to break mine heart? for [o] I am ready not to be bound only, but also to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus.

14 And when he would not be persuaded, we ceased, saying, [p] The will of the Lord be done.

15 And after those days we [2] took up our [s] carriages, and went up to Jerusalem.

16 There went with us also certain of the disciples of Cæsarea, and brought with them one Mnā'-son of Cyprus, an old disciple, with whom we should lodge.

17 And when we were come to Jerusalem, the brethren received us gladly.

18 And the day following Paul went in with us unto [y] James; and all the [a] elders were present.

19 And when he had saluted them, he [b] declared particularly what things God had wrought among the Gentiles by his [d] ministry.

20 And when they heard it, they [a] glorified the Lord, and said unto him, Thou seest, brother, how many thousands of Jews there are which believe; and they are all zealous of the law:

21 And they are informed of thee, that thou teachest all the Jews which are among the Gentiles to forsake Moses, saying that they ought not to circumcise their children, [c] neither to walk after the customs.

22 What is it therefore? the multitude must needs come together: for they will hear that thou art come.

23 Do therefore this that we say to thee: We have four men which have [g] a vow on them;

24 Them take, and [i] purify thyself with them, and be at charges with them, that they may [l] shave their heads: and all may know that those things, whereof they were informed concerning thee, are nothing; but that thou thyself also walkest orderly, and keepest the law.

25 As touching the Gentiles which believe, [n] we have written and concluded that they observe no such thing, save only that they keep themselves from things offered to idols, and from blood, and from strangled, and from fornication.

26 Then Paul took the men, and the next day purifying himself with them [q] entered into the temple, to signify the accomplishment of the [r] days of purification, until that an offering should be offered for every one of them.

27 And when the seven days were almost ended, [t] the Jews which were of [u] Asia, when they saw him in the temple, stirred up all the people, and laid hands on him,

28 Crying out, Men of Israel, help: [x] This is the man, that teacheth all men every where against the people, and the law, and this place: and further brought Greeks also into the temple, and hath [z] polluted this holy place.

29 (For they had seen before with him in the city [c] Trŏph'-ï-mŭs an Ephesian, whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the temple.)

30 And all the city was moved, and

31 And as they went about to kill him, tidings came unto the [2]chief captain of the [3f] band, that all Jerusalem was in an uproar.

32 Who immediately took soldiers and centurions, and [i] ran down unto them: and when they saw the chief captain and the soldiers, they left [n] beating of Paul.

33 Then the chief captain came near, and took him, and commanded him to be [o] bound with two chains; and demanded who he was, and what he had done.

34 And [q] some cried one thing, some another, among the multitude: and when he could not know the certainty for the tumult, he commanded him to be carried into [t] the castle.

35 And when he came upon the stairs, so it was, that he was borne of the soldiers for the violence of the people.

36 [u] For the multitude of the people followed after, crying, [x] Away with him.

37 And as Paul was to be led into the castle, he said unto the chief captain, May I speak unto thee? Who said, Canst thou speak Greek?

38 [y] Art not thou that Egyptian, which before these days madest an uproar, and leddest out [a] into the wilderness four thousand men that were murderers?

39 But Paul said, I am a man which am a Jew of [c] Tarsus, a city in [d] Çĭ-lĭç'ĭ-ă, a citizen of no mean city: and, I beseech thee, suffer me to speak unto the people.

40 And when he had given him licence, Paul stood on the stairs, and [e] beckoned with the hand unto the people. And when there was made a great silence, he spake unto them in [h] the Hebrew tongue, saying,

2 (And when they heard that he spake in the [c] Hebrew tongue to them, they kept the more silence: and he saith,)

3 I am verily a man which am a Jew, born in [d] Tarsus, a city in [e] Çĭ-lĭç'ĭ-ă, yet brought up in this city [g] at the feet of [h] Gă-mā'lĭ-ĕl, and taught according to the perfect manner of the law of the fathers, and was [k] zealous toward God, as ye all are this day.

4 And [l] I persecuted [m] this way unto the death, binding and delivering into prisons both men and women.

5 As also the high priest doth bear me witness, and all the estate of the [p] elders: from whom also I received letters unto the brethren, and went to [r] Damascus, to bring them which were there bound unto Jerusalem, for to be punished.

6 [s] And it came to pass, that, as I made my journey, and was come nigh unto Damascus about noon, suddenly there shone from heaven a great light round about me.

7 And I fell unto the ground, and heard a voice saying unto me, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

8 And I answered, Who art thou, Lord? And he said unto me, I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom thou persecutest.

9 And they that were with me saw indeed the light, and were afraid; but [z] they heard not the voice of him that spake to me.

10 And I said, [b] What shall I do, Lord? And the Lord said unto me, Arise, and go into Damascus; and there it shall be told thee of all things which are appointed for thee to do.

11 And when I could not see for the glory of that light, being led by the hand of them that were with me, I came into Damascus.

12 And one [f] Ăn-ă-nī'ăs, a devout man according to the law, having a [g] good report of all the Jews which dwelt there,

13 Came unto me, and stood, and said unto me, Brother Saul, receive thy sight. And the same hour I looked up upon him.

14 And he said, [k] The God of our fathers [a] hath chosen thee, that thou shouldest know his will, and [b] see [c] that Just One, and shouldest hear the voice of his mouth.

15 For [d] thou shalt be his witness unto all men of what thou hast seen and heard.

16 And now why tarriest thou? arise, and [f] be baptized, and [g] wash away thy sins, [h] calling on the name of the Lord.

17 And it came to pass, that, [i] when I was come again to Jerusalem, even while I prayed in the temple, I was in a [k] trance;

18 And [m] saw him saying unto me, Make haste, and get thee quickly out of Jerusalem: for they will not receive thy testimony concerning me.

19 And I said, Lord, they know that [o] I imprisoned and beat in every synagogue them that believed on thee:

20 And when the blood of thy martyr Stephen was shed, [q] I also was standing by, and consenting unto his death, and kept the raiment of them that slew him.

21 And he said unto me, Depart: for [u] I will send thee far hence unto the Gentiles.

22 And they gave him audience unto this word, and then lifted up their voices, and said, [y] Away with such a fellow from the earth: for it is not fit that he should live.

23 And as they cried out, and cast off their clothes, and threw dust into the air,

24 The chief captain commanded him to be brought into the [c] castle, and bade that he should be examined by scourging; that he might know wherefore they cried so against him.

25 And as they bound him with thongs, Paul said unto the centurion that stood by, Is it lawful for you to scourge [h] a man that is a Roman, and uncondemned?

26 When the centurion heard that, he went and told the chief captain, saying, Take heed what thou doest: for this man is a Roman.

27 Then the chief captain came, and said unto him, Tell me, art thou a Roman? He said, Yea.

28 And the chief captain answered, With a great sum obtained I this freedom. And Paul said, But I was free born.

29 Then straightway they departed from him which should have examined him: and the chief captain also [e] was afraid, after he knew that he was a Roman, and because he had bound him.

30 On the morrow, because he would have known the certainty wherefore he was accused of the Jews, he loosed him from his bands, and [l] commanded the chief priests and all their [n] council to appear, and brought Paul down, and set him before them.

CHAPTER 23

AND Paul, earnestly beholding the council, said, Men and brethren, [p] I have lived in all good conscience before God until this day.

2 And the [r] high priest [s] Ăn-ă-nī'ăs commanded them that stood by him to [t] smite him on the mouth.

3 Then said Paul unto him, God shall smite thee, [x] thou whited wall: for sittest thou to judge me after the law, and commandest me to be smitten contrary to the law?

4 And they that stood by said, [z] Revilest thou God's high priest?

5 Then said Paul, [a] I wist not, brethren, that he was the high priest: for it is written, [b] Thou shalt not speak evil of the ruler of thy people.

6 But when Paul perceived that the one part were [d] Sadducees, and the other Pharisees, he cried out in the council, Men and brethren, [e] I am a Pharisee, the son of a Pharisee: [f] of the hope and [g] resurrection of the dead I am called in question.

7 And when he had so said, there arose a dissension between the Pharisees and the Sadducees: and the multitude was divided.

8 For [i] the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, neither angel, nor spirit: but the Pharisees confess both.

9 And there arose a great cry: and the scribes that were of the Pharisees' part arose, and strove, saying, We find no evil in this man: but [a]if a spirit or an angel hath spoken to him, [2]let us not fight against God.

10 And when there arose a great dissension, the chief captain, fearing lest Paul should have been pulled in pieces of them, commanded the soldiers to go down, and to take him by force from among them, and to bring him into the [b]castle.

11 And the night following [c]the Lord stood by him, and said, Be of good cheer, Paul: for [d]as thou hast testified of me in Jerusalem, so must thou bear witness also at [e]Rome.

12 And when it was day, certain of the Jews banded together, and [f]bound themselves under a curse, saying that they would neither eat nor drink till they had killed Paul.

13 And they were more than forty which had made this conspiracy.

14 And they came to the chief priests and [g]elders, and said, We have bound ourselves under a great curse, that we will eat nothing until we have slain Paul.

15 Now therefore ye with the council signify to the chief captain that he bring him down unto you to morrow, as though ye would enquire something more perfectly concerning him: and we, or ever he come near, are ready to kill him.

16 And when Paul's sister's son heard of their lying in wait, he went and entered into the castle, and told Paul.

17 Then Paul called one of the centurions unto him, and said, Bring this young man unto the chief captain: for he hath a certain thing to tell him.

18 So he took him, and brought him to the chief captain, and said, Paul the prisoner called me unto him, and prayed me to bring this young man unto thee, who hath something to say unto thee.

19 Then the chief captain took him by the hand, and went with him aside privately, and asked him, What is that thou hast to tell me?

20 And he said, The Jews have agreed to desire thee that thou would-est bring down Paul to morrow into the council, as though they would enquire somewhat of him more perfectly.

21 But do not thou yield unto them: for there lie in wait for him of them more than forty men, which have bound themselves with an oath, that they will neither eat nor drink till they have killed him: and now are they ready, looking for a promise from thee.

22 So the chief captain then let the young man depart, and charged him, See thou tell no man that thou hast shewed these things to me.

23 And he called unto him two centurions, saying, Make ready two hundred soldiers to go to Cæsarea, and horsemen threescore and ten, and spearmen two hundred, at the third hour of the night;

24 And provide them beasts, that they may set Paul on, and bring him safe unto [h]Felix the governor.

25 And he wrote a letter after this manner:

26 Claudius [i]Lÿs'ī-ăs unto the [k]most excellent governor Felix sendeth greeting.

27 This man was taken of the Jews, and should have been killed of them: [l]then came I with an army, and rescued him, having understood that [m]he was a Roman.

28 And [n]when I would have known the cause wherefore they accused him, I brought him forth into their council:

29 Whom I perceived to be accused of [o]questions of their law, but to have nothing laid to his charge [p]worthy of death or of bonds.

30 And when it was told me how that the Jews laid wait for the man, I sent straightway to thee, and [q]gave commandment to his accusers also to say before thee what they had against him. Farewell.

31 Then the soldiers, as it was commanded them, took Paul, and brought him by night to Ăn-tĭp'ă-trĭs.

32 On the morrow they left the horsemen to go with him, and returned to the castle:

33 Who, when they came to Cæsarea, and delivered the epistle to the governor, presented Paul also before him.

34 And when the governor had read the letter, he asked of what province he was. And when he understood that he was of [b] Çĭ-lĭç′ĭ-ă;

35 I will hear thee, said he, when thine accusers are also come. And he commanded him to be kept in Herod's [2d] judgment hall.

CHAPTER 24

AND [f] after five days [g] Ăn-ă-nī′ăs the high priest descended with the [k] elders, and with a certain orator named Tĕr-tŭl′lŭs, who informed the governor against Paul.

2 And when he was called forth, Tĕr-tŭl′lŭs began to accuse him, saying, Seeing that by thee we enjoy great quietness, and that[3] very worthy deeds are done unto this nation by thy providence,

3 We accept it always, and in all places, [q] most noble [r] Felix, with all thankfulness.

4 Notwithstanding, that I be not further tedious unto thee, I pray thee that thou wouldest hear us of thy clemency a few words.

5 For [u] we have found this man a pestilent fellow, and a mover of sedition among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ringleader of the [x] sect of the Nazarenes:

6 Who also hath gone about to [u] profane the temple: whom we took, and would have judged according to our law.

7 But the chief captain Lўs′ĭ-ăs came upon us, and with great violence took him away out of our hands,

8 Commanding his accusers to come unto thee: by examining of whom thyself mayest take knowledge of all these things, whereof we accuse him.

9 And the Jews also assented, saying that these things were so.

10 Then Paul, after that the governor had beckoned unto him to speak, answered, Forasmuch as I know that thou hast been of many years a judge unto this nation, I do the more cheerfully answer for myself:

11 Because that thou mayest understand, that there are [a] yet but twelve days since I went up to Jerusalem for to worship.

12 And they neither found me in the temple disputing with any man, neither raising up the people, neither in the synagogues, nor in the city:

13 [c] Neither can they prove the things whereof they now accuse me.

14 But this I confess unto thee, that after [e] the way which they call heresy, [h] so worship I the God of my fathers, believing all things which are [i] written in the law and in the prophets:

15 And [l] have hope toward God, which they themselves also allow, that there shall be [m] a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and [n] unjust.

16 And herein do I exercise myself, [o] to have always a conscience void of offence toward God, and toward men.

17 Now after many years I came [p] to bring alms to my nation, and offerings.

18 Whereupon certain Jews from Asia found me [s] purified in the temple, neither with multitude, nor with tumult.

19 [t] Who ought to have been here before thee, and object, if they had ought against me.

20 Or else let these same here say, if they have found any evil doing in me, while I stood before the council,

21 Except it be for this one voice, [y] that I cried standing among them, Touching the resurrection of the dead I am called in question by you this day.

22 And when Felix heard these things, having more perfect knowledge of [z] that way, he deferred them, and said, When [a] Lўs′ĭ-ăs the chief captain shall come down, I will know the uttermost of your matter.

23 And he commanded a centurion [b] to keep Paul, and [c] to let him have liberty, and that he should forbid none of his acquaintance to minister or come unto him.

24 And after certain days, when Felix came with his wife Drû-sĭl′lă, which was a Jewess, he sent for Paul, and heard him concerning [a] the faith in Christ.

25 And as he reasoned [b] of righteousness, temperance, and [c] judgment to come, Felix trembled, and answered, Go thy way for this time; [d] when I have a convenient season, I will call for thee.

26 He hoped also that money should have been given him of Paul, that he might loose him: wherefore he sent for him the oftener, and communed with him.

27 But after two years Pôr'çĭ-ŭs [f] Festus came into Felix' room: and Felix, [g] willing to shew the Jews a pleasure, [i] left Paul bound.

CHAPTER 25

NOW when [k] Festus was come into the province, after three days he ascended from Cæsarea to Jerusalem.

2 Then the high priest and the chief of the Jews informed him against Paul, and besought him,

3 And desired favour against him, that he would send for him to Jerusalem, laying wait in the way to kill him.

4 But Festus answered, that Paul should be kept at Cæsarea, and that he himself would depart shortly thither.

5 Let them therefore, said he, which among you are able, go down with me, and accuse this man, if there be any wickedness in him.

6 And when he had tarried among them more than ten days, he went down unto Cæsarea; and the next day sitting on the [o] judgment seat commanded Paul to be brought.

7 And when he was come, the Jews which came down from Jerusalem stood round about, and laid many and grievous complaints against Paul, [r] which they could not prove.

8 While he answered for himself, Neither against the law of the Jews, neither against the temple, nor yet against Cæsar, have I offended any thing at all.

9 But Festus, [t] willing to do the Jews a pleasure, answered Paul, and said, Wilt thou go up to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these things before me?

10 Then said Paul, I stand at Cæsar's judgment seat, where I ought to be judged: to the Jews have I done no wrong, as thou very well knowest.

11 For if I be an offender, or have committed any thing worthy of death, I refuse not to die: but if there be none of these things whereof these accuse me, no man may deliver me unto them. [e] I appeal unto Cæsar.

12 Then Festus, when he had conferred with the council, answered, Hast thou appealed unto Cæsar? unto Cæsar shalt thou go.

13 And after certain days king [h] Ă-grĭp'pă and Bĕr-nī'çē came unto Cæsarea to salute Festus.

14 And when they had been there many days, Festus declared Paul's cause unto the king, saying, There is a certain man [l] left in bonds by [m] Felix:

15 About whom, when I was at Jerusalem, the chief priests and the [n] elders of the Jews informed me, desiring to have judgment against him.

16 To whom I answered, It is not the manner of the Romans to deliver any man to die, before that he which is accused have the accusers face to face, and have licence to answer for himself concerning the crime laid against him.

17 Therefore, when they were come hither, without any delay on the morrow I sat on the judgment seat, and commanded the man to be brought forth.

18 Against whom when the accusers stood up, they brought none accusation of such things as I supposed:

19 But had [p] certain questions against him of their own superstition, and of [q] one Jesus, which was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be alive.

20 And because I doubted of such manner of questions, I asked him whether he would go to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these matters.

21 But when Paul [s] had appealed to be reserved unto the hearing of Augustus, I commanded him to be kept till I might send him to Cæsar.

22 Then Ă-grĭp'pă said unto Festus,

23 And on the morrow, when Ă-grĭp'-pă was come, and Bĕr-nī'-çē, with great pomp, and was entered into the place of hearing, with the chief captains, and principal men of the city, at Festus' commandment Paul was brought forth.

24 And Festus said, King Ă-grĭp'-pă, and all men which are here present with us, ye see this man, about whom all the multitude of the Jews have dealt with me, both at Jerusalem, and also here, [g] crying that he ought not to live any longer.

25 But when I found that he [k] had committed nothing worthy of death, and that he himself hath appealed to Augustus, I have determined to send him.

26 Of whom I have no certain thing to write unto my lord. Wherefore I have brought him forth before you, and specially before thee, O king Ă-grĭp'-pă, that, after examination had, I might have somewhat to write.

27 For it seemeth to me unreasonable to send a prisoner, and not withal to signify the crimes laid against him.

CHAPTER 26

THEN [o] Ă-grĭp'-pă said unto Paul, [p] Thou art permitted to speak for thyself. Then Paul stretched forth the hand, and answered for himself:

2 I think myself happy, king Ă-grĭp'-pă, because I shall answer for myself this day before thee touching all the things whereof I am accused of the Jews:

3 Especially because I know thee to be expert in all customs and questions which are among the Jews: wherefore I beseech thee to hear me patiently.

4 [t] My manner of life from my youth, which was at the first among mine own nation at Jerusalem, know all the Jews;

5 Which knew me from the beginning, if they would testify, that after the most straitest sect of our religion [z] I lived a Pharisee.

6 And now I stand and am judged [b] for the hope of [c] the promise made of God unto our fathers:

7 Unto which promise [d] our twelve tribes, instantly serving God day and night, hope to come. For which hope's sake, king Ă-grĭp'-pă, I am accused of the Jews.

8 [e] Why should it be thought a thing incredible with you, that God should raise the dead?

9 [f] I verily thought with myself, that I ought to do many things contrary to the name of Jesus of Nazareth.

10 Which thing I also did in Jerusalem: and many of the saints did [h] I shut up in prison, [i] having received authority from the chief priests; and [l] when they were put to death, I gave my voice against them.

11 And I punished them oft in every synagogue, and compelled them to blaspheme; and being exceedingly mad against them, I persecuted them even unto strange cities.

12 [m] Whereupon as I went to [n] Damascus with authority and commission from the chief priests,

13 At midday, O king, I saw in the way a light from heaven, above the brightness of the sun, shining round about me and them which journeyed with me.

14 And when we were all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice speaking unto me, and saying [q] in the Hebrew tongue, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? it is hard for thee to kick against the pricks.

15 And I said, Who art thou, Lord? And he said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest.

16 But rise, and stand upon thy feet: for I have appeared unto thee for this purpose, [r] to make thee a [s] minister and a witness both of these things which thou hast seen, and of those things in the which I will appear unto thee;

17 Delivering thee from the people, and from the Gentiles, [u] unto whom now I send thee,

18 [x] To open their eyes, and to turn them [y] from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God, that they may receive [a] forgiveness of sins, and [b] inheritance among them which are [d] sanctified by faith that is in me.

19 Whereupon, O king Ă-grĭp'-pă, I was not disobedient unto the heavenly vision:

20 But [g] shewed first unto them of Damascus, and [h] at Jerusalem, and throughout all the coasts of Judæa, and then to the Gentiles, that they [i] should repent and [m] turn to God, and do [n] works meet for repentance.

21 For these causes the Jews [o] caught me in the temple, and went about to kill me.

22 Having therefore obtained help of God, I continue unto this day, witnessing both to small and great, saying none other things than those [s] which the prophets and Moses did say should come:

23 That [u] Christ should suffer, and that he should be the [x] first that [y] should rise from the dead, and should [z] shew light unto the people, and to the Gentiles.

24 And as he thus spake for himself, Festus said with a loud voice, Paul, [d] thou art beside thyself; much learning doth make thee mad.

25 But he said, I am not mad, [e] most noble [g] Festus; but speak forth the words of truth and soberness.

26 For the king knoweth of these things, before whom also I speak freely: for I am persuaded that none of these things are hidden from him; for this thing was not done in a corner.

27 King Ă-grĭp'-pă, believest thou the prophets? I know that thou believest.

28 Then Ă-grĭp'-pă said unto Paul, [3] Almost thou persuadest me to be a [k] Christian.

29 And Paul said, [m] I would to God, that not only thou, but also all that hear me this day, were both almost, and altogether such as I am, except these bonds.

30 And when he had thus spoken, the king rose up, and the governor, and Bĕr-nī'-çē, and they that sat with them:

31 And when they were gone aside, they talked between themselves, saying, This man doeth [c] nothing worthy of death or of bonds.

32 Then said Ă-grĭp'-pă unto Festus, This man [e] might have been set at liberty, if he had not [f] appealed unto Cæsar.

CHAPTER 27

AND when it was [i] determined that [k] we should sail into Italy, they delivered Paul and certain other prisoners unto one named Julius, a centurion of Augustus' [2] [p] band.

2 And entering into a ship of Ăd-ră-mўt'-tĭ-ŭm, we launched, meaning to sail by the coasts of Asia; one [q] Ăr-ĭs-tär'-chŭs, a Macedonian of [r] Thĕss-ă-lō-nī'-că, being with us.

3 And the next day we touched at Sidon. And Julius courteously entreated Paul, and [t] gave him liberty to go unto his friends to refresh himself.

4 And when we had launched from thence, we sailed under [a] Cyprus, because the winds were contrary.

5 And when we had sailed over the sea of [b] Çī-lĭç'-ĭ-ă and [c] Pamphylia, we came to Myra, a city of Lўç'-ĭ-ă.

6 And there the centurion found a [f] ship of Alexandria sailing into [h] Italy; and he put us therein.

7 And when we had sailed slowly many days, and scarce were come over against Cnī'-dŭs, the wind not suffering us, we sailed under [i] Crete, over against Săl-mō'-nē;

8 And, hardly passing it, came unto a place which is called The fair havens; nigh whereunto was the city of Lă-sē'-ă.

9 Now when much time was spent, and when sailing was now dangerous, because [l] the fast was now already past, Paul admonished them,

10 And said unto them, Sirs, I perceive that this voyage will be with hurt and much damage, not only of the lading and ship, but also of our lives.

11 Nevertheless the centurion believed the master and the owner of the ship, more than those things which were spoken by Paul.

12 And because the haven was not commodious to winter in, the more part advised to depart thence also, if by any means they might attain to Phē-nī'-çē, and there to winter; which is an haven of Crete, and lieth toward the south west and north west.

13 And when the south wind blew softly, supposing that they had obtained their purpose, loosing thence, they sailed close by Crete.

14 But not long after there [2]arose against it a tempestuous wind, called [3]Eû-rŏc'-lў-dŏn.

15 And when the ship was caught, and could not bear up into the wind, we let her drive.

16 And running under a certain island which is called Clauda, we had much work to come by the boat:

17 Which when they had taken up, they used helps, undergirding the ship; and, fearing lest they should fall into the quicksands, strake sail, and so were driven.

18 And we being exceedingly tossed with a tempest, the next day they [4]b lightened the ship;

19 And the third day we cast out with our own hands the tackling of the ship.

20 And when neither sun nor stars in many days appeared, and no small tempest lay on us, all hope that we should be saved was then taken away.

21 But after long abstinence Paul stood forth in the midst of them, and said, Sirs, c ye should have hearkened unto me, and not have loosed from Crete, and to have gained this harm and loss.

22 And now I exhort you to be of good cheer: for there shall be no loss of any man's life among you, but of the ship.

23 For f there stood by me this night the g angel of God, whose I am, and h whom I serve,

24 Saying, i Fear not, Paul; thou must be brought before Cæsar: and, lo, God hath given thee all them that sail with thee.

25 Wherefore, sirs, be of good cheer: for k I believe God, that it shall be even as it was told me.

26 Howbeit a we must be cast upon a certain island.

27 But when the fourteenth night was come, as we were driven up and down in Adria, about midnight the shipmen deemed that they drew near to some country;

28 And sounded, and found it twenty fathoms: and when they had gone a little further, they sounded again, and found it fifteen fathoms.

29 Then fearing lest we should have fallen upon rocks, they cast four anchors out of the stern, and wished for the day.

30 And as the shipmen were about to flee out of the ship, when they had let down the boat into the sea, under colour as though they would have cast anchors out of the foreship,

31 Paul said to the centurion and to the soldiers, Except these abide in the ship, ye cannot be saved.

32 Then the soldiers cut off the ropes of the boat, and let her fall off.

33 And while the day was coming on, Paul besought them all to take meat, saying, This day is the fourteenth day that ye have tarried and continued fasting, having taken nothing.

34 Wherefore I pray you to take some meat: for this is for your health: for c there shall not an hair fall from the head of any of you.

35 And when he had thus spoken, he took bread, and d gave thanks to God in presence of them all: and when he had broken it, he began to eat.

36 Then were they all of good cheer, and they also took some meat.

37 And we were in all in the ship two hundred threescore and sixteen souls.

38 And when they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship, and cast out the wheat into the sea.

39 And when it was day, they knew not the land: but they discovered a certain creek with a shore, into the which they were minded, if it were possible, to thrust in the ship.

40 And when they had taken up the anchors, they committed themselves unto the sea, and loosed the rudder bands, and hoised up the mainsail to the wind, and made toward shore.

41 And falling into a place where two seas met, [b] they ran the ship aground; and the forepart stuck fast, and remained unmoveable, but the hinder part was broken with the violence of the waves.

42 And the soldiers' counsel was [c] to kill the prisoners, lest any of them should swim out, and escape.

43 But the centurion, willing to save Paul, kept them from their purpose; and commanded that they which could swim should cast themselves first into the sea, and get to land:

44 And the rest, some on boards, and some on broken pieces of the ship. And so it came to pass, that they escaped all safe to land.

CHAPTER 28

AND when they were escaped, then they knew that [e] the island was called Melita.

2 And the [f] barbarous people shewed us no little kindness: for they kindled a fire, and [g] received us every one, because of the present rain, and because of the cold.

3 And when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks, and laid them on the fire, there came a viper out of the heat, and fastened on his hand.

4 And when the barbarians saw the venomous beast hang on his hand, they said among themselves, [k] No doubt this man is a murderer, whom, though he hath escaped the sea, yet vengeance suffereth not to live.

5 And he [l] shook off the beast into the fire, and felt no harm.

6 Howbeit they looked when he should have swollen, or fallen down dead suddenly: but after they had looked a great while, and saw no harm come to him, they changed their minds, and [o] said that he was a god.

7 In the same quarters were possessions of the chief man of the island, whose name was Publius; who received us, and lodged us three days courteously.

8 And it came to pass, that the father of Publius lay sick of a fever and of a bloody flux: to whom Paul entered in, and prayed, and [q] laid his hands on him, and healed him.

9 So when this was done, others also, which had diseases in the island, came, and were healed:

10 Who also honoured us with many honours; and when we departed, they laded us with such things as were necessary.

11 And after three months we departed in a [d] ship of Alexandria, which had wintered in the isle, whose sign was [2] Castor and Pollux.

12 And landing at Sȳr'ă-cūse, we tarried there three days.

13 And from thence we fetched a compass, and came to Rhē'ġĭ-ŭm: and after one day the south wind blew, and we came the next day to Pū-tē'ŏ-lĭ:

14 Where we found brethren, and were desired to tarry with them seven days: and so we went toward Rome.

15 And from thence, when the brethren heard of us, they came to meet us as far as Ăp'pĭ-ī forum, and The three taverns: whom when Paul saw, he thanked God, and took courage.

16 And when we came to [h] Rome, the centurion delivered the prisoners to the captain of the guard: but Paul was suffered to dwell by himself [i] with a soldier that kept him.

17 And it came to pass, that after three days Paul called the chief of the Jews together: and when they were come together, he said unto them, Men and brethren, though I have committed nothing against the people, or customs of our fathers, yet was I delivered prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans.

18 Who, when they had examined me, [m] would have let me go, [n] because there was no cause of death in me.

19 But when the Jews spake against it, I was constrained [m] to appeal unto Cæsar; not that I had ought to accuse my nation of.

20 For this cause therefore have I called for you, to see you, and to speak with you: [p] because that for the hope of Israel I am [q] bound with this chain.

23 And when they had appointed him a day, there came many to him into his lodging; to whom he [c] expounded and testified the kingdom of God, persuading them concerning Jesus, both [e] out of the law of Moses, and out of the prophets, from morning till evening.

24 And some believed the things which were spoken, and some believed not.

25 And when they agreed not among themselves, they departed, after that Paul had spoken one word, [h] Well spake the Holy Ghost by Ē-śâi'-ăs the prophet unto our fathers,

26 Saying, [k] Go unto this people, and say, Hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and not perceive:

27 For the heart of this people is waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes have they closed; lest they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them.

28 Be it known therefore unto you, that the salvation of God is sent [d] unto the Gentiles, and that they will hear it.

(29 And when he had said these words, the Jews departed, and had great reasoning among themselves.)

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE ROMANS

CHAPTER 1

PAUL, [a] a servant of Jesus Christ, [c] called to be an apostle, [d] separated unto the gospel of God,

2 (Which he had [f] promised afore [g] by his prophets in the holy scriptures,)

3 Concerning his Son Jesus Christ our Lord, which was made [k] of the seed of David [l] according to the flesh;

4 And declared to be the [o] Son of God [q] with power, according to the spirit of holiness, [r] by the resurrection from the dead:

5 By whom we have received grace and [s] apostleship, for obedience to [u] the faith [x] among all nations, for his name:

6 Among whom are ye also the called of Jesus Christ:

7 To all that be in [b] Rome, beloved of God, [e] called to be saints: Grace to you and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

8 First, [h] I thank my God through Jesus Christ for you all, that [i] your faith is spoken of throughout the whole world.

9 For [m] God is my witness, [n] whom I serve with my spirit in the gospel of his Son, that [p] without ceasing I make mention of you always in my prayers;

10 Making request, if by any means now at length I might have a prosperous journey [t] by the will of God [y] to come unto you.

11 For [z] I long to see you, that I may impart unto you some spiritual gift, to the end ye may be established;

12 That is, that I may be comforted together with you by the mutual faith both of you and me.

13 Now I would not have you ignorant, brethren, that oftentimes I purposed to come unto you, (but [c] was [2]let hitherto,) that I might have some [d] fruit among you also, even as among other Gentiles.

14 [e] I am debtor both to the Greeks, and to the [f] Barbarians; both to the wise, and to the unwise.

15 So, as much as in me is, I am ready to preach the gospel to you that are at Rome also.

16 For [g] I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is [h] the power of God unto salvation [i] to every one that believeth; to the Jew [l] first, and also to the Greek.

17 For therein is the [n] righteousness of God revealed from faith to faith: [o] as it is written, The just shall live by faith.

18 For [p] the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who hold the truth in unrighteousness;

19 Because [q] that which may be known of God is manifest in them; for God hath shewed it unto them.

20 For the invisible things of him from the [r] creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; [t] so that they are without excuse:

21 Because that, when they knew God, they [x] glorified him not as God, neither were thankful; but [y] became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened.

22 [b] Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools,

23 And [c] changed the glory of the [d] uncorruptible God into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and fourfooted beasts, and [e] creeping things.

24 Wherefore God also [f] gave them up to uncleanness through the lusts of their own hearts, to [g] dishonour their own bodies between themselves:

25 Who changed the truth of God into [a] a lie, and worshipped and served the creature more than the Creator, [b] who is blessed for ever. Amen.

26 For this cause God gave them up unto vile affections: for even their women did change the natural use into that which is against nature:

27 And likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another; men with men working that which is unseemly, and receiving in themselves that recompence of their error which was meet.

28 And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a reprobate mind, to do those things [k] which are not convenient;

29 [m] Being filled with all unrighteousness, fornication, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness; full of envy, murder, debate, deceit, malignity; whisperers,

30 Backbiters, haters of God, despiteful, proud, boasters, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents,

31 Without understanding, covenantbreakers, without natural affection, implacable, unmerciful:

32 Who knowing the [3]judgment of God, that they which commit such things [s] are worthy of death, not only do the same, but have pleasure in them that do them.

CHAPTER 2

[u] THEREFORE thou art inexcusable, O man, whosoever thou art [z] that judgest: for wherein thou judgest another, [a] thou condemnest thyself; for thou that judgest doest the same things.

2 But we are sure that the judgment of God is according to truth against them which commit such things.

3 And thinkest thou this, O man, that judgest them which do such things, and doest the same, that thou shalt escape the judgment of God?

goodness of God [a]leadeth thee to repentance?

5 But after thy hardness and impenitent heart [c]treasurest up unto thyself wrath against the [e]day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of God;

6 [f]Who will render to every man according to his deeds:

7 To them who by [h]patient continuance in well doing seek for glory and honour and immortality, [i]eternal life:

8 But unto them that are contentious, and do not [k]obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, [l]indignation and wrath,

9 Tribulation and anguish, upon every soul of man that doeth evil, of [n]the Jew first, and also of the Gentile;

10 But glory, [p]honour, and [q]peace, to every man that worketh good, to the Jew first, and also to the Gentile:

11 For [s]there is no respect of persons with God.

12 For as many as have sinned [t]without law shall also perish without law: and as many as have sinned in the law shall be judged by the law;

13 (For [x]not the hearers of the law are just before God, but the doers of the law shall be justified.

14 For when the Gentiles, which have not the law, do by nature the things contained in the law, these, having not the law, are a law unto themselves:

15 Which shew the work of the law [d]written in their hearts, their conscience also bearing witness, and their thoughts the mean while accusing or else excusing one another;)

16 In the day when God shall judge the secrets of men [e]by Jesus Christ [f]according to my gospel.

17 Behold, thou art called a Jew, and [i]restest in the law, and [k]makest thy boast of God,

18 And knowest his will, and approvest the things that are more excellent, being [o]instructed out of the law;

19 And art confident that thou thyself art a [r]guide of the blind, a light of them which are in darkness,

20 An instructor of the foolish, a teacher of babes, which hast [b]the form of knowledge and of the truth in the law.

21 [d]Thou therefore which teachest another, teachest thou not thyself? thou that preachest a man should not steal, dost thou steal?

22 Thou that sayest a man should not [g]commit adultery, dost thou commit adultery? thou that abhorrest idols, dost thou [2]commit sacrilege?

23 Thou that makest thy boast of the law, through breaking the law dishonourest thou God?

24 [m]For the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles through you, as it is written.

25 For circumcision verily profiteth, [o]if thou keep the law: but if thou be a breaker of the law, thy circumcision is made uncircumcision.

26 Therefore if [r]the uncircumcision keep the righteousness of the law, shall not his uncircumcision be counted for circumcision?

27 And shall not uncircumcision which is by nature, if it fulfil the law, [u]judge thee, who by the letter and circumcision dost transgress the law?

28 For [y]he is not a Jew, which is one outwardly; neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh:

29 But he is a Jew, which is [z]one inwardly; and [a]circumcision is that of the heart, [b]in the spirit, and not in the letter; [c]whose praise is not of men, but of God.

CHAPTER 3

WHAT advantage then hath the Jew? or what profit is there of circumcision?

2 Much every way: chiefly, because that [g]unto them were committed the [h]oracles of God.

3 For what [l]if some did not believe? [m]shall their unbelief make the [3]faith of God without effect?

4 God forbid: yea, [n]let God be true, but [p]every man a liar; as it is written, [q]That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged.

5 But if our unrighteousness commend the righteousness of God, what shall we say? [a] Is God unrighteous who taketh vengeance? [c] (I speak as a man)

6 God forbid: for then how shall [f] God judge the world?

7 For if the truth of God hath more abounded through my lie unto his glory; [k] why yet am I also judged as a sinner?

8 And not rather, (as we be slanderously reported, and as some affirm that we say,) [m] Let us do evil, that good may come? whose damnation is just.

9 What then? [2] are we better than they? No, in no wise: for we have before proved both [p] Jews and [q] Gentiles, that they are all under sin;

10 [r] As it is written, There is none righteous, no, not one:

11 There is none that understandeth, there is none that seeketh after God.

12 They are all gone out of the way, they are together become unprofitable; there is none that doeth good, no, not one.

13 [u] Their throat is an open sepulchre; with their tongues they have used deceit; [y] the poison of asps is under their lips:

14 [z] Whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness:

15 [b] Their feet are swift to shed blood:

16 Destruction and misery are in their ways:

17 And the way of peace have they not known:

18 [d] There is no fear of God before their eyes.

19 Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that [f] every mouth may be stopped, and [g] all the world may become guilty before God.

20 Therefore by the deeds of the law there [i] shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for [k] by the law is the knowledge of sin.

21 But now [n] the righteousness of God without the law is manifested, being witnessed [o] by the law and the prophets;

22 Even the righteousness of God which is by faith of Jesus Christ [b] unto all and upon all them that believe: for [d] there is no difference:

23 For [e] all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God;

24 [g] Being justified freely by [h] his grace [i] through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus:

25 Whom God hath set forth to be [l] a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness [n] for the remission of sins that are past, through the [o] forbearance of God;

26 To declare, I say, at this time his righteousness: that he might be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus.

27 [s] Where is boasting then? It is excluded. By what law? of works? Nay: but by the law of faith.

28 Therefore we conclude that a man is justified by faith without the deeds of the law.

29 Is he the God of the Jews only? is he not also [t] of the Gentiles? Yes, of the Gentiles also:

30 Seeing [3x] it is one God, which shall justify the circumcision by faith, and uncircumcision through faith.

31 Do we then make void the law through faith? God forbid: yea, [a] we establish the law.

CHAPTER 4

WHAT shall we say then that [c] Abraham our father, (as pertaining to the flesh,) hath found?

2 For if Abraham were justified by works, he hath whereof to glory; but not before God.

3 For what saith the scripture? [e] Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness.

4 Now [h] to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt.

5 But to him that worketh not, but [l] believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith [m] is counted for righteousness.

6 Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works,

7 Saying, [a] Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered.
8 Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not impute sin.
9 Cometh this blessedness then upon the circumcision only, or upon the uncircumcision also? for we say that faith was reckoned to Abraham for righteousness.
10 How was it then reckoned? when he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision.
11 And [e] he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had yet being uncircumcised: that he might be the father of all them that believe, though they be not circumcised; that righteousness might be imputed unto them also:
12 And the father of circumcision to them who are not of the circumcision only, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham, which he had being yet uncircumcised.
13 For the promise, [n] that he should be the heir of the world, was not to Abraham, or to [p] his seed, through the law, but through the righteousness of faith.
14 For [s] if they which are of the law be heirs, faith is made void, and the promise made of none effect:
15 Because [x] the law worketh wrath: for [y] where no law is, there is no transgression.
16 Therefore it is of faith, that it might be [c] by grace; to the end the promise might be sure to all the seed; not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham; who is the father of us all,
17 (As it is written, I have made thee [f] a father of many nations,) before him whom he believed, even [g] God, who quickeneth the dead, and calleth [i] those things which be not as though they were.
18 Who against hope believed in hope, that he might become the father of many nations, according to that which was spoken, [b] So shall thy seed be.
19 And being not weak in faith, [2] he considered not his own body now dead, when he was [c] about an hundred years old, neither yet the deadness of [d] Sarah's womb:
20 He staggered not at the promise of God through unbelief; but was strong in faith, giving glory to God;
21 And being fully persuaded that, what he had promised, he was able also to perform.
22 And therefore it was imputed to him for righteousness.
23 [f] Now it was not written for his sake alone, that it was imputed to him;
24 But for us also, to whom it shall be imputed, [g] if we believe on him [h] that raised up Jesus our Lord from the dead;
25 [i] Who was delivered for our offences, and was raised again for our justification.

CHAPTER 5

THEREFORE [k] being justified [l] by faith, [m] we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ:
2 By whom also [o] we have access by faith into this grace [q] wherein we stand, and [r] rejoice in hope of the glory of God.
3 And not only so, but [t] we glory in tribulations also: knowing that tribulation [u] worketh patience;
4 And patience, experience; and experience, hope:
5 And [z] hope [a] maketh not ashamed; because [b] the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by [d] the Holy Ghost which is given unto us.
6 For when we were yet without strength, in due time [e] Christ died for the ungodly.
7 For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: yet peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die.
8 But [h] God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.
9 Much more then, being now justified [k] by his blood, we shall be [l] saved from wrath through him.

10 For if, [a] when we were enemies, [b] we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, we shall be saved [d] by his life.

11 And not only so, but we also joy in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom we have now received the [2]atonement.

12 Wherefore, as [f] by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and [i] so death passed upon all men, for that [k] all have sinned:

13 (For until the law sin was in the world: but [m] sin is not imputed when there is no law.

14 Nevertheless death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over them that had not sinned [p] after the similitude of Adam's transgression, [r] who is the figure of him that was to come.

15 But not as the offence, so also is the free gift. For if through the offence of one many be dead, much more the grace of God, and [x] the gift [y] by grace, which is by one man, Jesus Christ, hath abounded unto many.

16 And not as it was by one that sinned, so is the gift: for the judgment was by one to condemnation, but the free gift is of many offences unto justification.

17 For if by one man's offence death [d] reigned by one; much more they which receive abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness shall reign in life by one, Jesus Christ.)

18 Therefore as by the offence of one judgment came upon all men to condemnation; even so by the righteousness of one the free gift came upon all men unto justification of life.

19 For as by one man's disobedience many were made sinners, so [i] by the obedience of one shall many be made righteous.

20 Moreover [l] the law [3]entered, that the offence might abound. But where sin abounded, [m] grace did much more abound:

21 That as sin hath reigned unto death, even so might grace reign through righteousness [p] unto eternal life by Jesus Christ our Lord.

CHAPTER 6

WHAT shall we say then? [c] Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound?

2 God forbid. How shall [e] we, that are dead to sin, live any longer therein?

3 Know ye not, that so many of us [g] as were baptized into Jesus Christ [h] were baptized into his death?

4 Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death: that like as [l] Christ was raised up from the dead [n] by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk [o] in newness of life.

5 For if we have been planted together in [q] the likeness of his death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection:

6 Knowing this, that [s] our old man [t] is crucified with him, that [u] the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin.

7 For [z] he that is dead is freed from sin.

8 Now [a] if we be dead with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him:

9 Knowing that Christ [b] being raised from the dead [c] dieth no more; death hath no more dominion over him.

10 For in that he died, he died unto sin [e] once: but in that he liveth, he liveth unto God.

11 Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be dead indeed unto sin, but [f] alive unto God through Jesus Christ our Lord.

12 [g] Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal body, that ye should obey it in the lusts thereof.

13 Neither yield ye [h] your members as instruments of unrighteousness unto sin: but [k] yield yourselves unto God, as those that are alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness unto God.

14 For sin shall not have dominion over you: for [n] ye are not under the law, but under grace.

15 What then? [o] shall we sin, because we are not under the law, but under grace? God forbid.

16 [a] Know ye not, that to whom ye yield yourselves servants to obey, his servants ye are to whom ye obey; whether of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness?

17 But God be [d] thanked, that ye were the servants of sin, but ye have obeyed from the heart [f] that form of doctrine which was delivered you.

18 [g] Being then made free from sin, ye became the servants of righteousness.

19 [i] I speak after the manner of men because of the infirmity of your flesh: for as ye have yielded your members servants to uncleanness and to iniquity unto iniquity; even so now yield your members servants to righteousness unto holiness.

20 For when ye were the servants of sin, ye were free from righteousness.

21 [m] What fruit had ye then in those things [o] whereof ye are now ashamed? for [q] the end of those things is death.

22 But now being made free from sin, and become [r] servants to God, [s] ye have your fruit unto holiness, and the end [t] everlasting life.

23 For [x] the wages of sin is death; but [y] the gift of God is [z] eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

CHAPTER 7

KNOW ye not, brethren, (for I speak to them that know the law,) how that the law hath dominion over a man as long as he liveth?

2 For [a] the woman which hath an husband is bound by the law to her husband so long as he liveth; but if the husband be dead, she is loosed from the law of her husband.

3 So then if, while her husband liveth, [e] she be married to another man, she shall be called an adulteress: but if her husband be dead, she is free from that law; so that she is no adulteress, though she be married to another man.

4 Wherefore, my brethren, ye also are become [h] dead to the law by the body of Christ; that ye should be married to another, even to him who [i] is raised from the dead, that we should [k] bring forth fruit unto God.

5 For when we were in the flesh, the motions of sins, which were by the law, [b] did work in our members to bring forth [c] fruit unto death.

6 But now we are delivered from the law, that being dead wherein we were held; that we should serve [e] in newness of spirit, and not in the oldness of the letter.

7 What shall we say then? Is the law sin? God forbid. Nay, [h] I had not known sin, but by the law: for I had not known lust, except the law had said, [k] Thou shalt not covet.

8 But sin, taking occasion by the commandment, wrought in me all manner of concupiscence. For [l] without the law sin was dead.

9 For I was alive without the law once: but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died.

10 And the commandment, [n] which was ordained to life, [p] I found to be unto death.

11 For sin, taking occasion by the commandment, deceived me, and by it slew me.

12 Wherefore [u] the law is holy, and the commandment holy, and just, and good.

13 Was then that which is good made death unto me? God forbid. But sin, that it might appear sin, working death in me by that which is good; that sin by the commandment might become exceeding sinful.

14 For we know that the law is spiritual: but I am [b] carnal, [c] sold under sin.

15 For that which I do I allow not: for [d] what I would, that do I not; but what I hate, that do I.

16 If then I do that which I would not, I consent unto the law that it is good.

17 Now then [f] it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me.

18 For I know that [g] in me (that is, in my flesh,) dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me; but how to perform that which is good I find not.

19 For the good that I would I do not: but the evil which I would not, that I do.

20 Now if I do that I would not, [a] it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me.

21 I find then a law, that, when I would do good, evil is present with me.

22 For [e] I delight in the law of God after [g] the inward man:

23 But I see another law in my members, [h] warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin which is in my members.

24 O wretched man that I am! who shall deliver me from [l] the body of this death?

25 [n] I thank God through Jesus Christ our Lord. So then with the mind I myself serve the law of God; but with the flesh the law of sin.

CHAPTER 8

THERE is therefore now [t] no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, [3] who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

2 For the law of [z] the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath [b] made me free from the law of sin and death.

3 For what the law [d] could not do, [f] in that it was weak through the flesh, [g] God sending his own Son [h] in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh:

4 That the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in us, [t] who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

5 For [m] they that are after the flesh do mind the things of the flesh; but they that are after the Spirit the things of the Spirit.

6 For to be carnally minded [o] is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and [p] peace.

7 Because the carnal mind is [q] enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, [r] neither indeed can be.

8 So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God.

9 But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that [u] the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not [z] the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his.

10 And [b] if Christ be in you, the body is dead because of sin; but [c] the Spirit is life because of righteousness.

11 But if the Spirit of him [d] that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, he that raised up Christ from the dead [f] shall also quicken your mortal bodies by his Spirit that dwelleth in you.

12 Therefore, brethren, we are debtors, [i] not to the flesh, to live after the flesh.

13 For if ye live after the flesh, [k] ye shall die: but if ye through the Spirit do [m] mortify the deeds of the body, ye shall live.

14 For as many as are [o] led by the Spirit of God, they are the [p] sons of God.

15 For ye have not received [q] the spirit of bondage again to fear; [r] but ye have received the Spirit of [2s] adoption, whereby we cry, [u] Abba, Father.

16 [x] The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the [y] children of God:

17 And if children, then [a] heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; [c] if so be that we suffer with him, that [e] we may be also glorified together.

18 For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are [i] not worthy to be compared with [k] the glory which shall be revealed in us.

19 For the earnest expectation of the [4] creature waiteth for the manifestation of the sons of God.

20 For the [4] creature [n] was made subject to vanity, not willingly, but by reason of him who hath subjected the same [5] in hope,

21 Because the creature itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God.

22 For we know that the whole creation [s] groaneth and travaileth in pain together until now.

23 And not only they, but ourselves also, which have the [t] firstfruits of the Spirit, even [x] we ourselves groan within ourselves, [y] waiting for the adoption, to wit, [a] the redemption of our body.

24 For we are saved [a] by hope: but [c] hope that is seen is not hope: for what a man seeth, why doth he yet hope for?

25 But if we hope for that we see not, then do we with [e] patience wait for it.

26 Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for [f] we know not [2] what we should pray for as we ought: but the Spirit itself maketh intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered.

27 And [i] he that searcheth the hearts knoweth what is the mind of the Spirit, because he [k] maketh intercession for the saints [l] according to the will of God.

28 And we know that all things work together for good to them [o] that love God, to them who are the [p] called according to his purpose.

29 For whom he did [q] foreknow, he also did [r] predestinate to be conformed [y] to the image of his Son, that he might be [a] the firstborn among many [c] brethren.

30 Moreover whom he did predestinate, them he also called: and whom he called, them he also [g] justified: and whom he justified, them he also [i] glorified.

31 What shall we then say to these things? [l] If God be for us, who can be against us?

32 [n] He that spared not his own Son, but [p] delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things?

33 Who shall lay any thing to the charge of God's [r] elect? [s] It is God that justifieth.

34 [u] Who is he that condemneth? It is Christ that died, yea rather, that is risen again, who is even [x] at the right hand of God, [z] who also maketh intercession for us.

35 [b] Who shall separate us from [c] the love of Christ? shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?

36 As it is written, [f] For thy sake [h] we are killed all the day long; we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter.

37 Nay, in all these things we are more than [b] conquerors through him that loved us.

38 For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor [d] principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come,

39 Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from [g] the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

CHAPTER 9

[h] I SAY the truth in Christ, I lie not, my conscience also bearing me witness in the Holy Ghost,

2 That I have great heaviness and continual sorrow in my heart.

3 For [m] I could wish that myself were [3] [n] accursed from Christ for my brethren, my kinsmen according to the flesh:

4 Who are Israelites; to whom pertaineth the [r] adoption, and the [s] glory, and [u] the covenants, and [x] the giving of the law, and [z] the service of God, and [b] the promises;

5 Whose are [d] the fathers, and of whom as concerning the flesh Christ came, [e] who is over all, [f] God blessed for ever. Amen.

6 [h] Not as though the word of God hath taken none effect. For [k] they are not all Israel, which are of Israel:

7 Neither, because they are the seed of [m] Abraham, are they all children: but, [o] In Isaac shall thy seed be called.

8 [q] That is, They which are the children of the flesh, these are not the children of God: but the children of the promise are counted for the seed.

9 For this is the word of promise, [t] At this time will I come, and Sarah shall have a son.

10 And not only this; but when [y] Rebecca also had conceived by one, even by our father [a] Isaac;

11 (For the children being not yet born, neither having done any good or evil, that the purpose of God according to [d] election might stand, not of works, but of [e] him that calleth;)

12 It was said unto her, [g] The elder shall serve the younger.

13 As it is written, [i] Jacob have I loved, but Esau have I hated.

14 What shall we say then? [a] Is there unrighteousness with God? God forbid.

15 For he saith to Moses, [b] I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion.

16 So then it is not of him that willeth, nor of him that runneth, but of God that sheweth mercy.

17 For the scripture saith unto Phär'-āoh, Even [d] for this same purpose have I raised thee up, that I might shew my power in thee, and that my name might be declared throughout all the earth.

18 Therefore hath he mercy on whom he will have mercy, and whom he will he [g] hardeneth.

19 Thou wilt say then unto me, [h] Why doth he yet find fault? For [i] who hath resisted his will?

20 Nay but, O man, [l] who art thou that repliest against God? Shall the thing formed say to him that formed it, Why hast thou made me thus?

21 Hath not [o] the potter power over the clay, of the same lump to make one [p] vessel unto honour, and another unto dishonour?

22 What if God, willing to shew his wrath, and to make his power known, endured with much longsuffering the [r] vessels of wrath [s] fitted to destruction:

23 And that he might make known [u] the riches of his glory on the vessels of mercy, which he had afore [x] prepared unto glory,

24 Even us, whom he hath called, not of the Jews only, but also [z] of the Gentiles?

25 As he saith also in Ō'-sēe, [b] I will call them my people, which were not my people; and her beloved, which was not beloved.

26 And [e] it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people; there shall they be called the children of the living God.

27 Ē-śâi'-ăs also crieth concerning Israel, [h] Though the number of the children of Israel be as the sand of the sea, a remnant shall be saved:

28 For he will finish the work, and cut it short in righteousness: because a short work will the Lord make upon the earth.

29 And as Ē-śâi'-ăs said before, [c] Except the Lord of Să-bā'-ōth had left us a seed, we had been as Sŏd'-ŏ-mă, and been made like unto Gō-mŏr'-rhă.

30 What shall we say then? That the Gentiles, which followed not after righteousness, have attained to righteousness, even [e] the righteousness which is of faith.

31 But Israel, which [f] followed after the law of righteousness, hath not attained to the law of righteousness.

32 Wherefore? Because they sought it not by faith, but as it were by the works of the law. For they stumbled at [k] that stumblingstone;

33 As it is written, [m] Behold, I lay in Sion [n] a stumblingstone and rock of offence: and whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed.

CHAPTER 10

BRETHREN, my heart's desire and prayer to God for Israel is, that they might be saved.

2 For I bear them record that they have a [q] zeal of God, but not according to knowledge.

3 For they being ignorant of God's righteousness, and [t] going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God.

4 For [y] Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to [a] every one that believeth.

5 For Moses describeth the righteousness [c] which is of the law, That [d] the man which doeth those things shall live by them.

6 [f] But [g] the righteousness which is of faith speaketh on this wise, Say not in thine heart, Who shall ascend into heaven? (that is, to bring Christ down from above:)

7 Or, Who shall descend into the [2] deep? (that is, to bring up Christ again from the dead.)

nigh thee, even in thy mouth, and in thy heart: that is, the word of faith, which we preach;

9 That [b] if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that [d] God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved.

10 For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.

11 For the scripture saith, Whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed.

12 For [h] there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek: for [k] the same Lord [l] over all is rich unto all that call upon him.

13 For [m] whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.

14 How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and [r] how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher?

15 And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, [t] How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!

16 But [y] they have not all obeyed the gospel. For Ē-sâi'-ăs saith, [z] Lord, who hath believed our report?

17 So then [a] faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.

18 But I say, Have they not heard? Yes verily, [c] their sound went into all the earth, and their words unto the ends of the world.

19 But I say, Did not Israel know? First Moses saith, [d] I will provoke you to jealousy by them that are no people, and by a foolish nation I will anger you.

20 But Ē-sâi'-ăs is very bold, and saith, [f] I was found of them that sought me not; I was made manifest unto them that asked not after me.

21 But to Israel he saith, [g] All day long I have stretched forth my hands unto a disobedient and gainsaying people.

CHAPTER 11

I SAY then, [a] Hath God cast away his people? God forbid. For [c] I also am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin.

2 God hath not cast away his people [e] which he foreknew. Wot ye not what the scripture saith of [f] Ē-lī'-ăs? how he maketh intercession to God against Israel, saying,

3 [g] Lord, they have killed thy prophets, and digged down thine altars; and I am left alone, and they seek my life.

4 But what saith the answer of God unto him? [i] I have reserved to myself seven thousand men, who have not bowed the knee to the image of Bā'-ăl.

5 Even so then at this present time also there is [n] a remnant according to the [o] election of grace.

6 And if [p] by grace, then [q] is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more grace: otherwise work is no more work.

7 What then? [s] Israel hath not obtained that which he seeketh for; but the [u] election hath obtained it, and the rest were [2] blinded

8 (According as it is written, [x] God hath given them the spirit of slumber, eyes that they should not see, and ears that they should not hear;) unto this day.

9 And David saith, [b] Let their table be made a snare, and a trap, and a stumblingblock, and a recompence unto them:

10 Let their eyes be darkened, that they may not see, and bow down their back alway.

11 I say then, Have they stumbled that they should fall? God forbid: but rather through their fall salvation [e] is come unto the Gentiles, for to provoke them to jealousy.

12 Now if the fall of them be the riches of the world, and the diminishing of them the riches of the Gentiles; how much more their fulness?

13 For I speak to you Gentiles, inasmuch as I am [h] the apostle of the Gentiles, I magnify mine office:

14 If by any means I may provoke to emulation them which are my flesh, and [b] might save some of them.
15 For if the casting away of them be [c] the reconciling of the world, what shall the receiving of them be, but life from the dead?
16 For if [f] the firstfruit be holy, the lump is also holy: and if the root be holy, so are the branches.
17 And if some of the branches be [i] broken off, and thou, [k] being a wild olive tree, wert graffed in among them, and with them [l] partakest of the root and fatness of the olive tree;
18 Boast not against the branches. But if thou boast, thou bearest not the root, but the root thee.
19 Thou wilt say then, The branches were broken off, that I might be graffed in.
20 Well; because of unbelief they were broken off, and [q] thou standest by faith. Be not highminded, but [r] fear:
21 For if God spared not the natural branches, take heed lest he also spare not thee.
22 Behold therefore the [u] goodness and severity of God: on them which fell, severity; but toward thee, goodness, [y] if thou continue in his goodness: otherwise thou also shalt be cut off.
23 And [a] they also, if they abide not still in unbelief, shall be graffed in: for God is able to graff them in again.
24 For if thou wert cut out of the olive tree which is wild by nature, and wert graffed contrary to nature into a good olive tree: how much more shall these, which be the natural branches, be graffed into their own olive tree?
25 For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this mystery, [k] lest ye should be wise in your own conceits; that [2m] blindness in part is happened to Israel, until [n] the fulness of the Gentiles be come in.
26 And so all Israel shall be saved: as it is written, [p] There shall come out of Sion the Deliverer, and shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob:
27 For this is my covenant unto them, [a] when I shall take away their sins.
28 As concerning the gospel, they are enemies for your sakes: but as touching the election, they are [d] beloved for the fathers' sakes.
29 For the gifts and [e] calling of God are [g] without repentance.
30 For as ye [h] in times past have not believed God, yet have now obtained mercy through their unbelief:
31 Even so have these also now not believed, that through your mercy they also may obtain mercy.
32 For God hath [m] concluded them all in unbelief, that he might have mercy upon all.
33 O the depth of the riches both of the [n] wisdom and knowledge of God! how [o] unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways past finding out!
34 For [p] who hath known the mind of the Lord? or who hath been his counsellor?
35 Or [s] who hath first given to him, and it shall be recompensed unto him again?
36 For [t] of him, and through him, and [x] to him, are all things: to whom be glory for ever. Amen.

CHAPTER 12

[z] I BESEECH you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye [b] present your bodies [c] a living sacrifice, holy, [d] acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.
2 And [e] be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the [f] renewing of your mind, that ye may [g] prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God.
3 For I say, through [h] the grace given unto me, to every man that is among you, [i] not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think; but to think soberly, [l] according as God hath dealt to every man the measure of faith.
4 [o] For as we have many members in one body, and all members have not the same office:
5 So we, [q] being many, are [r] one body in Christ, and every one [s] members one of another.

6 [a] Having then gifts differing according to the grace that is given to us, whether [b] prophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion of faith;

7 Or [c] ministry, let us wait on our ministering: or he that teacheth, on [d] teaching;

8 Or he that exhorteth, on exhortation: [f] he that giveth, let him do it with simplicity; he that [h] ruleth, with diligence; he that sheweth mercy, with cheerfulness.

9 [i] Let love be without dissimulation. [k] Abhor that which is evil; cleave to that which is good.

10 [l] Be kindly affectioned one to another with brotherly love; [n] in honour preferring one another;

11 Not slothful in business; [o] fervent in spirit; serving the Lord;

12 [p] Rejoicing in hope; [q] patient in tribulation; [r] continuing instant in prayer;

13 [t] Distributing to the necessity of saints; [u] given to hospitality.

14 [y] Bless them which persecute you: bless, and curse not.

15 [b] Rejoice with them that do rejoice, and weep with them that weep.

16 [d] Be of the same mind one toward another. [e] Mind not high things, but condescend to men of low estate. Be not wise in your own conceits.

17 [g] Recompense to no man evil for evil. [h] Provide things honest in the sight of all men.

18 If it be possible, as much as lieth in you, [k] live peaceably with all men.

19 Dearly beloved, avenge not yourselves, but rather give place unto wrath: for it is written, [l] Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord.

20 Therefore [o] if thine enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirst, give him drink: for in so doing thou shalt heap coals of fire on his head.

21 Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good.

2 Whosoever therefore resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinance of God: and they that resist shall receive to themselves damnation.

3 For rulers are not a terror to good works, but to the evil. Wilt thou then not be afraid of the power? do that which is good, and thou shalt have [e] praise of the same:

4 For [g] he is the minister of God to thee for good. But if thou do that which is evil, be afraid; for he beareth not the sword in vain: for he is the minister of God, a revenger to execute wrath upon him that doeth evil.

5 Wherefore ye must needs be subject, not only for wrath, but also [m] for conscience sake.

6 For for this cause pay ye tribute also: for they are God's ministers, attending continually upon this very thing.

7 [s] Render therefore to all their dues: tribute to whom tribute is due; custom to whom custom; fear to whom fear; [x] honour to whom honour.

8 Owe no man any thing, [z] but to love one another: for [a] he that loveth another hath fulfilled the law.

9 For this, [b] Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, Thou shalt not covet; and if there be any other commandment, it is briefly comprehended in this saying, namely, [c] Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

10 Love worketh no ill to his neighbour: therefore love is the fulfilling of the law.

11 And that, knowing the time, that now it is high time [m] to awake out of sleep: for [n] now is our salvation nearer than when we believed.

12 The night is far spent, the day is [p] at hand: let us therefore cast off the [q] works of darkness, and [r] let us put on the armour of light.

13 [s] Let us walk honestly, as in the day; [t] not in rioting and drunkenness, not in chambering and wantonness, not in strife and envying.

14 But [y] put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, and [a] make not provision for the flesh, to fulfil the lusts thereof.

CHAPTER 14

[b] HIM that is weak in the faith receive ye, but not to doubtful disputations.

2 For one believeth that he may eat all things: another, who is weak, eateth herbs.

3 [d] Let not him that eateth despise him that eateth not; and let not him which eateth not judge him that eateth: for God hath received him.

4 [e] Who art thou that judgest another man's servant? to his own master he standeth or falleth. Yea, he shall be holden up: for God is able to make him stand.

5 [h] One man esteemeth one day above another: another esteemeth every day alike. Let every man be fully persuaded in his own mind.

6 He that regardeth the day, regardeth it unto the Lord; and he that regardeth not the day, to the Lord he doth not regard it. He that eateth, eateth to the Lord, for [l] he giveth God thanks; and he that eateth not, to the Lord he eateth not, and giveth God thanks.

7 For [n] none of us liveth to himself, and no man dieth to himself.

8 For whether we live, we live unto the Lord; and whether we die, we die unto the Lord: [p] whether we live therefore, or die, [q] we are the Lord's.

9 For to this end [r] Christ both died, and [s] rose, and revived, [t] that he might be Lord both of the dead and living.

10 But why dost thou judge thy brother? or why dost thou set at nought thy brother? for [y] we shall all stand before the judgment seat of [2] Christ.

11 For it is written, [b] As I live, saith the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confess to God.

12 So then every one of us [d] shall give account of himself to God.

13 [f] Let us not therefore judge one another any more: but judge this rather, [h] that no man put a stumblingblock or an occasion to fall in his brother's way.

14 I know, and am persuaded by the Lord Jesus, that there [a] is nothing unclean of itself: but to him that esteemeth any thing to be unclean, to him it is unclean.

15 But if thy brother be grieved with thy meat, now walkest thou not charitably. [c] Destroy not him with thy meat, for whom Christ died.

16 Let not then your good be evil spoken of:

17 For the kingdom of God is not meat and drink; [f] but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost.

18 For he that in these things serveth Christ is [g] acceptable to God, and approved of men.

19 Let us therefore [i] follow after the things which make for peace, and things wherewith one may [k] edify another.

20 For meat destroy not the work of God. All things indeed are pure; but it is evil for that man who eateth with offence.

21 [m] It is good neither to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor any thing whereby thy brother stumbleth, or is offended, or is made weak.

22 Hast thou faith? have it to thyself before God. [o] Happy is he that condemneth not himself in that thing which he alloweth.

23 And he that doubteth is damned if he eat, because he eateth not of faith: for whatsoever is not of faith is sin.

CHAPTER 15

[u] WE then that are strong [x] ought to bear the infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves.

2 [z] Let every one of us please his neighbour for his good [a] to edification.

3 For even Christ pleased not himself; but, as it is written, [c] The reproaches of them that reproached thee fell on me.

4 For [e] whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that we through [g] patience and comfort of the scriptures might have [i] hope.

5 Now [k] the God of patience and consolation grant you [a] to be like-minded one toward another according to Christ Jesus:

6 That ye may [c] with one mind and one mouth [d] glorify God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

7 Wherefore [e] receive ye one another, as Christ also received us to the glory of God.

8 Now I say that Jesus Christ [g] was a minister of the circumcision for the truth of God, to confirm [i] the promises made unto the fathers:

9 And that [k] the Gentiles might glorify God for his mercy; as it is written, [m] For this cause I will confess to thee among the Gentiles, and sing unto thy name.

10 And again he saith, [n] Rejoice, ye Gentiles, with his people.

11 And again, [p] Praise the Lord, all ye Gentiles; and laud him, all ye people.

12 And again, Ē-sâi'-ăs saith, [r] There shall be a root of Jesse, and [t] he that shall rise to reign over the Gentiles; in him shall the Gentiles trust.

13 Now the God of hope fill you with [x] all joy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope, through the power of the Holy Ghost.

14 And I myself also am persuaded of you, my brethren, that ye also are full of goodness, filled with [a] all knowledge, able also to admonish one another.

15 Nevertheless, brethren, I have written the more boldly unto you in some sort, as putting you in mind, [c] because of the grace that is given to me of God,

16 [d] That I should be the minister of Jesus Christ to the Gentiles, ministering the gospel of God, that [e] the offering up of the Gentiles might be acceptable, being [f] sanctified by the Holy Ghost.

17 [i] I have therefore whereof I may glory through Jesus Christ [k] in those things which pertain to God.

18 For [m] I will not dare to speak of any of those things which Christ hath not wrought by me, to make the Gentiles obedient, by word and deed,

19 [b] Through mighty signs and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God; so that from Jerusalem, and round about unto Ĭl-lўr'-ĭ-cŭm, I have fully preached the gospel of Christ.

20 Yea, so have I strived to preach the gospel, [f] not where Christ was named, lest I should build upon another man's foundation:

21 But as it is written, [h] To whom he was not spoken of, they shall see: and they that have not heard shall understand.

22 For which cause also [l] I have been much hindered from coming to you.

23 But now having no more place in these parts, and [o] having a great desire these many years to come unto you;

24 Whensoever I take my journey into Spain, [q] I will come to you: for I trust to see you in my journey, and [s] to be brought on my way thitherward by you, if first I be somewhat filled with your company.

25 But now I go unto Jerusalem [u] to minister unto the saints.

26 For it hath pleased them of [y] Macedonia and [z] Ă-châi'-ă to make a certain contribution for the poor saints which are at Jerusalem.

27 It hath pleased them verily; and their debtors they are. For [b] if the Gentiles have been made partakers of their spiritual things, their duty is also to minister unto them in carnal things.

28 When therefore I have performed this, and have sealed to them this fruit, I will come by you into Spain.

29 And I am sure that, when I come unto you, I shall come in the fulness of the blessing of the gospel of Christ.

30 Now I beseech you, brethren, for the Lord Jesus Christ's sake, and for [g] the love of the Spirit, that ye [h] strive together with me in your prayers to God for me;

31 [i] That I may be delivered from them that do not believe in Judæa; and that my service which I have for Jerusalem may be accepted of the saints;

32 That I may come unto you with joy [a] by the will of God, and may with you be refreshed.

33 Now [b] the God of peace be with you all. Amen.

CHAPTER 16

I COMMEND unto you Phē'bē our sister, which is a servant of the church which is at [c] Çĕn-chrē'ă:

2 That ye [g] receive her in the Lord, as becometh saints, and that ye assist her in whatsoever business she hath need of you: for she hath been a succourer of many, and of myself also.

3 Greet [k] Priscilla and Aquila my helpers in Christ Jesus:

4 Who have for my life [l] laid down their own necks: unto whom not only I give thanks, but also all the churches of the Gentiles.

5 Likewise greet [n] the church that is in their house. Salute my wellbeloved Ĕp-æ'nĕ-tŭs, who is the firstfruits of [r] A-chāi'ă unto Christ.

6 Greet Mary, who bestowed much labour on us.

7 Salute Ăn-drō-nī'cŭs and Jû'nĭ-ă, my kinsmen, and [z] my fellowprisoners, who are of note among the apostles, who also were in Christ before me.

8 Greet Ăm'plĭ-ăs my beloved in the Lord.

9 Salute Urbane, our helper in Christ, and Stăch'ys my beloved.

10 Salute Ă-pĕl'lēs approved in Christ. Salute them which are of Ă-rĭs-tō-bū'lŭs' household.

11 Salute Hē-rō'dĭ-on my kinsman. Greet them that be of the household of Narcissus, which are in the Lord.

12 Salute Tryphena and Tryphosa, who labour in the Lord. Salute the beloved Persis, which laboured much in the Lord.

13 Salute [i] Rufus chosen in the Lord, and his mother and mine.

14 Salute Ă-sÿn'crĭ-tŭs, Phlegon, Hermas, Păt'rō-băs, Hermes, and the brethren which are with them.

15 Salute Phĭ-lŏl'ŏ-gŭs, and Julia, Nē'rēŭs, and his sister, and Olympas, and all the saints which are with them.

16 [c] Salute one another with an holy kiss. The churches of Christ salute you.

17 Now I beseech you, brethren, [d] mark them which cause divisions and offences [f] contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned; and avoid them.

18 For they that are such serve not our Lord Jesus Christ, but [h] their own belly; and [i] by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the simple.

19 For [m] your obedience is come abroad unto all men. I am glad therefore on your behalf: but yet I would have you wise unto that which is good, and [2o] simple concerning evil.

20 And the [p] God of peace shall [q] bruise Satan under your feet shortly. [s] The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen.

21 [t] Tī-mŏth'ĕ-ŭs my workfellow, and [u] Lucius, and [x] Jason, and [y] Sō-sĭp'ă-tĕr, my kinsmen, salute you.

22 I Tertius, [a] who wrote this epistle, salute you in the Lord.

23 [b] Gâi'ŭs mine host, and of the whole church, saluteth you. [c] Erastus the chamberlain of the city saluteth you, and Quartus a brother.

24 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

25 Now [d] to him that is of power to stablish you [e] according to my gospel, and the preaching of Jesus Christ, [f] according to the revelation of the mystery, which was kept secret [g] since the world began,

26 But now is made manifest, and [h] by the scriptures of the prophets, according to the commandment of [k] the everlasting God, made known to all nations [l] for the obedience of faith:

27 To God [m] only wise, [n] be glory through Jesus Christ for ever. Amen.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE CORINTHIANS

CHAPTER 1

A.D. 55

PAUL, called to be an apostle of Jesus Christ through the will of God, and [b] Sŏs'thĕ-nēs our brother,

2 Unto the church of God which is at [e] Corinth, to them that are [f] sanctified in Christ Jesus, [g] called to be saints, with all that in every place [i] call upon the name of Jesus Christ our Lord, both their's and our's:

3 Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

4 [l] I thank my God always on your behalf, for the grace of God which is given you by Jesus Christ;

5 That in every thing ye are [m] enriched by him, in all utterance, and in all knowledge;

6 Even as [r] the testimony of Christ was confirmed in you:

7 So that ye come behind in no gift; waiting for [t] the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ:

8 Who shall also confirm you unto the end, that ye may be [y] blameless in [a] the day of our Lord Jesus Christ.

9 [b] God is faithful, by whom [c] ye were called unto [d] the fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

10 Now I beseech you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you; but that ye be perfectly joined together in [h] the same mind and in the same judgment.

11 For it hath been declared unto me of you, my brethren, by them which are of the house of Chlō'ē, [m] that there are contentions among you.

12 Now this I say, that [n] every one of you saith, I am of Paul; and I of [o] Ă-pŏl'lŏs; and I of [p] Çē'phăs; and I of Christ.

13 Is Christ divided? was Paul crucified for you? or were ye baptized in the name of Paul?

14 I thank God that [a] I baptized none of you, but [c] Crispus and [d] Gâi'ŭs;

15 Lest any should say that I had baptized in mine own name.

16 And I baptized also [h] the household of Stĕph'ă-năs: besides, I know not whether I baptized any other.

17 For Christ sent me not to baptize, but to preach the gospel: [k] not with wisdom of words, lest the cross of Christ should be made of none effect.

18 For the preaching of the cross is [n] to them that perish [o] foolishness; but unto us [p] which are saved it is [q] the power of God.

19 For it is written, [s] I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent.

20 [u] Where is the wise? [x] where is the scribe? where is the disputer of this world? [z] hath not God made foolish the wisdom of this world?

21 For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom [e] knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe.

22 For [f] the Jews require a sign, and the Greeks seek after wisdom:

23 But we preach [g] Christ crucified, unto the Jews a [i] stumblingblock, and unto the Greeks [k] foolishness;

24 But unto them which are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God, and the [l] wisdom of God.

25 Because the foolishness of God is wiser than men; and the weakness of God is stronger than men.

26 For ye see [q] your calling, brethren, how that [r] not many wise men after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble, are called:

27 But [a] God hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise; and God hath chosen [d] the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty;

28 And base things of the world, and things which are despised, hath God chosen, yea, and [g] things which are not, [h] to bring to nought things that are:

29 [i] That no flesh should glory in his presence.

30 But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us [l] wisdom, and [m] righteousness, and [n] sanctification, and [o] redemption:

31 That, according as it is written, [q] He that glorieth, [r] let him glory in the Lord.

CHAPTER 2

AND I, brethren, when I came to you, [t] came not with excellency of speech or of wisdom, [x] declaring unto you the [3]testimony of God.

2 For I determined not to know any thing among you, [a] save Jesus Christ, and him crucified.

3 And [b] I was with you [c] in weakness, and in fear, and in much trembling.

4 And my speech and my preaching was not with enticing words of man's wisdom, but in demonstration of [f] the Spirit and of power:

5 That your faith should not stand in the wisdom of men, but in [h] the power of God.

6 Howbeit we speak wisdom among them that are [l] perfect: yet [m] not the wisdom of this world, nor of [o] the princes of this [6]world, that [p] come to nought:

7 But we speak the wisdom of God [r] in a mystery, even the hidden wisdom, which God ordained before the world unto our glory:

8 Which none of the princes of this world knew: for [u] had they known it, they would not have crucified [x] the Lord of glory.

9 But as it is written, [z] Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for [b] them that love him.

10 But [c] God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit: for [e] the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God.

11 For what man knoweth the things of a man, [f] save the spirit of man which is in him? even so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God.

12 Now [k] we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God.

13 Which things also we speak, [p] not in the words which man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Holy Ghost teacheth; [2]comparing spiritual things with spiritual.

14 But [s] the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are [u] foolishness unto him: [y] neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.

15 But he that is [z] spiritual [4]judgeth all things, yet he himself is [5]judged of no man.

16 For [d] who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he may instruct him? But [e] we have the mind of Christ.

CHAPTER 3

AND I, brethren, could not speak unto you as unto [g] spiritual, but as unto [i] carnal, even as unto babes in Christ.

2 [k] I have fed you with milk, and not with meat: for hitherto [n] ye were not able to bear it, neither yet now are ye able.

3 For ye are yet carnal: for whereas [q] there is among you envying, and strife, and divisions, are ye not carnal, and walk as men?

4 For while [s] one saith, I am of Paul; and another, I am of [t] Ă-pŏl'lŏs; are ye not carnal?

5 Who then is Paul, and who is Ă-pŏl'lŏs, but [y] ministers by whom ye believed, [a] even as the Lord gave to every man?

6 [a] I have planted, [b] Ă-pŏl'-lŏs watered; but God gave the increase.
7 So then neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth; but God that giveth the increase.
8 Now [e] he that planteth and he that watereth are one: and [f] every man shall receive his own reward according to his own labour.
9 For we are [g] labourers together with God: ye are [i] God's husbandry, ye are God's building.
10 [l] According to the grace of God which is given unto me, as a wise masterbuilder, I have laid the [m] foundation, and another buildeth thereon. But let every man take heed how he buildeth thereupon.
11 For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, [o] which is Jesus Christ.
12 Now if any man build upon this foundation gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble;
13 [t] Every man's work shall be made manifest: for [u] the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed [y] by fire; and the fire shall try every man's work of what sort it is.
14 If any man's work abide which he hath built thereupon, he shall receive a reward.
15 If any man's work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; [b] yet so as by fire.
16 Know ye not that [c] ye are the temple of God, and that the [e] Spirit of God dwelleth in you?
17 If any man defile the temple of God, him shall God destroy; for the temple of God is holy, which temple ye are.
18 Let no man deceive himself. [g] If any man among you seemeth to be wise in this world, let him become a fool, that he may be wise.
19 For [i] the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, [l] He taketh the wise in their own craftiness.
20 And again, [m] The Lord knoweth the thoughts of the wise, that they are vain.
21 Therefore [p] let no man glory in men. For [r] all things are your's;
22 Whether Paul, or Ă-pŏl'-lŏs, or Çē'-phăs, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come; all are your's;
23 And [c] ye are Christ's; and [d] Christ is God's.

CHAPTER 4

LET a man so account of us, as of the [h] ministers of Christ, and [k] stewards of the mysteries of God.
2 Moreover it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful.
3 But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged of you, or of man's [2] judgment: yea, I judge not mine own self.
4 For [n] I know nothing [3] by myself; yet am I not hereby justified: but he that judgeth me is the Lord.
5 Therefore [p] judge nothing before the time, [q] until the Lord come, [r] who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will [s] make manifest the counsels of the hearts: and [x] then shall every man have praise of God.
6 And these things, brethren, I have in a figure transferred to myself and to [z] Ă-pŏl'-lŏs for your sakes; that ye might learn in us [a] not to think of men above that which is written, that no one of you be puffed up for one against another.
7 For who maketh thee to differ from another? and [d] what hast thou that thou didst not receive? now if thou didst receive it, why dost thou glory, as if thou hadst not received it?
8 Now ye are full, now [f] ye are rich, ye have reigned as kings without us: and I would to God ye did reign, that we also might reign with you.
9 For I think that God hath set forth us the apostles last, [h] as it were appointed to death: for we are [k] made a spectacle unto the world, and to angels, and to men.
10 We are fools for Christ's sake, but [n] ye are wise in Christ; [o] we are weak, but ye are strong; ye are honourable, but we are despised.
11 Even unto this present hour [q] we both hunger, and thirst, and are naked, and are buffeted, and have no certain dwellingplace;

12 And labour, [a] working with our own hands: [d] being reviled, we bless; being [e] persecuted, we suffer it:

13 Being defamed, we intreat: we are made as the filth of the world, and are [h] the offscouring of all things unto this day.

14 [k] I write not these things to shame you, but [m] as my beloved sons I warn you.

15 For though ye have ten thousand instructers in Christ, yet have ye not many fathers: for in Christ Jesus [p] I have begotten you through the gospel.

16 Wherefore I beseech you, [r] be ye followers of me.

17 For this cause have I sent unto you [t] Tī-mŏth'ĕ-ŭs, who is [u] my beloved son, and faithful in the Lord, who shall bring you into remembrance of my ways which be in Christ, [y] as I teach every where in every church.

18 Now some are [z] puffed up, as though I would not come to you.

19 But [a] I will come to you shortly, [b] if the Lord will, and will know, not the speech of them which are puffed up, but the power.

20 For [c] the kingdom of God is not in word, but in power.

21 What will ye? shall I come unto you with a rod, or in love, and in [f] the spirit of meekness?

CHAPTER 5

IT is reported commonly that [h] there is fornication among you, and such fornication as is not so much as named among the Gentiles, [k] that one should have his father's wife.

2 And ye are [m] puffed up, and have not rather mourned, that he that hath done this deed might be taken away from among you.

3 For I verily, [o] as absent in body, but present in spirit, have judged already, as though I were present, concerning him that hath so done this deed,

4 In the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, [p] when ye are gathered together, and my spirit, with the power of our Lord Jesus Christ,

5 [b] To deliver such an one [c] unto Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved [f] in the day of the Lord Jesus.

6 [g] Your glorying is not good. Know ye not that [i] a little leaven leaveneth the whole lump?

7 [l] Purge out therefore the old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, as ye are unleavened. For even [n] Christ our passover is sacrificed for us:

8 Therefore [o] let us keep the feast, not with old leaven, neither with [q] the leaven of malice and wickedness; but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

9 I wrote unto you in an epistle [s] not to company with fornicators:

10 Yet [x] not altogether with the fornicators of this world, or with the covetous, or extortioners, or with idolaters; for then must ye needs go out of the world.

11 But now I have written unto you not to keep company, if any man that is called a brother be a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner; with such an one no not to eat.

12 For what have I to do to judge [d] them also that are without? [e] do not ye judge them that are within?

13 But them that are without God judgeth. Therefore [g] put away from among yourselves that wicked person.

CHAPTER 6

DARE any of you, having a matter against another, go to law before the unjust, and not [i] before the saints?

2 Do ye not know that [l] the saints shall judge the world? and if the world shall be judged by you, are ye unworthy to judge the smallest matters?

3 Know ye not that we shall [n] judge angels? how much more things that pertain to this life?

4 If then ye have judgments of things pertaining to this life, set them to judge who are least esteemed in the church.

5 [q] I speak to your shame. Is it so, that there is not a wise man among you? no, not one that shall be able to judge between his brethren?

6 But brother goeth to law with brother, and that before the unbelievers.

7 Now therefore there is utterly a fault among you, because ye go to law one with another. [f] Why do ye not rather take wrong? why do ye not rather suffer yourselves to be defrauded?

8 Nay, ye [h] do wrong, and defraud, and that your brethren.

9 Know ye not that the unrighteous [i] shall not inherit the kingdom of God? [k] Be not deceived: [l] neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind,

10 Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God.

CHAPTER 7

NOW concerning the things whereof ye wrote unto me: [g] It is good for a man not to touch a woman.

2 Nevertheless, to avoid fornication, let every man have his own wife, and let every woman have her own husband.

3 Let the husband render unto the wife due benevolence: and likewise also the wife unto the husband.

4 The wife hath not power of her own body, but the husband: and likewise also the husband hath not power of his own body, but the wife.

5 Defraud ye not one the other, [p] except it be with consent for a time, that ye may give yourselves to fasting and prayer; and come together again, [r] that Satan tempt you not for your incontinency.

6 But I speak this [t] by permission, and not of commandment.

7 For [u] I would that all men were even as I myself. But [y] every man hath his proper gift of God, one after this manner, and another after that.

8 I say therefore to the unmarried and widows, [c] It is good for them if they abide even as I.

9 But if they cannot contain, [f] let them marry: for it is better to marry than to burn.

10 And unto the married I command, yet not I, but the Lord, [i] Let not the wife depart from her husband:

11 But and if she depart, let her remain unmarried, or be reconciled to her husband: and let not the husband put away his wife.

12 But to the rest [l] speak I, not the Lord: If any brother hath a wife that believeth not, and she be pleased to dwell with him, let him not put her away.

13 And the woman which hath an husband that believeth not, and if he be pleased to dwell with her, let her not leave him.

14 For the unbelieving husband is sanctified by the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the husband: [b]else were your children unclean; but now are they holy.

15 But if the unbelieving depart, let him depart. A brother or a sister is not under bondage in such cases: but God hath called us [d]to peace.

16 For what knowest thou, O wife, [e]whether thou shalt save thy husband? or how knowest thou, O man, whether thou shalt save thy wife?

17 But [h]as God hath distributed to every man, as the Lord [k]hath called every one, so let him walk. And [l]so ordain I [m]in all churches.

18 Is any man called being circumcised? [n]let him not become uncircumcised. Is any called in uncircumcision? let him not be circumcised.

19 [o]Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, [p]but the keeping of the commandments of God.

20 [q]Let every man abide in the same calling wherein he was called.

21 Art thou called being a servant? care not for it: but if thou mayest be made free, use it rather.

22 For he that is called in the Lord, being a servant, is [r]the Lord's freeman: likewise also he that is called, being free, is [s]Christ's servant.

23 [t]Ye are bought with a price; be not ye the servants of men.

24 Brethren, [u]let every man, wherein he is called, therein abide with God.

25 Now concerning virgins [x]I have no commandment of the Lord: yet I give my judgment, as [y]one that hath obtained mercy of the Lord to be faithful.

26 I suppose therefore that this is good for the present distress, I say, that [z]it is good for a man so to be.

27 Art thou bound unto a wife? seek not to be loosed. Art thou loosed from a wife? seek not a wife.

28 But and if thou marry, thou hast not sinned; and if a virgin marry, she hath not sinned. Nevertheless such shall have trouble in the flesh: but I spare you.

29 But this I say, brethren, [a]the time is short: it remaineth, that both they that have wives be as though they had none;

30 And they that weep, as though they wept not; and they that rejoice, as though they rejoiced not; and [c]they that buy, as though they possessed not;

31 And they that use this world, as not [2]abusing it: for [f]the fashion of this world passeth away.

32 But I would have you [g]without carefulness. [i]He that is unmarried careth for the things that belong to the Lord, how he may please the Lord:

33 But he that is married careth for the things that are of the world, how he may please his wife.

34 There is difference also between a wife and a virgin. The unmarried woman careth for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit: but she that is married careth for the things of the world, how she may please her husband.

35 And this I speak for your own profit; not that I may cast a snare upon you, but for that which is comely, and that ye may attend upon the Lord without distraction.

36 But if any man think that he behaveth himself uncomely toward his virgin, if she pass the flower of her age, and need so require, let him do what he will, he sinneth not: let them marry.

37 Nevertheless he that standeth stedfast in his heart, having no necessity, but hath power over his own will, and hath so decreed in his heart that he will keep his virgin, doeth well.

38 So then he that giveth her in marriage [a]doeth well; but he that giveth her not in marriage doeth better.

39 [b]The wife is bound by the law as long as her husband liveth; but if her husband be dead, she is at liberty

CHAPTER 8

NOW as touching things [e] offered unto idols, we know that we all [h] have knowledge. Knowledge puffeth up, [i] but charity edifieth.

2 And [k] if any man think that he knoweth any thing, he knoweth nothing yet as he ought to know.

3 But [n] if any man love God, the same [o] is known of him.

4 As concerning therefore the eating of those things that are offered in sacrifice unto idols, [q] we know that an idol is nothing in the world, and that [r] there is none other God but one.

5 For though there be that are called gods, whether in heaven or in earth, (as there be gods many, and lords many,)

6 But to us [y] there is but one God, the Father, [a] of whom are all things, and we in him; and [b] one Lord Jesus Christ, [c] by whom are all things, and we by him.

7 Howbeit there is not in every man that knowledge: for some with conscience of the idol unto this hour eat it as a thing offered unto an idol; and their conscience being weak is defiled.

8 But [f] meat commendeth us not to God: for neither, if we eat, are we the better; neither, if we eat not, are we the worse.

9 But take heed lest by any means [i] this liberty of your's become a [j] stumblingblock to them that are weak.

10 For if any man see thee which hast knowledge sit at meat in the idol's temple, shall not the conscience of him which is weak be emboldened to eat those things which are offered to idols;

11 And through thy knowledge [o] shall the weak brother perish, for whom Christ died?

12 But when [p] ye sin so against the brethren, and wound their weak conscience, ye sin against Christ.

CHAPTER 9

AM I not an apostle? [d] am I not free? [f] have I not seen Jesus Christ our Lord? [g] are not ye my work in the Lord?

2 If I be not an apostle unto others, yet doubtless I am to you: for [l] the seal of [m] mine apostleship are ye in the Lord.

3 Mine answer to them that do examine me is this,

4 [p] Have we not power to eat and to drink?

5 Have we not power to lead about a sister, a wife, as well as other apostles, and as [s] the brethren of the Lord, and [t] Çē'phăs?

6 Or I only and [u] Barnabas, have not we power to forbear working?

7 [x] Who goeth a warfare any time at his own charges? [z] who planteth a vineyard, and eateth not of the fruit thereof? or who feedeth a flock, and eateth not of the milk of the flock?

8 [d] Say I these things as a man? or saith not the law the same also?

9 For it is written in the law of Moses, [e] Thou shalt not muzzle the mouth of the ox that treadeth out the corn. Doth God take care for oxen?

10 Or saith he it altogether for our sakes? [g] For our sakes, no doubt, this is written: that he that ploweth should plow in hope; and that he that thresheth [h] in hope should be partaker of his hope.

11 [k] If we have sown unto you spiritual things, is it a great thing if we shall reap your carnal things?

12 If others be partakers of this power over you, are not we rather? Nevertheless [l] we have not used this power; but suffer all things, [m] lest we should hinder the gospel of Christ.

13 Do ye not know that [n] they which minister about holy things live of the things of the temple? and they which wait at the altar are partakers with the altar?

14 Even [q] so hath the Lord ordained that they which preach the gospel should live of the gospel.

15 But [b] I have used none of these things: neither have I written these things, that it should be so done unto me: for it were better for me to die, than that any man should make [c] my glorying void.

16 For though I preach the gospel, I have nothing to glory of: for [f] necessity is laid upon me; yea, woe is unto me, if I preach not the gospel!

17 For if I do this thing willingly, I have [i] a reward: but if against my will, a [3k] dispensation of the gospel is committed unto me.

18 What is my reward then? Verily that, when I preach the gospel, I may make the gospel of Christ without charge, that I abuse not my power in the gospel.

19 For [n] though I be free from all men, yet have I made myself servant unto all, [o] that I might gain the more.

20 And [q] unto the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might gain the Jews; to them that are under the law, as under the law, that I might gain them that are under the law;

21 To them that are without law, as [u] without law, (being not without law to God, but under the law to Christ,) that I might gain them that are without law.

22 [b] To the weak [c] became I (as) weak, that I might gain the weak: I am made all things to all men, that I might by all means save some.

23 And this I do for the gospel's sake, that I might be partaker thereof with you.

24 Know ye not that they which run in a race run all, but one receiveth the [i] prize? [k] So run, that ye may obtain.

25 And every man that [m] striveth [5] for the mastery is temperate in all things. Now they do it to obtain a corruptible crown; but we [n] an incorruptible.

26 I therefore so run, not as uncertainly; so fight I, not as one that beateth the air:

27 But I [6] keep under my body, and bring it into subjection: lest that by any means, when I have preached to others, I myself should be a [2a] castaway.

CHAPTER 10

MOREOVER, brethren, I would not that ye should be ignorant, how that all our fathers were [d] under the cloud, and all [e] passed through the sea;

2 And were all baptized unto Moses in the cloud and in the sea;

3 And [g] did all eat the same [h] spiritual meat;

4 And [l] did all drink the same spiritual drink: for they drank of that spiritual Rock that followed them: and that Rock was Christ.

5 But with many of them God was not well pleased: for [m] they were overthrown in the wilderness.

6 Now these things were our examples, to the intent we should not lust after evil things, [p] as they also lusted.

7 [r] Neither be ye idolaters, as were some of them; as it is written, [s] The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play.

8 [t] Neither let us commit fornication, [x] as some of them committed, and [y] fell in one day three and twenty thousand.

9 [z] Neither let us tempt Christ, [a] as some of them also tempted, and were destroyed of [d] serpents.

10 Neither murmur ye, [e] as some of them also murmured, and were destroyed of [f] the destroyer.

11 Now all these things happened unto them for ensamples: and [g] they are written for our admonition, upon whom [h] the ends of [4] the world are come.

12 Wherefore [l] let him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall.

13 There hath no temptation taken you but such as is common to man: but [o] God is faithful, [p] who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it.

14 Wherefore, my dearly beloved, [q] flee from idolatry.

15 I speak as to wise men; judge ye what I say.

16 [b]The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? [d]The bread which we break, is it not the communion of [e]the body of Christ?

17 For [g]we being many are one bread, and [h]one body: for we are all partakers of that one bread.

18 Behold Israel after the flesh: [k]are not they which eat of the sacrifices partakers of the altar?

19 What say I then? [n]that the idol is any thing, or [o]that which is offered in sacrifice to idols is any thing?

20 But I say, that the things which the Gentiles [r]sacrifice, they sacrifice to [2]devils, and [s]not to God: and I would not that ye should have fellowship with devils.

21 [x]Ye cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and the cup of devils: ye cannot be partakers of the Lord's table, and of [a]the table of devils.

22 [b]Do we provoke the Lord to jealousy? [d]are we stronger than he?

23 [f]All things are lawful for me, but all things are not expedient: all things are lawful for me, but all things edify not.

24 [h]Let no man seek his own, but every man another's wealth.

25 [i]Whatsoever is sold in the shambles, that eat, asking no question for conscience sake:

26 For [k]the earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof.

27 [m]If any of them that believe not bid you to a feast, and ye be disposed to go; [o]whatsoever is set before you, eat, asking no question for conscience sake.

28 But if any man say unto you, This is offered in sacrifice unto idols, eat not for his sake that shewed it, and for conscience sake: for the earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof:

29 Conscience, I say, not thine own, but of the other: for [q]why is my liberty judged of another man's conscience?

30 For if I by grace be a partaker, why am I evil spoken of for that [s]for which I give thanks?

31 Whether therefore ye eat, or drink, or [a]whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God.

32 [c]Give none offence, neither to the Jews, nor to the Gentiles, nor to the church of God:

33 [f]Even as I please all men in all things, not seeking mine own profit, but the profit of many, [i]that they may be saved.

CHAPTER 11

BE ye [l]followers of me, even [m]as I also am of Christ.

2 Now I praise you, brethren, that ye remember me in all things, and [p]keep the ordinances, as I [q]delivered them to you.

3 But I would have you know, that the [t]head of every man is Christ; and the [u]head of the woman is the man; and the [y]head of Christ is God.

4 Every man praying or [z]prophesying, having his head covered, dishonoureth his head.

5 But every [c]woman that prayeth or prophesieth [e]with her head uncovered dishonoureth her head: for that is even all one [g]as if she were shaven.

6 For if the woman be not covered, let her also be shorn: but if it be a shame for a woman to be shorn or shaven, let her be covered.

7 For a man indeed ought not to cover his head, forasmuch as he is [l]the image and glory of God: but the woman is the glory of the man.

8 For [n]the man is not of the woman; but the woman of the man.

9 Neither was the man created for the woman; but [p]the woman for the man.

10 For this cause ought the woman [3]to have power on her head because of the angels.

11 Nevertheless neither is the man without the woman, neither the woman without the man, in the Lord.

12 For as the woman is of the man, even so is the man also by the woman; but [r]all things of God.

13 Judge in yourselves: is it comely that a woman pray unto God uncovered?

A.D. 55

14 Doth not even nature itself teach you, that, [a] if a man have long hair, it is a shame unto him?

15 But if a woman have long hair, it is a glory to her: for her hair is given her for a covering.

16 But if any man seem to be contentious, we have no such custom, neither [b] the churches of God.

17 Now in this that I declare unto you I praise you not, that ye come together not for the better, but for the worse.

18 For first of all, when ye come together in the church, I hear [c] that there be divisions among you; and I partly believe it.

19 For [f] there must be also heresies among you, [g] that they which are approved may be made manifest among you.

20 When ye come together therefore into one place, [2] this is not to eat the Lord's supper.

21 For in eating every one taketh before other his own supper: and one is hungry, and another is drunken.

22 What? have ye not houses to eat and to drink in? or despise ye the church of God, and [o] shame them that have not? What shall I say to you? shall I praise you in this? I praise you not.

23 [r] For [s] I have received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you, That the Lord Jesus the same night in which he was betrayed [u] took bread:

24 And when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, eat: this is my body, which is broken for you: this do in remembrance of me.

25 After the same manner also he took [u] the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood: this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me.

26 For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do shew the Lord's death [d] till he come.

27 Wherefore whosoever shall eat this bread, and drink this cup of the Lord, unworthily, shall be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord.

28 But [h] let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of that bread, and drink of that cup.

29 For he that eateth and drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh damnation to himself, not discerning the Lord's body.

30 For this cause many are weak and sickly among you, and many [c] sleep.

31 For if we would judge ourselves, we should not be judged.

32 But when we are judged, [d] we are chastened of the Lord, that we should not be condemned with the world.

33 Wherefore, my brethren, when ye come together to eat, tarry one for another.

34 And if any man hunger, let him eat at home; that ye come not together unto condemnation. And the rest [h] will I set in order [i] when I come.

CHAPTER 12

NOW concerning spiritual [k] gifts, brethren, I would not have you ignorant.

2 Ye know that [l] ye were Gentiles, [m] carried away unto these [n] dumb idols, even as ye were led.

3 Wherefore I give you to understand, that no man speaking [p] by the Spirit of God calleth Jesus [3] [q] accursed: and that no man can say that Jesus is the Lord, [t] but by the Holy Ghost.

4 Now [x] there are diversities of gifts, but the same Spirit.

5 And [y] there are differences of administrations, but the same Lord.

6 And there are diversities of operations, but it is the same God [z] which worketh all in all.

7 But the manifestation of the Spirit [a] is given to every man to profit withal.

8 For to one is given by the Spirit the word of [b] wisdom; to another the word of [c] knowledge by the same Spirit;

9 To another faith by the same Spirit; to another the [e] gifts of healing by the same Spirit;

10 To another the [f] working of miracles; to another [g] prophecy; to another [i] discerning of spirits; to another [a]divers kinds of tongues; to another the [b]interpretation of tongues:

11 But all these worketh that one and the selfsame Spirit, dividing to every man severally as he will.

12 For [e]as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body: [i]so also is Christ.

13 For [m]by one Spirit are we all [p]baptized into one body, whether we be [q]Jews or Gentiles, whether we be bond or free; and have been all made to drink into one Spirit.

14 For the body is not one member, but many.

15 If the foot shall say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body?

16 And if the ear shall say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body?

17 If the whole body were an eye, where were the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where were the smelling?

18 But now hath [u]God set the members every one of them in the body, as it hath pleased him.

19 And if they were all one member, where were the body?

20 But now are they many members, yet but one body.

21 And the eye cannot say unto the hand, I have no need of thee: nor again the head to the feet, I have no need of you.

22 Nay, much more those members of the body, which seem to be more feeble, are necessary:

23 And those members of the body, which we think to be less honourable, upon these we bestow more abundant honour; and our uncomely parts have more abundant comeliness.

24 For our comely parts have no need: but God hath tempered the body together, having given more abundant honour to that part which lacked:

25 That there should be no schism in the body; but that the members should have the same care one for another.

26 And whether one member suffer, all the members suffer with it; or one member be honoured, all the members [c]rejoice with it.

27 Now [d]ye are the body of Christ, and members in particular.

28 And God hath set some in the church, [f]first [g]apostles, secondarily prophets, thirdly [h]teachers, after that [k]miracles, then [l]gifts of healings, helps, [n]governments, [o]diversities of tongues.

29 Are all apostles? are all prophets? are all teachers? are all workers of miracles?

30 Have all the gifts of healing? do all speak with tongues? do all [r]interpret?

31 But [s]covet earnestly the best gifts: and yet shew I unto you a more excellent way.

CHAPTER 13

THOUGH I speak [t]with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not charity, I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal.

2 And though I have the gift of [x]prophecy, and understand all mysteries, and all [y]knowledge; and though I have all [z]faith, so that I could remove mountains, and have not charity, I am nothing.

3 And [a]though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, and have not charity, it profiteth me nothing.

4 [b]Charity suffereth long, and is kind; charity envieth not; charity vaunteth not itself, [c]is not puffed up,

5 Doth not behave itself unseemly, [d]seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil;

6 Rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth in the truth;

7 [2e]Beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.

8 Charity never faileth: but whether there be prophecies, they shall fail; whether there be tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge, it shall vanish away.

9 For we know in part, and we prophesy in part.

A.D. 55

10 But when that which is perfect is come, then that which is in part shall be done away.

11 When I was a child, I spake as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child: but when I became a man, I put away childish things.

12 For now we see [2] [b] through a glass, darkly; but then [c] face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also [d] I am known.

13 And now abideth faith, [e] hope, charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity.

CHAPTER 14

[g] FOLLOW after charity, and [h] desire spiritual gifts, but rather that ye may [i] prophesy.

2 For [k] he that speaketh in an unknown tongue speaketh not unto men, but unto God: for no man understandeth him; howbeit in the spirit he speaketh mysteries.

3 But he that prophesieth speaketh unto men to edification, and exhortation, and comfort.

4 He that speaketh in an unknown tongue edifieth himself; but he that prophesieth edifieth the church.

5 I would that ye all spake with tongues, but [n] rather that ye prophesied: for greater is he that prophesieth than he that speaketh with tongues, except he [o] interpret, that the church may receive edifying.

6 Now, brethren, if I come unto you speaking with tongues, what shall I profit you, except I shall speak to you either by [q] revelation, or by knowledge, or by prophesying, or by doctrine?

7 And even things without life giving sound, whether pipe or harp, except they give a distinction in the sounds, how shall it be known what is piped or harped?

8 For if the [t] trumpet give an uncertain sound, who shall prepare himself to the battle?

9 So likewise ye, except ye utter by the tongue words easy to be understood, how shall it be known what is spoken? for ye shall speak into the air.

10 There are, it may be, so many kinds of voices in the world, and none of them is without signification.

11 Therefore if I know not the meaning of the voice, I shall be unto him that speaketh a [a] barbarian, and he that speaketh shall be a barbarian unto me.

12 Even so ye, forasmuch as ye are zealous of spiritual gifts, seek that ye may excel to the [f] edifying of the church.

13 Wherefore let him that speaketh in an unknown tongue pray that he may interpret.

14 For if I pray in an unknown tongue, my spirit prayeth, but my understanding is unfruitful.

15 What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also: [l] I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing with the understanding also.

16 Else when thou shalt bless with the spirit, how shall he that occupieth the room of the unlearned say [m] Amen at thy giving of thanks, seeing he understandeth not what thou sayest?

17 For thou verily givest thanks well, but the other is not edified.

18 I thank my God, I speak with tongues more than ye all:

19 Yet in the church I had rather speak five words with my understanding, that by my voice I might teach others also, than ten thousand words in an unknown tongue.

20 Brethren, be not children in understanding: howbeit in malice [p] be ye children, but in understanding [r] be [3] men.

21 In the law it is written, [s] With men of other tongues and other lips will I speak unto this people; and yet for all that will they not hear me, saith the Lord.

22 Wherefore tongues are for a sign, not to them that believe, but to them that believe not: but prophesying serveth not for them that believe not, but for them which believe.

23 If therefore the whole church be come together into one place, and all speak with tongues, and there come in those that are unlearned, or unbelievers, [a] will they not say that ye are mad?

24 But if all prophesy, and there come in one that believeth not, or one unlearned, he is convinced of all, he is judged of all:

25 And thus are [c] the secrets of his heart made manifest; and so falling down on his face, he will worship God, and [e] report that God is in you of a truth.

26 How is it then, brethren? when ye come together, every one of you hath a psalm, hath a doctrine, hath a tongue, hath a [k] revelation, hath an interpretation. Let all things be done unto edifying.

27 If any man speak in an unknown tongue, let it be by two, or at the most by three, and that by course; and let one interpret.

28 But if there be no interpreter, let him keep silence in the church; and let him speak to himself, and to God.

29 Let the prophets speak two or three, and let the other [s] judge.

30 If any thing be revealed to another that sitteth by, let the first hold his peace.

31 For ye may all prophesy one by one, that all may learn, and all may be comforted.

32 And the spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets.

33 For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as in [a] all churches of the saints.

34 [c] Let your women keep silence in the churches: for it is not permitted unto them to speak; but they are commanded to [c] be under obedience, as also saith the law.

35 And if they will learn any thing, let them ask their husbands at home: for it is a shame for women to speak in the church.

36 What? came the word of God out from you? or came it unto you only?

37 [h] If any man think himself to be a prophet, or [i] spiritual, [k] let him acknowledge that the things that I write unto you are the commandments of the Lord.

CHAPTER 15

MOREOVER, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel [d] which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and [f] wherein ye stand;

2 By which also [g] ye are saved, [h] if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, [i] unless ye have believed in vain.

3 For I delivered unto you first of all [l] that which I also received, how that [m] Christ died for our sins [n] according to the scriptures;

4 And that he was buried, and that [o] he rose again the third day according to the scriptures:

5 And that [p] he was seen of Çē'phās, then [q] of the twelve:

6 After that, he was seen [r] of above five hundred brethren at once; of whom the greater part remain unto this present, but some are [t] fallen asleep.

7 After that, he was seen of James; then [u] of all the apostles.

8 And last of all he was [x] seen of me also, as of one [y] born out of due time.

9 For [z] I am the least of the apostles, that am not meet to be called an apostle, because [b] I persecuted the church of God.

10 But [d] by the grace of God I am what I am: and his grace which was bestowed upon me was not in vain; but [f] I laboured more abundantly than they all: yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me.

11 Therefore whether it were I or they, so we preach, and so ye believed.

12 Now if Christ be preached that he rose from the dead, [g] how say some among you that there is no resurrection of the dead?

13 But if there be no resurrection of the dead, then is Christ not risen:

14 And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vain, and your faith is also vain.

15 Yea, and we are found false witnesses of God; because we have testified of God that he raised up Christ: whom he raised not up, if so be that the dead rise not.

16 For if the dead rise not, then is not Christ raised:

17 And if Christ be not raised, your faith is vain; ye are yet in your sins.

18 Then they also which are [k] fallen asleep in Christ are perished.

19 If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable.

20 But now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the [m] firstfruits of them that slept.

21 For since by man came death, by man came also [n] the resurrection of the dead.

22 For [o] as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive.

23 But every man in his own order: Christ the firstfruits; afterward [p] they that are Christ's [q] at his coming.

24 [r] Then cometh the end, when he shall have delivered up the kingdom to God, even the Father; when he shall have put down all rule and all authority and power.

25 For he must reign, [s] till he hath put all enemies under his feet.

26 [t] The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death.

27 For [u] he hath put all things under his feet. But when he saith all things are put under him, it is manifest that he is excepted, [y] which did put all things under him.

28 And when all things shall be subdued unto him, then shall [z] the Son also himself be subject unto him that put all things under him, that God may be all in all.

29 Else what shall they do which are baptized for the dead, if the dead rise not at all? why are they then baptized for the dead?

30 And [d] why stand we in jeopardy every hour?

31 I protest by your rejoicing which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, [e] I die daily.

32 If after the manner of men [a] I have fought with beasts at [b] Ephesus, what advantageth it me, if the dead rise not? [c] let us eat and drink; for to morrow we die.

33 [d] Be not deceived: [e] evil communications corrupt good manners.

34 [f] Awake to righteousness, and [g] sin not; for [h] some have not the knowledge of God: [i] I speak this to your shame.

35 But some man will say, How are the dead raised up? and with what body do they come?

36 Thou fool, that which thou sowest is not quickened, [l] except it die:

37 And that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that body that shall be, but bare grain, it may chance of wheat, or of some other grain:

38 But God giveth it a body as it hath pleased him, and to every seed his own body.

39 All flesh is not the same flesh: but there is one kind of flesh of men, another flesh of beasts, another of fishes, and another of birds.

40 There are also celestial bodies, and bodies terrestrial: but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another.

41 There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars: for one star differeth from another star in glory.

42 So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption:

43 It is sown in dishonour; [x] it is raised in glory: it is sown in weakness; it is raised in power:

44 It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body.

45 And so it is written, [a] The first man Adam was made a living soul; [b] the last Adam was made a [c] quickening spirit.

46 Howbeit that was not first which is spiritual, but that which is natural; and afterward that which is spiritual.

47 The first man is of the earth, [f] earthy: [g] the second man is the Lord from heaven.

48 As is the earthy, such are they also that are earthy: and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly.

49 And as we have borne the image of the earthy, [d] we shall also bear the image of the heavenly.

50 Now this I say, brethren, that [f] flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit incorruption.

51 Behold, I shew you a mystery; [h] We shall not all sleep, but [i] we shall all be changed, 52 In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for [n] the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.

53 For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and [r] this mortal must put on immortality.

54 So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, [x] Death is swallowed up in victory.

55 [y] O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory?

56 The sting of death is sin; and [z] the strength of sin is the law.

57 But thanks be to God, which giveth us [e] the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

58 Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye stedfast, unmoveable, [g] always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord.

CHAPTER 16

2 Upon [o] the first day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store, as God hath prospered him, [r] that there be no gatherings when I come.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE CORINTHIANS

CHAPTER 1

A.D. 55

PAUL, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and [b] Timothy our brother, unto the church of God which is at [d] Corinth, with all the saints which are in all [e] Ă-chaî'ă:

2 Grace be to you and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 [h] Blessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the [i] God of all comfort;

4 Who comforteth us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any trouble, by the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted of God.

5 For [n] as the sufferings of Christ abound in us, so our consolation also aboundeth by Christ.

6 And [p] whether we be afflicted, it is for your consolation and salvation, which is effectual in the enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer: or whether we be comforted, it is for your consolation and salvation.

7 And our hope of you is stedfast, knowing, that [u] as ye are partakers of the sufferings, so shall ye be also of the consolation.

8 For we would not, brethren, have you ignorant of [z] our trouble which came to us in [a] Asia, that we were pressed out of measure, above strength, insomuch that we despaired even of life:

9 But we had the sentence of death in ourselves, that we should not trust in ourselves, but in God [a] which raiseth the dead:

10 [c] Who delivered us from so great a death, and doth deliver: in whom we trust that he will yet deliver us;

11 [f] Ye also helping together by prayer for us, that [g] for the gift bestowed upon us by the means of many persons thanks may be given by many on our behalf.

12 For our rejoicing is this, [k] the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity and godly [l] sincerity, not with fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God, [m] we have had our conversation in the world, and more abundantly to you-ward.

13 For we write none other things unto you, than what ye read or acknowledge; and [o] I trust ye shall acknowledge even to the end;

14 As also ye have acknowledged us in part, that [q] we are your rejoicing, even as [r] ye also are our's in [s] the day of the Lord Jesus.

15 And in this confidence I was minded [t] to come unto you before, that ye might have a second benefit;

16 And to pass by you into [x] Macedonia, and to come again out of Macedonia unto you, and of you [y] to be brought on my way toward Judæa.

17 When I therefore was thus minded, did I use lightness? or the things that I purpose, do I purpose according to the flesh, that with me there should be yea yea, and nay nay?

18 But as [a] God is true, our word toward you was not yea and nay.

19 For [c] the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached among you by us, even by me and [d] Sĭl-vā'nŭs and Tī-mŏth'ĕ-ŭs, was not yea and nay, but in him was yea.

20 For all [f] the promises of God in him are yea, and in him [g] Amen, unto the glory of God by us.

21 Now he which stablisheth us with you in Christ, and hath [i] anointed us, is God;

22 Who hath also [l] sealed us, and given [n] the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts.

23 Moreover [p] I call God for a record upon my soul, that [r] to spare you I came not as yet unto Corinth.

24 [t] Not for that we have dominion over your faith, but are helpers of your joy: for [u] by faith ye stand.

CHAPTER 2

BUT I determined this with myself, [a] that I would not come again to you in heaviness.

2 For [b] if I make you sorry, who is he then that maketh me glad, but the same which is made sorry by me?

3 And I wrote this same unto you, lest, when I came, I should have sorrow from them of whom I ought to rejoice; [f] having confidence in you all, that my joy is the joy of you all.

4 For out of much affliction and anguish of heart I wrote unto you [h] with many tears; not that ye should be grieved, but [k] that ye might know the love which I have more abundantly unto you.

5 But if any have caused grief, he hath not grieved me, but in part: that I may not overcharge you all.

6 Sufficient to such a man is [m] this punishment, which was inflicted of many.

7 So that contrariwise [q] ye ought rather to forgive him, and comfort him, lest perhaps such a one should be swallowed up with overmuch sorrow.

8 Wherefore I beseech you that ye would confirm your love toward him.

9 For to this end also did I write, that I might know the proof of you, [b] whether ye be obedient in all things.

10 To whom ye forgive any thing, I forgive also: for if I forgave any thing, to whom I forgave it, for your sakes forgave I it in the person of Christ;

11 [e] Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices.

12 Furthermore, when I came to [h] Trō'ăs to preach Christ's gospel, and [k] a door was opened unto me of the Lord,

13 [m] I had no rest in my spirit, because I found not [o] Titus my brother: but taking my leave of them, I went from thence into [q] Macedonia.

14 Now thanks be unto God, [s] which always causeth us to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest the savour of his knowledge by us in every place.

15 For we are unto God a [x] sweet savour of Christ, [y] in them that are saved, and in [z] them that perish:

16 To the one we are the savour of death unto death; and to the other the savour of life unto life. And [c] who is sufficient for these things?

17 For we are not as many, [d] which corrupt the word of God: but as of [e] sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we in Christ.

CHAPTER 3

[g] DO we begin again to commend ourselves? or need we, as some others, [i] epistles of commendation to you, or letters of commendation from you?

2 [l] Ye are our epistle written in our hearts, known and read of all men:

3 Forasmuch as ye are manifestly declared to be the epistle of Christ ministered by us, written not with ink, but [n] with the Spirit of [o] the living God; not in [p] tables of stone, but in fleshy [r] tables of the heart.

4 And [s] such trust have we through Christ to God-ward:

5 [t] Not that we are sufficient of ourselves to think any thing as of ourselves; but our sufficiency is of God;

6 Who also hath made us able [u] ministers of [x] the new [2]testament; [y] not of the letter, but of the spirit: for the letter killeth, [b] but the spirit giveth life.

7 But if [e] the ministration of death, written and engraven in stones, was glorious, so that the children of Israel could not stedfastly behold the face of Moses [h] for the glory of his countenance; which glory was to be done away:

8 How shall not the ministration of the spirit be rather glorious?

9 For if [m] the ministration of condemnation be glory, much more doth the ministration of righteousness exceed in glory.

10 For even that which was made glorious had no glory in this respect, by reason of the glory that excelleth.

11 For if that which is done away was glorious, much more that which remaineth is glorious.

12 Seeing then that we have [t] such hope, [x] we use great plainness of speech:

13 And not as Moses, which [z] put a vail over his face, that the children of Israel could not stedfastly look to the end of that which is abolished:

14 But [d] their minds were [3] blinded: for until this day remaineth the same vail untaken away [f] in the reading of the old testament; which vail is done away in Christ.

15 But even unto this day, when Moses is read, the vail is upon their heart.

16 Nevertheless when [h] it shall turn to the Lord, the vail shall be taken away.

17 Now [i] the Lord is that Spirit: and where the Spirit of the Lord is, [l] there is liberty.

18 But we all, with open face [4] [m] beholding [o] as in a [5] glass the glory of the Lord, [q] are changed [r] into the same image from glory to glory even as by the Spirit of the Lord.

CHAPTER 4

THEREFORE seeing we have [x] this ministry, [y] as we have received mercy, we faint not;

2 But have renounced [z] the hidden things of dishonesty, not walking in craftiness, nor [a] handling the word of God deceitfully; but [c] by manifestation of the truth [d] commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God.

3 But [f] if our gospel be [2] hid, it is hid to [g] them that are lost:

4 In whom [i] the god of this world [k] hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, [l] who is the image of God, should shine unto them.

5 For [n] we preach not ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord; and [o] ourselves your servants for Jesus' sake.

6 For God, [p] who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, [q] hath shined in our hearts, to give [r] the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

7 But we have this treasure in [s] earthen vessels, that the excellency of [u] the power may be of God, and not of us.

8 We are [y] troubled on every side, yet not distressed; we are perplexed, but not in despair;

9 [a] Persecuted, but [b] not forsaken; [c] cast down, but not destroyed;

10 [e] Always bearing about in the body the dying of the Lord Jesus, [g] that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our body.

11 For we which live are alway delivered unto death for Jesus' sake, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our mortal flesh.

12 So then death worketh in us, but life in you.

13 We having the same spirit of faith, according as it is written, [k] I believed, and therefore have I spoken; we also believe, and therefore speak;

14 Knowing that [n] he which raised up the Lord Jesus [p] shall raise up us also by Jesus, and shall present us with you.

15 For [s] all things are for your sakes, [t] that the abundant grace might through the thanksgiving of many redound to [u] the glory of God.

16 For which cause we faint not; but though our outward man perish, yet [a] the inward man [b] is renewed day by day.

17 For [a]our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory;

18 While we look [c]not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal.

CHAPTER 5

FOR we know that if our [g]earthly house of this [i]tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

2 For in this [l]we groan, earnestly desiring to be clothed upon with our house which is from heaven:

3 If so be that being clothed we shall not be found naked.

4 For we that are in this tabernacle do groan, being burdened: not for that we would be unclothed, but [r]clothed upon, that mortality might be swallowed up of life.

5 Now he that hath wrought us for the selfsame thing is God, who also hath given unto us [u]the earnest of the Spirit.

6 Therefore we are always confident, knowing that, whilst we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord:

7 (For [z]we walk by faith, not by sight:)

8 We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be [d]present with the Lord.

9 Wherefore we [2]labour, that, whether present or absent, we may be [e]accepted of him.

10 For we must all appear before [g]the judgment seat of Christ; [h]that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad.

11 Knowing therefore [m]the terror of the Lord, we persuade men; but we are [n]made manifest unto God; and I trust also are made manifest in your consciences.

12 For [q]we commend not ourselves again unto you, but [r]give you occasion to glory on our behalf, that ye may have somewhat to answer them which glory in appearance, and not in heart.

13 For whether we be [b]beside ourselves, it is to God: or whether we be sober, it is for your cause.

14 For [d]the love of Christ constraineth us; because we thus judge, that if [e]one died for all, then were all dead:

15 And that he died for all, that they which live should [f]not henceforth live unto themselves, [h]but unto him which died for them, and [k]rose again.

16 Wherefore henceforth know we no man after the flesh: yea, though we have known Christ after the flesh, yet now henceforth know we him no more.

17 Therefore if any man be [m]in Christ, he is [n]a new creature: [o]old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new.

18 And [p]all things are of God, [q]who hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us [s]the ministry of reconciliation;

19 To wit, that [t]God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them; and hath committed unto us the word of reconciliation.

20 Now then we are [x]ambassadors for Christ, [y]as though God did beseech you by us: we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God.

21 For [a]he hath made him to be sin for us, [b]who knew no sin; [c]that we might be made the righteousness of God in him.

CHAPTER 6

WE then, as [f]workers together with him, [i]beseech you also [k]that ye receive not the grace of God in vain.

2 (For he saith, [l]I have heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of salvation have I succoured thee: behold, now is the accepted time; behold, [o]now is the day of salvation.)

3 [p]Giving no offence in any thing, that the ministry be not blamed:

4 But in all things approving ourselves [s]as the ministers of God, [t]in much patience, in [a] afflictions, in necessities, in distresses,

5 In [d] stripes, in imprisonments, in tumults, in labours, in watchings, in fastings;

10 As sorrowful, yet alway rejoicing; [r] as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things.
11 O ye Corinthians, our mouth is open unto you, our heart is enlarged.
12 Ye are not straitened in us, but ye are straitened in your own bowels.
13 Now for a recompence in the same, (I speak as unto [u] my children,) be ye also enlarged.
14 [x] Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for [y] what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and [z] what communion hath light with darkness?
15 And [a] what concord hath Christ with Bĕ-lī-ăl? or what part hath he that believeth with an infidel?
16 And what agreement hath the temple of God with idols? for [b] ye are the temple of [c] the living God; as God hath said, [d] I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.
17 Wherefore [e] come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you,
18 And will be a Father unto you, and [f] ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith [g] the Lord Almighty.

CHAPTER 7

HAVING therefore these promises, dearly beloved, [i] let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, [b] perfecting holiness [c] in the fear of God.
2 Receive us; we have wronged no man, we have corrupted no man, [e] we have defrauded no man.
3 I speak not this to condemn you: for I have said before, that ye are in our hearts to die and live with you.
4 Great is [k] my boldness of speech toward you, great is [m] my glorying of you: I am filled with comfort, I am exceeding joyful in all our tribulation.
5 For, when we were come into [n] Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but we were troubled on every side; without were fightings, within were fears.
6 Nevertheless God, [q] that comforteth those that are cast down, comforted us by the coming of [s] Titus;
7 And not by his coming only, but by the consolation wherewith he was comforted in you, when he told us your earnest desire, your mourning, your fervent mind toward me; so that I rejoiced the more.
8 For [t] though I made you sorry with a letter, I do not repent, though I did repent: for I perceive that the same epistle hath made you sorry, though it were but for a season.
9 Now I rejoice, not that ye were made sorry, but that ye sorrowed to repentance: for ye were made sorry after a godly manner, that ye might receive damage by us in nothing.
10 For godly sorrow worketh repentance to salvation not to be repented of: but the sorrow of the world worketh death.
11 For behold this selfsame thing, that ye sorrowed after a godly sort, what carefulness it wrought in you, yea, what clearing of yourselves, yea, what indignation, yea, what fear, yea, what vehement desire, yea, what zeal, yea, what revenge! In all things ye have approved yourselves to be clear in this matter.
12 Wherefore, though I wrote unto you, I did it not for his cause that had done the wrong, nor for his cause that suffered wrong, but that [h] our care for you in the sight of God might appear unto you.

13 Therefore we were comforted in your comfort: yea, and exceedingly the more joyed we for the joy of Titus, because [b] his spirit was refreshed by you all.

14 For if I have boasted any thing to him of you, I am not ashamed; but as we spake all things to you in truth, even so our boasting, which I made before Titus, is found a truth.

15 And his inward affection is more abundant toward you, whilst he remembereth the [d] obedience of you all, how with fear and trembling ye received him.

16 I rejoice therefore that I [e] have confidence in you in all things.

CHAPTER 8

[g] MOREOVER, brethren, we do you to wit of the grace of God bestowed on the churches of [i] Macedonia;

2 How that in a great trial of affliction the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty abounded unto [k] the riches of their liberality.

3 For to their power, I bear record, yea, and beyond their power they were willing of themselves;

4 Praying us with much intreaty that we would receive the gift, and take upon us the fellowship of the ministering to the saints.

5 And this they did, not as we hoped, but first gave their own selves to the Lord, and unto us by the will of God.

6 Insomuch that we desired [p] Titus, that as he had begun, so he would also finish in you the same grace also.

7 Therefore, [q] as ye abound in every thing, in faith, and utterance, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your love to us, see that ye abound in this grace also.

8 [s] I speak not by commandment, but by occasion of the forwardness of others, and to prove the sincerity of your love.

9 For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, [u] though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, [x] that ye through his poverty might be rich.

10 And herein I give my advice: for this is expedient for you, who have begun before, not only to do, but also to be forward [a] a year ago.

11 Now therefore perform the doing of it; that as there was a readiness to will, so there may be a performance also out of that which ye have.

12 For if there be first [c] a willing mind, it is accepted according to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not.

13 For I mean not that other men be eased, and ye burdened:

14 But by an equality, that now at this time your abundance may be a supply for [f] their want, that their abundance also may be a supply for your want: that there may be equality:

15 As it is written, [h] He that had gathered much had nothing over; and he that had gathered little had no lack.

16 But thanks be to God, which put the same earnest care into the heart of Titus for you.

17 For indeed he accepted the exhortation; but being more forward, of his own accord he went unto you.

18 And [l] we have sent with him [m] the brother, whose praise is in the gospel throughout all the churches;

19 And not that only, but who was also [n] chosen of the churches to travel with us with this grace, which is administered by us [o] to the glory of the same Lord, and declaration of your ready mind:

20 Avoiding this, that no man should blame us in this abundance which is administered by us:

21 [r] Providing for honest things, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men.

22 And we have sent with them our brother, whom we have oftentimes proved diligent in many things, but now much more diligent, upon the [t] great confidence which I have in you.

23 Whether any do enquire of Titus, he is my partner and fellowhelper concerning you: or our brethren be enquired of, they are the [y] messengers of the churches, and the glory of Christ.

24 Wherefore shew ye to them, and before the churches, the proof of your love, and of [b] our boasting on your behalf.

CHAPTER 9

FOR as touching [d] the ministering to the saints, [e] it is superfluous for me to write to you:

2 For I know the forwardness of your mind, [f] for which I boast of you to them of Macedonia, that [g] Ă-chaĭ-ă was ready [h] a year ago; and your zeal hath provoked very many.

3 Yet [k] have I sent the brethren, lest our boasting of you should be in vain in this behalf; that, [l] as I said, ye may be ready:

4 Lest haply if they of Macedonia come with me, and find you unprepared, we (that we say not, ye) should be ashamed in this same confident boasting.

5 Therefore I thought it necessary to exhort the brethren, that they would go before unto you, and make up beforehand your bounty, whereof ye had notice before, that the same might be ready, as a matter of bounty, and not as of covetousness.

6 But this I say, [r] He which soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly; and [s] he which soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully.

7 Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give; [t] not grudgingly, or of necessity: for God loveth a cheerful giver.

8 And [u] God is able to make all grace abound toward you; that ye, always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work:

9 (As it is written, [z] He hath dispersed abroad; he hath given to the poor: his righteousness remaineth for ever.

10 Now he that ministereth [c] seed to the sower both minister bread for your food, and multiply your seed sown, and [e] increase the fruits of your righteousness;)

11 [f] Being enriched in every thing to all bountifulness, which [g] causeth through us thanksgiving to God.

12 For the administration of this service not only supplieth [a] the want of the saints, but is abundant also by many thanksgivings unto God;

13 Whiles by the experiment of this ministration [c] they glorify God for [2] your professed subjection unto the gospel of Christ, and for your liberal distribution unto them, and unto all men;

14 And by their prayer for you, which long after you for the exceeding grace of God in you.

15 [i] Thanks be unto God for his unspeakable gift.

CHAPTER 10

NOW I Paul myself [m] beseech you by the [n] meekness and gentleness of Christ, who [o] in presence am base among you, but being absent am bold toward you:

2 But I beseech you, [p] that I may not be bold when I am present with that confidence, wherewith I think to be bold against some, which think of us as if we walked according to the flesh.

3 For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war after the flesh:

4 (For the weapons of [q] our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strong holds;)

5 Casting down [3] imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ;

6 And having in a readiness to revenge all disobedience, when [x] your obedience is fulfilled.

7 [y] Do ye look on things after the outward appearance? [a] If any man trust to himself that he is Christ's, let him of himself think this again, that, as he is Christ's, even [b] so are we Christ's.

8 For though I should boast somewhat more of [d] our authority, which the Lord hath given us for edification, and not for your destruction, I should not be ashamed:

9 That I may not seem as if I would terrify you by letters.

10 For [h] his letters, say they, are weighty and powerful; but [a] his bodily presence is weak, and his speech contemptible.

11 Let such an one think this, that, such as we are in word by letters when we are absent, such will we be also in deed when we are present.

12 For we dare not make ourselves of the number, or compare ourselves with some that [e] commend themselves: but they measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves among themselves, are not wise.

13 But [g] we will not boast of things without our measure, but according to the measure of the rule which God hath distributed to us, a measure to reach even unto you.

14 For we stretch not ourselves beyond our measure, as though we reached not unto you: for [k] we are come as far as to you also in preaching the gospel of Christ:

15 [m] Not boasting of things without our measure, that is, of other men's labours; but having hope, when your faith is increased, that we shall be enlarged by you according to our rule abundantly,

16 To preach the gospel in the regions beyond you, and [r] not to boast in another man's line of things made ready to our hand.

17 But [t] he that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

18 For [u] not he that commendeth himself is approved, but [y] whom the Lord commendeth.

CHAPTER 11

WOULD to God ye could bear with me a little in [b] my folly: and indeed bear with me.

2 For I am jealous over you with godly jealousy: for [c] I have espoused you to one husband, that I [e] may present you [f] as a chaste virgin to Christ.

3 But I fear, lest by any means, [h] as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds [i] should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ.

4 For if he that cometh [l] preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or [b] another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him.

5 For I suppose [c] I was not a whit behind the very chiefest apostles.

6 But [d] though I be rude in speech, yet not in knowledge; but [f] we have been throughly made manifest among you in all things.

7 Have I committed an offence in abasing myself that ye might be exalted, because I have preached to you the gospel of God [h] freely?

8 I robbed other churches, taking wages of them, to do you service.

9 And when I was present with you, and wanted, I was chargeable to no man: for [i] that which was lacking to me the brethren which came from Macedonia [l] supplied: and in all things I have kept myself from being burdensome unto you, and so will I keep myself.

10 [n] As the truth of Christ is in me, no man shall stop me of this [o] boasting in the regions of [p] Ă-chaĭ-ă.

11 Wherefore? because I love you not? [q] God knoweth.

12 But what I do, that I will do, [s] that I may cut off occasion from them which desire occasion; that wherein they glory, they may be found even as we.

13 For such are [x] false apostles, deceitful workers, [z] transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ.

14 And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an [a] angel of light.

15 Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; [d] whose end shall be according to their works.

16 I say again, Let no man think me a fool; if otherwise, yet [g] as a fool receive me, that I may boast myself a little.

17 That which [k] I speak, I speak it not after the Lord, but as it were foolishly, in this confidence of boasting.

CHAPTER 12

IT is not expedient for me doubtless to glory. I will come to visions and [d] revelations of the Lord.

2 I knew a man [e] in Christ above fourteen years ago, (whether in the body, I cannot tell; or whether [f] out of the body, I cannot tell: [g] God knoweth;) such an one [h] caught up to the third heaven.

3 And I knew such a man, (whether in the body, or out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth;)

4 How that he was caught up into [k] paradise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is not lawful for a man to utter.

5 Of such an one will I glory: yet of myself [o] I will not glory, but in mine infirmities.

6 For though I would desire to glory, I shall not be a fool; for I will say the truth: but now I forbear, lest any man should think of me above that which he seeth me to be, or that he heareth of me.

7 And lest I should be exalted above measure through the abundance of the revelations, there was given to me a thorn in the flesh, [t] the messenger of Satan to buffet me, lest I should be exalted above measure.

8 For this thing I besought the Lord [x] thrice, that it might depart from me.

9 And he said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for [y] my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me.

10 Therefore I [b] take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Christ's sake: for [d] when I am weak, then am I strong.

11 [f] I am become a fool in glorying; ye have compelled me: for [h] I ought to have been commended of you: for [k] in nothing am I behind the very chiefest apostles, though I be nothing.

12 [l] Truly the signs of an apostle were wrought among you [m] in all patience, in signs, and wonders, and mighty deeds.

13 For what is it wherein ye were inferior to other churches, except it be [b] that I myself was not burdensome to you? forgive me this wrong.

14 Behold, [d] the third time I am ready to come to you; and I will not be burdensome to you: for I seek not your's, but you: for the children ought not to lay up for the parents, but the parents for the children.

15 And [h] I will very gladly spend and be spent for you; though the more abundantly I love you, the less I be loved.

16 But be it so, I did not burden you: nevertheless, being crafty, I caught you with guile.

17 Did I make a gain of you by any of them whom I sent unto you?

18 [n] I desired Titus, and with him I sent [o] a brother. Did Titus make a gain of you? walked we not in the same spirit? walked we not in the same steps?

19 Again, think ye that we excuse ourselves unto you? we speak [q] before God in Christ: but we do all things, dearly beloved, for your edifying.

20 For I fear, lest, [s] when I come, I shall not find you such as I would, and that I shall be found unto you such as ye would not: [u] lest there be debates, envyings, wraths, strifes, backbitings, whisperings, swellings, tumults:

21 And lest, when I come again, my God will humble me among you, and that I shall bewail many [z] which have sinned already, and have not repented of the uncleanness and [c] fornication and lasciviousness which they have committed.

CHAPTER 13

[g] THIS is the third time [h] I am coming to you. [k] In the mouth of two or three witnesses shall every word be established.

2 I told you before, and foretell you, [2] as if I were present, the second time; and being absent now I write to [a] them which heretofore have sinned, and to all other, that, if I come again, [c] I will not spare:

3 [e] Since ye seek a proof of Christ speaking in me, which to you-ward is not weak, but is mighty in you.

4 For though he was crucified through weakness, yet he liveth [f] by the power of God. For [g] we also are weak in him, but [i] we shall live with him by the power of God toward you.

5 [k] Examine yourselves, whether ye be in the faith; prove your own selves. Know ye not your own selves, how that [l] Jesus Christ is in you, except ye be [m] reprobates?

6 But I trust that ye shall know that we are not reprobates.

7 Now I pray to God [p] that ye do no evil; not that we should appear approved, but that ye should do that which is honest, though we be as reprobates.

8 For we can do nothing against the truth, but for the truth.

9 For we are glad, [r] when we are weak, and ye are strong: and this also we wish, even [t] your perfection.

10 Therefore I write these things being absent, lest being present I should use sharpness, [x] according to the power which the Lord hath given me to edification, and not to destruction.

11 Finally, brethren, farewell, [y] Be perfect, be of good comfort, [a] be of one mind, [b] live in peace; and the [d] God of love and peace shall be with you.

12 [e] Greet one another with an holy kiss.

13 [f] All the saints salute you.

14 [i] The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Ghost, be with you all. Amen.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE GALATIANS

CHAPTER 1

PAUL, [a]an apostle, (not of men, neither by man, but by Jesus Christ, and God the Father, [c]who raised him from the dead;)

2 And all the brethren which are with me, unto the churches of [f]Galatia:

3 Grace be to you and peace from God the Father, and from our Lord Jesus Christ,

4 [h]Who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us from [i]this present evil [2]world, according to the will of God and our Father:

5 [l]To whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

6 I marvel that ye are so soon [o]removed from [q]him that called you into the grace of Christ [r]unto another gospel:

7 Which is not another; but there be [u]some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ.

8 But though we, or an [y]angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be [3b]accursed.

9 As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed.

10 For do I now persuade men, or God? or do I seek [e]to please men? for if I yet pleased men, I should not be the [g]servant of Christ.

11 But [h]I certify you, brethren, that the gospel which was preached of me is not after man.

12 For I neither received it of man, neither was I taught it, but [m]by the revelation of Jesus Christ.

13 For [o]ye have heard of my conversation in time past in the Jews' religion, how that beyond measure [q]I persecuted the church of God, and wasted it:

14 And profited in the Jews' religion above many my equals in mine own nation, [b]being more exceedingly zealous of the traditions of my fathers.

15 But when it pleased God, who [d]separated me [e]from my mother's womb, and called me by his grace,

16 To reveal his Son in me, [g]that I might preach him among the heathen; immediately I conferred not with flesh and blood:

17 Neither went I up to Jerusalem to them which were apostles before me; but [k]I went into Arabia, and returned again unto [m]Damascus.

18 Then after three years [n]I went up to Jerusalem to see [p]Peter, and abode with him fifteen days.

19 But other of the apostles saw I none, save [s]James the Lord's [t]brother.

20 Now the things which I write unto you, behold, [x]before God, I lie not.

21 [z]Afterwards I came into the regions of Syria and [a]Çĭ-lĭç'ĭ-ă;

22 And was unknown by face unto [c]the churches of Judæa which were in Christ:

23 But they had heard only, That he which persecuted us in times past now preacheth [d]the faith which once he destroyed.

24 And [f]they glorified God in me.

CHAPTER 2

THEN fourteen years after [i]I went up again to Jerusalem with [k]Barnabas, and took [l]Titus with me also.

2 And I went up by [n]revelation, and communicated unto them that gospel [p]which I preach among the Gentiles, but privately to [r]them which were of reputation, [s]lest by any means I should run, or had run, in vain.

3 [a] But neither Titus, who was with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised:

4 And that [b] because of false brethren unawares brought in, who came in privily to spy out [c] our liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, [g] that they might bring us into bondage:

5 To whom we gave place by subjection, no, not for an hour; that [h] the truth of the gospel might continue with you.

6 But of these who seemed to be somewhat, (whatsoever they were, it maketh no matter to me: [i] God accepteth no man's person:) for they who seemed to be somewhat in conference added nothing to me:

7 But contrariwise, when they saw that [k] the gospel of the uncircumcision was committed unto me, as the gospel of the circumcision was unto [n] Peter;

8 (For he that wrought effectually in Peter to the [p] apostleship of the circumcision, the same was mighty in me toward the Gentiles:)

9 And when [t] James, Çē'phăs, and John, who seemed to be [x] pillars, perceived the [y] grace that was given unto me, they gave to me and Barnabas the right hands of fellowship; that we should go unto the heathen, and they unto the circumcision.

10 [c] Only they would that we should remember the poor; the same [d] which I also was forward to do.

11 But [e] when Peter was come to Ăn'tĭ-ŏch, I withstood him to the face, because he was to be blamed.

12 For before that certain came from James, [g] he did eat with the Gentiles: but when they were come, he withdrew and separated himself, fearing [k] them which were of the circumcision.

13 And the other Jews dissembled likewise with him; insomuch that Barnabas also was carried away with their dissimulation.

14 But when I saw that they walked not uprightly according to [n] the truth of the gospel, I said unto Peter before them all, If thou, being a Jew, livest after the manner of Gentiles, and not as do the Jews, why compellest thou the Gentiles to live as do the Jews?

15 We who are Jews by nature, and not [c] sinners of the Gentiles,

16 Knowing that [d] a man is not justified by the works of the law, [f] but by the faith of Jesus Christ, even we have believed in Jesus Christ, that we might be justified by the faith of Christ, and not by the works of the law: for by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified.

17 But if, while we seek to be justified by Christ, we ourselves also are found sinners, is therefore Christ the minister of sin? God forbid.

18 For if I build again the things which I destroyed, I make myself a transgressor.

19 For I through the law am [l] dead to the law, that I might [m] live unto God.

20 [o] I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but [q] Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live [2] by the faith of [r] the Son of God, [s] who loved me, and [u] gave himself for me.

21 I do not frustrate the grace of God: for [z] if righteousness come by the law, then [a] Christ is dead in vain.

CHAPTER 3

O FOOLISH Galatians, [b] who hath bewitched you, [3] that ye should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been evidently set forth, crucified among you?

2 This only would I learn of you, [f] Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by [h] the hearing of faith?

3 Are ye so foolish? having begun in the Spirit, [i] are ye now made perfect by the flesh?

4 [l] Have ye suffered so many things in vain? if it be yet in vain.

5 He therefore that ministereth to you the Spirit, and [m] worketh miracles among you, doeth he it by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?

6 Even as [o] Abraham believed God, and it was accounted to him for righteousness.

7 Know ye therefore that [p] they which are of faith, the same are the [b] children of Abraham.

8 And the scripture, foreseeing that [d] God would justify the heathen through faith, preached before the gospel unto Abraham, saying, [f] In thee shall all nations be blessed.

9 So then [g] they which be of faith are blessed with faithful Abraham.

10 For as many as are of the works of the law are [k] under the curse: for it is written, [l] Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them.

11 But that [m] no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident: for, [p] The just shall live by faith.

12 And the law is not of faith: but, [q] The man that doeth them shall live in them.

13 Christ [r] hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, [t] being made a curse for us: for it is written, [u] Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree:

14 That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ; [a] that we might receive [b] the promise of the Spirit through faith.

15 Brethren, [d] I speak after the manner of men; [g] Though it be but a man's covenant, yet if it be confirmed, no man disannulleth, or addeth thereto.

16 Now [i] to Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And [k] to thy seed, which is Christ.

17 And this I say, that the covenant, that was confirmed before of God in Christ, [m] the law, which was [n] four hundred and thirty years after, cannot disannul, that it should make the promise of none effect.

18 For if the inheritance be of the law, it is no more of promise: but God gave it to Abraham by promise.

19 Wherefore then serveth the law? [t] It was added because of transgressions, till the seed should come to whom the promise was made; and it was [z] ordained by angels [a] in the hand of a mediator.

20 Now [a] a mediator is not a mediator of one, but [c] God is one.

21 Is the law then against the promises of God? God forbid: for [e] if there had been a law given which could have given life, verily righteousness should have been by the law.

22 But the scripture hath [h] concluded all under sin, that the promise [i] by faith of Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe.

23 But before faith came, we were kept under the law, shut up unto the faith which should afterwards be revealed.

24 Wherefore [n] the law was our schoolmaster [o] to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith.

25 But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster.

26 For [s] ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus.

27 For as many of you as [x] have been baptized into Christ have [y] put on Christ.

28 There is [z] neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for [c] ye are all one in Christ Jesus.

29 And [e] if ye be Christ's, [f] then are ye Abraham's seed, and [h] heirs according to the promise.

CHAPTER 4

NOW I say, That the heir, as long as he is a child, differeth nothing from a servant, though he be lord of all;

2 But is under tutors and governors until the time appointed of the father.

3 Even so we, when we were children, [l] were in bondage under the [2o] elements of the world:

4 But [p] when the fulness of the time was come, God sent forth his Son, [q] made of a woman, made under the law,

5 [r] To redeem them that were under the law, that we might receive [s] the adoption of sons.

6 And because [u] ye are sons, God hath [x] sent forth the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, [y] Ăb'bă, Father.

7 Wherefore thou art no more a servant, but a son; and if a son, then [a] an heir of God through Christ.

8 Howbeit then, [b] when ye knew not God, [c] ye did service unto them which by nature are no gods.

9 But now, after that ye [e] have known God, or rather [f] are known of God, [h] how turn ye again to the weak and beggarly [2i] elements, whereunto ye desire again [k] to be in bondage?

10 Ye observe [l] days, and months, and times, and years.

11 I am afraid of you, [m] lest I have bestowed upon you labour in vain.

12 Brethren, I beseech you, be as I am; for I am as ye are: ye have not injured me at all.

13 Ye know how [o] through infirmity of the flesh I preached the gospel unto you at the first.

14 And my temptation which was in my flesh ye despised not, nor rejected; but received me as an angel of God, even as Christ Jesus.

15 Where is then the blessedness ye spake of? for I bear you record, that, if it had been possible, ye would have plucked out your own eyes, and have given them to me.

16 Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?

17 They zealously affect you, but not well; yea, they would exclude you, that ye might affect them.

18 But it is good to be zealously affected always in a good thing, and not only when I am present with you.

19 My little children, [a] of whom I travail in birth again [b] until Christ be formed in you,

20 I desire to be present with you now, and to change my voice; for I stand in doubt of you.

21 Tell me, ye that desire to be under the law, do ye not hear the law?

22 For it is written, that Abraham had two sons, the [i] one by a bondmaid, the [m] other by a freewoman.

23 [o] But he who was of the bondwoman was born after the flesh; but he of the freewoman was by promise.

24 Which things are an allegory: for these are the two covenants; the one from the [r] mount Sinai, which gendereth to bondage, which is [t] Agar.

25 For this Agar is mount Sinai in Arabia, and answereth to Jerusalem which now is, and is in bondage with her children.

26 But [d] Jerusalem which is above is free, which is the mother of us all.

27 For it is written, [g] Rejoice, thou barren that bearest not; break forth and cry, thou that travailest not: for the desolate hath many more children than she which hath an husband.

28 Now we, brethren, as Isaac was, are the children of promise.

29 But as then he that was born after the flesh [n] persecuted him that was born after the Spirit, even so it is now.

30 Nevertheless what saith the scripture? [p] Cast out the bondwoman and her son: for the son of the bondwoman shall not be heir with the son of the freewoman.

31 So then, brethren, we are not children of the bondwoman, but of the free.

CHAPTER 5

[q] STAND fast therefore [r] in the liberty wherewith [s] Christ hath made us free, and [t] be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage.

2 Behold, I Paul say unto you, that [u] if ye be circumcised, [x] Christ shall profit you nothing.

3 For I testify again to every man that is circumcised, that [y] he is a debtor to do the whole law.

4 [z] Christ is become of no effect unto you, whosoever of you are justified by the law; [c] ye are fallen from grace.

5 For we through the Spirit [d] wait [e] for the hope [f] of righteousness by faith.

6 For in Jesus Christ [g] neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision; but faith which [h] worketh by love.

7 [k] Ye did run well; [l] who did hinder you that ye should not obey [n] the truth?

8 This persuasion cometh not of him [p] that calleth you.

9 [q] A little leaven leaveneth the whole lump.

10 [s] I have confidence in you through the Lord, that ye will be [u] none otherwise minded: but [a] he that troubleth you shall bear his judgment, whosoever he be.

11 And I, brethren, if I yet preach circumcision, why do I yet suffer persecution? then is [e] the [2]offence of the cross ceased.

12 I would [f] they were even cut off which trouble you.

13 For, brethren, ye have been called [k] unto liberty; only use not liberty for an occasion to the flesh, but [l] by love serve one another.

14 For [n] all the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this; [o] Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

15 But if ye bite and devour one another, take heed that ye be not consumed one of another.

16 This I say then, [q] Walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh.

17 For [u] the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other: [z] so that ye cannot do the things that ye would.

18 But if ye be [a] led of the Spirit, [b] ye are not under the law.

19 Now [e] the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these; Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness,

20 Idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies,

21 Envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that they which do such things [l] shall not inherit the kingdom of God.

22 But [n] the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith,

23 Meekness, temperance: [o] against such there is no law.

24 And [p] they that are Christ's [q] have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts.

25 If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit.

26 [t] Let us not be desirous of vain glory, provoking one another, envying one another.

CHAPTER 6

BRETHREN, if a man be overtaken in a fault, [b] ye which are spiritual, [c] restore such an one [d] in the spirit of meekness; considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted.

2 [g] Bear ye one another's burdens, and [h] so fulfil the law of Christ.

3 For [i] if a man think himself to be something, when he is nothing, he deceiveth himself.

4 But [m] let every man prove his own work, and then shall he have rejoicing in himself alone, and not in another.

5 For every man shall bear his own burden.

6 Let [p] him that is taught in the word [r] communicate unto him that teacheth in all good things.

7 [s] Be not deceived; [t] God is not mocked: for [x] whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.

8 For [y] he that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life [c] everlasting.

9 And [d] let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall [f] reap, if we faint not.

10 As we have therefore opportunity, [g] let us do good unto all men, [h] especially unto them who are of the household of faith.

11 Ye see [3]how large a letter I have written unto you [i] with mine own hand.

12 As many as desire to make a fair shew in the flesh, [k] they constrain you to be circumcised; only [m] lest they should suffer persecution for the cross of Christ.

13 For neither they themselves who are circumcised keep the law; but desire to have you circumcised, that they may glory in your flesh.

14 But God forbid that I should glory, [r] save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom the world is crucified unto me, and [s] I unto the world.

15 For in Christ Jesus [u] neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision, but [x] a new [4]creature.

16 And [a]as many as walk according to this rule, [b]peace be on them, and mercy, and upon [c]the Israel of God.

17 From henceforth let no man trouble me: for I bear in my body the marks of the Lord Jesus.

18 Brethren, the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE EPHESIANS

CHAPTER 1

A.D. 61

PAUL, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, to the saints which are at [c]Ephesus, and to the [d]faithful in Christ Jesus:

2 Grace be to you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 [g]Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings [k]in heavenly places in Christ:

4 According as he hath [m]chosen us in him [o]before the foundation of the world, that we should be [r]holy and without blame before him in love:

5 [t]Having predestinated us unto the adoption of children by Jesus Christ to himself, according to the good pleasure of his will,

6 [x]To the praise of the glory of his grace, [2]wherein he hath made us accepted in [y]the beloved.

7 [a]In whom we have redemption through his blood, [b]the forgiveness of sins, according to [c]the riches of his grace;

8 Wherein he hath abounded toward us in all wisdom and prudence;

9 [h]Having made known unto us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure which he hath purposed in himself:

10 That in the dispensation of [i]the fulness of times he might gather together in one [l]all things in Christ, [n]both which are in heaven, and which are on earth; even in him:

11 In whom also we have obtained an [q]inheritance, being predestinated according to the [a]purpose of him who worketh all things after the counsel of his own will:

12 That we should be [b]to the praise of his glory, who first trusted in Christ.

13 In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard [e]the word of truth, the gospel [f]of your salvation: in whom also after that ye believed, [h]ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of [i]promise,

14 Which is [l]the earnest of our inheritance until [n]the redemption of [p]the purchased possession, [q]unto the praise of his glory.

15 Wherefore I also, [s]after I heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus, and love unto all the saints,

16 [u]Cease not to give thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers;

17 That the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, [z]may give unto you the spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of him:

18 [d]The eyes of your [3]understanding being enlightened; that ye may know what is [e]the hope of his [f]calling, and what [g]the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints,

19 And what is the exceeding greatness of his power to us-ward who believe, according to the working of his [k]mighty power,

20 Which he wrought in Christ, [m]when he raised him from the dead, and [o]set him at his own right hand in the heavenly places,

21 Far above all [p]principality, and power, and might, and dominion, and 23 [l] Which is his body, [m] the fulness of him [p] that filleth all in all.

CHAPTER 2

AND you [hath he quickened,] who were [r] dead in trespasses and sins;

2 Wherein in [t] time past ye walked according to [x] the [3]course of this world, according to [y] the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in [a] the children of disobedience:

3 Among whom also we all had our conversation in times past in the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling the desires of the flesh and of the mind; and [c] were by nature the [d] children of wrath, even as others.

4 But God, who is [g] rich in mercy, [h] for his great love wherewith he loved us,

5 Even when we were dead in sins, hath [l] quickened us together with Christ, [n] (by grace ye are saved;)

6 And hath raised us up together, and made us sit together [q] in heavenly places in Christ Jesus:

7 That in the ages to come he might shew [s] the exceeding riches of his grace in his [u] kindness toward us through Christ Jesus.

8 For by grace are ye saved [y] through faith; and that not of yourselves: [z] it is the gift of God:

9 [a] Not of works, [b] lest any man should boast.

10 For we are [d] his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto [e] good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them.

11 Wherefore remember, that [h] ye being in time past Gentiles in the flesh, who are called [k] Uncircumcision by that which is called the [l] Circumcision in the flesh made by hands;

12 That [n] at that time ye were without Christ, being [o] aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from [b] the covenants of promise, having [d] no hope, and [e] without God in the world:

13 But now in Christ Jesus ye who sometimes were [h] far off are made nigh [k] by the blood of Christ.

14 For [n] he is our peace, who [o] hath made both one, and hath broken down the middle wall of partition between us;

15 Having abolished [q] in his flesh the enmity, even the law of commandments contained in [s] ordinances; for to make in himself of twain one [u] new man, so making peace;

16 And that he might [z] reconcile both unto God in one body by the cross, having slain the enmity thereby:

17 And came and preached peace to you which were [b] afar off, and to them that were nigh. Isa. 57:19

18 For through him we both have [e] access by [f] one Spirit unto the Father.

19 Now therefore ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but [i] fellowcitizens with the saints, and of [k] the household of God;

20 And [m] are built upon the foundation of the [o] apostles and prophets, [p] Jesus Christ himself being the chief [r] corner stone;

21 In whom all the building fitly framed together groweth unto an [t] holy temple in the Lord:

22 In whom ye also are builded together for an [x] habitation of God through the Spirit.

CHAPTER 3

FOR this cause I Paul, [c] the prisoner of Jesus Christ for you Gentiles,

2 If ye have heard of the [f] dispensation of [g] the grace of God which is given me to you-ward:

3 How that [i] by revelation he made known unto me the mystery; (as I wrote afore in few words,

4 Whereby, when ye read, ye may understand my knowledge in [m] the mystery of Christ)

now revealed unto his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit;

6 That the Gentiles should be [a] fellowheirs, and of the same body, and partakers of his promise in Christ by the gospel:

7 Whereof [c] I was made a minister, [d] according to the gift of [e] the grace of God given unto me by the effectual working of his power.

8 Unto me, who am [i] less than the least of all saints, is this grace given, that I should preach [l] among the Gentiles the [m] unsearchable riches of Christ;

9 And to make all men see what is the [3] fellowship of the mystery, which from the beginning of the world hath been hid in God, [r] who created all things by Jesus Christ:

10 To the intent that now unto the [x] principalities and powers in [y] heavenly places might be known by the church the manifold wisdom of God,

11 According to the eternal [b] purpose which he purposed in Christ Jesus our Lord:

12 In whom we have boldness and [e] access with confidence by the faith of him.

13 Wherefore I desire that ye faint not at my tribulations for you, [g] which is your glory.

14 For this cause I bow my knees unto the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ,

15 Of whom [4] the whole family [i] in heaven and earth is named,

16 That he would grant you, according to [p] the riches of his glory, [r] to be strengthened with might by his Spirit in [t] the inner man;

17 [u] That Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith; that ye, being [z] rooted and [a] grounded in love,

18 May be able [b] to comprehend with all saints what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and height;

19 And to know [f] the love of Christ, which passeth knowledge, that [g] ye might be filled with all [i] the fulness of God.

20 [k] Now unto [l] him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us,

21 [b] Unto him be glory in the church by Christ Jesus throughout all ages, [2] world without end. Amen.

CHAPTER 4

I THEREFORE, [f] the prisoner of the Lord, beseech you that ye [g] walk worthy of the [h] vocation wherewith ye are called,

2 [k] With all lowliness and meekness, with longsuffering, forbearing one another in love;

3 Endeavouring to keep the unity of the Spirit in [n] the bond of peace.

4 There is [o] one body, and [p] one Spirit, even as ye are called in [q] one hope of your calling;

5 [s] One Lord, [t] one faith, [u] one baptism,

6 [z] One God and Father of all, who is [a] above all, and through all, and in you all.

7 But [c] unto every one of us is given grace according to the measure of the gift of Christ.

8 Wherefore he saith, [d] When he ascended up on high, he led captivity captive, and gave gifts unto men.

9 (Now that [f] he ascended, what is it but that he also descended first into the lower parts of the earth?

10 He that descended is the same also that ascended up far above all heavens, [h] that he might fill all things.)

11 And [k] he gave some, [l] apostles; and some, [m] prophets; and some, [n] evangelists; and some, [o] pastors and [q] teachers;

12 [s] For the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the [x] edifying of the [y] body of Christ:

13 Till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the [c] Son of God, unto a [5] [d] perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the [e] fulness of Christ:

14 That we henceforth be no more children, [h] tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, [m] whereby they lie in wait to deceive;

15 But [a] speaking the truth in love, may [c] grow up into him in all things, which is [d] the head, even Christ:

16 [f] From whom the whole body fitly joined together and compacted by that which every joint supplieth, according to the effectual working in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body unto the edifying of itself [h] in love.

17 This I say therefore, and testify in the Lord, that ye henceforth walk not [i] as other Gentiles walk, [k] in the vanity of their mind,

18 Having the understanding darkened, being [o] alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the blindness of their heart:

19 Who being past feeling have [s] given themselves over unto lasciviousness, to work all uncleanness with greediness.

20 But ye have not so learned Christ;

21 [x] If so be that ye have heard him, and have been taught by him, as the truth is in Jesus:

22 That ye [y] put off concerning the former conversation the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts;

23 And [b] be renewed in the spirit of your mind;

24 And that ye put on [d] the new man, which [e] after God is created in righteousness and true holiness.

25 Wherefore putting away lying, [h] speak every man truth with his neighbour: for [k] we are members one of another.

26 [m] Be ye angry, and sin not: let not the sun go down upon your wrath:

27 [n] Neither give place to the devil.

28 Let him that stole steal no more: but rather let him labour, [p] working with his hands the thing which is good, that he may have to give to him that needeth.

29 [r] Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but [t] that which is good to the use of edifying, that it may minister grace unto the hearers.

30 And [x] grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are [b] sealed unto the day of redemption.

31 [e] Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil speaking, be put away from you, with all malice:

32 And [g] be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you.

CHAPTER 5

1 [l] BE ye therefore followers of God, as dear children;

2 And [m] walk in love, [n] as Christ also hath loved us, and hath [p] given himself for us an offering and a sacrifice to God for a [q] sweetsmelling savour.

3 [r] But fornication, and all uncleanness, or covetousness, let it not be once named among you, as becometh saints;

4 Neither [t] filthiness, nor foolish talking, nor jesting, which are not convenient: but rather [u] giving of thanks.

5 For this ye know, that no whoremonger, nor unclean person, nor covetous man, who is an idolater, [z] hath any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God.

6 [a] Let no man deceive you with vain words: for because of these things cometh [c] the wrath of God upon the [c] children of disobedience.

7 [f] Be not ye therefore partakers with them.

8 For [g] ye were sometimes darkness, but [i] now are ye light in the Lord: walk as children of light:

9 (For [l] the fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness and righteousness and truth;)

10 [o] Proving what is acceptable unto the Lord.

11 And have no fellowship with the unfruitful [q] works of darkness, but rather reprove them.

12 For it is a shame even to speak of [s] those things which are done of them in secret.

13 But [u] all things that are reproved are made manifest by the light: for whatsoever doth make manifest is light.

14 Wherefore he saith, [a] Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and [b] Christ shall give thee light.

15 [c] See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise,

16 [2d] Redeeming the time, because [e] the days are evil.

17 Wherefore be ye not unwise, but [f] understanding what the will of the Lord is.

18 And [g] be not drunk with wine, wherein is [3] excess; but be filled with the Spirit;

19 Speaking to yourselves in [h] psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord;

20 [k] Giving thanks always for all things unto God and the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ;

21 [m] Submitting yourselves one to another [n] in the fear of God.

22 [o] Wives, [p] submit yourselves unto your own husbands, [r] as unto the Lord.

23 For the husband is the head of the wife, even as [t] Christ is the head of the church: and he is the [u] saviour of the body.

24 Therefore as the church is subject unto Christ, so let the wives be to their own husbands in every thing.

25 [y] Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and gave himself for it;

26 That he might [b] sanctify and [c] cleanse it with the washing of water by the word,

27 [d] That he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; [f] but that it should be holy and without blemish.

28 So ought men to love their wives as their own bodies. He that loveth his wife loveth himself.

29 For no man ever yet hated his own flesh; but nourisheth and cherisheth it, even as the Lord the church:

30 For [n] we are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones.

31 [p] For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall be joined unto his wife, and they two shall be one flesh.

32 This is a great mystery: but I speak concerning Christ and the church.

33 Nevertheless let every one of you in particular so love his wife even as himself; and the wife see that she reverence her husband.

CHAPTER 6

CHILDREN, obey your parents [i] in the Lord: for this is right.

2 [i] Honour thy father and mother; which is the first commandment with promise;

3 That it may be well with thee, and thou mayest live long on the earth.

4 And, ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath: but [l] bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.

5 [q] Servants, be obedient to them that are your masters according to the flesh, with fear and trembling, in singleness of your heart, [s] as unto Christ;

6 Not with eyeservice, as menpleasers; but as the [x] servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart;

7 With good will doing service, as to the Lord, and not to men:

8 Knowing that whatsoever good thing any man doeth, [z] the same shall he receive of the Lord, [a] whether he be bond or free.

9 And, ye masters, do the same things unto them, forbearing threatening: knowing that your Master also is in heaven; [e] neither is there respect of persons with him.

10 Finally, my brethren, [g] be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might.

11 [h] Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to [i] stand against the wiles of the devil.

12 For [k] we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against [l] principalities, against powers, against the [4m] rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in [o] high places.

13 Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may 14 Stand therefore, having [d] your loins girt about with truth, and having on the [g] breastplate of righteousness;

15 And [i] your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace;

16 Above all, taking the [l] shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked.

17 And take the [m] helmet of salvation, and the [o] sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God:

18 [q] Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and [r] watching thereunto with all perseverance and supplication for all saints;

19 And for me, that utterance may be given unto me, that I may open my mouth [b] boldly, [c] to make known the mystery of the gospel,

20 For which I am an [e] ambassador [f] in bonds: that therein I may speak boldly, as I ought to speak.

21 [h] But that ye also may know my affairs, and how I do, [k] Tȳch'ĭ-cŭs, a beloved brother and faithful minister in the Lord, shall make known to you all things:

22 Whom I have sent unto you for the same purpose, that ye might know our affairs, and that he might [n] comfort your hearts.

23 [p] Peace be to the brethren, and love with faith, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

24 Grace be with all [s] them that love our Lord Jesus Christ in sincerity. Amen.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE PHILIPPIANS

CHAPTER 1

PAUL and [a] Tī-mŏth'ĕ-ŭs, the servants of Jesus Christ, to all the saints in Christ Jesus which are at [d] Phī-lĭp'pī, with the [e] bishops and [g] deacons:

2 Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 [i] I thank my God upon every remembrance of you,

4 Always in every prayer of mine for you all making request with joy,

5 [n] For your fellowship in the gospel from the first day until now;

6 [o] Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you [p] will perform it until [q] the day of Jesus Christ:

7 Even as it is meet for me to think this of you all, because I have you in my heart; inasmuch as both in [s] my bonds, and in [u] the defence and confirmation of the gospel, ye all are partakers of my grace.

8 For [b] God is my record, [c] how greatly I long after you all in the bowels of Jesus Christ.

9 And this I pray, that [f] your love may abound yet more and more [h] in knowledge and in all judgment;

10 That ye may [2i] approve things that are excellent; [k] that ye may be sincere and without offence till the day of Christ;

11 Being [m] filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are by Jesus Christ, unto the glory and praise of God.

12 But I would ye should understand, brethren, that the things which happened unto me have fallen out rather unto the furtherance of the gospel;

13 So that my bonds in Christ [r] are manifest [3] in all the [t] palace, and in all other places;

14 And many of the brethren in the Lord, waxing confident by my bonds, are much more bold to speak the word without fear.

15 Some indeed preach Christ even of envy and strife; and some also of good will:

16 The one preach Christ of [2][c] contention, not sincerely, supposing to add affliction to my bonds:

17 But the other of love, knowing that I am set for the [e] defence of the gospel.

18 What then? notwithstanding, every way, whether in pretence, or in truth, Christ is preached; and I therein do rejoice, yea, and will rejoice.

19 For I know that this shall turn to my salvation [h] through your prayer, and the supply of the Spirit of Jesus Christ,

20 According to my earnest expectation and my hope, [i] that in nothing I shall be ashamed, but that with all [n] boldness, as always, so now also Christ shall be magnified in my body, [p] whether it be by life, or by death.

21 For [r] to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain.

22 But if I live in the flesh, this is the fruit of my labour: yet what I shall choose I wot not.

23 For I am in a strait betwixt two, having a desire [x] to depart, and [y] to be with Christ; which is far better:

24 Nevertheless to abide in the flesh is more needful for you.

25 And having this confidence, [b] I know that I shall abide and continue with you all for your furtherance and joy of faith;

26 That [f] your rejoicing may be more abundant in Jesus Christ for me by my coming to you again.

27 Only [5]let your conversation [h] be as it becometh the gospel of Christ: that whether I come and see you, or else be absent, I may hear of your affairs, that ye [k] stand fast in [l] one spirit, with one mind [m] striving together for the faith of the gospel;

28 And in nothing terrified by your adversaries: which is to them [a] an evident token of perdition, but to you of salvation, and that of God.

29 For unto you it is given in the behalf of Christ, not only to believe on him, but also [b] to suffer for his sake;

30 Having the same [d] conflict which ye saw in me, and now hear to be in me.

CHAPTER 2

IF there be therefore any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any [f] bowels and mercies,

2 Fulfil ye my joy, that ye be [g] likeminded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind.

3 Let nothing be done through [i] strife or vainglory; but in lowliness of mind [k] let each esteem other better than themselves.

4 [m] Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others.

5 [o] Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus:

6 [q] Who, being in the form of God, [3]thought it not robbery to be equal with God:

7 But [4][s] made himself of no reputation, and [t] took upon him the form of a servant, and [u] was made in the likeness of men:

8 And being found in fashion as a man, he [z] humbled himself, and became obedient [a] unto death, even the death of the cross.

9 Wherefore God also hath [c] highly exalted him, and [d] given him a name which is above every name:

10 That at the name of Jesus [e] every knee should bow, of [g] things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth;

11 And that every tongue [i] should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

12 Wherefore, my beloved, as ye have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation [n] with fear and trembling.

13 For [o] it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure.

14 Do all things without murmurings and disputings:

15 That ye may be [c] blameless and [d] harmless, the [e] sons of God, without rebuke, in the midst of a [f] crooked and perverse nation, among whom [h] ye shine as lights in the world;

16 Holding forth [i] the word of life; [k] that I may rejoice in [l] the day of Christ, that I have not [n] run in vain, neither laboured in vain.

17 Yea, and [q] if I be [2] offered upon the sacrifice and service of your faith, I joy, and rejoice with you all.

18 For the same cause also do ye joy, and rejoice with me.

19 But I trust in the Lord Jesus to send [u] Tī-mŏth'ĕ-ŭs shortly unto you, that I also may be of good comfort, when I know your state.

20 For I have no man [z] likeminded, who will naturally care for your state.

21 For [b] all seek their own, not the things which are Jesus Christ's.

22 But ye know the proof of him, that, [e] as a son with the father, he hath served with me in the gospel.

23 Him therefore I hope to send presently, so soon as I shall see how it will go with me.

24 But [h] I trust in the Lord that I also myself shall come shortly.

25 Yet I supposed it necessary to send to you [k] Ĕp-ăph-rō-dī'tŭs, my brother, and companion in labour, and [l] fellowsoldier, but [m] your messenger, and he that ministered to my wants.

26 For he longed after you all, and was full of heaviness, because that ye had heard that he had been sick.

27 For indeed he was sick nigh unto death: but God had mercy on him; and not on him only, but on me also, lest I should have sorrow upon sorrow.

28 I sent him therefore the more carefully, that, when ye see him again, ye may rejoice, and that I may be the less sorrowful.

29 [u] Receive him therefore in the Lord with all gladness; and [x] hold such in reputation:

CHAPTER 3

FINALLY, my brethren, [g] rejoice in the Lord. To write the same things to you, to me indeed is not grievous, but for you it is safe.

2 Beware of [m] dogs, beware of evil workers, beware of [o] the concision.

3 For [p] we are the circumcision, which [r] worship God in the spirit, and [s] rejoice in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh.

4 Though I might also have confidence in the flesh. [t] If any other man thinketh that he hath whereof he might trust in the flesh, I more:

5 Circumcised [x] the eighth day, of the [y] stock of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, an Hebrew of the Hebrews; as touching the law, [a] a Pharisee;

6 Concerning zeal, [c] persecuting the church; [d] touching the righteousness which is in the law, [f] blameless.

7 But [g] what things were gain to me, those I counted loss for Christ.

8 Yea doubtless, and I count all things but loss for the excellency of [i] the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Christ,

9 And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, [n] which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, [o] the righteousness which is of God by faith:

10 [p] That I may know him, and [q] the power of his resurrection, and [r] the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable unto his death;

11 If by any means I might attain unto [s] the resurrection of the dead.

12 Not as though I had already attained, either were [t] already perfect: but I follow after, if that I may apprehend that for which also I am apprehended of Christ Jesus.

13 Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended: but this one thing I do, [y] forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before,

14 I press toward the mark for [b] the prize of the [c] high calling of God in Christ Jesus.

15 Let us therefore, as many as be [d] perfect, be thus minded: and if in any thing ye be [e] otherwise minded, God shall reveal even this unto you.

16 Nevertheless, whereto we have already attained, [f] let us walk by the same rule, let us mind the same thing.

17 Brethren, [h] be followers together of me, and mark them which walk so as ye have us for an ensample.

18 (For [k] many walk, of whom I have told you often, and now tell you even [m] weeping, that they are the enemies of the cross of Christ:

19 [n] Whose end is destruction, [o] whose God is their belly, and [p] whose glory is in their shame, [q] who mind earthly things.)

20 For [s] our [2] conversation is in heaven; [t] from whence also we look for the [u] Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ:

21 [x] Who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned [y] like unto his glorious body, [a] according to the working whereby he is able even [b] to subdue all things unto himself.

CHAPTER 4

THEREFORE, my brethren dearly beloved and [e] longed for, [f] my joy and crown, so [g] stand fast in the Lord, my dearly beloved.

2 I beseech Eû-ō-dī-ăs, and beseech Sỹn-tỹ-chē, that they be [h] of the same mind in the Lord.

3 And I intreat thee also, true yokefellow, help those women which laboured with me in the gospel, with Clement also, and with other my fellowlabourers, [l] whose names are in the book of life.

4 [n] Rejoice in the Lord alway: and again I say, Rejoice.

5 Let your [3] moderation be known unto all men. The Lord is at hand.

6 [q] Be careful for nothing; [r] but in every thing by prayer and supplication [u] with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God.

7 And [a] the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

8 Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things.

9 [g] Those things, which ye have both learned, and received, and heard, and seen in me, do: and [i] the God of peace shall be with you.

10 But I rejoiced in the Lord greatly, that now at the last [l] your care of me hath flourished again; wherein ye were also careful, but ye lacked opportunity.

11 Not that I speak in respect of want: for I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be [r] content.

12 I know both how to be abased, and I know how to abound: every where and in all things I am instructed both to be full and [z] to be hungry, both to abound and to suffer need.

13 I can do all things through Christ [c] which strengtheneth me.

14 Notwithstanding ye have well done, [d] that ye did communicate with my affliction.

15 Now ye Philippians know also, that in the beginning of the gospel, when I departed from Macedonia, no church communicated with me as concerning giving and receiving, but [i] ye only.

16 For even in [k] Thĕss-ă-lō-nī-că ye sent once and again unto my necessity.

17 Not because I desire a gift: but I desire [m] fruit that may abound to your account.

18 But I have all, and abound: I am full, [o] having received of [p] Ĕp-ăph-rō-dī-tŭs the things which were sent from you, an odour of a [s] sweet smell, a sacrifice [t] acceptable, wellpleasing to God.

19 But my God [x] shall supply all your need according to his riches in glory by Christ Jesus.

20 Now unto God and our Father [b] be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE COLOSSIANS

CHAPTER 1

A.D. 61

PAUL, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and [c] Tĭmŏth'ĕ-ŭs our brother,

2 To the saints and [f] faithful brethren in Christ which are at Cŏ-lŏs'sē: Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 [i] We give thanks to God and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you,

4 [n] Since we heard of your faith in Christ Jesus, and of [o] the love which ye have to all the saints,

5 For [r] the hope which is [s] laid up for you in heaven, whereof ye heard before in the [x] word of the truth of the gospel;

6 Which is come unto you, as it is [a] in all the world; and [b] bringeth forth fruit, as it doth also in you, since the day ye heard of it, and knew [d] the grace of God in truth:

7 As ye also learned of [f] Ĕp'ă-phrăs our dear [g] fellowservant, who is for you a [g] faithful minister of Christ;

8 Who also declared unto us your [t] love in the Spirit.

9 For this cause we also, since the day we heard it, [n] do not cease to pray for you, and to desire [p] that ye might be filled with the knowledge of his will [q] in all wisdom and spiritual understanding;

10 [s] That ye might walk worthy of the Lord unto all pleasing, [u] being fruitful [a] in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God;

11 [b] Strengthened with all might, [d] according to his glorious power, [e] unto all patience and longsuffering with joyfulness;

12 [g] Giving thanks unto the Father, which hath made us meet to be partakers of [h] the inheritance of the saints in light:

13 Who [k] hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into [l] the kingdom of [m] his dear Son:

14 [p] In whom we have redemption through his blood, even [q] the forgiveness of sins:

15 Who is [t] the image of the [u] invisible God, the [y] firstborn of every creature:

16 [z] For by him were all things created, that are [c] in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or [e] principalities, or powers: all things were created by him, and [h] for him:

17 And [i] he is before all things, and by him all things [k] consist.

18 And he is [m] the head of the body, the church: who is the beginning, the [o] firstborn from the dead; that in all things he might have the preeminence.

19 For [2] it pleased the Father that in him should [r] all fulness dwell;

20 And, [t] having made peace through the blood of his cross, by him [x] to reconcile all things unto himself; by him, I say, whether they be [b] things in earth, or things in heaven.

21 And [d] you, that were sometime [f] alienated and enemies in your mind by wicked works, yet now hath he reconciled

22 [i] In the body [k] of his flesh through death, to present you [m] holy and unblameable and unreproveable in his sight:

23 If ye continue in [o] the faith [p] grounded and settled, and be not moved away from [r] the hope of the gospel, which ye have heard, and which was [s] preached to every creature which is under heaven; whereof I Paul am [y] made a minister;

24 Who now [a] rejoice in my sufferings for you, and fill up that which is behind of the afflictions of Christ in my flesh [d] for his body's sake, which is the church:

25 Whereof I am made a minister, according to the [g] dispensation of God which is given to me for you, to fulfil the word of God;

26 Even the [k] mystery which hath been hid from ages and from generations, but now is made manifest to his saints:

27 To whom God would make known what is [p] the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles; which is [q] Christ in you, [s] the hope of glory:

28 Whom we preach, [u] warning every man, and teaching every man in all wisdom; that [y] we may present every man [z] perfect in Christ Jesus:

29 Whereunto I also [b] labour, [c] striving [d] according to his working, which worketh in me mightily.

CHAPTER 2

FOR I would that ye knew [g] what great conflict I have for you, and for them at [h] Lā-ŏd-ĭ-çē'ă, and for as many as have not seen my face in the flesh;

2 That [k] their hearts might be comforted, [l] being knit together in love, and unto all riches of the full assurance of understanding, to the acknowledgement of [a] the mystery of God, and of the Father, and of Christ;

3 [c] In whom are hid all the treasures of [e] wisdom and knowledge.

4 And this I say, [g] lest any man should [h] beguile you with enticing words.

5 For [l] though I be absent in the flesh, yet am I with you in the spirit, joying and beholding [n] your order, and the stedfastness of your faith in Christ.

6 [q] As ye have therefore received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk ye in him:

7 [t] Rooted and [u] built up in him, and stablished in [x] the faith, as ye have been taught, abounding therein [z] with thanksgiving.

8 Beware [b] lest any man spoil you through [c] philosophy and vain deceit, after [e] the tradition of men, after the [2f] rudiments of the world, and not after Christ.

9 For [h] in him dwelleth all the fulness of the Godhead bodily.

10 And [i] ye are complete in him, which is [l] the head of all [m] principality and power:

11 In whom also [n] ye are circumcised with the circumcision made without hands, in [o] putting off the body of the sins of the flesh by the circumcision of Christ:

12 Buried with him [r] in baptism, wherein also [t] ye are risen with him through the faith of the operation of God, [x] who hath raised him from the dead.

13 And you, [a] being dead in your sins and the uncircumcision of your flesh, hath he quickened together with him, [e] having forgiven you all trespasses;

14 Blotting out [3] the handwriting of [f] ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to his cross;

15 And [4] having spoiled [i] principalities and powers, he made a shew of them openly, triumphing over them in it.

16 [m] Let no man therefore judge you in meat, or in drink, or in respect of an [a]holyday, or of the [b]new moon, or of the sabbath days:

17 Which are [c]a shadow of things to come; but [d]the body is of Christ.

18 Let no man beguile you of [e]your [2]reward in a voluntary humility and worshipping of angels, [3]intruding into those things which he hath not seen, vainly puffed up by his fleshly mind,

19 And not holding [f]the Head, [g]from which all [h]the body by joints and bands having nourishment ministered, and knit together, increaseth with the increase of God.

20 Wherefore [i]if ye be dead with Christ from the [4]rudiments of the world, why, as though living in the world, [a]are ye subject to ordinances,

21 (Touch not; taste not; handle not;

22 [c]Which all are to perish with the using;) after the [e]commandments and doctrines of men?

23 Which things have indeed a shew of wisdom in will worship, and humility, and neglecting of the body; [6]not in any honour to the satisfying of the flesh.

CHAPTER 3

[k]IF ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, [m]where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God.

2 Set your affection on things above, [o]not on things on the earth.

3 For [q]ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God.

4 When Christ, [t]who is our life, [u]shall appear, [x]then shall ye also appear with him in glory.

5 [z]Mortify therefore [a]your members which are upon the earth; [b]fornication, uncleanness, inordinate affection, evil concupiscence, and covetousness, which is idolatry:

6 For which things' sake the [c]wrath of God cometh on the [c]children of disobedience:

7 [e]In the which ye also walked some time, when ye lived in them.

8 But now ye also put off [f]all these; anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy, filthy communication [g]out of your mouth.

10 And [g]have put on the new man, [i]which is renewed [k]in knowledge [l]after the image of him that created him:

11 [m]Where there is neither Greek nor Jew, [n]circumcision nor uncircumcision, [o]Barbarian, Scythian, bond nor free: but Christ is [q]all, and in all.

12 Put on therefore, as the [t]elect of God, holy and beloved, [u]bowels of mercies, [x]kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, longsuffering;

13 [z]Forbearing one another, and forgiving one another, if any man have a quarrel against any: even as Christ forgave you, [b]so also do ye.

14 And above all these things [d]put on charity, which is [f]the bond of perfectness.

15 And let the [g]peace of [5]God rule in your hearts, to the which also ye are called [h]in one body; and [i]be ye thankful.

16 Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing one another in [l]psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord.

17 And [n]whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, [p]giving thanks to God and the Father by him.

18 [r]Wives, [s]submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as it is fit in the Lord.

19 Husbands, [y]love your wives, and be not bitter against them.

20 Children, obey your parents in all things: for this is well pleasing unto the Lord.

21 Fathers, provoke not your children to anger, lest they be discouraged.

22 [d]Servants, obey in all things your masters according to the flesh; not with eyeservice, as menpleasers; but in singleness of heart, fearing God:

23 And whatsoever ye do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not unto men;

24 Knowing that of the Lord [h]ye shall receive the reward of the inheritance: for [c] ye serve the Lord Christ.

25 But he that doeth wrong shall receive for the wrong which he hath done: and there is [f] no respect of persons.

MASTERS, give unto your servants that which is just and equal; knowing that ye also have a Master in heaven.
2 [i] Continue in prayer, and [k] watch in the same [m] with thanksgiving;
3 Withal praying also for us, that God would [o] open unto us a door of utterance, [p] to speak the mystery of Christ, [q] for which I am also in bonds:
4 That I may make it manifest, as I ought to speak.
5 [t] Walk in wisdom toward [u] them that are without, [2y] redeeming the time.
6 Let your speech be alway with grace, [z] seasoned with salt, [a] that ye may know how ye ought to answer every man.
7 [d] All my state shall [e] Tȳch'-ĭ-cŭs declare unto you, who is a beloved brother, and a faithful minister and fellowservant in the Lord:
8 Whom I have sent unto you for the same purpose, that he might know your estate, and comfort your hearts;
9 With [i] Ō-nĕs'-ĭ-mŭs, a faithful and beloved brother, who is one of you. They shall make known unto you all things which are done here.

for you all, making mention of you in our prayers;
3 Remembering without ceasing your work of faith, and [c] labour of love, and patience of [e] hope in our Lord Jesus Christ, in the sight of God and our Father;
4 Knowing, brethren beloved, [f] your election of God.
5 For our gospel came not unto you in word only, but also [a] in power, and in the Holy Ghost, and in much assurance; as ye know [c] what manner of men we were among you for your sake.

6 And [d] ye became followers of us, and of the Lord, [f] having received the word in much affliction, with joy of the Holy Ghost:

7 So that ye were ensamples to all that believe in [h] Macedonia and Ă-chāi'-ă.

8 For from you sounded out the word of the Lord not only in Macedonia and Ă-chāi'-ă, but also in every place [k] your faith to God-ward is spread abroad; so that we need not to speak any thing.

9 For they themselves shew of us what manner of [l] entering in we had unto you, and how [n] ye turned to God [o] from idols to serve the [p] living and [r] true God;

10 And [t] to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he [u] raised from the dead, even Jesus, [y] which delivered us from the wrath to come.

CHAPTER 2

FOR yourselves, brethren, know [z] our entrance in unto you, that it was not in vain:

2 But even after that we had suffered before, and were shamefully entreated, as ye know, at [c] Phī-lĭp'-pī, we [e] were bold in our God to speak unto you the gospel of God with much contention.

3 For our [g] exhortation was not of deceit, nor of uncleanness, nor in guile:

4 But as we were allowed of God [l] to be put in trust with the gospel, even so we speak; [m] not as pleasing men, but God, which [p] trieth our hearts.

5 For neither at any time used we flattering words, as ye know, nor a [r] cloke of covetousness; [s] God is witness:

6 [u] Nor of men sought we glory, neither of you, nor yet of others, [x] when we might have been burdensome, as the apostles of Christ.

7 But we were gentle among you, even [b] as a nurse cherisheth her children:

8 So being affectionately desirous of you, we were willing to have imparted unto you, not the gospel of God only, but also [e] our own souls, because ye were dear unto us.

9 For ye remember, brethren, our labour and travail: for [g] labouring night and day, because we would not be chargeable unto any of you, we preached unto you the gospel of God.

10 Ye are witnesses, and God also, [i] how holily and justly and unblameably we behaved ourselves among you that believe:

11 As ye know how we exhorted and comforted and charged every one of you, [m] as a father doth his children,

12 [q] That ye would walk worthy of God, [s] who hath called you unto his kingdom and glory.

13 For this cause also [x] thank we God without ceasing, because, when ye received the word of God which ye heard of us, ye received it not as the word of men, but as it is in truth, the word of God, which effectually worketh also in you that believe.

14 For ye, brethren, became followers of [a] the churches of God [b] which in Judæa are in Christ Jesus: for [d] ye also have suffered like things of your own countrymen, even as they have of the Jews:

15 [f] Who both killed the Lord Jesus, [h] and their own prophets, and have persecuted us; and they please not God, and [i] are contrary to all men:

16 [k] Forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles that they might be saved, [n] to fill up their sins alway: for [o] the wrath is come upon them to the uttermost.

17 But we, brethren, being taken from you for a short time [q] in presence, not in heart, endeavoured the more abundantly [t] to see your face with great desire.

18 Wherefore we would have come unto you, even I Paul, once and again; but Satan [y] hindered us.

crown of rejoicing? [a] Are not even ye in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ [c] at his coming?

20 For ye are our glory and joy.

CHAPTER 3

WHEREFORE when we could no longer forbear, we thought it good [d] to be left at Athens alone;

2 And sent [g] Tī-mŏth'ĕ-ŭs, our brother, and minister of God, and [h] our fellowlabourer in the gospel of Christ, to establish you, and to comfort you concerning your faith:

3 That no man should be moved by these afflictions: for yourselves know that we are appointed [l] thereunto.

4 For verily, when we were with you, we told you before that we should suffer tribulation; even as it came to pass, and ye know.

5 For this cause, when I could no longer forbear, I sent to know your faith, [p] lest by some means the tempter have tempted you, and [q] our labour be in vain.

6 But now [s] when Tī-mŏth'ĕ-ŭs came from you unto us, and brought us good tidings of [u] your faith and charity, and that ye have good remembrance of us always, desiring greatly to see us, [z] as we also to see you:

7 Therefore, brethren, we were comforted over you in all our affliction and distress by your faith:

8 For now we live, if ye [c] stand fast in the Lord.

9 For [d] what thanks can we render to God again for you, for all the joy wherewith we joy for your sakes before our God;

10 Night and day [e] praying exceedingly that we might [g] see your face, and [h] might perfect that which is lacking in your faith?

11 Now God himself and our Father, and our Lord Jesus Christ, direct our way unto you.

12 And the Lord [i] make you to increase and abound in love one toward another, and toward all men, even as we do toward you:

13 To the end he may stablish your hearts [q] unblameable in holiness before God, even our Father, [b] at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ with all his saints.

CHAPTER 4

FURTHERMORE then we beseech you, brethren, and exhort you by the Lord Jesus, that as ye have [e] received of us [f] how ye ought to walk and to please God, so ye would abound more and more.

2 For ye know what commandments we gave you by the Lord Jesus.

3 For this is the will of God, even your [i] sanctification, [k] that ye should abstain from fornication:

4 That every one of you should know how to possess his vessel in sanctification and honour;

5 [m] Not in the lust of concupiscence, even as the Gentiles [n] which know not God:

6 That no man go beyond and [o] defraud his brother in any matter: because that [r] the Lord is the avenger of all such, as we also have forewarned you and testified.

7 [t] For God hath not called us unto uncleanness, but unto holiness.

8 [x] He therefore that despiseth, despiseth not man, but God, [y] who hath also given unto us his holy Spirit.

9 But as touching brotherly love [a] ye need not that I write unto you: [b] for ye yourselves are taught of God to love one another.

10 And indeed ye do it toward all the brethren which are in all Macedonia: but we beseech you, brethren, that ye increase more and more;

11 And that ye study to be quiet, and to do your own business, and [f] to work with your own hands, as we commanded you;

12 That ye may [i] walk honestly toward [k] them that are without, and that ye may have lack of nothing.

13 But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which [m] are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as others [n] which have no hope.

14 For if we believe that Jesus died and [o] rose again, [p] even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him.

15 For this we say unto you [a] by the word of the Lord, that [c] we which are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord shall not prevent them which are asleep.

16 For [f] the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the [g] archangel, and with [i] the trump of God: and [k] the dead in Christ shall rise first:

17 Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and [n] so shall we ever be with the Lord.

18 Wherefore [q] comfort one another with these words.

CHAPTER 5

BUT of the [x] times and the seasons, brethren, [y] ye have no need that I write unto you.

2 For yourselves know perfectly that [b] the day of the Lord so cometh as a thief in the night.

3 For when they shall say, Peace and safety; then [d] sudden destruction cometh upon them, [f] as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape.

4 But ye, brethren, are not in darkness, that that day should overtake you as a thief.

5 Ye are all the [k] children of light, and the children of the day: we are not of the night, nor of darkness.

6 Therefore let us not sleep, [o] as do others; but let us [p] watch and be sober.

7 For they that sleep sleep in the night; and [u] they that be drunken are drunken in the night.

8 But let us, who are of the day, [y] be sober, [z] putting on the [a] breastplate of faith and love; and for an [c] helmet, the [d] hope of salvation.

9 For God [e] hath not appointed us to wrath, but [f] to obtain salvation by our Lord Jesus Christ,

A.D. 51

CHAPTER 1

PAUL, and [a]Sĭl-vā'nŭs, and [b]Tĭmŏth'ĕ-ŭs, unto the church of the [d]Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ:

2 Grace unto you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 We are bound [e] to thank God always for you, brethren, as it is meet, because that your faith groweth exceedingly, and the [h]charity of every one of you all toward each other aboundeth;

4 So that [i] we ourselves glory in you [m]in the churches of God for [n]your patience and faith in all your persecutions and tribulations that ye endure:

5 Which is a [q]manifest token of the righteous judgment of God, that ye may be [t]counted worthy of the kingdom of God, for which ye also suffer:

6 Seeing [u]it is a righteous thing with God to recompense tribulation to them that trouble you;

7 And to you who are troubled rest with us, [y]when the Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven [z]with his mighty angels,

8 [a]In flaming fire taking vengeance on them [b]that know not God, and [c]that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ:

9 [e]Who shall be punished with everlasting destruction [f]from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of his power;

10 When he shall come [g]to be glorified in his saints, and to be admired in all them that believe (because our testimony among you was believed) in that day.

11 Wherefore also [l] we pray always for you, that our God would [m]count you worthy of [n]this calling, and fulfil all the good pleasure of his goodness, and the work of faith with power:

12 That [c]the name of our Lord Jesus Christ may be glorified in you, and ye in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

CHAPTER 2

NOW we beseech you, brethren, [f]by the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, and by our [g]gathering together unto him,

2 That ye be not soon shaken in mind, or be troubled, neither [i]by spirit, nor [k]by word, nor [k]by letter as from us, as that the day [2]of Christ [3]is at hand.

3 [o]Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come [p]a falling away first, and [r]that man of sin be revealed, [s]the son of perdition;

4 Who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, [x]shewing himself that he is God.

5 Remember ye not, that, when I was yet with you, I told you these things?

6 And now ye know what withholdeth that he might be revealed in his time.

7 For the [d]mystery of iniquity doth already work: only he who now letteth will let, until he be taken out of the way.

8 And then shall that Wicked be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume [h]with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy [i]with the [4]brightness of his coming:

9 Even him, whose coming is after the working of Satan [k]with all power and signs and lying wonders,

10 And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in [o]them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved.

11 And for this cause [b] God shall send them [2] strong delusion, that they should believe a lie:

12 That they all might be [3] damned [c] who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness.

13 But we are bound [g] to give thanks alway to God for you, brethren beloved of the Lord, because God [i] hath from the beginning chosen you [l] to salvation through [m] sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth:

14 Whereunto he [n] called you by our gospel, [p] to the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.

15 Therefore, brethren, [q] stand fast, and [r] hold the traditions which ye have been taught, whether [t] by word, or [t] our epistle.

16 Now our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God, even our Father, [x] which hath loved us, and hath given us everlasting consolation and good [y] hope through grace, 17 Comfort your hearts, and [z] stablish you in every good word and work.

CHAPTER 3

FINALLY, brethren, [b] pray for us, that the word of the Lord may have free course, and be glorified, even as it is with you:

2 And that [c] we may be delivered from unreasonable and wicked men: for all men have not [4] faith.

3 But [f] the Lord is faithful, who shall [g] stablish you, and [h] keep you from evil.

4 And [k] we have confidence in the Lord touching you, that ye both do and will do the things which we command you.

5 And the Lord direct your hearts into [a] the love of God, and into the patient waiting for Christ.

6 Now we command you, brethren, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye [c] withdraw yourselves from every brother that walketh disorderly, and not after [d] the tradition which he received of us.

7 For yourselves know [f] how ye ought to follow us: for [h] we behaved not ourselves disorderly among you;

8 Neither did we eat any man's bread for nought; but [k] wrought with labour and travail night and day, that we might not be chargeable to any of you:

9 [o] Not because we have not power, but to make ourselves an ensample unto you to follow us.

10 For even when we were with you, this we commanded you, that [s] if any would not work, neither should he eat.

11 For we hear that there are some which walk among you disorderly, working not at all, but are [u] busybodies.

12 Now them that are such we command and exhort by our Lord Jesus Christ, that with quietness they work, and eat their own bread.

13 But ye, brethren, [a] be not weary in well doing.

14 And if any man obey not our word by this epistle, note that man, and have no company with him, that he may be ashamed.

15 Yet count him not as an enemy, but [d] admonish him as a brother.

16 Now [e] the Lord of peace himself give you peace always by all means. The Lord be with you all.

17 [i] The salutation of Paul with mine own hand, which is the token in every epistle: so I write.

18 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO TIMOTHY

CHAPTER 1

PAUL, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the commandment of [b] God our Saviour, and Lord Jesus Christ, which is [d] our hope;

2 Unto [f] Timothy, [g] my own son in the faith: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God our Father and Jesus Christ our Lord.

3 As I besought thee to abide still at [m] Ephesus, when I went into Macedonia, that thou mightest charge some [o] that they teach no other doctrine,

4 Neither give heed to [q] fables and endless [r] genealogies, which minister [s] questions, rather than godly [2] edifying which is in faith: so do.

5 Now the end of the commandment is [t] charity [u] out of a pure heart, and of [x] a good conscience, and of [z] faith unfeigned:

6 From which some having swerved have [4e] turned aside unto [f] vain jangling;

7 Desiring to be [g] teachers of the law; [i] understanding neither what they say, nor whereof they affirm.

8 But we know that [l] the law is good, if a man use it lawfully;

9 Knowing this, that [n] the law is not made for a righteous man, but for [p] the lawless and disobedient, for the ungodly and for sinners, for unholy and profane, for [r] murderers of fathers and murderers of mothers, for manslayers,

10 For whoremongers, for them that defile themselves with mankind, for menstealers, for liars, for [u] perjured persons, and if there be any other thing that is contrary to [y] sound doctrine;

11 According to the [z] glorious gospel of [a] the blessed God, [b] which was committed to my trust.

12 And I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who hath enabled me, for [a] that he counted me faithful, putting me into the ministry;

13 Who was before a blasphemer, and a [c] persecutor, and injurious: but I [e] obtained mercy, because I did it [h] ignorantly in unbelief.

14 And [i] the grace of our Lord was exceeding abundant [k] with faith and love which is in Christ Jesus.

15 [l] This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptation, that Christ Jesus came into the world [n] to save sinners; [p] of whom I am chief.

16 Howbeit for this cause I obtained mercy, that in me first Jesus Christ might shew forth all longsuffering, for a pattern to them which should hereafter believe on him to life everlasting.

17 Now unto [y] the King eternal, [3a] immortal, [b] invisible, [c] the only wise God, [d] be honour and glory for ever and ever. Amen.

18 This charge I commit unto thee, son Timothy, according to [h] the prophecies which went before on thee, that thou by them mightest [k] war a good warfare;

19 Holding faith, and [m] a good conscience; which [o] some having put away concerning faith have made shipwreck:

20 Of whom is [q] Hȳ-mĕ-næ'-ŭs and [s] Alexander; whom I have [t] delivered unto Satan, that they may learn not to blaspheme.

CHAPTER 2

I EXHORT therefore, [x] that, first of all, supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks, be made for all men;

2 For kings, and for all that are in authority; that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty.

3 For this is good and acceptable in the sight of [a] God our Saviour;

4 Who will [b] have all men to be saved, and to come unto [c] the knowledge of the truth.

5 For [d] there is one God, and [e] one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus;

6 [g] Who gave himself a ransom for all, [i] to be testified [k] in due time.

7 [l] Whereunto I am ordained a preacher, and an apostle, [n] (I speak the truth in Christ, and lie not;) [o] a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and verity.

8 I will therefore that men pray every where, [r] lifting up holy hands, without wrath and doubting.

9 In like manner also, [s] that women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefacedness and sobriety; not with broided hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly array;

10 But (which becometh women professing godliness) with [x] good works.

11 Let the woman learn in silence [y] with all subjection.

12 But [z] I suffer not a woman to teach, nor to usurp authority over the man, but to be in silence.

13 [b] For Adam was first formed, then Eve.

14 And Adam was not deceived, [c] but the woman being deceived was in the transgression.

15 Notwithstanding she shall be saved [f] in childbearing, if they continue in faith and charity and holiness with sobriety.

CHAPTER 3

[h] THIS is a true saying, If a man desire the office of a [i] bishop, he desireth a good work.

2 [l] A bishop then must be blameless, the husband of one wife, vigilant, sober, of good behaviour, [m] given to hospitality, [o] apt to teach;

3 Not given to wine, no striker, [q] not greedy of filthy lucre; but patient, not a brawler, not covetous;

4 One that ruleth well his own house, [u] having his children in subjection with all gravity;

5 (For if a man know not how to rule his own house, how shall he take care of the church of God?)

6 Not a novice, lest being lifted up with pride he fall into the condemnation of the devil.

7 Moreover he must have a good report of [f] them which are without; lest he fall into reproach and [h] the snare of the devil.

8 Likewise must the [m] deacons be grave, not doubletongued, not given to much wine, not greedy of filthy lucre;

9 Holding [p] the mystery of the faith in [q] a pure conscience.

10 And let these also first be proved; then let them use the office of a deacon, being found blameless.

11 Even so must their [t] wives be grave, not slanderers, sober, faithful in all things.

12 Let the deacons be the husbands of one wife, [u] ruling their children and their own houses well.

13 For they that have used the office of a deacon well purchase to themselves a good degree, and great boldness [a] in the faith which is in Christ Jesus.

14 These things write I unto thee, hoping to come unto thee shortly:

15 But if I tarry long, that thou mayest know how thou oughtest to behave thyself in [d] the house of God, which is the church of the [e] living God, the pillar and ground of the truth.

16 And without controversy great is the mystery of godliness: [2] God was manifest [g] in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, [k] received up into glory.

CHAPTER 4

NOW [n] the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in [p] the latter times some [r] shall depart from the faith, giving heed to [s] seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils;

2 [t] Speaking lies in hypocrisy; having their conscience [x] seared with a hot iron;

3 [a] Forbidding to marry, and commanding [b] to abstain from meats, which God hath created to be received [d] with thanksgiving of them which believe and know the truth.

4 For [e] every creature of God is good, and nothing to be refused, if it be received with thanksgiving:

5 For it is sanctified by the word of God and prayer.

6 [g] If thou put the brethren in remembrance of these things, thou shalt be a good minister of Jesus Christ, nourished up in the words of faith and [l] of good doctrine, whereunto thou hast attained.

7 But refuse profane and old wives' [n] fables, and [o] exercise thyself rather unto godliness.

8 For bodily exercise profiteth [2] little: but [r] godliness is profitable unto all things, [s] having promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come.

9 This is a [t] faithful saying and worthy of all acceptation.

10 For therefore we both labour and suffer reproach, because we trust in [y] the living God, who is the [z] Saviour of all men, specially of those that believe.

11 [a] These things command and teach.

12 [b] Let no man despise thy youth; but [c] be thou an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity.

13 Till I come, give attendance to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine.

14 [e] Neglect not the gift that is in thee, which was given thee [f] by prophecy, with [h] the laying on of the hands of [i] the presbytery.

15 Meditate upon these things; give thyself wholly to them; that thy profiting may appear to all.

16 [i] Take heed unto thyself, and unto the doctrine; continue in them: for in doing this thou shalt both [m] save thyself, [n] and them that hear thee.

2 The elder women as mothers; the younger as sisters, with all purity.

3 [c] Honour widows that are widows indeed.

4 But if any widow have children or nephews, let them learn first [f] to shew piety at home, and to requite their parents: for that is good and acceptable before God.

5 Now she that is a widow indeed, and desolate, trusteth in God, and [h] continueth in supplications and prayers night and day.

6 But she that [i] liveth in pleasure [k] is dead while she liveth.

7 And [m] these things give in charge, that they may be blameless.

8 But [p] if any provide not for his own, and specially for those of his own house, he hath [q] denied the faith, and is worse than an infidel.

9 Let not a widow be taken into the number under threescore years old, having been the wife of one man,

10 Well reported of for good works; if she have brought up children, if she have [u] lodged strangers, if she have [x] washed the saints' feet, if she have relieved the afflicted, if she have diligently followed every good work.

11 But the younger widows refuse: for when they have begun to wax wanton against Christ, they will marry;

12 Having damnation, because they have cast off their first faith.

13 And withal they learn to be idle, [d] wandering about from house to house; and not only idle, but tattlers also and [g] busybodies, speaking things which they ought not.

14 I will therefore that the younger women marry, bear children, guide the house, [k] give none occasion to the adversary to speak reproachfully.

15 For some are already turned aside after Satan.

16 If any man or woman that believeth have widows, let them relieve them, and let not the church be charged; that it may relieve them that are widows indeed.

17 Let the [p] elders that [q] rule well [r] be counted worthy of double honour, especially they who labour in the word and doctrine.

18 For the scripture saith, [c] Thou shalt not muzzle the ox that treadeth out the corn. And, [e] The labourer is worthy of his reward.

19 Against an elder receive not an accusation, but [f] before two or three witnesses.

20 [h] Them that sin rebuke before all, that others also may fear.

21 [i] I charge thee before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, and [k] the elect angels, that thou observe these things [l] without preferring one before another, doing nothing by partiality.

22 [n] Lay hands suddenly on no man, [o] neither be partaker of other men's sins: keep thyself pure.

23 Drink no longer water, but use a little wine for thy stomach's sake and thine often infirmities.

24 Some men's sins are open beforehand, going before to judgment; and some men they follow after.

25 Likewise also the good works of some are manifest beforehand; and they that are otherwise cannot be hid.

CHAPTER 6

LET as many [z] servants as are under the yoke count their own masters worthy of all honour, [a] that the name of God and his doctrine be not blasphemed.

2 And they that have believing masters, let them not despise them, because they are [e] brethren; but rather do them service, because they are faithful and beloved, partakers of the benefit. [h] These things teach and exhort.

3 If any man [l] teach otherwise, and consent not to [n] wholesome words, even the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, and to the doctrine [o] which is according to godliness;

4 He is proud, [p] knowing nothing, but doting about [r] questions and strifes of words, whereof cometh envy, strife, railings, evil surmisings,

5 Perverse disputings of men of [x] corrupt minds, and destitute of the truth, [y] supposing that gain is godliness: [2] from such withdraw thyself.

6 But [a] godliness [b] with contentment is great gain.

7 For [d] we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out.

8 And having food and raiment let us be therewith content.

9 But [g] they that will be rich fall into temptation and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, which drown men in destruction and perdition.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO TIMOTHY

CHAPTER 1

A.D. 64

PAUL, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, according to [c] the promise of life which is in Christ Jesus,

2 To [e] Timothy, [f] my dearly beloved son: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

3 [h] I thank God, [i] whom I serve [k] from my forefathers [l] with pure conscience, that without ceasing I have remembrance of thee in my prayers night and day;

4 [o] Greatly desiring to see thee, being mindful of thy tears, that I may be filled with joy;

5 When I call to remembrance the [x] unfeigned faith that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lō'ĭs, and [y] thy mother Eû-nī'çē; and I am persuaded that in thee also.

6 Wherefore I put thee in remembrance that thou [b] stir up the gift of God, which is in thee by the [d] putting on of my hands.

7 For [e] God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of [g] power, and of love, and of a [3]sound mind.

8 [i] Be not thou therefore ashamed of [k] the testimony of our Lord, nor of me his [l] prisoner: but [m] be thou partaker of the afflictions of the gospel according to the power of God;

9 [o] Who hath saved us, and [p] called us with an holy calling, [q] not according to our works, but according to [s] his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus [a] before the world began,

10 But is now made manifest by the appearing of [b] our Saviour Jesus Christ, who hath [d] abolished death, and hath brought life and [2]immortality to light through the gospel:

11 [g] Whereunto I am appointed a preacher, and an apostle, and a teacher of the Gentiles.

12 For the which cause I also suffer these things: nevertheless [m] I am not ashamed: for I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that [n] he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against [p] that day.

13 [q] Hold fast [r] the form of [s] sound words, [t] which thou hast heard of me, [u] in faith and love which is in Christ Jesus.

14 That good thing which was committed unto thee [z] keep by the Holy Ghost [a] which dwelleth in us.

15 This thou knowest, that all they which are in [c] Asia be turned away from me; of whom are Phў-gĕl'-lŭs and Hĕr-mŏg'-ĕ-nēs.

16 The Lord give mercy unto [f] the house of Ō-nĕs-ĭph'-ō-rŭs; for he oft [h] refreshed me, and was not ashamed of my chain:

17 But, when he was in Rome, he sought me out very diligently, and found me.

18 [n] The Lord grant unto him that he may find mercy of the Lord in that day: and in how many things he ministered unto me at [r] Ephesus, thou knowest very well.

THOU therefore, [b]my son, [c]be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus.

2 And the things [f]that thou hast heard of me among many witnesses, the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be [i]able to teach others also.

3 Thou therefore [l]endure hardness, as [n]a good soldier of Jesus Christ.

4 [o]No man that warreth entangleth himself with the affairs of this life; that he may please him who hath chosen him to be a soldier.

5 And [r]if a man also strive for masteries, yet is he not [s]crowned, except he strive lawfully.

6 The husbandman that laboureth must be first [u]partaker of the fruits.

7 Consider what I say; and the Lord give thee understanding in all things.

8 Remember that Jesus Christ of the [c]seed of David was [d]raised from the dead [f]according to my gospel:

9 [h]Wherein I suffer trouble, as an evil doer, even [i]unto bonds; but the word of God is not bound.

10 Therefore [k]I endure all things for [m]the elect's sakes, that they may also [p]obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory.

11 [s]It is a faithful saying: For [t]if we be dead with him, we shall also live with him:

12 [x]If we suffer, [y]we shall also reign with him: [a]if we deny him, he also will deny us:

13 If we believe not, yet [b]he abideth faithful: [c]he cannot deny himself.

14 Of these things put them in remembrance, [e]charging them before the Lord that they strive not [f]about words to no profit, but to the subverting of the hearers.

15 Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman [h]that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing [i]the word of truth.

16 But [k]shun profane and vain babblings: for they will increase unto more ungodliness.

17 And their word will eat as doth a canker: of whom is [a]Hȳ-mĕ-næ'ŭs and Phī-lē'tŭs;

18 [d]Who concerning the truth have erred, [e]saying that the resurrection is past already; and overthrow the faith of some.

19 Nevertheless [g]the foundation of God standeth sure, [h]having this seal, [k]The Lord knoweth them that are his. And, Let every one that nameth the name of Christ [m]depart from iniquity.

20 But [p]in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of earth; and [q]some to honour, and some to dishonour.

21 [t]If a man therefore purge himself from these, he shall be a vessel unto honour, sanctified, and meet for the master's use, and [x]prepared unto every good work.

22 [y]Flee also youthful lusts: but follow [z]righteousness, faith, charity, [a]peace, [b]with them that call on the Lord [e]out of a pure heart.

23 But [g]foolish and unlearned questions avoid, knowing that they do gender strifes.

24 And the servant of the Lord must not strive; but [l]be gentle unto all men, [n]apt to teach, [o]patient,

25 [q]In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; [r]if God peradventure will give them repentance [u]to the acknowledging of the truth;

26 And that they may recover themselves out of [z]the snare of the devil, who are taken captive by him at his will.

CHAPTER 3

THIS know also, that in [d]the last days perilous times shall come.

2 For [g]men shall be lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy,

3 Without natural affection, trucebreakers, false accusers, incontinent, fierce, despisers of those that are good,

4 Traitors, heady, highminded, lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God;

5 [a] Having a form of godliness, but [c] denying the power thereof: [d] from such turn away.

6 For of this sort are [e] they which creep into houses, and lead captive silly women laden with sins, led away with divers lusts,

7 Ever learning, and never able to come [h] to the knowledge of the truth.

8 [i] Now as Jăn'-nēs and Jăm'-brēs withstood Moses, so do these also resist the truth: men of [l] corrupt minds, [n] reprobate concerning the faith.

9 But they shall proceed no further: for their folly shall be manifest unto all men, as their's also was.

10 But thou hast fully known [t] my doctrine, [u] manner of life, purpose, faith, longsuffering, charity, [y] patience,

11 [b] Persecutions, afflictions, which came unto me at [d] Ăn'-tĭ-ŏch, at [e] Ī-cō'-nĭ-ŭm, at [g] Lystra; what persecutions I endured: but [i] out of them all the Lord delivered me.

12 Yea, and all that will live godly in Christ Jesus [l] shall suffer persecution.

13 [n] But evil men and seducers shall wax worse and worse, deceiving, and being deceived.

14 But [r] continue thou in the things which thou hast learned and hast been assured of, knowing of whom thou hast learned them;

15 And that [x] from a child thou hast known the holy scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus.

16 [5b] All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness:

17 That the [d] man of God may be [6] perfect, throughly furnished [f] unto all good works.

CHAPTER 4

[g] I CHARGE thee therefore before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, [h] who shall judge the quick and the dead at [k] his appearing and his [l] kingdom;

2 Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, [b] rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine.

3 For [f] the time will come when they will not endure [g] sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears;

4 And they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto [k] fables.

5 But [2m] watch thou in all things, [o] endure afflictions, do the work of an [p] evangelist, [q] make full proof of thy ministry.

6 For I am now ready [r] to be [3] offered, and the time of [s] my departure is at hand.

7 [x] I have fought a good fight, I have [z] finished my course, I have kept [a] the faith:

8 Henceforth there is [c] laid up for me a [f] crown of righteousness, which the Lord, [h] the righteous judge, shall give me at [k] that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing.

9 [m] Do thy diligence to come shortly unto me:

10 For [o] Demas hath forsaken me, [p] having loved this present [4] world, and is departed unto [q] Thĕss-ă-lō-nī'-că; Crĕs'-çĕns to Galatia, [s] Titus unto Dalmatia.

11 Only [t] Luke is with me. Take [u] Mark, and bring him with thee: for he is profitable to me for the ministry.

12 And [y] Tȳch'-ĭ-cŭs have I sent to [z] Ephesus.

13 The cloke that I left at [a] Trō'-ăs with Carpus, when thou comest, bring with thee, and the books, but especially the parchments.

14 [c] Alexander the coppersmith did me much evil: [e] the Lord reward him according to his works:

15 Of whom be thou ware also; for he hath greatly withstood our words.

16 At my first answer no man stood with me, but all men forsook me: I pray God that it [i] may not be laid to their charge.

17 Notwithstanding [m] the Lord stood with me, and strengthened me; that

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO TITUS

CHAPTER 1

PAUL, a servant of God, and an apostle of Jesus Christ, according to the faith of God's [b] elect, and the [d] acknowledging of the truth [e] which is after godliness;

2 [g] In hope of eternal life, which God, [i] that cannot lie, [k] promised [l] before the world began;

3 But hath [m] in due times manifested his word through preaching, [o] which is committed unto me according to the commandment of [q] God our Saviour;

4 To [r] Titus, [s] mine own son after the [u] common faith: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ our Saviour.

5 For this cause left I thee in [z] Crete, that thou shouldest [b] set in order the things that are wanting, and ordain [d] elders in every city, as I had appointed thee:

6 If any be blameless, the husband of one wife, having [f] faithful children not accused of riot or unruly.

7 For [h] a bishop [i] must be blameless, as the [l] steward of God; not self-willed, not soon angry, not given to wine, no striker, not given to filthy lucre;

8 But a [n] lover of hospitality, a lover of good men, sober, just, holy, temperate;

9 [p] Holding fast the faithful word as he hath been taught, that he may be able by [a] sound doctrine both to exhort and to convince the gainsayers.

10 For there are many unruly and [c] vain talkers and deceivers, specially they of the [f] circumcision:

11 Whose mouths must be stopped, who [h] subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucre's sake.

12 [n] One of themselves, even a prophet of their own, said, The [p] Cretians are alway liars, evil beasts, slow bellies.

13 This witness is true. Wherefore [t] rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in [x] the faith;

14 Not giving heed to Jewish [y] fables, and commandments of men, that turn from the [a] truth.

15 [c] Unto the pure all things are pure: but unto them that are defiled and [e] unbelieving is nothing pure; but even their mind and conscience is defiled.

16 They profess that they know God; but in works they [g] deny him, being [k] abominable, and disobedient, and unto every good work [m] reprobate.

CHAPTER 2

BUT speak thou the things which become [o] sound doctrine:

2 That the aged men be sober, grave, temperate, sound in faith, in charity, in [q] patience.

5 To be discreet, chaste, [g]keepers at home, good, [h]obedient to their own husbands, [k]that the word of God be not blasphemed.

6 Young men likewise exhort to be sober minded.

7 In all things [n]shewing thyself a pattern of good works: in doctrine shewing uncorruptness, gravity, sincerity,

8 Sound speech, that cannot be condemned; [s]that he that is of the contrary part may be ashamed, having no evil thing to say of you.

9 Exhort [z]servants to be obedient unto their own masters, and to please them well in all things; not answering again;

10 Not purloining, but shewing all good fidelity; [b]that they may adorn the doctrine of [c]God our Saviour in all things.

11 For [3f]the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared [g]to all men,

12 Teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, [i]we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present [5]world;

13 Looking for that blessed [k]hope, and the glorious [l]appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ;

14 [n]Who gave himself for us, that he might [o]redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a [q]peculiar people, [r]zealous of good works.

15 These things speak, and exhort, and [s]rebuke with all authority. [t]Let no man despise thee.

2 [b]To speak evil of no man, to be no brawlers, but [c]gentle, [d]shewing all meekness unto all men.

3 For [e]we ourselves also [f]were sometimes foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving divers lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, and hating one another.

4 But after that [i]the kindness and love of [l]God our Saviour toward man appeared,

5 [m]Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by [o]the [2]washing of [p]regeneration, and [q]renewing of the Holy Ghost;

6 [r]Which he shed on us abundantly through Jesus Christ our Saviour;

7 That being [t]justified [u]by his grace, we should be made [x]heirs according to [y]the hope of eternal life.

8 This is a [a]faithful saying, and these things I will that thou affirm constantly, that they which have believed in God might be careful to maintain good works. These things are good and profitable unto men.

9 But avoid [d]foolish questions, and [e]genealogies, and contentions, and strivings about the law; for they are unprofitable and vain.

10 A man that is [4]an heretick [h]after the first and second admonition reject;

11 Knowing that he that is such is subverted, and sinneth, being condemned of himself.

12 When I shall send Är'tĕ-măs unto thee, or [m]Tȳch'ĭ-cŭs, be diligent to come unto me to Nī-cŏp'ŏ-lĭs: for I have determined there to winter.

13 Bring Zenas the lawyer and [p]Ăpŏl'lŏs on their journey diligently, that nothing be wanting unto them.

14 And let our's also learn to maintain good works for necessary uses, [u]that they be not unfruitful.

15 All that are with me salute thee. Greet them that love us in the faith. Grace be with you all. Amen.

¶ It was written to Titus, ordained the first bishop of the church of the Cretians, from Nī-cŏp'ŏ-lĭs of Macedonia.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO PHILEMON

A.D. 61

PAUL, a [a] prisoner of Jesus Christ, and Timothy our brother, unto Phī-lē'-mon our dearly beloved, and fellowlabourer,

2 And to our beloved Apphia, and [c] Ar-chip'-pus our [d] fellowsoldier, and to [e] the church in thy house:

3 Grace to you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

4 [g] I thank my God, making mention of thee always in my prayers,

5 Hearing of [i] thy love and faith, which thou hast [k] toward the Lord Jesus, and toward all saints;

6 That the communication of thy faith may become effectual [m] by the acknowledging of every good thing which is in you in Christ Jesus.

7 For we have great joy and consolation in thy love, because the bowels of the saints are [o] refreshed by thee, brother.

8 Wherefore, though I might be much bold in Christ to enjoin thee that which is convenient,

9 Yet for love's sake I rather beseech thee, being such an one as Paul [q] the [2] aged, and now also a prisoner of Jesus Christ.

10 I beseech thee for my son [r] Ō-nĕs'-ĭ-mŭs, [u] whom I have begotten [x] in my bonds:

11 Which in time past was to thee unprofitable, but now profitable to thee and to me:

12 Whom I have sent again: [3] thou therefore receive him, that is, mine own bowels:

13 Whom I would have retained with me, that in thy stead he might have ministered unto me in the bonds of the gospel:

14 But without thy mind would I do nothing; that thy benefit should not be [b] as it were of necessity, but willingly.

15 For perhaps he therefore departed for a season, that thou shouldest receive him for ever;

16 [f] Not now as a servant, but above a servant, [h] a brother beloved, specially to me, but how much more unto thee, both in the flesh, and in the Lord?

17 If thou count me therefore a [l] partner, receive him as myself.

18 If he hath wronged thee, or oweth thee ought, put that on mine account;

19 [n] I Paul have written it with mine own hand, I will repay it: albeit I do not say to thee how thou owest unto me even thine own self besides.

20 Yea, brother, let me have joy of thee in the Lord: refresh my bowels in the Lord.

21 [p] Having confidence in thy obedience I wrote unto thee, knowing that thou wilt also do more than I say.

22 But withal prepare me also a lodging: for [s] I trust that [t] through your prayers I shall be given unto you.

23 There salute thee [y] Ep'-ă-phrăs, my [z] fellowprisoner in Christ Jesus;

24 [a] Marcus, [b] Ar-is-tär'-chŭs, [c] Demas, [d] Lucas, my fellowlabourers.

25 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE HEBREWS

CHAPTER 1

A.D. 64

GOD, who at sundry times and in divers manners spake in time past unto the fathers [a] by the prophets,

2 Hath in [2 b] these last days [c] spoken unto us by his Son, whom he hath [e] appointed [f] heir of all things, [g] by whom also he made the [3] worlds;

3 Who being the brightness of his glory, and the express [i] image of his [4] person, and [l] upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had by himself [m] purged our sins, [n] sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high;

4 Being made so much better than the angels, as he hath by inheritance obtained [p] a more excellent name than they.

5 For unto which of the angels said he at any time, [r] Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee? And again, [u] I will be to him a Father, and he shall be to me a Son?

6 And again, when he bringeth in [y] the firstbegotten into the world, he saith, [z] And let all the angels of God worship him.

7 And of the angels he saith, [c] Who maketh his angels [7] spirits, and his ministers a flame of fire.

8 But unto the Son he saith, [e] Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever: a sceptre of righteousness is the sceptre of thy kingdom.

9 Thou hast loved righteousness, and hated iniquity; therefore God, even thy God, hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows.

10 And, [g] Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast laid the foundation of the earth; and the heavens are the works of thine hands:

11 They shall perish; but thou remainest; and they all shall wax old as doth a garment;

12 And as a vesture shalt thou fold them up, and they shall be changed: but thou art the same, and thy years shall not fail.

13 But to which of the angels said he at any time, [d] Sit on my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool?

14 Are they not all [h] ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for them who shall [k] be heirs of salvation?

CHAPTER 2

THEREFORE we ought to give the more earnest heed to the things which we have heard, [5] lest at any time we should let them slip.

2 For if the [o] word spoken by angels was stedfast, and [q] every transgression and disobedience received a just recompence of reward;

3 [s] How shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation; [t] which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and was [x] confirmed unto us by them that heard him;

4 God also bearing them witness, both [a] with signs and wonders, and with divers miracles, and [6 b] gifts of the Holy Ghost, according to his own will?

5 For unto the angels hath he not put in subjection [d] the [8] world to come, whereof we speak.

6 But one in a certain place testified, saying, [f] What is man, that thou art mindful of him? or the son of man, that thou visitest him?

7 Thou madest him a little lower than the angels; thou crownedst him with glory and honour, and didst set him over the works of thy hands:

8 Thou hast put all things in subjection under his feet. For [h] in that he put all in subjection under him, he left nothing that is not put under him. But now [i] we see not yet all things put under him.

9 But we see Jesus, [a] who was made a little lower than the angels for the suffering of death, [c] crowned with glory and honour; that he by the grace of God should [e] taste death for every man.

10 For it became him, [f] for whom are all things, and by whom are all things, in bringing many sons unto glory, to make the [2k] captain of their salvation [l] perfect through sufferings.

11 For both [n] he that sanctifieth and [p] they who are sanctified [q] are all of one: for which cause he is not ashamed to call them [s] brethren,

12 Saying, [t] I will declare thy name unto my brethren, in the midst of the church will I sing praise unto thee.

13 And again, [u] I will put my trust in him. And again, [x] Behold I and the children which God hath given me.

14 Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, [y] he also himself likewise took part of the same; that [z] through death he might [3a] destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil;

15 And deliver them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage.

16 For verily he took not on him the nature of angels; but [e] he took on him the seed of Abraham.

17 Wherefore in all things it behoved him [g] to be made like unto his brethren, [h] that he might be a merciful and faithful high priest [k] in things pertaining to God, [l] to make [4] reconciliation for the sins of the people.

18 For in that he himself hath suffered [n] being tempted, he is able to succour them that are tempted.

CHAPTER 3

WHEREFORE, holy brethren, partakers of the heavenly [p] calling, [q] consider the Apostle and [r] High Priest of our profession, Christ Jesus;

2 Who was faithful to him that appointed him, [t] as also Moses was faithful in all his house.

3 For this man was counted worthy of more glory than Moses, inasmuch as he who hath builded the house hath more honour than the house.

4 For every house is builded by some man; but [b] he that built all things is God.

5 And Moses verily was faithful in all his house, [d] as a servant, for a testimony of those things which were to be spoken after;

6 But Christ [g] as a son over his own house; [h] whose house are we, [i] if we hold fast the confidence and the rejoicing of the [m] hope firm unto the end.

7 Wherefore [o] (as the Holy Ghost saith, [r] To day if ye will hear his voice,

8 Harden not your hearts, as in the provocation, in the day of temptation in the wilderness:

9 When your fathers tempted me, proved me, and saw my works forty years.

10 Wherefore I was grieved with that generation, and said, They do alway err in their heart; and they have not known my ways.

11 So I sware in my wrath, They shall not enter into my rest.)

12 Take heed, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief, in departing from [b] the living God.

13 But [c] exhort one another daily, [d] while it is called To day; lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin.

14 For we are made partakers of Christ, [f] if we hold the beginning of our confidence stedfast unto the end;

15 While it is said, [i] To day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts, as in the provocation.

16 For some, when they had heard, did provoke: [5] howbeit not [m] all that came out of Egypt by Moses.

17 But with whom was he grieved forty years? was it not with them that had sinned, [o] whose carcases fell in the wilderness?

18 And to whom sware he that they should not enter into his rest, but to them that believed not?

19 So we see that [s] they could not enter in because of unbelief.

CHAPTER 4

LET us therefore fear, lest, a promise being left us of entering into his rest, any of you should seem [u] to come short of it.

2 For unto us was the gospel preached, as well as unto them: [b] but the word preached did not profit them, [2] not being mixed with faith in them that heard it.

3 For we which have believed do enter into rest, as he said, [e] As I have sworn in my wrath, if they shall enter into my rest: although the works were finished from the foundation of the world.

4 For he spake in a certain place of the seventh day on this wise, [h] And God did rest the seventh day from all his works.

5 And in this place again, [k] If they shall enter into my rest.

6 Seeing therefore it remaineth that some must enter therein, and they to whom it was first preached [n] entered not in because of unbelief:

7 Again, he limiteth a certain day, saying in David, To day, after so long a time; as it is said, [p] To day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

8 For if [3s] Jesus had given them rest, then would he not afterward have spoken of another day.

9 There remaineth therefore a rest to the people of God.

10 For he that is entered into his rest, he also [x] hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his.

11 Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief.

12 For the word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any [c] twoedged [d] sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart.

13 [h] Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do.

14 Seeing then that we have a [k] great high priest, [l] that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the [o] Son of God, [p] let us hold fast our profession.

15 For we have not an high priest [r] which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points [a] tempted like as we are, yet [c] without sin.

16 Let us therefore [d] come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need.

CHAPTER 5

FOR [f] every high priest taken from among men is ordained for men [g] in things pertaining to God, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins:

2 [i] Who can have compassion on the ignorant, and on them that are out of the way; for that he himself also is [l] compassed with infirmity.

3 And by reason hereof he ought, as for the people, [m] so also for himself, to offer for sins.

4 And no man taketh this honour unto himself, but he that is called of God, [o] as was Aaron.

5 So also Christ glorified not himself to be made an [q] high priest; but he that said unto him, [r] Thou art my Son, to day have I begotten thee.

6 As he saith also in another place, [t] Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Měl-chĭs'-ĕd-ĕc.

7 Who in the days of his flesh, [u] when he had offered up prayers and supplications [y] with strong crying and tears unto [z] him that was able to save him from death, and was heard in that he feared;

8 [a] Though he were a Son, yet [b] learned he obedience by the things which he suffered;

9 And [e] being made perfect, he became the [4f] author of eternal salvation unto all them that obey him;

10 Called of God an high priest [g] after the order of Měl-chĭs'-ĕd-ĕc.

11 Of whom we have [i] many things to say, and hard to be uttered, seeing ye are dull of hearing.

12 For when for the time ye ought to be teachers, ye have need that one teach you again which be the first [m] principles of [n] the oracles of God; and are become [q] such as have need of milk, and not of strong meat.

13 For every one that useth milk is unskilful in the word of righteousness: for he is a babe.

CHAPTER 6

THEREFORE leaving the [f] principles of the doctrine of Christ, let us go on [h] unto [2] perfection; not laying again the foundation of repentance [i] from dead works, and of faith toward God,

2 Of the doctrine of [m] baptisms, and of [n] laying on of hands, and of [o] resurrection of the dead, and of [p] eternal judgment.

3 And this will we do, [r] if God permit.

4 For [s] it is impossible for those who were once [u] enlightened, and have tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made [3] partakers of the Holy Ghost,

5 And have [y] tasted the good word of God, and the powers of [z] the [4] world to come,

6 If they shall fall away, to renew them again unto repentance; seeing [c] they crucify to themselves the [d] Son of God afresh, and put him to an open shame.

7 For the earth which drinketh in the rain that cometh oft upon it, and bringeth forth herbs meet for them by whom it is dressed, receiveth blessing from God:

8 But [g] that which beareth thorns and briers is [h] rejected, and is nigh unto cursing; [i] whose end is to be burned.

9 But, beloved, we are persuaded better things of you, and things that accompany salvation, though we thus speak.

10 For God is not unrighteous to forget your work and [l] labour of love, which ye have shewed toward his name, in that ye have [m] ministered to the saints, and do minister.

11 And we desire that every one of you do shew the same diligence to the full assurance of [n] hope unto the end:

12 That ye be not slothful, but [p] followers of them who through faith and patience inherit the promises.

13 For when God made promise to Abraham, because he could swear by no greater, [b] he sware by himself,

14 Saying, [c] Surely blessing I will bless thee, and multiplying I will multiply thee.

15 And so, after he had patiently endured, he obtained the promise.

16 For men verily swear by the greater: and [g] an oath for confirmation is to them an end of all strife.

17 Wherein God, willing more abundantly to shew unto [k] the heirs of promise [l] the immutability of his counsel, confirmed it by an oath:

18 That by two immutable things, in which [q] it was impossible for God to lie, we might have a strong consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the hope [t] set before us:

19 Which hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and stedfast, and which entereth into that [x] within the veil;

20 Whither the forerunner is for us [a] entered, even Jesus, made an [b] high priest for ever after the order of Mĕl-chĭš-ĕd-ĕc.

CHAPTER 7

FOR [e] this Mĕl-chĭš-ĕd-ĕc, king of Salem, priest of the [f] most high God, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings, and blessed him;

2 To whom also Abraham gave a tenth part of all; first being by interpretation King of righteousness, and after that also King of Salem, which is, King of peace;

3 Without father, without mother, without descent, having neither beginning of days, nor end of life; but made like unto the [k] Son of God; abideth a priest continually.

4 Now consider how great this man was, unto whom even the patriarch Abraham gave the tenth of the spoils.

5 And verily they that are of the sons of Levi, who receive the office of the priesthood, have a commandment [o] to take tithes of the people according to the law, that is, of their brethren, though they come out of the loins of Abraham:

6 But he whose descent is not counted from them received tithes of Abraham, and blessed [a] him that had the promises.

7 And without all contradiction the less is blessed of the better.

8 And here men that die receive tithes; but there he receiveth them, of whom it is witnessed that he liveth.

9 And as I may so say, Levi also, who receiveth tithes, payed tithes in Abraham.

10 For he was yet in the loins of his father, when Měl-chĭs'ĕd-ĕc met him.

11 [e] If therefore perfection were by the Levitical priesthood, (for under it the people received the law,) what further need was there that another priest should rise after the order of Měl-chĭs'ĕd-ĕc, and not be called after the order of Aaron?

12 For the priesthood being changed, there is made of necessity a change also of the law.

13 For he of whom these things are spoken pertaineth to another tribe, of which no man gave attendance at the altar.

14 For it is evident that our Lord sprang [p] out of Juda; of which tribe Moses spake nothing concerning priesthood.

15 And it is yet far more evident: for that after the similitude of Měl-chĭs'ĕd-ĕc there ariseth another priest, 16 Who is made, not after the law of a carnal commandment, but [s] after the power of an endless life.

17 For he testifieth, [u] Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Měl-chĭs'ĕd-ĕc.

18 [y] For there is verily a disannulling of the commandment going before for the weakness and unprofitableness thereof.

19 For [z] the law made nothing perfect, but the bringing in of [a] a better hope did; by the which [c] we draw nigh unto God.

20 And inasmuch as not without an oath he was made priest:

21 (For those priests were made without an oath; but this with an oath by him that said unto him, [g] The Lord sware and will not repent, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Měl-chĭs'ĕd-ĕc:)

22 By so much was Jesus made a [b] surety of [c] a better testament.

23 And they truly were many priests, because they were not suffered to continue by reason of death:

24 But this man, because he continueth ever, [2]hath an unchangeable priesthood.

25 Wherefore he is able also to save them [3]to the uttermost that come unto God by him, [d] seeing he ever liveth [f] to make intercession for them.

26 For such an [g] high priest became us, who is [h] holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners, and [i] made higher than the heavens;

27 Who needeth not daily, [k] as those high priests, to offer up sacrifice, [l] first for his own sins, and then for the people's: for this [m] he did once, when he offered up himself.

28 For the law maketh men high priests which [n] have infirmity; but the word of the oath, which was since the law, maketh the Son, who is [4o] consecrated for evermore.

CHAPTER 8

NOW of the things which we have spoken this is the sum: We have [q] such an high priest, [r] who is set on the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens;

2 A minister of the sanctuary, and of [t] the true tabernacle, which the Lord pitched, and not man.

3 For [x] every high priest is ordained to offer gifts and sacrifices: wherefore it is of necessity that this man have somewhat also to offer.

4 For if he were on earth, he should not be a priest, seeing that there are priests that offer gifts according to the law:

5 Who serve unto the [b] example and [d] shadow of heavenly things, as Moses was admonished of God when he was about [e] to make the tabernacle: for, [f] See, saith he, that thou make all things according to the pattern shewed to thee in the mount.

6 But now hath he obtained a more excellent ministry, by how much also he is the [a] mediator of [b] a better covenant, which was established upon better promises.

7 For [e] if that first covenant had been faultless, then should no place have been sought for the second.

8 For finding fault with them, he saith, [g] Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah:

9 Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt; because they continued not in my covenant, and I regarded them not, saith the Lord.

10 For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, saith the Lord; I will put my laws into their mind, and write them in their hearts: and I will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people:

11 And they shall not teach every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for all shall know me, from the least to the greatest.

12 For I will be merciful to their unrighteousness, and their sins and their iniquities will I remember no more.

13 In that he saith, A new covenant, he hath made the first old. Now [y] that which decayeth and waxeth old is ready to vanish away.

CHAPTER 9

THEN verily the first covenant had also ordinances of divine [b] service, and a worldly sanctuary.

2 For there was a [c] tabernacle made; the first, wherein was the [f] candlestick, and the [h] table, and the [i] shewbread; which is called the sanctuary.

3 And after the second [m] veil, the tabernacle which is called the [o] Holiest of all;

4 Which had the golden [2b] censer, and [q] the ark of the covenant overlaid round about with gold, wherein was [t] the golden pot that had [u] manna, and [x] Aaron's rod that budded, [y] and the tables of the covenant;

5 And over it the [c] chĕr'-ū-bĭms of glory shadowing the [d] mercyseat; of which we cannot now speak particularly.

6 Now when these things were thus ordained, [f] the priests went always into the first tabernacle, accomplishing the service of God.

7 But into the second went the [h] high priest [i] alone [k] once every year, not without blood, which he [l] offered for himself, and for the errors of the people:

8 [m] The Holy Ghost this signifying, that [n] the way into the holiest of all was not yet made manifest, while as the first tabernacle was yet standing:

9 Which was a figure for the time then present, in which were offered both gifts and sacrifices, [o] that could not make him that did the service perfect, as pertaining to the conscience;

10 Which stood only in [p] meats and drinks, and divers washings, and carnal ordinances, imposed on them until the time of reformation.

11 But Christ being come an [q] high priest of [r] good things to come, by a greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this building;

12 Neither by [t] the blood of goats and calves, but [u] by his own blood he entered in [x] once into the holy place, [z] having obtained eternal redemption for us.

13 For if the blood of bulls and of goats, and the [a] ashes of an heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctifieth to the purifying of the flesh:

14 How much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit [d] offered himself [e] without spot to God, [g] purge your conscience from [k] dead works [l] to serve the living God?

15 And for this cause he is the [n] mediator of the [n] new testament, that by means of death, for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first testament, they [r] which are called [s] might receive the promise of eternal inheritance.

16 For where a testament is, there must also of necessity be the death of the testator.

17 [a] For a testament is of force after men are dead: otherwise it is of no strength at all while the testator liveth.

18 Whereupon neither the first testament was dedicated without blood.

19 For when Moses had spoken every precept to all the people according to the law, [c] he took the blood of calves and of goats, with water, and scarlet wool, and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book, and all the people,

20 [f] Saying, This is the blood of the testament which God hath enjoined unto you.

21 [i] Moreover he sprinkled with blood both the tabernacle, and all the vessels of the ministry.

22 And almost all things are by the law purged with blood; and [k] without shedding of blood is no remission.

23 It was therefore necessary that the [l] patterns of things in the heavens should be purified with these; but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these.

24 For Christ is not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of [m] the true; but [n] into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God [q] for us:

25 Nor yet that he should offer himself often, as the high priest entereth into the holy place every year with blood of others;

26 For then must he often have suffered since the foundation of the world: but now once in [2u] the end of the world [x] hath he appeared to put away sin [z] by the sacrifice of himself.

27 And as [a] it is appointed unto men once to die, but [c] after this the judgment:

28 So Christ was once offered [d] to bear the sins of many; and unto them that look for him shall he [f] appear the second time without sin unto salvation.

CHAPTER 10

FOR the law having [h] a shadow of [i] good things to come, and not the very image of the things, [l] can never with those sacrifices which they offered year by year continually make the comers thereunto perfect.

2 For then would they not have ceased to be offered? because that the worshippers once [b] purged should have had no more conscience of sins.

3 But in those sacrifices there is a remembrance again made of sins [d] every year.

4 For it is not possible that [e] the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sins.

5 Wherefore [g] when he cometh into the world, he saith, [h] Sacrifice and offering thou wouldest not, but a body hast thou prepared me:

6 In burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin thou hast had no pleasure.

7 Then said I, Lo, I come (in the volume of the book it is written of me,) to do thy will, O God.

8 Above when he said, Sacrifice and offering and burnt offerings and offering for sin thou wouldest not, neither hadst pleasure therein; which are offered by the law;

9 Then said he, Lo, I come to do thy will, O God. He taketh away the first, that he may establish the second.

10 By the which will we are [o] sanctified [p] through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ [r] once for all.

11 And every priest standeth [s] daily ministering and offering oftentimes the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins:

12 But this man, after he had offered one sacrifice for sins for ever, [t] sat down on the right hand of God;

13 From henceforth expecting [y] till his enemies be made his footstool.

14 For by one offering [b] he hath perfected for ever them that are sanctified.

15 Whereof [e] the Holy Ghost also is a witness to us: for after that he had said before,

16 [g] This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, saith the Lord, I will put my laws into their hearts, and in their minds will I write them;

17 [k] And their sins and iniquities will I remember no more.

18 Now [a] where remission of these is, there is no more offering for sin.

19 [c] Having therefore, brethren, boldness to enter into the holiest [d] by the blood of Jesus,

20 [e] By a new and living way, which he hath consecrated for us, [g] through the veil, that is to say, his flesh;

21 And having an [i] high priest over [l] the house of God;

22 [m] Let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts [o] sprinkled from an evil conscience, and our bodies washed with pure water.

30 For we know him that hath said, [s] Vengeance belongeth unto me, I will recompense, saith the Lord. And again, [t] The Lord shall judge his people.

31 [u] It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of [x] the living God.

34 For [f] ye had compassion of me in my bonds, and [h] took joyfully the spoiling of your goods, knowing in yourselves that [k] ye have in heaven a better and an enduring substance.

35 Cast not away therefore your confidence, which hath great [n] recompence of reward.

36 [p] For ye have need of [q] patience, that, after ye [r] have done the will of God, ye might receive the promise.

37 For [t] yet a little while, and [u] he that shall come will come, and will not tarry.

38 Now the just shall live by faith: but if any man draw back, my soul shall have no pleasure in him.

39 But we are not of them who draw back unto perdition; but of them that believe to [2] the saving of the soul.

CHAPTER 11

NOW faith is the [3] substance of things hoped for, the [4] evidence of [f] things not seen.

2 For by it the elders [g] obtained a good report.

3 Through faith we understand that [k] the [5] worlds were framed by the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear.

4 By faith [m] Abel offered unto God a more excellent sacrifice than [o] Cain, by which he obtained witness that he was righteous, God testifying of his gifts: and by it he being dead yet speaketh.

5 By faith [r] Enoch was translated that he should not see death; and was not found, because God had translated him: for before his translation he had this testimony, that he pleased God.

6 But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that [y] he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.

7 By faith [b] Noah, being warned of God of things not seen as yet, moved with [2]fear, [a] prepared an ark to the saving of his house; by the which he condemned the world, and became [e] heir of the righteousness which is by faith.

8 By faith Abraham, [g] when he was called to go out into a place which he should after receive for an inheritance, obeyed; and he went out, not knowing whither he went.

9 By faith he sojourned in the [k] land of promise, as in a strange country, dwelling in tabernacles with [m] Isaac and [n] Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise:

10 For he looked for [o] a city which hath foundations, whose builder and maker is God.

11 Through faith also [q] Sara herself received strength to [r] conceive seed, and was delivered of a child when she was past age, because she judged [t] him faithful who had promised.

12 Therefore sprang there even of one, and [u] him as good as dead, so many [y] as the stars of the sky in multitude, [a] and as the sand which is by the sea shore innumerable.

13 These all died in faith, [c] not having received the promises, but [e] having seen them afar off, and were persuaded of them, and embraced them, and confessed [f] that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth.

14 For they that say such things declare plainly that [h] they seek a country.

15 And truly, if they had been mindful of that country from whence they came out, they might have had opportunity to have returned.

16 But now they desire a better country, that is, an heavenly: wherefore God [l] is not ashamed [m] to be called their God: for he hath prepared for them [o] a city.

17 By faith Abraham, [p] when he was tried, [q] offered up Isaac; and he that had received the promises offered up his only begotten son,

18 Of whom it was said, That [z] in Isaac shall thy seed be called:

19 [a] Accounting that God was able to raise him up, even from the dead; from whence also he received him in a figure.

20 By faith [b] Isaac blessed Jacob and [c] Esau concerning things to come.

21 By faith [d] Jacob, when he was a dying, blessed both the sons of Joseph; and [f] worshipped, leaning upon the top of his staff.

22 By faith [h] Joseph, when he died, [i] made mention of the departing of the children of Israel; and gave commandment concerning his bones.

23 By faith [l] Moses, when he was born, was hid three months of his parents, because they saw he was a proper child; and they were not afraid of the king's commandment.

24 By faith Moses, [p] when he was come to years, refused to be called the son of Phâr'-aōh's daughter;

25 Choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season;

26 Esteeming [s] the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures in Egypt: for he had respect unto [x] the recompence of the reward.

27 By faith he [z] forsook Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king: for he endured, as seeing him who is [b] invisible.

28 Through faith [d] he kept the passover, and the sprinkling of blood, lest he that destroyed the firstborn should touch them.

29 By faith [g] they passed through the Red sea as by dry land: which the Egyptians assaying to do were drowned.

30 By faith [i] the walls of Jericho fell down, after they were compassed about seven days.

31 By faith the harlot [k] Rahab perished not with them that believed not, when she [n] had received the spies with peace.

32 And what shall I more say? for the time would fail me to tell of [r] Gedeon, and of [s] Barak, and of [t] Samson, and of [u] Jĕph'-thæ; of [x] David also, and [y] Samuel, and of the prophets:

33 Who through faith subdued kingdoms, wrought righteousness, obtained promises, [b] stopped the mouths of lions,

34 [c] Quenched the violence of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, [a] out of weakness were made strong, waxed valiant in fight, turned to flight the armies of the aliens.

35 [d] Women received their dead raised to life again: and others were tortured, not accepting deliverance; that they might obtain [e] a better resurrection:

36 And others had trial of cruel mockings and scourgings, yea, moreover of bonds and imprisonment:

37 They were [f] stoned, they were sawn asunder, were tempted, were slain with the sword: they wandered about in sheepskins and goatskins; being destitute, afflicted, tormented;

38 (Of whom the world was not worthy:) they wandered in deserts, and in mountains, and in dens and caves of the earth.

39 And [i] these all, having obtained a good report through faith, [l] received not the promise:

40 God having provided some better thing for us, that they without us [n] should not be made perfect.

CHAPTER 12

WHEREFORE seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and [t] let us run with patience the race that is [x] set before us,

2 [z] Looking unto Jesus the [2a] author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him [b] endured the cross, despising the shame, and [e] is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.

3 For [g] consider him that endured such contradiction of sinners against himself, lest ye be wearied [h] and faint in your minds.

4 Ye have not yet resisted unto blood, striving against sin.

5 And ye have forgotten the exhortation which speaketh unto you as unto children, [l] My son, despise not thou the chastening of the Lord, nor faint when thou art rebuked of him:

6 For whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth, and scourgeth every son whom he receiveth.

7 If ye endure [b] chastening, God dealeth with you [c] as with sons; for what son is he whom the father chasteneth not?

8 But if ye be without chastisement, whereof all are partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sons.

9 Furthermore we have had fathers of our flesh which corrected us, and we gave them reverence: shall we not much rather be in subjection unto [g] the Father of spirits, and live?

10 For they verily for a few days chastened us after their own pleasure; but he for our profit, [h] that we might be partakers of his holiness.

11 Now no chastening for the present seemeth to be joyous, but grievous: nevertheless afterward it yieldeth the [k] peaceable fruit of righteousness unto them which are exercised thereby.

12 Wherefore [m] lift up the hands which hang down, and the feeble knees;

13 And [o] make straight paths for your feet, lest that which is lame be turned out of the way; but [p] let it rather be healed.

14 [q] Follow peace with all men, and [r] holiness, [s] without which no man shall see the Lord:

15 Looking diligently [u] lest any man fail of the grace of God; lest any [y] root of bitterness springing up trouble you, and thereby many be defiled;

16 Lest there be any fornicator, or profane person, as [c] Esau, [d] who for one morsel of meat sold his birthright.

17 For ye know how that [f] afterward, when he would have inherited the blessing, he was rejected: for he found no place of repentance, though he sought it carefully with tears.

18 For ye are not come [i] unto the mount that might be touched, and [k] that burned with fire, nor unto blackness, and darkness, and tempest,

19 And [m] the sound of a trumpet, and the voice of words; [n] which voice they that heard intreated that the word should not be spoken to them any more:

20 (For they could not endure that which was commanded, And [a] if so much as a beast touch the mountain, it shall be stoned, or thrust through with a dart:

21 And [d] so terrible was the sight, that Moses said, I exceedingly fear and quake:)

22 But ye are come unto [g] mount Sion, and unto the [h] city of the [i] living God, the [k] heavenly Jerusalem, and to an [m] innumerable company of angels,

23 To the general assembly and church of the [o] firstborn, which are [p] written in heaven, and to [q] God the Judge of all, and to the [r] spirits of just men made perfect,

24 And to Jesus the [t] mediator of the [t] new covenant, and to the blood of [u] sprinkling, that [x] speaketh better things than that of [z] Abel.

25 See that ye refuse not him that speaketh. For [a] if they escaped not who refused him that spake on earth, [c] much more shall not we escape, if we turn away from him that speaketh from heaven:

26 [e] Whose voice then shook the earth: but now he hath promised, saying, [h] Yet once more I shake not the earth only, but also heaven.

27 And this word, Yet once more, signifieth [l] the removing of those things that are shaken, as of things that are made, that those things which cannot be shaken may remain.

28 Wherefore we receiving [n] a kingdom which cannot be moved, let us have grace, whereby we may serve God acceptably with reverence and godly fear:

29 For [r] our God is a consuming fire.

CHAPTER 13

LET [u] brotherly love continue.

2 [x] Be not forgetful to entertain strangers: for thereby [z] some have entertained angels unawares.

3 [b] Remember them that are in bonds, as bound with them; and them which suffer adversity, as being yourselves also in the body.

4 [e] Marriage is honourable in all, and the bed undefiled: but [f] whoremongers and adulterers God will judge.

5 Let your conversation be [b] without covetousness; and [c] be content with such things as ye have: for he hath said, [e] I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee.

6 So that we may boldly say, [f] The Lord is my helper, and I will not fear what man shall do unto me.

7 Remember them [l] which have the rule over you, who have spoken unto you the word of God: [n] whose faith follow, considering the end of their conversation.

8 Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever.

9 [s] Be not carried about with divers and strange doctrines. For it is a good thing that the heart be established with grace; [y] not with meats, which have not profited them that have been occupied therein.

10 We have an altar, [b] whereof they have no right to eat which serve the tabernacle.

11 For the bodies of those beasts, [d] whose blood is brought into the sanctuary by the [f] high priest for sin, are burned [g] without the camp.

12 Wherefore Jesus also, [i] that he might sanctify the people with his own blood, suffered [k] without the gate.

13 Let us go forth therefore unto him without the camp, bearing [m] his reproach.

14 For here have we no continuing city, but [o] we seek one to come.

15 By him therefore let us offer the [p] sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the [q] fruit of our lips giving thanks to his name.

16 But to do good and [s] to communicate forget not: for [t] with such sacrifices God is well pleased.

17 [y] Obey them that have the rule over you, and submit yourselves: for [a] they watch for your souls, as they that must give account, [c] that they may do it with joy, and not with grief: for that is unprofitable for you.

18 [d] Pray for us: for we trust we have a good conscience, in all things willing to live honestly.

THE GENERAL EPISTLE OF JAMES

CHAPTER 1

c. A.D. 60

[a] JAMES, a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ, to the [c] twelve tribes [2] which are [d] scattered abroad, greeting.

2 My brethren, [h] count it all joy when ye fall into [i] divers [3] temptations;

3 Knowing this, that the [k] trying of your faith worketh patience.

4 But [l] let patience have her perfect work, [m] that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing.

5 [n] If any of you lack wisdom, [o] let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him.

6 But let him ask in faith, [s] nothing wavering. For [t] he that wavereth is like a wave of the sea driven with the wind and tossed.

7 For let not that man think that he shall receive any thing of the Lord.

8 [z] A double minded man is unstable in all his ways.

9 Let the brother of low degree rejoice in that he is exalted:

10 But [c] the rich, in that he is made low: because [d] as the flower of the grass he shall pass away.

11 For [h] the sun is no sooner risen with a burning [i] heat, but it withereth the grass, and the flower thereof falleth, and the grace of the fashion of it perisheth: so also shall the rich man fade away in his ways.

12 [b] Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tried, he shall receive the [e] crown of life, [f] which the Lord hath promised [g] to them that love him.

13 Let no man say when he is tempted, I am tempted of God: for God cannot be tempted with evil, neither tempteth he any man:

14 But every man is tempted, when he is drawn away of his own lust, and enticed.

15 Then [p] when lust hath conceived, it [q] bringeth forth sin: and sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth death.

16 [r] Do not err, my beloved brethren.

17 Every good gift and every perfect gift is [u] from above, and cometh down from the [x] Father of lights, [y] with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning.

18 Of his own will [a] begat he us with the word of truth, that we should be a kind of [b] firstfruits of his creatures.

19 Wherefore, my beloved brethren, let every man be [e] swift to hear, [f] slow to speak, [g] slow to wrath:

20 For the wrath of man worketh not the righteousness of God.

21 Wherefore [k] lay apart all filthiness and superfluity of naughtiness, and receive with meekness the engrafted word, [b] which is able to save your souls.

22 But be ye [c] doers of the word, and [d] not hearers only, deceiving your own selves.

23 For if any be a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding his natural face [f] in a glass:

24 For he beholdeth himself, and goeth his way, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was.

25 But whoso looketh into the perfect [h] law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed.

26 If any man among you seem to be religious, and [l] bridleth not his tongue, but deceiveth his own heart, this man's religion is vain.

27 Pure religion and undefiled before God and the Father is this, [m] To visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to [p] keep himself unspotted from the world.

CHAPTER 2

MY brethren, have not the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, [q] the Lord of glory, with [r] respect of persons.

2 For if there come unto your assembly a man with a gold ring, in goodly apparel, and there come in also a poor man in vile raiment;

3 And ye have respect to him that weareth the gay clothing, and say unto him, Sit thou here in a good place; and say to the poor, Stand thou there, or sit here under my footstool:

4 Are ye not then partial in yourselves, and are become judges of evil thoughts?

5 Hearken, my beloved brethren, [z] Hath not God chosen the poor of this world rich in faith, and [a] heirs of the kingdom [b] which he hath promised to [c] them that love him?

6 But [e] ye have despised the poor. [f] Do not rich men oppress you, and draw you before the judgment seats?

7 Do not they blaspheme that worthy [h] name by the which ye are called?

8 If ye fulfil the royal law according to the scripture, [a] Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself, ye do well:

9 But if ye have respect to persons, ye commit sin, and are convinced of the law as transgressors.

10 For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, [e] he is guilty of all.

11 For he that said, [g] Do not commit adultery, said also, [g] Do not kill. Now if thou commit no adultery, yet if thou kill, thou art become a transgressor of the law.

12 So speak ye, and so do, as they that shall be judged by the [i] law of liberty.

13 For [k] he shall have judgment without mercy, that hath shewed no mercy; and mercy rejoiceth against judgment.

14 What doth it profit, my brethren, though a man say he hath faith, and [n] have not works? can faith save him?

15 [o] If a brother or sister be naked, and destitute of daily food,

16 And one of you say unto them, Depart in peace, be ye warmed and filled; notwithstanding ye give them not those things which are needful to the body; what doth it profit?

17 Even so faith, if it hath not works, is dead, being alone.

18 Yea, a man may say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: shew me thy faith without thy works, and I will shew thee my faith [s] by my works.

19 [t] Thou believest that [2] there is one God; thou doest well: [u] the devils also believe, and tremble.

20 But wilt thou know, O vain man, that faith without works is dead?

21 Was not Abraham [x] our father justified by works, when he had [y] offered Isaac his son upon the altar?

22 Seest thou how faith wrought with his works, and by works was faith made perfect?

23 And the scripture was fulfilled which saith, [d] Abraham believed God, and it was imputed unto him for righteousness: and he was called [g] the Friend of God.

24 Ye see then how that by works a man is justified, and not by faith only.

25 Likewise also was not [i] Rahab the harlot justified by works, when she had received the messengers, and had sent them out another way?

CHAPTER 3

MY brethren, [d] be not many [3]masters, knowing that we shall receive the greater condemnation.

2 For [e] in many things [4]we offend all. [g] If any man offend not in word, the same is a perfect man, and able also to bridle the whole body.

3 Behold, [i] we put bits in the horses' mouths, that they may obey us; and we turn about their whole body.

4 Behold also the ships, which though they be so great, and are driven of fierce winds, yet are they turned about with a very small helm, whithersoever the governor listeth.

5 Even so the tongue is a little member, and boasteth great things. Behold, [5]how great a matter a little fire kindleth!

6 And [n] the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity: so is the tongue among our members, that it defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire [6]the course of nature; and it is set on fire of hell.

7 For every kind of beasts, and of birds, and of serpents, and of things in the sea, is tamed, and [s] hath been tamed of mankind:

8 But the tongue can no man tame; it is an unruly evil, [u] full of deadly poison.

9 Therewith bless we God, even the Father; and therewith curse we men, [z] which are made after the similitude of God.

10 Out of the same mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not so to be.

11 Doth a fountain send forth at the same place sweet water and bitter?

12 [f] Can the fig tree, my brethren, bear olive berries? either a vine, figs? so can no fountain both yield salt water and fresh.

13 Who is a wise man and endued with knowledge among you? [a] let him shew out of a good conversation his works with meekness of wisdom.

14 But [b] if ye have bitter envying and strife in your hearts, glory not, and lie not against the truth.

15 This wisdom descendeth not from above, but is earthly, [2c] sensual, devilish.

16 For where envying and strife is, there is confusion and every evil work.

17 But the wisdom that is [f] from above is first pure, then [h] peaceable, gentle, and easy to be intreated, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality, and without hypocrisy.

18 And [k] the fruit of righteousness [l] is sown in peace of them that make peace.

CHAPTER 4

FROM whence come wars and fightings among you? come they not hence, even of your lusts [m] that war in your members?

2 Ye lust, and have not: ye kill, and desire to have, and cannot obtain: ye fight and war, yet ye have not, because ye ask not.

3 Ye ask, and receive not, because [o] ye ask amiss, that ye may consume it upon your lusts.

4 [p] Ye adulterers and adulteresses, [q] know ye not that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? [r] whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the [t] enemy of God.

5 Do ye think that the scripture saith in vain, [7]The spirit that dwelleth in us lusteth [x] to envy?

6 But he giveth more grace. Wherefore he saith, [y] God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace unto the humble.

7 Submit yourselves therefore to God. [a] Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.

8 [b] Draw nigh to God, and [c] he will draw nigh to you. [d] Cleanse your hands, ye sinners; and [e] purify your hearts, ye [g] double minded.

9 [h] Be afflicted, and mourn, and weep: let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your joy to heaviness.

10 [i] Humble yourselves in the sight

11 [a] Speak not evil one of another, brethren. He that speaketh evil of his brother, and [d] judgeth his brother, speaketh evil of the law, and judgeth the law: but if thou judge the law, thou art not a doer of the law, but a judge.

14 Whereas [k] ye know not what shall be on the morrow. For what is your life? It is even [n] a vapour, that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away.

15 For that ye ought to say, [q] If the Lord will, we shall live, and do this, or that.

16 But now ye rejoice in your boastings: [s] all such rejoicing is evil.

17 Therefore [t] to him that knoweth to do good, and doeth it not, to him it is sin.

CHAPTER 5

[y] GO to now, ye rich men, weep and howl for your miseries that shall come upon you.

2 Your riches are corrupted, and your garments are [b] motheaten.

3 Your gold and silver is cankered; and the rust of them shall be [d] a witness against you, and shall eat your flesh as it were fire. Ye have heaped treasure together for [g] the last days.

4 Behold, [h] the hire of the labourers who have reaped down your fields, which is of you kept back by fraud, [k] crieth: and the cries of them which have reaped are entered into the ears of the [m] Lord of [z] sabaoth.

5 [n] Ye have lived in pleasure on the earth, and been wanton; ye have nourished your hearts, as in a [p] day of slaughter.

6 Ye have condemned and killed [r] the just; and he doth not resist you.

7 [s] Be patient therefore, brethren, [t] unto the coming of the Lord. Behold, the husbandman waiteth for the precious fruit of the earth, and hath long patience for it, until he receive [b] the early and [c] latter rain.

8 Be ye also patient; stablish your hearts: for the coming of the Lord draweth nigh.

9 Grudge not one against another, brethren, [e] lest ye be condemned: behold, [h] the judge standeth before the door.

10 Take, my brethren, [i] the prophets, who have spoken in the name of the Lord, for an example of suffering affliction, and of patience.

11 Behold, we count them happy [l] which endure. Ye have heard of [m] the patience of Job, and have seen [o] the end of [p] the Lord; that the Lord is very pitiful, and of tender mercy.

12 But above all things, my brethren, [r] swear not, neither by heaven, neither by the earth, neither by any other oath: but let your yea be yea; and your nay, nay; lest ye fall into condemnation.

13 Is any among you afflicted? let him pray. Is any merry? [u] let him sing psalms.

14 Is any sick among you? let him call for the [x] elders of the church; and [z] let them pray over him, [a] anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord:

15 And the prayer of faith shall save the sick, and the Lord shall raise him up; and [c] if he have committed sins, they shall be forgiven him.

16 [e] Confess your faults one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed. [f] The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much.

17 [i] Ē-lī'-ăs was a man subject to like passions as we are, and he prayed earnestly that it might not rain: [l] and it rained not on the earth by the space of three years and six months.

18 And [o] he prayed again, and the heaven gave rain, and the earth brought forth her fruit.

19 Brethren, if any of you do err from the truth, and one [q] convert him;

20 Let him know, that he which converteth the sinner from the error of his way, [u] shall save a soul from death, and [x] shall hide a multitude of sins.

THE FIRST EPISTLE GENERAL OF PETER

CHAPTER 1

PETER, an apostle of Jesus Christ, to the strangers [2][b]scattered throughout [c]Pontus, [d]Galatia, [c]Căp-pă-dō'çi-ă, [e]Asia, and [f]Bī-thȳn'i-ă,

2 [g]Elect according to the [h]foreknowledge of God the Father, through [i]sanctification of the Spirit, unto obedience and [l]sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ: Grace unto you, and [n]peace, be multiplied.

3 [p]Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy [r]hath begotten us again unto [s]a lively hope by the [t]resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead,

4 To an [y]inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and [z]that fadeth not away, [b]reserved in heaven for you,

5 Who [d]are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation [f]ready to be revealed in the last time.

6 Wherein ye greatly rejoice, though now for a season, if need be, ye are in heaviness through [i]manifold temptations:

7 That the [l]trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honour and [n]glory at the [o]appearing of Jesus Christ:

8 [p]Whom having not seen, [q]ye love; in whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory:

9 Receiving [x]the end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls.

10 Of which salvation [a]the prophets have enquired and searched diligently, who prophesied of the grace that should come unto you:

11 [e]Searching what, or what manner of time the [g]Spirit of Christ which was in them [h]did signify, when it testified beforehand [a]the sufferings of Christ, and the glory that should follow.

12 Unto whom it was revealed, that not unto themselves, but unto us they did minister the things, which are now reported unto you by them that have preached the gospel unto you with [k]the Holy Ghost sent down from heaven; [m]which things the angels desire to look into.

13 Wherefore [o]gird up the loins of your mind, [q]be sober, and hope to the end for the grace that is to be brought unto you at the revelation of Jesus Christ;

14 [u]As obedient children, [x]not fashioning yourselves according to the former lusts in your ignorance:

15 But [a]as he which hath called you [c]is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conversation;

16 Because it is written, [e]Be ye holy; for I am holy.

17 And if ye call on the Father, [g]who without respect of persons [h]judgeth according to every man's work, pass the time of your sojourning here [k]in fear:

18 Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not [m]redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers;

19 But with the precious blood of Christ, as of [r]a lamb without blemish and [s]without spot:

20 [t]Who verily was foreordained [u]before the foundation of the world, but [y]was manifest in these [z]last times for you,

21 Who by him [b]do believe in God, that [c]raised him up from the dead, and [d]gave him glory; that your faith and hope might be in God.

22 Seeing ye [f]have purified your souls in obeying the truth through the Spirit unto unfeigned love of the brethren, see that ye [a] love one another with a [b] pure heart fervently:

23 [c] Being born again, [d] not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, [g] which liveth and abideth for ever.

24 For [i] all flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away:

25 But the word of the Lord endureth for ever. And this is the word which by the gospel is preached unto you.

CHAPTER 2

WHEREFORE [p] laying aside all malice, and all guile, and hypocrisies, and envies, and all evil speakings,

2 As [r] newborn babes, desire the [2] sincere milk of the word, that ye may [t] grow thereby:

3 If so be ye have [x] tasted that the Lord is gracious.

4 To whom coming, as unto a living stone, [b] disallowed indeed of men, but chosen of God, and precious,

5 Ye also, as lively stones, [d] are built up a spiritual house, [f] an holy priesthood, to offer up [g] spiritual sacrifices, [h] acceptable to God by Jesus Christ.

6 Wherefore also it is contained in the scripture, [k] Behold, I lay in Sion a chief corner stone, elect, precious: and he that believeth on him shall not be confounded.

7 [3] Unto you therefore which believe he is precious: but unto them which be disobedient, [l] the stone which the builders disallowed, the same is made the head of the corner,

8 And [o] a stone of stumbling, and a rock of offence, even to them which stumble at the word, being disobedient: [r] whereunto also they were appointed.

9 But ye are a [t] chosen generation, [u] a royal priesthood, an holy nation, [y] a peculiar people; [z] that ye should shew forth the praises of him who hath called you [b] out of darkness into [c] his marvellous light:

10 [e] Which in time past were not a people, but are now the people of God: which had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy.

11 Dearly beloved, I beseech you [e] as strangers and pilgrims, [f] abstain from fleshly lusts, [h] which war against the soul;

12 Having your conversation honest among the Gentiles: [k] that, whereas they speak against you as evildoers, [l] they may by your good works, which they shall behold, [m] glorify God in the [n] day of visitation.

13 [o] Submit yourselves to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake: whether it be to the king, as supreme;

14 Or unto governors, as unto them that are sent by him [q] for the punishment of evildoers, and for the praise of them that do well.

15 For so is the will of God, that [s] with well doing ye may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men:

16 [u] As free, and not using your liberty for a cloke of maliciousness, but as [y] the servants of God.

17 [z] Honour all men. [a] Love the brotherhood. [c] Fear God. Honour the king.

18 [e] Servants, be subject to your masters with all fear; not only to the good and gentle, but also to the froward.

19 For [i] this is thankworthy, if a man for conscience toward God endure grief, suffering wrongfully.

20 For what glory is it, if, when ye be buffeted for your faults, ye shall take it patiently? but if, when ye do well, and suffer for it, ye take it patiently, this is acceptable with God.

21 For even [m] hereunto were ye called: because [n] Christ also suffered for us, [p] leaving us an example, that ye should follow his steps:

22 [q] Who did no sin, neither was guile found in his mouth:

23 Who, when he was reviled, [s] reviled not again; when he suffered, he threatened not; but [x] committed himself to him that judgeth righteously:

24 [a] Who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, [d] being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness: [f] by whose stripes ye were healed.

CHAPTER 3

LIKEWISE, [e]ye wives, be in subjection to your own husbands; that, if any obey not the word, [f]they also may without the word be won by the conversation of the wives;

2 While they behold your chaste conversation coupled with fear.

3 [k]Whose adorning let it not be that outward adorning of plaiting the hair, and of wearing of gold, or of putting on of apparel;

4 But let it be [m]the hidden man of the heart, in that which is not corruptible, even the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price.

5 For after this manner in the old time the holy women also, who trusted in God, adorned themselves, being in subjection unto their own husbands:

6 Even as [u]Sara obeyed Abraham, [x]calling him lord: whose daughters ye are, as long as ye do well, and are not afraid with any amazement.

7 Likewise, [a]ye husbands, dwell with them according to knowledge, giving honour unto the wife, as unto the weaker vessel, and as being [d]heirs together of the grace of life; that your prayers be not hindered.

8 Finally, [f]be ye all of one mind, having compassion one of another, [h]love as brethren, be pitiful, be courteous:

9 [k]Not rendering evil for evil, or railing for railing: but [n]contrariwise blessing; knowing that ye are [o]thereunto called, that ye should inherit a blessing.

10 For [p]he that will love life, and see good days, let him refrain his tongue from evil, and his lips that they speak no guile:

11 Let him eschew evil, and do good; let him seek peace, and ensue it.

12 For the eyes of the Lord are over the righteous, and his ears are open unto their prayers: but the face of the Lord is against them that do evil.

13 And who is he that will harm you, if ye be followers of that which is good?

14 But and [c]if ye suffer for righteousness' sake, happy are ye: and [d]be not afraid of their terror, neither be troubled;

15 But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts: and be [g]ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of [h]the hope that is in you with meekness and fear:

16 [i]Having a good conscience; that, [l]whereas they speak evil of you, as of evildoers, they may be ashamed that falsely accuse your good conversation in Christ.

17 For it is better, if the will of God be so, that ye suffer for well doing, [n]than for evil doing.

18 [o]For Christ also hath [p]once suffered for sins, the [q]just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God, being put to death [r]in the flesh, but [s]quickened by the Spirit:

19 [t]By which also he went and preached unto the spirits in prison;

20 Which sometime were disobedient, [y]when once the longsuffering of God waited in the days of [z]Noah, while the ark was a preparing, wherein few, that is, [b]eight souls were saved [c]by water.

21 [3]The like figure whereunto even [e]baptism doth also now save us (not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the [4]answer of a good conscience toward God,) by [g]the resurrection of Jesus Christ:

22 Who [i]is gone into heaven, and [l]is on the right hand of God; [m]angels and authorities and powers being made subject unto him.

CHAPTER 4

FORASMUCH then as [q]Christ hath suffered for us in the flesh, [r]arm yourselves likewise with the same mind: for he that hath suffered in the flesh [s]hath ceased from sin;

2 That he no longer should live the rest of his time in the flesh to the lusts of men, but [t]to the will of God.

3 For [u]the time past of our life [x]may suffice us to have wrought the will of the Gentiles, when we walked in [a] lasciviousness, lusts, excess of wine, revellings, banquetings, and [c] abominable idolatries:

4 Wherein they think it strange that ye run not with them to the same excess of riot, [g] speaking evil of you:

5 Who shall give account to him that is [h] ready to judge the quick and the dead.

6 For for this cause [i] was the gospel preached also to them that are dead, that they might be judged according to men in the flesh, but [l] live according to God in the spirit.

7 But [m] the end of all things is at hand: [n] be ye therefore sober, and watch unto prayer.

8 And above all things [p] have fervent charity among yourselves: [q] for charity shall cover the multitude of sins.

9 [t] Use hospitality one to another without grudging.

10 [x] As every man hath received the gift, even so minister the same one to another, as [a] good stewards of the manifold grace of God.

11 If any man speak, let him speak as the [d] oracles of God; if any man minister, let him do it [e] as of the ability which God giveth: that God in all things may be glorified through Jesus Christ, [k] to whom be praise and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

12 Beloved, think it not strange concerning the [m] fiery trial which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened unto you:

13 But [o] rejoice, inasmuch as ye are [p] partakers of Christ's sufferings; that, when [r] his glory shall be revealed, ye may be glad also with exceeding joy.

14 If ye be reproached for the name of Christ, [t] happy are ye; for the spirit of glory and of God resteth upon you: on their part he is evil spoken of, but on your part he is glorified.

15 But [a] let none of you suffer as a murderer, or as a thief, or as an evildoer, or as a [c] busybody in other men's matters.

16 Yet if any man suffer as a [c] Christian, let him not be ashamed; but [b] let him glorify God on this behalf.

17 For the time is come that judgment [d] must begin at [e] the house of God: and if it first begin at us, what shall the end be of them that [f] obey not the gospel of God?

18 And if the righteous scarcely be saved, where shall the ungodly and the sinner appear?

19 Wherefore let them also that suffer according to the will of God [k] commit the keeping of their souls to him in well doing, as unto a faithful Creator.

CHAPTER 5

THE [o] elders which are among you I exhort, who am also an elder, and a [r] witness of the sufferings of Christ, and also a partaker of the [s] glory that shall be revealed:

2 [u] Feed the flock of God which is among you, taking the oversight thereof, [y] not by constraint, but willingly; [z] not for filthy lucre, but of a ready mind;

3 Neither [b] as being lords over God's heritage, but being [c] ensamples to the flock.

4 And when the [f] chief Shepherd [g] shall appear, ye shall receive a [h] crown of glory [i] that fadeth not away.

5 Likewise, ye younger, submit yourselves unto the elder. Yea, [l] all of you be subject one to another, and be clothed with humility: for [n] God resisteth the proud, and giveth grace to the humble.

6 [q] Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time:

7 [s] Casting all your care upon him; for he careth for you.

8 Be sober, be [u] vigilant; because [x] your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, [y] walketh about, seeking whom he may devour:

9 Whom resist stedfast [z] in the faith, knowing that [b] the same afflictions are accomplished in your brethren that are in the world.

10 But the God of all grace, [d] who hath called us unto his eternal glory

THE SECOND EPISTLE GENERAL OF PETER

CHAPTER 1

A.D. 66

SIMON Peter, a servant and an apostle of Jesus Christ, to them that have obtained [d] like precious faith with us through [e] the righteousness of God and our Saviour Jesus Christ:

2 Grace and [g] peace be multiplied unto you [h] through the knowledge of God, and of Jesus our Lord,

3 According as his divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of him [k] that hath called us to glory and virtue:

4 Whereby are given unto us exceeding [m] great and precious promises: that by these ye might be [o] partakers of the divine nature, [p] having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust.

5 And beside this, giving all diligence, [q] add to your faith virtue; and to virtue knowledge;

6 And to knowledge temperance; and to temperance patience; and to patience godliness;

7 And to godliness brotherly kindness; and to brotherly kindness charity.

8 For if these things be in you, and abound, they make you that ye shall neither be barren nor [u] unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

9 But he that lacketh these things [x] is blind, and cannot see afar off, and hath forgotten that he was [z] purged from his old sins.

10 Wherefore the rather, brethren, give diligence to make [a] your calling and [b] election sure: for if ye do these things, [c] ye shall never fall:

11 For so an entrance shall be ministered unto you abundantly [f] into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

12 Wherefore I will not be negligent [i] to put you always in remembrance of these things, though ye know them, and be established in the present truth.

13 Yea, I think it meet, as long as I am in [l] this tabernacle, to stir you up by putting you in remembrance;

14 Knowing that shortly I must put off this my tabernacle, [n] even as our Lord Jesus Christ hath shewed me.

15 Moreover I will endeavour that ye may be able after my decease to have these things always in remembrance.

16 For we have not followed cunningly devised [r] fables, when we made known unto you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but were [s] eyewitnesses of his majesty.

17 For he received from God the Father honour and glory, when there came such a voice to him [t] from the excellent glory, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

18 And this voice which came from heaven we heard, when we were with him in the holy mount.

19 [2] We have also a more sure [y] word of prophecy; whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto [a] a light

20 Knowing this first, that no prophecy of the scripture is of any private interpretation.

21 For the prophecy came not in old time by the will of man: but holy men of God spake [g] as they were moved by the Holy Ghost.

CHAPTER 2

BUT there were [h] false prophets also among the people, even as [i] there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in [2] damnable heresies, even [m] denying the Lord [n] that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction.

2 And many shall follow their pernicious ways; by reason of whom the way of truth shall be evil spoken of.

3 And [o] through covetousness shall they [p] with feigned words make merchandise of you: whose judgment now of a long time lingereth not, and their damnation slumbereth not.

4 For if God spared not the [r] angels that sinned, but cast them down to [3] hell, and delivered them into chains of darkness, [t] to be reserved unto judgment;

5 And spared not the old world, but saved [x] Noah [x] the eighth person, a preacher of righteousness, bringing in [y] the flood upon the world of the ungodly;

6 And turning the cities of [a] Sodom and Gō-mŏr'-rhă into ashes condemned them with an overthrow, making them an ensample unto those that after should live ungodly;

7 And delivered just [b] Lot, vexed with the filthy conversation of the wicked:

8 (For that righteous man dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, vexed his righteous soul from day to day with their unlawful deeds;)

9 [f] The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgment to be punished:

10 But chiefly [h] them that walk after the flesh in the lust of uncleanness, and [a] despise government. Presumptuous are they, selfwilled, they are not afraid [d] to speak evil of dignities.

11 [e] Whereas angels, which are greater in power and might, bring not railing accusation against them before the Lord.

12 [f] But these, as natural brute beasts, made to be taken and destroyed, speak evil of the things that they understand not; and shall utterly perish in their own corruption;

13 And shall receive the reward of unrighteousness, as they that count it pleasure [k] to riot in the day time. [l] Spots they are and blemishes, sporting themselves with their own deceivings while they feast with you;

14 Having eyes full of adultery, and that cannot cease from sin; beguiling unstable souls: an heart they have exercised with covetous practices; cursed children:

15 Which have forsaken the right way, and are gone astray, following [q] the way of Bā'-lāām the son of Bosor, who loved the wages of unrighteousness;

16 But was rebuked for his iniquity: [s] the dumb ass speaking with man's voice forbad the madness of the prophet.

17 [u] These are wells without water, clouds that are carried with a tempest; to whom the mist of darkness is reserved for ever.

18 For when they [z] speak great swelling words of vanity, they allure through the lusts of the flesh, through much wantonness, those that were clean escaped from them who live in error.

19 [c] While they promise them liberty, they themselves are the servants of corruption: for of whom a man is overcome, of the same is he brought in bondage.

20 For [d] if after they have escaped the pollutions of the world [e] through the knowledge of the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, they are again entangled therein, and overcome, [g] the latter end is worse with them than the beginning.

21 For it had been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than, after they have known it, to turn from the holy commandment delivered unto them.

22 But it is happened unto them according to the true proverb, [e] The dog is turned to his own vomit again; and the sow that was washed to her wallowing in the mire.

CHAPTER 3

THIS second epistle, beloved, I now write unto you; in both which [g] I stir up your pure minds by way of remembrance:

2 [h] That ye may be mindful of the words which were [i] spoken before by the holy prophets, and of the commandment of us the apostles of the Lord and Saviour:

3 [k] Knowing this first, that there shall come [m] in the last days scoffers, [o] walking after their own lusts,

4 And [p] saying, Where is the promise of his coming? for since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation.

5 For this they willingly are ignorant of, that by the word of God [t] the heavens were of old, and the earth standing out of the water and in the water:

6 Whereby the world that then was, being [x] overflowed with water, perished:

7 But the heavens and the earth, which are now, by the same word are kept in store, [z] reserved unto fire against the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men.

8 But, beloved, be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and [b] a thousand years as one day.

9 The Lord [d] is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is [f] longsuffering to us-ward, [a] not willing that any should perish, but [b] that all should come to repentance.

10 But [c] the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; [d] in the which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burned up.

11 Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, [f] what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy conversation and godliness,

12 Looking for and hasting unto the coming of the day of God, wherein the heavens being on fire shall be dissolved, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat?

13 Nevertheless we, according to his promise, look for [l] new heavens and a new earth, [n] wherein dwelleth righteousness.

14 Wherefore, beloved, seeing that ye look for such things, be diligent [q] that ye may be found of him in peace, without spot, and blameless.

15 And account that [r] the longsuffering of our Lord is salvation; even as [s] our beloved brother Paul also according to the wisdom given unto him hath written unto you;

16 As also in all his epistles, [u] speaking in them of these things; in which are some things [y] hard to be understood, which they that are unlearned and unstable wrest, as they do also the other scriptures, unto their own destruction.

17 Ye therefore, beloved, seeing ye know these things before, [a] beware lest ye also, being led away with the error of the wicked, fall from your own stedfastness.

18 But [c] grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. [e] To him be glory both now and for ever. Amen.

THE FIRST EPISTLE GENERAL OF JOHN

CHAPTER 1

[d] THAT which was from the beginning, which we have heard, [f] which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon, and our hands have [h] handled, of [i] the Word of life;

2 (For the life [l] was manifested, and we have seen it, and bear witness, and shew unto you [m] that eternal life, which was with the Father, and was manifested unto us;)

3 That which we have seen and heard declare we unto you, that ye also may have fellowship with us: and truly [q] our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ.

4 And these things write we unto you, that [t] your joy may be full.

5 [x] This then is the message which we have heard of him, and declare unto you, that [y] God is light, and in him is no darkness at all.

6 [a] If we say that we have fellowship with him, and [b] walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth:

7 But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son [e] cleanseth us from all sin.

8 [g] If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and [i] the truth is not in us.

9 [k] If we confess our sins, [l] he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and [n] to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

10 If we say that we have not sinned, [p] we make him a liar, and [q] his word is not in us.

CHAPTER 2

MY little children, these things write I unto you, that ye sin not. And if any man sin, we have an [2a] advocate [b] with the Father, Jesus Christ [c] the righteous:

2 And he is [e] the propitiation for our sins: and not for our's only, but also for the sins of the whole world.

3 And hereby we do know that [g] we know him, [k] if we keep his commandments.

4 He that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his commandments, is a liar, and [n] the truth is not in him.

5 But whoso keepeth his word, [o] in him verily is the love of God perfected: hereby know we [p] that we are in him.

6 He that saith he abideth in him ought himself also so to walk, [r] even as he walked.

7 Brethren, I write [s] no new commandment unto you, but an old commandment [u] which ye had from the beginning. The old commandment is the word which ye have heard from the beginning.

8 Again, [z] a new commandment I write unto you, which thing is true in him and in you: because the darkness [3] is past, and [c] the true light now shineth.

9 He that saith he is in the light, and [d] hateth his brother, is in darkness even until now.

10 [f] He that loveth his brother abideth in the light, and [h] there is none occasion of stumbling in him.

11 But he that hateth his brother is in darkness, and [m] walketh in darkness, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because that darkness [o] hath blinded his eyes.

12 I write unto you, little children, because [r] your sins are forgiven you for his name's sake.

13 I write unto you, fathers, because ye have known [s] him that is from the beginning. I write unto you, young men, because ye [t] have overcome the wicked one. I write unto you, little children, because [a] ye have known the Father.

14 I have written unto you, fathers, because ye have known him that is from the beginning. I have written unto you, young men, because ye are strong, and [e] the word of God abideth in you, and ye have overcome the wicked one.

15 [g] Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. [h] If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him.

16 For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world.

17 And [n] the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but [o] he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever.

18 Little children, [q] it is the last time: and as ye have heard that [s] ăn'-tĭ-chrĭst shall come, [t] even now are there many antichrists; whereby we know that it is the last time.

19 [x] They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would no doubt have continued with us: but they went out, [c] that they might be made manifest that they were not all of us.

20 But ye have [e] an unction from the [f] Holy One, and [g] ye know all things.

21 I have not written unto you because ye know not the truth, but because ye know it, and that no lie is of the truth.

22 Who is a liar but [m] he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is ăn'-tĭ-chrĭst, that denieth the Father and the Son.

23 [r] Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father: [but] he that acknowledgeth the Son hath the Father also.

24 Let that therefore abide in you, [t] which ye have heard from the beginning. If that which ye have heard from the beginning shall remain in you, [y] ye also shall continue in the Son, and in the Father.

25 And this is [z] the promise that he hath promised us, even eternal life.

26 These things have I written unto you concerning [b] them that seduce you.

27 But the anointing which ye have received of him [c] abideth in you, and ye need not that any man teach you: but as the same anointing [d] teacheth you of all things, [f] and is truth, and is no lie, and even as it hath taught you, ye shall abide in him.

28 And now, little children, abide in him; that, [i] when he shall appear, [k] we may have confidence, and not be ashamed before him at his coming.

29 [l] If ye know that he is righteous, ye know that every one that doeth righteousness [m] is born of him.

CHAPTER 3

BEHOLD, [p] what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the [r] sons of God: therefore the world knoweth us not, because [u] it knew him not.

2 Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, [y] when he shall appear, [z] we shall be like him; for [a] we shall see him as he is.

3 And every man that hath [b] this hope in him [d] purifieth himself, even as he is pure.

4 Whosoever committeth sin transgresseth also the law: for [h] sin is the transgression of the law.

5 And ye know that [i] he was manifested to take away our sins; and [k] in him is no sin.

6 Whosoever [l] abideth in him sinneth not: [n] whosoever sinneth hath not seen him, [o] neither known him.

7 Little children, [p] let no man deceive you: [q] he that doeth righteousness is righteous, even as he is righteous.

8 He that committeth sin [s] is of the devil; for the devil sinneth from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, [u] that he might destroy the works of the devil.

9 [x] Whosoever is born of God doth not commit sin; for his seed remaineth in him: and he cannot sin, [a] because he is born of God.

10 In this the children of God are manifest, and [b] the children of the devil: whosoever doeth not righteousness is not of God, [a] neither he that loveth not his brother.

11 For [c] this is the message [d] that ye heard from the beginning, [f] that we should love one another.

12 Not as [h] Cain, who was of that wicked one, and [i] slew his brother. And wherefore slew he him? [l] Because his own works were evil, and his brother's righteous.

13 Marvel not, my brethren, [o] if the world hate you.

14 We know that we have [p] passed from death unto life, because we love the brethren. [r] He that loveth not his brother abideth in death.

15 [t] Whosoever hateth his brother is a murderer: and ye know that [y] no murderer hath eternal life abiding in him.

16 Hereby perceive we [b] the love of God, because [c] he laid down his life for us: and [d] we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren.

17 But [g] whoso hath this world's good, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, [k] how dwelleth the love of God in him?

18 My little children, let us not love in word, neither in tongue; but in deed and in truth.

19 And hereby we know that [o] we are of the truth, and shall assure our hearts before him.

20 For if our heart condemn us, God is greater than our heart, and knoweth all things.

21 Beloved, [t] if our heart condemn us not, then have [u] we confidence toward God.

22 And [y] whatsoever we ask, we receive of him, because we [z] keep his commandments, and [a] do those things that are pleasing in his sight.

23 And [c] this is his commandment, That we should believe on the name of his Son Jesus Christ, and [e] love one another, as he gave us commandment.

24 And he that keepeth his commandments [h] dwelleth in him, and he in him. And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by [l] the Spirit which he hath given us.

CHAPTER 4

BELOVED, [b] believe not every spirit, but [e] try the spirits whether they are of God: because many [g] false prophets are gone out into the world.

2 Hereby know ye the Spirit of God: [k] Every spirit that confesseth that [m] Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is of God:

3 And every spirit that [n] confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is not of God: and this is that [q] spirit of ăn'-tī-christ, whereof ye have heard that it should come; and even now already is it in the world.

4 [s] Ye are of God, little children, and [u] have overcome them: [x] because greater is he that is in you, than [z] he that is in the world.

5 [a] They are of the world: therefore speak they of the world, and the world heareth them.

6 [e] We are of God: [f] he that knoweth God heareth us; he that is not of God heareth not us. Hereby know we [h] the spirit of truth, and the spirit of error.

7 Beloved, [i] let us love one another: for love is of God; and every one that loveth [l] is born of God, and knoweth God.

8 He that loveth not [m] knoweth not God; for [n] God is love.

9 In this was manifested [p] the love of God toward us, because that God [q] sent his [r] only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through him.

10 Herein is love, [s] not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be [x] the propitiation for our sins.

11 Beloved, if God so loved us, we ought also to love one another.

12 [b] No man hath seen God at any time. If we love one another, God dwelleth in us, and [d] his love is perfected in us.

13 Hereby know we [f] that we dwell in him, and he in us, because [g] he hath given us of his Spirit.

14 And [i] we have seen and do testify that the Father sent the Son [k] to be the Saviour of the world.

15 [m] Whosoever shall confess that Jesus is the Son of God, God dwelleth in him, and he in God.

16 And we have known and believed the love that God hath to us. [a] [b] God is love; and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him.

17 Herein is our love made perfect, that we (may) [d] have boldness in the day of judgment: because [f] as he is, so are we in this world.

18 There is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear: because fear hath torment. He that feareth is not made perfect in love.

19 [k] We love him, because he first loved us.

20 If a man say, I love God, and [m] hateth his brother, he is a liar: for he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, [o] how can he love God whom he hath not seen?

21 And this commandment have we from him, That he who loveth God [q] love his brother also.

CHAPTER 5

[s] WHOSOEVER believeth that Jesus is the Christ [t] is born of God: and every one that loveth him that begat loveth him also that is begotten of him.

2 By this we know that we love [u] the children of God, [y] when we love God, and [z] keep his commandments.

3 For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments: and [b] his commandments are not grievous.

4 For whatsoever is born of God [d] overcometh the world: and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith.

5 Who is he that overcometh the world, but [f] he that believeth that Jesus is the Son of God?

6 This is he that came by [i] water and blood, even Jesus Christ; not by water only, but by water and blood. And it is [l] the Spirit that beareth witness, because [m] the Spirit is truth.

7 For there are three that bear record [in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost: and these three are one.

8 And there are three that bear witness in earth, the Spirit, and the water, and the blood: and these three agree in one.

9 [a] If we receive the witness of men, the witness of God is greater: for [c] this is the witness of God which he hath testified of his Son.

10 He that believeth on the Son of God [e] hath the witness in himself: he that believeth not God [g] hath made him a liar; because he believeth not the record that God gave of his Son.

11 And this is the record, [h] that God hath given to us eternal life, and [i] this life is in his Son.

12 [j] He that hath the Son hath life; and he that hath not the Son of God hath not life.

13 [n] These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God; that ye may know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the name of the Son of God.

14 And [p] this is the confidence that we have in him, that, if we ask any thing (according to his will, he heareth us:

15 And if we know that he hear us, whatsoever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we desired of him.

16 If any man see his brother sin a sin which is not unto death, [x] he shall ask, and he shall give him life for them that sin not unto death. [a] There is a sin unto death: I do not say that he shall pray for it.

17 [c] All unrighteousness is sin: and there is a sin not unto death.

18 We know that [e] whosoever is born of God sinneth not; but he that is begotten of God keepeth (Or him) himself, and that wicked one toucheth him not.

19 And we know that [g] we are of God, and [h] the whole world lieth in wickedness.

20 And we know that the Son of God is come, and [k] hath given us an understanding, [m] that we may know him that is true, and [n] we are in him that is true, even in his Son Jesus Christ. [o] This is the true God, and eternal life.

21 Little children, [p] keep yourselves from idols. Amen.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF JOHN

A.D. 90

[a] THE elder unto the elect lady and her children, [c] whom I love in the truth; and not I only, but also all [e] they that have known the truth;

2 For the truth's sake, which dwelleth in us, and shall be with us for ever.

3 Grace be with you, mercy, and peace, from God the Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, in truth and love.

4 [h] I rejoiced greatly that I found of thy children walking in truth, as we have received a commandment from the Father.

5 And now I beseech thee, lady, [k] not as though I wrote a new commandment unto thee, [l] but that which we had from the beginning, [n] that we love one another.

6 And this is love, that we walk after his commandments. This is the commandment, That, as ye have heard from the beginning, ye should walk in it.

7 For [r] many deceivers are entered into the world, [b] who confess not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh. This is a deceiver and an [d] ăn'-tĭ-chrĭst.

8 Look to yourselves, that we lose not those things which we have wrought, but that we receive [f] a full reward.

9 Whosoever [2]transgresseth, and abideth not in the doctrine of Christ, [g] hath not God. He that abideth in the doctrine of Christ, he hath both the Father and the Son.

10 If there come any unto you, and bring not this doctrine, [i] receive him not into your house, neither bid him God speed:

11 For he that biddeth him God speed [m] is partaker of his evil deeds.

12 [o] Having many things to write unto you, I would not write with paper and ink: but [p] I trust to come unto you, and speak face to face, that [q] our joy may be full.

13 The children of thy elect sister greet thee. Amen.

THE THIRD EPISTLE OF JOHN

A.D. 90

THE [a] elder unto the wellbeloved [b] Gâi'-ŭs, [c] whom I love in the truth.

2 Beloved, I wish above all things that thou mayest prosper and be in health, even as thy soul prospereth.

3 For [g] I rejoiced greatly, when the brethren came and testified of the truth that is in thee, even as thou walkest in the truth.

4 I have no greater joy than to hear that my children walk in truth.

5 Beloved, thou doest faithfully [h] whatsoever thou doest to the brethren, and to strangers;

6 Which have borne witness of thy charity before the church: whom [d] if thou bring forward on their journey after a godly sort, thou shalt do well:

7 Because that [e] for his name's sake they went forth, [f] taking nothing of the Gentiles.

8 We therefore ought to receive such, that we might be fellowhelpers to the truth.

9 I wrote unto the church: but Dĭ-ŏt'-rĕ-phēs, who loveth to have the preeminence among them, receiveth us not.

10 Wherefore, [i] if I come, I will remember his deeds which he doeth, prating against us with malicious words: and not content therewith, neither doth he himself receive the brethren, and forbiddeth them that would, and casteth them out of the church.

14 But [b] I trust I shall shortly see thee, and we shall speak face to face. [f] Peace be to thee. Our friends salute thee. Greet the friends by name.

THE GENERAL EPISTLE OF

JUDE

A.D. 66

[a] JUDE, the servant of Jesus Christ, and brother of James, to them that are [2] sanctified by God the Father, and [d] preserved in Jesus Christ, and [f] called:

2 Mercy unto you, and [g] peace, and love, be multiplied.

3 Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the [m] common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that ye should earnestly [o] contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints.

4 For [q] there are certain men crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and [s] denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ.

5 [z] I will therefore put you in remembrance, though ye once knew this, how that the Lord, [b] having saved the people out of the land of Egypt, afterward [e] destroyed them that believed not.

6 And the [f] angels which kept not their first estate, but left their own habitation, [k] he hath reserved in everlasting chains under darkness unto the judgment of the great day.

7 Even as [l] Sodom and Gō-mŏr'rhă, and the cities about them in like manner, [o] giving themselves over to fornication, and going after strange flesh, are set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of [b] eternal fire.

8 Likewise also these filthy [c] dreamers defile the flesh, [e] despise dominion, and [e] speak evil of dignities.

9 [h] Yet [i] Michael the [k] archangel, when contending with the devil he [l] disputed about the body of Moses, durst not bring against him a railing accusation, but said, [n] The Lord rebuke thee.

10 [p] But these speak evil of those things which they know not: but what they know naturally, as brute beasts, in those things they corrupt themselves.

11 Woe unto them! for they have gone in the way of [r] Cain, and ran greedily after the error of [t] Bā'lāām [u] for reward, and [x] perished in the gainsaying of [y] Côr'ē.

12 [a] These are [3] spots in your feasts of charity, when they feast with you, feeding themselves without fear: [c] clouds they are without water, [d] carried about of winds; trees whose fruit withereth, without fruit, twice dead, [g] plucked up by the roots;

13 [h] Raging waves of the sea, [i] foaming out their own shame; wandering stars, to whom is reserved the blackness of darkness for ever.

14 And [m] Enoch also, [n] the seventh from Adam, prophesied of these, saying, [p] Behold, the Lord cometh with ten thousands of his saints,

THE REVELATION

OF ST. JOHN THE DIVINE

CHAPTER 1

THE Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave unto him, [d] to shew unto his servants things which must shortly come to pass; and [f] he sent and signified it by his angel unto his servant [h] John:

2 Who bare record of the word of God, and of [k] the testimony of Jesus Christ, and of all things [l] that he saw.

3 [n] Blessed is he that readeth, and they that hear the words of this prophecy, and keep those things which are written therein: for [q] the time is at hand.

4 JOHN to the seven churches which are in [s] Asia: Grace be unto you, and peace, from him [t] which is, and which was, and which is to come; and from [x] the seven Spirits which are before his throne;

5 And from Jesus Christ, who is [b] the faithful witness, and [c] the first begotten of the dead, and [d] the prince of the kings of the earth. Unto him [a] that loved us, and [2b] washed us from our sins in his own blood,

6 And hath [c] made us kings and priests unto God and his Father; [e] to him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

7 [g] Behold, he cometh with clouds; and [i] every eye shall see him, and they also which pierced him: and all kindreds of the earth shall wail because of him. Even so, Amen.

8 [m] I am Alpha and Ō-mĕg'-ă, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord, [o] which is, and which was, and which is to come, [p] the Almighty.

9 I John, who also am your brother, and companion in tribulation, and in the [r] kingdom and patience of Jesus Christ, was in the isle that is called Patmos, [u] for the word of God, and for the testimony of Jesus Christ.

10 [y] I was in the Spirit on [z] the Lord's day, and [a] heard behind me a great voice, as of a trumpet,

11 Saying, I am Alpha and Ō-mĕg'-ă, the first and the last: and, [e] What thou seest, write in a book, and send it unto the seven churches which are in Asia; unto [a] Ephesus, and unto Smyrna, and unto Pĕr'gă-mŏs, and unto [d] Thў-ă-tī'-ră, and unto Sardis, and unto Philadelphia, and unto [e] Lā-ŏd-ĭ-çē'-ă.

12 And I turned to see the voice that spake with me. And being turned, I saw [h] seven golden candlesticks;

13 And in the midst of the seven candlesticks [k] one like unto the Son of man, [m] clothed with a garment down to the foot, and [n] girt about the paps with a golden girdle.

14 His head and his [p] hairs were [q] white like wool, as white as snow; and his [r] eyes were as a flame of fire;

15 And his feet [s] like unto fine brass, as if they burned in a furnace; and [u] his voice as the sound of many waters.

16 And [y] he had in his right hand seven stars: and [a] out of his mouth went a [c] sharp twoedged sword: and [e] his countenance was as the sun shineth in his strength.

17 And when I saw him, [g] I fell at his feet as dead. And [h] he laid his right hand upon me, saying unto me, [l] Fear not; I am the first and the last:

18 I am he that liveth, and [m] was dead; and, behold, I am [o] alive for evermore, Amen; and have [q] the keys of hell and of death.

19 [r] Write the things which thou hast seen, and the things which are, and the things which shall be hereafter;

20 The [s] mystery of the seven stars which thou sawest in my right hand, and the seven golden candlesticks. The seven stars are [y] the angels of the seven churches: and the seven candlesticks which thou sawest are the seven churches.

CHAPTER 2

(1) UNTO the angel of the church of [b] Ephesus write; These things saith [c] he that holdeth the seven stars in his right hand, who walketh in the midst of the [d] seven golden candlesticks;

2 [e] I know thy works, and thy labour, and thy patience, and how thou canst not bear them which are evil: and thou [b] hast tried them [c] which say they are apostles, and are not, and hast found them liars:

3 And hast borne, and hast patience, and [f] for my name's sake hast laboured, [g] and hast not fainted.

4 Nevertheless I have somewhat against thee, [i] because thou hast left [l] thy first love.

5 Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent, and do the first works; or else [o] I will come unto thee quickly, and will remove thy candlestick out of his place, except thou repent.

6 But this thou hast, that thou hatest the deeds of the [t] Nĭc-ō-lā-ĭ'-tānes, which I also hate.

7 [x] He that hath an ear, let him hear [z] what the Spirit saith unto the churches; [b] To him that overcometh will I give to eat of [d] the tree of life, which is in the midst of the [f] paradise of God.

8 And unto the angel of the church in Smyrna write; These things saith (2) the [i] first and the last, [k] which was dead, and is alive;

9 I know thy works, and tribulation, and poverty, (but [n] thou art rich) and I know the blasphemy of [p] them which say they are Jews, and are not, but are the synagogue of Satan.

10 Fear none of those things which thou shalt suffer: behold, the devil shall cast some of you into prison, that ye may be tried; and ye shall have tribulation [t] ten days: [u] be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a [x] crown of life.

11 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; He that overcometh shall not be hurt of [z] the second death.

12 And to the angel of the church in Pĕr'-gă-mŏs write; These things (3) saith he which hath the [a] sharp sword with two edges;

13 I know thy works, and where thou dwellest, even where Satan's seat is: and thou holdest fast my name, and hast not denied my faith, even in those days wherein Antipas was my faithful martyr, who was slain among you, where Satan dwelleth.

14 But I have a few things against thee, because thou hast there them that hold the doctrine of [b] Bā'-lāām, who taught Balac to cast a stumblingblock before the children of Israel, [e] to eat things sacrificed unto idols, and to commit fornication.

15 So hast thou also them that hold the doctrine of the [g] Nĭc-ō-lā-ī'-tānes, which thing I hate.

16 Repent; or else [h] I will come unto thee quickly, and will fight against them with the sword of my mouth.

17 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; To him that overcometh will I give to eat of [k] the hidden manna, and will give him a white stone, and in the stone [l] a new name written, which no man knoweth saving he that receiveth it.

18 And unto the angel of the church in [p] Thў-ă-tī'-ră write; These things saith the Son of God, who hath his [r] eyes like unto a flame of [s] fire, and his feet are like fine brass;

19 [u] I know thy works, and charity, and service, and faith, and thy patience, and thy works; and the last to be more than the first.

20 Notwithstanding I have a few things against thee, because thou sufferest that woman [y] Jĕz'-ĕ-bĕl, which calleth herself a [z] prophetess, to teach and to seduce my servants to commit fornication, and to eat things sacrificed unto idols.

21 And I gave her space to repent of her fornication; and she repented not.

22 Behold, I will cast her into a bed, and them that commit adultery with her into great tribulation, except they repent of their deeds.

23 And I will kill her children with death; and all the churches shall know that I am he which [g] searcheth the reins and hearts: and [h] I will give unto every one of you according to your works.

24 But unto you I say, and unto the rest in Thў-ă-tī'-ră, as many as have not this doctrine, and which have not known the depths of Satan, as they speak; [a] I will put upon you none other burden.

25 But that which ye have already [c] hold fast [d] till I come.

26 And he that overcometh, and keepeth my works unto the end, to him will I give power over the nations:

27 And [f] he shall rule them with a rod of iron; as the vessels of a potter shall they be broken to shivers: even as I received of my Father.

28 And I will give him [i] the morning star.

29 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

CHAPTER 3

AND unto the angel of the church in Sardis write; These things saith he that hath the [m] seven Spirits of God, and the [n] seven stars; [o] I know thy works, that thou hast a name that thou livest, and [q] art dead.

2 [t] Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die: for I have not found thy works perfect before God.

3 Remember therefore how thou hast received and heard, and hold fast, and repent. If therefore thou shalt not watch, [x] I will come on thee as a thief, and thou shalt not know what hour I will come upon thee.

4 Thou hast a few names even in Sardis which have not [a] defiled their garments; and they shall walk with me [b] in white: for they are worthy.

5 [c] He that overcometh, the same shall be clothed in white raiment; and I will not blot out his name out of the [d] book of life, but [e] I will confess his name before my Father, and before his angels.

6 [f] He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

7 And to the angel of the church in Philadelphia write; These things saith [i] he that is holy, [k] he that is true, he that hath the [l] key of David, he that openeth, and no man shutteth; and shutteth, and no man openeth;

CHAPTER 4

AFTER this I looked, and, behold, a door was [p] opened in heaven: and [q] the first voice which I heard was as it were of a trumpet talking with me; which said, [s] Come up hither, and [u] I will shew thee things which must be hereafter.
2 And immediately [y] I was in the spirit; and, behold, [z] a throne was set in heaven, and one sat on the throne.
3 And he that sat was to look upon [b] like a jasper and a sardine stone: and there was a [c] rainbow round about the throne, in sight like unto an emerald.
4 And round about the throne were [g] four and twenty seats: and upon the seats I saw four and twenty elders sitting, clothed [k] in white raiment; and they had on their heads crowns of gold.
5 And out of the throne proceeded [l] lightnings and thunderings and voices: and there were seven lamps of fire burning before the throne, which are the [n] seven Spirits of God.
6 And before the throne there was a [o] sea of glass like unto [p] crystal: and in the midst of the throne, and round about the throne, were [q] four beasts [r] full of eyes before and behind.
7 And the first beast was [s] like a lion, and the second beast like a calf, and the third beast had a face as a man, and the fourth beast was like a flying [u] eagle.
8 And the four beasts had each of them [y] six wings about him; and they were full of eyes within: and they rest not day and night, [b] saying, [d] Holy, holy, holy, [e] Lord God Almighty, [g] which was, and is, and is to come.

9 And when those beasts give glory and honour and thanks to him that sat on the throne, [k] who liveth for ever and ever,

10 The four and twenty elders [m] fall down before him that sat on the throne, and worship him that liveth for ever and ever, and cast their crowns before the throne, saying,

11 [o] Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honour and power: for [p] thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created.

The Lamb opens the Book of 7 Seals

CHAPTER 5

AND I saw in the right hand of [r] him that sat on the throne a book [s] written within and on the backside, [t] sealed with seven seals.

2 And I saw [u] a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, Who is worthy to open the book, and to loose the seals thereof?

3 And no man in heaven, nor in earth, neither under the earth, was able to open the book, neither to look thereon.

4 And I wept much, because no man was found worthy to open and to read the book, neither to look thereon.

5 And one of the elders saith unto me, Weep not: behold, [y] the Lion of [a] the tribe of Juda, [b] the Root of David, [d] hath prevailed to open the book, and to loose the seven seals thereof.

6 And I beheld, and, lo, in the midst of the throne and of the [h] four beasts, and in the midst of the elders, stood a [k] Lamb as it had been slain, having seven horns and [l] seven eyes, which are the [m] seven Spirits of God sent forth into all the earth.

7 And he came and took the book out of the right hand of him that sat upon the throne.

8 And when he had taken the book, the four beasts and four and twenty elders [o] fell down before the Lamb, having every one of them [p] harps, and [a] golden vials full of odours, which are the [c] prayers of saints.

9 And they sung [f] a new song, saying, [h] Thou art worthy to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: for thou wast slain, and [i] hast redeemed us to God by thy blood out of [l] every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation;

10 And hast made us unto our God [2n] kings and priests: and we shall reign on the earth.

11 And I beheld, and I heard the voice of many angels round about the throne and the beasts and the elders: and the number of them was [q] ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands;

12 Saying with a loud voice, Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing.

13 And every creature which is in heaven, and on the earth, and under the earth, and such as are in the sea, and all that are in them, heard I saying, Blessing, and honour, and glory, and power, be [x] unto him that sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb for ever and ever.

14 And the four beasts said, Amen. And the four and twenty elders fell down and worshipped him that liveth for ever and ever.

CHAPTER 6

Six Seals Opened

AND I saw when [z] the Lamb opened one of the [c] seals, and I heard, as it were [e] the noise of thunder, one of the [f] four beasts saying, Come and see.

2 And I saw, and behold a [g] white horse: and he that sat on him had a bow; and [t] a crown was given unto him: and he went forth conquering, and to conquer.

4 And there went out another horse that was [n] red: and power was given to him that sat thereon to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another: and there was given unto him a great sword.

5 And when he had opened the third seal, I heard the third beast say, Come and see. And I beheld, and lo a [b] black horse; and he that sat on him had a pair of balances in his hand.

6 And I heard a voice in the midst of the four beasts say, A measure of wheat for a penny, and [d] three measures of barley for a penny; and see thou hurt not the oil and the wine.

7 And when he had opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth beast say, Come and see.

8 And I looked, and behold a pale horse: and his name that sat on him was Death, and Hell followed with him. And power was given unto them over the fourth part of the earth, [h] to kill with sword, and with hunger, and with death, and with the beasts of the earth.

9 And when he had opened the fifth seal, I saw under [l] the altar [m] the souls of them that were slain [n] for the word of God, and [o] for the testimony which they held:

10 And they cried with a loud voice, saying, [q] How long, O Lord, [r] holy and [s] true, dost thou not judge and [u] avenge our blood on [x] them that dwell on the earth?

11 And [y] white robes were given unto every one of them; and it was said unto them, [z] that they should rest yet for a little season, until their fellowservants also and their brethren, that should be killed as they were, should be fulfilled.

12 And I beheld when he had opened the sixth seal, and, lo, there was a great [a] earthquake; and [b] the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became as blood;

13 And [c] the stars of heaven fell unto the earth, even as a fig tree casteth her untimely figs, when she is shaken of a mighty wind.

14 And [d] the heaven departed as a scroll when it is rolled together; and [e] every mountain and island were moved out of their places.

15 And the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chief captains, and the mighty men, and every bondman, and every free man, hid themselves in the dens and in the rocks of the mountains;

16 [a] And said to the mountains and rocks, Fall on us, and hide us from the face of [c] him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb:

17 For [e] the great day of his wrath is come; and [f] who shall be able to stand?

CHAPTER 7

AND after these things I saw four angels standing on [g] the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth, that the wind should not blow on the earth, nor on the sea, nor on any tree.

2 And I saw another angel ascending [i] from the east, having [k] the seal of the living God: and he cried with a loud voice to the four angels, to whom it was given to hurt the earth and the sea,

3 Saying, [k] Hurt not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, till we have [p] sealed the servants of our God in their foreheads.

4 And I heard [t] the number of them which were sealed: and there were sealed an hundred and forty and four thousand of all the tribes of the children of Israel.

5 Of the tribe of Juda were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Reuben were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Gad were sealed twelve thousand.

6 Of the tribe of Aser were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Nĕp′thă-lĭm were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Mă-năs′sēs were sealed twelve thousand.

7 Of the tribe of Simeon were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Levi were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Ĭs′să-chär were sealed twelve thousand.

8 Of the tribe of Zăb-ū′lon were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Joseph were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Benjamin were sealed twelve thousand.

9 After this I beheld, and, lo, a [f] great multitude, which no man could number, [a] of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the [c] Lamb, clothed with [d] white robes, and palms in their hands;

10 And cried with a loud voice, saying, [e] Salvation to our God which [f] sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb.

11 And all the angels stood round about the throne, and about the elders and the [i] four beasts, and [k] fell before the throne on their faces, and worshipped God,

12 Saying, Amen: [m] Blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honour, and power, and might, be unto our God for ever and ever. Amen.

13 And one of the elders answered, saying unto me, What are these which are arrayed in white robes? and whence came they?

14 And I said unto him, Sir, thou knowest. And he said to me, These are they which came out of [2] [p] great tribulation, and have [q] washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

15 Therefore are they before the throne of God, and [r] serve him day and night in his temple: and he that sitteth on the throne [3] shall dwell among them.

16 [t] They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more; neither shall the sun light on them, nor any heat.

17 For the Lamb which is in the midst of the throne [4] shall feed them, and shall lead them unto [y] living fountains of waters: and [z] God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes.

CHAPTER 8

A.D. 97

AND when he had opened [b] the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven about the space of half an hour.

2 And I saw the seven angels [c] which stood before God; and to them were given seven [e] trumpets.

3 And another angel came and stood at the [h] altar, having a golden censer; and there was given unto him much incense, that he should offer it with the [b] prayers of all saints upon the golden altar which was before the throne.

4 And the smoke of the incense, which came with the prayers of the saints, ascended up before God out of the angel's hand.

5 And the angel took the censer, and filled it with fire of the altar, and [g] cast it into the earth: and there were [h] voices, and thunderings, and lightnings, and an [l] earthquake.

6 And the seven angels which had the seven trumpets prepared themselves to sound.

7 The first angel sounded, and there followed [n] hail and fire mingled with blood, and they were cast upon the earth: and the third part of trees was burnt up, and all green grass was burnt up.

8 And the second angel sounded, and as it were [o] a great mountain burning with fire was cast into the sea: and the third part of the sea became blood;

9 And the third part of the creatures which were in the sea, and had life, died; and the third part of the ships were destroyed.

10 And the third angel sounded, and [s] there fell a great star from heaven, burning as it were a lamp, and it fell upon the third part of the rivers, and upon the [u] fountains of waters;

11 And the name of the star is called [x] Wormwood: and the third part of the waters became wormwood; and many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter.

12 And the fourth angel sounded, and the third part of [a] the sun was smitten, and the third part of the moon, and the third part of the stars; so as the third part of them was darkened, and the day shone not for a third part of it, and the night likewise.

13 And I beheld, and heard an angel [d] flying through the midst of heaven, saying with a loud voice, [f] Woe, woe, woe, to the [g] inhabiters of the earth by reason of the other voices of the trumpet of the three angels, which are yet to sound!

CHAPTER 9

AND the fifth angel sounded, and I saw [b] a star fall from heaven unto the earth: and to him was given [c] the key of the [2] bottomless pit.

2 And he opened the bottomless pit; and there arose a smoke out of the pit, as the smoke of a great furnace; and the sun and the air were darkened by reason of the smoke of the pit.

3 And there came out of the smoke [f] locusts upon the earth: and unto them was given power, as the scorpions of the earth have power.

4 And it was commanded them that they [g] should not hurt the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree; [h] but only those men which have not the [i] seal of God in their foreheads.

5 And to them it was given that they should not kill them, but that they should be tormented five months: and their torment was as the torment of a scorpion, when he striketh a man.

6 And in those days shall [k] men seek death, and shall not find it; and shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them.

7 And the [l] shapes of the locusts were like unto horses prepared unto battle; and on their heads were as it were crowns like gold, and their faces were as the faces of men.

8 And they had hair as the hair of women, and their teeth were as the [p] teeth of lions.

9 And they had breastplates, as it were breastplates of iron; and the sound of their wings was as the [q] sound of chariots of many horses running to battle.

10 And they had tails like unto scorpions, and there were stings in their tails: and their power was to hurt men five months.

11 And they had a king over them, which is the angel of the bottomless pit, whose name in the Hebrew tongue is [u] Abaddon, but in the Greek tongue hath his name [3] Ă-pŏl'-lў-on.

12 [x] One woe is past; and, behold, there come two woes more hereafter.

13 And the sixth angel sounded, and I heard a voice from the four horns of [a] the golden altar which is before God,

14 Saying to the sixth angel which had the trumpet, Loose the [d] four angels which are bound in [e] the great river Eû-phrā'-tēs.

15 And the four angels were loosed, which were prepared for an hour, and a day, and a month, and a year, for to slay the third part of men.

16 And the number of the army of the horsemen were two hundred thousand thousand: and I heard the number of them.

17 And thus I saw the horses in the vision, and them that sat on them, having breastplates of fire, and of jacinth, and brimstone: and the heads of the horses were as the heads of lions; and out of their mouths issued fire and smoke and brimstone.

18 By these three was the third part of men killed, by the fire, and by the smoke, and by the brimstone, which issued out of their mouths.

19 For their power is in their mouth, and in their tails: for their tails were like unto serpents, and had heads, and with them they do hurt.

20 And the rest of the men which were not killed by these plagues yet [m] repented not of the works of their hands, that they should not worship [n] devils, and [o] idols of gold, and silver, and brass, and stone, and of wood: which neither can see, nor hear, nor walk:

21 Neither repented they of their murders, nor of their sorceries, nor of their fornication, nor of their thefts.

CHAPTER 10

AND I saw [r] another mighty angel come down from heaven, clothed with a cloud: and a [s] rainbow was upon his head, and [t] his face was as it were the sun, and his feet as pillars of fire:

2 And he had in his hand a little book open: and he set his right foot upon the sea, and his left foot on the earth,

3 And cried with a loud voice, [a] as when a lion roareth: and when he had cried, seven thunders uttered their voices.

4 And when the seven thunders had uttered their voices, I was about to write: and I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, [f] Seal up those things which the seven thunders uttered, and write them not.

5 And the angel which I saw stand upon the sea and upon the earth [i] lifted up his hand to heaven,

6 And sware by him that liveth for ever and ever, [k] who created heaven, and the things that therein are, and the earth, and the things that therein are, and the sea, and the things which are therein, that there should be [2] time no longer:

7 But in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he shall begin to sound, [o] the mystery of God should be finished, as he hath declared to his servants the prophets.

8 And the voice which I heard from heaven spake unto me again, and said, Go and take the little book which is open in the hand of the angel which standeth upon the sea and upon the earth.

9 And I went unto the angel, and said unto him, Give me the little book. And he said unto me, Take it, and [s] eat it up; and it shall make thy belly bitter, but it shall be in thy mouth [u] sweet as honey.

10 And I took the little book out of the angel's hand, and ate it up; and it was in my mouth sweet as honey: and as soon as I had eaten it, my belly was bitter.

11 And he said unto me, Thou must prophesy again before many peoples, and nations, and tongues, and kings.

CHAPTER 11

AND there was given me [a] a reed like unto a rod: and the angel stood, saying, Rise, and measure the temple of God, and the altar, and them that worship therein.

2 But [e] the court which is without the temple leave out, and measure it not; for it is given unto the Gentiles: and [b] the holy city [c] shall they tread under foot [d] forty and two months.

3 And I will give power unto my two witnesses, and they shall prophesy [e] a thousand two hundred and threescore days, clothed in sackcloth.

4 These are the [g] two olive trees, and the two candlesticks standing before the God of the earth.

5 And if any man will hurt them, [h] fire proceedeth out of their mouth, and devoureth their enemies: and if any man will hurt them, he must in this manner be killed.

6 These have power [l] to shut heaven, that it rain not in the days of their prophecy: and have power over waters [m] to turn them to blood, and [n] to smite the earth with all plagues, as often as they will.

7 And when they shall have finished their testimony, [p] the beast that ascendeth out of [3] [q] the bottomless pit shall [r] make war against them, and shall overcome them, and kill them.

8 And their dead bodies shall lie in the street of the great city, which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, where also our Lord was crucified.

9 And they of the people and kindreds and tongues and nations shall see their dead bodies three days and an half, and shall not suffer their dead bodies to be put in graves.

10 And [t] they that dwell upon the earth shall rejoice over them, and make merry, and shall [x] send gifts one to another; because these two prophets tormented them that dwelt on the earth.

11 And after three days and an half the [y] spirit of life from God entered into them, and they stood upon their feet; and great fear fell upon them which saw them.

12 And they heard a great voice from heaven saying unto them, [z] Come up hither. And [b] they ascended up to heaven [c] in a cloud; and their enemies beheld them.

13 And the same hour was there a great [d] earthquake, and the tenth part of the city fell, and in the earthquake were slain of men seven thousand:

2 And [o] she being with child cried, travailing in birth, and pained to be delivered.

3 And there appeared another wonder in heaven; and behold a great [q] red dragon, having seven heads and [r] ten horns, and seven crowns upon his heads.

4 And his tail drew the third part of the stars of heaven, and [t] did cast them to the earth: and the dragon stood before the woman which was ready to be delivered, [u] for to devour her child as soon as it was born.

6 And the woman fled into the wilderness, where she hath a place prepared of God, that they should feed her there [g] a thousand two hundred and threescore days.

7 And there was war in heaven: [l] Michael and his angels [m] fought against the dragon; and the dragon fought and his angels,

8 And prevailed not; neither was their place found any more in heaven.

9 [q] And the great dragon was cast out, [r] that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which [s] deceiveth the whole world: he [u] was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him.

10 And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, [z] Now is come salvation, and strength, and the [a] kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, [c] which accused them before our God day and night.

11 And they [e] overcame him by the blood of the [f] Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and [g] they loved not their lives unto the death.

12 Therefore [t] rejoice, ye heavens, and ye that dwell in them. Woe to the inhabiters of the earth and of the sea! for the devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, because he knoweth that he [m] hath but a short time.

13 And when the dragon saw that he was cast unto the earth, he persecuted the woman which brought forth the man child.

14 And to the woman were given two wings of a great [p] eagle, that she might fly into the wilderness, into her place, where she is nourished for [s] a time, and times, and half a time, from the face of the serpent.

15 And the serpent cast out of his mouth water as a flood after the woman, that he might cause her to be carried away of the flood.

16 And the earth helped the woman, and the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed up the flood which the dragon cast out of his mouth.

17 And the dragon was wroth with the woman, and went [b] to make war with the remnant of her seed, which [c] keep the commandments of God, and have the [d] testimony of Jesus Christ.

CHAPTER 13

AND [2] I stood upon the sand of the sea, and saw [e] a beast [f] rise up out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns, and upon his horns [h] ten crowns, and upon his heads the [k] name of blasphemy.

2 And the beast which I saw was [m] like unto a leopard, and his feet were as the feet of a [n] bear, and his mouth as the mouth of a [o] lion: and the dragon gave him his power, and [p] his seat, and great authority.

3 And I saw one of his heads as it were wounded to death; and his deadly wound was healed: and [q] all the world wondered after the beast.

4 And they worshipped the dragon which gave power unto the beast: and they worshipped the beast, saying, Who is like unto the beast? who is able to make war with him?

5 And there was given unto him [s] a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies; and power was given unto him to continue [u] forty and two months.

6 And he opened his mouth in blasphemy against God, to blaspheme his name, and his tabernacle, and them that dwell in heaven.

7 And it was given unto him [z] to make war with the saints, and to overcome them: and power was given him over all kindreds, and tongues, and nations.

8 And [a] all that dwell upon the earth shall worship him, whose names are not written in [d] the book of life of [f] the Lamb slain [g] from the foundation of the world.

9 [i] If any man have an ear, let him hear.

10 [m] He that leadeth into captivity shall go into captivity: [n] he that killeth with the sword must be killed with the sword. [a] Here is the patience and the faith of the saints.

11 And I beheld another beast coming up out of the earth; and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spake as a dragon.

12 And he exerciseth all the power of the first beast before him, and causeth the earth and them which dwell therein to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed.

13 And he [g] doeth great wonders, so that he [i] maketh fire come down from heaven on the earth in the sight of men,

14 And [l] deceiveth them that dwell on the earth by the means of those miracles which he had power to do in the sight of the beast; saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast, which had the wound by a sword, and did live.

15 And he had power to give life unto the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause that as many as would not [r] worship the image of the beast should be killed.

16 And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive [t] a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads:

17 And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or [x] the number of his name.

18 [y] Here is wisdom. Let him that hath understanding count the number of the beast: for it is the number of a man; and his number is Six hundred threescore and six.

9 And the third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice, If any man [a] worship the [b] beast and his image, and receive his mark in his forehead, or in his hand,

10 [d] The same shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out without mixture into the cup of his indignation; and he shall be [e] tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb:

11 And [h] the smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever: and they have no rest day nor night, who worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiveth the mark of his name.

12 [m] Here is the patience of the saints: here are they [n] that keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus.

13 And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, [b] Blessed are the dead [d] which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, [e] that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them.

14 And I looked, and behold a white cloud, and upon the cloud one sat [g] like unto the Son of man, [h] having on his head a golden crown, and in his hand a sharp sickle.

15 And another angel came out of [l] the temple, crying with a loud voice to him that sat on the cloud, [n] Thrust in thy sickle, and reap: for the time is come for thee to reap; for the harvest of the earth is ripe.

16 And he that sat on the cloud thrust in his sickle on the earth; and the earth was reaped.

17 And another angel came out of the temple which is in heaven, he also having a sharp sickle.

18 And another angel came out from [t] the altar, which had power over fire; and cried with a loud cry to him that had the sharp sickle, saying, Thrust in thy sharp sickle, and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth; for her grapes are fully ripe.

19 And the angel thrust in his sickle into the earth, and gathered the vine of the earth, and cast it into the great [c] winepress of the wrath of God.

20 And the winepress was trodden without the city, and blood came out of the winepress, even unto the horse bridles, by the space of a thousand and six hundred furlongs.

CHAPTER 15

AND [f] I saw another sign in heaven, great and marvellous, [g] seven angels having the seven last plagues; for in them is filled up the wrath of God.

2 And I saw as it were a [i] sea of glass mingled with fire: and them that [k] had gotten the victory over [l] the beast, and over his image, and over his mark, and over [o] the number of his name, stand on the sea of glass, having the [p] harps of God.

3 And they sing [a] the song of Moses the servant of God, and the song of [d] the Lamb, saying, [e] Great and marvellous are thy works, [f] Lord God Almighty; just and true are thy ways, thou [2] King of saints.

4 [i] Who shall not fear thee, O Lord, and glorify thy name? for thou only art [l] holy: for [m] all nations shall come and worship before thee; for thy judgments are made manifest.

5 And after that I looked, and, behold, [n] the temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven was opened:

6 And the seven angels came out of the temple, having the seven plagues, clothed in pure and white linen, and having [q] their breasts girded with golden girdles.

7 And one of [s] the four beasts gave unto the seven angels [t] seven golden vials full of the wrath of God, [u] who liveth for ever and ever.

8 And the temple [y] was filled with smoke from the [z] glory of God, and from his power; and [a] no man was able to enter into the temple, till the seven plagues of the seven angels were fulfilled.

CHAPTER 16

AND I heard a great voice out of the [f] temple saying to the [g] seven angels, Go your ways, and pour out the vials of the wrath of God upon the earth.

2 And the first went, and poured out his vial upon the earth; and there fell a noisome and grievous sore upon the men which had the mark of [m] the beast, and upon them which [o] worshipped his image.

3 And the second angel poured out his vial upon the sea; and [s] it became as the blood of a dead man: and every living soul died in the sea.

4 And the third angel poured out his vial upon the rivers and [u] fountains of waters; and they became blood.

5 And I heard the angel of the waters say, Thou art [x] righteous, O Lord, [y] which art, and wast, and shalt be, because thou hast judged thus.

6 For [b] they have shed the blood of saints and prophets, and [c] thou hast given them blood to drink; for they are worthy.

7 And I heard another out of [g] the altar say, Even so, [h] Lord God Almighty, [k] true and righteous are thy judgments.

8 And the fourth angel poured out his vial upon the sun; and power was given unto him to scorch men with fire.

9 And men were scorched with great heat, and blasphemed the name of God, which hath power over these plagues: and they [o] repented not [p] to give him glory.

10 And the fifth angel poured out his vial upon [r] the seat of the beast; and his kingdom was full of darkness; and they gnawed their tongues for pain,

11 And blasphemed [x] the God of heaven because of their pains and their sores, and repented not of their deeds.

12 And the sixth angel poured out his vial upon the great river [b] Eŭphrā'tēs; and the water thereof [c] was dried up, that the way of the kings of the [d] east might be prepared.

13 And I saw three unclean spirits like [e] frogs come out of the mouth of [h] the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the [i] false prophet.

14 For they are the spirits of devils, [k] working miracles, which go forth unto the kings of the earth and of the whole world, [l] to gather them to the battle of [n] that great day of God Almighty.

15 Behold, [p] I come as a thief. [q] Blessed is he that [r] watcheth, and keepeth his garments, [t] lest he walk naked, and they see his shame.

16 And he gathered them together into a place called in the Hebrew tongue [3] Ar-mă-gĕd'dŏn.

17 And the seventh angel poured out his vial into the air; and there came a great voice out of the temple of heaven, from the throne, saying, [z] It is done.

18 And there were voices, and thunders, and [a] lightnings; and there was a great [b] earthquake, such as was not since men were upon the earth, so mighty an earthquake, and so great.

19 And [c] the great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell: and great [e] Babylon [g] came in remembrance before God, to give unto her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of his wrath.

20 And [l] every island fled away, and the mountains were not found.

21 And there fell upon men a great [n] hail out of heaven, every stone about the weight of a talent: and men blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail; for the plague thereof was exceeding great.

CHAPTER 17

AND there came one of the [o] seven angels which had the [p] seven vials, and talked with me, saying unto me, Come hither; I will shew unto thee the judgment of [r] the great whore that sitteth upon [s] many waters:

2 With whom [t] the kings of the earth have committed fornication, and [u] the inhabitants of the earth have been made drunk with [y] the wine of her fornication.

3 So [z] he carried me away in the spirit into the wilderness: and I saw a woman sit upon a [b] scarlet coloured [d] beast, full of [e] names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns.

4 And the woman was arrayed in [h] purple and scarlet colour, and decked with gold and precious stones and pearls, having a [k] golden cup in her hand full of abominations and filthiness of her fornication:

5 And upon her forehead was a name written, [l] MYSTERY, [m] BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.

6 And I saw the woman drunken with [n] the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus: and when I saw her, I wondered with great admiration.

7 And the angel said unto me, Wherefore didst thou marvel? I will tell thee the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carrieth her, which hath the seven heads and ten horns.

8 The beast that thou sawest was, and is not; and shall ascend out of [d] the bottomless pit, and go into perdition: and [f] they that dwell on the earth [h] shall wonder, whose names were not written in [i] the book of life [k] from the foundation of the world, when they behold the beast that was, and is not, and yet is.

9 And [m] here is the mind which hath wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sitteth.

10 And there are seven kings: five are fallen, and one is, and the other is not yet come; and when he cometh, he must continue a short space.

11 And the beast that was, and is not, even he is the eighth, and is of the seven, and goeth into perdition.

12 And the [q] ten horns which thou sawest are ten kings, which have received no kingdom as yet; but receive power as kings one hour with the beast.

13 These have one mind, and [x] shall give their power and strength unto the beast.

14 These shall make war with [a] the Lamb, and the Lamb shall overcome them: for he is [c] Lord of lords, and [f] King of kings: and they that are with him are [g] called, and chosen, and faithful.

15 And he saith unto me, [i] The waters which thou sawest, where the whore sitteth, are peoples, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues.

16 And the ten horns which thou sawest upon the beast, these shall hate the whore, and shall make her desolate and naked, and shall eat her flesh, and burn her with fire.

17 For God hath put in their hearts to fulfil his will, and to agree, and give their kingdom unto the beast, until the words of God shall be fulfilled.

18 And the woman which thou sawest is that great city, which reigneth over the kings of the earth.

CHAPTER 18

A.D. 97

AND after these things I saw another angel come down from heaven, having great power; and [a] the earth was lightened with his glory.

2 And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, [d] Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become the [f] habitation of devils, and the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird.

3 For all nations [i] have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the [i] kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth are waxed rich through the abundance of her delicacies.

4 And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, [l] Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues.

5 For [m] her sins have reached unto heaven, and [n] God hath remembered her iniquities.

6 [o] Reward her even as she rewarded you, and double unto her double according to her works: in the cup which she hath filled fill to her [p] double.

7 How much she hath glorified herself, and lived deliciously, so much torment and sorrow give her: for [r] she saith in her heart, [s] I sit a queen, and am no widow, and shall see no sorrow.

8 Therefore shall her plagues come in one day, death, and mourning, and famine; and she shall be utterly burned with fire: for [x] strong is the Lord God who judgeth her.

9 And the kings of the earth, who have committed fornication and lived deliciously with her, shall [y] bewail her, and lament for her, when they shall see [a] the smoke of her burning,

10 [b] Standing afar off for the fear of her torment, saying, Alas, alas that great city Babylon, that mighty city! for in one hour is thy judgment come.

11 And the merchants of the earth shall weep and mourn over her; for no man buyeth their merchandise any more:

12 The merchandise of gold, and silver, and precious stones, and of pearls, and fine linen, and [b] purple, and silk, and [c] scarlet, and all thyine wood, and all manner vessels of [e] ivory, and all manner vessels of most precious wood, and of brass, and iron, and marble,

13 And [g] cinnamon, and odours, and ointments, and [h] frankincense, and wine, and oil, and fine flour, and wheat, and beasts, and sheep, and horses, and chariots, and slaves, and [k] souls of men.

14 And the fruits that thy soul lusted after are departed from thee, and all things which were dainty and goodly are departed from thee, and thou shalt find them no more at all.

15 The merchants of these things, which were made rich by her, shall stand afar off for the fear of her torment, weeping and wailing,

16 And saying, Alas, alas that great city, that was clothed in fine linen, and purple, and scarlet, and decked with gold, and precious stones, and pearls!

17 For in one hour so great riches is come to nought. And [q] every shipmaster, and all the company in ships, and sailors, and as many as trade by sea, stood afar off,

18 And cried when they saw the smoke of her burning, saying, [t] What city is like unto this great city!

19 And [u] they cast dust on their heads, and cried, weeping and wailing, saying, Alas, alas that great city, wherein were made rich all that had ships in the sea by reason of her costliness! for in one hour is she made desolate.

20 [z] Rejoice over her, thou heaven, and ye holy apostles and prophets; for God hath avenged you on her.

21 And [c] a mighty angel took up a stone like a great [d] millstone, and [e] cast it into the sea, saying, Thus with violence shall that great city Babylon be thrown down, and shall be found no more at all.

CHAPTER 19

AND after these things I heard a great voice of much people in heaven, saying, Alleluia; [q] Salvation, and [s] glory, and honour, and power, unto the Lord our God:

2 For [u] true and righteous are his judgments: for he hath judged [x] the great whore, which did corrupt the earth with her fornication, and [y] hath avenged the blood of his servants at her hand.

3 And again they said, Alleluia. And her [b] smoke rose up for ever and ever.

4 And the [d] four and twenty elders and the four beasts fell down and worshipped God [f] that sat on the throne, saying, Amen; Alleluia.

5 And a voice came out of the throne, saying, [i] Praise our God, all ye his servants, and ye that fear him, both small and great.

6 And I heard as it were the voice of a great multitude, and as the [l] voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thunderings, saying, Alleluia: for the Lord God omnipotent [n] reigneth.

7 Let us be glad and rejoice, and give honour to him: for [o] the marriage of the Lamb is come, and his wife hath made herself ready.

8 And to her was granted that [q] she should be arrayed in fine linen, [r] clean and white: for the fine linen is the righteousness of saints.

9 And he saith unto me, Write, [a] Blessed are they which are called unto the marriage supper of the [b] Lamb. And he saith unto me, [d] These are the true sayings of God.

10 And [e] I fell at his feet to worship him. And he said unto me, [f] See thou do it not: I am thy fellowservant, and of thy brethren that have the [h] testimony of Jesus: worship God: for the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.

11 And I saw [k] heaven opened, and behold a [l] white horse; and he that sat upon him was called [n] Faithful and True, and in righteousness he doth judge and make war.

12 His [o] eyes were as a flame of fire, and on his head were many crowns; and he had [p] a name written, that no man knew, but he himself.

13 And he was clothed with [r] a vesture dipped in blood: and his name is called The [t] Word of God.

14 And the armies which were in heaven followed him upon white horses, clothed in fine linen, white and clean.

15 And [z] out of his mouth goeth a sharp sword, that with it he should smite the nations: and [a] he shall rule them with a rod of iron: and he treadeth the [c] winepress of the fierceness and wrath of [e] Almighty God.

16 And he hath on his vesture and on his thigh [g] a name written, [h] KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS.

17 And I saw an angel standing in the sun; and he cried with a loud voice, saying [k] to all the fowls that fly in the midst of heaven, Come and gather yourselves together unto the supper of the great God;

18 [m] That ye may eat the flesh of kings, and the flesh of captains, and the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of horses, and of them that sit on them, and the flesh of all men, both free and bond, both small and great.

19 And I saw the [p] beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies, [s] gathered together to make war against him that sat on the horse, and against his army.

20 And the beast was taken, and with him the [c] false prophet [d] that wrought miracles before him, with which he deceived them that had received the mark of [f] the beast, and them that [g] worshipped his image. These both were cast alive into a [h] lake of fire burning with brimstone.

21 And the remnant were slain with the sword of him that sat upon the horse, which sword proceeded out of his mouth: and all the fowls were filled with their flesh.

CHAPTER 20

AND I saw an angel come down from heaven, having [m] the key of [2o] the bottomless pit and a great chain in his hand.

2 And he laid hold on [q] the dragon, that old serpent, which is the Devil, and Satan, and bound him a thousand years,

3 And [s] cast him into the bottomless pit, and shut him up, and set a seal upon him, that he should [x] deceive the nations no more, till the thousand years should be fulfilled: and after that he must be loosed a little season.

4 And I saw [z] thrones, and they sat upon them, and [a] judgment was given unto them: and I saw [b] the souls of them that were beheaded for the witness of Jesus, and for the word of God, and which had not worshipped [d] the beast, neither his image, neither had received his mark upon their foreheads, or in their hands; and they lived and [e] reigned with Christ a thousand years.

5 But [f] the rest of the dead lived not again until the thousand years were finished. [h] This is the first resurrection.

6 [k] Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection: on such [m] the second death hath no power, but they shall be [o] priests of God and of Christ, and shall reign with him a thousand years.

7 And when the thousand years are expired, Satan shall be loosed out of his prison.

8 And shall go out to deceive the nations which are in the four quarters of the earth, [a] Gog and [b] Magog, [e] to gather them together to battle: the number of whom is as the sand of the sea.

9 And they went up on the breadth of the earth, and compassed the camp of the saints about, and the beloved city: and fire came down from God out of heaven, and devoured them.

10 And the devil that deceived them was cast into the [i] lake of fire and brimstone, where [k] the beast and the [k] false prophet are, and shall be [l] tormented day and night for ever and ever.

11 And I saw a great white throne, and [n] him that sat on it, from whose face [p] the earth and the heaven fled away; and there was found no place for them.

12 And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; and the [r] books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the [t] book of life: and the [u] dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, [y] according to their works.

13 And the sea gave up the dead which were in it; and death and hell delivered up the dead which were in them: and they were judged every man according to their works.

14 And [c] death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death.

15 And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire.

CHAPTER 21

AND I saw [g] a new heaven and a new earth: for [i] the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea.

2 And I John saw [l] the holy city, [n] new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared [p] as a bride adorned for her husband.

3 And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, [q] the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God.

4 And God shall [a] wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be [b] no more death, [c] neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the [e] former things are passed away.

5 And [f] he that sat upon the throne said, Behold, [g] I make all things new. And he said unto me, Write: for [h] these words are true and faithful.

6 And he said unto me, [i] It is done. I am [l] Alpha and Ō-mĕg'ă, the beginning and the end. [m] I will give unto him that is athirst of the fountain of the water of life freely.

7 [n] He that overcometh shall inherit all things; and I will be his God, and [p] he shall be my son.

8 [q] But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in [s] the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the [t] second death.

9 And there came unto me one of the [u] seven angels which had the seven vials full of the seven last plagues, and talked with me, saying, Come hither, I will shew thee the bride, [y] the Lamb's wife.

10 And he carried me away in [z] the spirit to a great and high mountain, and shewed me that great city, the holy Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from God,

11 Having [c] the glory of God: and her light was like unto a stone most precious, even like a [e] jasper stone, clear as crystal;

12 And had a wall great and high, and had [h] twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels, and names written thereon, which are the names of the [i] twelve tribes of the children of Israel:

13 On the east three gates; on the north three gates; on the south three gates; and on the west three gates.

14 And the wall of the city had twelve [n] foundations, and in them the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.

15 And he that talked with me had a [q] golden reed to measure the city, and the gates thereof, and the wall thereof.

16 And the city lieth [d] foursquare, and the length is as large as the breadth: and he measured the city with the reed, twelve thousand furlongs. The length and the breadth and the height of it are equal.

17 And he measured the wall thereof, an hundred and forty and four cubits, according to the measure [k] of a man, that is, of the angel.

18 And the building of the wall of it was of jasper: and the city was pure gold, like unto clear glass.

19 And the [o] foundations of the wall of the city were garnished with all manner of precious stones. The first foundation was jasper; the second, [r] sapphire; the third, a chalcedony; the fourth, an [r] emerald;

20 The fifth, sardonyx; the sixth, [r] sardius; the seventh, chrysolyte; the eighth, [r] beryl; the ninth, a [r] topaz; the tenth, a chrysoprasus; the eleventh, a jacinth; the twelfth, an [x] amethyst.

21 And the twelve gates were twelve pearls: every several gate was of one pearl: and the street of the city was pure gold, as it were transparent glass.

22 And I saw no temple therein: for [a] the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are the temple of it.

23 And the city had [b] no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it: for the [d] glory of God [f] did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof.

24 And the [g] nations [2] of them which are saved shall walk in the light of it: and the kings of the earth do bring their glory and honour into it.

25 And [k] the gates of it shall not be shut at all by day: for [l] there shall be no night there.

26 And they shall bring the glory and honour of the nations into it.

27 And [m] there shall in no wise enter into it [o] any thing that defileth, neither whatsoever worketh abomination, or maketh a lie: but they which are written in [p] the Lamb's book of life.

CHAPTER 22

AND he shewed me a pure [a] river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the [b] Lamb.

2 In the midst of the street of it, and on either side of the river, was there the [c] tree of life, which bare twelve manner of fruits, and yielded her fruit every month: and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations.

3 And there shall be [h] no more curse: but the throne of God and of the Lamb shall be in it; and [i] his servants shall serve him:

4 And [m] they shall see his face; and [n] his name shall be in their foreheads.

5 And there shall be [o] no night there; and they need no candle, [p] neither light of the sun; for [p] the Lord God giveth them light: and [r] they shall reign for ever and ever.

6 And he said unto me, [u] These sayings are faithful and true: and the Lord God [3] of the holy prophets sent his angel [a] to shew unto his servants the things which must shortly be done.

7 [c] Behold, I come quickly: [d] blessed is he that keepeth the sayings of the prophecy of this book.

8 And [f] I John saw these things, and heard them. And when I had heard and seen, [g] I fell down to worship before the feet of the angel which shewed me these things.

9 Then saith he unto me, [g] See thou do it not: for I am thy fellowservant, and of thy brethren the prophets, and of them which keep the sayings of this book: worship God.

10 And he saith unto me, [k] Seal not the sayings of the prophecy of this book: for [l] the time is at hand.

11 [m] He that is unjust, let him be unjust still: and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still: and he that is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he that is holy, let him be holy still.

12 And, behold, I come quickly; and [c] my reward is with me, [d] to give every man according as his work shall be.

13 [f] I am Alpha and Ō-mĕg'-ă, the beginning and the end, the first and the last.

14 Blessed are they [2] [g] that do his commandments, that they may have right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the city.

15 For [k] without are [l] dogs, and sorcerers, and whoremongers, and murderers, and idolaters, and whosoever loveth and maketh a lie.

16 [q] I Jesus have sent mine angel to testify unto you these things in the churches. [s] I am the root and the [t] offspring of David, and the bright and [x] morning star.

17 And [y] the Spirit and [z] the bride say, Come. And let him that heareth say, Come. And let him that is [b] athirst come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely.

18 For I testify unto every man that heareth the words of the prophecy of this book, [e] If any man shall add unto these things, God shall add unto him the plagues that are written in this book:

19 And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part out of [h] the book of life, and out of the [i] holy city, and from the things which are written in this book.

20 He which testifieth these things saith, Surely I come quickly. Amen. Even so, come, Lord Jesus.

21 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

THE CONCORDIA
BIBLE DICTIONARY

By

ERWIN L. LUEKER

CONCORDIA PUBLISHING HOUSE
ST. LOUIS, MISSOURI
1963

PREFACE

This concise Bible dictionary is designed to be used with the King James Version, the British Revised Version (readings often the same in the American Standard Version), and the Revised Standard Version. Cross references facilitate unified treatment of the readings of these versions. It may in a more limited way be used with independent translations. The listing of variants is also helpful for insights into meanings of concepts and names.

The number of entries was made as complete as feasible; hence, variants and material from the Apocrypha (frequently related to canonical material) are included. Articles, possessive pronouns, copulatives, etc., are often omitted in the abbreviated style.

The meaning of proper names is given after the pronunciation when such meaning has been established by scholars as certain or probable. In some instances a different meaning was urged by some scholars with almost equal plausibility.

The preparation of even a concise dictionary increases appreciation of the time devoted by scholars to the study and elucidation of the Sacred Scriptures. Lexicons, concordances, translations, commentaries, reference works, and articles in journals by American, British, German, French, and other European scholars were continually consulted. This applies also to such dictionaries as Wm. Smith, Dictionary of the Bible (Hurd and Houghton); J. D. Davis, A Dictionary of the Bible (Westminster); Miller-Miller, Harper's Bible Dictionary (Harper); M. F. Unger, Bible Dictionary (Moody); J. Hastings, A Dictionary of the Bible (Scribner's); J. Orr, The International Standard Bible Encyclopaedia (Howard-Severance), revised by Kyle (Eerdmans); F. Rienecker, Lexikon zur Bibel (Brockhaus); T. Schlatter, Calwer Bibellexikon (Calwer).

Several entries are revised summaries made by the author on the basis of material published by the late A. W. Klinck. This is indicated at the end of the article.

On the basis of a sample printing, colleagues at Concordia Seminary, St. Louis, and Concordia Seminary, Springfield, gave the author helpful suggestions. Such suggestions were also received from professors at divinity schools, seminaries, and colleges in the United States and from executives, pastors, and teachers. Luther A. Weigle sent lists of comparative readings to the author.

The dictionary was prepared under the auspices of the Literature Board of The Lutheran Church — Missouri Synod. Otto A. Dorn and Elmer E. Foelber gave the author suggestions regarding form and content.

Erich B. Allwardt critically read the entire manuscript, indicated necessary corrections and additions, suggested changes in form, and assisted in the collation of variants.

A

Aalar (ā'ə-lär). See Allar.

Aaron (âr'un, of uncertain meaning). Moses' spokesman and assistant (Ex 4:14-17; 7); 1st head of Hebrew priesthood. B in Egypt, son of Amram and Jochebed, both Levites (Ex 6:20); brother of Moses (Ex 6:20) and Miriam (Nm 26:59; 1 Ch 6:3); married Elisheba (daughter of Amminadab), who bore Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, Ithamar (Ex 6:23); d at 123 on Mt Hor; buried there (Nm 20:22-29).

Aaron was praised for his eloquence (Ex 4:14); regarded coleader with Moses (Ex 7). Helped Hur hold up Moses' hands during battle with Amalekites (Ex 17:12). When Moses tarried on Sinai, Aaron made golden calf (Ex 32). Aaron and Miriam taunted Moses because of his Cushite (KJ: Ethiopian) wife (Nm 12:1). Authority of Aaron vindicated through miracle of rod (Nm 17). Aaron and Moses doubted at Meribah (Nm 20:12).

Moses anointed Aaron and four sons to priesthood, higher order than Levites (Nm 3:1-3). As "holiest of men," Aaron and descendants received offerings from Israelites (Nm 18:8-14). God was his Portion, hence he received no inheritance in Canaan (Nm 18:20). Priestly adornments (breastplate [RSV: breastpiece], ephod, robe, coat, mitre [RSV: turban], girdle) made for Aaron (Ex 28; 39:1-31). Succeeded by Eleazar (Nm 20:28).

Aaronites (âr'un-īts). Priestly descendants of Aaron (KJ: 1 Ch 12:27; 27:17).

Aaron's rod. Proved Aaron's authority by budding; placed before Ark of Testimony (Nm 17; see Heb 9:4).

Abacuc (ăb'ə-kŭk). See Habakkuk.

Abaddon (ə-băd'un, destruction, destroyer. KJ: Rv 9:11. RV: Jb 26:6; Pr 15:11; 27:20; Rv 9:11. RSV: Jb 26:6; 28:22; 31:12; Ps 88:11; Pr 15:11; 27:20; Rv 9:11. KJ, RV translate "destruction" when they do not use Hebrew word). 1. Destruction, ruin (Jb 31:12). 2. Place of ruin for the lost, linked with grave (Ps 88:11) and Sheol (Jb 26:6; Pr 15:11; 27:20). 3. Personified as the Destroyer and linked with Death personified (Jb 28:22). 4. Apollyon (Destroyer), king of bottomless pit (Rv 9:11).

Abadias (ăb-ə-dī'ăs). See Obadiah 10.

Abagtha (ə-băg'thə). Chamberlain of Ahasuerus (Est 1:10).

Abana, Abanah (ăb'ə-nə). "River of Damascus" in Syria (2 K 5:12). Identified with Greek Chrysorrhoas, modern Barada.

Abarim (ăb'ə-rĭm, regions beyond). Region E of Jordan and S of Bashan; its mountains overlook Jordan and Dead Sea (Dt 32:49; Jer 22:20 [KJ: the passages]).

abase. To humble or make low. The proud and wicked are to be abased (Jb 40:11; Eze 21:26). God abases the proud (Jb 22:29; Ps 44:9; Dn 4:37). In NT, RV, RSV translate "humble" where KJ has "abase," except in Ph 4:12.

Abba (ăb'ə, Aramaic, father). Used to express filial address to God (Mk 14:36; Ro 8:15; Gl 4:6). H ab (abi) used in composition of proper names.

Abda (ăb'də, servant). 1. Adoniram's father (1 K 4:6). 2. See Obadiah 5.

Abdeel (ăb'dē-ĕl, servant of God). Shelemiah's father (Jer 36:26).

Abdi (ăb'dī, servant of). 1. Merarite Levite; son of Malluch (1 Ch 6:44; 2 Ch 29:12). 2. Divorced foreign wife (Ez 10:26; 1 Esd 9:27 [RV: Oabdius; KJ omits]).

Abdias (ăb-dī'ăs). See Obadiah 12.

Abdiel (ăb'dĭ-ĕl, servant of God). Gadite chief of Bashan; father of Ahi; son of Guni (1 Ch 5:15).

Abdon (ăb'dŏn, servile). 1. Judge of Israel for 8 years; Ephraimite; son of Hillel (Ju 12:13-15). 2. Benjaminite; son of Shashak (1 Ch 8:23). 3. Benjaminite; ancestor of Saul; son of Jehiel (1 Ch 8:30; 9:35, 36). 4. See Achbor 2. 5. Levitical city in Asher (Jos 21:30; 1 Ch 6:74).

Abednego (ə-bĕd'nē-gō, servant of Nego, or Nebo). Babylonian name given to Azariah (Dn 1:7; 3).

Abel (ā'bel, son? vapor?). 2d son of Adam and Eve; keeper of sheep; murdered by Cain, his jealous, rejected brother (Gn 4:1-16). Abel, a righteous man (Mt 23:35; 1 Jn 3:12), by faith offered more acceptable sacrifice than Cain (Heb 11:4).

Abel (ā'bel, meadow). Prefix for names of towns and places (Gn 50:10, 11; Nm 33:49; Ju 7:22; 2 Sm 20:14, 15). [Abel in 1 Sm 6:18 should probably read "stone" (H 'eben), as RV, RSV.]

Abel-beth-maacah (ā'bel-bĕth-mā'ə-kə, meadow of house of oppression. KJ: -maachah. Abel of Beth-maacah in 2 Sm 20:14 [KJ, RV: Abel and Beth-maac(h)ah], 15. Abel in 2 Sm 20:18). Town in N Palestine known for its prudence and adherence to custom; attacked by Joab (2 Sm 20:14, 15), Ben-hadad (1 K 15:20), Tiglath-pileser (2 K 15:29).

Abel-cheramim, Abel-keramim (ā'bel-kĕr'ə-mĭm, meadow of vineyards. KJ: plain of vineyards). Place E of Jordan, probably near Rabbath Ammon (Ju 11:33).

Abel-maim (ā'bel-mā'ĭm, meadow of waters). Perhaps a name for Abel-beth-maacah (2 Ch 16:4).

Abel-meholah (ā'bel-mē-hō'lə, meadow of the dance). Town (Tell el-Maqlub) near Jordan, N of Jabesh-gilead; birthplace of Elisha (1 K 19:16). Enemies routed by Gideon fled to it (Ju 7:22).

Abel-mizraim (ā'bel-mĭz'rā-ĭm, meadow, or mourning, of Egypt). Name given threshing floor of Atad because of comment of Canaanites when Jacob's sons mourned their father (Gn 50:11).

Abel-shittim (ā'bel-shĭt'ĭm, meadow of acacias. Shittim in Nm 25:1; Jos 2:1). Place in Plains of Moab near Jordan; final camping place of Israelites before entering Canaan (Nm 33:49).

Abez (ā'bĕz, whiteness; tin. RV, RSV: Ebez). Town of Issachar (Jos 19:20).

sheth, Saul's son, king of Israel at Mahanaim but was defeated by David's men (2 Sm 2:8); killed by Joab and Abishai (2 Sm 3:26-30). David mourned him as "a prince and a great man" (2 Sm 3:31-39).

abomination (ă-bŏm-ĭ-nā'shŭn). KJ, RV, RSV use this word (with variations) to translate four Hebrew words: to'ebah (loathsome things, esp. religiously, Gn 43:32; Dt 7:25); piggul (stale sacrificial flesh, Lv 7:18; 19:7); sheqets (flesh of prohibited animals, Lv 7:21); shiqquts (used of objects of idolatry, Dt 29:17; Hos 9:10). Detestable thing (animals, persons, acts, idolatry, etc.).

Abomination of Desolation. Mention in Dn 9:27; 11:31; 12:11 is possibly reference to desecration of sanctuary by Antiochus Epiphanes and idol on the altar (1 Mac 1:54) on which sacrifices were offered to Olympian Zeus. This prophecy not exhausted by this fulfillment but belongs to Messianic times. Christ reiterated prophecy (Mt 24:15, 16; Mk 13:14), referring, perhaps, to statue of Caligula in temple. Figuratively applied to neglect of Gospel and to externalism in church.

Abraham (ā'brā-hăm, father of a multitude), Abram (ā'brăm, exalted father. Name in vogue in Babylonia). Founder of Hebrew nation. Son of Terah; brother of Nahor and Haran. His family, descendants of Shem, lived in Ur of Chaldees. After Haran's death, Terah emigrated to Haran in Mesopotamia with Abram, Abram's wife Sarai, and Haran's son Lot (Gn 11).

In Haran God told Abram to leave his country, kindred, and paternal home for land God would show him; promised to make of him great nation and bless all families of earth in him. Abram, then 75 yrs old, went to Canaan with Sarai and Lot. Abram pitched tent at oak (KJ: plain) of Moreh, where God promised him land and Abram built altar E of Bethel. Famine drove him to Egypt, where Pharaoh took beautiful Sarai into his house after Abram caused her to say she was Abram's sister. Plagues caused Pharaoh to discover deception and dismiss Abram (Gn 12).

Abram with great possessions left Egypt together with Lot and returned to altar near Bethel. Strife between herdsmen of Abram and Lot led to separation; Abram gave Lot choice of land, and Lot chose Jordan plain and pitched tent as far as Sodom. God repeated promise to Abram, who moved to Mamre (Gn 13).

When four kings defeated five of territory where Lot lived and took Lot captive, Abram pursued enemies, recovered spoils, rescued Lot. Thereupon Abram received blessing of Melchizedek, king of Salem (Gn 14).

Promise of Canaan as inheritance confirmed by covenant (Gn 15). Ishmael, son of Hagar, b to Abram (Gn 16). God changed his name to Abraham, promised that His everlasting covenant would be fulfilled in Isaac, and added sign of circumcision (Gn 17). God appeared to Abraham at Mamre; Sarah rebuked for laughter. Abraham pleaded for Sodom (Gn 18). Abraham went to Gerar, denied his wife, who was taken by Abimelech; God revealed deceit in dream, and Sarah was restored (Gn 20).

Isaac born; Hagar and Ishmael cast out (Gn 21). God tested Abraham's faith through command to sacrifice Isaac (Gn 22). Abraham sent servant to get wife for Isaac (Gn 24). Abraham d at 175, buried in cave of Machpelah (Gn 25).

God called Abraham, who later is called friend of God, from a family that served idols (Jos 24:2). God took initiative in covenants in which God binds Himself to give without receiving anything in return. Circumcision (Ro 4:11) is sign of covenant.

By faith Abraham was just, as God wanted him to be, thus becoming the father of believers (Ro 4; Gl 3). This faith showed itself in works (Ja 2:21). In Christ, Abraham's seed, all nations of earth are blessed (Gl 3:16). Believers are spiritual heirs and sons of Abraham (Ro 4:13, 14; Gl 3:29). Covenant with Abraham not disannulled by that of Sinai (by which men are obligated) but remains steadfast for all ages (Gl 3:17, 18).

Abraham's bosom. Term used for everlasting life by Jews (4 Mac 13:17) and Christ (Lk 13:28; 16:22).

agriculture. 1. After conquest, Joshua assigned each tribe a province, each household a small section of land to be its inheritance forever (Jos 13; 14). Family plot was improved from generation to generation by removing boulders, cultivating carefully, building up fertile terraces (Is 5:1, 2).

2. After first fall rain, ground was cultivated by hand with shovel and mattock, or plow drawn by donkey, cow, or ox. Plow was heavy forked branch of tree or branches bound and pegged together so that one long end became the tongue, a shorter one the plowshare (which might be shod with stone or iron), and another the guiding handle. After plow had torn up ground, large lumps were broken up with mattock and raked fine with harrow (bundle of brushwood, or wooden platform shod with stones or iron spikes).

3. Farmer sowed grain by hand, taking it from basket or from fold of his garment. After sowing ground he harrowed it again or drove his animals back and forth to trample seed in.

4. Ripe grain was cut with sickle. Some early sickles were made of lower jawbone of ass or cow. Parallel with these primitive instruments, and crowding them out, were modern-looking sickles of bronze or iron set in wooden handles.

5. After reaper cut grain, he raked it up, tied it into bundles with its own straw. Fallen or missed grain he left for poor gleaners (Ru 2:2, 3). From field to threshing floor he transported grain on rack fixed to cart or bound on back of donkey, or even carried on litterlike frame by two men.

6. Threshing floor was roughly circular plot of clay or limestone rock carefully patched and leveled. Workers opened bundles and spread them about a foot deep over this area. Unmuzzled (Dt 25:4) cows, calves, sheep, and donkeys trampled grain out of straw. Primitive threshing sled or wooden flails also used. Grain was winnowed by tossing straw and grain into the air with wooden shovel or fork and cleansed with sieve. Grain was then washed, dried, stored in vermin-proof jars.

Processes of agriculture are applied to spiritual realm (e. g., Mt 3:12; 9:37, 38; 13:18, 39; Jn 4:35; Gal 6:7). (Klinck) archaeology (är-kē-ŏl'ō-jĭ). Study of material remains of past. Biblical archaeology is concerned with Palestine, ancient countries with which Hebrews came into contact, and countries to which early Christianity was brought. Modern archaeology is usually traced to Napoleon's expedition to Egypt, on which about 100 scholars accompanied him to study monuments (1798). C. J. Rich of East India Company in Baghdad made first excavations in Mesopotamia, Edward Robinson of Union Theological Seminary, New York, made extensive observations in Palestine (1838, 1852). From these beginnings Biblical archaeology developed. Earlier excavators (1800—1890) were primarily concerned with finding objects of interest. Scientific aspects of archaeology, however, soon developed (1890 to 1915). Results of Biblical archaeology are frequently used in Bible dictionaries.

baptism (băp'tĭz'm). LXX uses G bapto for dip or bathe (2 K 5:14; Ps 68:23). Jews baptized proselytes; ceremonial washings (baptismoi) were common (Mk 7:3, 4; Heb 9:10; cf. Lv 14:7; 15; Nm 8:7). John's baptism was connected with repentance and worked forgiveness of sins (Mt 3; Mk 1:4-8; Lk 3:3-18; Jn 1:25 to 28) but differentiated from baptism of Jesus (Lk 3:16; Jn 1:26; Acts 1:5; 11:16; 19:4-6). Jesus' baptism was into work of salvation (Mt 3:13-15; Mk 10:38; Lk 12:50). Baptism brings all benefits (justification, sanctification) which flow from that work (1 Ptr 3:21; Acts 2:38; 22:16; Gl 5:16), since individual thereby participates in death and resurrection of Christ (Ro 6:3-11; Col 2:12) and is made member of Christ (1 Co 1:13; Gl 3:27; Eph 4:5). Baptism is connected with Word and places individual into body of Christ, the church (1 Co 12:13; Gl 3:27, 28; Eph 5:26). Faith receives blessings of baptism (Ro 6:11). Mode of baptism undoubtedly varied (Jn 3:23; Acts 2:38; 8:12, 36; 10:47, 48; 16:15, 33). NT makes no distinction between adult and infant baptism.

Baptism with fire refers to inner purification of Spirit (Mt 3:9-12; Lk 3:16, 17; Acts 2:3; See Is 6:6, 7; Zch 13:9; Ml 3:2, 3; 1 Ptr 1:7).

Barabbas (bă-răb'ăs, son of Abba). Prisoner freed by Pilate at Jesus' trial (Mt 27:16 to 26; Mk 15:7-15; Lk 23:18-25; Jn 18:40). Some G mss: Jesus Barabbas in Mt 27:16, 17.

Barachel (băr'ă-kĕl, blessed of God). Buzite; father of Elihu (Jb 32:2, 6).

elect, election. Man's salvation, its conception, method, outcome, is God's work. In OT God is described as choosing (H bahar) Israel, not because of their qualifications (Dt 7:7; 9:4-6) but because of divine love (Dt 4:37; 7:8; 10:15; 23:5). Election to be followed by fidelity (Dt 7:6-11. See Gn 18:19). Remnant is to inherit blessings of election (Is 4:3; 37:31, 32). OT speaks of God choosing individuals (Neh 9:7; Ps 78:70; 105:26). Gospels speak of Christ choosing (eklegesthai) disciples (Lk 6:13). The elect (eklektoi) are Messianic community (Mt 24:22, 24; Mk 13:20-27). In epistles previous thoughts are systematized; Election (ekloge) roots in eternity, is in Christ, places individuals in company of elect, results from divine love, is understood in entire process of salvation (Ro 9—11; 1 Co 1:27-31; Eph 1:4-14; 1 Ptr 1:2). Election cannot lead to carnal security (2 Ptr 1:10). Elect are members of church (Ro 8:33; 16:13; Col 3:12; Tts 1:1; 1 Ptr 1:1; 2 Jn 13). Reprobation, opposite of election, is absent in NT.

fly. Immense number and great variety of species found in E (Ex 8:21-31; Ps 78:45; Ec 10:1; Is 7:18).

food. 1. Bread and water are "stay and staff" of life (Is 3:1). Wheat most commonly used for flour. Barley, spelt, millet, and lentils also ground in emergencies, or eaten by poor (Eze 4:9, 10). Primitive method of grinding flour was to crush it between two stones. Canaanites used rotary type mill in which cone of upper millstone fit into depression in lower millstone. Common Hebrew mill consisted of two stones: lower stone, 20 to 24 in in diameter and 4 in thick; upper stone slightly smaller. In center of lower stone peg was inserted which was passed through center of wooden crosspiece wedged in 4-in hole in upper stone. Projecting peg near edge of upper stone served as handle. Grain fed into center hole of revolving upper stone was crushed as it moved outward between stones (Mt 24:41; Ex 11:5). Flour carefully sifted.

2. Flour, yeast, salt, olive oil, and water or milk used in making bread. Simplest oven (used in camp or vineyard) was slightly convex, circular plaque of sheet iron, about 30 in in diameter. After plaque had been heated, crackerlike thickness of dough was spread over it and quickly baked. Another type of oven consisted of dome of clay, about 3 ft in diameter and 1½ ft high. Small loaves were placed under this dome and the dome was covered with fire. Another common oven was cylindrical clay structure 3 ft high and 2 ft in diameter, covered by lid. Fire was built in cylinder; after it had burned to live coals, loaves were stuck on inside surface to bake. Community ovens were probably also used. Besides bread Jewish women baked confections of many kinds (Ex 16:31).

3. Vegetables, grown in private plots by family or by truck gardeners, were important part of Hebrew diet. Legumes were extensively grown in all periods of Israel's history. Beans of varieties similar to modern ones were grown in large quantities, dried, and threshed. Lentils, which look like small split peas, are reddish tan in color (Gn 25:34; 2 Sm 17:28). Fitches (RSV: dill) used chiefly as flavoring material (Is 28:25, 27).

4. Melons (Nm 11:5) and cucumbers (Nm 11:5; Is 1:8) grew in both Palestine and Egypt. Onions, garlic, and leeks (Nm 11:5) were always favorites of Israelites. Dill (RSV: Is 28:25, 27; Mt 23:23), mustard (Mt 13:31), coriander seed (Ex 16:31; Nm 11:7) provided strong flavoring. Cinnamon bark (Ex 30:23), mint, cummin (Mt 23:23), saffron (SS 4:14) flavored both food and wine. Parsley, celery, lettuce, cabbage grown. Favorite dish was vegetable stew.

5. Best meat scarce in Palestine and used for special occasions (Lk 15:23; Ex 12:3-10). Meats were stewed or used to flavor vegetable stew. Calf or kid might be stewed in milk but not in that of its mother (Ex 23:19). On special occasions whole animals might be roasted (barbecued) and served (Gn 18:7; Lk 15:23).

6. Fish were taken chiefly from Sea of Galilee, Jordan, and Mediterranean (Mt 4:18-31). Roasted over live charcoal or salted and dried for later use (Jn 21:9-13; Mk 8:7).

7. Fowl, both wild (Lv 11:13-19; Lk 2:23, 24) and domestic (Mt 23:37; Jn 18:27), and eggs (Is 10:14; Lk 11:12) good source of protein.

8. Milk and its products were chief supply of protein, calcium, and fat. Milk of cows (1 Sm 6:7), sheep, and goats (Dt 32:14; Is 7:21, 22) used as beverage at meals (Gn 18:8), especially by children (Heb 5:12, 13). Curds of milk eaten (Gn 18:8; Dt 32:14; Pr 30:33. KJ, RV: butter). Cheese prepared from soured milk (1 Sm 17:18). Butter (Ps 55:21) churned in suspended goatskin from cream skimmed from top of soured milk. (Klinck) homes. 1. Limestone ridge of Palestine honeycombed with caves; these served as homes for shepherds, exiles (1 Sm 24:3; 1 K 18:4; 19:9), outcasts, lepers.

2. Temporary shelters were booths made of 4 upright poles covered with network of twigs and leaves (Jb 27:18; Is 1:8 [KJ: cottage]; Jon 4:5. See Lv 23:34-43). In Jordan valley seasonal homes may have been constructed of woven river reeds, sometimes plastered with mud.

3. Nomadic people dwelt in tents (Gn 4:20), often woven of dark-colored goat or camel hair. Desert tent large, with 2 or more center poles (Ex 26:32) from which tent cloth sloped to within 3 or 4 ft of ground, was held in place by cords (Jer 10:20) tied to tent pins (Is 54:2. See Ju 4:21).

4. In rocky sections of Palestine houses constructed of limestone held together by mortar of slaked lime and sand. Along Mediterranean, as in ancient Shinar (Gn 11:3), houses made of clay. Homes preferably placed on solid footing (Mt 7:24-27), built by placing layer on layer of stone. Door openings made by building squared masonry sides or inserting framework. Doors of heavy planks or slabs of stone. Window openings narrow, high up in walls, usually fitted with latticework of wooden slats (Ju 5:28; 2 K 1:2; Pr 7:6; SS 2:9). At sufficient height roof beams were laid from wall to wall; smaller branches were laid crosswise, covered with rushes or straw; this then covered with alternating layers of clay and straw, finished with pure clay. Wall continued about 3 ft above roof line (Dt 22:8; Jos 2:6; Acts 10:9). Stairway led from street level to roof line. Upper rooms might be built at one side of building (Mk 14:15; Acts 1:13; 1 K 17:19; 2 K 4:10). House might also have one large room with mezzanine floor running along one side, with living quarters above, room for sheep and goats below.

5. On floor were mats and rugs woven of wool, grass, straw, or other fiber; these served as mattresses at night (wealthier homes had couches and beds), took place of chairs during day. In middle of house stood brazier or stove (of iron or bronze) consisting of three legs riveted to one or two circular hoops; or simply circular hole in earthen floor. Fuel was straw, brushwood, charcoal, dried animal dung. Pots and pans were beaten out of copper or bronze. Ladles, spoons, and forks (flesh hooks) were also copper. Knives were of bronze or iron, of various sizes, fitted with wooden handles. Many household utensils (jugs, pitchers, cups, saucers, bowls) were of pottery. Very large pottery jars stored wheat. Every home had its flour mill (Dt 24:6). Wineskins, rings of onions and garlic, dried raisins, etc., were suspended from crossbeams of ceiling.

6. Wealthier homes had walled courtyards or were series of rooms built around open court. As the nation prospered, the wealthy and influential built luxurious mansions and palaces (Am 5:11; 6:4-11; Jn 18:13-27). (Klinck)

Jeruel (jĕ-rōō'ĕl, God founded). Place near En-gedi (2 Ch 20:16).

Jerusalem (jĕ-rōō'sa-lĕm). Name probably connected with H shalom (peace); Tell el Amarna tablets call it Urusalim (city of peace); 33 mi E of Mediterranean, 14 mi W of Dead Sea, on rocky plateau, 2,550 ft high; mean temperature: 63 degrees; water supplied by Gihon Spring (Virgin's Fountain) in Kidron Valley and En-rogel (Job's Well) at juncture of Kidron and Hinnom valleys; reservoirs built in city. Hezekiah cut tunnel in rock to conduct water from Gihon to Upper Pool of Siloam (2 Ch 32:30). Kidron Valley on E side of Jerusalem, Valley of Hinnom (Gehenna) on W and S; Tyropoeon (Valley of Cheesemongers) passed through city.

Jebusite city of David's day was on hill S of Ophel (SE corner of Jerusalem) and was 1,250×400 ft (1 Ch 11:4-8). Solomon extended walls to protect his palaces and temple (1 K 3:1; 9:15). Manasseh extended wall (2 Ch 33:14), and Nehemiah rebuilt it, extending it on N. Herod built or extended walls as found in time of Christ. Hadrian built walls in AD 135. Modern walls are by Suleiman the Magnificent AD 1542. Temple stood on Rock Moriah (Mt Zion), considered site of Gn 22:2-4, 14. Jerusalem has been considered the Salem of Melchizedek (Gn 14:18). Also called Salem (Ps 76:2), Jebus (Ju 19:10, 11), "City of David," Zion (1 K 8:1; 2 K 14:20), City of Judah (2 Ch 25:28), City of God (Ps 46:4), City of the great King (Ps 48:2), Holy City (Neh 11:1).

Jesus (jē'zus, Savior). 1. G form of Jeshua and Joshua. See Jeshua 1; 4; 5; 6; Jose; Joshua 1. 2. Compiler of Sirach (Ecclesiasticus). 3. Paul's friend, also called Justus (Cl 4:11).

Jesus Christ (jē'zus krīst. Jesus is G for H y:hoshu'a: savior. Christ is G for H Mashiah: the anointed). Jesus signifies Savior (Mt 1:21, 25; Lk 1:31). Christ signifies Anointed One (Acts 10:38), the promised Messiah (Mt 16:13-23; Lk 2:25, 26; Jn 1:35-41). See also Messiah.

Logos. Jesus is called Logos (Word; Jn 1:1-14; 1 Jn 1:1; Rv 19:13); shows Messiah as pre-existing Person before incarnation. Logos is Himself living and gives life; creative (Jn 1:3; Ps 147:15-18; Mt 8:24-27; 9:1-8; Cl 1:15-20); preservative (Cl 1:17). Spirit of Word inspired prophets (1 Ptr 1:10, 11).

Son of God. Applied to Jesus in unique sense (Mt 11:27; 16:16; 21:33-41; Mk 12:6, 7; 13:32; Jn 1:14, 18; 3:16-18) which makes Father and Son equal (Jn 10:30; 12:45; 14:8-11; 17). Jesus is distinct Person, eternal Son, begotten by eternal Father (Jn 3:16; Ro 8:3), yet of one substance with Father (Cl 1:19; 1 Jn 5:20); hence He has same attributes (Jn 5:21; 21:17), works (Mt 9:1-8; Jn 5:17, 21, 25; Cl 1:15-20), honor (Jn 5:23).

Son of Man. Jesus used this expression to emphasize His humanity especially in connection with His ministry (Lk 9:56; 19:10), power (Mt 9:6; 12:8), death (Mk 14:21; Lk 22:48; Jn 3:14), resurrection (Mt 17:9; Mk 9:9), ascension (Jn 6:62), 2d coming and judgment (Mt 25:31). He is prophesied man (Gn 3:15; Is 7:14; Gl 4:1-7), New Man, New Adam (Ro 5:12-21; 1 Co 15:22; Ph 2:5-11), who brought in new humanity. Shared in flesh and blood as children do (Ro 9:5; Heb 2:14). Thus Christ is God and man in one person (Jn 1:14; 1 Ti 2:5; Cl 2:9).

Earthly Life. Conceived by Holy Ghost; born of virgin Mary at Bethlehem; circumcised; presented at temple; taken to Egypt; lived at Nazareth (Lk 2:39); visited temple when 12 yrs old (Lk 2:40-52); when about 30 yrs old, baptized by John (Mt 3:13-17; Mk 1:9-11; Lk 3:21-23); tempted by Satan (Mt 4:1-11); began public ministry. Major portion of ministry in Galilee with Capernaum as headquarters; also included Judea, Samaria, even distant regions as that of Tyre and Sidon. Announced and taught kingdom of God, did good, performed miracles, was opposed by Jewish leaders (lawyers, scribes, Pharisees). Taken captive by Jewish leaders in Gethsemane; condemned by judges gathered by high priest; crucified by Pilate on Golgotha; buried in nearby garden; rose from dead on 3d day; appeared to disciples; ascended to heaven. Gospels present facts of Christ's life that fit their objectives (see Jn 20:30, 31).

Servant of God. Jesus is Servant of God (Mt 12:18; Acts 3:13, 26) because He did that which God willed (Mk 14:32-42; Jn 1:29; 4:34; 5:30); served God by saving men (Acts 3:26) in spite of human opposition (Acts 4:27). Thus ultimate fulfillment of Is 53 is seen in Christ (Mk 8:31; 10:33; Ro 4:25).

Savior. Jesus is promised Savior (Lk 2:11, 22-32), who by His life, death, resurrection, and proclamation saves (Mt 1:21; Lk 19:10; Jn 4:42; Acts 4:12; 11:14; 16:31; Ro 5:10; 10:9, 10) those who believe (Acts 16:31) from sin, wrath, and death (Mt 1:21; 1 Ti 1:1; 2; Eph 5:23).

Mediator. Jesus is Mediator between God and man (Gl 3:19, 1 Ti 2:5; Heb 8:6; 9:15; 12:24) by bringing men to God as Prophet, Priest, King. See Offices (below).

Lamb of God. Jesus is Lamb of God in sense that He is sacrificed for sins of world (Jn 1:29, 36; Acts 8:32; 1 Co 5:7; 1 Ptr 1:19; Heb 7:27. See Ex 12; Is 53:7).

Offices. Christ as Prophet announces kingdom of God; reveals to man God in His holiness, mercy, love; performed signs of Kingdom; forgives sins; and through apostles and church proclaims Gospel (Gospels). Christ as Priest fulfilled all righteousness and atoned for all sin in place of mankind by His vicarious life, death, and resurrection (Ro 4:25; 2 Co 5:19; Heb 7). Christ is King in sense that He rules men with truth of God (Jn 18:33-38), namely, New Covenant (Jer 31:31-34; 32:40, 41). He is Son of David, through whom God had covenanted with Israel (2 Sm 7; 23:1-7). Jesus is King of kings and Lord of lords (Mt 28:18). See Lord (below).

States. To perform work of redemption, Christ according to human nature did not use prerogatives He might rightfully claim (humiliation. Ph 2:6-8). Resumption of full and constant use is exaltation (Eph 4:8; Ph 2:9-11).

Lord. God made Jesus LORD (in sense that kurios translates JHVH [LORD, Jehovah], Mk 1:3—Is 40:3) by resurrection from dead (Acts 2:31-36; Ro 1:4; Eph 4:5; Ph 2:5-11; 1 Ti 6:15; Rv 11:15). Authority of Jesus-LORD is authority of God (Mt 28:18; 1 Co 8:4-6). Jesus' lordship is won (Eph 1:21; Ph 2:5-11; Cl 2:6-15) and will be fully revealed at Parousia (Mt 25:31; 1 Co 15:26-28). He is LORD of individual by faith (Lk 23:42; Acts 5:14; 11:17; 1 Co 12:3; 2 Co 3:17; Eph 1:3), and believers live for Him (Ro 14:6-8; 1 Co 15:58; 16:10; Eph 2:21; 5:8-10; 6:4; Cl 1:10). As LORD, Jesus is Head of church, both as supreme authority and as goal (Eph 1:22, 23; 4:15, 16; 5:23, 24; Cl 1:18; 2:10, 19).

Job, Book of. Regarded as literary masterpiece; in it are dramatic, lyric, and epic poetry; didactic and reflective; name from chief character. Estimated dates range from 200 to 1000 B C. Asks how suffering of righteous is compatible with concept of just God. Is human conduct justly rewarded or punished on earth? Job concludes that as he knows God, so God knows him; that his Redeemer lives and he shall see God. Though God's rule is mysterious, He rules for best. True piety needs no external indication but lives on through all conditions (13:15). Outline: 1. Prolog (1, 2). 2. Job Bewails His Birth, Yearns for Death (3). 3. Three Series of Debates Between Job and His Friends (4—31). 4. Speech of Elihu (32—37). 5. Speech of LORD from Storm Cloud (38 to 41). 6. Job's Submission and Restoration (42).

judgment. OT: Occasionally administration of justice (2 Sm 15:4; 1 K 3); usually keeping people in right relation to covenant (Is 11; 61). God's judgments are salvation, victory, deliverance of covenant God (Dt 32:36; Ju 5:11; Is 30:18; Jer 30:11). Judgment, however, is not on purely national line but based on relationship to Jehovah (Is 2:12; Am 5:18). Judgment preserves remnant (Is 6:13). Judgments point to final judgment, Day of Jehovah, which centers in God's self-expression (Is 25; Zch 14). NT: Sometimes administration of law (Jn 18:31; Acts 23:3); usually judgment of God and includes salvation of believers (Lk 18:1-8; 2 Th 1:5-10; Ro 1:18-32; 1 Co 11:29-32), culminates in Final Judgment (Mt 11:20-24; 25:31-46; Jn 16:11; 1 Th 4:13-18). Final judgment belongs to God (Mt 18:35; Ro 14:10) and administered by Christ (Mt 25:31-46). Angels (Mk 8:38), believers collaborate (1 Co 6:2, 3). Judgment is salvation to believers, condemnation to unbelievers (Mt 25:31-46). Criterion of judgment is Law (Mt 25); since Law has been fulfilled by Christ, relationship to Him is decisive factor (Mt 10:32, 33; Ro 8:1-17; Gl 5:13-25).

Kings had scepters (Ps 45:6), crown (2 K 11:12), throne (1 K 2:19), palace (1 K 7:1-12), etc. Officers of king included army officers (1 Sm 14:50), captain of bodyguard (2 Sm 20:23), recorder (2 Sm 8:16; 20:24), secretary (2 Sm 8:17), overseers (1 K 4:6; 2 Sm 20:24), counselors (2 Sm 15:12), and others.

kingdom of God. In OT God is described as King, that is, majestic and sovereign (Nm 23:21; Dt 33:5). He is King over whole earth (Ps 47:7), Israel (1 Sm 12:12; Is 44:6. Kings were God's representatives), remnant faithful to LORD (Mi 4:7), future spiritual kingdom (Is 9; 11; 61; Jer 23:5, 6; 33:15, 16) which includes all nations (Is 2:4; Jl 3:9-11; Zch 9:10). Gospel of Kingdom is proclamation of coming of God's reign. Kingdom comes through Word (Lk 4:43; 8:1; 9:11), actions (Mt 11:4, 5), casting out demons (Mt 12:25-28). Christ is Bearer and Fulfiller of Kingdom (Mt 12:28; Lk 17:20, 21). People enter Kingdom through repentance and faith (Mt 18:3, 4; Jn 3:3—5). Membership in Kingdom produces self-denial and conformity to virtues of Kingdom (Mt 5—7; 19:12; Lk 9:60-62), culminates in cross and resurrection (Mt 26:29; Mk 14:25; Lk 22:15-30). Christ entered Kingdom by resurrection and ascension (Mt 28:18; Lk 24:26. See Jesus Christ). Its disclosure awaits Parousia (Acts 1:11). Church proclaims Kingdom by proclaiming Christ.
